

Chapter 380 They Aren't Here

“It can’t be wrong. Previously, the people of the royal family connected our father and informed that they were preparing to bring the prince back to the palace to inherit the throne. It was only then I knew that it was Adams.”

James paused and said with worry. “Brother, I advise you all to hurry back. That place is too dangerous."

James was somewhat worried about Spencer's safety. That Adams was not an easy person to deal with. Once they crossed his bottom line, they would certainly die without a burial ground.

Spencer glanced at the entrance of the building and said to the phone. “Ryan is still inside. We cannot come at this moment.”

James could notice the worry in Spencer’s tone. He asked in astonishment. “Brother, since when you started to care about Ryan?”

Spencer’s eyes twitched. “Do you think I care about Ryan's life or death? What I care about is Elena and the child. They are also inside.”

Adams hated Ryan. He would not let Elena go easily. He and Ryan would have a fight.

However, a direct confrontation was just a pretense. Spencer had a hunch that Adams was plotting something else.

While the three of them were still thinking about how to deal with this matter, a few men in black came out of the house and surrounded the three of them.

The three of them immediately raised their vigilance and leaned against each other. Spencer frowned and asked, "What do you want to do?"

One of the men spoke. “Our master has ordered that anyone who is brought by Leonardo Reynolds will be taken away. Don't worry. Our master is very hospitable. He just wants to bring you in for a cup of tea. "

After saying that, the man in the lead signaled his subordinates. The group of people went forward and tie the three of them together.

It was difficult for them to fight a dozen hands with six fists. Even if the three of them were very strong, they could not escape when faced with people who were twice as strong as them.

It was better to give up struggling and go in to take a look at the situation inside.

After the three of them were tied up, they were all brought inside. However, the three of them were sent to three different rooms.

On the other hand, Ryan was currently forcing Adams to investigate every room to find Elena's traces.

They were dozen of rooms in every floor and Ryan was searching each room that came into his eyes.

Unfortunately, they had already reached the fourth floor, but there was still no trace of Elena.

Adams saw Ryan’s dark face and instantly laughed out loud. He said in his usual feminine voice. “Why do you have to go through so much trouble? I said that as long as you agree to my request, I will personally let them go. "

"Shut up. If you say another word, I will make a hole in your body.” This man was insidious and cunning. Ryan would not believe him.

He needed to ensure the safely of Elena and his son first before playing with this man.

However, Adams laughed even more. His expression was equal parts of exhilaration and contempt. “Leonardo Reynolds, the angrier you get, the more excited I get. I'm really curious, what kind of expression will you show when you look all over the building and don't see your wife and child."

Adams still had a smile on his face. Even though he was injured now, he didn't care at all.

Ryan’s eyes were covered with layer of frost. He glanced at Adams silently.

Judging from this man's tone, it sounded like Elena wasn't here.

Adams had expected to see Ryan’s anguish and desperation. However, he waited for a long time but did not see the expression he wanted to see on Ryan’s face.

All he saw was a pair of cold and indifferent face that was staring him straight.

Adams’s smugness finally broke and he could no longer keep his smile.

Adams looked at Ryan and said coldly. “I told you not to waste your energy. Leonardo Reynolds, I have changed my mind. I don't need you to fight me face to face anymore.”

He paused and his eyes flashed with scheme. “Instead, I will ask someone to hand over your wife and child to the royal family now."

Ryan had a strong influence in Western Europe. The royal family had long wanted to eliminate him. Therefore, it would be more fun if he just let the royal family deal with Ryan.
