

Chapter 363 Do You Really Know The Truth?

Ryan’s reply was nonchalant. This was the rule of his life. If someone dared to mess with him, he would follow that person to ends of the world.

Clarence did not reply to Ryan, instead he asked, “Where is Jackson?”

This time, Clarence was not as overbearing as before, instead, he had been tempered.

Ryan chuckled, “Jackson is my man. It’s my choice who he’ll meet. You should know why I forbid you to see him.”

Clarence looked at Ryan for a moment before he laughed coldly, “I am Jackson’s biological father.”

This one sentence was enough to solve many problems. He was Jackson’s biological father and Jackson was Ryan’s friend. Ryan couldn’t possibly kill his best friend’s biological father, right?

Last time, Ryan had left him for this reason. Clarence was confident that this time too he would be able to escape from Ryan’s clutches through Jackson.

Not to mention, he even had a secret about Ryan’s mother.

“Hehe, you think too highly of yourself. Do you think that Jackson would still be willing to see you after all the things you’ve done to him? The moment you abandoned them back then, you were no longer qualified to be called his father.”

Ryan voice was cold. Jackson had never considered Clarence as his father. Therefore, Clarence could not use this excuse for his benefit.

Hearing this, Clarence’s face showed a little anger, “You are not Jackson! How do you know what he is thinking? Ryan Monor, even if your relationship with Jackson is very good, you can’t make the decision for him.”

Clarence said angrily. He only wanted to see Jackson now.

Ryan’s eyebrows rose in amusement. He was enjoying this conversation.

“Xavier, why didn’t you tell me earlier he has amnesia? I would have called some doctors. After all, he’s my best friend’s biological father.” Ryan stressed on the word ‘biological father’.

Sarcasm was filled in his words. He was clearly mocking Clarence.

Clarence frowned. He didn’t understand Ryan’s words. “What do you mean?”

“What I mean is you seem to have forgotten that you’re under my control now. Whether you meet someone or not is not up to you to decide. In fact, even your live is at my disposal.”

“You...!” Clarence was so angry that he couldn’t say anything for a long time. He just fiercely glared at Ryan.

But his glare had no affect on the man. He leaned back on his chair and looked at Clarence as if he was watching a clown.

Ryan was willing to come here to see him just because Michelle had told him that Clarence had a secret to tell him. Otherwise, why would he be here wasting his time with him?

Clarence calmed down soon. As if he remembered something, his eyes lit up. He gave a strange smile. “Yes. My life and death is in your hand. And I’m sure you’ll kill me in short time. But before that, don’t you want to know about a little secret of your mother?”

Xavier, who was standing at the side, suddenly frowned. Although there were many complications between Ryan and his mother, Ryan would never allow others to talk about Layla.

Xavier had a bad hunch. Clarence bringing Layla up was equivalent to touching Ryan’s bottom line. For once, Ryan could have let go of the problems he had caused for them, but since Clarence had mentioned Layla, Ryan would not let go now.

As expected, Ryan’s expression immediately changed. With a dark face, he raised his hand and gestured the bodyguards to leave. Only Michelle and Xavier remained with Ryan in the room.

“Why are you sending them away? Afraid that they will know about the shameful existence of yours? Or that your graceful and honorable mother is a mistress?” Clarence said boldly. Seeing Ryan’s dark face, Clarence’s face revealed a smile of satisfaction.

Ryan looked at Clarence coldly. In the next second, he stood up and grabbed Clarence’s neck. His face was livid, “Clarence Hall, you’re courting death!”

Ryan put a great force. Clarence’s face changed in an instant. But he still continued to speak without fear. “Why are. . . you so angry? Is it... so hard to handle?”

Ryan’s lips twitched. He increased the force on Clarence’s neck.

Colors faded from Clarence’s face. His face changed between blue and green. His hands were tied so he couldn’t struggle. He could only passively endure when Ryan choked him.

If this continued, he would definitely be strangled to death by Ryan today.

Both Michelle and Xavier were extremely stressed. Ryan was furious. If this continued, Ryan would surely kill Clarence.

Although Clarence’s death would not affect Ryan, they still did not want Ryan to be involved in a murder.

“Mr. Monor, let go of him! You’ll kill him!” Xavier could not help but try to persuade the man.

Ryan ignored him. He continued to strangle Clarence.

Just when Clarence was about to suffocate to death, Ryan suddenly shook him off.

His breath was rigid and his eyes were filled with bloodthirst. Like a terrifying beast, he looked at Clarence coldly and fiercely. He really had the urge to kill this man just before.

Layla was his mother. Though the relationship between them was complicated, he would never allow someone to insult his mother.

But right then, Elena and the twins’ faces came in front of his eyes.

He was not alone now. He was a husband of someone and a father of two children. He couldn’t stain his hands with blood like before.

Not for himself, but for his family.

If he wanted someone dead, he had thousands of ways to do it. He didn’t need to personally do it.

The moment Ryan let go, Clarence leaned to the side and began to cough violently. His vision went dark due to lack of oxygen.

Ryan almost killed him just now.

It took him some time to stabilize himself. He was in a sorry state now.

Raising up his head, Clarence looked at the man who was looking at him gloomily and his lips curled up.

“Don’t you want to know how your father and mother met?” Clarence’s voice was extremely hoarse and dry. But it definitely couldn’t hide the provocation in his tone.

Xavier looked at Clarence speechlessly. He had never seen such a shameless man before. Ryan almost strangled him a few minutes ago, yet he still dared to provoke Ryan.

Ryan stared at Clarence coldly. His hand around the armrest of the chair curled up and veins popped up. But he didn’t attack Clarence like before.

Now even he was curious about the secret Clarence wanted to tell him.

He didn’t say anything in reply.

“Aren’t you curious how I know about your mother? Heh. Ryan Monor, you always act high and mighty but do you think you really know the truth?” Clarence smiled smugly, “You know nothing!”

Let alone Ryan, even Xavier and Michelle were confused by Clarence’s words.

What did he want to say? Was there really a secret about Layla that no one knew?

Ryan’s face was indifferent. He had totally calmed down now and got his rationality back. He stayed silent and waited for Clarence to finish his words.

Clarence snorted when he didn’t get any response from the man. He continued with his own, “Haven’t you ever wondered why Layla coincidentally met Charles when Charles was on some business trip in Western Europe? Charles was a big name but he was still a nobody in front of Layla Anderson. Then why he fell in love with her at first sight? At that time, he already had a wife and son, why did he still pursue Layla?”

Clarence said boldly. He had nothing to worry now. The foundation he worked so hard to obtain was completely destroyed by Ryan. He was held hostage in Ryan’s hands. There was not much he could do.

But if he could make Ryan uncomfortable by mentioning his mother’s matter, even if he died later, he would not regret it.

“You must not know, right?” Clarence had a strange expression on his face. “Before Layla met with Charles, she was engaged with another man. She liked that man too. But after meeting with Charles, she broke her engagement out of blue. Her family didn’t agree with it, but she went against her family to be with Charles.”

“Both of us know Layla wasn’t that stupid to trust any man blindly. She could easily investigate Charles’s background and know that he’s married. Then why did she not do that? Why did she have an affair with Charles despite being engaged with someone else? And the most unbelievable thing was that she even agreed to give birth to you.”

Clarence paused and looked straight at Ryan’s eyes, “Layla and Charles were not married. Giving birth to you was equivalent to losing her status and honor. So why did she not care about the consequences and chose to be with Charles?”
