Chapter 111: Tang Yin's Threat

"Why... why are you doing this to me?" Jessica asked in a high, heartbroken voice. "I never once had any intention of framing you, and— Ahh."

While using the pleasure touch technique, Tang Xiao squeezed Jessica's breasts and pinched her nipples. "Like I said! Time can't be turned back! Because of your betrayal, I had to endure the cold of prison for seven years, and I almost died two days before my release! From now on, you are my servant, and your life is in my hands."

"Ahh... Tang Xiao... Ahh..." Jessica wanted to beg Tang Xiao, but her lust quickly took over her mind and body due to the effect of his middle-level pleasure touch. "Ahh... Ahh..."

Tang Xiao nibbled Jessica's ears. "Didn't you enjoy my dick before, Jess? Before, you kept begging me to keep fucking you, remember?"

"Ahh..." Jessica stretched her hands back, hugged Tang Xiao, and kissed him. The low-level pleasure touch was already potent for her, let alone the middle-level. She no longer remembered her circumstances because her mind was consumed by lust, and all she wanted was to have sex with him. "Mhmm..."

Tang Xiao turned Jessica to face him, inserted his dick into her pussy, and had sex with her.

In the end, Tang Xiao had sex with Jessica until she fell asleep exhausted, and he continued with Zhao Yuxian.

After he was satisfied with the three women, Tang Xiao returned to his bedroom to meet Tang Yin, who had been waiting for him for a long time.

Tang Yin smiled as Tang Xiao walked in, and she ran over to him before jumping to hug him like an octopus. "Are you still not satisfied after having sex with the three of them, Xiao'er?"

"Of course, I'm satisfied! However, they're our servants, and you're my first wife." Tang Xiao briefly kissed Tang Yin before taking her to the jacuzzi, where they soaked together, with her on his lap while her back was to him. "I'm taking Xing Xing to another city this morning, and we won't be back for a few days, so I'll accompany you for now."

"Hehe." Tang Yin was naturally pleased with that, but she informed Tang Xiao first about her meeting with Sun Xiang and the information she got from Mu Qingge. Furthermore, Tang Huang and the others also persuaded her to talk to him. "Xiao'er, I hope you don't do anything bad to Sun Xiang, as it would ruin the Tang Clan's good relationship with the Sun Clan, and it will lead to our downfall if we make enemies of them. They are one of Earth II's strong clans, almost as powerful as first-grade clans."

Although he wanted to take revenge against those families, Tang Xiao was not a fool, and he naturally thought that it would be better for them to add more allies rather than enemies. "Don't worry, I won't harm Sun Xiang in any way."

"En." Tang Yin nodded in satisfaction with Tang Xiao's answer, and she turned to face him with her arms around his neck. "The Sun Clan will be a useful ally for us in dealing with our enemies, especially Long Yin. Therefore, you can consider taking Sun Xiang as your wife, and the relationship between the two of you will make the relationship between the two clans deeper and stronger."

Tang Xiao didn't deny that Sun Xiang was pretty, even though her figure wasn't that sexy. However, he hadn't thought that far, as she was still in a position opposite him. "Then, what about Xiao Meng? Do you have any other information about her and her Xiao clan?"

"No." Tang Yin responded by shaking her head. "Aunt Qingge doesn't know much about the Xiao Clan, and neither does our grandfather or Sister Lingyin. I've asked Xiao Ai to investigate and track Xiao Meng's phone number, but she didn't find anything unusual about her, and the person who came to see her was a member of her clan named Xiao Hua."

"I see." Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "By the way, Fu Chen will only arrive in this city in three days, right?"

Tang Yin then teased Tang Xiao. "Are you impatient to meet Fu Chen? Are you interested in her? She is pretty and sexy, and she deserves to be a member of your harem. However, the decision is yours, and I will support you if you want to get her."

"Do you realize that you are more impatient than me when it comes to my women?" Tang Xiao pecked Tang Yin's lips before continuing. "Fu Chen is indeed beautiful and attractive, but I don't like her old character. She is too moody, and her feelings change easily."

"Well, that's true." Tang Yin agreed with that. "However, the current Fu Chen seems to have changed; otherwise, she wouldn't be successful as an actress with her old character, right?"

"Yeah." Tang Xiao caressed Tang Yin's cheeks as he smiled mischievously. "Forget about the others, and I will satisfy you now."

"Sure."

Xiao Ai suddenly informed Tang Xiao. [Master, you only need 4000 more Qi to break through to the Xiantian Level. If you dual cultivate with Xing Xing and both of you consume the two Xingyu Pills, I think you will successfully break through to that stage.]

'Yeah! I can't wait to break through to that stage too.' Tang Xiao and Tang Yin quickly began their sexual activity, engaging in dual cultivation until morning.

Early in the morning, Tang Xiao hurriedly cleaned himself up before checking on the people inside the ark. He found Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan already training in the training ground, Mu Lin resting in his room, and Mu Qingge sleeping with Mu Yan.

Then, Tang Xiao left the ark and went to Xing Xing's apartment, and he sneaked into her room. He found her bathing while whistling happily, making him smile in amusement. 'Apparently, not only am I impatient about today, but she also can't wait to go out with me.'

Minutes later, Xing Xing had come out of the bathroom, but she was stunned after seeing Tang Xiao, as she was still naked.

"Why are you stunned like this?" Tang Xiao approached Xing Xing, grabbed her shoulders, and scrutinized her from head to toe. "I've seen you naked twice, remember? Plus, you're my wife now, and we're going on our honeymoon after this, so you don't have to be embarrassed, right?"

Xing Xing pursed her lips. "Did you have fun with Big Sis Yin and those three women last night?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao immediately admitted it. "After I finished with the three women, I accompanied Yin'er until morning."

"I see." Xing Xing hurriedly got dressed.

Thereafter, Tang Xiao took Xing Xing to see Chu Lingxi to say goodbye, and she looked even more excited than her daughter. "Mother-in-law, please contact Big Sis Yin if you need anything, and we'll be back in a few days."

"Alright, you two can leave now, and you don't need to think about me and enjoy your honeymoon."

After they left, Chu Lingxi also left the apartment, and she went to meet some of her old friends.

Tang Yin had already woken up from her sleep, and she immediately checked on the three women after cleaning herself. She didn't find Zhao Yuxian and Yu Xiaoling in the room, and Xiao Ai informed her that they had gone to the factory.

Tang Yin then woke Jessica, who was still asleep. "Hey, wake up."

"Mhmm..." Jessica slowly opened her eyes before staring blankly at Tang Yin. But her expression turned sad as she recalled her conversation with Tang Xiao last night. She immediately sat up in bed and begged her. "Please let me out of this place. I want to return to my husband and son."

"You can forget about your wish because your clone has taken over your position." Jessica wanted to beg her again, but Tang Yin swiftly transformed into a demon, frightening her until she almost fell unconscious.

"Tang Yin... you... you..."

"Are you shocked to see me like this, Jess?" Tang Yin strangled Jessica's neck. "I became a demon because of what Ouyang Ming and the others did seven years ago, and Xiao'er suffered because of your betrayal. Fortunately, the goddess of luck was still on our side, and we managed to escape death. Since then, we have sworn to destroy everyone who caused us suffering, and you are one of them."

"Ugh..." Jessica grabbed her hand and tried to push it away, as she had difficulty breathing until her face was red. "Tang Yin, please—"

"Beg me again and I'll go out to kill your husband and son." Tang Yin's threat caused Jessica to freeze and her expression filled with horror. "You certainly don't want them to die, right? If you don't want them to die, you should forget about them, and you should bear the consequences of your past actions by living as our servant for the rest of your life."

After saying this, Tang Yin released Jessica, returned to her human form, and gave her a maid uniform. "Clean yourself up and put this uniform on, and I'll take you to meet the others."

Jessica held the maid uniform in a daze, as she still hoped to return to her husband and son. However, she wasn't a fool, and she was aware that Tang Yin and Tang Xiao would never free her. Heartbroken, she got out of bed and went to the bathroom, where she cleaned herself while crying, lamenting her past decisions.

Chapter 112: Zhao Wei

Some time later, Jessica was already wearing her maid uniform, and Tang Yin gave her a mask that Xiao Ai had prepared for her.

Tang Yin then pulled Jessica in front of the mirror. "Use it."

"Hmm?" Jessica felt confused by that, but she immediately put on the mask. Soon, she fell dumbfounded as she stared at her reflection in the mirror, and she groped her face to make sure she wasn't seeing things. But she couldn't feel the mask, as if it had merged with her face, which had been transformed into someone else's. "How could my face become someone else's face?"

"The mask is a disguise device, and you must use it every time I take you out of this place." Tang Yin taught Jessica how to remove the mask. "Xiao Ai has implanted her sub-chip into your brain, so all your actions are under her supervision. She will stop you if you try to contact your husband or family, so don't bother doing it when you're out."

Jessica inwardly sighed. "Who is Xiao Ai? What exactly is this place?"

"Follow me." Jessica followed Tang Yin out of the room, but she raised an eyebrow when she saw Mu Qingge and Mu Yan. "Aunt Qingge and Yan'er, her name is Jessica, and she is one of the women who put Xiao'er in prison for seven years."

Mu Yan put on a hostile look as she fiercely stared at Jessica. "Humph! Evil woman! You deserve to be a prisoner because you have done evil to Big Brother Xiao!"

"Yan'er." Mu Qingge was still confused about her daughter's attitudes regarding Tang Xiao and Tang Yin.

"Mother, she is an unscrupulous woman, so there is no need for you to feel sorry for her." Mu Yan then pulled her mother away, making Mu Qingge sigh helplessly. "Let's go; we will train with Grandpa Huang and Grandma Lingyan."

Jessica realized that she had indeed done something bad to Tang Xiao by betraying him, but she didn't know either woman, so she was confused by Mu Yan's hostile attitude. "Who are they?"

"Aunt Qingge is Xiao'er's future third wife." Jessica turned to Tang Yin in shock. "His first wife is me, and his second wife is Xing Xing."

"Huh?" Jessica's eyes widened in shock. "You... how..."

"That's none of your business." A flying car suddenly landed in front of them, shocking Jessica again. Tang Yin took her on a ride before going to the factory.

Along the way, Jessica looked at the surrounding area in awe and shock, as all areas of the Ark were too modern and advanced compared to Earth. 'What exactly is this place? Where did they get such an advanced place?'

Tang Yin explained several things to Jessica, including about cultivators and some others, making it difficult for her to digest all the things she had heard for the first time.

Before long, they arrived at the factory, and Tang Yin took Jessica inside.

Jessica wasn't surprised by Zhao Yuxian's presence, as she had seen her the night before. However, she didn't recognize her former teacher because Xiao Ai had already changed Yu Xiaoling's face as per Tang Yin's request.

"What?" Jessica screamed softly as soon as Tang Yin told her Yu Xiaoling's identity. "Is... is this really you, Teacher Yu?"

Yu Xiaoling nodded at her. "It's me."

"Then—"

"No need for chit-chat." Tang Yin then spoke to Xiao Ai, who was also there. "I'll leave Jessica to you, and you can teach her the things she needs to learn."

"Yes, Mistress." After Tang Yin left, Xiao Ai explained some things to Jessica, especially about all the equipment in the factory and the products.

Since it was still early, Tang Yin didn't rush to Tianmei; Instead, she joined the others at the training ground.

At the Ouyang House, Su Rou walked into Yi An's room to wake her up, as she was unusually late. "Madam Yi."

"Mhmm..." Yi An groaned softly and slowly opened her eyes. "Why are you here?"

'Did Feng Xiao do something to her last night?' Su Rou then informed Yi An. "Madam Yi, it's already 7 o'clock in the morning, and we have a meeting with the people here at 10 o'clock."

Yi An was surprised to hear that, and she hurriedly sat up on the bed. However, she felt her body was so light, and she didn't feel the slightest fatigue like usual. 'Is this because of Feng Xiao's massage yesterday? I've never slept this well, but I slept so long last night, and my body is so fresh now.' "Leave first and ask the maid to prepare my breakfast."

"Yes, Madam Yi." Su Rou immediately walked out.

"You will drive today because I gave Feng Xiao a few days off." Su Rou was surprised to hear that, but she asked nothing and left Yi An's bedroom straight away. "Sigh! I was really crazy last night! However, his massage was really comfortable, and I thoroughly enjoyed it."

After that, Yi An hurriedly washed up before going to breakfast with Su Rou, and the two of them left the Ouyang House afterward.

Soon, the two women arrived at the hospital, and Yi An went to visit her son first while speaking with the doctor treating him. Unfortunately, the doctor still couldn't find the source of Ouyang Ming's illness, disappointing her.

Yi An then proceeded to Ouyang Qing's room, where she was relieved to see her daughter's condition getting better. The doctor treating her daughter told her that she could be discharged in a few days.

After she spoke with her daughter for some time, Yi An immediately left the room, as she had to go to a meeting.

"Where is Feng Xiao?" Su Rou, who was about to follow Yi An, immediately turned to Ouyang Qing. "Where is he?"

'Haha! She seems to miss Feng Xiao, huh?' Su Rou immediately informed Ouyang Qing. "Your mother gave him a few days off, but I don't know where he is now because he was already gone when I got back last night, so I didn't have an opportunity to ask him. If you—"

"Leave!" Ouyang Qing shouted at Su Rou, who immediately hurried away. She took her smartphone from the tableside and searched for Tang Xiao's number, but she hesitated to call him.

Even though she wanted to see Tang Xiao again, Ouyang Qing gave up her intention to contact him. "Sigh! What exactly happened to me? Why do I keep thinking about him? I even dreamed about him last night, and I missed his touch so much."

While Ouyang Qing was lost in thought, two women suddenly entered her room, and Luo Yan handed her some beauty products. "Yesterday, I asked my friend to buy these products from Tang Yin's shop, and the results were excellent after I tried them."

"Hmm?" Ouyang Qing frowned at that, but she did not respond to Lin Yan. Instead, she contacted Bai Huang, but his response upset her because he was unable to take action against Tang Yin due to the arrival of Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng. 'Tch! What a useless guy!' "I'm not interested in these products, and I'm only interested in destroying that bitch, so you can bring them back!"

Lin Yan chose not to comment on the matter, and the three of them discussed other matters before she and Luo Qinlin left Ouyang Qing alone.

Zhao Teng, who had just returned to Zhao House, was perplexed when he saw his third wife sitting pensively alone. He approached Lin Yanxiu and inquired. "What happened? Why are you daydreaming early in the morning like this? Is there something bothering you?"

"Husband, I wanted to tell you something yesterday, but you didn't come home last night." Lin Yanxiu pulled Zhao Teng to sit by her side. "You definitely won't guess this, but the owner of the beauty shop I visited yesterday belonged to Tang Yin, and Zhao Qing was helping her to manage it."

"Hmm?" Zhao Teng momentarily raised his eyebrows upon hearing that. "Are you sure that the company is hers?"

Lin Yanxiu nodded to her husband. "I talked to Zhao Qing yesterday, and she told me about it, so it should be true. I hope you won't do anything to that company; instead, I hope you're willing to help them, especially since Tang Yin is your granddaughter."

Zhao Teng's expression turned furious as he stood up. "I've told you many times that I have grandchildren like them! They are Jing'er's illegitimate children, and they have nothing to do with my Zhao family, so you don't need to talk about them in front of me anymore."

Lin Yanxiu let out a heavy sigh because of Zhao Teng's attitude, but she knew that she would never be able to persuade her husband, especially with his stubborn character. 'Sigh! He shouldn't say something like that! The late Tang Ye and Zhao Jing were officially married, so Tang Yin and Tang Xiao were not illegitimate children.'

An old man stood in front of Zhao Teng and listened to his explanation, but he was completely shocked by his order. "Are you sure you want to do that, brother? I know that you never want to recognize Tang Yin as your granddaughter, but she is still Jing'er's daughter. Even if you keep denying it, you will never be able to change the truth, so I don't think you need to go that far with her."

"Are you going to disobey my orders, Zhao Wei?" Zhao Teng inquired with narrowed eyes.

Chapter 113: Zhao Wei's Visit

"Brother, I—"

Zhao Teng stopped Zhao Wei instantly. "I know you love Jing'er like your own daughter, but she's dead now, and her death was that bastard Tang Ye's fault. Unfortunately, he's also dead now, so I can't do anything to him. His blood flows within Tang Yin's body, and she is the last person in his lineage, so she must bear the consequences of her father's mistakes."

Zhao Wei let out a heavy sigh, listening to Zhao Teng's words. "I'm sorry, but I have to refuse your orders. Tang Yin may be Tang Ye's daughter, but she didn't do anything wrong, and Jing'er's death wasn't his fault. On the contrary, you should blame Ouyang Hong because he was one of the perpetrators who did that cruel thing to her, but you chose to ignore all those facts because you were too afraid of him, and you would rather cooperate with him because he could bring you wealth."

Zhao Teng wore an annoyed look and furrowed his forehead, and he immediately took a gun from his desk drawer before pointing it at Zhao Wei. "I don't need your advice, and you only have two choices: do as I say or die."

"If it makes you happy, then you can kill me now, brother." Zhao Wei casually replied to Zhao Teng, and there was not the slightest fear in his expression. "Tang Yin is Jing'er's daughter, and she is all that remains of her, so I will never follow your orders against her."

Zhao Teng became even more furious, but his hands trembled as he wanted to pull the trigger. After all, Zhao Wei was his brother, and he ultimately abandoned his intention. "Get out of my face!"

Without saying a word, Zhao Wei left Zhao Teng's room, and he passed Lin Yanxiu, who looked at him worriedly. He didn't say anything to her and left Zhao House directly.

Meanwhile, Zhao Teng contacted other people to carry out his orders against Tang Yin, but unfortunately, he never realized that all his conversations were recorded by Xiao Ai, who had hijacked his phone long ago.

Elsewhere, Bai Huang looked gloomy after he failed to carry out Ouyang Qing's order to make trouble at Tang Yin's shop yesterday, which happened because of the arrival of Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng.

Furthermore, Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng continued to monitor his movements, which annoyed Bai Huang.

"Have you told our young miss about our failure yesterday?" Pei Yan, who had just arrived, immediately asked Bai Huang.

"I didn't tell our young miss about our failure yesterday." Pei Yan sat directly in front of Bai Huang. "However, she already knew that we had failed, and she previously contacted me to do something about Tang Yin as soon as possible."

"How did our young miss find out about our failure? Isn't she still in the hospital?" Pei Yan asked in confusion.

"I don't know." Suddenly, Bai Huang received a new message that excited him, and he immediately got up from his seat before walking away. "Let's go! We have an effortless task with a high payout, and we should finish it first. Thereafter, we'll try going to that shop again, and we'll do something about Tang Yin."

A couple was walking through an area covered in thick snow while enjoying the beautiful scenery, and they didn't feel the slightest bit cold, even though they were only wearing thin clothes.

"I didn't expect that you would bring me here, husband." Xing Xing said as she laid her head on Tang Xiao's shoulders. "Honestly, I've dreamed of going to this city for so long, but I don't have the money because I have to pay for my mother's medical expenses, and you have made my dream come true today."

"I knew that, so I brought you here on purpose, and our honeymoon will be even more memorable if we do it in your dream place." Tang Xiao then questioned her in a playful tone. "Are you impatient to enjoy our honeymoon?"

Xing Xing blushed as she shyly nodded. "I've heard from Big Sis Yin about her first night, so I want that too."

"Hahaha!" Tang Xiao laughed, carried Xing Xing like a princess, and spun around in place. "Unfortunately, it's still early in the morning, so we have to wait until evening to enjoy our honeymoon."

Instead, Xing Xing complained while hugging Tang Xiao's neck. "Ahh! You should stop spinning! My head is getting dizzy because of you!"

Tang Xiao immediately stopped and then took Xing Xing to the biggest ski resort in the city, but her face turned red because the people who passed them laughed when they saw her in his arms. "You don't need to care about them, and we'll have fun for now."

At the factory, Jessica daydreamed alone because there was nothing she could do there because the production of the products was automated; she and the other two women just watched them.

However, Yu Xiaoling left the factory because Tang Yin had finished her training, and they were going to Tianmei.

"What are you thinking about?"

Jessica turned to Zhao Yuxian. "Why did you do that with Tang Xiao, Aunt Yuxian? He—"

"Do you think I have a choice?" Zhao Yuxian responded with a heavy sigh before recounting to Jessica how Tang Xiao had planned everything against her, and she had foolishly fallen into his trap. "After he forced me to kill my husband, he imprisoned me here. Since my family was already destroyed, and I enjoyed myself with him, I chose to resign myself to my fate. Furthermore, he didn't do anything bad to my twin daughters, and I was satisfied with that."

Jessica released a heavy sigh before telling her about how she fell into Tang Xiao's trap, but Zhao Yuxian was not surprised by that because she already knew about his and Tang Yin's plans against their enemies.

Zhao Yuxian patted Jessica's shoulder. "I understand your feelings, but you won't be able to do anything to change your situation. Your clone has already taken over your position by your husband and son's side, so you no longer have a place to return to. Additionally, Xiao Ai's sub chip is inside your brain now, so your movements and thoughts are under her strict supervision, and she will stop you if you think about contacting them. If that happens, she will report to Tang Xiao, and you will suffer yourself, so you should carefully think about your choice."

Jessica clenched her fists tightly, as her desire to return to her family was still strong, but she was also aware of her situation. Despite this, she didn't want to give up, and she planned to beg Tang Yin to free her.

Zhao Yuxian could only shake her head without commenting further, as she herself had no solution to change her situation, let alone help Jessica.

Tang Yin arrived at Tianmei and instructed Yu Xiaoling to open her shop with the employees. She hurriedly went to the third floor to meet Zhao Qing and Yao Yao, who had arrived earlier.

Qiao Yumei, Liao Yuxi, and Lin Qingxue also immediately got to work on their respective tasks. Although Tianmei's opening wasn't smooth sailing and few products were sold, both online and at retail, they remained enthusiastic about working because they had already tried the products themselves, and they were satisfied with the results even though they had only tried them once.

"Do you have a boyfriend, Yao?"

"Eh?" Yao Yao looked at Tang Yin with surprise, and Zhao Qing also glanced at her niece with a suspicious look. "I once had a boyfriend when I lived abroad, but our relationship didn't last long, and we decided to separate because of our busy schedules. As for now, I still don't have the desire to think about a boyfriend because my situation is still chaotic after the death of my parents, so I want to look at my life first before I think about that."

"I see." Tang Yin nodded in understanding. "I've been in your shoes before, so I can understand how you're feeling right now. However, you can't dwell on it too much because you're still so young, and life must go on, so you have to learn to accept reality as soon as possible."

"I know, Big Sis Yin," Yao Yao replied with a soft sigh. "My parents recently passed away, so I haven't forgotten them yet, and I need some time to move on. How about you? Do you have a boyfriend now?"

"To be honest, I already have a husband." Yao Yao was shocked to hear that, but Tang Yin showed her the two rings on her fingers. "We got married a few days ago, but we were married in a civil registry, and we haven't had our wedding party yet. I won't reveal my husband's identity now, and you will find out in the future."

Yao Yao looked at her curiously, but Tang Yin still had no intention of revealing her husband's identity to her. "In that case, congratulations on your wedding, Big Sis Yin. I hope your marriage will last forever, and the two of you will grow old together."

"Thank you." Tang Yin then looked at the door after detecting the movement of two people, and Yu Xiaoling entered the room to see off Zhao Wei, surprising her and Zhao Qing.

Zhao Qing rushed over to Zhao Wei and questioned him. "Why did you suddenly come here, Uncle Wei? Did my father send you here?"

Chapter 114: Talk With Zhao Wei

[Mistress, Zhao Teng ordered some of his subordinates to attack you. Do you want me to do something about him?]

'Ask Xiao'er about that old bastard, Xiao Ai.' Tang Yin then spoke to Yao Yao. "Yao'er, please leave us."

"Yes, Big Sis Yin."

After Yao Yao left, Zhao Wei sat down in front of Tang Yin, and Zhao Qing returned to her niece's side. "I'm glad you've woken up from your coma, Yin'er. Moreover, you look much healthier now, so I can feel relieved."

"Thank you, Grandpa Wei." Tang Yin sincerely answered. "You have always treated me and Xiao'er well, unlike that old bastard, and I am truly grateful. Did you come here to warn me about him?"

"Eh?" Tang Yin's question took Zhao Wei aback for a moment. "Did you know about that?"

Tang Yin nodded with a smile. "Grandpa Wei, I've actually been monitoring that old bastard, so I know that Lin Yanxiu has already told him about me and this company. I know he asked you to do something to us, but you refused because you love us."

"How could you do all that, Yin'er?" Zhao Wei suddenly realized something. "Were you the one who did all that to the Ran, Yao, and Meng families?"

"Yes." Tang Yin admitted it. "Grandpa Wei, I know you will never be our enemy because you love me and Xiao'er very much, so I won't hide these matters from you."

Zhao Wei took a deep breath after hearing Tang Yin's statement. "What do you mean by 'we'? Did Qing'er help you do all that? How did you two manage to do all that?"

"I didn't do anything, Uncle Wei." Zhao Qing denied it with a shake of her head.

"Then—"

"Xiao'er is still alive, Grandpa Wei." Zhao Wei's expression briefly turned to shock after Tang Yin said this, but he appeared relieved afterward. "I'm not lying to you, Grandpa Wei. Xiao'er is still alive, but he's disguised and infiltrated the Ouyang House right now. Currently, everyone thinks he's dead, so he still can't see you."

Zhao Wei exhaled with a sense of relief. "I'm glad to hear Xiao'er is still alive, but how did he survive the ravine? Why did he act so recklessly by infiltrating the Ouyang House?"

"Long story short, someone rescued Xiao'er from the ravine, healed him, and taught him many things. However, I can't explain the details to you for now, and you will know everything after we finish taking revenge on our enemies." Zhao Wei looked suspiciously at Tang Yin. "Please forgive me, Grandpa Wei. I really can't tell you anything right now, but you don't have to worry about us. We will act carefully, and those people won't know that we are the masterminds behind those events."

Zhao Wei released a soft sigh. "What have you two done to the Ran Family?"

"I killed Ran Qingfeng because he wanted to violate me seven years ago, and Xiao'er killed Ran Linfeng because of his cruel actions against our mother." Tang Yin's revelation greatly shocked Zhao Wei. "Zhao Yuxian is alive now, so you don't need to worry about her, but we will never release her. We didn't do anything to Ran Yue and Ran Xue, as they are both innocents."

Zhao Qing spoke. "I've met Sister Yuxian myself, so I can confirm that she's fine, Uncle Wei."

"I see." Zhao Wei nodded in understanding. "I don't care about Ran Linfeng and Ran Qingfeng, but Zhao Yuxian is our family, so I hope you two don't do anything cruel to her."

Tang Yin smiled at that. "Grandpa Wei, we promised our late mother not to do anything bad to Zhao Yuxian, and we will never break that promise."

"That's good." Zhao Wei was relieved by that. "So, is the Meng Family your next target? What are you going to do about your grandfather? Since I've already refused his order, he will send someone else to do something to you."

"Our next target is indeed the Meng Family, but we won't make a move for now." Tang Yin paused for a while. "Regarding our grandfather, I will discuss this matter with Xiao'er first. However, I understand his way of thinking very well, so I can more or less guess what he will do to him."

"What do you think Xiao'er will do to him?"

Tang Yin let out a soft sigh. "Since that old bastard values his wealth more than his family, Xiao'er will probably do something to shake up his company's finances. With the current situation, I'm sure there aren't many people who can help him. Even Wan Xiaogang has decided not to interfere in these matters, so I'm sure that he won't help that old bastard. I'm certain that Ouyang Hong won't be of much help either, so he has to bear and handle everything himself."

"That's true." Zhao Wei nodded in agreement. "I discussed those matters with Wang Xiaogang a few days ago, and he chose to avoid them, so I was certain that he wouldn't be willing to help your grandfather. Although he treated you and Xiao'er badly, he is still your grandfather, so I hope the two of you won't be too harsh on him."

Tang Yin nodded understandingly to Zhao Wei. "Don't worry, Grandpa Wei. For now, we'll teach that old bastard a small lesson because he's our grandfather, but we'll teach him a much harsher lesson if he's unwilling to change."

"I know." Zhao Wei then stood up. "I won't stop you two from taking action against your grandfather, but I can't help you because he is my brother, and I hope you can resolve the problems between you in a better way."

"The outcome will depend on the decision of that old bastard, Grandpa Wei." Zhao Wei just nodded to Tang Yin and left the room directly. "Aunt Qing, you don't need to worry about that old bastard anymore, and Xiao Ai will watch over him for us, so you can start focusing on your cultivation inside the ark after this."

Zhao Qing nodded at her. "Alright, I'll be staying at the ark more often than today."

Xiao Ai informed Tang Yin about Bai Huang and Pei Yan's movements, but she didn't think much of them because they were just ordinary humans, and she could fight them off. However, she didn't need to take action herself because Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng were still following the two men, and the two women would stop them if they tried to attack her.

Moreover, Tang Xiao had already carried out his plans against Bai Huang and Pei Yan, and he only had a few days to end things, so Tang Yin chose not to interfere in their affairs.

In the car, Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng monitored Bai Huang and Pei Yan from a distance, but they didn't know what the two men were planning.

"How was your conversation with Tang Yin? Have you found out Tang Xiao's location?" Xiao Meng asked her best friend.

"No." Sun Xiang responded with a shake of her head. "Tang Yin isn't willing to tell me about Tang Xiao's whereabouts, and I can't force her to speak with Aunt Qingge by her side, so we can only wait for him to show up on his own."

"After all, Mu Qingge and Tang Ye were friends since childhood, and their father was also a good friend for so long, so it was natural that she would protect her." Sun Xiang nodded, but she had no intention of telling Xiao Meng that Tang Yin was a darkness cultivator, as it would put her in danger if many people knew about it. "Do you think Tang Xiao will really kill those two men?"

"Yes." Sun Xiang replied with a nod. "Tang Yin already told me that Tang Xiao's next targets were those two men, as they were the ones who ganged up on him in prison. Bai Huang shot him in the chest before he fell into the ravine, but I don't know when he will make moves against them."

"Hmm?" Xiao Meng turned to Sun Xiang in surprise. "So, Tang Xiao killed Du Zhong and He Yu because of that?"

"Yes." Before telling Xiao Meng, Sun Xiang sighed softly. "The person who sent them to kill Tang Xiao wasn't Ouyang Hong, but Ouyang Qing."

"Ouyang Qing?" Xiao Meng was shocked when she heard that name. "Is it really that little girl who ordered Bai Huang to kill Tang Xiao?"

"Surprising, isn't it?" Xiao Meng nodded to Sun Xiang. "At first, I was also surprised to hear that from Tang Yin, and I didn't expect that Ouyang Qing was no less evil than her father. Seven years ago, she and her friends framed Tang Xiao and had him imprisoned, but she wasn't satisfied with that, and she still wanted to kill him. Unfortunately, her actions turned the situation around because he managed to survive and become a cultivator, and many people have died in his hands now."

"Does that mean all the people who disappeared died at Tang Xiao's hands?"

"Tang Yin told me that Tang Xiao killed Ran Linfeng, and she killed Ran Qingfeng. However, they didn't kill Yao Shao, and he died at the hands of his bodyguards." Xiao Meng frowned after she heard Sun Xiang's reply. "They didn't kill Yao Wei and Xiang Ning directly, but they killed them indirectly. Even so, I don't know how they did it, and two people will soon die by his hands if we can't find him."

Chapter 115: Stay At A Hotel

"Tang Xiao is truly insane." Xiao Meng commented while massaging her forehead. "He's only been a cultivator for a few days, but he's already killed so many people. I don't dare imagine what would happen if he had already gained so much experience as a cultivator, and he would probably be as cruel as the people of the Xie Clan."

"At first, I thought the same as you, but I knew that wouldn't happen."

"Why are you so sure of that?"

Sun Xiang sighed softly. "Consider this carefully; all his victims were those connected to his parents' deaths and those who had harmed him, and we didn't hear of any additional victims. That's why I'm certain that he won't be as cruel as the people from the Xie Clan because his goal is only to take revenge against those families, and he won't hurt innocent people."

"That's true." Xiao Meng replied with a nod of approval.

After that, Sun Xiang started the car again, and the two of them followed Bai Huang and Pei Yan, who had decided to go somewhere else.

In the afternoon, Tang Xiao took Xing Xing to the hotel he had booked beforehand. He rented the top floor of the hotel because they were going to stay in the city for a few days so they could enjoy the view of the snow from their room.

Xing Xing followed behind Tang Xiao with a look of embarrassment and nervousness because she had never stayed in a hotel with a man before, and her heart couldn't calm down as she thought about what would happen next.

When they arrived at their room, Xing Xing looked around in awe, as it was her first time staying in such a luxurious hotel. "Isn't this room too expensive for one night, hubby?"

"Why do you have to think about the price?" Tang Xiao inquired as he guided Xing Xing to the balcony and embraced her from behind while they gazed at the snow expanding before them. "Tonight will be our first night as husband and wife, and I promise to make it an unforgettable experience for you. Therefore, you don't have to think about such things, and you can enjoy our time together."

"Thank you for being so considerate of my feelings." Xing Xing gratefully said as she leaned against Tang Xiao's chest. "Honestly, I'm really tense and nervous right now, but I'm delighted because I will become your wife tonight. Back then, I didn't dare to approach you, and I only dared to look at you from afar because I always felt like I didn't deserve you."

"You're wrong, wife." Tang Xiao kissed Xing Xing's head for a moment before continuing. "I'm the one who doesn't deserve you because I never realized that you were always paying attention to me, and you knew so many details about me. If only I had realized it, we might have been together a long time ago, and you would never have suffered from having to bottle up your feelings. Besides, I had already started my relationship with Yin'er, which was also unconventional. However, you were still willing to accept me, so I should be the one who is grateful to have you as my wife."

Xing Xing turned to face Tang Xiao and briefly kissed his lips. "We are both lucky to be husband and wife."

"Yeah." Tang Xiao then hugged Xing Xing tighter. "I promise, I will make you happy for the rest of your life."

"I believe you." Xing Xing freed herself from Tang Xiao's arms before pulling him into the room, especially since the wind on the balcony was too strong and the air temperature was too cold. "How about we drink that?"

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao glanced briefly at the minibar, which was filled with alcoholic beverages, including wine. "Have you ever had alcoholic beverages before?"

"No." Xing Xing shook her head and walked towards the mini bar, and she chose one of the drinks with the lowest alcohol concentration. "I want to try this one, hubby. I'm too tense right now, and it might help me reduce my nervous tension."

"Alright." Tang Xiao then took two glasses and poured the drink into both of them, and Xing Xing wanted to rush to drink it, so he immediately stopped her. "Drink it slowly; it's not water, and you'll vomit if you drink too fast."

Xing Xing nodded and smelled it, but she became nauseous from the smell of the alcohol. Even so, she forced herself to try it, and she took a small sip of the drink. "Ugh! This drink is really bitter!"

"Hahaha!" Tang Xiao laughed at that. "All alcoholic drinks are bitter; even wine made from fermented grapes also tastes a little bitter. That's why I forbid you from drinking it all at once, especially since you've never had one before."

Xing Xing pursed her lips after hearing that, and she suddenly had an idea, but she felt embarrassed to do it. However, Tang Xiao suddenly pulled her closer, and he drank the drink. Then he kissed her and poured it into her mouth, startling her.

However, Xing Xing enjoyed Tang Xiao's action, and she swallowed it slowly. 'Can he read my mind? I just thought about doing it, but he already did it first.'

"How does it taste now? Does it still taste bitter?" Tang Xiao rubbed Xing Xing's lips.

Xing Xing responded with repeated nods. "Did you use your qi to reduce the bitterness? Although it's still bitter, it's not as bitter as before."

"That's right." Tang Xiao then explained to Xing Xing how to reduce the bitterness of alcoholic drinks, and he also taught her to completely neutralize the effects of alcohol, so they would never get drunk if they drank too much.

Hearing that, Xing Xing immediately drank it, and she used the method taught by Tang Xiao just now. However, she still had difficulty doing it, so the bitterness couldn't completely disappear. "Alas, my Qi control is not as refined as yours, and I must continue to hone my abilities."

"It's okay; you don't need to rush." Tang Xiao suddenly remembered Tantai Lingyan's previous words. "Anyway, my master wants to train you and Yin'er after we return from our honeymoon, so you must prepare yourselves because her training is quite harsh."

Instead, Xing Xing's eyes lit up after hearing that. "It doesn't matter; I can definitely go through all the training she gives me. Moreover, I am your wife, and I don't want to be like a flower vase. Therefore, I will train hard, and I will accompany you through thick and thin. In addition, you want to take Aunt Qingge as your third wife, and she is a strong cultivator. As your second wife, I don't want to fall behind her."

Tang Xiao was satisfied with Xing Xing's answer, and he grabbed her shoulders. "You don't need to think about that, okay? Once we start dual-cultivating, your cultivation will improve faster, especially since my cultivation has already reached the peak foundation level now, and I'll probably break through to the Xiantian level after we do it."

"Huh?" Xing Xing was surprised to learn that Tang Xiao's cultivation had already left her behind, as she didn't know how to detect other people's cultivation yet. "Since when did you break through, hubby? How did you break through so quickly?"

"Two days ago, Yin'er and I broke through to this stage." Xing Xing became gloomy after hearing Tang Xiao's answer. "Wife, we broke through using unorthodox methods, but I don't want you to use that method, and you wouldn't have the heart to use it either."

"What do you mean by that? Why don't you want me to use it?" Xing Xing asked with a confused look. "If that method can help me get stronger faster, then I want to use it."

Tang Xiao sighed heavily and explained to her about his and Tang Yin's techniques, causing Xing Xing's face to turn pale after hearing that, but she finally understood why he didn't want to use those techniques to improve her cultivation. "It's okay; you don't need to think about that, and I will help you use other methods."

"Other methods?"

Tang Xiao immediately took out two pills and handed one to Xing Xing. "The blue one is a xingyu pill, and it will increase the amount of Yin Qi in your body over a period of time. It will arouse you, so you can only use it when dual cultivating with me."

Xing Xing already knew about the qi absorption pill, and she had taken it before, but she didn't know about the two xingyu pills. "Does the red pill in your hand have the same effect as this blue pill?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao nodded to Xing Xing. "If I swallow this red xingyu pill, then my Yang Qi will increase a lot, and I can help you faster with my current cultivation."

"I see." Xing Xing then put the pill into her storage ring and took Tang Xiao to the bathroom. "Let's shower together first, hubby. I'm not comfortable doing it before showering."

As smoke streamed out of her head, Xing Xing's face turned completely red when she saw Tang Xiao naked in front of her. She covered her embarrassed face with both hands, but her eyes continued to glance at his dick through the gaps in her fingers. 'Ugh! Did it become this big because of Xiao Ai? Will it fit into my body? Won't that hurt me?'

Chapter 116: Xing Xing's First Intimate***

Tang Xiao smiled in amusement at his second wife's behavior, but he realized that Xing Xing was truly nervous now because she was still a virgin.

Tang Xiao didn't want to rush into having sex with Xing Xing, and he wanted to relax her first. He took her into the bathtub, which was already filled with hot water.

Xing Xing became increasingly tense because Tang Xiao's dick was right at her buttocks, which made her heart beat faster. "Relax, okay? I know you're scared and nervous, but I told you that I can make the pain go away, so you won't feel anything later."

"Yeah." Xing Xing nodded while leaning against Tang Xiao's chest, and she held his hands while slowly rubbing them. "Big Sis Yin told me that the pain was truly terrible the first time she did it with you, so I was scared. However, she also told me that she felt comfortable after the pain disappeared, and she felt amazing pleasure."

"That's true." Tang Xiao responded by nodding. "Yin'er did feel quite painful when we did it for the first time, and that was because she didn't want me to use my qi to relieve her pain. However, she enjoyed it every time we had sex, and she was pretty wild whenever we did it."

"Mhnn..." Xing Xing started to moan, and her body trembled when Tang Xiao started caressing her breasts. "Mhnn... I felt a strange sensation when you did this to my breasts, as if something was flowing into my body, and I felt more relaxed."

"Have you never done it yourself before?"

"Mhnn... No, I never thought about doing that before." Xing Xing held both of Tang Xiao's hands and pressed them onto her breasts, and he began to gently squeeze them. "Mhnn... Hubby, this sensation is getting stronger, and my nerves are getting more relaxed."

"Do you like the sensation?" Tang Xiao whispered while licking Xing Xing's ear.

As her breathing became more and more irregular, Xing Xing looked back at Tang Xiao. "Mhnn... Kiss me."

Tang Xiao immediately kissed his wife, but he did not right away give her a passionate kiss; instead, he led Xing Xing in a slow but intimate kiss. His hands kept squeezing her breasts, and his fingers began to rub her tiny cherries gently, which had begun to harden as her lust increased.

"Mhnn..." 'I like his gentleness.' Xing Xing increasingly enjoyed Tang Xiao's stimulation, feeling her body grow hotter from behind while her muffled moans rang in his ears. "Mhnn..."

Tang Xiao leaned back slightly downward to make her feel more comfortable, and Xing Xing spread her legs slightly to the side, which made his dick slip between her inner thighs.

Xing Xing dipped her hand in the water and grasped Tang Xiao's dick. She started to jerk it slowly while enjoying their increasingly heated kiss. Their tongues danced and moved into each other's mouths, savoring the sweetness of each other's warm saliva.

'Ugh! Hubby's dick is getting hard!' Xing Xing screamed inwardly, which sparked her excitement and caused her to jerk Tang Xiao's dick faster, thereby accelerating his erection. 'His dick is too big, and I'm terrified of it.'

After thinking about it, Xing Xing pointed his dick at her pussy, but Tang Xiao immediately stopped her by turning her to face him, confusing her. "Don't need to rush, wife. I'll make you more comfortable first, and we'll do it once you're completely comfortable."

"Ahh!" Xing Xing released a loud moan and hugged Tang Xiao's head once his tongue started licking her neck, as her neck was one of the sensitive points. Unconsciously, she moved her lower body, making their genitals rub against each other, and her lust burned even more because of it. "Ahh! Hubby! I feel tickled by your licks, but I also feel a strange pleasure."

Tang Xiao grabbed Xing Xing's buttocks and lifted her slightly, and he started licking each side of her breasts while wetting them with saliva, but he didn't immediately stimulate her tiny cherries.

"Ahh! Hubby! Don't bite my breasts!" Instead, Tang Xiao continued to gently bite Xing Xing's breasts, leaving several red marks on both of them. He began to lick her tiny cherries in turn as he occasionally gently nibbled them, causing her to wriggle on his lap, and the water in the bathtub continued to splash out. "Mhnn... Hubby, you are making me even hornier."

As time passed, Xing Xing's expression grew increasingly lewd, and her entire body flushed red from her rising lust; however, Tang Xiao suddenly lifted her and placed her on the sink table.

Even though she felt embarrassed about it, Xing Xing lifted her legs onto the table while spreading them to the side, which allowed Tang Xiao to see her pussy surrounded by a neat forest.

"Your pussy is well maintained, and I like it so much, wife."

Tang Xiao then brought his face closer to Xing Xing's pussy, his tongue sticking out. As soon as his tongue brushed her, her body jolted with a twinge of pleasure, and she held his head while looking up at the ceiling.

"Ahh! Hubby! Something is going to come out of my body!" Instantly, Xing Xing's pussy gushed out her sexual fluid as she reached the first orgasm in her life, but Tang Xiao kept licking her pussy and sucking every bit of liquid she released. "Mhn... These feelings are truly awesome, hubby!"

Tang Xiao stood facing her and briefly kissed her. "Did you enjoy your orgasm, wife?"

"Hah... Hah... Yes... I've never been more comfortable in my life." Xing Xing got off the sink table and asked Tang Xiao to sit there so she didn't have to kneel on the floor to satisfy her. He immediately followed her request, but she felt confused and awkward about giving him a blowjob. "What should I do?"

"You can do whatever you want, but you don't have to do it if you don't want to."

"No." Xing Xing shook her head at Tang Xiao. "Big sis Yin told me that you enjoy it every time she gives you a blowjob, so I want to do it too, but I'm confused about how to do it."

Tang Xiao sighed softly before teaching Xing Xing how to give him a blowjob. "You must do it slowly and don't put my dick in your mouth all at once; otherwise, you'll choke, and don't use your teeth either."

Xing Xing nodded in understanding and gently held Tang Xiao's dick, but she didn't directly insert it into her mouth, and she started licking the shaft first while warming it with her saliva. Besides, she licked his testicles while occasionally sucking on them, causing him to softly moan at her actions.

As he enjoyed her service, Tang Xiao rubbed Xing Xing's head, but his mind drifted to the past. 'Sigh! I never had a lover before I was in prison, but I have two wives who love me so much now. Somehow, I feel guilty towards them because I'm not a faithful man, and I've slept with three other women.'

After a while, Xing Xing inserted Tang Xiao's dick into her mouth, but she suddenly heard Xiao Ai speak into her mind. She told her some things to satisfy him, and she tried to follow her words by releasing a bit of her lightning qi inside her mouth.

"Ugh!" Tang Xiao groaned as his body jerked in response, and he looked at Xing Xing in surprise. However, he enjoyed it because her action gave him a new sensation.

*Slurp... Slurp...****

Upon hearing Tang Xiao's moans, Xing Xing enthusiastically sucked his dick quite hard while continuing to increase her stimulation with her lightning.

'She couldn't have thought of doing this herself; it must be Yin'er or Xiao Ai who taught her.' Tang Xiao wondered inwardly as he closed his eyes to savor the pleasures that Xing Xing gave him.

[Haha! I taught Xing Xing to do it because I knew that you would definitely enjoy it, Master.]

'Well? I did enjoy it, but I almost reached my orgasm because she kept using her lightning.'

*Slurp... Slurp...****

'Dang! I can't take it anymore.' Tang Xiao immediately warned Xing Xing. "Wife, you brought me to my peak so fast, and I will orgasm soon, so you can stop if you don't want to swallow my cum."

Xing Xing refused Tang Xiao by shaking her head and speeding up her head movements, as she had been using his Yang Qi to cultivate since she became a cultivator. That's why she wanted to swallow it from its source, and her suction on his dick became stronger.

As his cum was on the verge of spurting out, Tang Xiao held her head and shot his hot loads into her mouth, but Xing Xing didn't immediately swallow it and savored the taste of his cum first. 'Drinking it from a bottle straight from the source feels different, so I'll be drinking it straight from the source from now on.'

After she swallowed it all, Xing Xing released Tang Xiao's dick from her mouth and wanted to clean her mouth with water, but Tang Xiao pulled her and cleansed her mouth with qi. "We are cultivators, remember? You can use qi to do such simple things."

"I've only been a cultivator for a few days, so I'm not used to such things yet." Xing Xing pouted as she spoke. "I'm not comfortable doing it here, so we should just clean ourselves up and go to bed."

Chapter 117: Second Wife****

On the bed, Xing Xing looked at Tang Xiao affectionately, but her heart was pounding fast as he lifted her legs, and his dick was right in front of her pussy.

"Wife, swallow the qi absorption pill and the blue xingyu pill I gave you before, and I will swallow mine." Xing Xing took the two pills before swallowing them, and Tang Xiao also swallowed his pills, which made the qi in their bodies increase rapidly. "Are you ready?"

Xing Xing nodded slightly. "I'm ready, but you have to use your light qi on me first, or I will fall unconscious from the terrible pain."

Tang Xiao knew that not all women could endure such pain, so he channeled his light qi into Xing Xing's body and began to penetrate her once she was relaxed. "Do you feel pain?"

"No." Xing Xing crumpled the bedsheet beside her, and her lower body moved up and down slightly as Tang Xiao's dick began to penetrate her pussy. "Mhn... I don't feel any pain, but I can feel your dick penetrating my pussy, which makes me feel a bit strange."

"It's okay; you'll get used to it soon." Tang Xiao suddenly had another idea and executed it right away.

"Ahh!" Xing Xing moaned loudly as a strong pleasure swept through her body, and her sexual fluid started to flow out again. "What did you do to me just now?"

"Hehe." Tang Xiao chuckled and explained it. "I used the pleasure touch on you just now, so you'll feel more comfortable if my dick is wet."

Xing Xing nodded in understanding and let Tang Xiao do whatever he wanted, and she experienced a pleasurable sensation as his dick moved deeper into her pussy. "Mhn... Hubby, your dick has started to enter me, and I like this pleasure."

"You'll feel more sensation once it's all in." Tang Xiao then leaned forward and kissed Xing Xing, who immediately kissed him back with great affection and hugged him tighter, as she enjoyed the pleasure that increasingly filled her body.

"Mhn..." Gradually, Tang Xiao's dick moved deeper, and Xing Xing squirmed continuously under her husband. 'Mhn... Big Sis Yin is right; this pleasure is truly great, but I'm approaching my orgasm again. His dick is too big, and it keeps rubbing my inside intensely.'

Realizing this, Tang Xiao stopped thrusting and allowed his wife to experience her second orgasm, while Xing Xing convulsed repeatedly as she reached her climax. 'Her pussy is too sensitive, and she'll probably orgasm several times if I go too slow.'

Xing Xing suddenly separated their lips and turned her face to the side in embarrassment. "Sorry, I—"

"There's nothing to be sorry about." Tang Xiao interrupted Xing Xing and shifted her face to face him. "Every woman has different sensitivities, and your body is too sensitive, but I didn't think about that at all. Instead, I like the sensitivity of your body, so you don't need to feel this way, okay?"

Upon hearing that, Xing Xing sighed with relief because she didn't want Tang Xiao to be disappointed in her; however, she then asked him a question. "Can I be on top?"

"Sure." Tang Xiao lowered her legs from his shoulders and reversed their positions carefully, and Xing Xing straddled him with his dick in her pussy. "What are you thinking about?"

"What if I just drop my body directly?" Xing Xing's question surprised Tang Xiao. "Otherwise, I'll orgasm again if you do it slowly, so I think that's the best option."

Tang Xiao himself realized that. "I don't know if you will be in pain if you do that, but you can try it if you like. I will continue to flow my light qi into your body, so the pain will subside quickly."

"Yes." Xing Xing lifted both of Tang Xiao's hands and placed them on her breasts. "Use it now, and I'll do it right away."

Tang Xiao unhesitatingly complied with Xing Xing's request, and he channeled his light qi into her body again while both hands stimulated her breasts.

Xing Xing inhaled and exhaled several times to prepare herself, and she dropped her body once she felt fully ready, causing Tang Xiao's dick to enter and tear her hymen directly.

"Ahh! It still hurts so much!" As she screamed in pain, Xing Xing collapsed on top of Tang Xiao's body and hugged him tightly, but tears immediately flowed out of his eyes. "Sob... Sob... I didn't expect it to still hurt, but I'm happy because we're one now. I'm your wife now, so you can't forget me, okay?"

"Why do you say that?" Tang Xiao used his light qi to rub Xing Xing's back, aiming to relieve her pain more quickly. "You are my wife; I will never forget you for the rest of my life, and we will be together forever."

"En." Xing Xing wiped her tears and kissed Tang Xiao. She began to move her lower body, causing the pain to subside faster and replacing it with pleasure. Moreover, the yang and yin qi in their bodies were constantly increasing, so they didn't have much time to rest, or they would explode. "Mhn..." 'I like his dick so much, and the thrust of his dick gives me incredible pleasure; even my inner body is completely full of his dick.'

*Pah... Pah... Pah...****

Not only was she experiencing immense pleasure, but Tang Xiao was also experiencing it. He grabbed her buttocks and squeezed them a bit hard. 'Ugh! Her pussy was clamped too hard on my dick! I'm going to orgasm again soon.'

After absorbing Xing Xing's virgin qi, which the blue xingyu pill had enhanced, Tang Xiao began to feel changes in his body and sensed that he would soon break through to the Xiantian level. Moreover, the amount of qi he needed to break through to the next stage was slightly lacking after he absorbed Xie Ao's cultivation two days ago, and he purposely did that so he could break through normally.

[Master, I will monitor your condition, so you don't need to think about it, and you can enjoy your time with Xing Xing. Breaking through to the Xiantian level is divided into two stages. First, your breakthrough will increase your body strength, and the process is quite painful, but you've been through more painful ones, so I don't think it's a big deal for you. Second, you have to form your cultivation core after that, and you have to do it yourself, but I will guide you to do it, so you won't fail.]

Tang Xiao still vividly remembered the intense pain he experienced when Xiao Ai awakened his two physiques, and he has never felt a pain more severe than that. Even when Bai Huang shot him and caused him to fall into the ravine, the pain paled in comparison. 'I'll leave it to you, Xiao Ai. Tell me when I have to form my core cultivation.'

[Yes, Master.]

Xing Xing was surprised when Tang Xiao suddenly laid her on her side and lifted her right leg upwards, but she didn't have an opportunity to protest to him since he pounded her pussy directly. "Ahh... Hubby! Not so fast! I'll orgasm again if you do it this fast!"

"It's okay; I'm almost reaching my orgasm too, so we'll orgasm together."

"Ahh..." Xing Xing moaned louder and louder because of it. "Mhn... Faster, hubby! Ahh... I'm almost at my end!"

*Pah... Pah... Pah...****

Upon hearing that, Tang Xiao responded to his wife by intensifying his thrust into Xing Xing's pussy, causing it to penetrate deeply.

"Ahh... I'm orgasming again, hubby!"

"Me too, wife."

"Ahh! Release it and mark my body with your cum."

"Sure!" Tang Xiao thrust his dick as deep as possible before spurting his hot cum into Xing Xing's womb, and her sexual fluid soaked his dick at the same time as their bodies writhed.

"Ugh! Your cum is too much, and my stomach feels warm from it."

"Do you want to continue? Or, do you want to rest first?"

"No need to rest." Xing Xing shook her head at Tang Xiao. "I do feel tired after orgasming three times, but I still want to have sex with you."

However, Xing Xing became embarrassed when Tang Xiao made her crawl on all fours, and she buried her face in the pillow. Even so, she felt a more intense sensation than before when he fucked her in the doggy-style position, as his dick reached her deepest part.

Tang Yin and the others were gathering in the dining area while chatting about light matters. However, Mu Yan wore a sour face because she couldn't find Tang Xiao, and her face became even more sour after she learned that he was on her honeymoon with Xing Xing.

Seeing Mu Yan like that, Mu Qingge sighed helplessly and rubbed her daughter's head. "Yan'er, I understand your wishes regarding my relationship with Tang Xiao, but our relationship still has no foundation. Therefore, you don't need to continue acting like this, okay?"

Mu Yan didn't say anything to her mother, and she hurriedly left them, making Mu Qingge feel even more strange about her attitude, as she still couldn't understand the reason behind her closeness to Tang Xiao.

Not only Mu Qingge felt that way, but Tang Huang and the others also felt that Mu Yan's attitude was really strange, especially since she had just met Tang Xiao two days ago.

"Sister Qingge, let me talk to Yan'er." Tang Yin immediately went after Mu Yan.

Chapter 118: The Reason

Tang Yuan then spoke to Mu Qingge. "I'm still surprised to hear that you decided to accept Xiao'er, Sister Qingge. However, I will be thrilled if you become his wife, and our two clans will be one in the future."

"You can see for yourself Yan'er's attitude regarding Tang Xiao, right?" Tang Yuan nodded at Mu Qingge. "I don't understand how she suddenly got that close to him, but she has never asked me to get married before, so I decided to accept him for her sake. Even so, our relationship is still at its starting point, and we still need time to build it."

"That's true." Tang Yuan then told Mu Qingge. "You must keep your relationship with Xiao'er secret, or your admirers on Earth II will hunt him down if they hear about it, especially that idiot from the Cao Clan."

"You don't need to worry about Cao Song; I believe he won't dare to leave his clan for a long time." Tang Yuan raised her eyebrows upon hearing that, and Mu Qingge smiled slightly before telling her. "Some time ago, he came to our clan to propose to me. He was furious because I rejected him, and he wanted to force me, so I froze his dick before breaking it into pieces."

After hearing that, Tang Yuan and the three seniors turned to Mu Qingge with wide eyes. "Did you really do that to Cao Song? Why did you never tell me about this matter?"

"Father, it's just a small matter, so I don't think it's necessary to tell you about it." Mu Lin wanted to say something to her, but Mu Qingge continued straight away. "Moreover, I was with Sister Zhang Xingcai at the time. She contacted Cao Teng and threatened him to sever relations with their clan, so they wouldn't dare to do anything to me, or they would suffer themselves."

"Hahaha!" Tang Huang laughed out loud. "Hey, Old Lin! Cao Teng wouldn't dare go against Old Sun, so you don't need to think about that matter. However, I'm glad to hear that idiot has become an effeminate man, so he won't be able to harm other women anymore."

"I agree." Tantai Lingyan nodded. "Cao Song has harmed many women in the past, but he ultimately suffered at the hands of Qingge. I will go straight to the Cao Clan if Cao Teng dares to attack the Mu Clan, especially since she is my disciple's future wife now."

"Can I talk to you, Yan'er?"

Mu Yan looked at Tang Yin and nodded to her. "What do you want to talk to me about, Big Sis?"

Tang Yin sat beside Mu Yan and took her hand. "Yan'er, I know that you want your mother to marry Xiao'er soon, and I hope for the same, but you should know that one's feelings cannot be forced. Aunt Qingge had a terrible past experience with your father, and the pain lingers in her heart even now, so she still needs time to accept him. At least she has given him a chance to enter her heart, so you just need to wait for their relationship to bloom, and they will become husband and wife in the near future."

"Sigh! You're right, Big Sis." Mu Yan then pulled Tang Yin to lie beside her and hugged her. "Honestly, I feel strange about my feelings for Big Brother myself, especially since I recently met him. However, there is something in my soul that makes me feel so close to him, making me impatient for him to be my father."

'Hmm?' Tang Yin raised her eyebrows because she felt the same feeling as Mu Yan, and it also came from deep within her soul.

Mu Yan looked up at Tang Yin and stroked her cheek. "In fact, I also feel the same way toward you, Big Sis. Somehow, I feel that I have known you for so long, even though obviously we met for the first time two days ago, so I feel confused about my feelings."

"I also feel that way about you, Yan'er." Mu Yan was surprised to hear Tang Yin's words. "I've thought about various possibilities, but I don't have an answer to that strange feeling. Perhaps we may find the answer soon, so you don't need to think too much about it, and the answer will come to us by itself."

"I know." Mu Yan then snuggled into Tang Yin's arms while closing her eyes and sniffing her scent, but a faint smile unconsciously appeared on her face.

After a while, Tang Yin heard soft snoring sounds, and she saw that Mu Yan had already fallen asleep. She caressed her hair while gently patting her back, just like her mother used to do for her when she was a child. 'Seeing her like this makes me want to have a child with Xiao'er, and I'm curious about what our child will look like. Unfortunately, we still have many things to deal with, and our cultivation is still too low, so I'll have to wait patiently for quite some time before asking him to impregnate me.'

Suddenly, Mu Yan muttered something very quietly. "I'm glad that you two are happy now, Yin'er and Xiao'er."

Tang Yin froze after she heard Mu Yan's muttering because she called them like that, and she tried to listen to her words more clearly.

"We know that you two have always loved each other since childhood, and your father repeatedly asked me to let you two love each other, but I could never accept such a relationship because you guys are siblings." Mu Yan muttered in a sad tone, which made Tang Yin completely shocked. "However, you two are husband and wife now, and mom is happy for you."

'Mom?' Tang Yin muttered in shock after she listened to Mu Yan's words just now. 'How is that possible? Our mother died 18 years ago, and Yan'er is 17 years old now.'

After she thought about it, Tang Yin carefully carried Mu Yan, and she took her to the laboratory as she contacted Xiao Ai to meet them there.

"What about her, Xiao Ai?" Tang Yin asked as she observed the monitor showing the course of Mu Yan's examination.

Xiao Ai stretched out her hand and pointed at the two different wavelengths on the screen. "Based on this data, there are indeed two souls within Mu Yan's body, Mistress. The first soul is her original soul, and the second soul is most likely the soul of your deceased mother."

Tang Yin looked at Xiao Ai in shock. "How could that happen? How could our mother's soul reside within her?"

"Actually, this is not strange, since the old master and I have encountered several people with double souls in the past, Mistress." Tang Yin raised an eyebrow at Xiao Ai, who immediately continued. "I don't know the exact details of how it happened, but he once mentioned that it was due to the burden on the deceased's heart. Perhaps she was worried about the two of you when she died, so she didn't enter the reincarnation circle, but her soul entered Mu Yan's body instead."

Tang Yin was dazed after listening to Xiao Ai's explanation, but she remembered the strange closeness she felt from Mu Yan, and her explanation made the most sense in answering her feelings. "No wonder we have a strange closeness to her; it turns out our mother's soul resides in her. Sigh. I have to discuss this matter with Xiao'er. By the way, can you separate their souls?"

Xiao Ai shook her head and explained it to Tang Yin. "Unfortunately, I can't do that because your mother's soul is too weak, and she has to rely on Mu Yan's soul strength, or else she will disappear forever because her time to enter the circle of reincarnation has long passed."

"Do you think my deceased mother's soul will affect Yan'er's character?" Tang Yin looked at Mu Yan.

"Yes." Xiao Ai nodded to Tang Yin. "Mu Yan feels close to you and my master because of your late mother's soul, which has been in her body for too long, and it has influenced her to some extent."

Tang Yin let out a soft sigh and picked up Mu Yan, taking her back to her room. Xiao Ai looked at them with a guilty look. "I'm sorry, Mistress. I made a promise to my old master, so I can't tell you the truth."

[Xiao Ai's memories]

Eighteen years ago, two people stood in the sky, their gazes fixed on the Tang House, but Old Tang Xiao's expression was filled with sadness and disappointment as he watched Zhao Jing stand on a chair and tie a rope to a large tree behind the house. He definitely realized her purpose in doing that, but he didn't seem to intend to move to stop her.

"Are you not going to stop her, Master?"

"No." Old Tang Xiao shook his head at Xiao Ai. "You may think that I am selfish, but her death will bring a big change to the young me, and he might become a different person in the future."

Xiao Ai remained silent as she watched Zhao Jing tie the rope around her neck. Shortly after, she jumped from the chair, which led to her death.

After witnessing Zhao Jing commit suicide, Old Tang Xiao sighed heavily. He brought the little girl down to her side, and Xiao Ai asked him a question. "What are you going to do to her, Master?"

Chapter 119: Two Women Meet Future Tang Xiao

"Hmm? Old Tang Xiao thought for a moment. "Even though I'm disappointed with her decision, she is still my mother, so I don't want her to suffer after her death."

"Are you thinking about doing that?"

"Yes." Old Tang Xiao's eyes turned completely white, allowing him to see things that others couldn't. Before long, he saw Zhao Jing's soul leave her body, but he immediately enveloped her with his aura. "For now, I have to find the right person to be a vessel for her soul, and my younger self might be able to do something for her in the future."

Old Tang Xiao then spread his senses across the country to choose the right person to house Zhao Jing's soul, and he immediately brought them to a residence after he found the right person for it. When he arrived there, he saw two people discussing something serious, so he didn't immediately move.

"Are you really not going to abort your pregnancy, Qingge?"

"Father, my child is innocent, and this is my fault because I was too naive. I trusted Jiang Sheng too much, so I wouldn't abort my pregnancy." Mu Qingge answered Mu Lin as she rubbed her stomach. "Even though I have to face other people's negative opinions about me, I will still give birth to my child, and I will protect my child from those people. If any of them dare to hurt my child's feelings, I will fight them all with all my might."

Mu Lin was not surprised by his daughter's decision, so he took Mu Qingge's hand. "Since you have made such a decision, I will fully support it, and I will help you raise my grandchild."

"Thank you, Father." After that, Mu Qingge walked straight to her room and lay down on her bed, but she suddenly felt so sleepy and fell asleep quickly.

Thereafter, Old Tang Xiao brought Xiao Ai and Zhao Jing's soul into the room, pressing his palm against Mu Qingge's stomach. "This little girl has a good mindset, but her fetus is too weak. It won't survive long, and she will be disappointed if it dies. However, it's not a big deal because I can save her fetus, and I will put my mother's soul into it."

Old Tang Xiao took out several pills and put them into Mu Qingge's mouth, and he used his qi to dissolve them before directing them into her fetus. Besides, he also used his celestial qi on her fetus, and he did that to strengthen it.

Once everything was complete, Old Tang Xiao guided Zhao Jing's soul into Mu Qingge's body, or more accurately, into her fetus. "You must promise me not to mention this matter to my younger self or my big sister, and you can assist them with something for her in the future."

"I promise, Master."

After she reminisced about the incident, Xiao Ai monitored Tang Xiao's condition, who was about to break through to the Xiantian level. "If he hadn't absorbed Xie Ao's cultivation before, my master wouldn't have reached this level now, but it would be great for him. This way, he can go to Earth II faster, and he can start his true journey as a cultivator. However, he's still inexperienced, and I lack data about that place, so I have to keep reminding him to always be careful."

Xiao Ai suddenly noticed something strange about Tang Xiao's body, and she was not sure that he would succeed in breaking through to that stage by himself, so she decided to go to see Mu Qingge.

Upon arrival, Xiao Ai explained Tang Xiao's situation to her, and Mu Qingge agreed without hesitation, so she sent her to the hotel where they were staying.

Xing Xing, who was watching Tang Xiao from the side, was surprised by the appearance of Mu Qingge. "Did Xiao Ai send you here, Aunt Qingge?"

"Yes, Xiao Ai sent me here to help him break through to the Xiantian level." Mu Qingge looked at Tang Xiao, but her cheeks flushed red when she saw his erect dick since she had not seen one for almost two decades.

Mu Qingge ignored the sight, and she sat cross-legged in front of Tang Xiao. She pressed her palms against his chest and slowly circulated her qi into his body .

Since she was still a novice and inexperienced cultivator, Xing Xing watched them silently, but there was a hint of jealousy in her eyes because Mu Qingge was much more mature and pretty than her.

An hour later, Tang Xiao's body turned completely red as he entered the next phase of his breakthrough, but Mu Qingge was surprised that he showed no expression of pain, especially since this phase is typically extremely painful for a cultivator. 'Xiao Ai must have done something to her body before, or else she wouldn't be this calm.'

"Is he close to completing his breakthrough, Aunt Qingge?" Xing Xing asked.

"Not yet." Mu Qingge responded by shaking her head. "He still has to go through one more phase after this, and the second phase is quite complicated because he has to form his cultivation core, which will cause him serious injury if he fails to do so. However, he has Xiao Ai by his side, and she must have given him some instructions, so I think he should be able to do it."

"I see." Even so, Xing Xing still couldn't calm down seeing Tang Xiao like that, but she didn't ask anything else and waited for him to finish.

After waiting for a while, Tang Xiao's body gradually returned to its normal state, causing the two women to exhale with relief. However, a red and white aura suddenly enveloped his body, and two blurry silhouettes emerged behind him.

One silhouette was of Tang Xiao, who was wearing red armor with various kinds of weapons behind his back; the silhouette came from his war god physique. As for his other silhouette, he was sitting in a white cloud, which came from his celestial physique.

'Where did these two silhouettes come from?' Mu Qingge inwardly muttered as she stared at them in awe.

Xing Xing also looked at the two with wide eyes, but she refrained from asking, as she didn't want Tang Xiao to fail.

Moreover, the two silhouettes emitted auras that contradicted each other. The war god Tang Xiao emitted an aura filled with extreme bloodlust and intense killing intent, while the celestial Tang Xiao emitted an aura filled with both sacredness and extraordinary calmness.

'What exactly are these two? Could it be that these two are his hidden strengths?' Mu Qingge observed Tang Xiao, who looked very focused. 'It seems he still hasn't realized his powers, and they appear unconsciously.'

However, the appearance of the third Tang Xiao surprised Mu Qingge and Xing Xing, as he resembled him but appeared much more mature.

'Oh? I didn't expect that he was accompanied by two women.' Old Tang Xiao spoke casually, but his expression was surprised. Then, he turned to the two silhouettes. 'A War God, Huh? So, is this what I was lacking back then?'

Both women were stunned to hear Old Tang Xiao speak, and Xing Xing questioned him. "Who are you? Why do you look so much like my husband?"

'Damn! I've never been married before, but he's married now!' Old Tang Xiao shouted, startling them. He looked at both women with a smile. 'By the way, I am him, and he is me.'

After hearing that, Mu Qingge raised her eyebrows, particularly considering that Tang Xiao was on the verge of breaking through to the Xiantian level. He should not have yet developed his cultivation soul, yet three souls came out of his body, and Old Tang Xiao's presence piqued her interest. "Can you tell me who you are?"

'Unfortunately, I can't tell you two anything, or the consequences would be dire.' Old Tang Xiao replied with a shake of his head.

Mu Qingge could only give up; it was obvious that Old Tang Xiao wouldn't say anything to them.

Xing Xing then told Old Tang Xiao. "I am his second wife, and Aunt Qingge is his future third wife."

'Second wife?' Old Tang Xiao looked at Xing Xing with a look of surprise. 'Who was his first wife?'

"Big Sis Yin."

"Tang Yin."

Old Tang Xiao was shocked to hear their answer, but he then smiled full of joy as he mumbled. 'That's good; he has managed to help Big Sis Yin, and they are even married now.'

Mu Qingge was getting more and more clueless about Old Tang Xiao, and she wanted to ask him something else, but the three Tang Xiao began to fade.

'My time is up; maybe we'll meet again some other time.' Old Tang Xiao said it with a smile before warning them. 'Don't say anything about me to him, or this universe will be destroyed, got it?'

Even though they didn't understand what Old Tang Xiao meant by that, both women still nodded at him. However, his existence left many questions in their minds, especially for Mu Qingge, who was much more experienced than Xing Xing.

Soon the three of them had disappeared, and Tang Xiao's breakthrough immediately entered the next stage, but Mu Qingge was shocked by the appearance of six colored qi around him. Red represents the fire element, green represents the wind element, purple represents the lightning element, pure white represents the light element, silvery white represents the metal element, and translucent represents the void element.

Chapter 120: Xiantian Realm

Tang Xiao's body experienced an increase in qi turbulence, prompting Mu Qingge to surround the room with her qi to protect others from the impact of his breakthrough.

'This is impossible! He has six elements.' Mu Qingge screamed with shock in her heart because a cultivator with two elements was very rare, but Tang Xiao had six elements. "Xing'er, does he really have six elements?"

"Yes." Xing Xing nodded to Mu Qingge. "He has fire, wind, lightning, light, metal, and void elements."

Mu Qingge became even more shocked after hearing about Tang Xiao's six elements, as metal was already considered a rare element; however, he possessed an even rarer element, the void element, which she was certain no cultivator on Earth II had ever awakened before. 'Unbelievable! I never dreamed I would meet a cultivator as terrifying as him! I'm sure that he will become a powerful cultivator in the future, and he may be able to surpass Long Yin and Wang Fuxi. However, he is still too weak right now, so he has to act carefully. Otherwise, they will hunt down and kill him before he develops, and we won't be able to protect him from them.'

Soon, the six qi transformed into six separate balls, but Mu Qingge was even more shocked when they merged into one and formed a colorful qi core.

'How is it possible for the six cores to merge into one? This is the first time I've seen a colorful qi core!' Mu Qingge suddenly noticed something unusual about Tang Xiao's qi core, and she used her senses to check it. 'How could there be another qi core in the main qi core? Moreover, it's blood red, but it strengthens his main core, and his main core looks so pure.'

After some time, Tang Xiao's qi core entered his body through his mouth, which indicated that he had successfully broken through to the low-rank Xiantian level.

Soon, Tang Xiao exhaled a breath of relief and opened his eyes, only to be stunned by the sight of Mu Qingge before him. Her beauty dazzled him, prompting him to pull her into his lap and kiss her.

Tang Xiao's actions brought the dazed Mu Qingge back to her senses, but she became awkward about their situation because his dick was right under her. She didn't reject his kiss and returned it instead, as they had kissed before.

Xing Xing pursed her lips after seeing that, but she had no intention of stopping them. Although she was jealous of Mu Qingge's beauty, she also hoped that she would become Tang Xiao's third wife soon.

Tang Xiao's sudden attempt to pin Mu Qingge down startled her, prompting her to stop him. "Please stop it; I'm not ready for this."

When he heard that, Tang Xiao stared at Mu Qingge for a moment before inwardly sighing, and he shifted from above her. "I'm sorry, I couldn't control myself in front of your beauty."

"It's okay." Mu Qingge shook her head in response. "Since you have successfully broken through, I will return to the ark again, and you can continue your honeymoon with Xing'er."

After Mu Qingge disappeared, Tang Xiao and Xing Xing continued their honeymoon, but time passed quickly, and another two days passed without them knowing.

During the two days, Tang Xiao took his second wife to various places in other cities, as Xing Xing had never traveled anywhere before due to Chu Lingxi's health, so he wanted to show her various interesting places according to her wishes.

They never missed the opportunity to dual-cultivate every night, and Xing Xing herself was always eager to do it with Tang Xiao, which helped her break through to the lower-rank foundation level. The difference in their cultivation was quite far, and they also used red and blue xingyu pills every time they did it.

As for Tang Yin, she busied herself with her new company, especially since Tang Xiao was still busy with Xing Xing. However, she did not forget to hone her fighting skills under the guidance of Tantai Lingyan and Tang Huang, and she also practiced using the gravity device.

Tang Yuan also entered the ark to train with them, as she couldn't possibly allow her nephew and niece to face their enemies by themselves, so she wanted to increase her strength again by training using the equipment inside the ark. For the past two days, she always sparred with Mu Qingge because their cultivation was equal, so they were the right opponents for each other.

As for Mu Yan, she locked herself in her room for two days straight because Mu Qingge told her that Tang Xiao had already broken through to the Xiantian level, which spurred her spirit to become stronger as she was afraid of falling further behind him.

Xiao Ai has helped the Mu mother and daughter to strengthen their bodies because Mu Qingge is Tang Xiao's future wife, and Mu Yan also has such a deep connection with her master and mistress.

Meanwhile, Mu Lin had already left the ark two days ago, and the two policewomen visited him to ask about the incident that occurred three days ago, but he only told them that it was Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan who killed the intruders. Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng also asked him about Tang Xiao, and he admitted that he was indeed still alive, but he insisted on not telling them about his whereabouts.

In addition, Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng closely monitored the movements of Bai Huang and Pei Yan, eager to stop Tang Xiao from killing the two men, but their efforts were futile as he was busy with Xing Xing.

"Why are you pouting?" Tang Xiao asked as he took Xing Xing along the road beside the river.

Xing Xing released a soft sigh and hugged Tang Xiao's arm in a spoiled manner. "We've been away for three days, but I still want to spend more time alone with you. Even so, I've been super happy these three days, and I enjoyed our time together."

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed softly when he heard that. "We are still young as well as cultivators now, so we still have a lot of time to spend together in the future, and I will often make time to be alone with you."

"Yeah." Xing Xing nodded and turned to Tang Xiao. "What are your plans next? You've already broken through to the Xiantian level now, so you should be ready to go to Earth II, right?"

"Yeah." Tang Xiao himself had been thinking about it for several days, and he was really eager to go to Earth II, and that place would be his first stepping stone to entering the real world of cultivation. "I can't wait to go there, but I won't be going anytime soon, and I will spend some time training with my master and grandfather first. Besides, I want to acclimate to a gravity that is three to four times heavier first. Once I am fully prepared, I will go to that place directly, as I will be relying solely on myself there."

"Alright, let's head back now, or my mother will become lonely due to my prolonged absence."

Tang Xiao took Xing Xing to a quiet place, and he took her back to their city using the void dragon steps several times. Although he could have asked Xiao Ai to send them there, he preferred to use his technique to familiarize himself with it.

When they arrived at the apartment, Chu Lingxi was already waiting for them in the living room. She kept glancing at her daughter with a teasing smile, causing Xing Xing to become embarrassed by her mother's behavior. "Mom, you don't need to look at me like that, and you don't need to think about whether I will get pregnant or not, as we are still not ready to have children."

Although she was disappointed with Tiu, Chu Lingxi could understand Tang Xiao's situation well, so she could only wait for him to solve his problems first.

Tang Xiao then spoke to Chu Lingxi. "Mother-in-law, I promised Yi An I would come back in a few days, so I have to go back to Ouyang House."

"All right, you can go back now." After Tang Xiao disappeared, Chu Lingxi pulled her daughter to sit beside her. "How was your honeymoon? Are you satisfied with Xiao'er's prowess in bed?"

Instantly, smoke came out of Xing Xing's head as her face turned as red as a ripe tomato. "I'm very satisfied, Mom. In fact, Tang Xiao is too strong in bed, and I'm overwhelmed to dual-cultivate with him. Fortunately, he has pills to increase my stamina, or else I would be exhausted because of him."

"Oh?" Chu Lingxi was stunned for a moment upon hearing that. "Come on, tell me everything."

Xing Xing sighed heavily, seeing Chu Lingxi's curious expression, but she still told her mother about their activities during their honeymoon, including their dual cultivating sessions.

Tang Xiao had arrived at Ouyang House, and he checked the entire house. To his surprise, he couldn't find Su Rou there, but he found that Ouyang Qing had returned home and was sleeping in her bed, and her illness had fully recovered, especially since the effect of the pill he gave her didn't last long.

Tang Xiao then eavesdropped on Yi An's conversation with someone over the phone, and the person she was talking to was Doctor Ling, who told her about Ouyang Ming's condition.
