Ceo's Mysterious Fiancee by Piper Dunlap

Chapter 559

Chapter 559 Hot Spring

'Paige, you said that you accidentally ruined their plan. They wanted to take revenge on you, but they couldn't find you, so they caught us and wanted to force you to show up..."

Speaking of this, Molly couldn't help but ask worriedly, "Are you in a dangerous situation? What should we do? Should we call the police?"

Paige wanted to tell her that this matter couldn't be resolved by calling the police. There were too many forces involved.

However, there were some things that she was destined to keep to herself. While dealing with the wound on her knee, Paige said, "It's okay. This matter will be over soon."

'With Mr. Stowe around, there's nothing in the world that he can't solve. Let's not worry too much!"

After saying that, Bess looked at Paige, "Mr. Stowe is so nice to you and cares about you. He has been drying your hair all the way. He was afraid that you would catch a cold, so he wrapped you in a blanket. He immediately asked someone to fly to the nearest resort and wanted you to take a hot shower... Why don't you take a shower and change your clothes first?"

"Yes, the injury on my knee is not a big deal..." Molly was too embarrassed to let Paige treat her wound in cold.

But Paige said apologetically, "It was all because of me..."

"No, no, no, don't think that way. Those people will catch us, which means that in their eyes, we are the ones who can threaten you. It means that we have a good relationship! It's a proud and happy thing to be regarded as your good friend!" Molly smiled, not blaming her at all.

"Yes, good friends should go through thick and thin together. Although the moment I was thrown into the water, I was really scared and desperate...

But when I saw you swimming toward me, I was moved..."

Speaking of this, Bess did not forget to add, "It's those bad guys, not you! Don't take it to heart."

Paige smiled and thanked them from the bottom of her heart.

After treating their wounds, Paige went to take a shower.

When the hot water washed over her body, she vaguely felt a little pain in her hands and feet. She looked down and found that her arms and calves had been cut, with a few small cuts.

Such an injury did not affect her at all. She raised her beautiful face, closed her eyes, and let the hot water rush down.

On the surface, most of the forces of the Ghost Alliance had been wiped out, but in fact, there was still a lot that had not surfaced yet. How many more unexpected situations like today would happen?

If she could save them once or twice, could she save them a hundred or even two hundred times?

It was time to speed up the process.

However, some people hid too deep. Before taking off their masks, you didn't know who they are.

When Molly was about to take a shower, she suddenly found that there was a large outdoor hot spring in the presidential suite.

Looking at the misty hot air and the beautiful scenery of the mountain, she was stunned.

So beautiful!

If it weren't for the injury on her knee, she really wanted to take a bath. "This kind of life is so enjoyable..." Molly couldn't take her eyes off it.

"If you want to bathe, you can go down, as long as you stretch out your injured foot."

"Yeah, why didn't I think of that? Bess, go with me!"

In the end, Bess couldn't resist her begging and soaked in the hot spring with Molly.

"It's so comfortable..." Molly closed her eyes and said with enjoyment, "When I make a lot of money in the future, I must take my mother here."

Bess smiled. "You're very filial."

"But my mother's best friend lied to her and vouched for her. She borrowed 800 thousand dollars and ran away. My mother's factory was used to pay off the debt and she had to help her pay back more than 500 thousand dollars."

friend. She gritted her teeth and worked hard to pay off her debts every day. She was exhausted."

"So I want to be a traditional medicine doctor because I want my mother's health to improve."

"Do you know how much 500 thousand dollars was when I was ten years old? My mother couldn't get in touch with her best Hearing this, Bess asked with some distress, "Did you pay back the 500 thousand dollars in the end?"

'She only paid back 250 thousand dollars because her best friend cheated her out of money everywhere. In the end, she was caught, and a lot of negative news about the company she borrowed money from was exposed. In the end, it was wiped out. In short, the amount was left unsettled.

"Later, my mother opened an online store and sold the clothes she designed. When I was free, I helped her pack them up, wore the clothes she designed, and wore them on a social media platform as a blogger. I finally made some money on the social media platform. Last month, I gave my mother a lot of money, and this month, I bought myself a Louis Vuitton. I didn't expect..."

Because she had been kidnapped, her beloved LV bag had been left in the toilet of the University of Chicago...

"Don't worry. Leana will definitely bring it back for us. I also left a key pendant..."

"Why?" Molly asked in confusion.

She didn't know if she could get it back.

"By the way, Bess, what does your family do?"

It would have been fine if Molly hadn't asked. But when she asked, Bess looked a little gloomy.

"My family... My father runs a food company. He mainly produces biscuits and candies... My mother passed away when I was very young."

"I'm sorry to have brought up your sad past," Molly said apologetically. "But your family background is not bad."

Bess usually wore plain clothes, so everyone thought that she came from an ordinary family...

"I haven't used a penny from home since I was 18 years old. Even the cost of going to college was earned by working part-time."

found out that they got together before my mother passed away... The twins are studying in our school."

'My father married a new wife the year my mother passed away. The new wife brought a pair of twins the same age as me. I just

'Then you should hate your father very much... so you won't use our family's money..."

"No, my dad's money is in that woman's hands. When I was in middle school, I had to listen to her many unpleasant words every

'Ah? No way. In that case, your father cheated before you were bom... That's too much!" Apart from being shocked, Molly also time I paid tuition fees..."

'..." Molly suddenly felt that she was even more pitiful.

"So, I'm not going home now. I'm not asking for money, and I'm not treating that person as my father." Bess suddenly felt much more relaxed after saying that.

She had never told anyone about it except for Leana.
