

Chapter 373 Amber Wants To Force Him Back

Ryan turned to look at Layla, his gaze was scrutinizing.

Layla did not expect Ryan to suddenly ask this. She was stunned for a moment before her expression changed.

In fact, it was Charles who told her about this.

Charles contacted her because he could not find Ryan and wanted to know if she heard something from Ryan.

Layla originally did not want to care when Charles contacted her, but Charles was persistent and kept calling her. She had no option but to answer in the end.

It was only then she knew that such a big matter had happened in Hai city.

But she did not want to admit that Charles had contacted her.

Ryan was still staring at her. His dark eyes were calm as if he already knew what was going on.

Layla felt a little uncomfortable from being stared by Ryan. She changed her position and said calmly, “That’s not important. There is something I must remind you. You should return to Hai city soon after solving this problem. The situation there is getting serious.”

After Charles contacted her, Layla had sent her people to investigate about the matter. She did not expect the situation of Hai city to be so serious.

This matter had seriously affected Ryan’s public image. The share price of the Monor Group had been dropping recently. Broad members were very dissatisfied with the situation and there were frequent emergency board meetings taking place in the Monor Group.

But Ryan, the main character of the whole situation, was missing and no one could contact him.

Roman was taking advantage of the situation to fan the flames. He had already pulled some of the unsatisfied directors to his sides and they were planning to remove Ryan from the President’s position.

The situation was getting severe.

Ryan naturally knew about the situation of Hai City.

“The matters in Hai City have already been settled. There’s no need to go back.”

Spencer, who was helping Roman, had already returned to Western Europe.

Without Spencer’s support, Roman was just a lone soldier. How much trouble could he cause?

Even if Roman did something, Ryan was not in the mood to deal with that. Now that his own life was a mess, Ryan did not want to care about others.

However, Layla shook her head. “It’s not only about the company. Did you forget the real reason behind all the problems?”

Layla’s face was grave. She said seriously, “Now the entire Hai city know that Amber Thomas was carrying your child. There is not a single place where Amber hasn’t flaunted about her relationship with you. I’m afraid your reputation in the Hai City will be tarnished if this continued. Now that Amber can’t see you, of course she wants to force you back.”

Amber originally wanted to use this matter to tie Ryan and herself together. But now that Ryan wasn’t in Hai City, Amber definitely would not sit still.

Amber even came in front of media to announce the child she was carrying was Ryan’s. Layla would not be surprised if Amber did something more excessive.

Of course, Ryan knew what Amber was thinking. But what did it had to do with him?

It wasn’t his child and he did not care what Amber thought.

Once Elena knew the truth, he would make a public announcement. What happened to Amber after then, it wasn’t his problem.

“I’ll take care of it.” Right now, he could only say these few words.

“You better do it soon. Elena has already suffered enough. I don’t want her to go through the same pain again and again.” Even Layla felt disgusted when she saw those news reports, not to mention Elena, who was Ryan’s wife.

Ryan lowered his head and his eyes darkened.

“Furthermore, don’t forget that there is still the Langford family. You are now their sworn enemy and they would not let go of the Monor family.” Layla reminded.

The Langford family was not a place to be trifled with. How could a force that could attract the attention of the Thomas family swallow their anger?

Initially, the marriage between the Langford family and the Thomas family had already begun. But because Amber revealed that she was pregnant with Ryan’s child, the engagement between the two families had broken. From that moment on, the Langford family had regarded the Monor family as their mortal enemy.

The whole Monor family was going to pay a price if Ryan did not act quickly.

Ryan could not help but frown when he heard this. He turned to look at Layla in disbelief. “Are you worried for me or for Charles? Mom, it has been so many years. Why can’t you let go of that man? What’s so good about him?”

Ryan did not like Layla being so concerned about the Monor family.

Previously, the Monor family had hurt Layla very much. Ryan did not want Layla to have any contacts with Charles.

Layla was stunned for a moment when she heard Ryan’s words. She immediately flared into rage. “What are you talking about? Of course, I am worried about you! What does that bastard Charles have to do with me?”

The thing Layla hated the most was when someone said she still cared about Charles. She did not expect Ryan, out of all the people, to remind her this.

Layla immediately stood up. She looked down at Ryan coldly. “I have already conveyed the message to you. Whether you return or not is your choice.”

With that, she lifted her feet and left the office angrily. She even slammed the door shut.

Ryan’s face was dark. He did not stop Layla.

Xavier, who was outside, saw Layla coming out of the office and quickly walked over. When he saw Layla’s angry face and pursed lips, he understood that the mother and son had quarrelled again.

It was always like this. The mother and son duo carried the same nature in their bloods. Both were extremely stubborn and strong-willed.

They never listened to other people.

Xavier sighed. After seeing Layla out, he went to Ryan’s office.

Ryan was sitting behind the desk with a cold face. Xavier could not guess what happened between the mother and son this time.

“Mr. Monor, Madam had left. . .” Xavier said quietly. Although he wanted to persuade Ryan, as a subordinate, Xavier knew his limits and that he could not speak in Ryan’s personal matters.

“It’s fine.” Ryan waved his hand. “Keep an eye on the Foster family. Report to me immediately if there is any sign of disturbance.”

If Elena’s departure was really related to the Foster family, Ryan would not let go of them this time.

Now, he had no idea where Elena had gone to.

Western Europe was not like Hai City. It was like a tiger’s den, ready to swallow people at any time. Ryan did not know if Elena would meet with any problems.

There was also another possibility.

The royal family was now eyeing on Ryan’s KING Group. Ryan did not know how much the royal family knew about him.

But if they knew about his personal life and his relationship with Elena, then it would be quite troublesome if the royal family pray on Elena.

Thinking about this, Ryan immediately felt an onset of a migraine crawled behind his temples.

Things were getting quite serious. He needed to solve it before the problem got out of hand.

Ryan and Xavier were discussing their next move, when there was a sudden commotion outside.

“You can’t enter without permission.”

“Let me go. It’s urgent.”

Ryan immediately frowned. He knew these voices belonged to Michelle and Spencer respectively.

Before he could say anything, the door of the office was flung open. Two men rushed inside in the speed of wind.

Ryan face instantly cooled down at the sight of the unwelcomed Foster brothers.

Spencer looked around anxiously. When he found no one, he quickly strode over to Ryan’s side. His voice was urgent. “Have you not found Elena yet?”

Ryan glanced at Spencer for two seconds before sneering. “You personally helped my wife escape and you even turned around to ask me.”

Both of Ryan’s tone and face was not friendly. He did not want to see this man, who helped his wife escape. It was already merciful that he did not kill him.

Spencer’s face twitched when he heard Ryan’s words. He knew Ryan would not believe anything he said.

But other than Ryan no one could save Elena now.

“Ryan, I know you won’t believe anything I say. But trust me. It’s really urgent.” Spencer finished speaking and signalled James, who came with him.

James nodded and immediately went outside the office.

Soon, the sound of a little child crying was heard.
