Chapter 121: Next Action

Yi An, who was standing by the window, immediately noticed Tang Xiao's return. She hurriedly ended her conversation before sending him a message. She asked him to go to her bedroom, as she wanted to get his massage again after a few days.

Tang Xiao faintly smiled and hurriedly went to Yin An's bedroom, but she asked him to wait for her to change clothes first, as she was uncomfortable if he saw her in her nightgown.

Before long, Yi An asked Tang Xiao to come in, and he saw her already lying on her stomach in bed, anticipating his massage. "How was your honeymoon with Xing Xing?"

"Thanks to the absence you gave me, we were able to enjoy our honeymoon, madam." Tang Xiao then sat on the bed before starting to massage Yi An's feet.

Yi An was stunned as she looked back at Tang Xiao's face, which caused her heart to beat fast. Since his absence, she kept thinking about him and his massage, and she wanted to contact him several times to ask when he would return, but she always abandoned her intention.

When she was lost in her thoughts, Yi An suddenly felt a calming feeling flow through her body, as Tang Xiao injected his qi into her body and enveloped her with his celestial aura.

"Don't you have a meeting today, madam? Why are you still at home at this hour?" Tang Xiao asked.

"I was supposed to have a meeting with a business partner today, but he canceled the meeting due to urgent matters. Since I was exhausted, I decided to stay home." Yi An then buried her face into the pillow and inwardly sighed. 'Sigh! I don't understand why I behave this way toward him, and this feeling makes me feel like I've cheated on my husband. He is my chauffeur, and he's the same age as Qing'er, but I always feel more comfortable when he's by my side than when I'm with Ming'er or my husband.' "Where are you taking Xing Xing on your honeymoon?"

"We went to Harbin, Madam." Tang Xiao's answer surprised Yi An. "Xing Xing has long wanted to go to that city, but she didn't have the money because she had to pay for her mother's treatment. That's why I took her there for our honeymoon, as I wanted to give her the best memories."

"I see." Yi An nodded in understanding. "You care so much about Xing Xing, or else you wouldn't have taken her to her dream destination for your honeymoon."

Tang Xiao smiled at that. "Isn't that a husband's duty, madam? As her husband, if I can't understand her feelings and don't care for her, I don't deserve to be her husband."

"That's right." Yi An nodded at Tang Xiao. "I don't know Xing Xing or her mother personally, but I've heard about her from her former schoolmates. Many of them say she's a good girl, so you must cherish her and don't let her be sad."

'She is such a good woman, but she married the wrong man, and their children are as evil as their father. What would happen if she knew what they did to us? Ouyang Hong did all that to my parents, Ouyang Qing framed me, and Ouyang Ming wanted to violate Yin'er.' Tang Xiao then spoke to Yi An. "I will always cherish Xing Xing, madam."

"That's what you should do as her husband." Yi An closed her eyes as Tang Xiao began massaging her thighs, but her body squirmed every time he touched her sensitive spots, igniting her lust. She pressed her lips together to hold back her moans, as she would be embarrassed if he heard her. 'Should I stop him? If he keeps massaging me like that, I'll get aroused again, like when he massaged me a few days ago.'

In the end, Yi An let Tang Xiao continue massaging her, and her lust slowly burned higher. He didn't immediately touch her private parts because he was sure she wasn't fully aroused yet, and he started massaging her hips up to her head while stimulating all her sensitive spots, which made her more comfortable and further immersed in her arousal.

"Mhmm..." Yi An started to let out moans as she enjoyed Tang Xiao's massage, which slowly became stronger. "Mhmm..."

When he heard her moans, Tang Xiao unhooked Yi An's bra strap before massaging her buttocks, kneading them like kneading dough.

"Mhnn..." Yi An's legs started to rub against each other, as her shorts and panties were already soaked with her sexual fluids. She almost reached her orgasm, but Tang Xiao quickly stopped, causing her to fail to orgasm. "Mhnn..."

After some time, Tang Xiao turned Yi An onto her back and began massaging the front of her body, starting from her head.

"Mhnn..." Yi An opened her eyes and looked at Tang Xiao, but her gaze was clouded by her lust, and her breathing became irregular, followed by soft moans from her parted lips. "Mhnn..."

Tang Xiao pretended not to notice Yi An's gaze and massaged the side of her head while touching her sensitive ears. He then moved down to her neck and massaged it for a while before moving to her shoulders, causing her to squirt repeatedly.

Yi An was mentally stronger than Ouyang Qing, and she could hold herself back even though Tang Xiao's massages aroused her. However, her mental defenses were already unstable and shaky, and they collapsed when he massaged her chest area.

"Mhnn..." Yi An grabbed Tang Xiao's hands and placed them onto her breasts, giving him the signal to massage them. "Mhnn..."

Since her bra was no longer tied, Tang Xiao pushed Yi An's bra up and released her breasts from their cage, causing her hardened, thick nipples to stick out from under her t-shirt.

Yi An closed her eyes again and bit her lower lip as Tang Xiao gently kneaded her breasts, making her lust fill her body and mind even more. He faintly smiled and pinched her nipples, causing her body to arch upward. "Ahh... so good... so comfortable."

The sexual pleasure that continued to flow into her body caused Yi An's rationality to disappear, and she subconsciously allowed Tang Xiao to take off her t-shirt and bra, revealing her medium breasts.

Yi An suddenly grabbed Tang Xiao's head, pulled him closer, and kissed him. She directly gave him a deep and passionate kiss, and she inserted her tongue into his mouth, which he immediately licked and sucked.

"Mhmm..." Tang Xiao's hands kept playing with Yi An's breasts and nipples. He kneaded, squeezed, and pinched them in turn. "Mhmm..."

Yi An stretched out her right hand toward Tang Xiao's lower body, and she became excited when she discovered the bulge under his trousers. He shifted his position to sit further forward, allowing her hand to enter his trousers and caress his erect dick.

Tang Xiao first made sure that no one would disturb them, and he removed Yi An's shorts and panties, leaving her naked.

"Mhmm..." Yi An's body jerked as Tang Xiao's fingers stroked her wet pussy, but he didn't dare stimulate her clitoris directly, as she would orgasm if he did. "Mhmm..."

Yi An suddenly stopped their kiss and looked at Tang Xiao with a burning gaze, but she immediately sat on the bed and signaled him to stand.

Tang Xiao smiled and stood up, allowing Yi An to untie his belt. She lowered his trousers and boxers. Her heart raced at the sight of his erect dick, but she then lowered her head and licked it for a while. Once it was wet with her saliva, she devoured it before giving him a blowjob.

Tang Xiao pushed Yi An to lie down on the bed again, and he crawled above her in a 69 position, which allowed him to stimulate her pussy.

"Mhmm..." Yi An became even more aroused as Tang Xiao licked her pussy, and he stimulated it using his tongue, causing her sexual fluids to drip out. She bobbed her head up and down while intensifying her blowjob, making him moan above her. "Mhmm..."

A few minutes later, Tang Xiao noticed that Yi An was about to reach her orgasm, and he stimulated her pussy more intensely. She finally reached her orgasm as her body convulsed a few times, and he forcefully released his cum into her mouth, which she swallowed immediately.

After they finished orgasming, Tang Xiao shifted to the side, but Yi An had already fallen asleep due to exhaustion. He shook his head at the sight of her, but he quickly cleaned everything up, including the remnants of his cum in her mouth.

After he tied Yi An's clothes and covered her with a blanket, Tang Xiao left her bedroom and sneaked into Ouyang Qing's bedroom. However, he didn't do anything excessive with her, and he only used his qi and celestial aura on her. Additionally, he mixed his cum into her drinking bottle before returning to his room, and he entered the ark afterwards.

When he arrived at their bedroom, Tang Xiao found Tang Yin still sleeping naked. He hurriedly took off his clothes, crawled on top of her, and kissed her.

Without opening her eyes, Tang Yin hugged and kissed Tang Xiao back, and she wrapped her legs around his waist. He decided to use the pleasure touch on her, as he was already horny because of Yi An earlier, and he inserted his dick into her pussy after she was fully aroused.

Chapter 122: Revelation

After they finished having sex, Tang Yin lay on top of Tang Xiao with a satisfied smile. "Xiao'er, I want to discuss an important matter with you."

"What important matter do you want to discuss with me?" Tang Xiao was confused because Tang Yin was so serious.

Tang Yin looked up at Tang Xiao. "A few days ago, I slept with Yan'er, and she mumbled something. At first, I wasn't sure about all that, so I asked Xiao Ai to check her soul, and she found that there were two souls in her body. The one soul was her original soul, and the other is our mother's soul."

"What?" Tang Xiao exclaimed in shock. "Is it true that our mother's soul is in Yan'er's body?"

Tang Yin responded with a shake of her head. "Xiao Ai doesn't have a specific explanation about it, but she told me that she and her old master once met some cultivators who had dual souls."

"Can Xiao Ai separate their souls?" Tang Yin once again shook her head at Tang Xiao before explaining the risk if they separated their souls, causing his expression to become complicated. "Our mother's soul caused the closeness between me and Yan'er, something I didn't expect."

[Master, I can't do anything for your mother's soul for now, but you might be able to do something for her in the future.]

'What can I do for her, Xiao Ai? Didn't you say that her soul would disappear if you separated it from Yan'er's soul?' Tang Xiao asked in confusion.

[Well, that's true. However, that's because her soul is still too weak now, but it will get stronger as Mu Yan's soul power increases.]

'Hmm?' Tang Xiao raised an eyebrow. 'Does that mean I can separate their souls in the future? Wouldn't it be too late? If their souls stay together for too long, our mother's soul will increasingly influence Yan'er, potentially changing her character.'

[That is indeed a risk, and your mother's will continue to influence Mu Yan's character, but we can't do anything to prevent that from happening, Master. If you force their souls apart, your mother's soul will disappear forever because it's too late for her to be reincarnated, and you don't want that to happen, right?]

Xiao Ai's words brought Tang Xiao to a crossroads, and he was at a loss for a decision. He didn't want his mother's soul to influence Mu Yan, but he also didn't want his mother to vanish forever. 'What can I do for her?'

[Master, you don't need to think about that for now because it's still beyond your reach, and you only need to focus on your cultivation first. However, you can help her by finding a strong body that recently died, and I will help you transfer your mother's soul into that body. Although we can do that, she will live as someone else in the future.]

'Sigh, forget it; I'll think about this matter in the future.' Tang Xiao then spoke to Tang Yin. "I have to discuss Yan'er's matter with Qingge today."

"Yes." Tang Yin rolled off Tang Xiao's body before getting out of bed. "Let's go to see the others first, and I'll go to Tianmei after that. By the way, Fu Chen should arrive tonight, so we'll go see her later, but I can't say for sure when we can see her yet."

"Tell me after you get the news from Fu Chen." Tang Xiao quickly got dressed and left their bedroom.

"Big Brother!" Mu Yan shouted and ran toward Tang Xiao as soon as he and Tang Yin arrived at the dining area, and she immediately jumped up before hugging him like an octopus, causing Tang Huang and the others to laugh at her antics. "Ugh! You cheated, big brother! A few days ago, your cultivation was still at the peak-rank beginner level, but you've surpassed me with your cultivation at the low-rank Xiantian level now."

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed at Mu Yan's complaints. "Yan'er, my cultivation has improved quickly because I took a shortcut and am also a dual cultivator. Therefore, you are still better than me since you reached this stage through your own efforts."

"Still, I was annoyed. Thus, I have fully cultivated for the past few days, or my cultivation will lag behind you even more."

When he heard that, Tang Xiao smiled with satisfaction and rubbed Mu Yan's head. "I hope you can maintain this mindset and cultivate diligently, and you can also take advantage of all the facilities available in this place to practice, so you will become stronger than your peers."

"I know." Mu Yan then jumped down from Tang Xiao's arms. "I will definitely cultivate and train harder, and I will prove to you that I will not lose."

"That's the spirit!" They then sat down with the others, and Tang Xiao informed them of his plan to go to Earth II. Tian Huang and Tantai Lingyan frowned at that, but he immediately explained everything to them.

Tantai Lingyan nodded in understanding. "Alright, I will follow your plans, and we will train under the pressure of two times gravity, so you can be ready to go there in a month."

"No." Tang Xiao shook his head and showed the number four with his fingers. "Before I go there, I must first succeed in moving freely under the pressure of four times gravity."

"Four times?"

"Yes."

"Are you crazy, Xiao'er?" Tang Huang inquired with a frown. "Double gravity is already so heavy! Lingyan and I haven't managed to move freely under that pressure, but you want to train at four times gravity."

Tang Xiao shook his head at his grandfather. "Grandpa, I'm already used to double gravity, so I can't possibly continue training under such pressure, right?"

"Are you serious about that?" Tantai Lingyan asked.

Tang Xiao then stood up. "Since you guys don't believe me, we will go there right now, and I'll show it to you."

Before long, they had arrived at the training ground area, and Tang Xiao moved to the gravity device before turning it on. "Pay close attention, master and grandpa."

After he said that, Tang Xiao ran around the area at full speed, causing Tantai Lingyan and Tang Huang's jaws to drop. They even rubbed their eyes in disbelief.

Tang Yin smiled in amusement at their reactions, as they still didn't know the details of Tang Xiao's strength. They still don't know about his bloodline and the two physiques he possesses, which make him stronger than other cultivators.

Even though she didn't know the details yet, Mu Qingge already realized that Tang Xiao was destined to become a powerful cultivator, especially after she saw the two silhouettes and met Old Tang Xiao.

"Hahaha!" Mu Yan laughed out loud while speaking to Tang Huang. "Grandpa Huang! You underestimate Big Brother too much! Look at him; he can run so fast under the pressure of two times gravity!"

Tang Huang's lips twitched after hearing that, but Tang Yin suddenly told him something else, which shocked him and Tantai Lingyan even more. "Grandpa, Xiao'er's body is much stronger than all of us because he awakened two physiques, the celestial physique and the war god physique, and he also has the six elements."

Both of them turned to Tang Yin, displaying a mixture of disbelief and shock, while Tantai Lingyan questioned her with a shout. "Are you kidding us? How can he have six elements?"

"Yin'er is not joking, and Tang Xiao really has six elements." They immediately turned to Mu Qingge. "I witnessed his breakthrough three days ago, and he managed to form six cultivation cores, but they merged into one and formed a colorful cultivation core."

"A colorful cultivation core made from combining six elements?" Mu Qingge nodded to her, but Tantai Lingyan then turned to Tang Huang. "Have you ever heard anything like that before?"

"No." Tang Huang replied by shaking his head. "In my entire life, I've only met a few cultivators who had two elements, but I've never met anyone who had more than two elements. Long Yin has fire and lightning elements; Old Sun has wood and water elements, but their cultivation cores don't merge like Xiao'er's."

"I also know that each of them has two cultivation cores." Tantai Lingyan then asked them. "Which elements does Xiao'er have?"

"Fire, Wind, Lightning, Light, Metal, and Void."

Tang Yin's answer shocked Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan again, just like Mu Qingge three days ago.

"Xiao'er's is simply absurd! Not only does he have six elements, but one of them is an element that has never appeared on Earth II." Tantai Lingyan then spoke to Tang Huang with an expression full of seriousness. "Old Huang! We have to protect him with all our might, or those people will hunt him down to kill him, as his existence will threaten them, including Long Yin. However, the most dangerous among them is Xie Guai, and I'm sure he will try to take over his body."

"You're right." Tang Huang's expression was also serious after learning about his grandson's situation, and he was naturally aware of the danger that Tang Xiao would face if those people found out about him. 'Even though you were born without cultivator veins, you have produced such a monstrous offspring, and your son will surely be a great man in the future, Ye'er. Even if I have to sacrifice my life, I will ensure his safety, and I will kill anyone who has the intention to harm him.'

Chapter 123: New Techniques

Tang Xiao could naturally hear their conversation; he felt fortunate and grateful to have people who cared so much about him. He would rather not depend on them, and he wanted to become stronger so he could protect himself and them. 'Xiao Ai, are there other stones like sun stones in this universe?'

[There are many other stones that represent each element, and they can enhance each element, like the sun stone, Master. I don't know their exact number, but my old master and I have met three people who owned them in the past. The three of them were users of gale stone, representing the wind element; blizzard stone, representing the ice element; and quake stone, representing the earth element.]

'I see.' Tang Xiao nodded in understanding and thought about getting those stones to increase his strength, but he felt it was useless to think about it now, as it was still far beyond his reach. 'I've already broken through to the Xiantian level, so I think I'll learn new techniques now.'

[Master, your fire element is the most dominant now thanks to the sun stone, so I will transfer some fire techniques to you.]

"Oh?" Tang Xiao immediately read the techniques that appeared in his mind.

[Element Manipulation (Active): The user can manipulate their Qi into weapons, armor, and more. Qi consumption: low. Grade: Rare.]

[Fire Fist (Active): This fist technique not only strengthens the user's attack but also produces a powerful explosion as an aftereffect. Qi consumption: medium. Grade: Rare.]

[Fire Rain (Active): An AOE attack technique, the user can summon a rain of fire that can scorch a large area. Qi consumption: high. Grade: Epic.]

'Hmm, these three techniques are good enough for now, so I have a strong single attack and an AOE attack.' Although he still didn't know the power of the three techniques, Tang Xiao was satisfied with them. Currently, he only had one attack technique, but it wasn't powerful because his lightning element was still level one. 'I'll start learning the fire fist first.'

Tang Xiao read how to use the fire fist technique while thinking about it seriously, and he tried using it after he fully understood it. He released his fire qi directly, which immediately enveloped both of his hands. 'Xiao Ai, bring out some practice dummies; I want to try this technique.'

[Yes, Master]

From a distance, Tang Huang and the others raised their eyebrows as three practice dummies emerged from one side of the area and positioned themselves in front of Tang Xiao, leaving them curious about his intentions.

Tang Xiao smiled faintly and dashed towards one of the training dummies, and he punched it with all his might. Instantly, it was sent flying towards the back by his punch, but it exploded a second later due to the aftereffects of his fire fist technique.

Boom

Tang Huang and the others were stunned after they saw that, but the training dummy didn't appear to have suffered any damage, even though it looked charred from Tang Xiao's fire attacks as well as the explosive effects of the technique.

"Hmm? This thing is strong and durable, even though I punched it with all my might, but it didn't break at all." Tang Xiao said this in awe as he looked at the training dummy lying on the floor.

[That's for sure, Master! The practice dummies are strong and durable, as my old master used special materials to create them. They neutralized his attacks by 50%, or else they would have been destroyed by him.]

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding, closed his eyes, and learned the fire rain technique. After a few minutes, he opened his eyes and took a deep breath. "The fire rain technique is more complicated than the fire fist technique, but I have alternative methods to use it more easily."

Tang Xiao took a stance like an archer, and he straightened his left hand to the side, and his right hand was like pulling an arrow. Soon, a sizeable scarlet fire qi bow appeared in his left hand, and several fire qi arrows also appeared in his right hand.

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed softly and shot the arrows into the air, but they suddenly scattered around and turned into many small arrows. "Fire Rain!"

Quickly, those small fire arrows shot towards those practice dummies, and their attacks produced a powerful explosion, making the entire training ground tremble.

Boom... Boom... Boom...

"Ahh! Big Brother! You caused an earthquake in this place!" Mu Yan shouted from a distance as she hugged Mu Qingge, who was seriously watching Tang Xiao.

Not only her, but Tantai Lingyan and Tang Huang also looked serious watching him, and they felt that the effect of Tang Xiao's attack was quite powerful despite his cultivation still being at the Xiantian level.

'Whether old master or young master, they have extraordinary comprehension. He could think of combining the fire rain technique and the element manipulation technique so quickly; it's no wonder that people call him the training and battle maniac.' Xiao Ai muttered in awe.

Despite this, Tang Xiao was not satisfied with it because his speed of executing the three new techniques was still too slow, and he started practicing to master element manipulation more deeply first. This time, he not only used his fire element, but he also tried to manipulate his other five elements.

Unlike his fire element and the rest, Tang Xiao finds it difficult to manipulate his void element, but he certainly doesn't want to give up so easily, and he tries to repeat it again and again. Even though it was still not perfect, he was quite satisfied with the result, and he started practicing his fire fist for quite some time, but he combined it with his gale steps and martial arts that he had learned since childhood.

Sometime later, Tang Xiao had changed the Atropos glory into a scarlet bow, and he started practicing using the fire rain, which made explosions continue to sound in the ears of the audience. The entire area continued to shake violently, as his weapon provided much stronger explosive power than his qi bow.

Not stopping there, Tang Xiao also practiced using various weapons with all his elements, combining them with the element manipulation technique.

"Why do I feel like Xiao'er is cheating?" Tantai Lingyan asked with a bitter smile, knowing that Tang Xiao could use many types of weapons and possessed various elemental abilities. "No cultivator on Earth II can do what he's doing now, and I can't even imagine his future, as he's simply too amazing."

"Haha." Tang Yin nodded in agreement with a chuckle. "Xiao'er does have too many cheats, Big Sis Lingyan."

"The most remarkable thing about him is that he mastered all types of weapons, both short-range and long-range." Mu Qingge spoke as her eyes continued to follow Tang Xiao's movements. She was amazed to see him like that because she had never met another cultivator who could use various kinds of weapons besides Tantai Lingyan, but she was now witnessing the second person who could do so.

"Since childhood, Xiao'er has loved various weapons, Qingge. However, do not assume that he mastered them easily; he often trained with one weapon for days, weeks, and sometimes even months. Once he mastered one weapon, he switched to another, and he continued to do so for years." Tantai Lingyan said this with a proud smile, as she was the one who taught Tang Xiao everything, but he himself was the one who worked so hard to achieve everything. "Even though his body was exhausted, he still continued to train, and he pushed his body to the limit; sometimes he could train from morning until midnight. Apart from mastering various types of weapons, he also managed to master various types of martial arts."

'No wonder Old Master is always practicing diligently; he can even train for days without stopping.' Xiao Ai, who was beside them, silently muttered; she herself had witnessed Old Tang Xiao's tenacity in training.

Tang Huang shook his head while listening to them, but he also looked proud to see his grandson so serious in his training. "You have created a monster, Lingyan. Xiao'er will surpass us all, and I am sure that he will be able to defeat Long Yin in the future."

"Yes." Tantai Lingyan nodded in agreement with that. "I have the same confidence in him as you, Old Huang. However, his path is still long and steep, so I hope he won't lose his way before reaching his goal, or else his talents and advantages will be wasted."

After some time passed, Tang Xiao finally decided to end his practice, but he suddenly remembered something and asked Xiao Ai directly. 'Does your old master have something like a clone technique?'

[Clone Technique? Do you want to use your clone to dual-cultivate with my mistress and Xing Xing, Master?] Xiao Ai inquired inquisitively, particularly considering that a significant number of dual cultivators employ this technique.

Tang Xiao shook his head. 'I will never use my clones to dual-cultivate with my wives, but I will probably use them against my enemies. Most importantly, I want to be able to be in several places at once, allowing me to spy on the Ouyang family, cultivate, and practice martial arts at the same time.'

Xiao Ai could understand Tang Xiao's wishes since his nature was exactly the same as that of her old master, so she directly passed on the clone technique to him.

Chapter 124: Celestial Yin-Yang Body

Tang Xiao's eyes lit up after the technique appeared in his mind, and he hastily read it because he couldn't wait to master it, and his expression showed excitement when he read the description.

[Celestial Yin-Yang Body: It has ten levels, and each level can produce one clone. The clones share a mind with the original's body, allowing the user to see and hear everything that each clone experiences, making it impossible for any cultivator to distinguish between the original and the clones. The advantage is that all the Yin or Yang Qi the clone receives will be transferred to the original body after the technique is cancelled, including all the experience they gain. The downside is that the user will also be injured if the clones are wounded, and the user will be seriously harmed if the clone dies. Qi consumption: it depends on the number of clones. Grade: Unique]'

[If you didn't have a celestial bloodline and celestial physique, you would have to wait for your cultivation to reach the Tyrant Level, Master.]

'I know.' Tang Xiao closed his eyes and tried to digest all the information about the technique first, but he opened his eyes again not long after, and he immediately tried to learn it.

"I'll go back to the Mu House first to chat with Old Lin." Tang Huang said to the others.

The five women kept watching Tang Xiao, who looked so serious, but they didn't understand what he was doing.

"What exactly is he doing? Why does he keep standing with his eyes closed like that?" Tantai Lingyan wondered to herself.

"My master is learning a new technique, and you will find out soon, Aunt Lingyan."

Tantai Linyang's lips twitched when she heard Xiao Ai call her auntie, but she chose not to reprimand her since it would be pointless, given that Xiao Ai was an AI. "Sigh, Xiao'er is always like that; he is always interested in learning new things, and he will try to master them as quickly as possible."

"Are you willing to consider becoming his wife, Big Sis Lingyan?" Tang Yin suddenly asked Tantai Lingyan, causing her to raise her eyebrows. "Even though your relationship looks ordinary in the eyes of other people, we know that you both care and love each other, so I hope you are willing to consider it."

"Do you have such feelings for Tang Xiao?" Mu Qingge also asked Tantai Lingyan because she had known her for a long time, so she knew quite a lot about her, including her oath.

Mu Yan joined in. "Aunt Lingyan, I think Big Brother would be suitable to be your husband, as you two have spent time together for so many years."

Their words left Tantai Lingyan speechless, but she did not deny that she cared for and loved Tang Xiao. However, she only considered him as her son, and she decided to take him as her disciple for several reasons. First, his situation is similar to his own. Second, he reminded her of her late son, as he also had outstanding talent and passion for martial arts like him. "I do care for and love him, and I often naughtily tease him, but I never thought about having such a relationship with him. Moreover, you guys know about my oath, and I will never break my oath, so—"

The sudden appearance of another Tang Xiao diverted Tantai Lingyan's attention, and she immediately recognized the type of technique she was using. However, she couldn't tell which one was his real body since they were identical, including their cultivation."

"What kind of clone technique is that? I've seen clone techniques before, but I've never seen a clone technique as perfect as his." Tantai Lingyan dashed towards Tang Xiao, and the other women followed her, except Xiao Ai. "Hey Xiao'er! What technique did you use to make this clone?"

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed with satisfaction before explaining it to his master. "The name of the technique is the celestial Yin-Yang body, and it has ten levels. However, I can only master the early stages, so I can only make one clone, at least for now."

"Does this mean you can produce ten clones if you fully master the technique?" Mu Qingge asked in disbelief.

"Yes." Tang Xiao then explained to them the pros and cons of his technique.

Tantai Lingyan, Tang Yin, and Mu Qingge were in shock after listening to his explanation. Since he and his clones could cultivate separately, and the experience gained by his clones could be absorbed by the original body, thus increasing his cultivation rapidly. However, the drawbacks are quite scary, as his original body would sustain injuries if the clones were injured, and he would suffer serious injuries if the clone died, necessitating extreme caution when using his clones in combat.

As for Mu Yan, she looked amazed after hearing that, and she tugged Tang Xiao's sleeves. "Big brother, can you teach me that technique?"

"I'm sorry, Yan'er." Tang Xiao replied apologetically. "For now, you can't practice this technique, and you have to break through to the Tyrant level first. As for me, I'm different from all of you, so I can learn it, even though my cultivation is still far from the requirements. That's why you have to cultivate diligence to reach that stage, and I will teach you in the future."

Even though she was disappointed by that, Mu Yan still nodded to Tang Xiao. "In that case, I will return to my room now, and I will cultivate harder so I can reach that stage faster."

After she left, Tang Yin asked Tang Xiao with a serious look. "Are you planning to use your clones to dual-cultivate with me and Xing'er?"

Mu Qingge also looked at him seriously, especially since he had already decided to accept Tang Xiao. Although she didn't think about being his wife, Tantai Lingyan also had the same thoughts as the two women. For them, it was the same as doing dual cultivation with another man, and they didn't want that.

"Of course not! I will never use my clone to dual-cultivate with you guys. Even though he is my clone, I don't want him to touch you." Tang Xiao replied while retracting his clone, but then he gave an evil grin. "However, if those women are my enemies, then I won't hesitate to use my clones to torture them."

They breathed a sigh of relief after hearing that, and they were sure that Tang Xiao wouldn't lie to them, but they felt pity for the woman who had become his enemy.

Tang Xiao spoke to them again. "I still want to train, but I have to return to Ouyang House now; otherwise, I'll be in trouble if Yi An comes looking for me, so I'll be leaving now."

"I also have to go to Tianmei, so I'll pick up Yu Xiaoling now and take her there." Thereafter, Tang Yin left the training ground, and Tang Xiao returned to Ouyang House.

Tantai Lingyan then asked Mu Qingge. "Don't you want to be his wife soon, Qingge?"

"No." Mu Qingge shook her head. "We still have a lot of time in the future, so I don't want to rush into becoming his wife. Anyway, I'm going back to my room, Sister Lingyan."

After they left, Tantai Lingyan turned on the gravity device, and she trained alone to overcome twice the weight of gravity. After all, her disciple could already adapt perfectly to it, and she didn't want to lose to him.

When Tang Xiao returned to the Ouyang House, he found that Su Rou had already returned, but she was in her room. He checked on Ouyang Qing and Yi An, but both were still asleep. He ignored them and sat down on the bed. "Xiao Ai, where are Bai Huang and Pei Yan now?"

[Master, they're at Bai Huang's house, and both of them are upset because they didn't have a chance to mess around in Tianmei, which was thanks to Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng. By the way, tonight was the time for you to take care of those two men, but the two policewomen kept following them.]

"After I meet Fu Chen, I will go straight to that place, and I will deal with them tonight." Tang Xiao then closed his eyes and began to stabilize his cultivation, as it was still not completely stable after he broke through to the Xiantian Level a few days ago.

Sometime later, Ouyang Qing had woken up from her long sleep, but she felt something different in her body when she opened her eyes, which was the effect of Tang Xiao's qi. "It's been a long time since I slept this well, and I feel my body is much fresher than before."

However, Ouyang Qing felt her lower body feel sticky when she moved, so she lifted the blanket and found the bedsheet wet, making her face red with embarrassment. She rubbed her lower body and found a sticky liquid, and she observed it for a moment. "Ugh! I'm really crazy! I dreamed about Feng Xiao last night until I orgasmed in my sleep!"

Ouyang Qing got out of bed, walked to the side of the window, and looked towards Tang Xiao's room. "Is he back? He's just a chauffeur, but I feel comfortable being by his side, and I've never felt so comfortable in my life. Hmm? I have an appointment with Qinlin and others, so I'll ask him to drive me there."

Chapter 125: Driving Ouyang Qing

Yi An opened her eyes, but she quickly sat up in bed and examined herself. She was relieved to find herself fully clothed, as she thought Tang Xiao had done something to her while she was asleep.

Yi An tried to recall the time when Tang Xiao had massaged her before, but she couldn't remember kissing him or giving him a blowjob because she was too horny at the time.

Yi An was satisfied because her body was refreshed, and all her fatigue disappeared after Tang Xiao massaged her. "Sigh! his massage was too comfortable, and I fell asleep because of it."

Since she had no plans to go out, Yi An lay down on her bed again, but Tang Xiao's face kept popping out in her mind.

A sudden call startled Yi An, prompting her to take her smartphone before accepting the call. "I'm sorry, Wang Dong. I have to postpone our meeting again, as I'm exhausted after two days of long meetings."

[It's okay; you can rest first, and we will meet when you are refreshed. When will Ouyang Hong return to this country?]

"Yesterday, he said he would be back in ten days, and I will ask him to meet you directly after he returns."

[Tell him to see me straight away because the others keep asking about him, and they want to ask him about those weird incidents.]

"Alright." Yi An ended the call and threw her smartphone aside. She then got out of bed and walked to the window, looking at Tang Xiao's room.

A while later, Yi An sighed softly and went to the bathroom to clean herself, but her body heated up when she remembered Tang Xiao's touches that aroused her during the massage.

Yi An touched her breasts and pussy, causing her to tremble and moan. However, she felt no satisfaction from that, and her actions made her crave Tang Xiao's touch. She stopped her actions and hurriedly cleaned up, and she went to her study afterwards, checking everything related to her family's business.

Knock... Knock...

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao pretended to be surprised when he opened the door. "Do you need something from me, young miss?"

For a brief moment, Ouyang Qing was flustered after seeing Tang Xiao, especially after she smelled his scent, but she calmed herself down. "I have an appointment with my friend, so I need you to drive me there."

Tang Xiao smiled faintly as he noticed Ouyang Qing's expression, even though it was only for a moment. "I'll go get the car now."

As Tang Xiao walked away, Ouyang Qing followed behind him, and her gaze never left his back. 'Ugh! I wanted him to hug me and kiss me like before, but I couldn't possibly tell him directly! Furthermore, I'm afraid that Qinlin and the others will ridicule me if they witness him hugging me, and it will ruin my reputation.'

After he took the car, Tang Xiao drove Ouyang Qing to her meeting place, but he kept glancing at her through the rearview mirror while releasing his aura, giving her a sense of comfort.

'This feeling is back, and it's much stronger than before.' Ouyang Qing looked in the rearview mirror, but she hurriedly turned her head away after her eyes met Feng Xiao's. 'Ugh! I really want to be near him!' "Let's go to Yueri Cafe; Qinlin and the others are waiting for me there."

"Yes, young miss." Tang Xiao answered with a nod, but Ouyang Qing didn't notice the evil smile on his face.

Sometime later, they arrived at Yueri Cafe, and Luo Qinlin was already waiting out front. As soon as Tang Xiao parked the car, she immediately approached them, but her presence annoyed Ouyang Qing, who had just gotten out of the car.

Tang Xiao rolled down the passenger window when Luo Qinlin knocked on it. "Hey! Why haven't you contacted me? I've been waiting for you for several days, but you never contacted me."

"Miss Luo, I've been too busy driving Madam Yi around these past few days, so I haven't had time for personal matters." Ouyang Qing's lips curled upwards hearing Tang Xiao's excuse, and she was satisfied seeing Luo Qinlin's annoyed look. "I will wait for you here, young miss."

"Yes." Ouyang Qing grabbed Luo Qinlin's hand and dragged her away, as she didn't want a slut like her to get close to Tang Xiao.

While waiting for Ouyang Qing, Tang Xiao began cultivating again because he was eager to break through to the middle-rank Xiantian Level, and he also wanted to go to Earth-II soon.

An hour later, Ouyang Qing and her two female friends left Yueri Cafe, but Luo Qinlin immediately approached Tang Xiao again, irritating her. "That bitch!"

"Haha." Lin Yan softly laughed. "Luo Qinlin is always like that, right? She is easily tempted by handsome boys, and your mother's chauffeur is quite handsome, so you don't need to be surprised if she keeps trying to approach him. By the way, I'm going home now because my husband is waiting for me, and we're going to visit his parents."

"Okay." After Lin Yan left, Ouyang Qing hurriedly went to the car and chased Luo Qinlin away. "Go home now."

Luo Qinlin pursed her lips, but she did not refute Ouyang Qing, mainly because of her cold gaze. She immediately left the cafe area using a taxi, as she wasn't as wealthy as her or their other friends.

After she confirmed that Luo Qinlin had left, Ouyang Qing hurriedly got into the car. She didn't sit in the back seat; instead, she sat in the front passenger seat. "Let's go somewhere else."

"Where are we going, young miss?" Tang Xiao started the car immediately.

"Just go and let me think first." Tang Xiao immediately took Ouyang Qing away as he enveloped her with his celestial aura, causing her heartbeat to speed up.

Ouyang Qing was uneasy at the calm Tang Xiao gave her, but her face turned red when she remembered their kiss, even more so when she remembered their intimate activities a few days ago.

Ouyang Qing kept glancing at Tang Xiao, making him laugh inwardly. "Why do you keep glancing at me like that, young miss? Are you angry because Miss Luo approached me earlier?"

"Why should I be angry about that?" Ouyang Qing responded with a frown. "Even though Qinlin is my friend, I don't like her because she's just a slut who likes changing partners, and she must have seduced you to sleep with her, right?"

Tang Xiao was surprised to hear Ouyang Qing talk so much because he was well aware of her arrogance. "She did seduce me to sleep with her."

"Are you going to accept her offer?" Ouyang Qing asked while narrowing her eyes. "My mother said that you married Xing Xing a few days ago, and the two of you spent a few days on your honeymoon."

Tang Xiao turned to Ouyang Qing with a smile. "Do you believe that my wife doesn't mind if I have another woman?"

"Huh?" Ouyang Qing was shocked to hear that. "Are you serious about that? Does Xing Xing really not mind if you have another woman?"

Tang Xiao shook his head slightly. "In fact, Xing Xing supports me in looking for another woman."

"Xing Xing is weird, you know?" Ouyang Qing expressed this while shaking her head. "If I were in her shoes, I would divorce you straight away, and I would also report you to the police for adultery."

Tang Xiao inwardly sneered after hearing that. "Young miss, our village is different from this city, and the people there still live like people in the kingdom era, so polygamy is a normal thing there; even many of them live together without marriage."

Ouyang Qing did not deny that, as she was aware that people like them still existed in their country, even though their country was already modern and advanced.

Tang Xiao looked at Ouyang Qing again when she grabbed his right hand, but she hurriedly explained to him. "Don't get me wrong, I have no interest in a chauffeur like you, let alone the fact that you're an unfaithful man. However, I somehow feel comfortable when you are by my side, and I want to feel that comfortable feeling again."

Tang Xiao didn't intend to comment on her words, and he channeled his qi into Ouyang Qing's body, which made her feel more comfortable and held his hand tighter.

While enjoying the comfort, Ouyang Qing felt electrified by pleasure after Tang Xiao used a low-level pleasure touch on her, causing her chest to heave up and down as the pleasure coursed through her body.

Ouyang Qing did not suspect Tang Xiao, as she did not see him doing anything, and she took the initiative to hold his hand herself. Furthermore, she was just an ordinary woman, and she couldn't sense her qi, even though she could feel its effects.

"Mhnn..." Ouyang Qing closed her eyes and enjoyed it. Her mouth repeatedly opened and closed while moaning softly, and her legs started rubbing against each other. 'What happened to me? These feelings resemble those I experienced in the hospital a few days ago, which led me to allow him to kiss and touch my body.' "Mhnn..."

Tang Xiao smirked at that. "Are you not feeling well, young miss?"

"Mhnn... No... Mhnn... I'm fine." Ouyang Qing's eyes kept opening and closing, her mouth released continuous moans, and her body writhed on the passenger seat. "Mhnn... Let's go home..."

Chapter 126: Sparring With His Master

Tang Xiao's hands moved to Ouyang Qing's breasts and squeezed them from outside her shirt, causing her to moan even louder. "Ahh... Feng Xiao... Ahh... You need to focus on the road, or we'll crash."

"Don't worry, young miss. My eyes are focused ahead, and I'll help you feel more comfortable like a few days ago." Tang Xiao lifted Ouyang Qing's shirt before lifting her bra, freeing her breasts from their cage. He started squeezing them again, and his fingers occasionally brushed her tiny cherries.

"Ahh..." While squeezing both sides of her seat, Ouyang Qing jerked in response to the pleasure, and she kept squirming as Tang Xiao squeezed her breasts harder. "Ahh... Feng Xiao... Ahh... I like this sensation so much."

"Ahh..." As her lust increased, Ouyang Qing opened her mini jeans, and she pushed Tang Xiao's hand towards her lower body. She inserted his hand into it, signaling that he could touch her there. "Ahh..."

Tang Xiao began rubbing her pussy, which was already drenched in her sexual fluids. As she enjoyed his rubbing, Ouyang Qing squeezed her breasts while occasionally pinching her nipples, drowning her deeper in sexual pleasure.

"Ahh... it feels so good... Ahh..." Ouyang Qing's legs squeezed together, clamping Tang Xiao's hand between her inner thighs. He inserted his fingers into her pussy, causing her to grimace a moment before moaning loudly. "Ahh... your fingers inside me, Feng Xiao."

"Hyann..." Ouyang Qing released a louder moan as her body arched forward, especially when Tang Xiao stroked her clitoris, making her sexual fluid gush out. "Ahh... No... I'm cumming."

Ouyang Qing's body convulsed violently as she reached her orgasm, and her pussy sucked Tang Xiao's fingers in deeper, but she clamped it tighter.

Tang Xiao stopped stimulating Ouyang Qing's pussy and pulled his hand out, but he inserted his wet fingers into her mouth.

Tang Xiao's actions momentarily startled Ouyang Qing, but she held his hand and sucked his fingers, licking her sexual fluids clean.

After that, Ouyang Qing slumped on the passenger seat and breathed heavily. She closed her eyes while wondering in her heart about what happened just now. 'I can't go on like this, or I won't be able to get away from him due to my addiction to this feeling.'

"Did you enjoy your orgasm, young miss?" Ouyang Qing chose to keep her mouth shut because she was embarrassed to answer Tang Xiao. "Xing Xing told me that she was always comfortable every time she reached her orgasm, and she orgasmed several times in one sex session."

Ouyang Qing opened her eyes, tilted her head to the side, and looked at Tang Xiao in disbelief. "How many times did Xing Xing orgasm when the two of you had sex?"

"I don't know." Tang Xiao shook his head in response. "Perhaps four to five times per session, and we had sex several times a day on our honeymoon."

"Huh?" Ouyang Qing was shocked to hear this, as she was already exhausted from a single orgasm, but Tang Xiao said that Xing Xing could orgasm four to five times in one session. "Are you lying to me? How could she possibly orgasm that many times?"

"Is there any benefit for me to lie to you, young miss?" Ouyang Qing did not answer Tang Xiao, but her gaze clearly showed that she did not believe him. "Xing Xing's body is strong, and her stamina is also high, so we can do it several times a day."

Tang Xiao didn't lie to her, but Ouyang Qing didn't know that Xing Xing was a cultivator yet, and Xiao Ai had already strengthened her body.

Since he was familiar with Ouyang Qing's arrogant and conceited character, Tang Xiao deliberately said all of that to her, and he was sure she would take his words to heart.

Ouyang Qing returned her gaze to the front, straightened her clothes and mini jeans, and closed her eyes again while thinking about Tang Xiao's words regarding Xing Xing, which made her feel jealous. 'Tch! I can't believe that poor woman can be that strong!'

After some time, they arrived at the Ouyang House, but Ouyang Qing felt weak in her legs. "Carry me to my bedroom."

"Yes, young miss."

Tang Xiao immediately followed Ouyang Qing's orders and carried her to her bedroom, but he once again used the pleasure touch on her, and she hugged his neck tightly as soon as the pleasure filled her body again. 'Ugh! Could this happen because of him? I had an orgasm not long ago, but this pleasure suddenly came back again, and it was stronger than before! At this rate, I won't be able to hold myself back anymore, and I'll reach my orgasm in his arms before we get to my room!'

As Tang Xiao expected, Ouyang Qing writhed vigorously upon reaching her second orgasm on the way to her room. Her face became completely red from extreme embarrassment, but she was slightly relieved because he pretended not to know and didn't say anything to her.

Su Rou suddenly crossed in front of them, and she was a little surprised to see Ouyang Qing in Tang Xiao's arms. She noticed her red face before glancing at her lower body, and her lips curled up when she found her mini jeans wet. 'Hahaha! They must have done something earlier, and her shorts are wet from her orgasm.'

Ouyang Qing glared at her, but Su Rou responded with a playful smile, irritating her. 'Tch! This slut must think badly of me!'

After they arrived in Ouyang Qing's room, Tang Xiao laid her on the bed, and he briefly kissed her lips, stunning her. "Get some rest, young miss."

After that, Tang Xiao left Ouyang Qing's room, which made her breathe a sigh of relief because she was afraid that he would take advantage of her.

Ouyang Qing covered her face with a pillow, and a satisfied smile spread across her face, but she quickly fell asleep due to exhaustion.

As he left Ouyang Qing's room, Tang Xiao ran into Yi An, who was about to return to her room. "Why are you in Qing'er's room? Did something happen to her?"

"Madam, the young miss was tired after playing with her friends, and she asked me to take her back to her room." Hearing that from Tang Xiao, Yi An opened Ouyang Qing's room and found her daughter already sleeping soundly on her bed, which relieved her. "Madam, I will return to my room now."

"Wait." Yi An grabbed Tang Xiao's hand, surprising him a bit. However, she immediately let go and spoke to him. "Your massage always makes me fresh every time I wake up in the morning, and I have several meetings tomorrow, so I want you to go to my room to massage me again tonight."

"Yes, madam. I will massage you again tonight." Tang Xiao immediately walked away while laughing in his heart.

Yi An stood there staring at Tang Xiao's back, confused by her own attitude. She wanted to stop receiving his massage, but instead she asked him to do it again, making her feel weird about herself.

Yi An sighed softly before walking to her room, but she didn't realize that Su Rou had been eavesdropping on them from a distance, convincing her that she had a hidden relationship with Tang Xiao. 'Haha! If the two of them really had that kind of relationship, it would be to my advantage, and I could enjoy Ouyang Hong's wealth without her interference.'

Since Yi An wasn't going anywhere, he just needed to wait until nightfall to settle some matters. After he arrived in his room, Tang Xiao immediately summoned his clone before entering the ark, leaving his clone to cultivate in the room.

Clang... Clang...

After he informed Mu Qingge about the souls of Mu Yan and Zhao Jing, Tang Xiao was fighting fiercely with his master on the training ground. Their swords kept clashing with each other, but neither of them used their cultivation.

On the side, Mu Qingge sat alone, her eyes following the movements of the two. She could see that Tang Xiao's speed had surpassed his master's, thanks to his adaptation to the pressure of two times gravity, while his attacks consistently pushed Tantai Lingyan back. 'If he can adapt to much heavier gravity, he will surpass the speed of all the cultivators on Earth II, and the other wind cultivators will never be able to catch him, as he also has the wind element.'

Tap... Tap...

Mu Qingge turned toward the sound of footsteps and saw her daughter walking in. She waved at Mu Yan and asked her to sit beside her. "Oh? Are you close to breaking through to the Xiantian level?"

"Yes." Mu Yan answered while looking at Tang Xiao. "The qi absorption pill that big brother gave me before is potent, and I have almost touched the barrier to the Xiantian level. Unfortunately, I can only take the pill once every three days, so I have to wait a few days to break through."

Mu Qingge was truly happy to see her current daughter, as she became so persistent in cultivating after Tang Xiao repeatedly advised her. "If you can maintain your enthusiasm like this, your friends on Earth II will be surprised to see your progress."

"I know." Mu Yan put on a serious face. "I don't care about my friends' opinions, and I just don't want to fall behind big brother and big sister, so I will continue to cultivate hard."

Chapter 127: Feng Shen 1st Mentioned

Mu Yan's words made Mu Qingge think in her heart. 'Could it be that Yan'er became like this because of the influence of Zhao Jing's soul? I feel uncomfortable about it, but I can't force Xiao Ai to separate their souls, or else Tang Xiao and Tang Yin will be sad if their mother's soul disappears forever.'

"Mom." Mu Yan called out softly while looking at Mu Qingge. "I want to train using that gravity device too; I want to protect myself if there are bad people who want to catch me like before."

Mu Qingge was taken aback for a moment. "You can try it if you like, but you shouldn't force yourself because two times gravity is heavy."

"I know, Mom."

Sometime later, they had stopped fighting, but Tang Xiao was not satisfied with his training. He asked Tantai Lingyan to move aside before turning the gravity device to level two, which caused him to fall to the floor.

"Big brother!" Mu Yan frantically shouted, but she didn't dare go over to approach Tang Xiao. "Will he be okay, Mom?"

Mu Qingge nodded slightly. "Don't worry, Xiao Ai will help him if he can't handle it."

"That kid is insane." Tantai Lingyan sat beside the two women. "With his madness for training like that, I'm sure that he will surpass me soon, and I won't be able to fight him again."

Mu Qingge nodded in agreement. "Even though Tang Xiao's speed is fast now, there are still many cultivators on Earth-II who can move faster than him, especially the wind god, Feng Shen."

"Feng Shen's speed is indeed impressive! Even though his cultivation is several levels above his, Long Yin cannot follow his movements, let alone touch him. Thus, he is indeed worthy of the nickname 'wind god'." Tantai Lingyan then asked Mu Qingge's opinion. "What do you think if I take Xiao'er to meet him? He has the wind element, and he would probably be willing to accept him as his disciple if he knew his talent."

Mu Qingge thought for some time. "Feng Shen is indeed the right person to teach Tang Xiao about the wind element, and he will probably be able to move as fast as him in a short time if he learns from him. However, he is a lone wanderer, and he doesn't like hanging out with other cultivators. Even people from the Feng Clan have a challenging time looking for him, so you will have difficulty finding him."

"Yeah, you're right." However, Tantai Lingyan suddenly remembered someone. "Hey, Feng Yao is Tang Yuan's close friend, and Feng Shen cares about her a lot, so we can ask her to contact him. If she asks him to accept Xiao'er as his disciple, I'm sure he will fulfill her request."

"In that case, you should go to Feng Yao, and it would be of great benefit to Tang Xiao if he had a master who could help him master his elements." Tantai Lingyan wanted to leave, but Mu Qingge suddenly grabbed her hand. "How about you also go to see Guang Xian? He is a great healer, so I think he can learn from him about the light element. He can't possibly depend on Xiao Ai and all the technology in this place forever, and he must learn to master all his elements."

"Guang Xian, huh?" Tantai Lingyan muttered softly, but she immediately rejected Mu Qingge's idea. "Xiao'er can only use one clone for now, and he wants to use it to destroy those families, so he can't possibly learn from him and Feng Shen at the same time. Moreover, one of them will realize that it is his clone, and it might be detrimental to him."

Mu Qingge nodded in understanding after listening to her explanation. "Alright then, it will be better if Tang Xiao learns from Feng Shen first, and it will be useful for him when he goes to Earth-II later."

"Oh?" Feng Yao was surprised when Tantai Lingyan suddenly appeared in her office. "Are you looking for Yuan? She's in court now, but she'll probably be back soon."

"I didn't come here to see her, but I came specifically to see you." Feng Yao was even more surprised to hear that, and Tantai Lingyan immediately told her. "People from your clan are having a hard time finding Feng Shen, but I know that he will come if you contact him, so I need your help to contact him."

"Indeed, Uncle Shen will come if I contact him." Feng Yao propped her chin with her hands while thinking. "Do you want to meet my uncle for Xiao'er's sake? Does that mean he has the wind element?"

"Yeah, Xiao'er has the wind element, so Feng Shen is the right person to be his master." Tantai Lingyan then asked her. "Didn't Yuan'er tell you anything about him?"

"No." Feng Yao shook her head at Tantai Lingyan. "She told me a few things about Yin'er, but she didn't tell me anything about Xiao'er. Is there anything special about him? Otherwise, you wouldn't have looked for my uncle, as you and Uncle Huang could have taught him."

Tantai Lingyan released a soft sigh and nodded to her. "However, I can't tell you anything for now because he is still too weak, and it will be better if only a few people know about him. Once he becomes strong, you will hear many things about him, and I am sure he will be able to defeat Long Yin in the future."

Feng Yao became curious when she noticed Tantai Lingyan's confident expression while delivering her last sentence, but she found it difficult to believe that Tang Xiao could defeat Long Yin due to the significant difference in their experience levels. "Are you sure he can defeat him?"

"One hundred percent."

"I see." Feng Yao nodded in understanding. "I don't know where your confidence comes from because he has just started his path of cultivation, so he still has a long and challenging road to reach Long Yin's level. However, I know that you are not a person who likes to brag, so I choose to believe in you, and I want to witness Xiao'er defeat him with my own eyes in the future."

"Haha." Tantai Lingyan laughed softly when she heard that. "Not only defeating Long Yin, but I believe that Xiao'er will do great things that will bring significant changes to the lives of everyone on this planet, whether they are cultivators or ordinary humans."

Feng Yao took out a talisman and injected her qi into it, and a thread of green qi flew out of the room before disappearing in the sky. "I've contacted my uncle, but I don't know when he will arrive, and it depends on his current location, so you can bring Xiao'er to meet him later."

"That's good." Tantai Lingyan then rose to her feet. "In that case, I will go to Mu House now, and I will wait for news from you."

"Wait a minute." Tantai Lingyan raised her eyebrows at Feng Yao. "Does that mean Tang Xiao has two elements? I just remembered that he killed Du Zhong and He Yu using his fire element, and you told me earlier that he also had the wind element."

"That's right, Xiao'er does have fire and wind elements." Tantai Lingyan then asked her in turn, "Do you want to teach him about the fire element? You are one of the best fire cultivators on Earth-II, so I think it will be great if you guide him to deepen his mastery of the fire element."

"I have no problem with that." Feng Yao unhesitatingly agreed to Tantai Ling's request, as she was close to the people from the Tang Clan, who were like her own family.

"However, you should discuss this matter with him first, and I will help him as much as I can if he wishes."

"Alright, I will leave now."

After Tantai Lingyan disappeared, Feng Yao leaned back in her chair, thinking about Tang Xiao. "Xiao'er, you pique my interest tremendously, considering that they withheld all information regarding you from me. However, I sincerely hope that you will become strong enough to defeat Long Yin, and you can complete your revenge for the deaths of your parents."

"How are you, Big Brother?" Mu Yan asked as she approached Tang Xiao, who had just finished his training. She helped him up before wiping his sweat with a handkerchief.

Even though he knew that Mu Yan's behavior was influenced by his mother's soul, Tang Xiao was pleased with her attention. "I'm fine, but three times gravity is still too much for me, and I still need a long time to adapt to it. What about your cultivation? Are you close to breaking through to the Xiantian level?"

"Yes." Mu Yan replied with a nod. "The pill you gave me is effective in helping me absorb qi, and I'm already close to the barrier to the Xiantian level. I think I will succeed in breaking through if I swallow it one more time."

"That's good." Tang Xiao then rubbed Mu Yan's head. "Still, you can't depend on the pill, and you must be more active in normal cultivation."

"I know."

Tap... Tap...

Mu Qingge walked over to them as she informed Tang Xiao. "Sister Lingyan went to see Feng Yao and asked her to contact Feng Shen because he is the fastest cultivator on Earth-II, and she wants you to learn from him about the wind element."

Chapter 128: Telling Mu Yan

"I heard your conversation earlier." Tang Xiao's answer surprised Mu Qingge. "My senses are much sharper than the average cultivator's, and I have no problem with that because it will be useful for me."

Mu Qingge was satisfied with that. "Even though your mastery of the fire element is already good, I think you should learn from someone about it, and the best choice is Feng Yao."

"Feng Yao?"

Mu Qingge nodded to Tang Xiao. "Feng Yao is a talented fire cultivator, and her mastery of the fire element has been extraordinary since she was a child. Moreover, she is a close friend of Tang Yuan, so I think you can learn from her."

Tang Xiao nodded understandingly. "Alright, I will go to see Feng Yao tomorrow, and I will ask her to teach me more about the fire element. For now, I want to go to the hot spring to freshen up."

"Okay."

Splash... Splash...

"Phew!" Tang Xiao leaned on the side of the hot spring. "Soaking in hot water like this after strenuous exercise is truly enjoyable."

Suddenly, Hun appeared beside Tang Xiao, but the water in the pool did not wet her. "You enjoyed your life so much, Master."

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed and asked her. "How are you? It's been some time since you last came out of the sun stone."

"Master, I'm like a parasite to you because I have to use your qi to recover myself, so I can't come out to see you too often; otherwise, it will weaken me and be detrimental to you." Tang Xiao turned to her with an understanding nod, but he could see that Hun's soul looked more solidified than when they first met. "I'm much better compared to when you released me the first time, and I'll be even better if I continue to absorb your qi. However, I won't absorb too much of it, or your cultivation will slow down."

Tang Xiao shook his head. "You are a part of me now, so don't think too much about it. Moreover, I have several women beside me, and they can help me improve my cultivation."

"You're not wrong about that, Master." Hun replied as she nodded in agreement. "However, your cultivation will become slower as you progress because each level requires a different amount of qi, and the amount will continue to increase."

Tang Xiao was aware of that, but he didn't mind if Hun absorbed more of his qi, as they would be together for a long time. "Is there any other way that can help you speed up the process of reshaping your body?"

"There is another way, but I'm not ready for it, Master."

"I see." Tang Xiao understood Hun's meaning after noticing the red hues on her cheeks, and the path was to dual-cultivate with him. "You can tell me when you're ready."

"Yes." Hun entered the Sun Stone again.

Tang Xiao suddenly remembered something. "Xiao Ai, what about Zhao Teng? Have his people moved?"

[Zhao Teng's people will arrive in this city tonight, and they will probably act against my mistress soon.]

Tang Xiao sighed softly and thought of Ouyang Hong, as not many people had the strength or courage to fight him. If Long Yin had not protected the Ouyang family, he would have moved to destroy them from the start.

[Master, what are your plans for Zhao Teng?]

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao raised his eyebrows at that because Zhao Teng was his maternal grandfather, so he couldn't possibly kill him because of his mother, as was the case with Zhao Yuxian. However, he wouldn't remain silent since he was targeting Tang Yin, but the old man had a good relationship with Ouyang Hong, so he had to think of another way to destroy him. "Contact Zhao Wei on my behalf and tell him that I want to see him. Besides, I want you to monitor Lin Yanxiu and inform me of all her activities."

[Hahaha! Are you thinking about cuckolding your grandfather, Master?]

"Why not?" With a casual shrug, Tang Xiao asked back. "Currently, Lin Yanxiu is Zhao Teng's closest person since Zhao Yuxian is already in my hands and Aunt Qing is also on our side, so I will use her to destroy that old bastard if he is looking for trouble with us."

[Alright, I will start monitoring Lin Yanxiu. Is there another plan you want to make against Zhao Teng, Master?] As he rubbed his smooth chin, Tang Xiao thought of another plan for his grandfather, but he didn't have any ideas for it, so Xiao Ai gave him one. [What if I make Zhao Teng's company shares fall to rock bottom, Master? After that, we will buy the majority of the shares using the name Tianmei, and his company will be under our control.]

"Yes, you can do that." Tang Xiao immediately agreed. "I will make Zhao Teng beg us, just like what he did to my late father before he achieved his success."

[Okay, I will arrange everything, and I will also arrange a meeting for you with Zhao Wei.]

Tap... Tap...

Tang Xiao was stunned when he turned towards the voice, especially after he saw Mu Yan walking toward him with her body only covered by a towel, allowing him to see the smoothness of her white skin.

Even though Mu Yan is still a teenager, her body is no less mature than her mother, and her breasts are considered big enough for a girl of her age, so Tang Xiao can see her cleavage freely.

"Why are you here, Yan'er?" Tang Xiao asked as he averted his gaze.

Mu Yan pouted her lips when she saw Tang Xiao like that, but she took out two wooden stools and a set of toiletries from her storage ring, placing them behind him. "I want to help you clean your body, big brother. Therefore, you must get out of the pool and let me do it."

Tang Xiao took a towel and covered his lower body, and he floated out of the pool before sitting with his back to Mu Yan. "Does Qingge know that you are here?"

"Haha." Instead, Mu Yan laughed and teased him. "Does this mean you already consider my mother as your wife, big brother? Otherwise, you won't call her name directly, right?"

Tang Xiao was stunned for a moment, and he did not deny that he wanted Mu Qingge to be his wife soon, but things still took a lot of time. "Well? Even though we're not married yet, your mother has accepted me, and our marriage is only a matter of time."

"That's true." Mu Yan used her qi to draw water from the pool into the bucket, and she began to rub Tang Xiao's back using a rubbing stone. "By the way, my mother was practicing in the training area using the gravity device, and I also tried it before. However, I was overwhelmed by the gravitational pressure, so I decided to stop and followed you here."

"Yan'er, you are still young and a virgin. Therefore, you shouldn't do this kind of thing, you know?" Mu Yan didn't refute Tang Xiao's words, but she just wanted to help him, and she felt it was a natural thing to do. "You can do it this time, but you must not do it again in the future, and you can only be like this with your husband."

However, Mu Yan's answer shocked Tang Xiao. "If that's the case, I want to be your wife, too, so I can continue to help you like this, big brother."

"Why do you want to be my wife? Do you like me now?"

"I don't know." Tang Xiao let out a heavy sigh after hearing that, but Mu Yan then continued, "I always feel uncomfortable when there is a man by my side, but I feel comfortable when you are by my side, and I feel lonely when you are not with me."

After hearing that, Tang Xiao was lost in his thoughts, weighing the pros and cons of disclosing to Mu Yan the reasons behind her comfortable feelings for him. He was in a dilemma, and he was afraid of breaking her feelings if he told her the truth. However, he felt that she had the right to know the truth, so he decided to tell her. "Yan'er, I want to tell you something, but I hope you won't be disappointed after hearing it."

"What do you want to tell me? Why should I feel disappointed by that?" Mu Yan asked in confusion.

Tang Xiao turned to face Mu Yan, grabbed her shoulders, and told her the truth. "Yan'er, you feel comfortable with me and Yin'er because our late mother's soul resides in your body, and she has more or less influenced your feelings toward us."

"Huh?" Mu Yan looked at Tang Xiao as her eyes kept blinking.

"I don't know how our late mother's soul came to be in your body, but I'm telling you the truth." Mu Yan became even more confused after hearing Tang Xiao's statement. "A few days ago, Yin'er heard you address her as Yin'er, and you addressed me as Xiao'er. She heard you mumbling some things, and she heard you referring to yourself as our mother. She and Xiao Ai found two souls in your body; one is your original soul, and the other is her soul."

Mu Yan pressed both palms against her chest. "Is your late mother's soul really in my body, big brother?"

Chapter 129: Zhao Jing's Soul

Tang Xiao nodded at Mu Yan. "Yes, my late mother's soul is truly in your body now."

"Can we meet your mother's soul, big brother?"

"Eh?" Tang Xiao recalled that Xiao Ai had once sent his soul into Tang Yin's soul space to wake her up. 'Can you send us into Yan'er's soul space? My mother's soul should be there, right?'

[You are right, Master. I can send you into Mu Yan's soul space, but you two won't be able to stay there for long, as you two haven't formed your cultivation souls yet.]

'Do you have another solution? I want to talk to my mother so she can stop influencing Yan'er's character.'

[Master, it happened against your mother's will, so you won't be able to ask her to stop influencing Mu Yan.] Tang Xiao frowned at Xiao Ai's answer. [You must bring a cultivator who has already formed their cultivation soul with you, and that person can extend your time there. Mu Qingge is the best choice for that, but I have to teach her a technique to enter another cultivator's soul space first, or else she won't be able to do it.]

'Ai, contact Qingge now, and we'll meet you there shortly.' Tang Xiao then spoke to Mu Yan. "Xiao Ai has a way for us to meet my mother's soul, so we have to go to the laboratory now, and your mother will be waiting for us there."

"Yay!" Mu Yan jumped with joy, but her actions caused the towel covering her body to fall, revealing her naked body to Tang Xiao's eyes. Instantly, her face became as red as a ripe tomato, and she pushed him backwards before running away as fast as a rabbit.

Tang Xiao smiled wryly at Mu Yan's behavior, but he immediately dried his body before getting dressed, and he went to the laboratory afterward.

When they arrived there, Mu Qingge looked at her daughter with a confused look because Mu Yan's face was still so red, and she looked at Tang Xiao questioningly.

Seeing her like that, Tang Xiao became awkward and confused about explaining the truth to Mu Qingge.

"Yan'er, lie down in this capsule, and I'll go into the other one." Mu Yan nodded shyly and lay down directly in the capsule, and Tang Xiao entered the other one. "Xiao Ai, let's start now."

'Did something happen between them before? Otherwise, they wouldn't be that awkward with me. Sigh! I'll ask them later.' Mu Qingge inwardly thought as she glanced at them with a suspicious look, but she then asked Xiao Ai. "What should I do now?"

"Press your palm against Mu Yan's chest and use the soul technique I just taught you, and you will meet their souls there. I don't know the situation in her soul space, so you must use your soul power to envelop them, or else they'll disappear too soon."

"Alright." Mu Qingge nodded and used the soul technique.

"Huh? Are we in my soul now, Big Brother?" Mu Yan asked as she looked around her soul space in awe.

The situation in Mu Yan's soul space amazed Tang Xiao, particularly because it was so bright and had a huge rainbow stretching from end to end, a stark contrast to Tang Yin's soul space.

Suddenly, Mu Qingge appeared in front of them and enveloped them with her soul power, and she looked around before commenting. "This is the first time I have entered another cultivator's soul space, but I didn't expect the atmosphere here to be so cheerful, and it really suits your character."

"Hehe." Mu Yan giggled at that. "So, where should we look for her soul? This place seems big, and we might have trouble finding her."

"Wait a moment." Mu Qingge closed her eyes and checked all corners of Mu Yan's soul space. Soon, she managed to locate Zhao Jing's soul, and she pointed in a certain direction. "She was there."

"Let's go! We don't have much time here, so I want to meet her now." Tang Xiao spoke as he ran in the direction Mu Qingge was pointing at just now.

Mu Yan wanted to run after Tang Xiao, but Mu Qingge unexpectedly carried her so they could follow him faster.

After running for some time, they arrived at the location of Zhao Jing's soul. Meanwhile, Tang Xiao's body shook intensely as he listened to his mother humming a tune she often sang for him in the past, and tears flowed involuntarily down his cheeks.

Mu Yan wanted to say something to Tang Xiao, but Mu Qingge immediately covered her daughter's mouth and shook her head. After all, it had been almost two decades since he had seen his mother, so she could understand his longing for her.

With a stagger, Tang Xiao walked over to Zhao Jing's soul while stretching out his hand, and he called softly to her. "Mom."

Hearing his call, Zhao Jing stood up and turned to her son, and her soul visibly trembled as tears flowed down from her eyes, especially since she had not seen him for eighteen years.

Even though Tang Xiao has already grown up, Zhao Jing already knew everything about him from Mu Yan's memories, as their souls are connected to each other. "Xiao'er."

Tang Xiao immediately moved in front of her mother, but Zhao Jing actually took a step back and shook her head as he was about to hug her, and he could see the regret and guilt in her eyes.

Tang Xiao stretched out his arms and hugged Zhao Jing so tightly as if he didn't want to let her go, and he cried loudly like a little boy.

Tang Xiao's crying made Zhao Jing look so sad, and she hugged her son back while crying together, which made the Mu mother and daughter feel sad and happy about their reunion.

Mu Yan hugged her mother while crying as Zhao Jing's feelings affected hers. Mu Qingge was naturally aware of it, but she couldn't do anything and hugged her daughter while comforting her with gentle caresses.

"Mom, big sis and I have missed you so much over the years." As he sobbed, Tang Xiao hugged Zhao Jing even more tightly. "I'm glad that I can see you again."

"Please forgive me, Xiao'er." Zhao Jing tightened her arms around her son. "I was so foolish and selfish to leave you and Yin'er, and you two had to suffer for years because of it."

"No, you don't need to blame yourself, Mom." Tang Xiao released Zhao Jing from his embrace before cupping her face, and he shook his head while wiping her tears. "We were desperate after your death, but we understood your feelings and never blamed you for your choice. Instead, we always prayed that you could be reunited with our father again, but here you are now, and we could reunite today."

Despite Tang Xiao's words, Zhao Jing still harbored guilt towards him and Tang Yin. However, she was also happy for their reunion, and she touched his face. "If I hadn't forbidden your grandfather from teaching you and Yin'er to become cultivators, the two of you would not have experienced such suffering, and you would be able to protect yourselves from those people."

"Alright, you don't need to bring up that matter again, okay?" Tang Xiao said this as he looked at Zhao Jing with a smile. "Since you were able to learn everything from Yan'er's memories, you must already know that our lives have become much better now. We have many things that we can use to take revenge on those people, so you don't need to regret the past anymore, and I will destroy them all as payment for their past actions."

Zhao Qing nodded with a smile and spoke to him. "Even though I feel strange after learning about your relationship with Yin'er, I clearly remember that you two have always loved each other. Moreover, Xiao Ai can help you both get through everything, so I won't say anything about it."

"Thank you, Mom." Tang Xiao felt relieved after hearing her mother's words, as she had previously feared that she would be disappointed in her relationship; however, Zhao Jing then looked at the Mu mother and daughter. "You must know Qingge, right?"

"Yes." Zhao Jing nodded in response. "Back then, we often went to visit Mu House, especially during Uncle Lin's birthday, so we often met Qingge. Moreover, she was your father's childhood friend, so our relationship was excellent. However, I didn't expect that she would be willing to be your future wife, and she did it for Yan'er, who was indirectly affected by my feelings."

Mu Qingge was embarrassed listening to Zhao Jing's words, but she pulled her daughter with her and walked over to them. "Long time no see, but I didn't expect that we would meet again in my daughter's soul space. Do you know how you got into this place?"

"Long time no see." Zhao Jing sighed softly as she spoke. "I don't know how I got here myself, as my consciousness was completely blank after I died, and I entered deep slumber for quite a long time. When I opened my eyes again, I was already in this place, and I met Yan'er's soul, which was still small at the time, as she was just born. For several years, I kept wondering about this place, but I found the answer after she started cultivating, and I started learning many things about cultivators as she grew up."

Chapter 130: Meeting Fu Chen

Tang Xiao asked Zhao Jing again. "So, you don't remember anything that happened after you died and before you woke up, Mom?"

"I don't remember anything." Zhao Jing turned to face Mu Yan, who was staring at her with a curious expression, and rubbed her head. "I want to apologize to you, Yan'er. Your cultivation slowed because my soul absorbed the qi that you drew from the air; otherwise, you would be stronger than you are now."

"You don't need to apologize to me, Auntie." Mu Yan replied while shaking her head. "Even though I feel strange about your existence in my soul space, I'm happy to be able to help you, and I'm also happy because I can meet Big Brother Xiao and Big Sister Yin. Moreover, Xiao Ai has already said that she can separate our souls, and she can also transfer your soul to someone else's body, so you can accompany them again in the future. However, you have to wait for me to become stronger first, and it will probably take a very long time, but I will cultivate more diligently to make that happen."

Zhao Jing knew about it from Mu Yan's memories, but she didn't want to comment on it, as her guilt was still weighing heavily on her heart.

Suddenly, their souls flashed and slowly disappeared, prompting Mu Qingge to speak to Zhao Jing. "We have to leave this place, but you two can still meet again in the future."

Hearing that, Zhao Jing hugged Tang Xiao again. "Take good care of yourself and Yin'er, and both of you must act cautiously in fighting them."

"I know." Tang Xiao hugged his mother back and felt reluctant to let her go, but he had no other choice. "Mom, I have to go now, but I will visit you again. I will tell Yin'er about you, and she will come in here to see you."

The three of them disappeared from her sight, and Zhao Jing sighed softly. "Husband, our children are all grown up, and they are cultivators now. They've killed some of those bastards, and they'll kill the rest soon, so I hope you find peace in the afterlife. Honestly, I want to accompany you there, but someone or something deliberately placed my soul in this place, so I hope you can forgive me."

After they returned to their bodies, Mu Yan hurriedly jumped out of the capsule and flew away in a hurry. She wanted to help Tang Xiao reunite with Zhao Jing, and she could only do that if she had become stronger.

Mu Qingge sighed softly because she was familiar with her daughter's character. "Did something happen between you two before?"

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed awkwardly, but he decided to tell her about the incident between him and Mu Yan in the hot spring. "Qingge, I—"

"You don't need to explain anything to me." Mu Qingge interrupted Tang Xiao. "I had thought about this matter after you told me that Zhao Jing's soul was in Yan'er's body, but I didn't expect that her influence had reached such a degree. Although it happened because of your mother's influence, I'm sure it also came from her own feelings, so I don't mind if she fell for you."

Tang Xiao himself liked Mu Yan, but he had never thought about having such a relationship with her. His feelings for her resembled those of a big brother toward a little sister, leaving him unsure of how to respond to Mu Qingge's words.

Seeing him like that, Mu Qingge asked Tang Xiao. "Why do you have to think about that so complicatedly? Your relationship with Yin'er is much weirder, remember? Yan'er will be sad if you reject her, so I hope you can think about her feelings. I won't ask you to accept her right away, and you can decide after you think about it well."

Tang Xiao released a soft sigh before nodding to Mu Qingge. "For now, I don't have such feelings for Yan'er, so I will think about it first."

"Alright."

Thereafter, Mu Qingge returned to the training ground, and Tang Xiao asked his two servants to meet him in his bedroom because it had been a few days since he had sex with them.

Jessica was initially reluctant to have sex with Tang Xiao again, and she tried to beg him to set her free so she could return to her family. However, she eventually moaned and writhed beneath him, enjoying every thrust of his dick into her pussy.

Unlike Jessica, Zhao Yuxian has long resigned herself to her fate, and she fully enjoyed herself every time he fucked her. Furthermore, her cultivation continued to increase every time they finished having sex, making her even more eager to do it with him.

In the afternoon, Sun Xiang was already at Xiao Meng's house, but she was surprised after seeing Xiao Hua. "I didn't expect that you would come here, Aunt Hua."

"Patriarch asked me to visit Meng'er and check on her condition; the two of you are still as close as ever, Xiang'er." Xiao Hua answered with a faint smile.

"You already know that Meng and I have been friends since childhood, so it's natural that our relationship is very close, right?" Xiao Hua nodded to Sun Xiang. "Anyway, we have to go out to attend an important event. Do you want to come with us?"

"No." Xiao Hua shook her head. "I'm not used to the situation in this city, so I'll stay here, and you two can go have fun."

"In that case, we will leave now, Aunt Hua."

Xiao Meng pulled her best friend out of her house, and Xiao Hua continued to look at them, but there was a glimmer of hatred in her eyes as she looked at Sun Xiang's back.

Before long, they arrived at the hotel, and they rushed to the meeting room to gather with the other police officers.

After Tang Yin informed him that Fu Chen had arrived and wanted to meet them, Tang Xiao stopped dual cultivating with Jessica and Zhao Yuxian, and he immediately left the ark after getting dressed.

After he picked up Tang Yin at Tianmei, they went straight to the hotel where Fu Chen was staying.

Soon, they were standing in front of Fu Chen's bedroom door, and Tang Yin immediately rang the bell.

Crack

"Oh?" When she saw Tang Xiao, Fu Chen froze in place, and she looked amazed by his good looks, but she couldn't recognize him, especially since he was using another face.

Tang Yin chuckled at seeing her like that, and she immediately hugged Fu Chen, bringing her back to her senses. "Long time no see."

Bam

As soon as she returned to her senses, Fu Chen pulled Tang Yin into her room while slamming the door, leaving Tang Xiao stunned outside. "That woman! She has become a famous actress, but her character is still the same as before."

[Master, Fu Chen is a cultivator, and her cultivation has reached Peak Stage Xiantian Level.]

Tang Xiao was taken aback by Xiao Ai's words, which meant Fu Chen had already been a cultivator for a long time, or else she wouldn't have been able to reach that stage with her current age. 'I didn't expect that she was a cultivator, but she's too whiny to be one, and I don't know if she can face the rigors of the cultivation world with her character like that.'

[By the way, Sun Xiang and Xiao Meng are also in this hotel, and they've probably detected your presence by now, Master.]

Tang Xiao frowned and used his true eyes to search for the two women's location, and he found them in the meeting room. As Xiao Ai expected, he could see Sun Xiang was looking for him, but he ignored her and waited for Tang Yin and Fu Chen to come out.

Meanwhile, Fu Chen observed Tang Yin's body from top to bottom, and she was completely shocked after discovering that she was a cultivator. "Since when did you wake up from your coma, Yinyin? Since when did you become a cultivator? As far as I remember, your grandfather and aunt never taught you to cultivate, but your cultivation is already at peak rank foundation level."

"I didn't expect that you were also a cultivator, and your cultivation has already reached the peak rank of Xiantian, but you never told me about it." Fu Chen raised her eyebrows because Tang Yin shouldn't be able to detect her cultivation with her current cultivation, but he was able to guess it correctly. "I woke up from my coma two weeks ago, and I became a cultivator after that. However, I am a dual cultivator, so my cultivation can improve a little faster compared to normal cultivators."

"Oh?" Once again, Fu Chen was surprised by Tang Yin's confession, but she then nodded in understanding after detecting a man's yang qi in her body. "Is that man your husband? Since when have you been married? Why didn't you invite me to your wedding?"

"Hehe." Tang Yin chuckled and pulled Fu Chen to sit on the bed. "That man is indeed my husband, but we only have a civil marriage, and we haven't had our wedding party yet, so I haven't invited you."

"Phew!" Fu Chen exhaled in relief as she delivered a gentle punch to Tang Yin's arms. "I won't acknowledge you as my best friend anymore if you dare not invite me to your wedding! Remember that!"
