"I am Ji Feng, who are you?" Ji Feng frowned slightly, the other party's tone seemed very nonchalant, as if it was a questioning tone, which made him resentful.

"We are from the Yuezhou Branch of the State Security Bureau, we suspect that your men and are engaged in activities that are harmful to the country, please let them out and accept our investigation!" The man at the head of the group said very nonchalantly.

"Of the State Security Bureau?"

Ji Feng's heart was suddenly slightly stunned, how come the State Security Bureau was involved again?

His mind turned rapidly and he quickly understood.

It seemed that the disappearance of that vice governor had probably touched the sensitive nerves of certain people, or, it was also possible that certain people saw an opportunity in this matter and thought that it would probably deal a major blow to themselves, so they had struck out!

Otherwise, this matter would never have involved State Security!

These thoughts quickly flashed through his mind, but Ji Feng's face was not moving at all, he just said indifferently, "Sorry, I don't understand what you guys are saying."

"Ji Feng! Don't you play sloppy with us here! If there is no tangible evidence, we won't come to you!"

The man at the head of the group said in a deep voice: "Your men set off from Jiangzhou and came to Southern Guangdong, and all the traces of their activities up to now, as well as the things they have done, we know them all like the back of our hands and have tangible and reliable evidence! Now we are here to find you, because we want to give you a chance to come forward and confess, I hope you won't be stubborn!"

Ji Feng's face also sank as he said, "First of all, I want to tell you that I don't have any subordinates, I'm just a student, and where other people go has nothing to do with me! In addition, I encountered an attack by thugs in Southern Guangdong for no reason, those people carried extremely powerful weapons and came from a secretive place, instead of investigating them, you guys came over to question me"

"This makes me doubt your motives, or your ability to do the job!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice: "The last thing I'll say is that I'm disgusted by you talking to me in that tone!"

"Ji Feng!"

The man's face suddenly sank and said, "I advise you not to be so oily, you know better than anyone else what is going on in your heart, and you know in your heart whether those people are your subordinates or not, I tell you, if you don't cooperate"

"Do what you like!" Ji Feng interrupted him nonchalantly.

The man across the table instantly had an angry look on his face, Ji Feng was so nonchalant to him, which made him annoyed. As a person from the National Security Bureau, once he revealed his identity, wasn't he always treated politely everywhere he went?

But here, he had met this prick, Ji Feng, who didn't give him any face and even went toe-to-toe with him!

"Ji Feng, if you are really so uncooperative, don't blame us for being ungracious!" The man at the head of the group said in a deep voice.

"I'll do whatever you want!" Ji Feng said indifferently.

The man stared at Ji Feng with unconcealed anger in his eyes. Ji Feng also stared at him in the same way, so as not to back down.

The two sides were instantly at a standstill.

"Do you really intend to resist stubbornly to the end?" The man asked in a deep voice.

"Stubbornly resist?"

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "In my opinion, it is more correct for you to be unreasonable instead! I advise you, there are some things you'd better not get involved in, it's not something you can play with!"

"You're threatening me?" The man's face suddenly turned gloomy: "Ji Feng, you have to know who you're talking to! Don't think that you can be reckless just because you have some background, then you also have to see if your background can be enough to reach the State Security Bureau!"

"Really" Ji Feng shook his head and snorted, not even bothering with this person anymore.

It was obvious that these people were here to pick a fight, so no matter what was said it was useless, instead it was better not to say anything at all.

Seeing Ji Feng's gesture, the other party nodded heavily: "Very well! Ji Feng, today's matter is not over, your men have committed a crime, so don't try to get away with it! We'll have plenty of time to play later!"

After saying that, he snorted coldly, turned around and left. The other three also followed him closely and turned to leave.

Ji Feng stood there, his eyes slightly narrowed.

"What a bunch of bulls and snakes have jumped out!" Ji Feng secretly sneered, "Actually, even the State Security Bureau's also followed the crossover, this is really getting lively"

"I just don't know, you guys dare to play to the end!" Ji Feng secretly coldly snorted.

Despite the confidence in his heart, in reality, the presence of the National Security Bureau personnel still gave Ji Feng some concerns. It was because this department was too special and their power was too great.

In fact, many people's understanding of the National Security Bureau was limited to their imagination, thinking that it was a department that seemed to be similar to the CIA in Rice, and especially when placed in the Heavenly Kingdom, it was extremely powerful, just like the ancient Jin Yi Wei.

In fact, this kind of thinking is biased, there are many departments in the NSA that are actually quite ordinary, and only very few of them, which have some power, are not as rampant as the ancient Jin Yi Wei.

The reason is that this is not the ancient era where the emperor had all the power, no one can decide on the life and death of a person with a single word, but this does not mean that Ji Feng can have no qualms about it.

If those people were really from the special department, then Ji Feng would really have to be afraid of them, because the other party is probably directly under the office of the top leader, and no one from outside can interfere.

If they were to set eyes on him, it would really be a problem!

But now Ji Feng couldn't care less, he had to solve the problem at hand first as soon as possible, and he had to hurry, because it was likely that the later would be the worse!

So Ji Feng took out his mobile phone and dialed Zheng Yuanshan's number: "Uncle Zheng, let's get started!"

.....

"It's starting!"

"Damn it, it's finally started, this breath can finally be taken out!"

When Ji Shaolei and Zhang Lei knew that the operation had started, they let out a long breath, ever since they knew that Ji Feng had been attacked, they had been holding a breath in their hearts, and now, it was finally the time to take revenge!

All the special police from the provincial department were mobilized, Zheng Yuanshan personally led the team, and even used a police helicopter, and the police cars roared through the streets of Southern Guangdong with great force!

Zheng Yuanshan had made another big move!

When someone noticed Zheng Yuanshan's action, the news immediately spread throughout the black and white channels of Southern Guangdong, and even some well-informed people in the society had gotten the news, because Zheng Yuanshan's action was too big this time, and it didn't seem to have the slightest intention to hide it.

At once, everyone's eyes were focused on it.

Only before had Zheng Yuanshan led his team to destroy the Hop Sing Gang, and now he was suddenly making another big move, what was he up to?

Soon, however, everyone's mouths opened wide in shock.

“The chief of a police precinct in Yuezhou was arrested and several police officers were taken away at the same time!”

“The boss of the Chang Hua Group has been arrested! His bodyguard resisted, and the SWAT team members involved in the operation opened fire, putting the bodyguard on the spot and sending him to hospital!”

.....

In a flash, there was no telling how many people were arrested throughout Yuezhou, which even included bigwigs in the underworld, leaders within the police system, and even a leader within the system, and a big boss!

A big deal!

The entire officialdom of Southern Guangdong was stunned by Zheng Yuanshan’s sudden masterstroke!

The official circles were shocked, and the police system was equally shocked!

Everyone was stunned, arresting people in succession, not even distinguishing who they are, not distinguishing time and place, but directly arresting people What is Zheng Yuanshan doing? The actual fact is that he is not crazy?

The fact that everyone was shocked by this crazy behavior of Zheng Yuanshan, many people almost couldn’t believe it, could it be that Zheng Yuanshan is also going to follow Ji Feng and follow the rebellion?

When the news spread, no one was not shocked, and everyone was dumbfounded.

Even many people could not sit still, even the second-in-command of Southern Guangdong, slapped the table and angrily denounced, “This is simply audacious!”

However, Zheng Yuanshan continued to do as he pleased and continued to personally lead the arrests, not caring what others thought or if anyone gossiped.

“Crazy! Crazy! They’ve all gone mad!” Even Zhai Yadong, the president of the Brilliant Group, as well as Shao Jie, were overwhelmed and stunned by this piece of news.

“Zheng Yuanshan must have gone crazy!”

“Does he want to take everyone in?”

The others were likewise of the same mind, even the province’s second in command had angrily denounced such behaviour, how dare Zheng Yuanshan act so audaciously, what was this if not madness?

It looked like this was Ji Feng after he had suffered a big loss and couldn’t find the murderer, as a result, he became so crazy!

The young one doesn’t know how to act, and Zheng Yuanshan, an old greaser, is actually so clueless too!

“The Ji family is going to be unlucky this time!”

“That’s for sure!”

.....

Zheng Yuanshan's actions have really gone too far out of line, and everyone knows that he and Ji Feng will definitely not be able to be saved, and even the Ji family will definitely be implicated because of their actions.

The state would definitely not tolerate such audacious recklessness, let alone their madness!

The strength of the Ji family will definitely be greatly damaged!

It was ridiculous that the Ji Family was so sheltered, and Elder Ji was even more prestigious, but no one could have imagined that in the end, it was actually destroyed at the hands of Ji Feng and Zheng Yuanshan, which was really ironic!

This was what many people were thinking!

For this situation, people from the Wu family lineage were naturally overjoyed, although they were also angrily denouncing Zheng Yuanshan's crazy behaviour on the surface, but in reality, in their hearts, they wanted Zheng Yuanshan to continue to be crazy, the crazier the better!

There was also speculation as to how long Zheng Yuanshan would go on with this madness and what he was up to!

However, Zheng Yuanshan didn't keep these people waiting for too long. Just a few hours later, Zheng Yuanshan ended his operation, and at the same time, he personally went to report his work to the head of Southern Guangdong.

Everyone was watching and wanted to know what Zheng Yuanshan would report!

And at this time, the second-in-command of Nan Yue had insisted on convening a standing committee and proposed to remove Zheng Yuanshan from his post as head of the provincial department, so Zheng Yuanshan was asked to attend the standing committee before he could report his work to the first-in-command.

Of course, he was not in his capacity as a member of the Standing Committee, but to be questioned

Campus Master Chapter 2162

This time, the Standing Committee of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Party Committee carried a different atmosphere from the moment it started, and all the Standing Committee members attending the meeting also looked different, either stony, or gritting their teeth, or with a smile between their brows, or even more, as if they had a look of bitterness and hatred!

And there were others who looked strange.

Because everyone knew exactly why this standing committee had been convened this time.

It was all because of Zheng Yuanshan's sudden action, which left everyone stunned, and of course many people even more shocked and angry, because Zheng Yuanshan had arrested their people directly without even a greeting, leaving them with damaged strength or suffering from cut-throat pain!

However, there were some other members of the Standing Committee who looked grave.

This was because they knew very well that this standing committee would probably become a battlefield, and the scene might perhaps be one-sided, with the side represented by the governor directly fighting and defeating Zheng Yuansan.

After all, even though Zheng Yuanshan is the head of the provincial department, we all know that his position was forcibly installed by the Ji family. If it wasn't for Ji Feng's fiasco in Southern Guangdong, because of certain mistakes, allowing the Ji family to seize the opportunity, Zheng Yuanshan would never have been able to sit in this position!

However, the possibility that Zheng Yuansan could have been able to separate himself from his opponent could not be ruled out – even though the possibility was pitifully small, it did exist after all!

The reason why some people would estimate this is because, although Zheng Yuanshan's power is weak and there is a big gap between him and the governor of a province, but since Zheng Yuanshan dares to make such a big move all of a sudden, does he not have any preparation at all?

Since Zheng Yuanshan was able to reach this position, it is obvious that he cannot be a fool, even if his brain is a little bit not enough, he will definitely not be able to sit in this position for such a long time.

Although not all the officials here are from the Wu family, the majority of them are from the Wu family.

Zheng Yuanshan, who represents the Ji family, is in charge of the police department, which is an important department of the state. In the eyes of the officials of the Wu family, Zheng Yuanshan is like a thorn in the flesh and is extremely unpopular.

However, Zheng Yuanshan was able to hold on to his position for a year!

This is sufficient to show that Zheng Yuansan definitely has a great deal of ingenuity and strategy.

So how could a person like him suddenly act so recklessly and chaotically? This was obviously very counter-intuitive and not in line with the kind of low-key style Zheng Yuansan used to have.

So some people were certain that if Zheng Yuanshan dared to do this, he must have something to fall back on. Perhaps he had some real evidence of certain people and that's why he sent his men to arrest them, or it could be that Zheng Yuanshan launched such a big move in Southern Guangdong, perhaps to match certain actions of the Ji family, as a way to attract or divert everyone's attention... ..

But no matter which possibility it is, Zheng Yuanshan is obviously prepared for it!

Therefore, it was likely that there would not be a lopsided situation at this standing committee!

In this way, a group of Standing Committee members, each with mixed feelings, rushed over to attend the meeting after receiving the notice of the urgent convening of the Standing Committee.

Of the thirteen members of the Standing Committee in Southern Guangdong, all twelve were present, except for one who was away on business.

As for Zheng Yuanshan, he was not included in the list of the Standing Committee, so he was here, only qualified to observe the meeting, but had no right to speak.

Of course, if he was questioned, he could naturally answer questions – in fact, everyone knew that this time Zheng Yuanshan was here specifically to be questioned, especially the director of the provincial government's general office, who was the governor's beloved, so he knew even better what the governor had in mind.

Therefore, despite not being a member of the Standing Committee, Zheng Yuanshan was also placed in a seat near the conference table, but the position of his seat was arranged in an interesting way – from the direction, Zheng Yuanshan's seat was directly opposite the governor's seat.

When Zheng Yuanshan saw that he was placed here, he couldn't help but snort darkly, "Yoo-hoo! This is to criticise me, Old Zheng, huh?!"

Judging from the position of this seat, it was clear that he was to be able to be directly questioned by the governor, which was no different from interrogating a prisoner!

Zheng Yuanshan coldly snorted in his heart, "Do you really think this is an opportunity to jerk me off directly? You are not afraid of lifting a stone and smashing your own feet!"

However, despite the sneer in his heart, Zheng Yuanshan's face was motionless, and amidst the smirking look of the Chief of Staff, he sat down very openly in the seat arranged for him, with an old and calm look, completely unable to see the kind of toughness in the previous thunderous action.

It was not long before everyone had arrived and the staff was ready, with the head of the General Office, the governor's grand steward, personally in charge of taking the minutes.

"Comrades, despite the urgency of convening this standing committee, it is because some major situations have arisen in the province over this period of time, especially in the past two days, and for this reason, at the strong request of the governor, this meeting has come about!"

As soon as the meeting started, the secretary of the Southern Guangdong Provincial Party Committee said bluntly and very clearly that this standing committee was the governor's intention, and since the governor had asked for a standing committee and had a suitable reason for it, he naturally had to nod his head and agree to it.

But how much this matter has to do with him, his words have also made it clear – he is somewhat dissatisfied with some major situations that have occurred in the province in recent times, but the main figure today is still the governor!

With this statement from the Provincial Party Secretary, those present also had a good idea.

It seemed that this time it was the governor who was going to directly address Zheng Yuanshan, the head of the police department, and the provincial party secretary was just coming over to preside over the meeting and take control of the overall situation.

Zheng Yuanshan smiled, and could not help but secretly breathe a sigh of relief, it seems that this matter should still be caused by the governor, and this, the secretary of the provincial party committee seems to be dissatisfied, that is why he said 'at the strong request of the governor'.

Zheng Yuanshan could not help but secretly nod his head, those who could reach the level of provincial party secretary were not simple people.

In fact, in ancient times, a provincial party secretary was like a frontier official, an important minister of the state!

Especially in Southern Guangdong, which is the country's number one economic province, the status of the other handlers is even higher than that of many provinces, and only the handlers of several municipalities are comparable, both in terms of political status and rank.

For example, the head of South Guangdong is a ZZJ member, which can already be called a national leader!

At his level, there would no longer be any obvious political leanings or factions, and even if there were, it would be because of differences in ruling philosophy.

For even if he were to break away from any faction, absolutely no one would be able to move him, this is an important minister of the state, not someone who can be moved just by saying so.

And at their level, all the grudges and feuds are just child's play in their eyes, all they think about is how to make the country stronger and the people richer

The actual fact is that there are certainly some scum among them, even higher level also have, but at least now, he at least is not so much selfish in it, otherwise, with the authority and level of the provincial party secretary, said to remove him Zheng Yuanshan, absolutely not how difficult things!

Looking at the old man on the main seat, whose hair was already white and in his sixties, Zheng Yuanshan could not help but feel a sense of admiration in his heart. It was no wonder that when the Wu family proposed him to be the secretary of the provincial party committee of South Guangdong, it was said that the old man, Ji, was very satisfied.

It was evident that this old man's character was overwhelming!

Thinking of this, Zheng Yuanshan then looked at that second-in-command, he couldn't help but secretly shake his head, this one was far worse, just this vision and pattern, he was not on the same level.

"Comrade Zheng Yuanshan, please explain why the Police Department has been making so many big moves recently, and arresting people for no reason, causing public discontent to boil over, what do you want?"

"Governor, I don't understand what you mean, the work of the provincial department is carried out normally, it's only because recently some major cases are being investigated that the actions are more frequent, but if we say that people are being arrested for no reason, or even that the people's grievances are boiling over, I think that's a bit of an overstatement!"

Zheng Yuanshan smiled, but said very blandly, "Any person arrested by the provincial department is justified, without evidence, we will certainly not arrest people indiscriminately"

"Evidence? What evidence do you have for the comrades who were arrested, what crimes did they commit?" The governor directly interrupted Zheng Yuanshan's question and questioned in a deep voice.

"I'm sorry, the case is not final yet, so this evidence cannot be made public for now, if the governor needs to know, I can report separately!" Zheng Yuanshan said.

“Humph! I think you’re out of reason!”

The governor snorted coldly and said, “The police are there to serve the people, to maintain stability and law and order, but look at what you have done and report separately, is this because you don’t trust the comrades here?”

Zheng Yuanshan frowned: “I don’t mean that.”

“Then show your evidence and reasoning, shine it out and see!”

“If you can prove that the actions of the Provincial Department are all well-founded and justified, then it will be forgotten today, but if you can’t prove it, then it means that you are bending the law in favour of your own interests and are engaging in a great deal of injustice, and I will propose that you be removed from your position as the head of the Provincial Department!” The provincial governor said very sternly.

When Zheng Wonsan smiled, he immediately took a deep breath and asked, “Really?”

“What do you say?”

“Alright then, since the governor has strongly requested it, then I will choose to trust you all and briefly explain why these actions have been taken!” Zheng Wonsan finally nodded his head.

At this, the other Standing Committee members were instantly energised, this Zheng Yuanshan was duking it out with the governor, it looked like there was going to be a fierce exchange today!

At the same time, everyone also wanted to know why Zheng Yuanshan was actually taking so much action

“Secretary, governor, leaders” Zheng Yuanshan stood up, took out a stack of documents from the briefcase he was carrying, and said, “Since things are rather complicated, I’ll make it short

Ten days ago, someone was suddenly attacked and stabbed by thugs and almost died, and at that time, those thugs used a large number of weapons, and even, among them, there were thugs who used police cars and wore police uniforms”

As soon as he said that, all of them dawned at the same time and knew that he was talking about Ji Feng’s encounter with the attack, which was not even no news in Southern Guangdong anymore.

“And after a difficult investigation by our provincial department, we finally followed the vine and found a series of suspects related to this case”

Everyone shook at the same time!

Campus Master Chapter 2163

“And after a difficult investigation by our provincial department, we finally followed the vine and found a series of suspects related to this case”

Everyone was shaken at the same time!

Although when Zheng Yuanshan had just talked about Ji Feng being attacked and killed, everyone had already had a certain amount of psychological preparation, thinking that perhaps it was possible that Zheng Yuansan had acted so crazily because Ji Feng had been attacked and killed, and that he was trying to help Ji Feng take revenge.

However, when Zheng Yuansan said that he had actually found the suspect, the crowd here still couldn't help but be shocked.

Was this true?

Many people expressed doubts because more than half a month had passed since the incident, during which Zheng Yuansan had also investigated with great fanfare, even taking a personal interest in the entire investigation process. According to internal police sources, but whenever any important clues emerged, Zheng Yuansan would personally sort through them and then personally lead the investigation seminars, the importance he attached to it was obviously self-evident.

At the same time, Ji Feng also bravely mobilised his men from Jiangzhou, his group of tiger-like men were no good, and as soon as they arrived in Southern Guangdong, they caused panic and unrest in the entire Guangdong triad.

However, even though Ji Feng and Zheng Yuanshan are working on both sides, they still haven't found any results. It is said that they don't even have a clue now, they just trace the clues when they have them, and when they find that they can't go on, they start all over again.

In this half-month-long period, neither Zheng Yuanshan nor Ji Feng had found anything useful, so it was clear that the thugs must have been prepared for this.

But now, Zheng Yuanshan suddenly said that he had found a suspect, so how could this not cause people to be shocked?

Some people couldn't help but wonder if Zheng Yuanshan had made this up, right?

We must know that Zheng Yuanshan's sudden and frantic arrests were not made by any simple people, and several of the people he arrested were in important leadership positions, including even a division chief!

This inevitably led people to wonder if Zheng Yuanshan was going to take advantage of this opportunity to stage a major purge.

It was not out of the question!

Ji Feng met with an attack, and after investigating for half a day, he ended up not even finding out a single hair, which anyone else would surely be incomparably depressed and even feel suffocated.

But no matter what, he couldn't be attacked and killed for nothing, right?

Since nothing could be found out, it would be better to take advantage of this opportunity to find an excuse to get some benefits for oneself!

The advantage is to plant some more people in Southern Guangdong for the Ji family, so that they can take advantage of the opportunity to strengthen their strength!

After all, everyone knows that he is the spokesman of the Ji family in Southern Guangdong.

As the saying goes, a carrot is a pit, and since we want to install people, we must first pull out some of the 'carrots' that were occupying the positions, so that we can make room for the people of the Ji family
.....

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of some of the 'carrots' that are occupying the positions.

If this is really the case, it is no wonder that the governor is so furious, even going so far as to convene an emergency standing committee to remove Zheng Yuanshan from his position as head of the provincial department.

The governor, who is the spokesman for the Wu family, is naturally the first to say no, which is why he was so eager to be the vanguard and give Zheng Yuanshan a blow to the head first!

Of course, these inner thoughts, everyone will certainly not say out, the problem now is, Zheng Yuanshan is arresting people indiscriminately, and for this reason to go to the emergency standing committee, now how to deal with Zheng Yuanshan, is the most important.

There are quite a few people here who think this way, and this includes the governor of Southern Guangdong.

Therefore, after hearing Zheng Yuanshan's explanation, he immediately gave a cold laugh and asked, "In that case, those people you arrested are all suspects?"

"That's right!"

Zheng Yuanshan nodded his head and said very frankly. He didn't care what other people thought, he was just telling it like it was.

But this sounded a bit harsh in the ears of the others.

"Boom~!"

The governor slammed the table and said angrily with a sullen face, "Simply bastard! Zheng Yuanshan, I think you simply don't know what your surname is! Or do you think that all of us here are fools and blind in your eyes?"

Zheng Yuanshan said with a calm face, "I have never thought of it that way, and I don't quite understand what the governor means!"

"You don't understand? Heh!" The governor sneered and said, "In that case, let me ask you, you said you arrested the suspects, then why did you arrest so many people? Were all those comrades criminal suspects? Did they hold guns and carry explosive packs to attack and kill Ji – to attack and kill others?"

Zheng Yuanshan shook his head and said, "They weren't the actual executors, but they were very closely related to this case!"

"Unbridled!"

The governor suddenly shouted lowly, "Zheng Yuanshan, you are still sophomoric at this point? Those people you arrested, they belong to all different fields, some are in the police system, some are leading comrades, and they also belong to different departments Could it be that they colluded together and were specifically trying to harm one person? Could it be that they are trying to rebel?"

Hey~!

At once, someone burst out laughing.

Indeed, even if it was Ji Feng who encountered the attack and his identity was not simple, but it was not so much that so many people colluded together, if they wanted a person's life, they only needed to spend money to hire a killer or hire mercenaries.

If you want to be more elegant, then there are many ways, for example, you can just find any reason, or some kind of frame-up or something like that, which will get Ji Feng into it, then as long as you quietly arrange some accident, it will be absolutely foolproof, even if the Ji family pursues it afterwards, at most, they will just put out a few scapegoats.

In addition, there are many other methods that can be used, so why do we need so many people colluding together?

"What I said is the truth, but all the people arrested by the police are unconnected to the case!" Zheng Yuanshan but firmly said, "And"

"And what?!"

That governor directly interrupted Zheng Yuanshan's words, humming, "Zheng Yuanshan, you really take us all for fools Let me ask you, even if what you say is true, the people you arrested are all suspects, they colluded together and committed the crime, then I wonder, the time since the case to now is not It's been a long time, hasn't it? It's been such a long time, and you haven't found anything at all?"

"I don't understand criminal investigation, but I do understand one thing, the more people there are, the more likely it is to make mistakes, I still understand the truth that there are many people and many mouths, but you found nothing before, is this your incompetence or" the governor's face sank. "Or are you simply doing something wrong, wantonly wronging good people?!"

Zheng Yuanshan shook his head and said, "The governor has spoken too highly, I Zheng Yuanshan has been a police officer for almost thirty years, and I have never acted relying on my power to do anything wrong, and this time is no exception, our police actions are based on evidence" "

"You're still sophomoric!"

The provincial governor interrupted him directly and said in a deep voice: "Comrades, it is now clear how the facts are, Zheng Yuanshan is the director of the provincial department but has acted recklessly and is no longer fit to hold the post of director, so I propose that Zheng Yuanshan be removed from his post immediately, as for whether what he did was against the law, we have to set up a task force to investigate this matter specifically! "

As soon as he said this, all the Standing Committee members could not help but have their faces slightly frozen, and all of them secretly said in their hearts, "Here it comes!"

This was going to be real!

The governor proposed to remove Zheng Yuanshan, this was clearly meant to knock Zheng Yuanshan off his horse with a single blow, this was going to be a stab in the back!

“What about the other comrades’ opinions?” At this time, the first hand spoke up.

“I agree.”

“I also agree, for such a reckless person, he should be taken out of his leadership position before it is too late, otherwise he will be a scourge to the common people!”

“That’s right, especially if this person also holds a leadership position within the police system, it is all the more important to choose a stable comrade to take control of the whole situation, this is responsible for the people of the province”

In a flash, several standing committees took a stand, accounting for almost half the number of people in the standing committee, and if a formal vote was taken, these people alone would be enough to remove Zheng Yuanshan from office.

If Zheng Yuanshan was removed, the hand of the Ji family reaching out to Southern Guangdong would be completely cut off, which would likely cause a strong backlash from the Ji family, and might even cause a violent game between the two factions.

It is better to stay out of this kind of war.

At the same time, Qian Hongda, the secretary of the Yuezhou Municipal Committee, was secretly frowning, the situation at the Standing Committee was very bad, ah, even if he spoke out against it, now it seemed that it would not be of much use, and would even cause others to attack instead.

He could not help but secretly shake his head.

In fact, before this he also secretly approached Zheng Yuanshan ditch through and asked him what exactly he was going to do, but Zheng Yuanshan only told him to be at ease, but did not say much, but now “Secretary, I think we can formally vote” at this time, the governor is to ride the wave of victory, and strive to remove Zheng Yuanshan today.

However, at this time, Zheng Yuanshan is said: “Leaders, I think that everything I do is reasonable and legal, leaders if there are still objections, you can first look at the evidence about this case”

As he spoke, he took the stack of documents and shook them, “Here, I have detailed evidence about this case, including the statements of those suspects, as well as photos of the physical evidence, please check it out, leaders!”

At once, everyone was stunned.

Zheng Yuanshan really had evidence?

Campus Master Chapter 2164

“Evidence?!”

The first-in-command asked, "Comrade Yuanshan, is it appropriate to produce evidence now?"

"Originally, according to the normal procedure of handling cases, it is definitely inappropriate to produce the evidence now, but since the governor has such doubts about this, I can only produce it first, as a way to prove my innocence." Zheng Yuanshan shook his head and sighed.

This way of doing things caused the governor to grimace.

How did this sound as if he was an outsider regulating an insider, relying on the power in his hands to force Zheng Yuanshan to produce evidence?

This Zheng Yuanshan, what an abomination!

He must be removed today!

Not to mention that the governor already hated Zheng Yuanshan in his heart, at this time, the director of the General Office had already distributed the documents in Zheng Yuanshan's hand to all the standing committee members present.

At the same time, Zheng Yuanshan's voice rang out once again, "These documents are all abbreviated, on them are the statements of a few major suspects, and since tangible evidence is hard to carry, I just brought photos!"

After a pause, when everyone started to look at the documents, Zheng Yuanshan continued, "According to the interrogation, they have all admitted that they received benefits from others, and thus used the convenience of their positions to either give the green light to the criminals, or, to investigate the whereabouts and information of the victims, and then tell the mastermind behind the scene, and because of this, the attack and bombing case half a month ago that happened!"

"Comrade Yuanshan, is everything you said true?" The Provincial Party Secretary's voice rang out, and his face was very grave.

If what Zheng Yuanshan said was true, it would mean that under his rule, there had been a major corruption case, and a nest case at that, which was extremely bad!

However, Zheng Yuanshan nodded very firmly and said, "That's right, it's all true. They all received benefits, and moreover, some of the suspects received huge amounts of benefits, tens of millions of dollars!"

"Asshole!" The Provincial Party Secretary suddenly heaved his teacup onto the table and angrily denounced in a deep voice, "Simply scum!"

The Provincial Party Secretary's head full of silver hair stood backwards, his eyes carrying a fury that anyone could see.

The fact that such a big case had emerged under his rule, and that so many people were involved, made him extremely furious.

The others were also shocked because if what Zheng Yuanshan said was true, then there was no doubt that this would be a huge scandal which would be an earthquake for the entire officialdom of Southern Guangdong!

If the investigation goes on seriously, there is no guarantee that other crimes will not be committed, and I am afraid that in the end, the bad results will make everyone's jaws drop!

Many members of the Standing Committee looked at Zheng Yuanshan with changed eyes.

Among them, those from the governor's faction also changed their faces, knowing that just now they were angrily rebuking Zheng Yuanshan for the arrest of these few people, and even the governor was proposing to remove Zheng Yuanshan.

If what Zheng Yuansan said was true, wouldn't that mean that they were defending the criminals so vigorously that they would even go so far as to remove the head of the provincial department!

What would they become then?

If word got out about what happened at this standing committee, how would the leaders above them view them?

Or

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

"It's definitely not true, he's just making all this up to make his crazy purge look more reasonable, maybe all this evidence and stuff is just fabricated by him!" This is what many members of the Standing Committee are saying at this moment.

"That must be it!"

Therefore, these people could only hope that they could see any breakage in those evidences provided by Zheng Yuanshan, and for a while, everyone looked down.

"Ee?!"

Just then, a member of the Standing Committee suddenly gave a startled ee, jerked his head up, and asked, "Director Zheng, how come you still have this Vice Governor's statement on here? Could it be that"

Everyone was startled.

The vice governor this Standing Committee member was referring to was the same vice governor who had previously disappeared on the same night as the actual vice governor of the Police Department, not expecting that Zheng Yuansan had actually taken out that vice governor's statement, didn't this mean that it was Zheng Yuansan who had arrested that vice governor?

This is too much nonsense!

Even if that vice governor was ranked low and did not have much power in his hands, no matter what, he was still a cadre at the provincial ministerial level, so how could he arrest him just because he wanted to?

"Director Zheng, what's going on?" Even the old secretary frowned.

“Secretary, it’s like this, this vice governor was not arrested by our provincial department, but by the military.” Zheng Yuanshan hesitated for a moment and looked a bit embarrassed, “Because of certain criminal acts of this vice governor, which involved more sensitive information, the military conveniently took him away, the statement and evidence I have here were also sent to me by the military, in fact, they also want our assistance in the investigation!”

The military?

Everyone was flabbergasted, not expecting this to be related to the military, but soon, someone remembered that when Zheng Yuanshan sent his men to destroy the Hesheng Gang, he had teamed up with the angry military to attack them!

This time, even the old secretary was not too good at asking questions, because since the matter involved the military and sensitive information, then he naturally would not ask more questions.

However, if Zheng Yuanshan wanted to use such an excuse to deliberately torment that vice governor or to achieve something, it was not too easy, because this was after all the arrest of a vice governor, ah, if afterwards Zheng Yuanshan did not have a reasonable explanation and no overwhelming evidence to prove that his actions were correct, when the time came, it was impossible for the top not to pursue the matter.

“It’s shocking to touch!”

Just then, a mid-voice suddenly rang out, the crowd turned their heads to look, but they saw that it was Qian Hongda, the secretary of the municipal party committee of Yuezhou, who had spoken, and they listened carefully at once.

The head of the provincial capital city, a member of the Standing Committee of the Provincial Party Committee and a vice-ministerial-level cadre, this weight is not to be underestimated, and even in terms of the real power in their hands, many Standing Committee members here are a few points inferior to Qian Hongda, so no one doubts that he is one of the giants of the Provincial Party Committee.

Therefore, his opinion should naturally be given sufficient importance by everyone.

Only to see Qian Hongda frowning, asked: “Director Zheng, according to the information you provided, the behavior of these people is shocking, the amount of money involved alone is so huge, and they are even involved in criminal offences Director Zheng, can you be sure that the information you provided is true?”

“I can be sure!”

Zheng Yuanshan nodded his head very calmly and said, “Leaders, if you don’t believe me, I can also provide physical evidence, as well as information from the bank, and video tapes of the interrogations, I guarantee that every aspect of our work will stand up to review!”

Qian Hongda then nodded, and the crowd also nodded secretly, in fact, they all understood that since Zheng Yuanshan dared to bring out this evidence, it would be as well as prove its authenticity.

After all, no one would dare to wrongly accuse so many people at once, much less would anyone dare to easily play such tricks in front of ZZJ members. If Zheng Yuanshan really dared to do so, once the provincial party secretary became angry, don't look at the Ji family standing behind Zheng Yuanshan, with the seniority and rank of the old secretary, it wouldn't be impossible for him to even go to Ji Zhenhua and slap the table!

However, to the governor and others, this was almost like a blow to the head, hitting them in the eye.

Because the more true the information provided by Zheng Yuanshan was, the more it proved how ridiculous their aggressive act of lashing out at Zheng Yuanshan just now was.

What's more, just because Zheng Yuanshan had arrested those people, the governor was so furious that he asked for an emergency standing committee to be convened, but in the end the facts were clear to everyone that he was voicing injustice for a few criminals, even excusing them, and for this reason he went out of his way to remove the director of the provincial department

Once he thought of this, the governor just felt his face burning hot, it was like a loud slap in the face, fiercely slapped on his face.

And what Zheng Yuanshan did was just to provide a piece of evidence in a light manner.

Seeing the amused expressions of some of the standing committee members in the audience, which they were trying to conceal but were unintentionally showing, the governor was almost ashamed to see others, and if there was a crack in the ground, he would have liked to get into it now.

His majesty was gone!

No face!

The governor's face was blue and he didn't say a word, he had really fallen on his face today, making him stifled and resentful, but there was nothing he could do

If it were possible, the governor would even like to adjourn the meeting now, but unfortunately, he has the power to call for an emergency standing committee, but not that qualification to adjourn the meeting, because the highest leader here at this time is the old secretary, not him!

"A bunch of scum!" The old secretary, however, grunted, his face full of anger: "The country feeds them, the people feed them, and they do such things to repay them? Where are their principles? Where is their party spirit?"

"....." No one dared to answer, and no one could answer.

"This matter must be investigated to the end!" The old secretary said in a deep voice, "A task force should be set up to specifically supervise this matter"

The standing committee members could not help but nod their heads, indeed, the establishment of a task force is the best way, on the one hand, this can thus show the attitude of the province, treating criminals absolutely not to be tolerated.

The other hand, but also at any time to control the progress of the investigation of the case, so that not only can prevent the situation from expanding, more importantly, for some comrades who can bail, want to bail down is also more convenient.

The most agreeable to this matter is undoubtedly the governor's family, because in this way, the cadres of the Wu family are still the majority in the task force, so they can maximize the protection of the cadres of the Wu family involved in the case, as far as possible not to give the Ji family any opportunity!

Campus Master Chapter 2165

"The secretary is right, I agree with the secretary's idea!" The governor immediately made his attitude clear, "Set up a task force so that we can investigate all the cases more quickly and in more detail."

"I agree!"

"I also agree, set up a task force!"

In a flash, the Standing Committee members of the governor's lineage nodded their heads one after another.

Having just been slapped hard and loudly by Zheng Yuanshan, they now finally found their chance.

It was still the old secretary who was powerful, he had instantly nailed the most crucial point, no matter what kind of evidence Zheng Yuanshan had, at least, the initiative had to be taken over.

No matter what, the old secretary was still a cadre of the Wu family's lineage!

However, just as the standing committee members of the Wu family lineage were secretly delighted, they saw Zheng Yuanshan take up his position all of a sudden.

"Secretary!"

Zheng Yuanshan suddenly interjected, "This case, the military is also currently investigating, is it not a bit for us to set up a task force at this time."

The old secretary instantly frowned, a pair of gleaming eyes staring at Zheng Yuanshan.

Zheng Yuanshan also could not help but feel a little nervous in his heart, but he could only stiffen his head and insist on his opinion.

Many of the people in the audience couldn't help but have their hearts jump in their chests, Zheng Yuanshan actually refused to set up a task force, he was going to Although Zheng Yuanshan didn't directly state that he refused to set up a task force, he brought out the military, which is obviously what he meant.

After all, if this matter is also being investigated by the military, then there is not much point for them to set up a task force, the military will at most only hand over some of the things that can be investigated at the local level, after their investigation is over, which seems right.

But in reality, since the military is involved in the investigation and there is any sensitive information involved, those involved in the case will definitely be dealt with by the military first.

In this way, it is hard to say how many things can be done at the local level in the end.

In doing so, Zheng Yuanshan is undoubtedly opposing the establishment of a task force.

And furthermore, he is stopping the old secretary from possibly protecting the cadres of the Wu family lineage and not letting him have the opportunity to put his hands on this case.

No matter how high your rank is, no matter how old your qualifications are, but you and the military are different departments, you can't control them, can you?

Many members of the Standing Committee looked at Zheng Yuanshan with changed eyes.

They had not expected that Zheng Yuanshan would actually dare to do this. It looked like he was going to deal a deadly blow to those cadres, and what's more, he was probably going to deal a fierce blow to the cadres of the Wu family line that were involved as well, not letting them have any chance of escaping the sanctions!

No one had expected that Zheng Yuanshan would be so harsh and so tough!

Even the old secretary frowned tightly and asked in a deep voice, "Comrade Yuanshan, in that case, can't there be any coordination with the military in the middle?"

Zheng Yuanshan secretly gritted his teeth and nodded, "Secretary, I'm sorry, there's nothing I can do"

As soon as these words came out, many of the people in the audience changed their expressions again.

Zheng Yuanshan was determined not to give in!

At this time, everyone suddenly realized that the reason why Zheng Yuanshan dared to act in those crazy ways before, I'm afraid that he also had something to fall back on, moreover, he probably had already predicted this day as well!

The Ji family's revenge!

There was no doubt that this was definitely the Ji Family's intention. With Zheng Yuanshan's rank and strength, he was definitely not qualified to speak to the old secretary like this, so he must have received instructions from the Ji family.

This made many people's hearts flinch, it looked like this time the Ji family was not only going to avenge Ji Feng, but they were even going to viciously flip some of the people who were jumping up and down in this incident to the ground.

Many members of the Standing Committee subconsciously shifted their gaze to the old secretary, wanting to see how he would react.

The Ji family was so strong and wanted to meddle in the affairs of Southern Guangdong, so the old secretary might not agree, right?

However, the old secretary's reaction was beyond many people's expectations, only to see him nod slightly and say, "I understand, let's adjourn!"

Everyone could not help but be stunned, and the governor was even more anxious and said in a panic: "Secretary"

"Anything else?" The old secretary glanced at him and asked.

“..... There is nothing more.” The governor choked for a moment, then shook his head, he saw dissatisfaction in the secretary’s eyes, some directed at the Ji family, but more so, at himself.

The governor could not help but turn his gloomy gaze towards Zheng Yuanshan, but all he got was a backward glance. Zheng Yuanshan bowed his head and packed up the documents, then simply turned around and left, leaving the governor with nowhere to vent all his anger.

“Humph!”

The governor snorted coldly, picked up his briefcase and turned to leave.

This emergency standing committee began with a bizarre atmosphere, but also ended with an ending that no one had expected.

When word got out about the situation at the standing committee, many people were shocked, but some immediately shut their mouths and kept quiet!

Zheng Yuanshan had actually grasped tangible evidence, and he was making it clear that he wanted to take revenge for Ji Feng, which was tantamount to saying that the Ji family, had openly revealed their fangs.

This made many people feel resentful. After the news of Ji Feng’s attack and killing broke out, there were many people who were gloating or waiting behind the scenes to see the joke and say some cool words.

In particular, for such a long time, Ji Feng and Zheng Yuanshan had raised a lot of money to conduct an investigation, but nothing was found out, which even led to many people secretly laughing.

However, this sudden news was a shock to people.

Only then did they realise that it wasn’t that they hadn’t come up with any results, but that they had been making progress all along, only that it hadn’t been time to take action.

At the same time, some people were also getting nervous. The Ji family had now made it clear that they were on the hook, so what step would they take next?

Who would be involved?

And, what exactly will they do?

Almost everyone was watching, wanting to know the outcome, but no one expected that the Ji family’s retaliation would come so quickly.

When the Standing Committee ended just a few hours later, a number of people were once again arrested, but almost none of those who were connected to the Ji Feng assault case were able to escape.

By this time, the whereabouts of the missing vice governor and the powerful deputy director of the provincial department were known to outsiders, they had been taken away by the military because they were involved in something sensitive, and, they themselves had committed a crime and were involved in the attack on Ji Feng!

Such news shocked everyone!

Even the vice governor had fallen from grace!

And, one of the reasons was that they were involved in the attack on Ji Feng!

This news showed the Ji family's means of retaliation, and also showed the Ji family's anger. By careful calculation, from the time Ji Feng and Zheng Yuanshan started their actions until now, nearly ten officials had fallen, and this even involved officials at the level of deputy governor!

As for the people underneath, those who were involved are even more so!

Even the destruction of a gang like the Hesheng Gang, and the ruthless and harsh methods used by Ji Feng's men to stir up the entire Yuezhou underworld, all seemed so insignificant in front of this shocking news.

It can be said that the Ji family has really moved with a thunderous fury this time!

A huge storm swept through the whole of Southern Guangdong!

What the Ji Family's thunderous rage has triggered is such a terrifying effect that it is unknown how many people have been shocked!

Southern Guangdong shook!

Yanjing was equally shaken by it!

No one had expected that this storm, which had started in Southern Guangdong, would continue all the way to Yanjing.

Just a few hours after the conclusion of the emergency standing committee in Southern Guangdong, and at the same time as Zheng Yuanshan began to take further action in Southern Guangdong, an action was also underway far away in Yanjing.

When a military vehicle roared straight through the streets and headed straight for a mansion in the suburbs, the news spread and many people were shocked and stunned!

That mansion was the Qiao family's property!

Especially in the recent year, Qiao Rong was living in this mansion to recuperate, but now, these soldiers actually attacked straight there, that was clearly to make a move against Qiao Rong, and probably even against the Qiao family!

"Could it be that the attack on Ji Feng was planned by Qiao Rong?!" Some people speculated this way.

"....."

At once, when this speculation came out, everyone was silent.

If it was really Qiao Rong's doing, then the whole thing wasn't very surprising.

Because, Qiao Rong had every reason, ability and motivation to do such a thing, anyone who wanted Ji Feng's life would have stunned people, but only Qiao Rong doing so would not make people feel incomprehensible.

The grudge between the Qiao family and the Ji family was all too clear to everyone.

And those grudges between Ji Feng and the Qiao family, that was even more known to everyone. It could be said that the reason why Ji Feng had been in exile for more than ten years, following his mother and suffering all the hardships, that was all because of the Qiao family!

But on the other hand, the rapid decline of the Qiao family in recent years, and even the successive major blows it had received, were also mostly because of Ji Feng.

So strictly speaking, there was no enmity between the two of them at all, instead they were both feuding!

Of course, this was only for Ji Feng personally, but for the Qiao family, Elder Ji had been kind to them, because the reason why the Qiao family had been able to live such a prosperous life over the years, and why the Qiao family's children had been able to fly so high in Yanjing, was precisely because of Elder Ji's special care for the Qiao family.

And now, it was time for everything to come to an end.

"Boom~!"

As a team of heavily armed soldiers jumped down from the car and kicked the mansion's gate open, others climbed up the wall and quickly entered the mansion, and this property of the Qiao family was breached.

However, the scene that was then reflected in the soldiers' eyes made them slightly stunned

Campus Master Chapter 2166

Time went back a few hours.

When Zheng Yuanshan was notified to attend the emergency standing committee and be questioned, Ji Feng was in a camouflage off-road vehicle, once again whizzing past the outer ring road of Yuezhou.

Only, this time it was not he who was driving, but Guo Tao, and in the passenger seat of the car, there was also a Liu Zejun sitting.

This was the result of a strong request from Yi Xingchen and the others!

At least for the time being, Nan Yue was not quite safe, at least for Ji Feng.

Because there were now some gossips circulating in Nan Yue, many people said that the disappearance of that vice governor, and that powerful deputy director had nothing to do with Ji Feng. There were even quite a few cadres within the police system who had been taken away, and they were also directly related to Ji Feng.

So much so that there seemed to be quite a few people who were very hostile to Ji Feng, not only saying some sarcastic remarks in secret, but even some denigrating remarks, just short of overreacting.

But this cannot be left unguarded, these are not ordinary people who have been arrested, no one knows if there are one or two of their men who have acted too aggressively, when the time comes, there may be some danger.

In addition, no one can say whether there are still associates of those thugs hiding in Southern Guangdong, so Yi Xingchen and others strongly requested that Ji Feng must take someone with him when he goes out.

Ji Feng also knew that his injuries were not yet fully healed, so he readily agreed to Yi Xingchen and the others' suggestion and took along the two people he knew best, Guo Tao and Liu Zejun.

Guo Tao was a stable man, and although his kung fu might be inferior to Liu Ze-jun's, he had a calm personality and was not disorganised in the face of danger, so he was more suitable as a driver.

As for Liu Ze-jun, he is a cold character and his kung fu is even stronger. He is good at assassination in the shadows, just like a poisonous snake hiding in the shadows.

So, a three-man team was formed.

This time they acted together for the first time in Southern Guangdong, and their target was the camp of one of the Yuezhou Military Region.

When Ji Feng and the others arrived, they saw a young soldier standing in front of the main gate waiting to welcome them. Under the young warrior's leadership, they entered the military camp without any problems.

"Hoo~!"

As soon as the car stopped, Ji Feng jumped straight down.

Just then, a cheerful laugh came out, "Heh! Older brother, you're still very nimble, it seems that the rumours were wrong, you didn't suffer from heavy injuries!"

There was a hint of flirtation in this voice.

Ji Feng didn't even turn around to know who was speaking, he shook his head and said, "Younger brother Xiang, when did you learn to be oily? Is it because you have nothing to do during this period of time and the food in the army is too good, that's why you've been raised with a belly full of oil?"

As he spoke, Ji Feng turned his head and saw that not far away, a guy in military uniform was striding over, if not Xiang Yongzhan, who else could it be?

"You kid, still talking so unreasonably!" Xiang Yongzhan shook his head and laughed bitterly, saying, "Can't you hear, I'm happy for you kid, you didn't even die in that sudden attack, you can totally be called lucky to have a great life!"

"..... grass!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but burst out a foul mouth and looked at Xiang Yongzhan with a strange face: "Can you speak human language? I'm not sure if I should die if I'm attacked? Then how many times have I had to die in the past few years?"

Xiang Yongzhan burst out laughing and said, "Mistake, mistake, so what, this time you came over for"

Ji Feng glanced at him, hummed, and didn't bother to bother with him.

He was not stupid, could he not hear the ridicule in this guy's words?

The point is, now he has to ask for help from Xiang Yongzhan, so this little problem just pretend not to hear, sarcasm two sentences will not lose two pounds of meat, what's the big deal!

But Ji Feng was surprised that Xiang Yongzhan, who had never made jokes like this before, seemed a bit abnormal today.

But these are also irrelevant, so Ji Feng did not say anything more, but went straight to the point: "Old Xiang, how about it, have all those people confessed?"

"The confession has indeed been made, but the problem is that the result is a bit" Xiang Yongzhan shook his head and said, "I'm a bit surprised anyway."

"What do you mean?" Ji Feng was slightly stunned.

"What exactly does it mean, you'll know if you ask yourself." Xiang Yongzhan said.

Ji Feng's eyebrows then furrowed, it looked as if things were a bit strange, huh? Had something changed again?

The fact that he hadn't shown up publicly was in line with his status. Although he was the son of a family, he was after all a soldier and belonged to a special force, so the level of secrecy was naturally very high.

The arrival of Xiang Yongzhan, on the other hand, was a big help to Ji Feng.

Originally, although Ji Feng had already sent people to start the operation, but, for where to lock up the people after catching them, Ji Feng was a bit headache.

The reason was that he really didn't have any familiar places in Southern Guangdong.

Even if Zheng Yuanshan personally assigned an area in the detention center to hold those people, there was no guarantee that word would not leak out.

After all, Zheng Yuanshan has only been in Southern Guangdong for a year, but the Wu family has been operating here for so many years, and its forces are so intricate and complicated that there might be someone who has a relationship with the Wu family, and once word gets out, not only will the case not be investigated, but the outside world will know about it.

So, Ji Feng had no choice but to approach Xiang Yongzhan.

The company was very quick to do so, and after hearing Ji Feng's request, without saying a word, it directly arranged a place in the military camp for him to keep the captured people in solitary confinement.

With Xiang Yongzhan's status and rank, as well as the Xiang family's influence in the military, even though Xiang Yongzhan was in Jiangzhou, it was not difficult to arrange a place in Southern Guangdong.

This instantly solved Ji Feng's pressing problem.

It was precisely for this reason that Ji Feng finally decided to really start making his move, so that the ranking vice governor of Southern Guangdong, as well as the powerful deputy director of the provincial department, and other people were all imprisoned in the military camp.

Thus, it was also the next series of actions that took place.

For example, the police and the military in Southern Guangdong joined forces to destroy the Hesheng Gang, a gangster organisation based in the area of Zhamenqiao, overnight, and the arrest of many hooligans and gangsters in society, including the arrest of some people within the government, all with the support of intelligence provided by Xiang Yongzhan.

It can be said that in this operation, Xiang Yongzhan was a great help.

Although Xiang Yongzhan had never come to Southern Guangdong, without his secret help, the military might not have been so cooperative with Zheng Yuanshan and Ji Feng's actions!

After all, the military also had their business to do, they weren't just idling around all day!

Therefore, although Ji Feng didn't say anything at that time, he decided that when he returned to Jiangzhou, he would definitely go and thank Xiang Yongzhan, or show Xiang Yongzhan from some other aspect.

It was until that middle-aged policeman who had once fiercely fought with Ji Feng was caught that things took a turn for the worse.

When the two accomplices who were with that middle-aged policeman were caught by Ji Feng, their identities as reformers were completely exposed, and as a result, this immediately drew Ji Feng's high attention.

And thinking that Xiang Yongzhan had been dealing with the dynasty all along, Ji Feng directly told this news to Xiang Yongzhan.

So, after only half a day, Xiang Yongzhan arrived in Southern Guangdong on a military plane and personally took over all those people and held them in strict custody, setting strict visitation levels and even using secrecy measures!

When Ji Feng saw this, he decisively handed over the interrogation to Xiang Yongzhan, while he had more important work to do – to track down the person behind the assault and murder!

At least at this moment, in Ji Feng's view, tracking down this black hand hiding behind the curtain was more important than investigating the matter of the dynasty.

Because the dynasty had already existed for a day or two, while his side had already started to act, once the black hand behind the curtain sensed something, maybe the other party would disappear, so he had to hurry up, which was the most urgent.

So, Ji Feng went all out in his pursuit, while Zheng Yuanshan continued to arrest people based on clues and evidence.

And in the end, it turned out that all the evidence pointed to one person – that ranked vice governor!

All the people who were involved with this matter actually got their benefits from that vice governor's hands. It can be said that he is a pivot, the most crucial one, and only he knows who the mastermind behind the curtain really is!

So Ji Feng came here, he wanted to finally interrogate that old thing who was outwardly moral but was actually filthy!

However, when Ji Feng saw that old thing and got the answer from his mouth, he couldn't help but be stunned.

"Qiao Rong?!" Ji Feng frowned tightly and stared at that vice governor, his gaze stern, "Are you telling the truth? I'm warning you, if you dare to lie, you'll definitely know the consequences!"

"He's not lying!" Xiang Yongzhan suddenly said from the side.

"How can you be sure that he's not lying?" Ji Feng asked with a frown.

"It's simple, we injected him with a bit of 'nutrient', a drug that can make a person unable to control himself, but his sanity is still clear!" Xiang Yongzhan said, "In addition, in order to ensure that he was telling the truth, we repeatedly interrogated him three times, and also used some small equipment, even if he was an agent with strict training in sin, he definitely could not escape our eyes"

Speaking of this, Xiang Yongzhan grinned, "So I can be sure that he is not lying."

Campus Master Chapter 2167

Ji Feng was immediately relieved and could not help but shake his head and smile.

He had forgotten about this. When it comes to interrogation, apart from some special departments, where else can it be more professional than in the special forces?

In the past, Ji Feng had heard that in some special departments, or special forces, there are all kinds of drugs and equipment specifically used for interrogation or control of others.

For example, there are some drugs that, once injected into a person, will make him or her completely hyperactive, even if you gag him or her, he or she will want to speak even if his or her throat is cut, and will not be able to control himself or herself at all.

There are also drugs that perhaps just one sniff will make you lose control, or even the whole person will be controlled.

So when Xiang Yongzhan said this, Ji Feng was immediately relieved that since this vice governor was interrogated in this way, there was naturally no possibility of lying.

However, even so, Ji Feng still stared at that vice governor with a deadly gaze, carefully sizing him up.

Only to see that this vice governor's face was pale, his gaze was weak, and there was a touch of panic deep in his eyes, along with some remorse, only it wasn't that obvious, it was mainly panic.

Looking at this vice governor's body again, it looked a bit bloated, but more to the point, at this moment his body was trembling slightly, although it was very subtle, but it couldn't escape Ji Feng's eyes.

Ji Feng kept looking for a while, and when Xiang Yongzhan saw this, he couldn't help but say, "Or else this way, if you're still unsure, then we'll try again, it's not a hassle anyway, the drugs I brought are still enough"

Swish!

The words of Xiang Yongzhan hadn't even finished, when I saw Ji Feng suddenly step forward with an arrow and slap the guy's face fiercely.

"Slap!"

There was a crunching sound.

The old thing immediately let out a shriek and fell to the ground with his face covered.

Xiang Yongzhan frowned slightly, but didn't say much, he could understand Ji Feng's mood, anyone who was attacked and killed for no reason wouldn't be in a good mood.

At this time, Ji Feng turned around and said, "Show me the results of your interrogation."

Xiang Yongzhan was stunned, why was there no anger on Ji Feng's face? Did he act on impulse in anger just now, or was it just an illusion?

Afterwards, Xiang Yongzhan sent someone to bring over a briefcase and said, "This contains all the interrogation materials, which have been prepared for you for a long time, do you want to read them here or"

Ji Feng said, "I'll go back and read it again, it's not too late, I'll go back now, when this matter is over, I'll buy you a drink!"

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. But I'll take note of what you said, don't make me wait too long, otherwise the next time we meet, we won't be able to talk so well!"

Ji Feng waved his hand and said, "OK, OK, that's it"

"Wait a minute, let me see you off!" Xiang Yongzhan suddenly followed and said.

"How can that be nice!" Ji Feng joked.

Afterwards, the two of them walked out.

Walking on the playground of the barracks, Xiang Yongzhan suddenly said, "Older brother, seriously, I have some regrets"

"Say it, what exactly is the matter, just open up the sky and say it, don't stammer so much!" Ji Feng, however, was not the least bit surprised, as if he had expected Xiang Yongzhan to have something to say, glanced at him: "From the time I first arrived, I noticed that there was something not quite right about you, what is going on?"

"Oh"

Xiang Yongzhan waved his hand and said, "You misunderstood, actually nothing is wrong, just some feelings."

"Oh?"

Ji Feng turned his head and asked with interest, "Then tell me, what are you lamenting about?!"

A soldier was lamenting instead, which made Ji Feng very curious.

Xiang Yongzhan said, "Actually, I've been thinking these past few days whether it was a wrong decision to agree to let Bai Zhu follow you at first."

Ji Feng raised his eyebrows and asked, "What do you mean?"

Xiang Yongzhan said, "After the news of your encounter with the attack and killing spread, I also learned about it, you said that when the explosion happened, it was Bai Zhu who pushed you out of the way and blocked your body, so you saved your life, right?"

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said, "That's right! At that time, it was Bai Zhu who pushed me out of the way, if she hadn't suddenly come over, maybe you would only be able to see me in the morgue now!"

In fact, every time he thought of that day, Ji Feng was still a little thankful that Bai Zhu was with him, otherwise, he would have been a dead man by now. And at the same time, he was touched because Bai Zhu must have known what the outcome would be for herself when she pushed him away, but she did it without hesitation!

"That's why I regret it!" Xiang Yongzhan laughed, "If I hadn't agreed to let you take her away, then she'd be in the army now!"

"There's no pill of regret for sale in this world either!" Ji Feng said, "Besides, are you sure that if Bai Zhu had stayed in the army in the first place, you would have treated her like an ordinary comrade?"

Xiang Yongzhan immediately just shook his head and smiled, "Yes, so to be precise, I don't call this regret, but envy!"

He knew that Ji Feng was right, even if Bai Zhu had stayed in the army, she had been a member of the dynasty after all, and had also been the head of Xixia, the top would certainly not treat her as one of their own, here, Bai Zhu would always be an outsider!

If that was the case, how could she treat them with her heart?

People are like people with their hearts!

So, in fact, rather than saying that Xiang Yongzhan regretted it, it would be better to say that he envied Ji Feng because Ji Feng had someone by his side who would rather die for him and had deep affection for him.

Naturally, Ji Feng understood what he meant, in fact, the moment he just said that, Ji Feng knew what this guy had in mind.

Ji Feng laughed: "I see, ah, you are neither envious nor regretful, you are thinking of spring! To be more precise in professional terms, you are in heat, it's time to find a female"

“..... grass!”

Xiang Yongzhan held his tongue for half a day before he could produce such a word.

Ji Feng harrumphed: “All right, no more nonsense with you, contact in time if there is any progress, when I am busy with this matter, I will come back for a drink with you!”

After saying that, he took Guo Tao and Liu Zejun away with big strides.

Xiang Yongzhan watched for a while before shaking his head and cursing with a laugh, “This guy is a jerk!”

.....

“Boss, where are we going next?” After sitting in the car, Guo Tao asked.

“Back to the hotel!”

Ji Feng said in a deep voice: “It’s time to take the next step, we must go back and deliberate properly before we can make any mistakes.”

Guo Tao was instantly pleased and asked, “Boss, do you know who the mastermind behind the curtain is?”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “I know”

“Great!” Guo Tao slapped the steering wheel and gritted his teeth, “The fox’s tail has finally been caught, boss, you tell us how to act, we’ll do it!”

“We’re good enough!” Liu Zejun also said.

However, Ji Feng just shook his head and said, “Let’s wait until we get back, drive, I need to think about it”

It was indeed necessary to think about it, because the result was somewhat unexpected for Ji Feng.

The person behind the scenes, it would be Qiao Rong!

This is how Ji Feng did not think beforehand, in fact, he thought of countless possibilities in his mind, also filtered all the enemies in his mind, of course, also thought of whether it could be the Qiao family, but never thought it was Qiao Rong who did it!

The reason for this was that he knew Qiao Rong’s situation too well.

It wasn’t that he was watching Qiao Rong at all times, but because, he could fully anticipate what Qiao Rong’s situation was right now. He had injured Qiao Rong with bio-currents at the beginning, and according to the intelligence, Qiao Rong had never left Yanjing, which meant that she had definitely not recovered from her injuries.

It was too late for her to recuperate, so how could she have the energy to plan such an operation?

But the result, indeed, was beyond his expectations, it was really Qiao Rong’s doing!

It wasn't that Ji Feng didn't suspect this result, when he first heard about it, he immediately wondered if the old thing had lied, or if he was deliberately trying to obfuscate the situation as a way to cover up something.

But once Xiang Yongzhan had told him about his interrogation methods, Ji Feng believed quite a bit, but he wasn't completely convinced. Therefore, he carefully stared at that old thing for a while and then suddenly gave it a slap.

His aim was to observe that old thing's reaction.

As it turned out, both the look on the old thing's face, his physical features, and his reaction proved that he had once been ravaged by the drug, and, moreover, that his reaction was not feigned, but certainly real!

Therefore it was also certain that what he said was true!

The person behind it was Qiao Rong!

"Pop!"

Ji Feng lowered the car window, lit a cigarette, and quietly thought about this matter, what should be done

The involvement of Qiao Rong is actually not difficult to general, and Qiao Rong is no big deal.

The key question is, now that Qiao Rong is already seriously injured, if he strikes again against Qiao Rong, will he be perceived as bullying too much?

Or, was he taking the opportunity to fix the Qiao family?

The most crucial thing was whether it would arouse the resentment of certain bigwigs, because if he moved Qiao Rong now, it would probably give people the impression that he was driving people to their deaths.

Ji Feng was a little hesitant, originally, before he found out who was behind this, he hated this guy to death.

However, now that he knew the truth, Ji Feng was a little hesitant instead.

A moment later, he took out the phone and called Ji Zhenguo: "Second uncle, this is Xiao Feng, I've come across something tricky"

He quickly told what had happened and also stated his concerns, "Second Uncle, what should I do?"

"What to do, do!"

Who knew that second uncle Ji Zhenguo's words were resounding: "What if we drive her to extinction? Since she dared to do such a thing, she must be prepared to be driven to extinction! Because she has not given herself a way out by doing what she did!"

"If it was something else, it would be fine, but he wants you dead now!" Ji Zhenguo said with a single word: "We, we will not tolerate this!"

Campus Master Chapter 2168

Listening to the powerful words of his second uncle, Ji Feng's heart was greatly settled, and he couldn't help the emotions stirring in his heart as he nodded his head heavily and said, "Second uncle, I know what to do!"

"Remember!"

Ji Zhenguo added, "Our Ji family never takes the initiative to bully people, nor will we take the initiative to pick a fight, that's not in line with our status. However, we also definitely won't let people bully us, let alone give in again and again! Peace, it's never been about fighting! If the time comes when we have to fight, then we will have to fight!"

"Mmm!"

Ji Feng nodded his head heavily and said, "Second Uncle, I'll put it down!"

Ji Zhenguo said, "Well! Just write it down, you don't have to worry too much, no matter what, you're still just a little kid, so you should learn to look at the whole picture in everything you do, but you don't have to be too old-fashioned, young people, you should always have some blood and fire in you!"

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, he hadn't thought but actually said the same thing.

When he talked to his father Ji Zhenhua on the phone before, his father said the same thing on the phone, and now second uncle also said the same thing, which made Ji Feng secretly say, it seems that on some matters, the family is not going to be so tolerant anymore!

"Alright, that's it." Ji Zhenguo said, "Call me in time if there's anything!"

"Mm!"

Ji Feng nodded, "Second Uncle, I understand."

"Also, you don't have to do this matter yourself!" Ji Zhenguo suddenly said, "There are some things that should always have an end!"

"What?" Ji Feng was slightly stunned and didn't understand what Second Uncle meant for a moment.

"It's nothing, it's about Qiao Rong, just watch it." Ji Zhenguo said and then hung up the phone.

This caused Ji Feng to be confused, what exactly did those two last words from second uncle mean? Why did he suddenly stop himself from interfering again?

Could it be that there was something else going on in between?

Ji Feng thought about it and felt very strange, but no matter how he thought about it, he couldn't think of anything, so in the end, he could only give up.

Since Second Uncle said that he would not be allowed to interfere with Qiao Rong's affairs and only let him watch from the sidelines, then he naturally would not interfere too much.

Therefore, Ji Feng quickly put the matter down and went to work on the Southern Guangdong side of things.

Although the case now seems to have been solved and the people who should be arrested have been arrested, there are still a lot of questions in it that make Ji Feng very puzzled, and many questions in his mind are still unanswered.

For example, from the beginning of this matter, it was clear that Qiao Rong was secretly taking revenge on herself, which is why she planned such a sudden attack and killing together with others.

But in the end, how could it still be related to the reformer?

Of course, Ji Feng naturally knew that there was a connection between Qiao Rong and Dynasty, and that the connection was very close, which he had known a long time ago.

In fact, ever since he had met Qiao Rong at the Royal Hotel in Yanjing, Ji Feng had already guessed that there must be some unknown relationship between Qiao Rong and Dynasty, and a series of events later proved that his guess was correct.

If this seemed to be the case, it was not surprising that Qiao Rong wanted to assassinate herself by using Dynasty's reformers.

But in Ji Feng's view, the problem lay precisely in this point.

First of all, how terrifying were the dynasty's transformers, at least the dynasty had a lot of transformers, moreover, the strength of those senior transformers was naturally needless to say, if not using bio-current, Ji Feng had to be scandalized.

But in this operation, Qiao Rong actually didn't use the advanced transformers, and he didn't even see the transformers strike until the end, the only two that he encountered were still so unbearable.

This made Ji Feng feel a little strange, why did he have to use those ordinary people instead when he obviously had powerful reformers not to use them?

Of course, Ji Feng had to admit that those killers were indeed very powerful, at least, their kind of brave spirit was very surprising to Ji Feng.

But if it were Ji Feng, he would definitely use the most powerful experts, after all, since he had already decided to do it, he had to do it without fail, and Qiao Rong would not be unaware that if the operation failed, it would probably end up being traced back to her!

In addition, Ji Feng also had a question, that is, where exactly did Qiao Rong mobilize the reformers from, to be precise, where exactly were those reformers hidden!

These were the questions that Ji Feng urgently needed to know.

So now, he was looking for the answers to these questions.

And to find the answers to these questions, the easiest thing was to directly capture Qiao Rong.

But Ji Feng was unaware that the operation to capture Qiao Rong might not be that smooth and, moreover, the result might not be the same as he had expected.

.....

In Yanjing, the Qiao family's mansion in the suburbs, a large number of warriors were heavily armed and invaded the mansion.

However, when they entered the mansion, the scene they saw left them stunned.

In front of the main hall of the mansion, two chairs were set up.

On one of the chairs sat a young girl, but what was shocking was that the girl was not sitting normally on the chair, but was tied up.

Her hands were tied behind the back of the chair and each of her feet were secured to the legs of the chair.

What was even more surprising was that the girl had several bunches of black things strapped to her chest – bombs!

The soldiers were all too familiar with them, these were bombs!

These bombs were hanging from the girl's neck, several of them hanging down and secured to her waist, and looking at the dense wires, one could not help but feel one's scalp tingling.

At the moment, the girl was so frightened that her face was pale and her eyes were full of panic, as the excessive panic made her whole body tremble incessantly.

But she didn't dare to struggle in the slightest, because those bombs were fixed right on her body, making her not dare to move at all.

So she could only desperately try to control her body.

Yet the more she did so, the more fearful she became, and as a result, her body shook even more.

Even the few warriors standing not far away could hear the chattering and cackling of her chattering teeth!

"Help, help"

As soon as the girl saw these warriors rushing in, she immediately shouted in panic, and her tears even came down with a swish.

Those warriors had already been on alert for a long time, in groups of three, with their guns pointed in different directions, to prevent someone from attacking from the shadows.

At the same time, two warriors came forward to observe the situation.

"Little girl, who are you? Why are you here?!" A warrior asked with a frown.

"I I"

"Don't be nervous, take your time, there's no rush." Seeing that the girl was so nervous that she couldn't even speak properly, the warrior couldn't help but speak out to comfort her.

However, the girl's fear seemed to have reached its limit, her face was full of panic and she would only keep shouting, "Help, help"

The soldier who came forward then couldn't help but frown and hurriedly reassured, "Don't be afraid, we will definitely save you, but you must not move around now, if you pull the wires on the bomb, it may explode"

"Ah...!"

Before he could finish his words, the girl screamed at once, obviously terrified.

Several warriors couldn't help but look at each other and could only offer words of comfort, but the effect wasn't too good, the girl was obviously terrified and couldn't listen to the comfort at all.

"If you move again, the bomb will kill you!" Suddenly, a voice came out coldly, a voice that appeared so abruptly and was so harsh that it sounded like metal rubbing together, sending chills down one's back.

However, the effect of the sound was also very obvious.

As soon as the girl heard the sound, her screams stopped abruptly, but her face became even more frightened.

Several soldiers immediately looked in the direction of the sound, but could not see anyone and could only conclude that the sound was coming from inside the house.

The leader of the group gave a quiet wink to his comrades, and at once a few of them felt their way over the wall, ready to sneak into the house.

But as soon as they moved, the voice inside the house came out again, "If any of you move again, the bomb will explode!"

They had no choice but to give up. The other side was in the dark, they were in the light, and their every move was being watched.

"I know that you also have people behind the mansion, I advise you to better stop your comrades, otherwise, they can become martyrs!" The other man added.

"Don't you dare!" One of the warriors snapped.

"You've all come to arrest me, what else would I dare not do?" The other side sneered.

"If you dare to do that, I guarantee you won't end up well!" A warrior said in a cold voice, "We have plenty of ways to deal with people like you!"

"I believe that, the dogs raised by the Ji family are naturally very good at biting!" The other side sneered, "You are not qualified, let the Ji family come and talk to me!"

A few soldiers' faces looked very bad, but looking at the bomb on that girl, they could only stop for a while.

"Report it to the chief!"

"That's all we can do."

"Pop!"

Soon, the gate of the mansion was opened, and Ji Zhenping dragon-walked, arriving in the courtyard, his face steeped in gloom when he saw the scene in front of him.

“Qiao Rong! What kind of a thing are you to talk about a little girl?!” Ji Zhenping shouted lowly, “Don’t forget that you are a woman yourself, you are also a mother, if you still have some conscience, let this child go immediately and I can guarantee that I won’t hurt your life!”

“Ho!”

A cold laugh came from inside the room, mockingly saying, “Who did I think it was, it turned out to be General Ji, I haven’t seen you for a few years, you’ve become a bigger and bigger official, unfortunately, ah, these things should have been mine”

Ji Zhenping impatiently interrupted the other party’s words and said in a cold voice: “Cut the crap, let them go immediately!”

“What if I don’t let go?” The other party sneered, “What can you do to me? If I detonate the bomb right now, who among you will be able to escape?”

Swish!

Ji Zhenping’s face suddenly turned gloomy.

Campus Master Chapter 2169

“Qiao Rong, don’t go too far!” Ji Zhenping sank his face and said in a cold voice, “What grudge our two families have has nothing to do with anyone else, why do you have to hurt an innocent person?!”

“She’s innocent?”

“Ha!”

A cold laugh suddenly came from inside the room, “This little bitch gives me that look all day long as if she’s looking at a monster, I would have hated to kill her long ago! If it wasn’t for the fact that she can take care of people quite well, do you think she could have survived until now?!”

“But that’s good, it’s really effective to have her as this particular bomb now!”

“Qiao Rong!”

Ji Zhenping roared lowly, “You’re playing with fire! I’m telling you, you better not challenge my patience, I’ve seen a lot of dead people, a few more deaths is no big deal, but if she dies, what do you have to fall back on? What will happen to you then, don’t you think about it?”

“If that’s the case, then why don’t you just shoot her dead?” The voice inside the room was unperturbed, “I can allow you all to push out, where the bomb wave can’t be remembered, you can then shoot her and kill her, and then detonate the bomb, so you can catch me, can’t you?”

Ji Zhenping sank his face, shook his head and said, “Qiao Rong, I think you are really crazy!”

“Why do I think, on the contrary, that I am very clever?” The voice inside the room laughed coldly, “How about it, my proposal is good, right? What are you waiting for, General Ji?”

“I won’t be as inhuman as you are!” Ji Zhenping said in a cold voice.

If he had fired at the very beginning when he rushed in and killed this little girl by mistake because he hadn’t seen clearly, Ji Zhenping might have been able to barely accept it, after all, like he said, he was a soldier, he didn’t know how many times he had killed with the enemy, he had long been used to seeing life and death, it was nothing at all.

However, now he was asked to kill an innocent person for no reason, such a thing, he really could not do it.

It was not a matter of fear or intimidation, but a matter of one’s conscience.

Even the most cold-blooded person would have a softer side, not to mention the fact that Ji Zhenping was only a soldier, not an unblinking killing machine!

The two sides just stood there, Ji Zhenping’s sullen face did not say a word, and the people inside the house also seemed to be extremely patient, also did not say a word, time just drained away, except for the girl with the bomb strapped to her body, scared, already pale and shivering.

“What the hell do you want?” Finally, Ji Zhenping spoke up.

“That’s right!”

The voice in the room rang out at once: “I want to see your father!”

“Impossible!”

Ji Zhenping flatly refused, “Don’t be so delusional, just die while you can, what are you, worthy of seeing my father?”

You’re kidding!

With the old man’s status, how could Ji Zhenping possibly let him come here?

Ji Zhenping could tell with a single glance that the bomb on that girl’s body was enough to level the courtyard once it exploded, so in case her father came and Qiao Rong did something crazy, how would it end then?

How could Ji Zhenping allow his father to take such a risk?

What’s more, even if he agreed, the top would definitely not agree.

Because each and every one of these old comrades, the only ones left, were the treasures of the country, the top would never agree to the old man coming here.

“Qiao Rong, you only have two ways now, first, come out immediately and tie your hands, so that I will ensure that you suffer less, or as little as possible, what kind of punishment you should receive will be judged by the court, we will never interfere!” Ji Zhenping’s voice was low, just now Qiao Rong’s proposal had angered him, “Second

“Needless to say, I choose the second one!” The voice in the room said directly.

“Second, you detonate the bomb right now!” Ji Zhenping, however, as if he had not heard, said to himself, “This way all of us here will die, but the warriors we left outside, will catch you, and at that time, it will be light for you to be broken into pieces, and there will be countless ways to torture people waiting for you!”

“Other than that, there will be no more discussion, you can see for yourself!” Ji Zhenping snorted coldly.

“.....”

There was no more sound in the room.

Ji Zhenping grimaced and waved his hand, “Prepare to free the hostages!”

“Let Ji Feng come to see me!” At this time, the man in the room said again.

“That’s not possible either!”

Ji Zhenping shook his head and said, “Don’t even think about it, no one will come to see you, if you continue to be stubborn, there is only one way to die!”

“Let that little beast Ji Feng come to see me!” The man in the room suddenly screamed.

“Joke!”

Ji Zhenping sneered, “Whoever you say you want to see? Besides, it takes five or six hours to get here from Nan Yue at the soonest, do you think she can still last that long?”

He pointed at the girl, who by now had long been scared out of her wits.

“So, if there’s enough time, Ji Feng can come over.” The man in the room asked.

“I am not going to let him come to see you, Qiao Rong, I advise you to be practical, if you surrender now, I guarantee that you will not be tortured”

“So, Ji Feng is still alive and he is unharmed?” The man in the room asked in a sharp voice.

“Of course!”

Ji Zhenping sneered, “You think your little tricks can hurt him”

“Is he really still alive?” The man in the room was asking repeatedly.

“Not only is he alive, but he’s alive and well!” Ji Zhenping sneered, “It’s you, on the contrary, hiding your head, don’t you feel pitiful?”

“He’s alive”

“Haha!”

The man in the room suddenly laughed shrilly, looking a little mad, “After all that effort, that little beast is still alive, ah”

Ji Zhenping instantly sensed that something was wrong, he waved his hand violently, at the same time, he heard a sudden muffled sound coming from inside the room, “Boom!”

The next moment, a shrill voice came out, "Since that's the case, then you can go to hell!"

"Do it!" Ji Zhenping shouted at once.

"Zhi~~!"

In a flash, a burst of white mist fiercely shot out from the hand of a warrior, that white mist was extremely swift and fierce, enveloping the girl in an instant.

At the same time, several warriors rushed straight into the house.

When the white mist dispersed, only to see that the girl's body was already covered in ice, her whole body seemed to have become an ice sculpture and the bomb on her body was frozen alive!

Ji Zhenping shouted, "Defuse the bomb and save the people!"

"Yes!"

Several soldiers quickly moved the girl to the side and began to defuse the bomb while rescuing the girl.

Ji Zhenping's face was sullen as he stared at the room.

He wasn't worried about the girl, that white mist just now was just a high-intensity coolant that was specifically used to freeze the bomb, before it exploded, the amazing coldness would directly freeze the bomb, making it unable to explode at all.

Of course, this is damaging to the human body, but not fatal, so as long as the person is freed as quickly as possible after freezing the bomb, they will be safe and sound after treatment.

This is specially prepared for cooling bombs in the army.

The reason why Ji Zhenping had been talking to Qiao Rong just now was to stall for time, so that the soldier would have enough time to prepare and could then suddenly strike to cool the bomb.

Now it was Qiao Rong that Ji Zhenping was waiting for.

Soon, the girl was quickly rescued and quickly taken to the hospital by the two warriors, while the bomb was repeatedly frozen and then defused for the final time.

However, just then, a soldier came running out of the house quickly and said, "Report chief, there's no one in the house! But a tunnel has been found"

"What?!"

Ji Zhenping instantly frowned, "Chase along the tunnel! Be careful!"

"Yes!"

The brigade of warriors rushed in.

Ji Zhenping's frown was however getting tighter and tighter, he suddenly realised that this time it would be a bit difficult to catch Qiao Rong, I'm afraid.

.....

“What?”

When Ji Feng received the call from his younger uncle, he was stunned: “Qiao Rong ran away?!”

This was really out of Ji Feng’s expectation, he didn’t expect that Qiao Rong would escape from the tunnel!

Although he had long guessed that Qiao Rong would definitely be prepared, but the question was, how could he have not thought that there would be such a move as a tunnel, could it be that Qiao Rong had learned from the original tunnel warfare?

“Little Uncle, where does that tunnel lead to?” Ji Feng asked in consternation.

“It leads in many directions!” Ji Zhenping laughed bitterly, “Yanjing’s network of tunnels, that’s accessible in all directions

“What do you mean? Where did Yanjing get so many tunnels?” Ji Feng was puzzled.

“That’s a long story!” Ji Zhenping shook his head and laughed bitterly, “These tunnels, in fact, were originally used to hide from nuclear bombs!”

Ji Feng almost didn’t bite his tongue, hiding from nuclear bombs? How was this related to nuclear bombs again?

“What the hell is going on?” Ji Feng asked in a strange and incomparable manner.

“It goes back many years

Others might not know, but Ji Zhenping was clear that since there were tunnels under that mansion, that meant that Qiao Rong had countless paths to escape.

Because the network of underground tunnels under Yanjing was simply too developed!

Many people may not know that in Yanjing, there is actually a network of tunnels in all directions.

Decades ago, after the Soviet Union and Russia had fallen out with China, that tyrant of the Soviet Union threatened China with nuclear bombs from time to time.

And given that tyrant’s character and ruthlessness, no one could say whether he would really use nuclear bombs against China.

Under such circumstances, the country’s technology was really too backward, and in desperation, Tai Zu called on everyone to dig tunnels for a rainy day, as a way to deal with the nuclear war that might come.

Of course, as we all know, nuclear war did not happen, but the vast network of tunnels was preserved, although many were filled in later and after so many years of construction, many tunnels no longer existed, but in fact, there were still many tunnels that were preserved.

As a result, these tunnels became Qiao Rong’s means of escape...

Campus Master Chapter 2170

When Ji Feng finished listening to his little uncle’s explanation, he was also speechless for a moment.

To say that Qiao Rong had escaped, Ji Feng wouldn't have felt much of a surprise, but the fact that Qiao Rong had actually escaped in this way was really out of his expectation.

Because before this, Ji Feng had envisioned countless escape methods that Qiao Rong might use, but he had never thought that she would actually use the tunnel network that had existed under Yanjing for a long time to escape!

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, no wonder there was the name of ground snake, it was evident that in any matter, there were various factors such as timing, location and people. Once any one of these factors went wrong, the final result could be very different from what was expected!

"In that case, Qiao Rong has been thinking of escaping for a long time!" Ji Feng shook his head, "Even choosing a residence on the tunnel network, this is really painstaking, and it's not hard to accept that we caught her."

"This time it was carelessness!" Ji Zhenping was a little regretful, "I just didn't pay too much attention to this woman before, and that's why it has caused the current consequences. In fact, I sent someone to probe, the tunnels under this mansion of the Qiao family are not left over from the past, but newly dug in the last year or two, she is connecting the tunnels directly to the original Yanjing underground tunnel network!"

Ji Feng also shook his head and smiled, indeed he had been careless.

Originally, after Qiao Rong was seriously injured by him, he did not pay much attention to Qiao Rong because he thought that as long as he could ensure that Qiao Rong did not leave Yanjing and could know her whereabouts at any time, she would not be able to make much of a fuss.

But now it seemed that he had been too careless. If he had kept a close eye on Qiao Rong, he might have been able to discover some clues.

"Just run away!" Ji Feng shook his head and said, "Now that it's already like this, it's useless to say anything else, Little Uncle, this time it's hard for you."

"I didn't work hard, I just have some regrets!" Ji Zhenping said, "This is really living hell That girl who was strapped to the bomb by Qiao Rong has also come to her senses, she said that Qiao Rong was in a wheelchair and the lower half of her body was completely paralyzed, that woman was able to escape like this, it's really strange... .."

"Hmm?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be stunned, "In a wheelchair? So, she hasn't recovered from her injuries? Then how did she escape?"

Ji Zhenping laughed bitterly, "That's what's most strange to me! According to that girl's confession, she had been in charge of serving Qiao Rong recently, but today when she was changing Qiao Rong's clothes, she just felt her eyes go black, and then she woke up to find herself tied up with bombs hanging all over her body."

"In that case, that girl didn't see exactly how Qiao Rong escaped either?" Ji Feng asked.

"No!"

Ji Zhenping said, "Ever since that girl fainted, she has never seen Qiao Rong's shadow, even when I talked to her today, I didn't see her, so I don't know how she entered the tunnel, let alone how she escaped!"

"So that's how it is" Ji Feng couldn't help but ponder.

"However, after Qiao Rong escaped, I have sent people around to set up controls, unless that woman stays underground forever, otherwise, as long as she shows her face, she will definitely not be able to escape!" Ji Zhenping said.

Ji Feng nodded, but there was some doubt in his heart.

He felt that since Qiao Rong could escape comfortably, she probably had a way to leave Yanjing, or at least she wouldn't be caught

The two of them did not chat with Ji Zhenping for long before they closed the line, Ji Zhenping had to direct the operation next, and Ji Feng likewise had things to do.

.....

Ji Feng was attacked and killed, and the person behind the attack was actually Qiao Rong!

For this reason, Ji Zhenping, the third member of the Ji family, personally led the team and directly dispatched the Red Arrow special forces to arrest Qiao Rong.

This news, once again, caused quite a shock, so much so that, in the end, the news of Qiao Rong's escape from the tunnel did not even cause much of a ripple anymore.

Everyone already knew that it was actually inconsequential whether Qiao Rong was caught or not at this time.

It was because Qiao Rong's action had already set the nature of the matter, and it could be seen from the fact that Ji Zhenping personally led an aggressive team to arrest the man, that the Ji family would never tolerate this kind of behavior from Qiao Rong, and they would not stand by and watch others assassinate Ji Feng without doing anything about it!

And this, too, determined the direction of things to come.

The Qiao family would be completely finished!

As expected, with Qiao Rong's escape, some of the Qiao Family's main figures, who had already been almost cleaned up, were once again investigated, especially some of the people who were close to Qiao Rong.

Immediately afterwards, several heavyweights in the Qiao family had their positions adjusted, and everyone involved in the whole affair was arrested within the shortest possible time, while those who were involved in the affair, but not deeply, could barely protect themselves, but it was clear that their future would not be too easy.

More importantly, when these people from the Qiao family are reshuffled, it means that their chances of advancement are almost eliminated, unless they can make some significant contribution or have real merits in their positions and win the hearts and minds of the people.

But the problem is that almost all the Qiao family members have been reassigned to insignificant positions, hardly different from sitting on the bench.

What contribution could they make in such a position?

Anyone could see that after this incident, the Qiao family was in complete decline.

I'm afraid that within a few years, the Qiao family will completely fade out of sight and be reduced to an ordinary family, and that's only if Ji Feng and the others don't pursue the matter further.

Otherwise, based on what Qiao Rong had done, I'm afraid no one could say anything about Ji Feng's killing of them – of course, outsiders could only say a few words behind their backs, but could not stop Ji Feng, because it was not Ji Feng's turn to stop what he wanted to do!

However, for the already declining Qiao family, Ji Feng is not much interested in it anymore, although it feels good to beat a falling dog, but that also depends on whether the falling dog is worth beating.

And for Ji Feng, those people of the Qiao family he really did not put in his eyes!

So, just let them go!

From this point on, the Qiao family, completely fell!

A storm caused by Ji Feng's assault and murder swept through both Southern Guangdong and Yanjing in a very short period of time.

The officialdom of Southern Guangdong was shaken!

Yanjing was likewise shaken a few times!

When this matter gradually came to an end, some people were shocked to find that from the time Ji Feng was attacked until this final curtain fell, the number of people involved in this whole process was shockingly large, and many of them were in important positions!

The vice governor of Southern Guangdong!

A powerful deputy director of the provincial department!

A branch chief!

The head of the inspection section!

At the same time, there was also a famous private entrepreneur in Southern Guangdong, a tycoon, and even a large number of gang members, including the Hesheng Gang, who were arrested!

The number of people arrested was as many as dozens, and this was only the most prominent people, as for those gangsters, hooligans, etc., there was no telling how many there were!

The Ji family's thunderous rage was so terrifying that it shocked people!

And through this incident, it finally made many people understand what kind of status Ji Feng had in the Ji Family, and more importantly, what kind of terrifying energy the usually silent Ji Family would generate once it really got angry!

But everyone who understood this matter remembered the prestige of the Ji family!

However, only a very few people vaguely knew that, from the beginning to the end, the Ji family had not really made a move, all along, it was Ji Feng who really made a move!

And the more this happened, the more astonishing it was, because as one became more thorough in this matter, one would realize how powerful Ji Feng's methods were, and how terrifying this man's energy really was!

Thunder's fury!

I don't know how many people had this word floating in their minds, it was really because this time the Ji family's tactics were too ruthless and too severe, they simply didn't leave the slightest bit of mercy.

Comparing the Ji Family's style of action in the past, everyone knew that this time the Ji Family was truly enraged!

The Ji family's thunderous anger is really not that easy to bear!

The fall of the Qiao family was the best example of this.

The crowd was silent!

The severity of the Ji family's tactics caused a huge shock to many people's hearts, and at the same time, they also began to re-examine the Ji family. It seemed that the previous view of the Ji family as being stable and unhurried had to be changed.

A dragon has rebellious scales, touching them in anger will kill!

Even a man of clay has a fire in him, not to mention the Ji family, whose power overshadows the sky.

Through this incident, many people who did not have much respect for the Ji family and had even spoken out behind their backs to denigrate the Ji family, as well as some people who wanted to hug the thighs of the Wu family and thus often said things that were not very favourable to the Ji family, could not help but be frightened.

They had finally seen the Ji Family's methods and finally understood that the Ji Family's majesty was not something that people like them could offend!

Normally, the Ji family ignored them, so they could jump up and down.

However, once the Ji Family really took them to task, they would only be clowns and would not even know how they died!

So after Ji Feng was attacked and killed this time, an additional effect was that it caused many people to keep their mouths shut, and the original noisy, noisy, gossip-filled scene was now clean!

The Ji family had accidentally established its authority through this incident, which was an unexpected gain.

However, some discerning people who had kept a clear head knew that this matter was far from over. For example, in this incident, which originally had nothing to do with the Wu family, some people from the Wu family were blabbing about it outside, afraid that others would not know that he was mocking Ji Feng.

More importantly, it was certain people from the Wu family's lineage who dared to take this opportunity to brazenly strike out at Zheng Yuanshan and the others, who represented the Ji family, in a vain attempt to cut off the Ji family's hand!

Provocation!
