

Chapter 351 I Beg You

Just as Xavier was about to run away, the cold voice stopped him.

He turned around and looked at the gloomy man. “Is there anything else, Mr. Monor?”

“Find the location of Spencer’s private island.”

Xavier was just about to ask why did they need to find Spencer’s private island since Mrs. Monor had already returned. However, when he met with the pair of cold eyes, that were staring at him gloomily, he swallowed his words. He nodded heavily, “I will send someone to find it!”

With that, he turned around and hurriedly ran out of the office.

Xavier bumped with Michelle outside. Michelle noticed the sweat on Xavier forehead, along with his ugly expression. He could not help but ask curiously, “What happened? Did you get scolded?”

Xavier sighed heavily. He shook his head and said with a bitter face, “I have already reported the incident in Eastern Europe to Mr. Monor, but I didn’t expect him to want to kill Clerance directly. Mr. Monor and Mr. Hall have a good relationship. If he really killed Clerance, then I am afraid their relationship would turn bitter.”

Xavier could not help but scold Amber in his heart. If it was not that woman, all these things would not have happened.

Now Ryan was behaving like a monster, with no emotions and humanity. First, he locked Elena up and now he wanted to kill Clerance and his group. If it was before Ryan would not have taken such impulsive actions.

Although Xavier did not know what had happened between Ryan and Elena, but he vaguely felt that ever since Ryan came out of Elena’s room, his behaviors had changed. He had become even more angry and paranoid, otherwise he would not have given a death warrant for Clerance.

Michelle sighed as well, “Sigh. . . Fate is playing tricks on people. You should do whatever Mr. Monor wants. Anyway, the relationship between Mr. Hall and Clerance wasn’t good to begin with. Mr. Hall wouldn’t say anything even if Mr. Monor killed Clerance.”

With that he patted Xavier’s shoulder, “We just need to carry out the orders. As per the rest, it’s not in our hands.”

Michelle had gone to visit Elena before, but he didn’t expect to see a pale and weak woman sitting there motionlessly as if her soul had been extracted. The food that was sent over every day was untouched. She neither ate anything nor did she say a word as if she had gone silly.

Michelle had spent some time with Elena before. She had a cheerful and lovely personality. She was that type of person who could bring anyone into smiling.

It was really hard to relate that silent and motionless woman to the lovely and cheerful Elena.

Xavier also understood this point. As long as Elena and Ryan hadn’t reconciled, they all were going to have a hard time. No one knew what would Ryan do next.

With the thought of this, Xavier asked Michelle to handle the matters in Eastern Europe, while he went to Elena’s room.

When he pushed open the door and went in, the situation was still the same. The food on the table was intact. She hadn’t even touched it. She was sitting still on the bed and looking outside the window blankly.

Xavier sighed and went to the bedside. Looking at her pale and lifeless face, he could not help but try to persuade her. “Madam, why are you torturing yourself like this? This will not do any good. Please eat something.”

Xavier had known Elena from the day she married Ryan. After knowing each other for such a long time, Xavier felt sad when he saw Elena like this.

Originally this whole matter had nothing to do Elena. It was Amber who proposed that despicable plan and it was Ryan who agreed to act with her. But Elena became the victim of their act.

Had Ryan told her that very moment, Elena would not have to endure all this pain on the first place.

But Ryan was too over-protective and paranoid. In his opinion, Elena would be in danger if he disclosed these things to her, which was the biggest problem between them.

Xavier did not doubt on Ryan’s feeling for Elena. Ryan indeed loved Elena more than anything, but what was the meaning of that love if the other person began to be afraid of him?

Even Xavier felt that Ryan was too extreme this time. He shouldn’t have locked Elena up. But Ryan would not listen to anyone now.

Elena remained silent. She wasn’t torturing herself but that man was.

Xavier sighed again when he saw her unresponsive behavior. He took the cold dishes and chopsticks and was about to went out.

Just then, Elena suddenly turned around and pulled Xavier’s sleeve.

Xavier was shocked and quickly looked at Elena behind him, "Madam, you. . ."

“Xavier. . .” Elena called out and her eyes turned red. Tears began to roll down from her eyes and she begged bitterly, “Xavier, I beg you. Please help me to escape.”

Xavier’s expression immediately changed. Panic appeared on his normally calm face. He quickly said, “Madam, what are you doing? Mr. Monor will kill me! Please don’t do it.”

Elena shook her head. She continued to grab his sleeve. “Ryan is crazy now. He will only torture me if I stay here. Look I have already become like this. I have nothing to gain or lose. I only want to stay away from that man now. My two children are still waiting for me. I have to go to them.”

Elena cried sadly. She hoped that Xavier could understand her situation.

When he heard about the two children, Xavier suddenly remembered that Elena had taken the twins away with her when she ran away from Hai City last time. With so many things happening simultaneously, he had totally forgotten about the twins.

Xavier turned serious and quickly asked, “Madam, you came alone. Where are the twins?”
