Chapter 211: Mingwu City

"What do you think I should do now?"

[Master, I know you want to destroy the Shen Family, but you must avoid Wang Fuxi. If she becomes furious with your actions, she might capture you. Worst case, she'll cripple your cultivation, which will only end badly for you. Instead, we can use another method to destroy the family, and I will help you with that.]

Tang Xiao considered several ways for a while, but he gave up because he didn't dare to confront Wang Fuxi. "Alright, I'll leave the Shen Family to you for now, Xiao Ai. Do whatever you can to destroy that family, and you must destroy them until they can't rise again."

[Leave everything to me, Master. I will make that family fall as low as possible, and they will never be able to rise again.]

Tang Xiao remembered something. "Xiao Ai, please check the Shen family's house for documents belonging to those three individuals, as I plan to use them to bring down Shen Tianhu. After you find those documents, you can tell me their location, and I will infiltrate the house to take them. That way, Wang Fuxi won't be able to do anything to me, and I can destroy his family as soon as possible."

[I'll do it now, Master.]

Tang Xiao sat back on his bed, but he had difficulty concentrating on cultivating, which was because his mind was preoccupied with Wang Fuxi. He let out a soft sigh to regain his concentration, and he closed his eyes to begin his cultivation again.

"Why did you decide to stop when you've only fought twice?"

Tang Xiao's clone sighed softly and turned to Tantai Lingyan. "Wang Fuxi has already come out of her seclusion, and she is watching over the Shen family home to prevent me from killing them."

"Hmm?" Tantai Lingyan frowned. "When did Wang Fuxi come out of her seclusion?"

"Today."

Feng Shen grabbed his shoulder. "Kid, you should avoid Wang Fuxi for now, and you must never try to fight her, or you'll be in big trouble. That woman's strength is far beyond your imagination, and I'll have to think twice about fighting her, so you shouldn't challenge her."

"Is that woman that strong, Senior Feng?" Tang Xiao's clone asked, as he didn't have any information about Wang Fuxi's strength and abilities.

"Yes." Feng Shen nodded to him. "Forget about me and your master; even Long Yin has to think twice about fighting against Wang Fuxi. She possesses extraordinary abilities, but I don't know for sure about them because I've never fought her before. If you try to fight her, you will lose badly, and she will most likely cripple your cultivation, especially since you have killed many mortals."

Tang Xiao's clone nodded in understanding. "For now, my only remaining enemy is the Shen family, but Wang Fuxi has already returned. That's why I will use other means to destroy them, and she won't be able to do anything to me as long as I don't act against them directly."

"Hmm?" Feng Shen looked at him thoughtfully. "I know you're obsessed with destroying your enemies because they destroyed your family, but you must always be careful of Wang Fuxi, or you'll be the one to suffer the loss, understand?"

Tang Xiao's clone nodded. "Thank you for your advice, Senior Feng. I will act more carefully to avoid Wang Fuxi, and I can also destroy the Shen family at the same time."

"Mhm." Feng Shen nodded slightly. "Since you don't want to fight in the battle arena anymore, we can go to another city to wait for tomorrow, and you can look at the tamed beasts that are sold there."

"Yes."

Tantai Lingyan directly spoke to them. "I won't be joining you two, and I'll be leaving for the Sun Clan now. I'll wait for the others to arrive there, and we'll meet Old Sun together."

After they left Lingshan City, Feng Shen took Tang Xiao's clone to another city, and Tantai Lingyan headed to the region where the Sun Clan lived.

With Feng Shen's speed, he could bring Tang Xiao's clone to arrive at the city in a few hours, especially since the city was on the border of the western and southern regions.

Tang Xiao's clone raised an eyebrow as they entered the city. "Why does this city look so gloomy, Senior Feng?"

"Hahaha." Feng Shen laughed. "This Mingwu City is the worst city in this place, and the merchants here are smugglers who sell many important goods that other cultivators are looking for, such as beasts and many others. If you are looking for items that are rarely found in other cities, then you can come to this city to look for those items, and you can get them here."

"Won't other cultivators stop them, Senior?" Tang Xiao's clone asked as he looked around at the merchants.

Feng Shen answered with a shake of his head. "This Earth II is different from the outside world, and no other cultivator dares to stop them from selling their wares. Even cultivators of Long Yin and Wang Fuxi's caliber would come here to look for items that are difficult to find elsewhere, especially since all these merchants sell items that other cultivators need for various things, such as alchemy, breakthroughs, and so on."

"Eh?" Tang Xiao's clone turned to him. "Do we need certain items to break through in our cultivation?"

"Not really." Feng Shen immediately explained to him. "To break through in our cultivation, we don't need any items. However, some items can assist us in our breakthrough, and they can expedite it, especially when we break through to the tyrant level and above."

[What Feng Shen said is true, Master. However, you don't need to worry about your breakthrough, especially since many items that can help you break through are available in the treasury vault. While he was still alive, my old master diligently collected many items and neatly stored them in the treasury vault. If you need items for your breakthrough, you only need to tell me, and I will get them for you. Compared to the items in that city, the items in the treasury vault are much more valuable and expensive, and you can use them when you need them.]

Tang Xiao's clone smiled to himself upon hearing Xiao Ai's words, feeling fortunate to have inherited everything from her master. "So, when will the place selling beasts open?"

"Impatient, aren't you?" Feng Shen pointed to a building. "That building is the one we're going to, and they'll be selling various beasts tomorrow morning. However, you'll be competing with many other cultivators who also want to get their hands on them, so you'll need to prepare a lot of money to buy them."

Tang Xiao's clone didn't worry about money, mainly because he had a large supply of gold coins and spirit crystals stored in the treasury vault. Moreover, coins would be useless outside of Earth II, and they only used spirit crystals, so he didn't think much about it. "What is the price of the most expensive beast ever sold by that store?"

"Hmm?" Feng Shen rubbed his chin while trying to remember it. "If I'm not mistaken, the most expensive beast the shop ever sold was one hundred million gold coins, and the buyer was Long Yin."

"What kind of beast is that?"

Feng Shen shook his head. "That beast wasn't sold publicly, and Long Yin bought it directly from the building's owner, so no one knows its identity. However, I've heard from the building owner that the beast is powerful and its abilities are also extraordinary, but he didn't explain it to me in detail because he was afraid of him."

"I see." Tang Xiao's clone nodded in understanding. "Is there an auction place in this city?"

"There." Feng Shen pointed to another building, which was located right in the middle of the city. "That auction isn't held every day, and it's held once a week. We happened to come to this city today, and the next auction will be held tomorrow. If you're interested, we'll go there after we look at the beasts in the previous shop. However, the prices of the items on auction are expensive, with the cheapest being around one million gold coins."

"What is the best item ever auctioned there?"

"Haha." Feng Shen laughed. "If you hadn't asked, I wouldn't have remembered. If I'm not mistaken, the most expensive item ever sold at that auction was the Nine Heavens Cauldron, and Huang Xianyu bought it for five hundred million gold coins."

After hearing that name, Tang Xiao's clone turned to Feng Shen directly, especially since that person was Fu Chen's master. "Is Huang Xianyu an alchemist? Does she have many disciples?"

"Huang Xianyu is an alchemist, but she's not the best in the Huang Clan, and Huang Xiaotian is much better than her." Feng Shen looked at him. "As far as I know, she only has two disciples, but I don't know their identities. I don't have a favorable relationship with the Huang Clan, so I rarely go to that clan. If you go to the auction tomorrow, I'm sure you'll meet people from that clan, and they might be there tomorrow as well. Do you still want to look at the goods in this city?"

Tang Xiao's clone shook his head. "There are no items that catch my eye, and I just want to go check out the beasts, as well as watch the auction tomorrow."

Chapter 212: Infiltrate The Shen House

After they spent some time in Mingwu City, Feng Shen took Tang Xiao's clone to a nearby forest, where he fought against the beasts there.

"Apparently, Wang Fuxi's appearance disturbed his mind, huh? She's the protector of mortals, and he'll face her if he kills the remaining family. Moreover, she's quite vicious, and she won't hesitate to cripple his cultivation if he kills them." Feng Shen sat in a tree, observing Tang Xiao's clone. "I understand your desire to kill everyone related to your father's death, but you shouldn't force yourself to fight that woman. If you fight her, she'll cripple your cultivation instantly."

Feng Shen released a soft sigh, and he sincerely hoped that Tang Xiao's clone didn't make a rash move by fighting Wang Fuxi head-on. Otherwise, he would die in vain, and his talent would be wasted.

Knock... Knock...

A loud knock on Lin Yan's front door startled her as she had just woken up. She quickly got dressed and exited her bedroom to see who had come looking for her.

Lin Yan was shocked when she opened the door, especially since the person standing in front of her was her husband's lawyer. "Why are you here?"

"Mrs. Lin, your husband asked me to come to process your divorce." Lin Yan froze upon hearing that, and the lawyer handed her a folder. "You can read everything yourself, and you will know the reasons for your husband to decide to divorce you."

Lin Yan opened the folder, but she instantly gasped in shock. Her eyes widened, and her hands trembled, mainly because there were photos of her having sex with Tang Xiao at their house last night. She realized that her husband had returned last night, and he witnessed her cheating in their house. "This—"

"Mrs. Lin, your husband doesn't want anything from you, and he only demands custody of your son. He doesn't want your son to be exposed to your bad behavior, so he will take him out of town. He hopes you don't look for them, and he wants to calm himself after he finds out about your affair." The lawyer immediately handed her a pen. "For now, I need you to sign all these documents, and I will go to court to process your divorce. Since you were having an affair with another man, and the evidence is clear, your divorce process won't take too long, about a month at most."

With shaking hands and eyes full of tears, Lin Yan accepted the pen and signed all the documents. She never expected that her husband would find out about her affair with Tang Xiao, and he decided to divorce her.

After Lin Yan signed all the documents, the lawyer immediately took them back and left the house, leaving her to mourn her husband's decision.

Lin Yan went straight back into the house and closed the door, and she squatted behind it as she cried loudly. She wanted to refute her husband's decision, but all the evidence clearly showed that she was having an affair with Tang Xiao in their house.

After crying for a long time, Lin Yan stood up and went to her bedroom to get her smartphone. She tried to contact her husband, but his number was no longer active, and she tried to contact his family to no avail.

Lin Yan decided to clean herself briefly, and she quickly got dressed before leaving her house. She tried to contact Tang Xiao, but he didn't pick up her calls because he was busy with his cultivation. She decided to find a taxi and went to Ouyang House, looking for him there.

[Lin Yan is looking for you, Master.] Tang Xiao raised an eyebrow in response to Xiao Ai's statement. [Her husband sent his lawyer to their house, and he has filed for divorce from her. She has already signed all the documents, and she is on her way to Ouyang House to look for you.]

Tang Xiao opened his eyes. "How long will their divorce process take, Xiao Ai?"

[According to her husband's lawyer, the process will take approximately one month. If you want to kill her, you'll have to kill her after their divorce is finalized, Master. Even though the evidence is clear, the court still needs her for some questioning. Therefore, you have to be patient now, and you can kill her after the process is complete.]

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "Where are Ouyang Qing and Yi An now? Is Ouyang Hong on his way home yet?"

[Ouyang Qing and Yi An will arrive in three hours, Master. As for Ouyang Hong, he is still at Huang Xiaoming's villa, and he likely won't be back until tomorrow night.]

"Is he having sex with Gong Qingyan again?"

[No, Master. Su Rou offered to Gong Qingyan to have a threesome with them, but she refused her invitation. She and her husband have left the villa just now, as have the other guests.]

"Keep an eye on them, Xiao Ai." Tang Xiao then asked her. "Have you found those documents at the Shen House?"

[Master, those documents are in Shen Tianhu's study, specifically on the floor beneath his desk. If you want to retrieve them, you can go there now because he and his wife are away taking care of something, and their son is left alone at home. However, Wang Fuxi is still standing guard across from the house, and she is using her senses to monitor the entire area.]

Tang Xiao frowned when he heard Wang Fuxi's name. "Do you think she can capture me if I use the Void Dragon Steps to infiltrate the Shen House?"

[Master, I don't have any data on Wang Fuxi, so I can't give you a definite answer. If you want to retrieve those documents, you can go to the Shen House right now. However, you must be careful when you exit the void, and you must leave quickly in case she notices your presence.]

"Xiao Ai, please monitor Lin Yan's movements and inform me when she arrives."

[Yes, Master.]

After that, Tang Xiao immediately used the Void Dragon Steps to reach the Shen Mansion. However, he didn't immediately exit the void; instead, he searched for Wang Fuxi's hiding place.

Tang Xiao found Wang Fuxi sitting cross-legged on the roof of the house opposite, with her eyes constantly watching the Shen Mansion. Xiao Ai warned him that the woman had activated her senses to monitor the house, so he had to move quickly and carefully to avoid her detection.

Tang Xiao sneaked into the Shen Mansion, specifically Shen Tianhu's study. He didn't immediately exit the void and thought of a way to retrieve the documents without Wang Fuxi's knowledge, mainly because he wasn't ready to fight her yet.

After thinking for a long time, Tang Xiao couldn't find a solution to retrieve the documents without Wang Fuxi's knowledge. He suddenly remembered something and immediately called her. "Hun."

Swoosh

Hun immediately emerged from the Sun Stone and asked him. "What do you need from me, Master?"

"How is your condition?"

"My condition is getting better after I rested a lot inside the Sun Stone." Hun replied with a smile. "Do you need my help, Master?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao pointed out the void. "I need the documents hidden under that table, but there's someone powerful watching me, so I can't move freely. I need you to help me retrieve them, and you can come back here immediately afterward."

Hun looked in that direction and nodded at him. "You can send me out now, and I will go get the documents right away, Master."

After Tang Xiao opened a small gap, Hun immediately shot out from inside. In a few moments, she had retrieved the documents without causing any significant damage, and she hurried back into the void, handing them to him. "Thank you, Hun."

"There's no need for any thanks between us, right?"

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed and nodded to her. "You can go back into the Sun Stone now, Hun."

"If you need my help again, don't hesitate to call me, Master." Hun hurriedly entered the Sun Stone to continue her recovery.

Tang Xiao left the Shen House and returned to Wang Fuxi's place. "Didn't she detect Hun's actions just now?"

Tang Xiao ignored Wang Fuxi and hurried back to the Ouyang house, especially since Xiao Ai told him that Lin Yan would be there soon.

Wang Fuxi raised her eyebrows for a moment. "What was that presence I just sensed? I just detected movement inside the house, but I couldn't see its exact form."

Wang Fuxi decided to stand up and leave the place, but she continued to use her senses to monitor the house's design in case Tang Xiao infiltrated the Shen Family house while she was gone.

Wang Fuxi looked for Tang Yuan's whereabouts, and she found her in her apartment, so she immediately went there to meet her.

Within a few minutes, Wang Fuxi had arrived at Tang Yun's apartment, and she entered there like any other person through the front door.

Tang Yuan was shocked when she opened the door, and she saw Wang Fuxi standing there. "What are you doing here, Big Sis?"

"Let's talk inside." Tang Yuan nodded and led Wang Fuxi into her apartment. "Tell me, does Tang Xiao have the space element?"

"Why do you ask that, Big Sis?" Tang Yuan asked in confusion.

Wang Fuxi explained to Tang Yuan about something she detected in the Shen family house. "Tell me the truth."

- To Be Continued -

Chapter 213: Lin Yan's Sorrow

"You're wrong about that, Big Sis." Tang Yuan denied Wang Fuxi with a shake of her head. "Xiao'er does not possess the space element, but he does have the fire and wind elements."

Wang Fuxi did not simply believe Tang Yuan, especially since she was sure Tang Xiao used the space element to infiltrate the Shen House. "Are you not lying to me?"

"Why would I lie to you, Big Sis?" Tang Yuan shook her head in response. "If you don't believe me, you can ask Feng Yao directly because he used both elements when he visited us."

Wang Fuxi spent some time observing Tang Yuan's expression, trying to find out whether she was lying to her or not. "I'm going back to the Shen House."

Tang Yuan breathed a sigh of relief after Wang Fuxi left, and she immediately closed the door before sitting on the empty sofa, thinking about what her senior would do to Tang Xiao.

Tang Yuan wanted to enter the ark to look for Tang Xiao and discuss the matter, but she canceled her intention, as she was sure her seniors were watching her and looking after her nephew. "Sigh! Has Xiao'er done something to the Shen House? He couldn't possibly kill them in broad daylight like this, right?"

Ring

Tang Yuan raised an eyebrow and took out her smartphone, reading a message from Tang Xiao. He told her not to worry about Wang Fuxi because he wouldn't use violence against the Shen Family, and he would use other means to destroy them, which made her feel relieved with his decision. "What is Xiao'er planning for them? Is he really not going to kill them like the other families?"

Tang Yuan put her smartphone on the table, got up, took off all her clothes, and went to take a shower. She hoped that Wang Fuxi and Tang Xiao would not meet any time soon, which would be very dangerous for her nephew.

Wang Fuxi had returned to the house across from the Shen Family house, and she sat there, thinking about the events that had happened earlier.

Wang Fuxi didn't sense Tang Xiao's qi from within the Shen Family mansion, but she still couldn't shake the strange feeling she felt when she detected the faint presence of Hun from within. "Was my guess wrong? Was what I felt earlier not his presence but someone else's? Where is he hiding now?"

Wang Fuxi turned her head in another direction, specifically towards the Ouyang Family house. However, she didn't check the house because the family was under Long Yin's protection, and she would only be asking for trouble if she did that.

Wang Fuxi returned her gaze to the Shen Family house, and she tried to check inside using her senses, especially the room where she had detected the presence of the Hun before. However, she didn't find anything strange in the room, and there wasn't any damage inside, which made her wonder about the identity of the person who broke into the room.

Tang Xiao was back in his room at the Ouyang House, reading the documents he stole from the Shen Family house. He clenched his fists tightly, especially when he read some of the details about their plans against his late father. "So, the whole incident was Shen Tianhu's idea, huh? He gave those people the idea, but they couldn't execute it themselves, so they asked Ouyang Hong for help. In the past, my father treated them well, but they were so greedy, and they worked together to kill him."

"Master." Xiao Ai appeared in Tang Xiao's room. "I'll take care of everything for you, so you can hand over the documents to me."

Tang Xiao closed those documents and handed them to her. "Have you done anything to Shen Tianhu's wealth?"

"Hehehe." Xiao Ai giggled at that. "Master, you don't have to worry about that because I have already transferred all of Shen Tianhu's money to a fictitious account, and I have arranged for his company's stock price to fall to a rock bottom. Once the stock price reaches its lowest point, I will buy all of his shares using Tianmei's name, and his company will be completely ours. By the way, Lin Yan has almost arrived at this house, so I will go back into the ark."

"Yes." After Xiao Ai entered the ark, Tang Xiao stood beside his bedroom window, waiting for Lin Yan to come to see him.

A few minutes later, Tang Xiao saw Lin Yan arrive at the Ouyang House, and she immediately ran to her room, banging on the door loudly.

Tang Xiao opened the door for her, but Lin Yan hugged him and cried as hard as she could. He smirked slightly as he listened to her cries, and he hugged her back, but he didn't say anything to her.

'Heh! You are lucky because I can't kill you today, but you will die after your husband divorces you.' Tang Xiao took Lin Yan to sit on the bed, and he let her cry first to mourn her sadness. 'I can't wait for that day to come, and you will be shocked once you find out my true identity.'

After she cried for a long time, Lin Yan wiped her tears and pushed Tang Xia to lie down on the bed. "What should I do now? My husband found out about my affair with you, and he's decided to divorce me."

"Huh? How did your husband find out about our relationship?" Tang Xiao asked, feigning surprise.

Lin Yan explained everything to Tang Xiao, including the time her husband's lawyer came to her house with divorce documents that included photos of them having sex. "I've contacted him to explain everything, but he deliberately turned off his number, and he took our son away to another city."

"I didn't expect the situation to be this complicated, and I also didn't expect that your husband would come home last night." Tang Xiao pretended to be sad. "What are you going to do now? Are you going to look for your husband and son?"

"I don't know what to do now, and I've already signed the divorce papers, even though I don't want to divorce him. His lawyer is handling our divorce, and he informed me that the process will conclude next month." Lin Yan laid her head on Tang Xia's chest. "I regret bringing you to my house, and my husband found out about my affair with you because of it. If only I hadn't done that, he would never have found out about our relationship, and he would never have divorced me."

'Heh! Even though we don't do it at your house, I can lure your husband to come to the location where we are sleeping together.' Tang Xiao then asked Lin Yan. "What are your plans now? Your only chance to defend yourself is during the divorce trial, but your efforts will likely be in vain because your husband has evidence of our affair, and the court will believe him more with that evidence."

Lin Yan remained silent and hugged Tang Xiao tighter, but her tears began to flow again because she did not want to divorce her husband, fearing that she would lose her son as a result.

Tang Xiao laid Lin Yan down on the bed, hugged her, and channeled his qi into her body. "Your mind is tired now, so you should rest now, and we'll think of a solution together after you wake up."

Lin Yan closed her eyes and snuggled closer to Tang Xiao's chest, feeling the comfort from the flow of his qi into her body. It didn't take long for her to finally fall asleep in his arms, and he quickly released her before sitting up in bed.

Tang Xiao looked at Lin Yan with hatred in his eyes, and he couldn't wait to end her life after the false testimony she gave in court seven years ago, which resulted in him spending seven years in a cold prison cell.

'A month! I'll have to wait until next month, and then you can join Luo Qinlin in the afterlife.' Tang Xiao let out a soft sigh to calm himself and started cultivating again.

Three hours later.

Tang Xiao opened his eyes and stopped cultivating. He walked to the window, looking at Yin An and Ouyang Qing, who had just arrived at the Ouyang House.

Yin An and Ouyang Qing both looked toward Tang Xiao's room, but neither of them dared to go to his room, and they hurriedly returned to their own rooms.

Tang Xiao took out his smartphone, and the first message that came in came from Yi An, asking him to go to her room tonight if her husband still wasn't home. Not long after, he got a message from Ouyang Qing, but she didn't ask him to go to her room because she wanted to sleep after the long journey, and she only asked how he was when she left.

As he was on his way to Yi An's bedroom, Tang Xiao saw Ouyang Ming sitting in the living room daydreaming, thinking about Su Rou, who had been away for a few days to accompany Ouyang Hong. 'The Love Sickness Potion made him crazy about that woman, and he didn't know she was having fun with his father.'

Tang Xiao ignored Ouyang Ming and went straight to Yi An's bedroom, surprising her. He immediately hugged her, kissed her lips, and pushed her back inside.

Chapter 214: Tang Yin's Training

Time passed quickly, and night finally fell.

Yi An curled up in Tang Xiao's arms with a contented smile on her exhausted face, and she told him about the day she had spent with her daughter in another city yesterday. "What did you do while my daughter and I were gone yesterday?"

"Nothing much." Tang Xiao told Yi An about his activities over the past two days, which were just casual stories and not the real story. "Has your husband contacted you? When will he return to this house?"

Yi An nodded to Tang Xiao, but her expression showed that she was unwilling for her husband to return home, especially since she couldn't spend time with him. "My husband called me this morning, and he said that he would come home tomorrow night. I don't want him to come back, but this house is his, so he has to come back here."

"Do you hope he doesn't come home because you want to be with me?" Yi An pursed her lips as she looked up at Tang Xiao, who immediately kissed her. "I want to be with you every day, but he is still your legal husband."

Yi An laid her head on Tang Xiao's chest. "Do you really want to be with an old woman like that? Aren't you afraid I'll grow much older and wrinkled?"

"Why do you ask such a thing?" Tang Xiao hugged Yin An tightly. "No matter how old you are, I will always accompany you. Therefore, you don't have to worry about that, okay?"

Yi An fell into contemplation, thinking about Tang Xiao's words. She wanted to be with him forever, even though their relationship still felt strange to her, mainly because he was Xiang Xing's husband. She hated her husband because he cheated on her with many women, but she herself cheated on him with another man, and she slept with him too often, which put her at a crossroads.

"You don't have to think so complicatedly about our relationship, okay?" Tang Xiao lifted Yi An's head and kissed her. "For now, we just need to enjoy our time together, and you can find a solution to divorce your husband."

"Sigh." Yi An sighed heavily and laid her head on Tang Xiao's chest again. "I'm not sure I can divorce my husband, and he'll destroy our family if I file for divorce. I want to be with you forever, but I don't know when that can happen."

Tang Xiao sighed in his heart. "It's okay, Yi'er. For now, we need to be patient and wait for the right time, and our relationship will find its way out someday. We will never be apart again after that, and we will always be together."

"Uhm." Yi An hurriedly shifted to the side. "I'm exhausted now, and I want to sleep soon. You should leave this bedroom immediately, or my children will see you and report your presence to my husband, especially my son."

"Alright." Tang Xiao quickly got out of bed and got dressed before leaving the bedroom.

Yi An lay on the bed without covering her naked body, thinking about her relationship with Tang Xiao. "Can we really be together in the future? I really like him, and I want to be with him until I die, but I'm not sure that my wish can come true."

Yi An let out a soft sigh, closed her eyes, and tried to sleep.

Tang Xiao did not leave the house, but he went to the room of Ouyang Qing, who was still fast asleep on her bed. He first made sure that Yian wouldn't wake up until tomorrow morning, and he climbed into bed after confirming it.

Ouyang Qing opened her sleepy eyes when Tang Xiao climbed onto her bed, and she smiled with joy when she saw him smiling at her. "You've finally come; I've been waiting for you for a long time."

Tang Xiao opened the blanket covering Ouyang Qing's body, and he smiled in amusement after finding her sleeping naked. "Do you intend to seduce me with your naked body, Qing'er?"

"Haha." Ouyang Qing laughed awkwardly as she shyly nodded at Tang Xiao. "We couldn't have sex yesterday because my mom took me out of town, so I want to have sex with you now."

'This woman always thinks about sex after we've had it a few times.' Tang Xiao hurriedly took off his clothes, making Ouyang Qing blush when she saw his naked body.

A few moments later, Ouyang Qing's moans began to be heard in the room, and her moans became louder as Tang Xiao's cock penetrated her and pumped her body.

Meanwhile, Lin Yan had woken up from her sleep, but she was disappointed because she couldn't find Tang Xiao by her side.

Lin Yan wanted to look for Tang Xiao in Ouyang Qing's room, but she knew that the main door was locked at night. She dropped her plans and sat on the side of the bed, thinking about her future plans.

Lin Yan took her smartphone from her bag and tried calling her husband again, but his number was inactive.

Since Tang Xiao was with Ouyang Qing, and she knew they wouldn't be finished anytime soon, Lin Yan decided to leave his bedroom. She left the Ouyang House and went elsewhere, seeking peace and contemplating her divorce from her husband.

Meanwhile, Tang Huan and Mu Qingge sat together while watching Tang Yin fight the Xiantian-level beasts, and she didn't hesitate to use her darkness element to fight them.

Since this was Tang Yin's first time fighting beasts, and she had never experienced a real battle before, her combat skills were still mediocre.

Even so, Tang Huang and Mu Qingge could see that Tang Yin was holding the upper hand over those beasts, and all their attacks couldn't hit her, especially since she repeatedly restricted their movements with her parasitic souls.

Tang Yin summoned the grim reaper to kill the beasts she had defeated, making Tang Huang gape at his granddaughter's actions. After the beasts died, she cut open their heads and looked for their beast cores, but she didn't get anything because not all the beasts had produced their cores.

After that, Tang Yin moved to another area to continue hunting for beasts, making Tang Huang really proud of her. "Yin'er has never had a real fight before, and she is really excited to fight those beasts."

"Yes." Mu Qingge nodded in agreement. "However, Yin'er's fighting style is still rough, so she needs to continue honing her fighting skills, and this place is the most suitable for her. She doesn't need to hold back as long as her enemies are those beasts, and she can use them to improve her fighting abilities."

"Hahaha." Tang Huan laughed upon hearing that. "Unfortunately, many evil cultivators often roam this place, so we must always protect her, or she will be in trouble if she encounters them."

"Everything takes time and requires a process, but fortunately, Yin'er already has an excellent foundation in weapons. If she is a complete beginner, then we must absolutely protect her while she trains in this place." Mu Qingge turned to Tang Huan. "Big Sis Lingyan told me about Wang Fuxi, and she seemed to be looking for Tang Xiao, especially since he had already killed so many mortals."

Tang Huang was not the least bit worried about his grandson. "Wang Fuxi is indeed a powerful cultivator, and her cultivation is almost equal to or perhaps already equal to Long Yin, which makes her the second strongest cultivator on Earth II. However, Xiao'er is not a reckless person, and he knows when to advance and when to retreat, so I am not worried if the two of them meet someday. I am sure he can evade her pursuit, especially since he has the ark and Xiao Ai, who always help him."

"I think the same as you." Mu Qingge nodded her head in response. "Tang Xiao possesses the void element that no one else possesses, so I'm sure he can evade Wang Fuxi's pursuit easily. However, he can't escape her forever, and he will have to face her someday."

Tang Huang nodded in agreement with Mu Qingge. "Xiao'er may have to avoid Wang Fuxi for now, but I'm sure he can face her someday, and he will defeat her then. At that time, I will witness with my own eyes how he beats her ass, and he will become the second cultivator after he defeats her."

"Unfortunately, Tang Xiao still has an enemy that is much more formidable than Wang Fuxi, and Long Yin's strength is much higher than hers." Tang Huang could only sigh when he heard Mu Qingge's statement, but he remained confident that his grandson would eventually defeat both of them. "Uncle Huang, you should ask Yin'er to stop, especially since it's already midnight."

"Alright." Tang Huang stood up and moved towards Tang Yin's location, but his granddaughter was reluctant to stop, and she still wanted to fight those beasts. "I understand your desire to become strong and help Xiao'er, but you've been hunting beasts for a long time, so you should rest and recover your qi."

"I understand, Grandpa." Tang Yin stored her weapon and canceled all her summons. "Tomorrow, I want to practice against these beasts again because I want to help Xiao'er fight our enemies, so I have to catch up to him and improve my combat abilities, or I won't be able to help him fight them."

Chapter 215: Xue Bai

Tang Xiao hugged Ouyang Qing, who had fallen asleep due to exhaustion. He checked his bedroom, but he didn't find Lin Yan there. 'Where is that woman now, Xiao Ai?'

[Master, Lin Yan has decided to go to the beach to calm down. She tried calling her husband several times, but his number was no longer active. Do you want to meet her?]

'No.' Tang Xiao carefully shifted Ouyang Qing so that she wouldn't wake up. 'Leave Lin Yan alone for now, and she will come back after she calms herself down. My cultivation will soon break through to the Upper Xiantian Level so I want to cultivate in my room.'

After getting dressed, Tang Xiao hurriedly left Ouyang Qing's bedroom and passed Ouyang Ming's bedroom, where he saw him masturbating while imagining Su Rou.

'Hahaha!' Tang Xiao laughed happily, mainly because Ouyang Ming couldn't think of anything but sex with Su Rou, which was because of the effect of the Love Sickness Potion. 'That potion does have a terrible effect if given to an ordinary human like him, and he will constantly think about her until he dies.'

Tang Xiao returned to his bedroom, sat cross-legged on his bed, and began cultivating because his cultivation was about to break through.

In the morning, Yi An decided to leave the Ouyang House after she finished her breakfast, but she didn't ask Tang Xiao to drive her, and she went out by herself.

Tang Xiao naturally learned of Yi An's departure and asked Xiao Ai to monitor her movements, including her destination. He did not leave his room, and he continued his cultivation because the qi he needed to break through to the Upper Rank Xiantian Level was only a little bit left.

Moreover, Ouyang Qing was still fast asleep in her room after they had sex in the middle of the night, and she wouldn't wake up soon.

Lin Yan also did not return to the Ouyang House, and she decided to return to her own house after she spent some time at the beach. She continued to try to contact her husband because she did not want a divorce from him, but the result was the same because her husband's phone number had changed to a new one.

Ouyang Ming waited alone on the porch, and he daydreamed about some things, hoping that Su Rou would return soon.

In front of the Shen Family house, Wang Fuxi patiently waited for Tang Xiao to arrive, but she felt disappointed because he had not shown up since yesterday, leading her to suspect that Tang Yuan had warned him against coming.

Wang Fuxi did not give up, and she continued to wait for Tang Xiao to appear at the Shen Family house.

Bai Lianzhi came to see Wang Fuxi and reported some things to her, but she asked her to leave to attend to other matters.

Wang Fuxi released a soft sigh. "Where is Tang Xiao now? Does he not dare to show up because I'm here?"

In Earth II, Tang Huang, Mu Qingge, and Tang Yin continued their journey to the Sun Clan, especially since the clan was still far from their current location.

In a place quite far from their location, Tantai Lingyan walked into an old house to meet someone there. She spent quite some time with the person discussing several things, including the Xiao and Sun Clans.

After Tang Xiao's clone finished cultivating, Feng Shen brought him back to Mingwu City, and they went straight to the building that sold various types of tamed beasts.

Tang Xiao's clone saw various tamed beasts there, and several of them caught his interest, especially after Xiao Ai displayed their status. He wanted to contact Tang Yin and Xing Xing, asking them if they wanted to have beast contracts.

However, Feng Shen reminded Tang Xiao's clone that he couldn't choose suitable beast contracts for his two wives and that they had to come in person to choose them, so he abandoned his plan.

Tang Xiao's clone looked around at all the tamed beasts available, but none of them really caught his attention, mainly because their abilities were too ordinary.

[Master, look to your right.] Tang Xiao's clone raised an eyebrow and looked at the beast Xiao Ai mentioned, but the beast didn't catch his attention because its body was small and weak, and it was a snow leopard with fur as white as snow and two small wings. [Hehehe! You should not underestimate that little beast, Master. Its body is indeed small and weak now because it was likely separated from its parents, and it was captured by beast hunters to be sold. However, you must remember that I can improve its condition with all the equipment in the ark, and it will become an extraordinary beast in the future.]

'Show me the beast's status, Xiao Ai.'

[Wait a minute, Master.]

Feng Shen turned towards the beast that Tang Xiao's clone was looking at. "Are you interested in that beast? It's a snow leopard, and it can reach Heaven rank when it's fully grown."

"Yes." Tang Xiao's clone approached the beast and crouched in front of it. "This snow leopard is beautiful, but the owner of this place hasn't taken good care of it, and it also lacks proper nutrition."

The snow leopard stared at Tang Xiao with its blue eyes, and it roared at him. Even though its body was small and weak, it did not show the slightest fear, and it continued to stare at him.

Tang Xiao's clone tried to touch its head, but the snow leopard immediately avoided his hand. "Don't be afraid of me, okay? I won't hurt you, let alone torture you. If you want, I can buy you from this merchant, and I will set you free afterwards. I know what it's like to lose our parents, especially because both of my parents were killed by evil people in front of my eyes. I won't force you to follow me, and you can return to your parents later."

The snow leopard looked at Tang Xiao's clone for some time before walking over to him, and it no longer roared at him. It lowered its head, allowing him to rub its head.

Tang Xiao's clone smiled and rubbed the snow leopard's head, enjoying the softness of its snow-soft fur. "I'll buy you now, and you can go back to your parents after that."

"Roar." The snow leopard roared before shaking its head.

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao's clone raised an eyebrow. "Do you want to go back to your parents?"

Instead, the snow leopard shed tears from its blue eyes, making Tang Xiao's clone realize something.

"Does that mean your parents are no longer in this world?" The snow leopard nodded at Tang Xiao's clone. "Alright, I'll buy you now, and I'll take you home with me."

"Roar."

Tang Xiao's clone smiled at the snow leopard before turning to Feng Shen. "Senior Feng, please help me buy this beast, and I will replace your gold coins later."

"You don't need to replace my gold coins." Feng Shen went to pay for the snow leopard, which was surprisingly inexpensive at only one hundred gold coins.

After Feng Shen paid, the merchant released the snow leopard and handed it over to Tang Xiao's clone. After they got the beast, they left the place and went to their next destination.

Feng Shen handed him a medallion. "This is an Interspatial Beast Medallion, and you can put this snow leopard inside to rest. However, you'll need to form a contract with it first, and I do not possess one."

"Thank you, Senior Feng." Tang Xiao's clone received the medallion, but he had no intention of putting the snow leopard in there. "Do you have a name?"

The snow leopard shook its head before roaring. "Roar."

"Hmm?" Feng Shen looked at the beast. "I can't guess the age of this beast, but it seems to have understood your words."

"Haha." Tang Xiao's clone chuckled as he rubbed the snow leopard's head. "Senior Feng, this beast is a female, and it is already 18 years old. Unfortunately, the merchant treated it badly, and he rarely fed it, making it small and weak like this."

Feng Shen nodded in understanding and rubbed the snow leopard's head. "The merchant was foolish to treat this beast badly, but it's your good fortune. If only he had treated it better, you wouldn't have met it. I heard you talking earlier, and you both share the same fate. You have to improve its nutrition, and it will be a partner who will fight by your side in the future."

"Yeah." Tang Xiao's clone directly spoke to the snow leopard. "Since you don't have a name, I will name you Xue Bai. Do you like that name?"

The snow leopard pondered for a moment before nodding at him. "Roar."

"Hahaha." Tang Xiao's clone laughed and rubbed the snow leopard's head. "From now on, your name will be Xue Bai, and you will be my contracted beast."

The snow leopard curled up in Tang Xiao's clone's arms before falling asleep, and he sent the beast into the ark, asking Xiao Ai to improve its condition.

Feng Shen was still surprised to see that, but he didn't ask anything as long as Tang Xiao's clone didn't tell him, and he led him into the auction house.

Chapter 216: Auction House

In the laboratory, Xiao Ai has placed Xue Bai in a capsule and started the process to restore her condition, especially because she lacks nutrition.

Mu Yan walked into the laboratory, but she was surprised to see Xue Bai in the capsule. "Eh? Where did this beast come from?"

"Xue Bai is my master's beast contract, which he purchased in Mingwu City."

Although she had never been to Mingwu City, as a native of Earth II, Mu Yan had naturally heard of it. "What are Xue Bai's abilities?"

"Xue Bai has many good abilities, and one of them is that she can control snowstorms." Xiao Ai displayed the abilities of the snow leopard beast so Mu Yan could read everything herself.

Mu Yan was really curious about Xue Bai's abilities, and she looked at the screen and read them one by one. "Wow! Her abilities are amazing! Big brother is truly lucky to have her! Unfortunately, her cultivation is still at the foundation level, so she is not yet strong enough to help him."

"Haha." Xiao Ai showed Mu Yan some pills she took from the treasure vault. "These pills are the Beast Body Tempering and the Beast Talent Pill, which are beneficial for Xue Bai. Additionally, I will give her some other pills, and she will become strong quickly to help my master."

"Sometimes I feel that big brother is cheating, especially since he has this ark and you." Mu Yan then turned to leave. "I will continue my cultivation now, or I will fall behind big brother again, and I don't want that to happen."

Xiao Ai looked at Mu Yan with a smile, and she really liked her current mindset, especially since she had become diligent with her cultivation.

Xiao Ai walked to the side of the capsule with the device in her hand. "Xue Bai, I will help you become a strong beast, and you can help my master in future battles, especially when he faces that evil creature."

At the auction house, cultivators began to arrive and fill the area, especially after they saw the list of items up for auction today.

In one of the VIP rooms, Tang Xiao's clone watched the cultivators who had begun to arrive while listening to Feng Shen explain their identities.

Since his cultivation was still very low, Tang Xiao's clone wouldn't have been allocated a VIP room, but fortunately, he came to the auction together with Feng Shen.

"I didn't expect you to come here, Old Shen." Feng Shen and Tang Xiao's clone looked at the fat old man who had just walked into their room. "Oh? Have you finally taken a disciple? How come no one has heard anything about it?"

"Haha." Feng Shen laughed at that. "Wu Ming isn't my disciple, Old Xuan. Someone asked me to help him train, so here I am now. I happened to know today's auction schedule, so I brought him here to have a look."

"Hmm?" Old Xuan looked at Tang Xiao's clone. "Wu Ming means 'no name', right?"

Feng Shen nodded to him. "He didn't want his name to be known to anyone to protect himself, so he decided to use an alias."

"I see." Old Xuan nodded in understanding. "He's not bad; he's still young, but his cultivation is already close to breaking through to the Upper Xiantian Realm. So, who is his master?"

'Not bad, your ass! You couldn't even reach his level at his age! Moreover, he hasn't cultivated for long, but he has already reached this stage.' Feng Shen answered him directly. "Old Xuan, you don't need to be so curious, okay? If I tell you his master's name, it's useless for him to use a pseudonym, and you will definitely find out his identity."

"Hahaha." Old Xuan laughed at that before turning to leave. "Alright, you two can enjoy your time at my auction house, and the auction will begin after those people arrive."

Feng Shen turned to Tang Xiao's clone. "You must be careful of that fat old man because he is like a wolf in sheep's clothing, and I have never met anyone greedier than him. He will use any means, even dirty ones, to get what he wants. If he finds out that you have something valuable, he will send his men to snatch it from you."

"Yes." Tang Xiao's clone looked at the old man status, which Xiao Ai displayed for him. "That old man's cultivation has already reached the Middle Tyrant Level, which means he is stronger than my grandfather and master."

"Hahaha." Feng Shen laughed and embraced his shoulders. "Did you sense anything from him other than his high cultivation?"

"What do you mean by that, Senior Feng?"

Feng Shen pointed at the fat old man. "Try to observe his body carefully, and you will find something strange about his cultivation."

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao's clone carried out his orders, but he couldn't feel anything strange about the old man.

[Master, the fat old man's cultivation foundation is unstable because he used pills to increase his cultivation. He shouldn't have reached that stage yet, but he forced himself to break through to that stage, probably because he is the owner of this auction house, and he needs the strength to protect his assets.]

'Oh?' Tang Xiao's clone raised his eyebrows. 'What level should that old man's cultivation be at?'

[Master, his cultivation should still be at the Emperor Level if he hadn't used those pills. If he forces himself to take those pills again, I'm one hundred percent certain that his cultivation veins will rupture, and he'll be a cripple for the rest of his life.]

'That old man is that reckless, huh?' Tang Xiao's clone turned to Feng Shend and answered his previous question, making him nod in satisfaction. "Why would he go to such lengths to use pills to increase his cultivation?"

Feng Shen pointed around the auction house. "Old Xuan loves money more than himself, so he's willing to take shortcuts to improve his cultivation. If his current cultivation isn't at that level, he won't be able to maintain this auction house, and others will snatch all the items he auctions. This place is different from the outside world, and you must have strength to survive here. If you don't have strength, others will look down on you and oppress you."

"I see." Tang Xiao's clone nodded in understanding. "However, that old man took too great a risk by using those pills to improve his cultivation, which made it extremely unstable. He might be able to scare others with his current cultivation, but he won't be able to scare powerful cultivators like Long Yin and Wang Fuxi. If he is careless and forces himself, his cultivation will be crippled, and those people will seize everything and even kill him."

"Hahaha." Feng Shen reminded Tang Xiao's clone. "You must always remember that cultivation is a step-by-step path, and we need a truly solid foundation before breaking through to a higher stage. You will never be able to reach a higher stage that quickly without making sacrifices, but all shortcuts have risks, and the worst risk is that our cultivation will be crippled. If that happens, you will be a useless person for the rest of your life. Therefore, you must think everything through carefully every time you make a decision, and you must not make a foolish decision like that old man."

Tang Xiao's clone shook his head. "I am indeed impatient to become strong because I want to defeat Long Yin and Wang Fuxi, but I will never be so crazy as to take shortcuts, and I will build my strength step by step."

"It's good that you have that mindset, and you must maintain it forever." Tang Xiao's clone nodded to Feng Shen, who pointed at the group of people who had just arrived. "They are people from the Zhang Clan, and their leaders are Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan. They are in-laws of the Sun Clan, mainly because Zhang Xingcai is Old Sun's daughter-in-law."

"Oh?" Tang Xiao's clone looked at the two old people leading the people from the Zhang Clan. "So, they are Sun Xiang's maternal grandparents, huh?"

"Oh! That's right! I just remembered you asked your master to talk to Zhang Xingcai about her daughter." Feng Shen immediately stood up and walked to the balcony. "Old Zhang! Old Chen! You two should join me!"

Zhang Fei glanced up before laughing. "Hahaha! I didn't expect to see you here, Old Feng."

"What are you doing here, Old Feng?" Chen Xinyan asked. "You don't usually appear in public, but you're here now."

"Come here and join me." Feng Shen signaled to them with his hand. "Let your son and daughter-in-law lead your clan members."

Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan seemed curious about Feng Shen's wishes, and they spoke with their son and daughter-in-law before going to his room. Meanwhile, their son and daughter-in-law led the other members of the Zhang Clan to the VIP room that had been reserved for them.

Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan were shocked when they saw that Feng Shen wasn't alone, but he was accompanied by Tang Xiao's clone. "Who is this young man? Is he your disciple?"

"No." Feng Shen informed them of Tang Xiao's clone's true identity through voice transmission, which shocked Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan. "You two don't need to call him by his real name, and you can call him Wu Ming. Additionally, he is interested in your granddaughter, Sun Xiang."

Chapter 217: The Huang Clan

Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan were shocked to hear that, and they observed Tang Xiao's clone seriously. "Are you really that lazy old man's grandson and that brute woman's disciple? Didn't your late father forbid them from teaching you cultivation?"

"Eh?" Tang Xiao's clone wasn't surprised to hear them say Tantai Lingyan was a brute woman, but he was confused to hear them say his grandfather was a lazy man.

"Hahaha." Feng Shen laughed seeing Tang Xiao's clone's reaction. "Everyone on Earth II knows that your grandfather was a slacker; otherwise, his cultivation would have been higher than it is now, and his clan would have long been a first-grade clan."

Tang Xiao's clone scratched the back of his head because he didn't know his grandfather's life. "I am indeed that old man's grandson, and that woman is my master in several paths, especially martial arts. However, they did not teach me about cultivation; I learned about it from my master, who is no longer in this world."

"Eh? Is your master really dead?"

"Yes." Although Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan were Sun Xiang's grandparents and his grandfather's friends, Tang Xiao's clone couldn't possibly tell them his secrets. "My master died after he saved me from death after I fell into that ravine."

"Oh?" Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan were surprised to hear that. "Weren't you in prison for several years? How did you fall into that ravine?"

"Long story short, the people who framed me in the past sent many people to kill me when I was almost free, and I fell into that ravine while I was fighting them." Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan nodded in understanding to Tang Xiao's clone. "Fortunately, my late master saved me from there, but I almost died because they shot me in the chest, and he brought me back to life at the cost of his own life."

Zhang Fei grabbed his shoulder. "If your late parents weren't stubborn and forbade your grandfather from teaching you about cultivation, you would never have experienced something like that, kid."

"That's right." Chen Xinyan nodded and spoke to him. "You are talented in cultivation, and your cultivation has reached this stage in such a short time. If your deceased parents had allowed your grandfather to teach you about cultivation, your cultivation might have reached such a high level by now."

"There are no ifs in our lives, Seniors." Tang Xiao's clone sighed softly. "Even though I had to experience all those bad events, I was never disappointed by my late parents' decision to forbid my grandfather from teaching me about cultivation. Moreover, I have already killed several of those families, and I only need to kill two more families to avenge the deaths of my parents."

Zhang Fei spoke to him again. "Kid, I don't mind if you kill people, especially since they killed your parents and destroyed your family. However, you must always be careful every time you act against those ordinary humans, understand?"

"If Wang Fuxi finds out about all your actions toward those ordinary humans, she will hunt you down to kill you, and your clan will lose its main heir." Chen Xinyan said.

"Haha." Tang Xiao's clone laughed bitterly upon hearing that. "Wang Fuxi already knows that I killed those people, and she's been watching the house of one of those families to capture me."

"As expected." Zhang Fei replied with a shake of his head. "Wang Fuxi is the second strongest cultivator after Long Yin, but she always busies herself with those ordinary people, and she always protects them from people like us."

Chen Xinyan asked him. "Have you met Wang Fuxi before?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao's clone nodded at her. "However, I used a disguise technique to conceal my identity, so Wang Fuxi was unaware of my location. She had asked my aunt where I was, but she didn't tell her, and she pretended not to know."

"I see." Chen Xinyan nodded in understanding. "Your aunt is not a stupid woman, and she should know what she should do to protect you from Wang Fuxi. However, you won't be able to hide forever from her, and she will find out your location someday. If that happens, you should not fight with her, and you should run as far away from her as possible."

Zhang Fei spoke to him again. "Wang Fuxi may look harmless from the outside, but she will not hesitate to kill you because you have killed many ordinary people. Therefore, you should avoid that woman and don't try to fight with her with your current cultivation, or you will die in vain in her hands."

"Yes." Tang Xia nodded to them. "My master and Senior Feng have already warned me about Wang Fuxi, so I won't be so crazy as to fight her, at least with my current cultivation. However, I won't be afraid of her if my cultivation is on par with hers, and I will destroy the last of the family when I can face their protector, Long Yin."

Zhang Fei was taken aback upon hearing that, mainly because Long Yin was the strongest cultivator on Earth II. He also had many powerful cultivators within the Long Clan, but he could see that Tang Xiao's clone was already determined to face him.

Chen Xinyan could also see the determination on Tang Xiao's clone's face, indicating that he wanted to face Long Yin in the future, but she was unsure how to respond since his opponent was the strongest cultivator on Earth II. Even old cultivators of her and her husband's caliber didn't dare to face him, let alone a young cultivator like him.

"I don't know where your confidence in facing Long Yin comes from, but you must be careful if you want to face him in the future. He is the strongest cultivator in this place for a reason, and he can kill you easily with his current strength, so you should not mess with him when your cultivation hasn't reached his level." Tang Xiao's clone did not take Chen Xinyan's warning lightly, and he nodded seriously to her. "So, how do you know Xiang'er?"

Tang Xiao's clone smiled awkwardly at Chen Xinyan's question, but he explained to them about his relationship with Sun Xiang. "For now, our relationship is not that close, but I like her, and I seriously want to marry her."

"You are a bold young man, don't you think?" Chen Xinyan asked with a smile. "Do you have a wife yet?"

"This—" They suddenly heard a loud noise from outside, and they looked towards the entrance of the auction house. "Which clan are those people from?"

"The Huang Clan." Tang Xiao's clone was surprised to hear that, and Feng Shen pointed at the man and the woman leading people from that clan. "They are Huang Xiaotian and Huang Xianyu, and the two people behind them are their disciples."

Huang Xianyu has a smooth, mature, and calm face. Her black eyes were deep and slightly sparkling, showing her seriousness. There was a small red mark on her forehead, shaped like a flame. Her figure was well-shaped, not too thin or bulky, but she was short. She wore a white outfit that had a low neckline, exposing her large breasts with deep cleavage. Her deep black hair was styled partly into a high bun at the back.

Huang Xianyu looked up to the second floor after she sensed Tang Xiao's clone's gaze at her, and she was a little surprised to see the three senior cultivators by his side. However, she ignored him and followed her brother, and they walked toward the second floor.

It just so happened that their room was next to Tang Xiao's clone's room, and Huang Xiaotian immediately went out to the balcony. "Old Zhang! Old Chen! I didn't expect our rooms to be next to each other, but what brought you here, Old Feng?"

"Haha." Feng Shen laughed upon hearing that. "Huang Xiaotian, should I tell you about my reason for coming here?"

Huang Xiaotian shook his head in response. "Anyone interested in the items up for auction is welcome to attend today's auction. It's just that you never appear in public, so I was really surprised by your presence here."

"I don't really like showing myself in public, but I heard there were some good items at this auction, so I decided to attend today's auction." Feng Shen casually answered.

"I see." Huang Xiaotian glanced at Tang Xiao's clone for a moment, but he snorted softly and ignored him before asking Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan. "Did you two come with him? Why are you three in the same room?"

'This Huang Xiaotian is truly arrogant.' Tang Xiao's clone thought to himself as he watched the people from another clan who had just arrived.

"Haha." Zhang Fei laughed upon hearing that. "Xiaotian, my wife and I have a good relationship with Old Feng, so I brought her here to meet him for a talk."

On the other hand, Chen Xinyan didn't glance at or answer Huang Xiaotian; instead, she spoke to Tang Xiao's clone via voice transmission. 'You have to be careful with that man, Xiao'er. He looks respectable on the outside, but he's very rotten on the inside.'

'I understand, Senior.' Tang Xiao's clone answered seriously as he stole a glance at Huang Xiaotian.

"Let's have a fair fight for those items." Huang Xiaotian immediately rushed back into his room, sitting beside his sister. "Do you really want to get that item?"

- To Be Continued -

Chapter 218: First Grade Clans

Huang Xianyu nodded slightly. "No matter how much it costs, I have to get that item because I need it to concoct my pills. Without that ingredient, my pills will not be perfect, and their effects will be diminished."

Huang Xiaotian looked towards the exit on the first floor. "For now, we just have to wait and hope that the people from the Feng Clan won't come to the auction this time, or you'll have to compete with them for that item."

Huang Xianyu released a heavy sigh. "I'm sure that not only the Feng Clan is interested in that item, but people from other clans also want to get it, so the competition this time will be tough."

"Yeah." Huang Xiaotian turned to the next room. 'That brat's cultivation is still low, but somehow, I feel there's something else about him. Additionally, I felt something from inside his body, but I can't confirm it.'

"Huang Xiaotian and Huang Xianyu seem to be targeting something in this auction." Feng Shen turned to his two friends. "Do you two know anything about that?"

Zhang Fei let out a soft sigh. "Old Feng, you know this auction house only shares important information with some clans like your Feng Clan, so I have no information about the items they're after. If you're curious, you can contact people from your clan, and you'll get information about it."

Feng Shen contacted someone from the Feng Clan, but he didn't get a response right away, so he decided to wait until that person answered him.

"So, do you have a wife?" Chen Xinyan asked Tang Xiao's clone again.

Tang Xiao's clone rubbed the back of his head and showed the number two with his other hand. "Senior, I already have two wives, and Sun Xiang knows them."

"Huh?" Chen Xinyan looked at him in astonishment because she knew that in the outside world one couldn't have more than one wife. "How can you have two wives out there? How far has your relationship with Xiang'er progressed?"

"This." Tang Xiao's clone felt confused about how to explain his situation to her, particularly regarding her relationship with Tang Yin. "Senior, I don't know how to explain it to you, but I am legally married to both of my wives. As for my relationship with Sun Xiang, we have kissed several times, but our relationship has not developed further."

Chen Xinyan was shocked to learn that Tang Xiao's clone and Sun Xiang had kissed frequently, but she was unaware that he had forcefully kissed her granddaughter, who never reciprocated.

"Hahaha! If my granddaughter doesn't like you, she won't let you kiss her, let alone kiss her multiple times." Zhang Fei laughed and patted him on the shoulder. "I don't have a problem if my granddaughter marries a man with multiple wives as long as he loves her, especially because I have two wives. However, her mother is different from me, and she will reject you if she finds out that you already have two wives."

"Even though my husband has two wives, our relationship is as close as sisters." Chen Xinyan sighed softly as she remembered her daughter. "However, Xingcai is a conservative woman, and she wouldn't like you if she knew about your relationship. Her husband passed away long ago, but she has no desire to remarry, and she prefers to live a life of solitude for the rest of her life."

Tang Xiao's clone was curious about Zhang Xingcai because he didn't have any information about her, and he asked his master to talk to her about her relationship with Sun Xiang. "I think I should go to the Sun Clan to talk to her."

"Yes." Chen Xinyan nodded. "You are a man, so you have to be responsible for your choices. If you like my granddaughter, you should go to the Sun Clan and talk to her mother, and you must try hard to convince her to accept you."

Tang Xiao's clone nodded to her. "I won't be going to the Sun Clan anytime soon, and I'll focus on training for now. Besides, Sun Xiang hasn't really accepted me yet, and I still have to convince her to accept me. I'll convince her to accept me first, and I'll go see her mother after she accepts me."

"I think that's the best choice." Chen Xinyan took his hand. "Xiang'er is a good girl, Xiao'er. I don't mind if you already have two wives, but I hope you will always treat all your wives fairly, and you won't disappoint her after she accepts you."

"I will treat all my wives well, senior." Tang Xiao's clone answered with a nod.

Once again, they heard a commotion from the first floor because several cultivators came at the same time, and they looked there to find out who the newcomers were.

Tang Xiao's clone raised an eyebrow as he looked at them. "Who are the people who just arrived?"

"The two people at the front are my nephew and his wife, Feng Xiaofang and Yan Huoling, and they are both Feng Yao's parents." Feng Shen said.

Tang Xiao's clone was surprised to hear this information from Feng Shen. "They are truly powerful! Their cultivation is at the Upper Tyrant Level, so they are one stage below Long Yin."

Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan looked at him in surprise, especially since cultivators at his level would not be able to detect cultivators several levels above him. "Are you really able to detect their cultivation?"

'Haha.' Tang Xiao's clone laughed bitterly inwardly before nodding. "I know that cultivators at my level won't be able to detect their high cultivation, but I have a special ability inherited from my late master, and I can detect their cultivation without any hindrance."

"I see." Zhang Fei nodded in understanding before speaking. "I don't know the identity of your late master, but he has passed down a great ability to you. As long as you can detect the cultivation levels of cultivators who are significantly stronger than you, this ability will be useful for avoiding enemies that are much more powerful."

Chen Xinyan warned him. "You should not carelessly tell others about your techniques, do you understand? Such techniques can arouse the jealousy of other cultivators, and not all cultivators have pure hearts. If they learn your techniques, they will capture you and force you to hand them over to them."

"I understand, Senior." Tang Xiao's clone nodded seriously, but he saw Yan Huoling pointing at him while speaking to her husband.

Feng Xiaofang looked at Tang Xiao's clone and nodded to Feng Shen, but he immediately led his wife and clan members to the second floor to go to the VIP room reserved for them.

Zhang Fei pointed to the next group. "They are the people of the Liu Clan, led by Liu Xun and Liu Xing. The two women walking beside them are their wives, Lian Yunqi and Qiu Hongmei. The young man behind Old Xun is Liu Ming, and the young girl behind Old Xing is Liu Jiayi."

"I see." Tang Xiao's clone nodded in understanding, and he read their statuses on the system screen after Xiao Ai displayed them for him. 'Liu Xun's cultivation is at the Upper Tyrant Level, and Liu Ming's cultivation is at the Middle Tyrant Level, on par with their two wives. Meanwhile, Liu Ming's cultivation is at the Peak King Realm, and Liu Jiayi's cultivation is at the Upper King Realm.'

Liu Xun and Liu Xing were surprised to see Feng Shen's presence with Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan, but they didn't say anything and went straight to the VIP room provided by the auction house.

Meanwhile, Liu Ming glanced at Tang Xiao's clone, nodded to him, and hurried to follow his parents. Liu Jiayi also looked at him, and she raised an eyebrow slightly after sensing something from his body, but she said nothing and followed the others.

"They are people from the Wang Clan." Tang Xiao's clone looked at the four people pointed at by Chen Xinyan. "Wang Jishan became their patriarch because Wang Fuxi didn't want to bother with their clan's affairs, and she was more focused on protecting those ordinary people. The woman next to him was Liu Yixian, and the two men behind them were their sons, Wang Dong'er and Wang Yun'er."

Wang Jishan and the others didn't spare a glance at the VIP guests who had already arrived, and they hurriedly went to their VIP room.

Tang Xiao's clone read their statuses immediately after Xiao Ai displayed them, but he was slightly surprised to find that Wang Jishan's cultivation was only at the Lower Tyrant Level. Meanwhile, Liu Yixian's cultivation was a level higher than her husband's, at the Middle Tyrant Level. As for their two sons, they have the same cultivation level, at the Peak King Realm. 'These guys are truly powerful, so I have to improve myself as quickly as possible.'

[Master, you must quickly conquer Mu Qingge's heart, and you can dual cultivate with her, which will make your cultivation increase significantly.]

Tang Xiao's clone smiled bitterly upon hearing this, and he wanted to marry Mu Qingge. However, he knew that she wasn't fully ready for that, and he still needed to help her heal the old wounds in her heart.

Tang Xiao's clone's attention was drawn to the two women who had just arrived. Almost everyone in the auction house, especially the men, had their eyes fixed on them. "Who are those two women?"

Chapter 219: The Xue Clan

Chen Xinyan told Tang Xiao. "The woman in front is the matriarch of the Xue Clan, Xue Jing. The woman beside her is Xue Lan, and she always helps her take care of their clan."

"Oh?" Tang Xiao's clone was curious about the two women.

Xue Jing's face was a little pale, but she looked beautiful and mature. Unfortunately, her expression was cold, making her look aloof. Her eyes were a little big, but they both looked glazed, with gray pupils. Her long snow-white hair flows down her back and shoulders, partly tied with simple ornaments. Her figure looked feminine, tall, and plump, with skin pale from the cold, large breasts, a narrow waist, and long legs. She wore a white-colored dress with small red decorations, which hugged her body tightly and touched her large breasts.

Xue Lan was no less beautiful than Xue Jing, and her hair was as white as snow, making her quite attractive. However, her expression was too stiff and too serious, making her difficult to approach. She has two sharp, narrow eyes with light brown pupils. Her figure was smaller and slimmer than her cousin's, but she was much bolder in wearing a revealing white dress that showcased her massive breasts and her white, smooth skin.

Xue Lan and Xue Jing, who felt Tang Xiao's clone's gaze, immediately looked up at him. They were a little surprised when they sensed a familiar aura from him, but they didn't say anything and turned their attention, climbing the stairs to the VIP room opposite.

'Show me their status, Xiao Ai.'

[Wait.]

Tang Xiao's clone was shocked after seeing the two women's cultivation, especially Xue Jing's. 'She is truly powerful! She's on the same level as Wang Fuxi and Long Yin, but they haven't broken through to the Saint Realm, and her cousin is almost as strong as her.'

[Hehehe! They will never break through to the Saint Level as long as they stay here because the Qi in this world is too thin, and it won't be sufficient to help them break through, Master. If they want to break through to that level, they will have to go to another cultivation realm. Unfortunately, they don't know about the existence of other realms, so they will never be able to reach that stage.]

Tang Xiao's clone was surprised to hear that. 'No wonder Long Yin and Wang Fuxi never managed to break through to the Saint Level, even though they had long broken through to the peak. Does that mean cultivation in this world will remain stuck at that level forever?'

[Master, the only way to help them break through is to increase the quality and quantity of qi in Earth, and I can do that with all the equipment inside the Primordial Divine Ark. However, I'm sure you won't do that, right?]

'I'm not a villain, but I'm not a saint either. These people won't necessarily help me if I'm in trouble, and they'll bite me like mad dogs if they know the things in my possession, so I won't do anything to help them.' Xiao Ai felt that Tang Xiao's clone's character had become different from her dead master, which was due to his bad experiences in the past seven years. 'If I've become strong, and I've succeeded in defeating Long Ying, I will bring all the people who have kindness towards me and my family to another realm to continue their cultivation.'

[I understand, Master.]

'Do you feel that, cousin?' Xue Lan whispered.

Xue Jing nodded slightly. 'I felt the aura of the snow leopard from him.'

'Do you think he was the one who kidnapped the snow leopard?'

'No.' Xue Jing shook her head. 'Don't you recognize the man beside him? That man is Feng Shen, so I'm sure he didn't do that. Moreover, there are many places selling shady goods here, and he probably bought the snow leopard from one of them.'

Xue Lan nodded in understanding. 'Those damn cultivators continue to hunt the snow leopard, which makes its population almost extinct. Shall we go meet him after this auction ends? We have to get the snow leopard in his hands back, and we will return it to its habitat.'

'Sigh.' Xue Jing let out a soft sigh. 'We will meet him later, but we can't force him to return the snow leopard. After all, he is related to Feng Shen, and he is probably his disciple since they both possess the wind element.'

'Okay! We will meet him and talk to him after this auction is over.' The two women entered their VIP room, which happened to be across from Tang Xiao's clone's VIP room.

Tang Xiao's clone raised an eyebrow at Xue Lan's constant glances, and Feng Shen immediately teased him. "Hey, Kid! That woman seems interested in you; otherwise, she wouldn't be staring at you all the time."

"Haha." Tang Xiao's clone responded with a laugh. "Senior Feng, that woman isn't interested in me, but she's curious about something about me, and I suspect it's about the snow leopard."

"Oh?" Feng Shen was surprised.

"Did you buy a snow leopard at that shop, Xiao'er?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao's clone nodded to Chen Xinyan. "Before we both went here, we stopped by that shop, and I bought a snow leopard from there."

Chen Xinyan nodded in understanding. "Snow leopard beasts are sacred beasts to the Xue Clan, and they try to protect them from extinction. However, they can't possibly stand guard twenty-four hours a day, and the beasts are scattered everywhere in the northern mountains. Many cultivators try to hunt them because the adults are valuable, and their body parts can be used for various purposes, which has almost driven the species to extinction. If I remember correctly, there are only a few left there, and they will become extinct if the hunter cultivators continue to hunt them."

"I see." Tang Xiao's clone nodded in understanding. "The snow leopard I bought was in bad condition, and the seller didn't seem to treat her well. I bought her because she was beautiful and charming, and I heard that she had special abilities, especially because she had two wings."

"What?" Chen Xinyan and Zhang Fei screamed in shock. "Is that true? Does the snow leopard you bought have two wings?"

Tang Xiao's clone turned to them in confusion. "Is there a difference between winged and wingless snow leopards? The female snow leopard I bought before had wings, but her body was weak, and her wings were small."

"Haish." Zhang Fei turned to Feng Shen. "Why don't you tell this kid the truth?"

"What's the truth? I don't know the difference between winged and wingless snow leopards." Feng Shen answered, shaking his head.

"Sigh." Chen Xinyan sighed helplessly and spoke to Tang Xiao's clone. "The wingless snow leopards are very rare, but the winged ones are even rarer."

"Are the winged snow leopards that rare?" Tang Xiao's clone asked in confusion, especially since he still didn't understand the beasts.

"Yes." Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan shouted at him. "The winged snow leopard in your hands is probably the last of her breed."

Tang Xiao's clone was stunned after hearing that. 'Is Xue Bai's race really that rare, Xiao Ai?'

[Master, I don't have an answer for you, mainly because I don't belong to this era. If you want to know the answer, I can ask Xue Bai about it later. She is sleeping soundly now that I have fixed her body condition, and I don't want to disturb her rest.]

'Alright, you can ask Xue Bai that later after she wakes up.'

"Xiao'er, you must not bring out the winged snow leopard, especially in front of Xue Jing and Xue Lan." Chen Xinyan warned him.

Zhang Fei also spoke to him. "If they find out you have the winged snow leopard, they will demand it back. If you don't hand it over to them, they will become your enemies, and Old Feng won't be able to protect you from them."

"Haha." Feng Shen laughed at that. "Old Zhang, you look down on me too much. Xue Jing is indeed powerful, and her strength is on par with Long Yin and Wang Fuxi, but I'm confident I can escape from her. If she wants to kill this kid, I'll take him with me, and she won't be able to catch us."

"Yes... Yes... I believe in you! You are the wind god, and your speed is the fastest." Zhang Fei said these words mockingly, but he immediately frowned when he looked at the entrance. "The people from the Xiao and Song Clans came together."

"Look." Chen Xinyan pointed to the group that had just arrived. "They are people from the Jiang Clan."

Tang Xiao's clone didn't pay attention to the people from the Song Clan, but he seriously paid attention to the people from the Xiao and Jiang Clans. The former tries to capture him, and the latter tries to kill Mu Ling. "Which are Xiao Luo and Jiang Bai?"

"That old man is Xiao Luo, and the old man behind him is Jiang Bai." Feng Shen pointed to the two old men.

Chapter 220: Old Man Xia

Xiao Luo and Jiang Bai noticed Tang Xiao's clone's gaze on them, but he had already prepared to avoid their attention by using a disguise technique, so the two didn't recognize him. They were a little shocked by the presence of Feng Shen, Zhang Fei, and Chen Xinyan with him, but they ignored them and led the members of their two clans to their VIP rooms, which were on the floor opposite his.

The Song Clan patriarch led his clan members to the VIP room, which had been prepared for them. The old man looked towards Tang Xiao's clone's room, mainly because of the presence of Feng Shen, Zhang Fei, and Chen Xinyan.

Tang Xiao's clone's attention was focused on Xiao Luo, thinking of ways to deal with him, especially since he ordered Xiao Hua to capture him. 'That old man and Jiang Bai's cultivation are at the Lower Tyrant Level, and I can't possibly fight either of them with my current cultivation, so I must quickly increase my strength so I can defeat them.'

"Kid." Feng Shen grabbed his shoulder. "You shouldn't do it rashly because they are backed by the Xie Clan, and you will die if you fight them now."

Tang Xiao's clone nodded to him. "I won't fight the two of them now, but I will face them in the future, and I will kill them all with my hands."

"Do you have any problems with them?" Tang Xiao's clone explained the Mu House incident and several other matters to Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan, including Xiao Luo's action of sending Xiao Hua to capture him. However, he didn't tell them that Xiao Hua and Xiao Meng were already in his and Tang Yin's control, and he would use them to attack their clan in the future. "Those crazy bastards! How dare they attack Old Mu!"

Chen Xinyan spoke. "We've long known about the relationship between the Jiang and Xie Clans, but we don't have any evidence of the Xiao Clan's involvement with that heretic clan. We must meet with Old Sun later to discuss the issues regarding the two clans, and we will devise several plans to take them down as soon as possible."

"You two don't need to think about that, Seniors." Tang Xiao's clone informed them of something else. "My grandfather and master are on their way to the Sun Clan, and they will arrive in two days. They will discuss the Xiao and Jiang Clans with Senior Sun, but I'm not sure he can take action against those two clans. If he attacks those two clans, I'm sure the Xie Clan will attack him and his clan. I heard that the heretic clan is powerful, so we should not look for trouble with them directly, and we should use other means to get rid of those two clans."

"What do you mean by using other means?"

"We have to use insiders from the Xiao and Jiang clans, and we will destroy them from the inside." Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan agreed with Tang Xiao's clone, but the problem was that the main members of the two clans rarely left their clans, so his method was difficult to use. "We don't need to act hastily against them, and we will search for opportunities to infiltrate their two clans. The most important thing is that we already know that both clans have ties to that heretical clan, and we will think of the best way to get rid of them."

Zhang Fei nodded in agreement. "I really can't wait to destroy those heretical clans, and Earth II will be peaceful without them all."

"Husband, we both need to return to the VIP room for our clans because the auction is almost starting." Chen Xinyan looked at Tang Xiao's clone. "When you're ready, you must go to the Sun Clan to talk to Xingcai about your relationship with Xiang'er, and I hope you can convince our daughter to accept your relationship."

Tang Xiao's clone nodded at her. "Don't worry, Senior. After I finish my training, I'll go to the Sun Clan to meet Sun Xiang's mother, and I'll convince her to accept our relationship."

"Good." Zhang Fei and Chen Xinyan left the room and went to their clan's VIP room.

Tang Xiao's clone and Feng Shen sat down in their seats, but the people present on the first floor suddenly became noisy again, especially due to the arrival of a male cultivator. "Oh? I didn't expect him to come here himself."

"Who was that old man, Senior Feng?"

"Old Man Tian." Tang Xiao's clone tried to recall the name in his mind, but Feng Shen immediately spoke again. "He said he had a vision that the barrier between Earth and Earth II was broken by someone, and his words briefly made the situation here hectic as all the cultivators tried to find that person, including Long Yin. Unfortunately, he didn't know the person's identity for sure because the person's face was blurred, so everyone searched blindly. Moreover, he had had several visions in the past, but none of them came true, so I think they were too foolish to believe his words."

Tang Xiao's clone was shocked to hear that someone could break the barrier between Earth and Earth II, but he also didn't believe it because he knew the barrier that separated the two places was too strong. If a cultivator managed to break it, then that person clearly didn't come from Earth because the strength of cultivators on Earth wasn't that high, and they couldn't possibly break that barrier.

Old Man Xia glanced at the VIP rooms above, looking for someone. However, he didn't find the person he was looking for, and he hurriedly sat down on the first floor with the other cultivators. 'Was my vision wrong again? I'm sure the man who will destroy the barrier is coming to this auction, but I can't find him here.'

Not long after that, a woman appeared on stage and gave some welcoming words to the cultivators who were already present there, especially those who occupied the VIP rooms on the second floor.

After giving some welcoming words, the woman immediately began the auction, but the guests seated in the VIP rooms did not join in, mainly because the items offered at the beginning of the auction did not catch their attention.

.br/>.

Tang Xiao, who was cultivating in his room, immediately stopped when someone knocked on his door. He quickly got out of bed and opened the door for Lin Yan, who had just arrived. "I thought you wouldn't come here because you're still sad about your divorce from your husband."

"Don't mention that matter." Lin Yan hurriedly went into the room and lay down on the bed, while Tang Xiao closed the door. "Has Ouyang Qing not woken up from her sleep yet?"

"Qing'er is really exhausted after having sex with me from midnight until dawn, so she won't wake up until later tonight." Tang Xiao suddenly heard the sound of a car driving in, so he peeked out of his bedroom window, finding Ouyang Hong and Su Rou back early. 'Did something happen, Xiao Ai?'

[Hehehe! While you were busy cultivating earlier, I already duplicated all the documents you took from the Shen Family House, and I handed them over to the authorities. Therefore, the police came to the house, and they arrested Shen Tianhu for questioning. However, he contacted Ouyang Hong, so the two of them went home early. By the way, Wang Fuxi has already left the front of Shen's house and followed him to the police station to find out information about him, so I think you can go there to do something about Yang Mi and Shen Xiang.]

Tang Xiao didn't immediately decide and think about whether he should act on Yang Mi and Shen Xiang, mainly because he was worried that Wang Fuxi was still monitoring the Shen House using her senses. If she were watching the house with her senses, she would know his actions toward them, and she would come straight to him.

Tang Xiao was confident in his speed to enter the ark if that happened, but he didn't dare underestimate Wang Fuxi because he lacked sufficient information about her, particularly regarding her speed.

"Feng Xiao." Tang Xiao woke up from his daydream and turned to Lin Yan, who had already taken off her clothes but left her bra and panties on. "Help me forget my problems by having sex."

Tang Xiao sat by Lin Yan's side. "If you want me to help you forget your problem through sex, you need to wake my cock first."

"Humph." Lin Yan snorted slightly and took off her bra, followed by her panties. "Don't you feel aroused seeing me naked like this?"

Tang Xiao pointed to his pants. "See? I admit you're sexy, but my cock won't wake up even if you're naked in front of me, so you have to wake it up first."

'Two days ago, he got a boner when I was naked in front of him, but his cock is still asleep now.' Lin Yan pulled Tang Xiao to lie on the bed, and she hurriedly pulled down his shorts along with his boxers, revealing his sleeping cock. She held his sleeping cock, devoured it, and gave him a blowjob straight away. 'Even though his cock is not yet erected, my mouth is full of it. Compared to my husband's cock, it's more satisfying when his cock pounds my pussy.'
