Chapter 1: End And Beginning I

Above the clear sky, there was a strange creature with blood-red eyes, two large horns on his head, and large black wings on his back. However, the creature struggles to escape the black box that traps him, and it continues to suck him in, but the injuries in his body make him weaker.

Not far in front of him, a man with long white hair wearing white clothes covered in blood sat on a white cloud, and his condition was also quite serious with many wounds on his body, but he smiled in satisfaction seeing that the creature was helpless because of his actions.

"Tang Xiao!" The creature furiously shouted. "I will remember today's events for the rest of my life! I will kill you and those closest to you once I'm free."

Tang Xiao just shook his head as he watched the creature get sucked into the black box, and he pulled it close before placing a few seals on it. After he threw it into outer space, he looked at the ground covered in countless corpses and blood, causing him to sigh in sadness and disappointment.

Tang Xiao then flew down before landing in front of a beautiful woman with waist-length snow-white hair. "How is your condition, Master?"

"I'm fine." Despite her messy appearance and blood also soaking her white dress, the woman still looks like a flawless goddess. "Is it all over now?"

"No." Tang Xiao then looked at the corpses. "We did succeed in defeating the creature and sealing him, but we completely lost in this battle, and they had to die because of our weakness."

"En." The woman nodded and looked at the corpses too. "They have fought very hard to defeat that creature, but this is the end of their journey, and I hope they can find peace in their next life."

"Unfortunately, they will never be able to find peace as long as the creature is still alive, and he will return someday in the future." Tang Xiao said as he let out a heavy sigh. "Moreover, only the two of us are left now, and it takes a very long time for new cultivators to reach our stage, so we have no hope of defeating that creature if he breaks free from my seals in the future."

The woman sighed heavily after she heard that, and she then asked Tang Xiao. "Do you really want to carry out your previous plan?"

"Our universe will be destroyed if that creature returns, so I will carry out my plan." Tang Xiao then looked gently at the woman. "Aren't you going to stop me, Master?"

"What can I do to stop you?" The woman replied with a bitter smile and then rubbed Tang Xiao's head. "I am indeed your master, but you are the strongest in our universe now, and you are never willing to listen to my words anymore. However, we don't know about the consequences, so you have to be very careful in carrying out your actions, and you shouldn't change the past too much, or the consequences will be more severe. Do you understand?"

"Don't worry, I will remember your words." Tang Xiao then hugged the woman, and she also hugged him back. "Goodbye, Master. I hope my plan will succeed in changing the situation, and all living beings in our universe can live peacefully in the future."

"En, I will pray that your plan will succeed." The woman replied as she hugged Tang Xiao tighter. "I hope we will meet again in the future, Little Xiao."

Tang Xiao then released the woman from his arms and took her hand. "Master, we will meet again in the future, and our lives will definitely be better than now."

"All right, you can go now, or I will change my mind." Tang Xiao nodded at her before pressing his wrist, and he instantly disappeared from the woman's sight, making her sigh softly. "Goodbye, Little Xiao."

Tang Xiao was standing in a futuristic room filled with various kinds of sophisticated equipment, and he then spoke to the little girl on the screen in the middle of the room. "Xiao Ai, execute the plan, and we will go straight to the past."

[Are you sure you want to do that, Master? Your master has repeatedly warned you about the consequences of going to the past, especially since it would disrupt the flow of time in this universe, and there is a possibility that it would create parallel universes.]

Tang Xiao nodded to her. "I'm well aware of the consequences, but we have no other choice now, or else this universe will be completely destroyed. Moreover, I've prepared everything very well, and I'm sure that my actions won't create parallel universes, so you can carry out the plan now."

[All right, I will execute the plan now, so you better be prepared, Master.]

"I'm ready any time."

[3... 2... 1... We will enter the time hole now, and we will immediately arrive in that era, Master.]

Sometime later, Tang Xiao was already floating in the air as he mumbled. "It's been too long since I've breathed this bad air, but I really miss those times."

"Tens of thousands of years, right?" Tang Xiao nodded to Xiao Ai, who was sitting on his shoulders. "So where are we now? And which era is this?"

Tang Xiao pointed at an area not far from their position. "Today was supposed to be the day my parents were murdered, and those people killed them there."

Xiao Ai was not surprised by that, as she already knew Tang Xiao's past. "Are you going to save them, Master?"

"No." Tang Xiao shook his head at her. "I don't want them to die, but I can't stop it because it will cause a chain effect, and my young self will never change, so no one can stop that creature. Anyway, let's go there, and you can directly watch the beginning of change in my life."

"En, let's go."

Two people were shocked when several cars blocked their way, but as the middle-aged man was about to turn his car around, he discovered that several other cars were blocking the road behind them.

"Shit! I didn't expect them to ambush us!" The middle-aged man cursed as he looked at the cars in turn.

Meanwhile, the middle-aged woman in the passenger seat looked panicked as she hugged their five-year-old son. "What should we do now, husband? Xiao'er is with us now, and I don't want anything bad to happen to him."

The middle-aged man looked around him and saw a dark street to their left. "Wife! Get out now! Take Xiao'er away that way, and I'll stop them!"

"But—"

"Go now!" The middle-aged man shouted as he opened the passenger door. "It doesn't matter if I die in their hands, but you and Xiao'er must survive, and you must tell your big sister later, so she will take care of you two and Yin'er."

"All... all right." With a heavy heart, the woman took her son out of the car, and she immediately ran through the dark street.

Seeing that, the people immediately got out of the car; some of them surrounded the middle-aged man, and some of them chased the woman.

However, little Tang Xiao suddenly woke up. "Mom? Why are we going through a dark street like this? Where is my dad? Why isn't he coming with us?"

"Xiao'er, some bad guys are blocking our way, and your father is trying to stop them, so he asked me to take you to hide." The woman explained as she continued to run forward, but she also repeatedly looked back to check on the people chasing her.

"Why are those people chasing us, Mom?" Little Tang Xiao asked with an innocent face.

"They were jealous of your father's success, so they wanted to snatch everything from him."

"Mom! We can't leave my dad!"

"No." The woman immediately refused. "Those people are very evil, and they will do evil things to us. That's why I will hide you in a safe place first, and I will help your father afterward."

"No! I'll come with you, Mom! I want to save my dad!"

"Listen to me, Xiao'er. You are your father's successor, so we won't let anything happen to you; otherwise, our family will be finished."

"No!"

"Xiao'er!" The woman snapped at him. "You know that we love you, right?"

"But—"

"Stop it! Don't make a fuss like this, or they'll find us." Suddenly, the woman saw a hole in a wall, and without thinking twice, she put her son in. "Xiao'er, we may not be able to accompany you again after today, but you must always remember that we love you very much, and you must live for us, okay?"

"But—"

"Xiao'er, don't argue, okay?" The woman interrupted little Tang Xiao and hugged him tightly. "You must take care of yourself and your big sister, okay?"

"Mom, don't leave me; I don't want to be separated from you two." Little Tang Xiao said this as he cried loudly while hugging his mother tightly.

They suddenly heard the people getting closer to them, so the woman took out the cell phone in her pocket and gave it to him. "After they leave, you should contact your aunt, and she will definitely find you."

"Mom!"

"They are already close, Xiao'er. Mother will divert their attention, and you should stay hidden here without making a sound." After she said that, the woman pushed little Tang Xiao, and she ran as fast as she could from that place.

Chapter 2: End And Beginning II

After her mother left, Little Tang Xiao called his aunt, but her number was off, so he left a voice message for her. "Aunt Yuan! I... I'm scared! Bad people are chasing my parents... so... so you have to come here quickly to save us."

Even though he wanted to see his parents, Little Tang Xiao still obeyed his mother's words, and he continued to hide, especially since he could hear the footsteps of several people passing by in that area.

When those people finally caught Little Tang Xiao's mother, they took her to her husband's place, but some of them continued to look for him.

When they arrived there, she was aching when she saw her husband's condition; his body was covered in bruises and blood, and she could barely recognize him because of the bruises on his face.

Even though his whole body was in extreme pain, Little Tang Xiao's father felt relief because they did not find their son. 'Xiao'er, your father and mother won't be able to accompany you anymore, so you have to take good care of yourself, and you also have to take care of Yin'er.'

Suddenly, a tall and burly blonde man lifted Tang Xiao's father from the ground, and he strangled him by the neck. "Hey, Tang Ye! I made a nice offer to you, but you rejected my offer, so I had to get rid of you because your presence always put pressure on us, and I was going to take everything from you. If you want to blame someone for the destruction of your family, then you have to blame yourself. Regarding your son and daughter, you shouldn't worry about them because I won't kill them; however, I will ensure they endure a living hell.

"Gah!" Tang Ye screamed in pain after the blonde man punched his stomach, and he then slammed him onto the ground. "Gah!"

The blonde man turned to Tang Ye's wife and licked his lips. "Hey, your wife is beautiful; how about you watch us have fun with her before you die?"

Tang Ye's heart tightened upon hearing that, and he looked at his wife regretfully, but he himself was powerless to save himself, let alone save his wife. 'I'm sorry; I've made you suffer, Zhao Jing.'

As if understanding his thoughts, Zhao Jing looked at Tang Ye with a simple smile. 'You don't need to apologize to me, husband. I am your wife, and I have vowed to accompany you in any situation, so I have no regrets.'

"Stop it!" A woman with short black hair suddenly shouted and ran from behind to stop the blonde man. "I beg you not to do that kind of thing to her!"

Seeing the woman, Zhao Jing looked at her, and she spoke in a tone full of disappointment. "Why are you begging him now? We have always been good to you and your family, but you guys were greedy and betrayed us, so I don't need your pity, and you can let them do whatever they want to me."

"Big Sis, I—"

"Shut up!" The blonde pushed the woman away, causing her to fall to the ground, and he turned to the other man. "Hey! Take your wife away! Or I'll beat her up too."

Hearing that, the man approached his wife and took her away with force, but the woman continued to look at Zhao Jing with guilty feelings. "It's too late for you to regret it, and there's no turning back for us, or they'll destroy us too, so you shouldn't interfere in their affairs."

"But—"

The man stopped his wife. "Do you want our family to end up like them? Don't you think about our daughters?"

"You'd better listen to him." Another woman with shoulder-length reddish-brown hair spoke as she approached them. "You may regret betraying them, but you don't need to think about them anymore, and our family can live better with their deaths. Moreover, no one will ever know about tonight's events, so you don't need to worry and continue your life as usual."

Another woman with long black hair nodded in agreement as she looked at Zhao Jing with a look full of disgust. "She's right; we just need to continue our lives as usual. How about the three of us going on holiday tomorrow? Our husbands can take care of everything, and we just need to have fun to forget about tonight's events."

"All right." The shoulder-length reddish-brown hair agreed with that, and there was not the slightest regret on her face, even though she saw Zhao Jing being treated like an animal by their husbands.

Unlike them, the woman with short black hair felt hurt seeing that. 'Sorry... I'm sorry, Big Sis and Brother-in-Law!'

Up in the sky, Tang Xiao's expression darkened as he saw Zhao Jing being treated that way, but he held himself back from killing those people.

"Did you witness this incident in the past, Master?"

"No." Tang Xiao shook his head at Xiao Ai. "After I got out of the hole, two of them found me, so I ran in panic, and I tripped over something before falling unconscious."

"Did they do something to you back then?"

"They wanted to take me with them, but they saw my head was bleeding quite a lot, so they left me there." Then, Tang Xiao pointed in a different direction, and they saw that two people were pursuing Little Tang Xiao. "That's where my younger self will fall unconscious, but I will do something for him."

"What are you going to do, Master? Your master has told you not to change the past too much, or the consequences will be dangerous for the universe." Xiao Ai warned him in a serious tone.

Tang Xiao turned to her and asked. "Do you know my biggest weakness?"

"Hmm?" Xiao Ai thought for some time. "Even though you have such a past, you are still too kind, Master."

"That's right." Tang Xiao nodded to her. "I hated these people so much, and I trained hard to take revenge on them, but I changed after I awakened my bloodline. Besides, I've made other fatal mistakes because of my kindness, which caused our era to become very bad. If only I had killed that guy in the past, then he wouldn't have been turned into that creature. That's why I want him not to repeat my mistakes, so he needs an evil side for that, and this incident is the opportunity to awaken it."

"But, master—"

"I know your worries, but I have to do it, Xiao Ai." Tang Xiao interrupted her directly. "Otherwise, the future of this universe will not change, and people will suffer if he repeats my mistakes."

After he said that, Tang Xiao waved his hand, and a white light enveloped little Tang Xiao, who was running away from the two people, making him invisible to them.

"Hey! Have you seen him?" The first man asked his friend.

"No." The second man then pointed to another area. "Let's go there; that's the only possible way for that boy to escape from us."

"Let's go."

Little Tang Xiao felt relieved after they left, and he hurried towards the main road under the guidance of the white light, but he stopped when he heard his mother's scream. Before his eyes, he had to witness Zhao Jing being violated by those men, but he was still too young to understand such a vile thing. Even so, the event will continue to linger in his mind, which will awaken his evil side in the future. 'Mom! Dad!'

Sometime later, those men had enough fun, but they didn't stop there, and the blonde man took a gun from his car before shooting Tang Ye and Zhao Jing right in their heads, leaving both of them sprawled on the road.

"Did you find the boy?" The blonde man asked his two men, but they shook their heads at him, causing him to frown. However, he didn't say anything and walked to his car. "Let's go back; I will take care of the police later."

After those people left, Little Tang Xiao immediately came out of his hiding and approached his parents, and he sat between them while continuing to call out to them with cries. "Mom! Dad! Please wake up! Those bad guys are gone!"

However, they certainly didn't answer his calls, but Little Tang Xiao kept trying to wake them up.

After a while, a car crossed the road, and the driver was shocked when he saw Little Tang Xiao sitting in the middle of the road, but he was even more shocked after seeing the condition of his parents, and he immediately called the police.

An hour later, the place was filled with police cars and ambulances, and they took care of Tang Ye and Zhao Jing.

Besides, a light brown-haired woman also arrived not long after them, and her expression was really sad when she saw the two people, but she immediately ran over to Little Tang Xiao. "Xiao'er! Are you okay?"

"Aunt Yuan." Little Tang Xiao hugged her and cried loudly. "What happened to my dad and mom? I called them repeatedly, but they didn't want to wake up."

However, one of the medical officers suddenly informed the police chief. "Chief Jiang! This woman is still alive!"

"Quickly! Take her to the hospital now! We have to save her!" Chief Jiang then approached them. "Tang Yuan, your brother is dead, but we will try to save your sister-in-law."

Chapter 3: End And Beginning III

Since Zhao Jing's condition was very critical, Tang Yuan decided to postpone her big brother's funeral for a week while waiting for news about her sister-in-law's condition, but she also held a funeral ceremony for Tang Ye.

Even so, not many people came to mourn, especially since his killers threatened them not to attend it, and only a few close people visited to see him one last time.

While Tang Yuan was busy waiting for the doctors to perform surgery on Zhao Jing, a young woman with short brown hair was tasked with accompanying Little Tang Yin and Little Tang Xiao, who continued to mourn the death of their father, but she felt at a loss as to how to calm them.

"Aunt Qing, where is Grandpa Huang? Why hasn't he come here?" Little Tang Yin asked the woman, who was none other than her mother's little sister, Zhao Qing.

Zhao Qing sighed softly before she explained the situation to her. "Tang Yuan told me that your grandfather is facing a serious problem right now, so he can't come here yet, but he will definitely come in a few days."

"What about my mother, Aunt Qing? Will she be okay?"

"I don't know, Xiao'er." Zhao Qing then carried Little Tang Xiao. "I also feel sad like you, but we can only leave everything to the doctor, and we will continue to pray for Big Sis Jing's recovery, okay?"

"En." Tang Xiao nodded and hugged his aunt's neck tightly.

For a whole week, the doctors provide intensive care to Zhao Jing, and they manage to save her from death. After that, Tang Yuan held a cremation ceremony for Tang Ye, but only their family was present.

*Tap... Tap...****

Suddenly, an old man and a middle-aged woman approached them, and Little Tang Xiao ran towards them while shouting. "Grandpa Huang!"

"I'm sorry, I couldn't save your father, Xiao'er." Little Tang Xiao just shook his head and hugged his grandfather's neck, and Tang Huang brought him over to the others. "How is Jing'er's condition?"

"Jing'er managed to survive, but the events of that night dealt a heavy blow to her, and I'm not sure if she can return to normal." Tang Yuan then asked him. "What about that person, Father? Did he do something to you?"

"No." Tang Huang shook his head. "He didn't do anything to me, and he just confined me at home, but he released me after he got news that they succeeded in killing Ye'er."

"I see." Tang Yuan nodded in understanding. "I didn't expect that person would be behind those bastards; they even threatened government officials and the police to stop this case. Even the evidence of their crimes has been destroyed now, so we can't do anything to avenge Big Brother's death."

Tang Huang sighed heavily at that. "Even if the evidence of their crimes is still intact, we still won't be able to do anything to them as long as that person continues to support them, especially since he is the strongest among us."

"Are we going to give up like this, Father?"

"Yuan'er, you must be aware that I am unwilling to give up, but I have already lost Ye'er, so I don't want to lose you as well." Tang Huang then turned to Little Tang Yin.

"Moreover, Yin'er and Xiao'er still need us, so we will hold ourselves back for now, but we will never forget our grudge, and we will take revenge in the future."

Suddenly, the middle-aged woman said to him. "Old Huang, how about I teach Xiao'er about various martial arts? After all, he has a physique suitable to be a martial expert, so he can protect himself and Yin'er from those bastards. Moreover, I'm sure that they won't stop, and they might target them in the future."

"I think Big Sis Lingyan's idea is good, Father." Tang Yuan said it with a nod of approval.

"Does that mean you will break your oath, Tantai Lingyan?" Tian Huang asked as he turned to her. "After all, you have vowed not to take in other disciples after—"

"Stop it; you don't need to talk about the past." Tantai Lingyan interrupted Tang Huang. "Tang Ye is my brother, and Xiao'er is his son, so I will break my oath for him, but I will not take another disciple after him."

"All right, you can take Xiao'er as your last disciple, and you must train her to become a true martial expert." Tang Huang then said to Little Tang Xiao. "Xiao'er, if you want to take revenge against those people for your father's death, then you have to train hard under your master's guidance, okay?"

"Yes, Grandpa." Little Tang Xiao then looked at Tantai Lingyan. "Master, you have to teach me a lot of things, okay?"

"Yes." Tantai Lingyan nodded and rubbed his head. "I will pass on all my knowledge about martial arts to you, and I will also teach you how to use various weapons. This way, you can protect your Big Sis from those evil people in the future."

After they cremated Tang Ye's corpse, Tang Huang did not immediately return to his place, and he decided to accompany Tang Yuan to take care of Little Tang Yin, especially since Zhao Jing's condition was not good.

Meanwhile, Tantai Lingyan took Little Tang Xiao with her to start his training, so he spent more time with her, and she took care of him like her own son, which made their relationship very close.

After that day, Zhao Jing gradually became healthy again, and she accompanied her children. However, she was no longer the same as her old self, and she spent much of her time lamenting the events of that night.

Little Tang Xiao and Little Tang Yin's lives also went on peacefully for quite a while, and those people never disturbed their lives at all, especially since Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan continued to protect the two little ones.

However, their lives were disrupted again because Zhao Jing could no longer face her grief, and she decided to commit suicide a year after the incident, which devastated her two children, especially Little Tang Yin.

As for Little Tang Xiao, his mother's death spurred his spirit to practice martial arts more diligently, and Tantai Lingyan always took him to school to prevent anything bad from happening to him.

Little Tang Yin continued to live with Tang Yuan because Tang Huang was unable to stay with them and had to return to his original place, but he frequently visited his grandchildren.

Time quickly passed until ten years had passed, and Little Tang Xiao had turned into a dashing 17-year-old teenager, and he had started his high school years.

Over the past ten years, Tantai Lingyan has passed on all her martial arts knowledge to Little Tang Xiao, and he has also repeatedly won various martial arts competitions.

Besides, he can also use various weapons, such as a sword, spear, dagger, gun, and many others.

Back in middle school, Little Tang Xiao met a woman who also cared deeply about him, and she was the homeroom teacher who always helped him in his education. Even after he entered high school, she still took the time to help him, so he trusted her wholeheartedly.

Tang Yin has transformed into a beautiful woman aged 19 years, and she has started her college life, so she decides to live in her campus dormitory.

The death of her mother dealt a major blow to her, and her character became introverted, so she didn't have too many friends. Even so, her few friends were very kind to her, and they always tried to make her life more cheerful.

Unfortunately, Tang Yin's college life didn't go too smoothly, and her decision to live in a dormitory led to a very bad situation, especially after one of her seniors confessed his feelings for her.

Even though Tang Yin had rejected the man many times, there was a woman who couldn't accept that, and she was very jealous of her, especially since she also fell in love with him, so she planned very terrible things for her.

One night, Tang Yin was walking home from her friend's house, but five men intercepted her halfway. She panicked as soon as she recognized their identities, and she ran away from them.

The men continued to chase after Tang Yin into an empty building before successfully surrounding her on the third floor, and they pounced on her with looks full of lust.

After all, Tang Yin was just a weak woman, and she never learned martial arts like her little brother because her physique was too weak. Seeing that her clothes were torn in several parts and exposing her smooth skin, they became even wilder and couldn't wait to violate her.

However, Tang Yin didn't want to accept her fate, so she made every effort to get away from them, but they cornered her against a window.

"Haha!" One of them laughed loudly. "Tang Yin! You can't run anymore, so you should surrender now, and we will treat you gently."

Tang Yin didn't reply to the man and kept glancing out the window, and she finally made up her mind. "Humph! You bastards will never be able to touch me!"

After she said that, Tang Yin jumped out of the window, shocking those men. 'I'm sorry, and I loved you so much, Xiao'er. I didn't want to be violated by these bastards, so I was forced to leave you first.'

*Bam***

The loud slamming sound from outside made them even more shocked, so one of them looked out of the window to check, but Tang Yin was already lying motionless on the ground, and blood was flowing profusely from her body.

"Damn it!" The man cursed and turned to his four friends. "She's dead! We should leave this place immediately, and I'll ask my father to take care of this matter later."

Chapter 4: Reborn I

After those people left, the old Tang Xiao and Xiao Ai landed beside Tang Yin. "Master, this—"

"Yes." The old Tang Xiao nodded to Xiao Ai. "The past has changed."

"Are you going to help her? If you don't do something, the Tang Yin of this era will also die like your Tang Yin."

The old Tang Xiao thought for a moment before crouching down beside Tang Yin, and he touched her body before channeling his life energy into it. Then, he did something else to her. "This way she won't die, but she will sleep for quite a while."

"Why did you do that to her, Master?"

"Those people won't give up if they know that she's not dead, and they will come after her again if she wakes up." The old Tang Xiao replied as he rose to his feet. "That's why I sealed her consciousness to protect her, and you can help my younger self to awaken her in the future."

"Are you really going to do that, Master?"

The old Tang Xiao turned to Xiao Ai and rubbed her head. "I know you will be sad and lonely, but I have to do that for a better future."

"What do you think will happen next?"

"I don't know." The old Tang Xiao answered by shaking his head. "There are no CCTVs in this area, so I want you to call the police and ambulance now."

"Yes, Master."

The old Tang Xiao looked at Tang Yin for a moment, and his gaze was filled with longing, but he immediately took Xiao Ai away.

Some time after they left, the police and ambulance arrived at the place, and they immediately took Tang Yin to the hospital. Besides, Chief Jiang also informed her family about her condition, and they immediately rushed to the hospital.

A young woman with shoulder-length hair dyed blonde was sitting in front of a young man, and her slender face looked ecstatic as she listened to his story about Tang Yin. Her face is quite pretty but serious, her slanted black eyes look cold, and her thin lips form a faint smile.

Her slender body looks sexy in a blue tank top combined with blue mini jeans; her breasts look big and supple; and her slim stomach is decorated with an earring in her navel. "Are you sure that bitch is dead?"

"Tang Yin jumped from the third floor, and I witnessed blood flowing profusely from her head." The young man's expression turned serious. "She's dead now, so it's time for you to help me get rid of Tang Xiao, or I will continue to be behind his shadow. Moreover, his family will be over if he dies, and our father will be happy."

"Hehe." The young woman chuckled and showed him a video, surprising the man. "The man in this video is the husband of the female teacher who Tang Xiao really trusts, and I asked assistant Ming to get this video."

"Do you want to blackmail her?" The young man asked in surprise.

"Bingo!" The young woman then spoke with a sly smile. "The man's reputation will plummet if we spread the video of his affair with this woman, and the business he has built for years will be destroyed. I'm sure that she doesn't want to see it happened to her family, so she will surely obey my orders."

"En." The young man nodded in agreement with that. "But what are you going to do about Tang Xiao? She might be willing to frame him, but she wouldn't possibly dare to kill him."

"Why are you in such a hurry to kill him?" The young woman asked while shaking her head, and she explained the plan she had devised to him. "After Tang Xiao suffers, we will send some people to kill him, and no one will be able to stop us, including Tang Yuan and Tantai Lingyan."

After thinking for some time, the young man agreed with her plan. "All right, I will leave Tang Xiao's affairs to you, and I will go to our father to deal with Tang Yin's problems."

After he left, the young woman contacted several people and asked them to meet her somewhere, and she then took some documents in her room before leaving.

"What happened to Big Sis, Aunt Yuan?" Tang Xiao asked as he stood in front of the surgical room.

Tang Yuan let out a heavy sigh. "I don't know what exactly happened to Yin'er, especially since there were no CCTVs around that area. However, I suspect that someone or more attempted to violate her in that building, especially since her clothes were torn on several sides, and she decided to jump from the window so that it wouldn't happen to her."

"Do you think those people did that?"

"I think so." Tang Yuan replied with a nod. "Those people are hostile to our family, and they killed your parents, but we can't do anything against them."

Tang Xiao then turned to Tang Yuan. "Can't my grandpa and master fight them?"

"No." Tang Yuan then put her arm around Tang Xiao's shoulder. "We wanted to take revenge on those people, but the person behind them was too strong, and he could destroy this country in the blink of an eye, so no one dared to go against him."

"I understand." After that, Tang Xiao didn't ask anything else, but his hands were tightly clenched, and his eyes only focused on the surgical room, waiting for Tang Yin. 'Big Sis, I don't want to lose you, so you have to survive.'

Sometime later, a doctor walked out of the room and informed them. "We managed to save Yin'er, but the injury on her head was too severe, so I couldn't say for sure when she would wake up. Besides, several of her bones were broken, so she will be paralyzed for the rest of her life."

Their hearts sank after hearing that, but Tang Xiao then spoke to the doctor. "Thank you for saving Big Sis Yin's life, Uncle Ling. Even if she is paralyzed, she is at least still alive, and I will take care of her while finding a way to heal her."

"Are you going to take Yin'er to the ward now, Brother Ling?"

Doctor Ling nodded to Tang Yuan. "The nurses are cleaning things up now, and they will take Yin'er to the ward soon, so you guys can meet her there."

The woman with shoulder-length hair dyed blonde was enjoying a cup of coffee in a cafe VIP room, and she smiled as she looked at several photos in her hands.

*Crack***

Suddenly, two young women walked into the room, and she smiled faintly at their arrival.

One of them looks mature and alluring with curly blonde hair, and she has attractive green eyes. However, her face made it clear that she had mixed ancestry, as her father was a westerner and her mother was Chinese. Her figure is perfectly developed with a tall body, and her curves are truly beautiful, like a Mexican guitar, plus her breasts are quite massive, around the DD or E cup.

Meanwhile, the other woman looks childish and rude; her face is not pretty with bobbed pink hair, and she looks like a delinquent with both arms covered in tattoos. Her figure is too short, even for an Asian, and her D-cup breasts make her body disproportionate.

"Why did you call us here at this time of night, Ouyang Qing?" The woman with curly blonde hair asked as she sat in front of her.

The woman with bobbed pink hair asked Ouyang Qing as well. "Do you have something important to talk to us about? I'm really tired, you know?"

"Hey, Luo Qinlin! You'll be happy once you hear my plan." Ouyang Qing then gave the photos to the woman with curly blonde hair, shocking her. "You know that I always get what I want, so you don't need to be shocked like this, right, Jessica Lie?"

Not only was she shocked when she heard that, but Luo Qinlin was also shocked after she saw the photos, and she turned to Jessica in disbelief.

Ouyang Qing then asked Jessica again. "What do you think will happen if our school finds out about your affair with our homeroom teacher?"

"Why are you doing this to me?" Jessica asked back as she clenched her fists. "We've been friends for a long time, but you're threatening me like this."

"I need some people to do something, and you are one of my choices." Ouyang Qing then supported her chin and looked at Jessica with a smirk. "However, I knew that you would not be willing to help me, so I was forced to use this method on you, and I will give everything to you after you help me."

Jessica looked at Ouyang Qing with a frown, but she didn't dare to say anything because she knew her character very well, and she would spread the photos directly.

"Couldn't you ask your father for help with that?" Luo Qinlin asked Ouyang Qing.

"My father didn't dare do anything to that person, especially since Tantai Yuan always protected him." Luo Qinlin's eyes lit up upon hearing that, and she instantly knew the identity of Ouyang Qing's target. "That's right, that person is Tang Xiao. Since my father can't do it, then I will do it myself, but I need the help of several people."

Ouyang Qing smiled faintly and explained her plan to them, and Luo Qinlin looked ecstatic after listening to it. However, Jessica looked shocked, and she felt that her plan was truly insane.

"But how can we do it?"

"That's an easy matter." Ouyang Qing then showed them the video, shocking both women. "I will meet that female teacher tomorrow, and we will use Tang Xiao's trust in her to smooth out my plan."

Chapter 5: Reborn II

"Why are you here, Brother Ming?" Ouyang Qing asked as soon as she entered her room.

"Tang Yin is still alive." Ouyang Qing frowned after hearing that, and Ouyang Ming then told her again. "I heard that she is in a coma now, and the doctor doesn't know whether she will wake up again. Besides, he also said that her bones are broken, so she will be disabled for the rest of her life if she does manage to wake up from her coma."

"I see." Ouyang Qing nodded with a satisfied smile. "Let's forget that bitch; she won't be able to do anything with her current condition, but I hope she won't wake up again, so I don't have to think of a way to kill her."

Ouyang Ming shook his head after hearing that, and he felt that his little sister was similar to their father, especially her vicious nature. "Are you going to meet that woman tomorrow?"

"Yes." Ouyang Qing then took off her clothes without the slightest embarrassment. "Anyway, Jessica Lie and Luo Qinlin will help me, and another person will join us later, but she is still on her way back."

"Hmm? I'm not surprised by Luo Qinlin, especially since she's crazy about Tang Xiao. Does that mean you also blackmailed Jessica?" Ouyang Qing just nodded while wearing her pajamas. "Then who is the other one?"

"Lin Yan." Ouyang Qing then sat by the bed before telling him. "She hated Tang Xiao because of her brother, Lin Xia, and she immediately agreed once I told her about my plans."

"Lin Xia's martial arts skills surpass mine, but that bastard Tang Xiao is significantly better than both of us, and he was truly unlucky to face him in the preliminaries. Since his defeat, he has never appeared at the training center, and he has never gathered with us again." Thereafter, Ouyang Ming left his little sister's room directly.

Meanwhile, Ouyang Qing lay on her bed, staring at the ceiling, and an evil smile appeared on her face.

The next morning, Ouyang Qing and Luo Qinlin were standing in front of a house and impatiently waiting for the owner. 'Tch! This woman made me wait too long!'

*Clack*

"Ouyang Qing? Luo Qinlin? What are you two doing at my house?" A woman in her early forties with wavy, dark brown hair asked in surprise.

Even though her face is only covered with light makeup, she looks mature and charming. Her wide and brown eyes looked sparkling, and her thick lips were beautifully covered in light lipstick. Even though she already has a daughter, her figure is well maintained and not inferior to that of women who have never given birth; even her big breasts don't look saggy at all, and her beautiful curves can be seen in her white dress.

Ouyang Qing smiled faintly before asking her back. "Do you have anything important to do, Teacher Yu Xiaoling? I wanted to discuss something with you, so I came here so early on purpose."

"I heard that Tang Yin had an accident, so I wanted to go to the hospital to see her." Nalan Qing inwardly snorted at that, and Yu Xiaoling pointed towards two empty chairs as she sat down across from them. "What do you want to discuss with me?"

Both women sat opposite her, and Ouyang Qing took out her cell phone. After she found the video, she gave her phone to Yu Xiaoling. "You can watch this video for yourself, Teacher Yu."

"Hmm?" Yu Xiaoling couldn't understand why Ouyang Qing wanted her to watch the video, but her expression turned shocked after seeing the man in the video, and her eyes trembled because she recognized the woman's identity. "Impossible! I can't believe this!"

"You may not believe it, but that video is solid proof of your husband's affair." Yu Xiaoling looked up at her with watery eyes, and she had a bad feeling after seeing Ouyang Qing's strange smile. "Teacher Yu, you surely know the risks if this video spreads to the public, right? Her husband's influence is no less than my father's, and your family will be destroyed overnight if he finds out that his wife is having an affair with your husband. Additionally, he will destroy both of your parents' families, and you don't want that to happen, right?"

Yu Xiaoling glared fiercely at Ouyang Qing as she squeezed the phone tightly, and Luo Qinlin grinned at her expression. "Hey, Teacher Yu! Uncle Ouyang can help you prevent all that from happening, but you have to help us do something first."

"What do you two want from me?" Yu Xiaoling asked as her body trembled at the thought of the worst that would happen to her family.

"Hehe, that task is very easy." Luo Qinlin gave a package to Yu Xiaoling, and she also explained the task to her, shocking her greatly. "Teacher Yu, you certainly don't want your daughter to suffer, right? We guarantee that the video will be safe if you are willing to help us, but if you refuse us, then we'll make sure that the video will be spread to the public, so the decision is yours."

After Luo Qinlin said that, Ouyang Qing directly took her cell phone, and they left the house directly, leaving Yu Xiaoling in a dilemma.

Yu Xiaoling leaned against the back of the chair and covered her eyes, which were already wet with tears. "What should I do? I don't want my family to be destroyed, and my daughter will be sad if something bad happens to her father, but I don't want to betray Tang Xiao's trust in me."

Sometime later, Yu Xiaoling calmed herself down and went to the hospital, and she brought the package from Luo Qinlin with her, but she still felt in a dilemma about making a decision.

Before long, Yu Xiaoling arrived at the hospital and rushed to Tang Yin's ward, and she only found Tang Xiao, who looked listless beside his big sister.

"Teacher Yu? How did you know we were here?" Tang Xiao asked in surprise.

"A friend of mine is a doctor at this hospital, and he told me about your big sister's condition, so I decided to visit you two." Yu Xiaoling explained it as she walked beside Tang Xiao, and she then looked at Tang Yin seriously. "What actually happened to her? How could she be injured this badly?"

Tang Xiao's expression turned furious at her questions. "We suspected that those bastards wanted to violate Big Sis Yin by force, so she decided to jump from the third floor, and she ended up like this now; even the doctor said that she would be paralyzed for the rest of her life."

Yu Xiaoling's expression became a little weird upon hearing that, but she then hugged Tang Xiao's head. "I know you're angry, and you're also skilled in martial arts. However, those people have great power, so you shouldn't act rashly, or else Yin'er will be sad if something bad happens to you if she wakes up."

Tang Xiao nodded and hugged Yu Xiaoling's waist. "Teacher Yu, what should I do? They killed my parents, and they also harmed my big sister."

Yu Xiaoling sighed softly while rubbing Tang Xiao's head, but she didn't know what to say to comfort him, and her mind became more and more complicated thinking about her husband's situation. "Will Tang Yuan come here today?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao then released his hug from Yu Xiaoling. "Aunt Yuan is accompanying her client in court, so she will come here this afternoon to replace me."

"I see." Yu Xiaoling then asked him again. "How about we go to my house later? So we can talk to ease your sadness."

"All right." Tang Xiao immediately agreed without hesitation, especially since he had often spent time studying at Yu Xiaoling's house since he was in middle school, and he was also close to her husband and daughter.

Several hours later, Tang Yuan arrived at the ward, but she was surprised by Yu Xiaoling's presence. "Since when have you been here?"

"I heard your niece had an accident, so I came here early this morning." Yu Xiaoling replied as she stood up and then informed Tang Yuan. "Xiao'er looks stressed, and you also have to wait for Yin'er, so I invited him to my house to cheer him up."

"I think that's a good idea." Tang Yuan replied with a nod. "My father is away with Big Sis Lingyan, and they will only be back in two days, so it would be better if you bring Xiao'er with you, or else he would continue to be sad thinking about Yin'er."

Sometime later, they arrived at Yu Xiaoling's house, and Tang Xiao asked her. "Where are your husband and daughter, Teacher Yu?"

"My husband is attending a business meeting in another city, and my daughter is at my parents' house." Yu Xiaoling said this while walking toward the kitchen. "Wait in the living room first, and I will make you some food, Xiao'er."

Tang Xiao immediately sat back on the sofa and closed his eyes, especially since he was too tired due to lack of sleep since last night, as he was thinking too much about Tang Yin's condition.

Meanwhile, Yu Xiaoling prepared food and drink for Tang Xiao in the kitchen, and she kept looking at the package that Luo Qinlin had given her earlier, but she was hesitant about following their orders.

Yu Xiaoling then looked at the photo of her husband and daughter while thinking deeply, and she finally decided to look at the contents of the package, which was a white pill. On the one hand, she didn't want to do it, but on the other hand, she also didn't want her family to suffer.

In the end, Yu Xiaoling decided to grind the pill into powder and mix it into the food and drink she prepared for Tang Xiao, and she brought them to him once everything was ready.

Without the slightest suspicion, Tang Xiao finished it all, and Yu Xiaoling sent a message to Ouyang Qing to inform her.

Chapter 6: Reborn III

After they talked for some time, the pill finally took effect, and Tang Xiao sank into a deep sleep because of it.

Yu Xiaoling sighed softly and rubbed his cheek. "Xiao'er, I know that I wronged you by doing this, but I didn't want my family to suffer. I was forced to do this to you, and I hope you will be willing to forgive me in the future."

*Ting... Ting...*

"It must be them." Yu Xiaoling immediately went out to open the door, but she was surprised to see the presence of two other young women. 'Jessica and Lin Yan? Did Ouyang Qing also blackmail them?' "Tang Xiao is inside; you can take him now."

"That's good." Ouyang Qing then ordered the driver to take Tang Xiao away from the house, and she also ordered the driver to force-feed him an aperitif. After that, she showed the video to Yu Xiaoling before deleting it, and she also handed her an envelope. "I have handed over the evidence to you, so you don't need to worry about your family's safety anymore. As for your involvement in this matter, you can think of a way out yourself, or Tang Yuan and Tantai Lingyan will be suspicious of you."

Yu Xiaoling did not respond to Ouyang Qing and immediately went back inside after they left, feeling confused about how to erase any evidence of her involvement in their actions. She suddenly remembered someone and contacted that person to help her sort everything out, but she had to pay quite a hefty amount for it. "Sigh! This is all I can do for now, and I hope they won't be suspicious of me."

Some time later, Tang Xiao was lying on the bed in an empty building that looked like a studio, and there were several other people there who had been ordered by Ouyang Qing beforehand.

Luo Qinlin unhesitatingly took off her clothes before she stripped Tang Xiao naked, causing the other two young women to blush at the sight of his naked body.

Ouyang Qing was unfazed by Tang Xiao's naked body, and she also took off her own clothes while ordering Jessica and Lin Yan. "Hey, what are you guys waiting for? Hurry up! Take off your clothes so we can finish this quickly, and he'll be in jail tomorrow."

Jessica was hesitant about doing that, but Ouyang Qing kept threatening her, and she finally followed Lin Yan to take off her clothes. Even so, she continued to feel guilty towards Tang Xiao, but she was powerless to refuse.

After they had removed their clothes, Ouyang Qing spoke to a woman who was standing behind the video recorder. "You and your employees know what you have to do, right? You have to arrange everything as neatly and realistically as possible, so Tang Yuan won't be able to save him, and Tang Xiao will spend his life in prison for a long time."

"Leave it to me."

After that, they began executing their malicious plan against Tang Xiao, and the women's performances were genuinely impressive. Even their expressions were completely like those of a frightened person, with Luo Qinlin acting the most extreme among them.

Two hours later, the woman was already neatly dressed, and Ouyang Qing smiled with satisfaction after she saw the recording. "Let's go home now, and he'll definitely rot in prison after today."

After Ouyang Qing and the others left the place, someone also took Tang Xiao away, and that person left him not far from his house.

Above the sky, the old Tang Xiao let out a heavy sigh, especially since he and Xiao Ai watched their action from beginning to end.

"Master, the past has changed again."

"Yes." The old Tang Xiao nodded to her. "In the past, I have never experienced such a horrible thing, but I didn't expect that Ouyang Qing in this era would be so crazy."

"As far as I remember, Ouyang Qing in your time was also as crazy as her, Master."

"Not really." The old Tang Xiao answered by shaking his head. "Ouyang Qing of my time was indeed crazy, but she wasn't as crazy as this one, and Ouyang Ming was much crazier than her. Apparently, their characters switched in this era, and I can't predict what will happen to my younger self next."

The next morning, Tang Xiao felt confused the moment he opened his eyes, as he found himself on the side of the road near his house. Even his head felt very heavy, and his body reeked of alcohol. "What happened to me? I clearly remember that I was talking with Teacher Yu, but I was suddenly very sleepy."

Since he didn't have an answer to that, Tang Xiao went straight back to his house to clean himself up. He contacted Yu Xiaoling afterwards, but she didn't receive his call.

In the end, Tang Xiao decided to go to Yu Xiaoling's house to check, but he was shocked to see that the house was very messy. Even the front door was damaged, and several windows were also broken. He then entered the house to look for her, but he couldn't find her anywhere. "Where did Teacher Yu go? Could it be that she ran away to her parents' house?"

After that, Tang Xiao went to the hospital to accompany Tang Yin, but his mind continued to be filled with questions about all the strange events. When he arrived there, Tang Yuan was already waiting for him, and he immediately told his aunt everything.

Tang Yuan was shocked after she heard Tang Xiao's explanation, and she tried to contact Yu Xiaoling, but she didn't accept her call. She then tried to contact her parents and in-laws, but none of them knew where she was. "This is weird, Xiao'er. Her family doesn't know where she went."

"Do you think those people attacked Teacher Yu's house because I was there, Aunt Yuan? Could it be that they kidnapped her?" Tang Xiao asked with a serious expression, as he was very worried about Yu Xiaoling's safety.

"En." Tang Yuan nodded to him. "That possibility does exist, but I'm confused about their purpose, as you're here and Yu Xiaoling disappeared instead."

Hearing that, Tang Xiao had a bad feeling, and he was convinced that those people had done something he didn't realize between the time he fell asleep and when he woke up again.

Just as he was thinking about that, the door to the ward was opened from the outside, and Chief Jiang walked in with two policemen. "Tang Yuan, I came here to arrest Xiao'er."

"What?" Tang Yuan exclaimed in shock after hearing that. "What do you mean by that, Chief Jiang? What did Xiao'er do? Why do you want to arrest him?"

"Ouyang Hong reported Xiao'er to the police station on charges of violation, and he accused him of violating Ouyang Qing last night." Chief Jiang then handed Tang Yuan an arrest warrant. "Besides, three other women also reported the same thing; they also accused him of violating them by force."

Tang Yuan was completely shocked after hearing that. She looked at her nephew, but Tang Xiao shook his head at her. "Aunt Yuan, last night's incident has been clear, and those people have framed me for doing such a thing."

"Arrest him." Chief Jiang ordered his two subordinates, and Tang Xiao followed them without putting up a fight, as it would just be a waste.

"Xiao'er! I will do whatever it takes to free you!" Tang Xiao just waved his hand, and Tang Yuan sat down limply in the chair. "Those people are complete assholes! They have killed my brother and sister-in-law, and they have also made Yin'er crippled, but they were not satisfied, and they have framed Xiao'er now."

However, Tang Yuan suddenly frowned as something crossed her mind. "Could it be that Yu Xiaoling has something to do with this matter? After all, they never did anything to Xiao'er before, and she has also now disappeared without a word."

After that, Tang Yuan contacted Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan, and both of them decided to return as soon as possible.

Two days later, Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan returned, and they went to visit Tang Xiao in prison.

"Xiao'er—"

"Grandpa, you don't have to worry about me, and I can take care of myself." Tang Xiao immediately interrupted his grandfather. "Even though we know that they framed me, you two still won't be able to do anything to free me, and they can fabricate various pieces of evidence by taking advantage of Ouyang Hong's authority."

Tang Huang naturally understood the situation, and then Tantai Lingyan spoke to him. "Xiao'er, you have to be careful; I'm afraid that they will send their people to eliminate you, especially since we can't protect you in there."

"I know, Master." Tang Xiao replied with a nod. "Fortunately, you have taught me a lot of martial arts, so I am confident that I can protect myself."

"That's good." Tantai Lingyan said as she nodded. "You will probably spend a few years in prison, but I hope you will never change, and you should always practice your martial arts, okay?"

After they talked about some other things, the two people quickly left the prison, and Tang Huang asked Tantai Lingyan. "Do you think I should meet that man?"

"What do you want to do?" Tantai Lingyan responded with a frown. "We both know he owes Ouyang Hong's ancestor a deep debt of gratitude, and he has sworn to protect their family members from harm; therefore, your efforts to find him will be in vain because he will never help you to free Xiao'er."

Tang Huang sighed heavily and nodded in agreement with Tantai Lingyan. "I will hand over Xiao'er's affairs to Yuan'er, and I will return there to enter seclusion. If I succeed in reaching his level, I will slaughter him along with those damned families."

Chapter 7: Reborn IV

A month later, Tang Xiao was standing in the middle of the courtroom, but his expression was still relaxed, even though he would soon face a trial that would change his future completely.

Despite Tang Yuan's hard work over the past month to free Tang Xiao from prison, her efforts to prove his innocence were ultimately futile, particularly because Ouyang Hong had fabricated substantial evidence against him and used his authority to suppress many individuals.

Tang Yuan had also been looking for Yu Xiaoling's whereabouts, and she heard from her husband that she was abroad. Even so, she could never talk to her, let alone meet her, especially since she would rather not talk to anyone else or return to their country, citing someone threatening to kill her.

*Knock... Knock...****

"After considering the testimony of the witnesses and all the evidence that has been submitted, Tang Xiao was convincingly proven guilty of assault and attempted to violate Ms. Ouyang Qing, Jessica Lie, Lin Yan, and Luo Qinlin. The court hereby sentenced him to seven years in prison." The jury representatives read out the court's decision.

From her seat, Ouyang Qing and two other young women smiled triumphantly after the jury read out the sentence. 'Hahaha! You can rot in prison, Tang Xiao!'

Unlike them, Jessica Lie continued to look at Tang Xiao guiltily, and she gripped her fists tightly. 'Please forgive me; I was really helpless under Ouyang Qing's threats.'

Tang Yuan wanted to appeal the court's decision, but Tang Xiao stopped her by shaking his head. "There's no point in appealing my sentence, as we'll never win against them, Aunt Yuan. Since I had to spend seven years in prison, I entrust Big Sis Yin to you, and please let me know if there's any progress regarding her health."

Tang Yuan looked at Tang Xiao guiltily before nodding. "Leave Yin'er to me; I will take good care of her."

Even though Tang Xiao was dissatisfied with all the manipulations that got him imprisoned, he accepted his situation calmly, and his transition into prison life was relatively smooth.

Although Tang Xiao is still young, his body is much stronger than people of his age, and he is also a master of many martial arts that he has trained since he was five years old, so almost no prisoners dare to disturb him.

One year

Three years

Time flies so fast, and seven years have passed since Tang Xiao first entered prison. Tang Yuan, Zhao Qing, and Tantai Lingyan have continued to visit him in prison. Unfortunately, Tang Yin's condition never changed, and she had been in a coma for years, but he would be free in two days.

Unfortunately, something unexpected happened, and two prison guards suddenly forced Tang Xiao to go to the hill behind the prison. He frowned when they pointed their guns at him, but they didn't say anything to him and immediately left, leaving him there alone.

Soon, dozens of men came out from behind the crowd of the big trees carrying various kinds of weapons, and they were led by a muscular man. The man's face itself was covered with cuts, and the most striking was the tattoo of a white tiger on both arms.

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding at the situation in front of him. "So, you guys are Ouyang Hong's men, huh?"

"Haha." The muscular man laughed and pointed a baseball bat at Tang Xiao, and the other men surrounded him. "Young miss didn't want you to be released from prison, so she sent us to finish you off."

'Ouyang Qing, huh? I didn't expect that she would be such a vicious and devil-hearted woman.' Tang Xiao inwardly muttered as he was alert to their movements, for he was also aware of his own abilities. Even though he was a martial expert, there were too many of them, and they also carried a lot of weapons. 'Tch! Ouyang family! I will take my revenge on your entire family if I manage to survive this situation.'

"Kill him!" The muscular man shouted as he ran towards Tang Xiao, and those people also immediately followed his orders to gang up on him.

Even so, Tang Xiao didn't want to just surrender to fate, and he moved towards the weakest man among them. After he managed to knock him down and snatch his weapon, he immediately fought the others. But alas, there were dozens of enemies, so it was too overwhelming for him to fight all of them, and he was pushed to the edge of a cliff.

*Bang... Bang...****

Just as he was thinking of a way out, Tang Xiao was startled by the sound of two gunshots, and he felt that his chest really hurt. He immediately looked down and found blood flowing out of his chest. 'Shit!'

After that, Tang Xiao fell backwards into the ravine, and his body slammed several times against the ravine wall, making his consciousness fade away.

The muscular man then walked to the side of the cliff and looked down, but the ravine was deep enough that he couldn't see Tang Xiao's body. "Heh! He's dead, so we can go back and report this to our young miss."

At the bottom of the ravine, Tang Xiao grimaced in pain all over his body, especially since most of his bones were crushed; even his legs and arms were also broken. Although he was not dead, he was not far from dead either. With blurry eyes, he looked up at the sky while inwardly muttering. 'Take revenge? How ridiculous! I couldn't even survive today! Big Sis Yin, I'm sorry; I have to leave you first.'

Before long, Tang Xiao's eyes were closed, and his consciousness was fading away.

*Tap... Tap...****

"Hehe, I'm used to seeing you so strong, and I find it strange to see your younger self so weak, Master." Xiao Ai said as she squatted down next to Tang Xiao, and she injected a liquid into his body. "If we weren't here, he would be dead by now, and this universe would be destroyed without him."

The old Tang Xiao laughed bitterly and shook his head. "The current him is still an ordinary human, so it's natural that he's still weak, right? However, his future will change after he becomes a cultivator like me, and the fate of this universe rests on his shoulders."

"Are you sure the future will still be the same, Master?" Xiao Ai asked while turning to the Old Tang Xiao. "After all, the past has changed a lot in the past seven years; you have never even been in such a situation, right?"

"I don't have an answer for that, Xiao Ai." The old Tang Xiao then lifted Tang Xiao onto his shoulders. "After this, his fate will be in his hands, so he can decide his own fate. Anyway, let's go back now, and we'll carry out our plan."

However, Xiao Ai did not respond to him, and she stood still while continuing to stare at the Old Tang Xiao. "Master."

"We've discussed this matter too many times, so I think that's enough, and I won't change my decision anymore." Xiao Ai just nodded to the old Tang Xiao, and they took Tang Xiao away from that place.

Moments later, they walked into a room filled with various sophisticated modern equipment, and all of it was much more advanced than what existed in the current era. Besides, there were two glass capsules the size of an adult in the middle of the room, and the Old Tang Xiao laid Tang Xiao into one of the capsules.

After the glass capsule cover was closed, several needles and wires immediately stuck into Tang Xiao's body, and clear liquid filled the capsule.

"Master, I will start the healing process, and I will reconstruct his body according to everything we prepared beforehand, but the process will probably take quite some time."

"It's okay; we're not in a rush either." The old Tang Xiao replied as he nodded. "By the way, use that thing on him, so his brain capacity will also be the same as mine. Additionally, rearrange his DNA, or his body won't be strong enough to accept that thing."

"All right." Xiao Ai then asked him. "Is there anything else I need to do for him, Master?"

"Start now, and we will carry out the final process after his body has been fully recovered."

After that, Xiao Ai started the process of healing and reconstructing Tang Xiao's body, and she would only start reconstructing his body after it was over.

Meanwhile, the Old Tang Xiao kept watching the process from a large monitor in the north of the room. He could see that Tang Xiao's injuries were slowly starting to recover, including his internal injuries and bones. 'Sigh! I'm sorry, my younger self. Because of my kindness, I have to burden you with a great responsibility. However, I have no other choice to save this universe, and I hope that you will not repeat the mistakes I made in the past.'

A few hours later, Tang Xiao's condition has completely recovered, and Xiao Ai has also finished reconstructing his body. "Now everything is done, and we can carry out the final process, but it will cause you a lot of pain, Master."

"I know, but it means nothing to my old bones." The Old Tang Xiao rubbed Xiao Ai's head. "From today on, you will be his guide. You must help him become a powerful cultivator, but you should not tell him about me for the time being. He will meet me once he forms his cultivation soul, and I will explain everything to him in the future."

"I know, Master." Xiao Ai replied as she nodded. "I will properly guide him, and he will become the strongest in this universe, just like you, Master."

After that, the Old Tang Xiao entered another glass capsule and lay down inside. "Start now, Xiao Ai."

Chapter 8: Reborn V

After the old Tang Xiao ordered her, Xiao Ai moved into the big screen in the north of the room, and her body lay on the ground motionlessly.

In fact, Xiao Ai is an AI created by the old Tang Xiao, and her body was not a human body but a prosthetic body that closely resembles a human body, more commonly referred to as an android. That's why all the modern equipment in the laboratory was connected to her, and they moved according to her orders, and she started performing a minor incision on the old Tang Xiao's head to remove her main chip from his brain.

Although Xiao Ai did not use anesthetic on him, the old Tang Xiao seemed unaffected by the pain. The procedure for taking the chip was very quick—it only took a few minutes—and the wound on his head self-healed.

After Xiao Ai finished removing her main chip from the old Tang Xiao's brain, she moved those surgical instruments above Tang Xiao's capsule, and she performed a small surgery on his head. Afterwards, she implanted it into his brain, and she also changed the program a little to suit him.

Since Tang Xiao was still an ordinary human, Xiao Ai had to close and stitch the wound on his head, but it was just a trivial matter to her. [Master, I have implanted my main chip into his brain.]

"Now start the second phase and transfer my bloodline to his body."

[Yes, Master.]

Soon, several clear tubes connected the two men's bodies, and blood came out of their bodies before moving to each other's bodies.

Unlike Tang Xiao's red blood, the old Tang Xiao's blood is not red, but his blood is violet gold. Like before, the process also happened very quickly, and Xiao Ai could see that her master was weakening quickly after the blood exchange was complete.

"Continue with the third phase, Xiao Ai."

However, Xiao Ai did not immediately carry out his orders. [Master, are you sure you want to do this? You will become an ordinary human if I move them, and you will vanish completely.]

"Xiao Ai, you promised me, remember? So do what I say now, and I will do my last thing before I die."

Xiao Ai felt hesitant about doing that, but she finally gave in. [All right, I'll do it now.]

"Argh!" In contrast to his previous reactions, the old Tang Xiao screamed in pain as soon as Xiao Ai executed the third phase.

[Master!] Xiao Ai let out a high-pitched cry.

"Argh! Keep going!"

[Ugh! You are truly stubborn, Master!]

For three hours straight, the old Tang Xiao's groans of pain continued to resonate in the laboratory, and there were veins similar to human veins above him, but they also looked different from ordinary human veins.

After that, Xiao Ai moved those veins toward Tang Xiao and began the process of implanting them in his body. Fortunately, he was in an unconscious state, or he would have suffered the same agony that the old Tang Xiao had experienced before.

Several hours later, the process was completely completed, and Xiao Ai returned to her body before approaching the old Tang Xiao. "How are you, Master?"

"Not bad; help me out and take me to his side, or I'll run out of time." Xiao Ai then helped the Old Tang Xiao get out of the capsule, but his face was already deathly pale and aging, and his whole body was shriveled like an old person.

When they arrived there, the old Tang Xiao touched Tang Xiao's chest, and he used the last of his strength to implant something into his body.

Sometime later, the old Tang Xiao had already withdrawn his hand and rubbed Xiao Ai's head, but it was obvious that his body was quickly fading. "Now my task is complete, and I leave my younger self to you. You must guide him as best as possible, for he is the only ray of hope for this universe."

"En, leave everything to me, Master." Xiao Ai sadly nodded.

As his body had almost completely faded, the old Tang Xiao looked up at the ceiling and sighed softly, and he spoke to her one last time. "The time has come for us to part ways, Xiao Ai. Even though he wasn't the one who created you, he is my younger self, so you can think of him as me."

Xiao Ai was really sad listening to the old Tang Xiao's last words, but no tears came out of her eyes, especially since her body was an artificial one.

A few moments later, the old Tang Xiao disappeared from the laboratory, and Xiao Ai just stayed silent for a while. Before long, she looked at Tang Xiao. "Master, you must become a strong cultivator in the future so you can live up to your old self's expectations."

A planet in the far future

A beautiful woman with waist-length snow-white hair stood on the side of the cliff covered in clouds, and the white aura covering her body exuded extraordinary calm, but her eyes trembled as she looked at the broken white jade in her hand. "You are finally gone, Xiao'er. I don't know what you did in that era, but I hope your plan is truly working, and I also hope that your younger self can meet my past self."

After she said that, the woman jumped off the cliff, but her figure instantly disappeared into the clouds, leaving the place silent.

Two days later.

"What did you just say, Warden?" Tang Yuan asked the fat man in front of her in a high voice, and her face turned pale after hearing the news.

Today, Tang Yuan came to pick up Tang Xiao because he was about to be released after seven years in prison, but instead, she heard that her nephew had fallen into a ravine, and no one was able to find his corpse.

"What really happened? How did he fall into the ravine?" Tang Yuan asked him again.

The warden inwardly snorted, but he still maintained his sad expression. "There were no CCTV cameras in the back hills, so we don't know exactly what happened, but it seems he was in conflict with some other prisoners."

"Where are the prisoners? Why didn't you punish them?" Tang Yuan kept urging the warden, as she knew exactly her nephew's character, and she wasn't sure that Tang Xiao had a conflict with them.

The warden shook his head at her. "They escaped two days ago, and we are hunting them now."

Tang Yuan raised her eyebrows upon hearing that, and her expression clearly showed that she did not believe the warden's story, which made her wonder. 'Could it be that those prisoners are Ouyang Hong's subordinates? Otherwise, this fatso wouldn't be so calm, and he would have already paid someone off to cover things up. 'Damn it! I can't stay still and accept it, and I must thoroughly investigate this matter, even if it means confronting that man.'

After Tang Yuan left the room, a shoulder-length red-haired woman walked out of the back room as she said to the warden. "That woman seems to doubt your stories, Du Zhong."

"Hahaha." Du Zhong laughed and squeezed the woman's buttocks. "You are right about her, He Yu. Even if Tang Yuan suspects me, she will never be able to prove everything, and Ouyang Hong will protect me, so I don't need to worry about her."

"You really are naughty!" He Yu spoke with a coquettish smile as she pushed Du Zhong's hand away, but she then sat on his lap and kissed him. "How about we have some fun now? Moreover, your wife isn't beautiful like me, so you don't need to go back to her, and you can divorce her if necessary."

"Unfortunately, I can't divorce Song Yu." Du Zhong answered as he took off her clothes. "However, you don't need to think about her, and I will continue to make you happy, so let's have fun now."

After two days of adjustment, Tang Xiao, who was sleeping in the capsule, finally opened his eyes, but he felt confused about the place, and he clenched his fists while muttering. "Am I not dead?"

*Swoosh***

Suddenly, the glass capsule cover opened itself when Tang Xiao was about to touch it, and he climbed down from there. However, he was shocked after looking around the room, especially since the room was much more advanced than anything he had ever seen before. "What is this place? I've never seen such advanced technologies before."

[Finally awake?]

"Who?" Tang Xiao cried out in surprise after he heard Xiao Ai's voice in his mind. He circled around looking for the source, but he shuddered as he couldn't find her. "Who are you? Where are you?"

[My name is Xiao Ai, and I am speaking from within your mind.]

Xiao Ai's response shocked Tang Xiao, but he quickly calmed himself down. "How can you speak from inside my mind?"

[Hehe.] Xiao Ai giggled and explained it to Tang Xiao. [You don't need to be afraid of me, Master. I'm basically an AI, and my main chip is embedded in your brain, so I can talk to you anytime.]

Tang Xiao was dumbfounded by her explanation, and he naturally knew about AI because people in his era had started to use it, but he had never heard of an AI that could talk like a normal girl before.

[Master, you can meet me in the main control room by following the marks on the map, and I will make the final adjustments for you.]

Suddenly, a large blue map appeared in front of Tang Xiao's eyes, causing his eyes to widen. He reached out his hand to touch it, but his hand pierced through the map instead. "What is this? Is this a virtual reality? This map is like a map in an MMORPG."

Chapter 9: A Cultivator

"What kind of place is this anyway? Could it be that I'm in another world now?" As he casually strolled towards the main control room as indicated on the map, Tang Xiao continued to wonder. "All the facilities in this place are much more advanced compared to my world, which makes me feel like I'm in a sci-fi movie."

After he walked for a while, Tang Xiao arrived in front of the main control room, and he immediately entered it. He was stunned when he saw Xiao Ai, and he was even more astonished as he looked around the room. He could see that the room was filled with equipment that was more advanced than anything he had ever seen before, and there was also a large touch screen in the center of the room.

"Welcome to the main control room, Master." Xiao Ai greeted him with a smile.

Tang Xiao was taken back for a moment after hearing Xiao Ai's voice, and he increased his vigilance. "Were you the one who spoke into my mind earlier?"

"Haha." Xiao Ai laughed softly and approached Tang Xiao, and she then took his hand before taking him to sit on a chair with many strange devices. "I told you that you are my master, so you don't need to be afraid of me, and I will never harm you."

"Master? How can I become your master?" However, Tang Xiao panicked when a strange helmet covered his head. "What is this? What are you going to do to me?"

"My old master saved you from the bottom of the ravine, and he brought you to this place to save your life. After that, he transferred my main chip into your brain, so you are my master now." Xiao Ai explained to Tang Xiao as she started to operate the devices on the chair.

Tang Xiao raised an eyebrow as he remembered for sure that his chest was shot twice, and the ravine was also very deep, so he didn't expect that someone would be able to save him. However, the fact that he was still alive made him feel relieved, especially since he still wanted to accompany his big sister. "Where is your old master now? I want to thank him for saving my life."

"Old Master has left this world forever." Xiao Ai replied with an expression full of sorrow. "If you want to thank him, then you must train hard to become strong. This way, you can hold your fate in your hands, just like my old master."

"Sorry, I didn't know that." Tang Xiao sincerely said as he turned to Xiao Ai, but he did not expect that his savior was already dead. "What do you mean by training to be strong?"

As she operated those devices, Xiao Ai also explained this to Tang Xiao. "My old master was a cultivator, but he was also proficient in technology. Anyway, this place might be perplexing to you, but we are currently inside the Primordial Divine Ark, which is a separate dimension. Moreover, everything you see inside here was my old master's creation, but everything is yours now."

"Do you mean cultivators like the ones in the novels?" Tang Xiao asked in surprise.

Due to her familiarity with the old Tang Xiao's habits, his love of books, and many other things, Xiao Ai was unsurprised by Tang Xiao's question. Moreover, they were basically the same person, so it wasn't surprising that he had the same habits.

"You may find it hard to believe, but cultivators are real, Master. However, they were far more terrifying than the ones in the novels, and many of them were extremely vicious; they always suppressed people who were weaker than them." That did not surprise Tang Xiao, especially since ordinary humans also frequently committed it, and he was one of the victims. "That's why you have to train hard, so you can protect yourself and those closest to you from bad people, and you will no longer be bullied like before."

"Human greed and jealousy know no bounds, and they do not hesitate to do anything to achieve their goals, even if they have to sacrifice many people." Tang Xiao muttered softly as he shook his head.

Xiao Ai then looked at him and asked. "What would you do if you had the power, Master? Would you be the hero or the villain?"

"Xiao Ai, I'm neither a hero nor a villain, and I am me. I just want to make those closest to me happy, and I also want to live an unfettered life." Tang Xiao's expression suddenly turned serious, and his eyes became extremely cold. "However, if those villains try to hurt me and those closest to me, then I'll be their worst nightmare."

'He is indeed like my old master, and their principles are exactly the same, but he is also a little different from him.' Xiao Ai inwardly excitedly muttered, and subconsciously, the sadness of Old Tang Xiao's departure disappeared. "Get ready, Master. Perhaps the process will be a little painful and make you nauseous, but you have to endure it."

"Let's do it; I can't wait to meet Big Sis Yin." Tang Xiao was excited about it, especially since he would have the power to take revenge, and he clenched his fists as he swore in his heart. 'Ouyang Family! I, Tang Xiao, am still alive! I will make your entire family pay for what you did to us a hundredfold!'

*Beep... Beep...****

[Tang Xiao's physique awakening process begins.]

"Argh!" Tang Xiao tightly gripped the armrest of the chair as he endured the pain all over his body. "Damn it! It hurts so much!"

Tang Xiao felt that his entire body was being gnawed from within; even all his skin became dry and hard. Besides, he felt that his bones underwent many changes, including his internal organs.

"Do I need to give you anesthesia, Master?" Xiao Ai asked worriedly.

"No need! No pain, no gain!" Tang Xiao gritted his teeth as he endured the excruciating pain. It was only an hour later that he stopped screaming in pain, as the process was finally finished.

[Tang Xiao's physique awakening process is successful!]

[The War God Physique has awakened!]

[The Celestial Physique has awakened!]

"Hah... Hah... War God Physique and Celestial Physique?" The two perplexed Tang Xiao.

'How is this possible? How could he have two physiques? Could this be the impact of changes in the past? As I recall, the old master only has the celestial physique.' Xiao Ai was really shocked by that, but she then spoke to Tang Xiao. "I will continue with the second phase, Master."

"Do it, Xiao Ai."

*Beep... Beep...****

[Tang Xiao's bloodline fusion process begins.]

This time, Tang Xiao felt very relaxed and did not feel any pain, especially since the initial phase was finished while he was still unconscious, and this phase was only the completion of it.

However, Tang Xiao didn't realize that the blood in his body was no longer red; it had already turned violet gold. The process didn't take too long, and it was completed in a quarter of an hour.

[Tang Xiao's bloodline fusion process was successful. The celestial bloodline is perfectly fused.]

"Celestial Bloodline?"

"I'll explain everything later, and I'll run the final phase to awaken your veins so you can start cultivating."

Tang Xiao just nodded, and Xiao Ai immediately started the final stage. Like during the Bloodline fusion, the process of awakening his veins was not painful at all because they had already been implanted in his body, so she just had to activate them. In the next half hour, his vein awakening process was also completed.

[Tang Xiao's vein awakening process was successful. Celestial Veins have awakened.]

"Phew! At first, I thought the last two processes would be as painful as the first, but they weren't painful at all." Tang Xiao said it with a sense of relief.

"Hehe." Xiao Ai giggled at that. "I've implanted the bloodline and veins when you were unconscious, so both processes aren't painful at all. If I implant both while you're still conscious, then it'll be even more painful than the first."

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding, but he was also relieved not to have to go through such a painful process. "Can you explain all this to me, Xiao Ai?"

"Hmm? Master, you don't have to ask me, and you can check it yourself. Try saying 'Menu'."

"Oh?" Tang Xiao was taken aback by her words. "Menu." (A/N: The system is different from the systems of my other MCs, and this is actually just a database, so there are no quests, etc.)

"Eh? Isn't this like the menu in a game?" Tang Xiao asked in surprise.

"Yes." Xiao Ai answered with amusement, especially since it was Tang Xiao himself who created it. "Old Master did make it based on a game, since he likes playing games, so he made the same in my main chip."

"I see." Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "Your Old Master is truly a unique person; he is a cultivator, but he also has a hobby of playing games like me."

Xiao Ai was trying hard not to laugh as Tang Xiao was talking about his future self, and it was really ridiculous to her.

"Status."

Chapter 10: With Xiao Ai

Xiao Ai smiled at Tang Xiao's question. "You can choose one of them to increase your cultivation, but you will need more and more Qi as your cultivation increases, and you can use the accumulated Yang Qi and Yin Qi to break through."

"So, if I need a thousand Qi to break through to the next stage, I can split it 50:50 between yang qi and yin qi, right?" Tang Xiao rubbed his chin.

"That's right." Xiao Ai replied with a nod. "In my opinion, it would be great if you took the dual cultivation path. This way, you can cultivate normally by absorbing the qi from the air, and you can also cultivate using the yin qi of your future partners."

"Dual cultivation, huh?" Tang Xiao smiled bitterly. "I've never had a girlfriend in the past, and I've been in prison for seven years, so I doubt that I can find women that soon."

Xiao Ai shook her head helplessly, as the old and the young Tang Xiao were the same, and both were pathetic about women's affairs.

> Dual Cultivation Techniques

> Mind-Soul Techniques

> Alchemy-Forging Techniques

> Beast Taming Techniques

> Sex Techniques

"Cough!" Tang Xiao coughed hard when he saw the bottom of the list. "Why are there sex techniques on the list?"

"My old master made it, but I don't know its purpose." Xiao Ai herself was perplexed by that because Old Tang Xiao had never had a relationship with a woman in his life, and he was still a virgin until his death.

Tang Xiao couldn't help but sigh. "What's your suggestion as to which techniques I should learn first?"

"Hmm?" Xiao Ai thought for a moment, and she transferred some techniques into his mind.

Tang Xiao had goosebumps as soon as the techniques popped up in his mind, and he read them one by one.

[Celestial Body Technique (passive)]

- Initial Stage: Combat power +10%, body strength +10%.

- Middle Stage: Combat power +20%, body strength +20%.

- Half Perfection Stage: Combat power +35%, body strength +35%.

- Perfection Stage: combat power +50%, body strength +50%.

[Celestial Yin-Yang Arts (Passive): A supreme dual cultivation technique that harmonizes the primal forces of Yin and Yang, fusing them into an endless cycle of balance and growth. Unlike ordinary dual cultivation techniques that simply nourish one another, it will refine the partners' qi into a higher unity and make their qi become purer and denser.]

[Everflowing Qi Method: Unlike conventional cultivation techniques that require active meditation or circulation methods, this technique instills a continuous cycle into the cultivator's meridians and dantian. Once mastered, the body functions like a living vortex, constantly absorbing Qi day and night, even when the user is sleeping.]

[True senses (passive): This technique will increase the user's all senses by ten times.]

[True eyes (active): The user can see through anything using this technique, be it objects, auras, or human souls.]

[Transformation technique (active): The user can change his form into other people, inanimate objects, animals, and so on.]

[Void Dragon Steps (Active): A movement technique to pass through the Void, which has ten levels, and each level will increase by 100km.]

[Gale Steps (Active): A movement technique based on the wind element, it has five levels with a max limit of five times faster than normal.]

[Clone Illusion Steps (active): This technique has ten levels; each level will increase the number of illusions by one. This technique is mainly used for combat, so the user can outwit the opponents, and the illusion will disappear after some time.]

[Hundred Lightning Strikes (Active): This technique is a combination of lightning movement techniques and lightning strikes.]

All of those techniques were truly extraordinary, but Tang Xiao still had doubts about the Celestial Yin-Yang Arts because it was a dual cultivation technique, and he doesn't have a girlfriend.

"They are sufficient for now, Master. Your cultivation is still at the bottom, and your qi will not be sufficient to use high-level techniques." Xiao Ai hesitantly said it, as she was afraid that Tang Xiao would be disappointed.

"It doesn't matter." Tang Xiao casually responded. "I have learned martial arts in the past, so I can temporarily use them, and I will look for other techniques after my cultivation has risen higher."

Tang Xiao then looked at the level of each technique, which ranged from normal, rare, epic, unique, legendary, divine, and immortal grades. The equipment grades are no different from the technique grades.

Xiao Ai breathed a sigh of relief before teasing him. "Master, you have to think of a way to get a girlfriend as quickly as possible, and you can teach her to be a cultivator, so you can dual cultivate with her later."

"It's not easy to find a girlfriend." Tang Xiao then turned to Xiao Ai. "I still have many questions about you, your old master, and this primordial divine ark."

"What do you want to know, Master? I will answer your questions, but there are some things that my old master deliberately limited."

Tang Xiao thought while rubbing his nose. "Judging from your story and everything in this place, your old master should be a powerful cultivator, right? Why would he sacrifice himself for me?"

"Why do you think that my old master sacrificed himself for you?"

"You told me that you had implanted the celestial bloodline and celestial veins into my body while I was still unconscious, remember?" Xiao Ai nodded to Tang Xiao. "Judging from their names, both of them were not ordinary, and I guessed that they used to belong to your master."

'My master is still the master.' Xiao Ai then answered him. "Both of them belonged to my old master, and he sacrificed himself for you. However, I can't explain his reasons to you, and he will explain them to you after you have formed your cultivation soul."

Tang Xiao was shocked. "Does that mean your old master implanted his soul into my body?"

"Yes."

"Does he intend to take over my body?"

Xiao Ai was amused to hear such a question from Tang Xiao. "My old master has no such intention, and you will get the answer in the future."

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "Then, where did your old master get this ark? How many years apart are our eras? All the equipment in this place is too far advanced for this era, so I thought that you guys came from the distant future."

"Master, you can check that through my system." Tang Xiao searched for the information, but he was utterly shocked because the difference between their eras was far beyond his imagination. "My old master obtained this ark by chance in a remote ruin at the end of the universe, but he did not know its exact origin, and we were able to go back in time because of it."

Tang Xiao was perplexed after hearing all that, but he was curious about the old Tang Xiao's reasons for returning to the past and sacrificing himself for him. 'I can only wait to meet his soul to get the answers.' "Can the people out there see this ark? Can you connect your system to the system in my world?"

"Hehe! Even strong cultivators in the highest realm can't detect this ark, let alone ordinary people in your world." Xiao Ai then operated the monitor in the middle of the room before informing him. "My system is now connected to all systems in your world, and you can do whatever you want without being detected by them."

"That's good." Tang Xiao nodded in satisfaction. "For starters, I want you to create a new identity for me as Feng Xiao, and I will use it to destroy those bastards."

"Alright." Before long, a device on the side of the room had printed Tang Xiao's new identity card. Xiao Ai immediately took it before handing it to him along with a ring. "This is your new identity, and your new name is officially registered in your country's system. You can use the ring to go in and out of this ark, and no one can use it except for you."

"This way, they won't recognize me, and I can crush them." Tang Xiao then ordered Xiao Ai again. "I want you to look for Yu Xiaoling's whereabouts, as she was the one who gave me a sleeping pill and handed me over to Ouyang Qing, and I will go meet her after I pick up Big Sis Yin."

Soon, Yu Xiaoling's personal data appeared on the monitor, and Tang Xiao raised his eyebrows. "Hong Kong, huh? I didn't expect her to move that far, but it doesn't matter as long as I have this ark, right?"

"Yes, I can send you there now, Master."

"I'll go there later." Tang Xiao nodded to her. "Oh, I need a bank account in Feng Xiao's name, and I want you to steal money from Ran Linfeng's account, as he and Zhou Yuxian were the traitors."

"Why don't you destroy them directly, Master?" Xiao Ai asked as she carried out Tang Xiao's orders, and it was just a trivial matter to her.

Tang Xiao shook his head. "You don't know what I witnessed that night, so I won't destroy them directly, and I will make them feel the pain of my parents first."

Xiao Ai certainly knew what happened that night, because she witnessed everything together with the Old Tang Xiao, but she didn't say anything. "I've transferred quite a lot of money to Feng Xiao's account."

"That's good." Tang Xiao took out an ATM card from a device at the side of the room before taking Xiao Ai out of the ark.
