

Chapter 366 Killed Two Birds With One Stone

With that thought in mind, Jackson opened the back door of the car and sat beside Ryan.

Xavier and Michelle were already in the car. As soon as Jackson got in, Xavier started the car.

Ryan had his eyes closed and was leaning on his seat. No one could tell his inner thoughts with his straight and indifferent face.

Jackson made up his mind and asked, “Ryan, you better tell me what’s going on!”

After his anger was diminished, Jackson’s brain began to function normally again and he realized that Ryan could not do such a lowly thing. But what exactly had happened?

Ryan did not look at Jackson. Instead, he turned his head out of the window.

It was a silent rejection.

Jackson’s confusion grew even more. He knew Ryan from his childhood. Ryan was stubborn, ruthless and sometimes a little paranoid. But he was not that type of person who would betray his own family.

This was largely due to his childhood. He grew up in an environment where he never got any familial love and attention. Therefore, when Elena came to his life, he became very obsessive and protective towards her.

After Elena’s kidnapping, Ryan had become even more careful towards her.

Protective nature is a good thing but overprotection often leads to trouble.

Jackson understood Ryan’s nature but he could not understand how this led to Ryan and Amber’s affair.

Ryan didn’t want to tell him, but Jackson was not going to give up that easily. He snorted, “Fine. Don’t tell. I’ll directly ask sister-in-law about this!”

Ryan immediately turned to Jackson. He threatened with a dark face, “Don’t you dare.”

“Either you tell me or I’ll ask her.” Jackson didn’t back up.

Ryan looked at Jackson for a few seconds before looking away. He said coldly, “You better not involve in it. I’ll solve it myself.”

“Fine. Next time when Clarence’s matter comes up, I’ll tell you the same!” Although Jackson’s tone was not as cold as Ryan’s, it was not any better either.

In the end, Ryan had no option but to tell Jackson everything. It was not that he wanted to disclose it but Jackson didn’t give him any way.

Jackson jumped on his seat once he heard about it. It was just that he was sitting otherwise he would have stomped on his feet.

“Ryan, did you go crazy? Why did you agree to help that woman on the first place? Whether she wanted to marry or not was her problem! Why did you involve yourself in this mud?”

Jackson couldn’t understand. Ryan was such a smart and calculative person. How could he not see through this matter and jump in it without caring about any consequences?

“She threatened me.” Ryan’s voice was very soft.

“And you listened? If she threatened you, why didn’t you take any action?” Jackson asked unbelievably.

“At that time taking any action against her was equivalent to throwing a stone on my own feet. It was a premeditated plan. Someone was watching my every step. If I did anything, they would have directly targeted my family.”

“What about Amber? Was what happened to her an accident or she was involved in it too?” Jackson suddenly asked.

Ryan’s entire persona got cold as soon as Amber was mentioned. This sudden coldness was felt by the other three men present in the car.

Jackson who was sitting beside Ryan couldn’t help but shiver.

“It doesn’t matter.” The man said after a pause.

“Huh?” Jackson couldn’t understand him.

Ryan turned to Jackson. His face was so cold that he did not look like a normal person. “Whether she’s involved in it or not doesn’t matter. She has to pay the price even if she’s not the part of it.”

Ryan was always doubtful about Amber’s actions. He had realized a long time ago that she was not what she presented herself to be.

But he continued with this façade because it didn’t matter to him.

However, it was only when she asked him to help her break her marriage, Ryan got to know her true intentions. She did not just want to break her marriage with William but she was coveting him too.

He refused her right away.

But series of unexpected things happened afterwards. Amber was kidnapped and raped. She was found in Monor Group’s parking lot.

According to her, those people were targeting Elena but mistook her. She wanted him to take responsibility for her or else she would drag Elena in it.

Ryan found this whole thing very puzzling. Later when he investigated, he found some clues which proved that someone was really targeting him and his family.

Ryan was in a difficult situation at that time. He didn’t know who was after him and didn’t know their purpose. Amber was putting pressure on him too.

Amber was a paranoid and selfish woman. Although Ryan didn’t know if she was involved in her own kidnapping or not, he understood one thing. If he didn’t listen to her, she could go to any extent to make him agree.

Therefore, agreeing to her request was the safest and most convenient choice. He could reach those people through Amber.

But while doing all this, he forgot about one person. That was Elena.

He got so busy in this matter that he completely ignored Elena’s situation. As the result, he missed to find out her pregnancy.

That was a huge mistake from his side which made him pay a great price.

That day someone must have informed Elena, that’s why she appeared in his office in the precise time.

And the person who informed her. . . it didn’t take a genius to find out who did it.

Only three people were present there. William was dumbfounded. He couldn’t inform Elena.

Then there was only one person left.

Amber made an excellent plan and killed two birds with one stone.

If Ryan wasn’t the one who suffered from this, he would have praised Amber.

Ryan’s eyes narrowed. Now it didn’t matter if Amber was involved with those people or not. She was to blame for Elena’s sufferings.

“Where is sister-in-law?” Jackson’s voice broke his train of thoughts.

“In the headquarters.”

Ryan’s eyes dimmed when he thought about Elena. He originally thought that he would tell her everything today. But he again couldn’t.

Right now, he first needed to solve the matter with the royal family.

Clarence was right about one thing. If the royal family really wanted to deal with him, he would be in a very difficult situation.

Ryan was not afraid of the royal family, but Elena and his children were in Western Europe now. He couldn’t take any risk with his family.

In the time of crisis, he needed to protect his family first.

The car stopped at the parking lot of KING headquarters.

Ryan got down. Jackson followed him. He wanted to meet with Elena.

Ryan objected it first, but Jackson was too persistent. Perhaps, Elena’s mood would improve seeing Jackson.

They took the elevator and came to the 40th floor. Ryan was talking with Jackson along the way.

Jackson was originally on a business trip and was in US for a long time. He returned to Hai city a few days ago and only then did he know about the shocking news about Ryan and Amber’s affair that was still broadcasting on major medias in Hai City.

The moment Jackson knew about it, he rushed to Ryan’s home. But no one was there, expect Mrs. Baker.

After asking Mrs. Baker, Jackson came to know that Elena met with an accident and had a miscarriage. She went missing afterwards and Ryan went to Western Europe to find her.

Hearing this, Jackson immediately tried to contact Ryan but he couldn’t. Therefore, he rushed to Western Europe in the first possible moment.

When he came here, he was informed that Ryan went to meet with Clarence. Jackson knew where Ryan usually kept people, thus, he directly showed up at the warehouse.

They reached the 40th floor. Ryan led the way and took Jackson to Elena’s room.

“What happened there?”

Halfway through, Ryan suddenly heard Jackson’s voice. He raised his head and saw a group pf people gathering at the door of Elena’s room from afar. Those people were looking inside the room while whispering something with each other.

Ryan’s heart skipped a beat. A horrible thought appeared in his mind. Could it be that. . .

A shiver ran through his spine and he rushed towards Elena’s room.

Ryan pushed those people who were blocking the door to the side and went inside the room.

When those people saw Ryan, their faces immediately paled. They all took a few steps back and didn’t even dare to breath. They did not know what the President would do with them when he found out about the lady.

Inside the room, Ryan began to look for Elena. The room wasn’t too big itself. It only consists of a bedroom and bathroom. But Ryan felt it exceptionally big at this time.

Ryan looked at every nook and corner of the room as if she was hiding somewhere, but he found nothing.

Elena wasn’t there.

Finally, he shouted at the top of his lungs, “Where is Elena? Where is she?”

Not to mention his employees, even Jackson, Xavier and Michelle got scared by the man’s roar.

Xavier was dumbfounded. Elena ran away again? But how?

They had the best security system in the headquarters. Even a fly couldn’t get out without their permission. How could Elena possible run away?

Thinking about this, Xavier suddenly remembered the day when he couldn’t see Elena’s pitiful appearance and told her the timing of security staff change.

Could it be that Elena escaped at that time?
