

Chapter 352 Confidential Information

Elena wiped her tears and said, “The twins are in Spencer’s private island, but I don’t know the exact location.”

When Spencer took her to his island, he did not mention about its location, nor did she ask him, so she did not know where the place was.

Xavier nodded. No wonder Ryan asked him to find the location of Spencer’s private island before. Ryan’s propose must be to bring the twins back.

Seeing Xavier silent, Elena continued, “Xavier, you know how young they are. They are not even six months old. I cannot leave them alone in that isolated island with the care of a few caregivers. I am not at ease. I haven’t seen them these few days, so I don’t know how they are doing right now. I want to be by my children’s side.”

Elena did not hide her thoughts. Xavier was different from Ryan. He would definitely understand her point.

She did not know too many people here. Other than Michelle, Xavier and Ryan, he did not know anyone else in KING headquarters. Therefore, she could only ask for Xavier's help in order to escape from this place.

Elena knew very well that KING headquarters was not like Monor Group. It’s every corner was filled with high-tech security measures. Without proper help and guidance, she could never get out of this place.

Now, Xavier was in a difficult situation. Ryan was his boss and benefactor. He could never betray Ryan. But when he saw Elena’s situation and heard her talk about the two little children staying alone among a bunch of random people, his heart could not help but waver.

Xavier had seen the twins from the day they were born, thus, he naturally had some feeling for them. The twins were indeed too young for staying away from their mother. They should not forcefully separate a mother from her children.

Xavier's brows were tightly knitted together. He was in a dilemma. He did not know how to answer Elena.

Elena saw Xavier’s silent appearance and sighed. Xavier was Ryan’s subordinate after all. He was naturally loyal to Ryan. Why would he help her?

Ryan had already sent people to guard this place. There was no way she would have the chance to escape.

Elena gently wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes. Her tone was soft yet distant, “Sorry, I made things difficult for you.”

Elena had told Paul that she would go back as soon as possible, but even after waiting for so long, Ryan still had no intention of letting her go.

She did not know how long Ryan was planning to lock her here.

Xavier saw Elena’s disappointed look and thought it was a good chance to tell her the truth. He said seriously, “Madam, things are not as you thought it is. There is nothing between Mr. Monor and Amber. That day actually. . .”

Halfway through his words, Xavier caught a glimpse of a person. In a second, he changed his words, “Madam, you should eat something first. You haven’t eaten anything these few days. How can your body bear it? Mr. Reynolds is very worried.”

As he said, he kept looking outside. Elena instantly understood his meaning.

There must be someone outside the door. Without a word, she once again sat on the bed and ignored everyone.

Xavier said, “The food has turned cold. I will send something for you to eat later.”

After he finished speaking, Xavier bent down to take the food plates, while he kept an eye on outside. Seeing the shadow outside moving, he quickly whispered to Elena, “Every day at 3.30 PM, the whole security staff change shifts.”

Hearing this, Elena suddenly turned to look at him. She was somewhat surprised. She did not expect Xavier to tell her such a confidential information.

Xavier had already taken a few steps back. He bowed and said, “Take care, Madam.”

He went out after that.

When Xavier walked out of the door, as he had expected, there was indeed someone outside the door.

He immediately saw the security chief of KING headquarters. He was eavesdropping outside the door before.

It was a blonde man named Jason.

Jason was a hardworking and diligent man. He was also loyal to them, but he was too noisy. Once he knew something, it meant the whole company knew about it.

The moment Jason saw Xavier, he immediately greeted him, “Mr. Xavier.”

Xavier nodded and saw that Jason keep peeking behind him. His face turned cold and he took a step forward to block Jason’s line of sight. He asked, “Is there any problem, Jason?”

“Oh. No. No, Mr. Xavier.” Jason immediately put on a big smile, which was completely hypocritical. He asked in an inquiring manner, “Mr. Xavier, is the lady inside Mr. Reynolds’s girlfriend?”

Jason was really curious. It was said that Mr. Reynolds had specially instructed people to take care of a woman these few days. But as per who she was, they did not know.

He had asked Michelle about it before, but Michelle just shook off the topic. Jason hoped to find some news from Xavier.

He had been working in the KING headquarters for so many years, yet he had never heard Leonardo Reynolds bringing a woman here before. Some people even said that Leonardo Reynolds was not a normal man.

But if the woman inside was really Leonardo Reynolds’s girlfriend, then this would be a breaking news in the whole Western Europe.

“You want to know?” Xavier looked at Jason with a fake smile. “Why don’t you ask Mr. Reynolds about it yourself?”

Other than Michelle, no one knew about Ryan’s original background here. For them, there was no Ryan Monor exist in this world, but only Leonardo Reynolds.

This was why Xavier could not able to finish his words before, because if he told Elena the truth and Jason heard about it, then Ryan’s original identity would be exposed.

Western Europe was not like Hai City. In Hai City, they only needed to guard against a few people. But in Western Europe, everyone was their enemy.

Even the walls had ears. Their every word and every action could be noticed by their enemies. Thus, they had to think ten times before saying anything.

This was also the reason why Ryan had kept his identity hidden all these years. Other than numbing the people in Hai City, Ryan also wanted to protect himself and his family from the complicated situation of Western Europe.

Otherwise, the consequences would be very bad.

It was not easy for Ryan to come out from his dark past and sit in the throne of KING. He could not afford to lose it.

Moreover, Elena was Ryan’s wife. Sooner or later, she would know the truth and forgive Ryan. Therefore, it was best for Xavier not to make any mistakes and say something stupid in front of the outsiders.
