Chapter 31: Xing Xing

Yao Shao and his two guards were shocked when they looked around the area, as they found themselves in an unusual prison that was very different from what they were accustomed to seeing.

"You!"

"You what? Are you aware of your situation now? Do you think your family can find this place?" Tang Xiao summoned the Atropos Glory and turned it into a scarlet dagger, and he twirled it around in front of them. "I'll show you something before you die, and you'll be surprised."

Tang Xiao returned to his original form, which caused Yao Shao to be so shocked that his eyes widened and he stuttered. "You... you... how can you still be alive? You should have died in that ravine!"

"God doesn't want me to die yet, and he sent me back from hell to destroy all of you." Tang Xiao then pressed his dagger into Yao Shao's dick, causing it to bleed slightly. "Twenty years ago, Yao Wei and his friends did something inhumane to my mother, which made her decide to commit suicide. Your mother, Xiang Ning, and your aunt, Yao Wenhua, were also there to witness their ruffian actions. Seven years ago, you and some of your friends intended to violate my big sister under Ouyang Qing's orders. Actually, I don't have plans to mess with you yet, but you came at me yourself. Therefore, I will start taking revenge on all my enemies, starting with you. Don't worry, you won't feel lonely in the afterlife, as your family and friends will follow you soon."

"Argh!" Yao Shao released a shrill scream as Tang Xiao suddenly castrated his dick, and his blood splattered profusely on the floor. However, he didn't stop there; he also burned the area around his dick. "Argh! Please! Stop it! It's too painful!"

Hearing their boss's screams, the two bodyguards could only stare at Tang Xiao in horror, as losing his dick was no different from losing his life.

Tang Xiao's expression didn't show any remorse after he did such a thing, and Yao Shao almost fainted from the excruciating pain. However, a device suddenly came down from the ceiling and stabbed his back, which made him recover quickly. "You devil!"

"Heh!" Tang Xiao snorted and grabbed Yao Shao's fingers. "For the sake of my revenge and the safety of the people around me, I am willing to become a devil."

"Argh!" Once again, Yao Shao screamed in agony as soon as Tang Xiao broke his fingers, but the device on his back made him recover quickly, and his eyes filled with tears because of the pain. "Devil! Kill me now!"

"Why should I kill you?" Tang Xiao asked with a faint grin, and he glanced at the two bodyguards, causing them to break a cold sweat thinking about his plans for them. "Your punishment hasn't finished yet."

Yao Shao's painful screams continued to echo in the prison, and his body was quickly covered in various kinds of wounds; even his blood soaked his body and the floor. Moreover, every time he was helpless and almost fainted, the device on his back continued to restore his condition, and Tang Xiao kept punishing him endlessly.

The two bodyguards' faces were already deathly pale at seeing and listening to their boss being tortured continuously; both of them even wet their pants, imagining that Tang Xiao would torture them that brutally.

Yao Shao continued to stare at Tang Xiao with anger, fear, and regret. After all, he was the young master of a highly respected family, and he always did as he pleased, nor was he ever afraid of the law. But now he kicked the iron plate, and he became his prisoner in an unfamiliar place, and he felt he had no chance of escaping from it.

"Where is your arrogance from earlier?" Tang Xiao asked with an evil smirk on his face. "Do you know that you are just trash? During this time, you have always relied on your family to cause trouble and evil everywhere, but they could never find you in this place, let alone save your pathetic life."

Swish

The prison door suddenly opened, and Xiao Ai walked in before handing three pills to Tang Xiao, but she just shook her head at Yao Shao's miserable condition.

"How long does this pill take to take effect, Xiao Ai?"

"Master, they are ordinary people, and these two pills have an extraordinary impact on cultivators. Therefore, their effects won't disappear before they die."

Tang Xiao smiled with satisfaction after hearing that, but Yao Shao and the two bodyguards trembled with fear, as they did not understand the effects of the two pills.

"Master, I'll go first."

After Xiao Ai left, Tang Xiao approached the two bodyguards. "Hey, Yao Shao! You have to bear the consequences of your past deeds, and you also have to bear the sins of your father, so I will let these two men violate you now."

"No! Don't do that!" Yao Shao shouted loudly at him, but Tang Xiao couldn't care less about him, and he forced the two bodyguards to swallow the pills.

Afterwards, Tang Xiao released the two bodyguards, but he restricted their movements with his cultivation, and he waited for the pill's effects to take effect before leaving them.

Yao Shao's expression was filled with horror as he saw the two men's eyes turn bloodshot, and a strange red aura enveloped their bodies; even their dicks were fully erect. Saliva dripped from their mouths, and they continued to stare at Yao Sheng like predators ready to pounce on their prey.

"Damn! Where did Xiao Ai's old master get these pills from? The effects of the pills are fast and terrifying." Tang Xiao muttered after seeing the two bodyguards turn like lustful beasts, and he then turned to leave. "Enjoy your last time to the fullest."

"Stop! Don't come any closer!" Yao Shao screamed in panic when the two bodyguards approached him because they no longer looked like humans, but they really looked like lustful beasts, and they immediately pounced on him. "No!"

After he left the prison, Tang Xiao found Tang Yin was still busy with the production of her products, and he transformed into Feng Xiao before leaving the primordial divine ark.

"Hmm? I want to find a gift for big sis." Tang Xiao searched for a quiet place, used Void Dragon Steps to leave quickly, and soon arrived at an empty area near the shopping center; however, he immediately vomited a little. "Damn it! I'm still not used to that technique, so I have to quickly get used to it, or the pressure in the void will continue to make me dizzy and nauseous."

Tang Xiao then walked to the shopping center, and he passed by a repair shop nearby, where he saw a young woman at his age helping an old man who was repairing a motorcycle.

Even though the young woman's appearance looked shabby and her body was covered in oil, the woman looked cheerful. Her elliptical face is quite pretty, with her brunette hair tied in a bun and a lock of her front hair covering her face. Her eyes look beautiful with black pupils decorated by two thick eyebrows; her nose is slightly sharp like a foreigner's, and her thick lips look sensual in red lipstick.

The woman was wearing sleeveless workshop clothes made of jeans, so Tang Xiao could see her B-cup breasts covered by a black bra, and both looked firm. However, he was more captivated by her tan skin, which he found very exotic because most Chinese people have white skin. She was quite tall, around 180 cm, and her body was well-proportioned with beautiful curves.

"Hmm? Why do I feel like I know that woman? Where have I seen her before?" Tang Xiao then accessed the government's database to look for her data, and he was able to find her personal data quite easily. "Eh? I didn't realize that she was Xing Xing, and she's my former schoolmate from elementary to high school. No wonder I'm familiar with her, but she's much different after seven years have passed, so I can't recognize her. Even though she works in a place like that, she never loses her cheerfulness, and she is still as serious as ever about doing everything."

Tang Xiao wanted to leave the place, but he suddenly heard the old man ask Xing Xing. "Are you still thinking about that man, Xing'er?"

"Eh?" The old man's question surprised Xing Xing. "Which man are you referring to, Grandpa Chen?"

Grandpa Chen turned to her. "Who else could it be but Tang Xiao? Have you ever thought about any other man besides him? You've often talked about him to me since you were little, remember?"

"You're right, I do still think about Tang Xiao." Xing Xing sighed heavily, and her expression turned sad. "Unfortunately, his life was too short, and he is no longer in this world, which happened because of those evil women."

"Are you sure that he is dead?" Xing Xing raised her eyebrows after hearing that, and Grandpa Chen spoke to her again. "The news did say that Tang Xiao fell into the ravine, but they couldn't find his body there, so I think he might still be alive now."

Once again, Xing Xing sighed heavily and spoke in a sad tone. "I always harbored hope that Tang Xiao was still alive, but that seemed impossible. The news said that the ravine was too deep, so they were having trouble finding his body."

"Is Tang Xiao still in your heart?" Xing Xing nodded to Grandpa Chen. "I didn't expect that you loved him so much, Xing'er. Seven years ago, when you heard that he was accused of forcibly violating several women, you vehemently argued that he couldn't possibly do something like that."

Xing Xing smiled bitterly after hearing that. "Tang Xiao was always kind and friendly, and he saved me from people who tried to attack me in the past. If it weren't for him, my life would have been ruined by now. That's why I would never believe that he could do such a thing to them, and I'm sure they plotted to frame him back then. Moreover, Luo Qinlin was infatuated with him, but he repeatedly rejected her."

Grandpa Chen then asked her again. "If you love Tang Xiao so much, why have you never approached him? Why do you keep your feelings to yourself?"

Chapter 32: Xing Xing's Mother

Xing Xing shook her head at Grandpa Chen. "Back then, my parents were poor, and our condition got worse after my father died in a work accident. Since then, my mother has worked hard to pay for my education, so I would rather not disappoint her, and such a thing would disturb my school. Moreover, Tang Xiao liked another girl at that time, and she was one of the prettiest girls in our school, so I didn't have the confidence to get closer to him."

"Hmm?" Grandpa Chen rubbed his forehead in thought. "I remember you telling me about that girl a long time ago, and her name was Jessica, right?"

"Yes." Xing Xing nodded to him. "Even though they were never lovers, their relationship was so good and close, and they mostly spent their time together discussing lessons. However, I never imagined that Jessica would betray her relationship with Tang Xiao, and she was one of the women who framed him seven years ago."

Grandpa Chen released a heavy sigh after hearing that; he remembered that Xing Xing was deeply saddened by the news of Tang Xiao's accident because she cared for him so much. "What are your plans for the future? Are you going to continue like this?"

"What do you mean by your question, Grandpa Chen?"

Grandpa Chen put down his tools and stood up, and he then grabbed Xing Xing's shoulders. "I've known you since you were little, and I always considered you to be my own granddaughter, so I want to see you happy. Honestly, I hope that Tang Xiao is still alive now, so you can meet him again and pursue your happiness by being with him. Unfortunately, the chance seems small, so I think you should learn to forget him, and you can move on with your life. After all, you are a grown woman now, so it's time for you to think about your future, and you can try to open your heart to accept other men."

"I know you said it was for my own good, but I don't want to think about men for now." Xing Xing decisively turned down his idea. "My mother has been seriously ill for the past two years, and I have to take care of her, so I don't have time to think about romantic matters."

"What did the doctor say after he checked Lingxi's condition yesterday?"

Xing Xing became even more sad because of that. "The doctor said that my mother's condition was getting worse, and she needed more intensive treatment. However, it was very expensive, and my savings wouldn't be enough for that, so I thought about finding a better job to pay for her medical expenses."

"In that case, you can wait here; I will take out my savings, and you can use it to pay for Lingxi's medical expenses.

"No!" Xing Xing exclaimed while grabbing his hand, and she shook her head firmly. "You've helped us too much over the past few years, and I don't want to continue burdening you, so you don't have to do it anymore. Moreover, you're already this old, and your children gave the money to you, so it would be better if you closed this repair shop and enjoyed your old age."

"Hahaha." Instead, Grandpa Chen laughed at that before patting her head. "You are indeed a good girl, and I want you to be my granddaughter, but it's a pity that I don't have a grandson. As for this repair shop, I opened it to spend my free time. I'll never close it, or I'll die of boredom."

"You're really stubborn!" Suddenly, Xing Xing's cell phone rang. She hurriedly picked it up and spoke with the caller for some time. "Grandpa Chen, my friend just came back from another city, and she asked me to meet. I have to go home now to get ready, and I'll go see her after."

"All right, go home now, and you must tell me if you need my help with Lingxi's treatment."

"No! I already said I wouldn't burden you anymore, and I would look for another job to pay for my mother's treatment." Xing Xing hurriedly packed her personal belongings before running out. "Grandpa Chen! I'll help you again tomorrow!"

Grandpa Chen could only sigh while watching Xing Xing leave. "She said that I was stubborn, but she herself was much more stubborn than me."

After Xing Xing left the repair shop, Tang Xiao decided to follow her, especially after he eavesdropped on their conversation. However, he never expected that she liked him so much, and she even knew so much about him.

After some time, they arrived at a remote place outside the city, and Tang Xiao saw Xing Xing entering a slum area. The place was rundown and filled with delinquents, some of whom were heavily drunk, and some of whom were on drugs.

It was just a small matter for Tang Xiao, and he used his true eyes to find the location of Xing Xing's house. He found out that her house was too small with only one bedroom, and she had to share a room with her mother; even some parts of the house looked damaged.

Tang Xiao used his dragon void steps to reach the top of Xing Xing's house, where he gulped hard upon seeing her naked and immediately deactivated his true eyes. "Sigh! Her living conditions were truly miserable, and her mother was seriously ill."

[Are you interested in her, Master? Do you want to do something for her?] Xiao Ai asked him in a teasing tone.

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed when he heard that, as Xiao Ai's main chip was integrated with his brain, so she could know his thoughts. "Xing Xing is quite pretty, and she also has cultivator veins, right? However, my relationship with her in the past wasn't that close, but she was indeed a kind-hearted woman, and people liked her very much. Since she always believes that I am innocent, I will do something for her, starting with healing her mother."

[Chu Lingxi's illness wasn't that serious, and she got sick like that due to too much stress and exhaustion when she was young, as she had to fight hard to raise her daughter. If her condition continues to decline like this, she will eventually die; therefore, you must bring her here, and I will restore her health.]

"I will bring Aunt Lingxi to you after Xing Xing leaves." Tang Xiao thought about doing something else for her, but he dropped the idea because it was too unusual, and she would definitely be in deep shock.

[Master, I think you can do something else for Xing Xing without shocking her.]

"What's your idea?"

[Hehe, the mistress will soon establish her company, so I will provide Xing Xing's information to her, and she can invite Xing Xing to work there. That way, you can see her often, and you can get close to her.]

"Your idea is indeed excellent! Tell my big sister about this and ask her to take care of it."

[All right, I will inform the mistress directly.]

Sometime later, Xing Xing was dressed neatly, but she looked a little tomboyish in a white t-shirt combined with mini jeans and a black beanie covering her head. "Mom, I'm going to see my friend first, and I want to ask her about job vacancies, but I'll be back soon to accompany you."

After Xing Xing left, Tang Xiao immediately sneaked into the house. Although Chu Lingxi looked sickly and haggard, none of that dimmed her natural beauty. She has long and straight black hair, an egg-shaped mature face, and exotic tan skin. She had long eyebrows, a sharp nose, and lips with a gentle curve.

Tang Xiao then let out a soft sigh seeing her condition, and he lifted Chu Lingxi before carrying her into the ark.

Upon their arrival at the lab, Tang Xiao placed Chu Lingxi in one of the capsules, and Xiao Ai began to treat her. Apart from recovering her condition, she also strengthened her body, and she would not be susceptible to any diseases.

At first, Xiao Ai wanted to help her absorb qi so Chu Lingxi would become a beginner cultivator, and it would be quite beneficial for her.

However, Tang Xiao rejected Xiao Ai's idea, especially since the life of a cultivator was not easy, and he did not know whether Chu Lingxi would be able to face such a life.

Half an hour later, Xiao Ai had finished everything, so Tang Xiao immediately sent Chu Lingxi back and put her to bed again. "Aunt Lingxi, you are a great mother, and you have raised an excellent daughter. From now on, Xing Xing no longer needs to worry about you, and you two will have a better life in the future."

After that, Tang Xiao immediately left the house, and he went back to the shopping center to look for a gift for Tang Yin.

In a study, a short and fat middle-aged man was in a panic after he couldn't contact his son, and he tried to contact several of his son's friends. However, none of them knew his son's whereabouts, so he ordered his subordinates to look for him. "What exactly happened to Shao'er? Where did he actually go? Even his two bodyguards couldn't be contacted."

The man was none other than Yao Wei, the head of the Yao family. He left the study to look for his wife, and he found her in the backyard, tidying up her small plants. "Do you know where my son went, Meng Xin?"

Chapter 33: Meng Xin

Although Meng Xin was already in her early forties, she was no less beautiful than women in their late twenties or early thirties, and her heart-shaped face looked youthful without any wrinkles. She has dark brown, short hair cut into a bob. Her eyes are crystal clear with brown pupils decorated with thin but straight eyebrows. She has a straight but slender nose, and her full lips look charming in red lipstick. Her figure is quite tall and slender like a model, and she looks graceful in a purple one-step dress with breasts that are not too big but not small either.

Meng Xin turned to Yao Wei, but her eyes looked like they were loathing him. "Do you think your son will tell me where he went? You know your son's behavior toward me, and he never considered me to be his mother."

"You know that Shao'er loves Xiang Ning very much, and he can't accept you as his stepmother yet. I'm sure he will be able to accept you someday, so I hope you can be patient with him." After he said that, Yao Wei wanted to hug her.

However, Meng Xin pushed Yao Wei away, causing him to almost fall backwards, and she shouted at him with tremendous anger. "Patience? We've been married for five years, but he never appreciates all my efforts! He repeatedly abused me, like what he did to that bitch! Yet you always blame me whenever I complain about his behavior! As for you, you never consider my feelings at all, and you don't even want to have a child with me. I'm completely fed up with all of this, and I truly regret my decision to marry you."

After she vented her anger, Meng Xin ran into the house to get her car keys, and she immediately left the house, causing Yao Wei to feel helpless.

Tap... Tap...

"Sir, we've found the young master's car, but we cannot find the young master or his two bodyguards anywhere." An old man in butler clothes respectfully said.

"Where did they find his car?" Yao Wei asked with a frown.

"Not far from the Hawker area."

Yao Wei turned around and walked out. "Take me to that place and order people to check all the CCTVs in that area."

Before long, Yao Wei and his subordinates had arrived at the place and checked Yao Shao's car, but there were no signs of violence or anything else on it. He ordered them to interrogate the people around the hawker area, but no one saw his son. He was getting frustrated because the people who checked all the CCTV in the area couldn't find any clues about his whereabouts, especially since Xiao Ai had deleted all the footage.

"Useless!" Yao Wei shouted angrily at his subordinates. "There are so many of you, but you guys are incompetent to find my son!"

"Sir, I feel there is something strange about all this." Yao Wei immediately turned to the old butler. "If the young master went to this place, the CCTV in the parking lot would have footage of him, but they couldn't find anything."

"Are you saying someone deliberately deleted the footage?" The old butler nodded to him, but Yao Wei looked hard to believe. "Who do you think did it? Only a few people have access to do such a thing, but they are my allies. Moreover, my relationship with them has always been good for the past two decades, so I think it's impossible for any of them to attack my son."

The old butler naturally knew about that. "How about you contact Ouyang Hong? I'm sure that he can help us investigate the matter, so we don't need to waste much time. I fear that someone is intentionally orchestrating all of this in secret, and the young master may currently be in that person's custody. Therefore, we have to hurry and save him, or we'll be too late."

Yao Wei agreed with that. "Let's go back. I'll contact Ouyang Hong on the way back, and you can order a few of them to take Shao'er's car back."

"What are the results, sir? Is Ouyang Hong willing to help you?" The old butler asked Yao Wei.

"Ouyang Hong is still abroad now, but he will contact his connections in the government to look for Shao'er." Yao Wei then asked him. "Do you know where Meng Xin went?"

"Our man who followed Madam Meng informed me that she went to Ouyang House. She and Madam Yi were close friends, so she probably wanted to talk to her."

"I know." Yao Wei's smartphone suddenly rang, but he frowned after seeing the caller's name before rejecting the call. "Do you have any information about Ran Linfeng?"

"Sir, Ran Linfeng's wealth suddenly disappeared by more than three-quarters, and the bank is investigating the matter now." Yao Wei immediately turned to the old butler with a frown. "I don't know what happened, but he had asked several people to help him settle some of his debts first, including Yang Kang. Additionally, Madam Yuxian had contacted both the old madam and your sister for assistance, but they declined her requests."

Yao Wei was not surprised to hear that they refused to help Ran Linfeng. "That guy is too wasteful and stupid, and he was also addicted to gambling for a long time, so it's no surprise that he has a lot of debt now. Back then, he asked Tang Ye to save him from bankruptcy, but he was refused because of his behavior. He eventually decided to betray him, even though they were in-laws."

The old butler remembered something. "Speaking of Tang Ye, I received information that Tang Yin has woken up from her coma, and she is out of the hospital now."

Yao Wei was a little surprised after hearing that. "What about Tang Xiao? Haven't they found his corpse yet?"

"Not yet." The old butler answered by shaking his head. "They had searched for his corpse in the ravine, but they couldn't find it there. Jiang Hu ordered them to stop looking for him; he was sure that he wouldn't be able to survive after falling into such a deep ravine."

"I really hope Tang Xiao is dead by now." Yao Wei then ordered the old butler. "Send some people to monitor the Tang House! I want them to get rid of Tang Yin as soon as possible, and the Tang family will be finished for good. Moreover, we don't need to worry about Tang Huang and Tang Yuan taking revenge on us; I'm sure that they won't dare to do anything against us, as the person behind Ouyang Hong will protect us."

"Yes, sir."

Meng Xin has arrived at the Ouyang house, and she asked Yi An to accompany her to chat. "Hey, ask your assistant to get a bottle of wine."

"Hmm?" Yi An raised her eyebrows for a moment before ordering Su Rou to get a bottle of wine at the mini bar. "Did you quarrel with Yao Wei again?"

"Can we talk about this later?" Meng Xin then buried her sad face with her hands on the table. "I'm sad right now, and I want to drink some wine first to calm my mind."

After she returned, Yi An ordered Su Rou to leave them before pouring the wine into two glasses for them. "Here, drink it and explain everything to me after this."

Meng Xin downed the wine in her glass in one go, but she wasn't satisfied with it. "Please, pour me one more."

"Your tolerance for alcohol is too low, so you shouldn't drink too much, or you'll get drunk." Even so, Yi An still poured the wine into Meng Xin's glass.

"I can only forget my sadness if I'm drunk." While staring at the wine in her glass, Meng Xin spoke to her best friend. "Moreover, I'm at your house, and no one will take advantage of me while I'm drunk, right?"

"That's for sure." Yi An shook her head as Meng Xin downed it again in one go. "Now tell me your problem."

Meng Xin refilled her glass with wine again before answering Yi An. "My problems with Yao Wei have remained unchanged for the past five years, and he always prioritized his son over me. I repeatedly complained about his son's unacceptable behavior towards me, but he kept asking me to be patient, and his attitude made me fed up."

"Hmm? Is Yao Shao still abusing you?"

"Yeah." Meng Xin then drank the wine again. "By the way, Yao Shao disappeared this morning, and Yao Wei is looking for him now."

Yi An was really surprised to hear that. "Where did he go before he disappeared?"

"I don't care about him." Meng Xin then looked at Yi An. "Do you think I should divorce Yao Wei?"

"Huh?" Yi An wasn't expecting Meng Xin to ask such a thing. "Are you sure you want to divorce Yao Wei?"

"Yes." Meng Xin nodded before laying her head on the table. "I am truly envious of you and the others because you all have children, and you have Qing'er and Ming'er. We've been married for five years, and I'm getting older now. I want to have a child as soon as possible, but Yao Wei never had the intention to get me pregnant. Therefore, I thought about divorcing him, and I wanted to find another man who had the same vision as me."

Yi An sighed heavily after hearing that, and she knew very well about Meng Xin's wish to have children. "If you want it like that, then you can divorce Yao Wei."

Meng Xin looked up at Yi An, but her expression became sadder, and she seemed to be full of doubts. "I want a divorce from him, but I'm sure that he won't be willing to divorce me, and he might do bad things to me if I do that."

"You don't need to think about that." Yi An grabbed Meng Xin's hand. "You are my best friend, so I will fully support your decision, and I will protect you from Yao Wei. If he dares to do anything bad to you, I will destroy him myself, and he will regret it very much."

"Haha." Meng Xin laughed softly. "Thank you; I know that I can rely on you. I will contact Feng Yao tomorrow, and I will ask her to handle my divorce."

"We've known each other for years, so there's no need for any thanks between us, right?" Yi An then called Su Rou to send another bottle of wine. "For now, you don't need to think about Yao Wei, and I will accompany you for drinks. However, I want to see a different Meng Xin after we wake up tomorrow, and I hope you will get the happiness you have been longing for."

"Sure!" Meng Xin then raised her glass high. "I won't be like this again tomorrow! I will get my happiness!"

Chapter 34: Accidental Meeting

"Hey, what happened to you, Qinlin? Why did you leave in such a hurry yesterday?"

"I had an emergency yesterday, but I've already taken care of it." Luo Qinlin was too lazy to tell Ouyang Qing about her problem; she wouldn't help her and would instead mock her. "Have you guys heard the news, Qing?"

"Which news?"

"Our former teacher died two days ago, and rumors said that she committed suicide." Luo Qin's answer shocked both Ouyang Qing and Jessica. "The video of her husband's affair suddenly became public, and he was facing serious problems. The woman's husband couldn't accept their affair, and Yu Xiaoling's business plummeted overnight because of the scandalous video."

"How could the video possibly be spread to the public?" Ouyang Qing asked in confusion. "I've ordered my people to secure the video, and I purposely kept it to control Yu Xiaoling. There shouldn't be anyone who would know about it except us, but it's useless if she's dead now."

"You should ask your friends about that." Ouyang Qing nodded and contacted her friend, and Luo Qinlin asked Jessica. "What's wrong with you? Why do you seem to be thinking about a serious problem? Isn't your husband taking your son to his parents' house? Did you have a quarrel with him?"

"They're at my parents-in-law's house, and they won't be back in a week." Jessica let out a soft sigh before continuing. "I don't have a quarrel with him either, but I had a strange dream last night, and I met someone familiar but also unfamiliar in my dream."

"Who is that man?" Both Ouyang Qing and Luo Qinlin asked in curious manners.

Jessica shook her head. "I don't know that man, but I feel familiar with him, mainly because of his eyes."

"Hahaha." Luo Qinlin suddenly laughed before embracing her shoulder. "Are you thinking about looking for another man? If—"

"No!" Jessica refused with a little shout. "I'm not a sex maniac like you, and I will always be loyal to my husband."

"Humph!" Luo Qinlin snorted softly before pointing out her little finger. "Your husband's dick is only this big, and such a small dick will not be able to satisfy any woman."

Jessica preferred not to respond to Luo Qinlin, irritating her. 'Sigh! What happened? Why do I keep thinking about him?'

Luo Qinlin then asked Ouyang Qing, who had finished her call, but her expression looked bad. "What did your friend say? Does he know anything about the spread of the video?"

"My friend didn't know anything about it, but she told me that she no longer has the video. She was sure that someone had hijacked her computer, and she had already started tracking that person." Ouyang Qing jumped down from the bed and hurriedly changed clothes. "Yu Xiaoling is dead, so we don't need to think about her anymore, but I have to find another way to do something about Tang Yin. By the way, let's go now; Wen Tian and the others are waiting for us at their usual place."

"Qing, I won't be joining you guys, so you can go with Qinlin, and I'll wait here for you to come back." Ouyang Qing just nodded and pulled Luo Qinlin away with her. Then, Jessica lay in bed and covered her face with one hand, but last night's events resurfaced in her mind. 'Should I go to Feng Xiao again to confront him? He took advantage of my sadness to do such a thing to me, and I can't forget him until this moment. The more I try to forget him, the more I remember him.'

Jessica closed her eyes and tried to sleep, as she hadn't been able to sleep since last night because of Tang Xiao's actions towards her.

Tang Xiao, who was choosing a ring for Tang Yin, was surprised when Hun suddenly appeared beside him. He was relieved because the people inside the store couldn't see her, as she was just a wandering soul.

"Master, this ring is beautiful, and it suits your big sister." Hun pointed to a ring decorated with a small pink diamond, and it had a deep and intense pink color.

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao looked at the ring and asked the shopkeeper. "Miss, how much is this ring? How many carats is the pink diamond?"

"Are you interested in this ring, young master?" The female shopkeeper respectfully asked because Tang Xiao's appearance was like that of a rich man, and she immediately showed him the ring. "This pink diamond is quite rare and has a total of 10 carats, and the price for each carat is 700 thousand. Besides, the ring was created by a quite famous ring craftsman, so the price is quite expensive at 10 million."

"10 million, huh?" Tang Xiao muttered as he looked at the pink diamond before giving his bank card to her. "Please wrap this ring for me, and I will pay in full."

"Eh?" The female shopkeeper was surprised to hear that. "Are you sure, young master?"

"Please take care of the payment now." Tang Xiao casually answered her because Xiao Ai had already helped him to rob three-quarters of Ran Linfeng's wealth, and he felt that the pink diamond was suitable for Tang Yin.

"Please wait for a moment, and I will take care of your payment, young master." The female shopkeeper went to the back room with an expression full of excitement because she would get quite a big bonus from the sale of the ring.

When he was waiting for the female shopkeeper, Tang Xiao saw Xing Xing walking side by side with a woman, and they seemed to be joking happily. 'She looks tomboyish, but she's still beautiful, and her smile is captivating.'

"Do you like that little girl, Master?" Hun followed his gaze.

'Actually, I've known her for a long time, but we never had a close relationship in the past.' Hun smiled when he saw Tang Xiao's expression. 'She is attractive, but I cannot approach her while in this disguise. Additionally, if I reveal my true form, she will be in danger because many people are targeting me.'

"Why don't you teach her to be a cultivator, Master? You can give her access to the ark, and those bad guys won't be able to harm her."

'You're not wrong about that.' Tang Xiao sighed softly before continuing. 'However, you know that the world of cultivation is too harsh and cruel, and she looks happy with her current life. Therefore, I would rather not ruin her happiness by bringing her into such a world.'

Hun nodded understandingly to Tang Xiao because she herself had experienced the cruelty of such a world in the past; thus, she could understand his worries.

They suddenly saw Xing Xing looking at them, or rather, she was looking at Tang Xiao, and her expression showed that she was curious about him.

"Master, she is curious about you, so you should approach her now." Hun spoke in a teasing tone.

'No.' Tang Xiao rejected Hun's idea while shaking his head, but he raised his eyebrows because Xing Xing walked towards him. 'Crap! Why did she come here?'

"Hey, Xing! Are you interested in that man?" Xing Xing's friend asked as she followed behind her, and she also looked at Tang Xiao in admiration. 'He is indeed handsome and much taller than most people, and his body is well built.'

Xing Xing answered her friend's question. "Have you ever felt so familiar with someone you didn't know before, Xiao Yuying? I remember exactly that I had never known that man before, but I felt familiar with him."

"Hmm?" Xiao Yuying raised an eyebrow. "What makes you feel familiar with that man?"

"I don't know for sure, but I feel familiar with him." Xing Xing answered by shaking her head as she sped up.

Soon, both women arrived in front of Tang Xiao, and Xing Xing directly asked him a question. "Please forgive me if I disturbed you, but I wondered if we've met before?"

"What makes you feel that way, Miss?" Tang Xiao asked as he smiled at Xing Xing.

Xing Xing shook her head. "Honestly, I can't understand it myself, and I'm pretty sure that I've never seen your face before. But somehow I feel that we've met before, and I decided to meet you to make sure."

'Do all women have sharp instincts like her? Last night, Jessica came to me by herself, and she felt familiar with me because of my eyes. However, Xing Xing and I weren't that close when we were in school, so she shouldn't be familiar with me.' Tang Xiao deeply wondered before shaking his head. "Miss, I think your feelings are wrong because I'm sure I've never met you before."

Xing Xing still couldn't shake the familiar feeling toward Tang Xiao, and she took out her smartphone. "Can you give me your number?"

Just as Tang Xiao contemplated fulfilling or rejecting Xing Xing's request, the female shopkeeper suddenly returned with a bag and a payment receipt. "Thank you for shopping at our store, young master."

"Thank you." Tang Xiao then turned to Xing Xing. "I'm sorry, I still have other things to do, so I have to go now."

"Wait!" Xing Xing immediately grabbed Tang Xiao's hand. "Please give me your number; I still want to talk to you."

Tang Xiao then gave his number to Xing Xing, and he also saved hers. "You can contact me whenever you want, but I have to go now."

Hun immediately entered the sun stone as soon as Tang Xiao left the shop, but Xing Xing kept looking at him, making her friend feel strange about her attitude.

"Hey!" Xiao Yuying patted Xing Xing's shoulder. "How long are you going to be stunned like this? The man is gone, so we must continue our shopping, and you can contact him after you come back."

"Let's go then."

Chapter 35: Tang Xiao - Yu Xiaoling

After he arrived at a quiet place, Tang Xiao entered the primordial divine ark to look for Tang Yin. Xiao Ai told him that she and Yu Xiaoling were at the hot spring, so he decided to follow them there.

Yu Xiaoling was embarrassed by Tang Xiao's arrival, and she covered her upper body with her hands while turning her red face to the side.

Despite the allure of Yu Xiaoling's body, Tang Xiao appeared indifferent to them. He undressed himself before entering the pool, causing her to flush in embarrassment at the sight of his dick. However, she was also shocked because Tang Yin was present, but he was casually naked in front of her. 'Are they having a strange relationship?'

Tang Yin smirked faintly upon noticing Yu Xiaoling's expressions, but she said nothing. "Why did you come back so early? I thought you were going back to Ouyang House."

"I have a gift for you, and I believe you will like it." Tang Xiao said as he took out a small box, revealing a ring inside that made Tang Yin's eyes sparkle. "Do you like this ring? At first, I wanted to find another gift for you, but I thought this ring was much more suitable for a beauty like you."

Seeing the ring, Yu Xiaoling was jealous of Tang Yin, as she knew that pink diamond was exorbitantly expensive, and she couldn't afford to buy it.

Tears of joy dripped from Tang Yin's eyes, and she hugged Tang Xiao directly. "Yes! I like this ring so much! It is the first gift you gave me outside of birthday gifts in the past, so I will always treasure it."

"I'm glad you like it." Tang Xiao hugged her back while rubbing her cheeks, making Yu Xiaoling feel even more strange about the relationship between the two.

"Hehe." Tang Yin giggled before looking at Yu Xiaoling. "Don't you want to have sex with her? Her body is still good even though she has given birth before."

Yu Xiaoling was utterly shocked to hear Tang Yin's question to Tang Xiao, and she covered her breasts before moving away from them, as she was afraid that he would force her to have sex with him.

"Haha." Tang Yin laughed at her reaction. "She's a shy rabbit, so you have to be an aggressive wolf toward her."

Tang Xiao shook his head slightly. "Have you seen Aunt Qing?"

"We just finished tidying up the production of those products, and I brought her here to freshen up." Tang Yin then stood up and got out of the pool. "I'm going to see Aunt Qing now, and you can have fun with your third love."

"Xiaoling, come here." Yu Xiaoling didn't dare approach Tang Xiao, but he suddenly moved to sit beside her before she could blink. He pulled her onto his lap with her back against his chest, and he hugged her waist from behind. "Don't worry, I'm not that kind of man, so I won't force you to do it with me. Instead, I will bring you down slowly, and you will submit to me completely at that time."

"Then—"

"Don't move!" Tang Xiao then pointed at a screen floating toward them. "In the past, I respected you, and I fell in love with you because of your kindness and consideration, but you destroyed everything with your betrayal. As a teacher, you should know that broken glass can never be repaired, and that's how I feel about you today. You don't know what happened to me when you handed me over to Ouyang Qing that day, right? Xiao Ai has an uncut recording of what happened that night, so I want you to watch it, and you will understand why I hate you so much now."

Yu Xiaoling chose not to answer Tang Xiao, but her heart was increasingly filled with guilt because Tang Yin had told her about what happened that night.

Tang Xiao grabbed Yu Xiaoling's face and forced her to look at the screen. "Look at what you did to me back then! Look at what Luo Qinlin did to me that night!"

Yu Xiaoling's lips parted repeatedly, but no words came out of his mouth. Tears quickly welled up in her eyes before flowing down from the corners of them, and her sobs began to echo in the area. "Sob... Sorry... Sob... I'm sorry..."

"Sorry? Does your apology still have any meaning now?" Tang Xiao coldly asked while tightening his grip on her face. "Because of you, I had to experience something like that! Because of you, I had to feel the cold of the prison floor for seven years! What do you think if I treated you like Luo Qinlin treated me that night?"

"Sob... Sob..." Yu Xiaoling didn't answer Tang Xiao, and only her sobs continued to be heard. Her body was shaking because of the video in front of her eyes, and she was also shaking because she was afraid that he would treat her like that. "Sob... Sob..."

"You are lucky because you were kind to me in the past, but your past kindness was not enough to make up for your betrayal of me. Even though you have lost your life, your husband, and your child, all of that is still not enough to atone for your betrayal." Tang Xiao immediately moved Yu Xiaoling aside and left the pool. "I won't do anything to you now, but you must always remember that you are our servant now, so act as one!"

After Tang Xiao left, Yu Xiaoling cried even harder as she listened to Luo Qinlin's voice from the video. She hugged her legs tightly, her body constantly trembling, and her sobs grew louder.

Tang Xiao was familiar with Yu Xiaoling's character, and he deliberately showed her the video of that day's events to make her feel even more guilty toward him.

After leaving the hot spring, Tang Xiao went to the training ground. However, he didn't practice using the gravity feature; instead, he practiced all the techniques in his possession, particularly since he had not yet mastered them all.

Tang Yin was already sitting opposite Zhao Qing, and she looked at several photos of the buildings in front of her to choose a suitable building for her office and shop. Her eyes fell on a three-story building that was quite large, and the building was also quite spacious based on written data.

"This three-story building will be suitable for our office and shop later, Aunt Qing." Tang Yin said this as she handed the photo to her aunt. "We can use the first floor for our shop, the second floor for our warehouse, and the third floor for our office."

Zhao Qing nodded in agreement with her niece, especially since the building was quite spacious and the price wasn't too expensive either. "In that case, I will buy this building as quickly as possible to prevent other people from getting ahead of us. After that, I will take care of obtaining the licenses and patents for our products; otherwise, we may face difficulties in selling them. Moreover, people will try to copy our products if they sell well in the market later, so we have to secure everything first."

"I'll leave those matters to you, Aunt Qing." Tang Yin then asked her. "Have you found suitable people to work with us?"

Zhao Qing took out some documents from her desk drawer and handed them to Tang Yin. "I asked my friends to help find some women who fit your criteria, but they only provided me with information about these three women, so we still have to look for two more people. First is Liao Yuxi, 24 years old. She still works for one of the big online commerce companies, but she wanted to resign to find a better income. Second is Lin Qingxue, 28 years old. She is the former head of the warehouse at my friend's company, but she decided to resign because she lived too far away. The third is Qiao Yumei, 35 years old, and she has experience as a marketing manager, but she is unemployed right now because her company is closed due to a conflict of interest between the owners."

"Hmm?" As she saw the photos of the three women, Tang Yin kept nodding her head. "Please recruit these three after you buy the building, Aunt Qing. Our products are currently partially ready, and once we receive their licenses and patents, we will launch our new business. By the way, I have a prospective employee, and I'll go see her after this; therefore, you just need to find another female employee."

"I will contact them to come here in three days, and you should also come here to meet them." Tang Yin agreed with that, and Zhao Qing handed her another document. "I chose Fu Chen as the ambassador for our products. She is a rising actress, and the fees for her services are not too expensive."

"Oh?" Tang Yin was surprised to hear about the woman. "I didn't expect that Fu Chen has become an actress now, which means she has achieved her dream."

"Do you know her?"

Tang Yin nodded to her aunt. "Fu Chen was one of my friends in college, and our relationship was quite close back then. However, seven years have passed, so I don't know whether she still recognizes me or not. Please discuss our cooperation with her as soon as possible, and I hope she is willing to become our ambassador."

"Alright." Zhao Qing then asked her niece. "Do you want to join me? Tomorrow is your grandfather's birthday, so I'm going to Zhao House today, and I'll stay there for two days."

"No." Tang Yin rejected her without a second thought. "Zhao Teng is our biological grandfather, but Xiao'er and I would rather not have any relationship with him, and you surely know our reasons, right, Aunt Qing?"

Zhao Qing was speechless after hearing that, and she naturally knew the reason why they hated their grandfather. Tang Ye was indeed the most successful man back then, but Zhao Teng never liked him, and he was never willing to bless his marriage with Zhao Jing. Therefore, he never regarded his nephew and niece as grandchildren, and he consistently treated them poorly whenever they visited the Zhao House. "Where is Xiao'er? Why didn't he accompany you?"

"Xiao'er is busy with something else." Tang Yin then got up from her seat. "Aunt Qing, I will go to see that woman now, and you can go to that old man's house."

Zhao Qing could only sigh because of Tang Yin's attitude, but she couldn't blame her because their bad relationship was her father's fault, and she then also left the office afterwards.

Chapter 36: Tang Yin - Xing Xing

Xing Xing, who had just returned from shopping with her friend, was shocked as soon as she entered his house, as her mother was busy pacing back and forth.

Hearing her daughter's arrival, Chu Lingxi turned to Xing Xing with a smile, and she pulled her daughter to sit side by side. "Are you surprised to see my condition?"

"Yes." Even though she was shocked by that, Xing Xing also felt relieved to see that her mother, who had been ill for a long time, had fully recovered. Even so, she was also confused about Chu Lingxi's sudden recovery, especially since the doctor told her that her mother's condition was critical. "How can you suddenly become this healthy, Mom? I checked your condition before I left, but your condition still hasn't changed, so I'm truly shocked to see you this healthy."

Chu Lingxi shook her head at Xing Xing. "Honestly, I don't know what exactly happened to me, but I felt that my body was completely healthy when I opened my eyes not long ago, so I tried to do a light exercise to be certain, and the results are as you can see now."

'What actually happened here? Is my mother really completely healthy now? Or is this just temporary?' Xing Xing kept wondering in her heart, as her mother's recovery was an unexpected miracle. "Mom, how about we go to the hospital? You do look healthy, but I want to make sure that you are completely healthy, so I want to ask the doctor who usually treats you for advice."

"No need." Chu Lingxi refused while shaking her head. "I'm completely healthy, so we don't need to waste money checking my condition."

"But—"

Chu Lingxi covered her daughter's mouth with her hand. "I know you're worried about me, but I'm fine now, so we don't need to go see a doctor. Shall we go out to eat together? I've been sick for too long, and you're always busy working to pay for my treatment, so I want to spend time with you tonight."

Xing Xing inwardly sighed because her mother was too stubborn, but she then nodded while pulling Chu Lingxi's hand away. "We can go out to eat now, but I want to invite Grandpa Chen to join us, and he will be happy to see you."

"Yes, I haven't seen Uncle Chen for a long time, and he has helped us a lot over the years, so I want to thank him." Chu Lingxi then stood up from her seat and rushed to the bathroom to clean herself.

Xing Xing could only shake her head seeing her mother like that, but she kept thinking of a way to take Chu Lingxi to the hospital to have her condition checked. However, she suddenly heard someone calling her name from outside, so she hurriedly checked outside, but she was shocked to see the woman standing in front of her. "Big Sis Tang Yin? Is this really you?"

"Hehe." Tang Yin giggled and pushed Xing Xing into the house before answering her question. "It's really me, so you don't need to be shocked like this, and I came here to discuss something with you."

"Since when have you woken up from your coma?" Xing Xing asked again as she sat down in an empty chair, and Tang Yin immediately sat beside her. "How did you find this house? After all, we moved here not long after you fell into a coma, so you shouldn't know our address."

"I woke up from my coma a few days ago, but I didn't expect that I had been asleep for seven years, so I still have to adjust myself to the many things that have changed." Xing Xing wasn't surprised by that, especially since Tang Yin had been sleeping for too long, and a lot has changed in recent years. "By the way, you remember that Aunt Yuan is a lawyer, right? She also has a lot of connections, and she was the one who helped me find your address."

"I see." Xing Xing nodded in understanding and then asked her a question. "So, what do you want to discuss with me, Big Sis?"

"I would like to invite you to join the company that I will soon establish." Xing Xing looked at Tang Yin in surprise after hearing that. "Even though my company is not yet operational, I am very confident that my business will be successful, especially since all my products are of high quality, and their effects are more potent than those already circulating on the market. As for your salary, I will give you the best offer, and I will also provide a house for you. That way, you can take your mother to move from this slum, and you two can live better."

Even though Chu Lingxi had recovered now, Tang Yin's offer was quite tempting for Xing Xing, especially since she didn't have the money to move to another house, and she would provide one for them. Despite the tempting offer, she hesitated to accept it immediately because the company had not yet been established, and she was reluctant to give up her old job to join her. "What kind of products will you sell through your company?"

Tang Yin immediately explained everything to Xing Xing, especially about the types and benefits of each product. "All my products are ready to sell, and I've set up a website and a few other things to sell them online, but I still have to take care of their licenses and patents. Besides, I've asked Aunt Qing to buy a building for my office and first retail store, and I've also selected several other employees, so I'll immediately set up my company after everything is ready."

"Can I see the samples of the products?"

"You can try using them first, and I dare to guarantee that you won't regret joining me." Xing Xing immediately checked the three products she had just given her, and Tang Yin observed her with a faint smile. 'She is indeed pretty and just a little tomboyish, but the most important thing is that she loves Xiao'er wholeheartedly, and she also believes that he did not commit the crime, so I want her to become his girlfriend.'

After she finished checking the three, Xing Xing immediately said to Tang Yin. "All right, I will accept your offer to join your company, Big Sis."

"That's good." Tang Yin was satisfied with Xing Xing's answer. "In that case, you can go to my father's old company in three days to see Aunt Qing, and she will arrange everything."

Xing Xing then grabbed Tang Yin's hand. "Big Sis, I've heard about Tang Xiao, and I'm sorry that he's no longer in this world."

"Haha." Instead, Tang Yin laughed at that, and she asked Xing Xing back. "Do you believe that Xiao'er is dead?"

Xing Xing shook her head before answering. "Honestly, I hope that Tang Xiao is still alive, but I heard from the news that the ravine is too deep, and they couldn't find his body, so I don't dare hope too high."

"Do you want to know a secret?"

"What kind of secret is that?"

"Before I tell you, you have to promise me first not to tell anyone."

"En, I promise, I won't tell anyone else."

Tang Yin smiled and gently rubbed Xing Xing's hand. "Actually, Xiao'er is still alive, and—"

"Are... are you serious about that, Big Sis? Is... is Tang Xiao really still alive?" Xing Xing asked stammeringly, but her expression was filled with hope.

"Yes, Xiao'er is still alive, but he's in hiding now because there are many people who want him dead." Tears of joy instantly dripped from the corners of Xing Xing's eyes, and Tang Yin wiped them away while telling her another matter. "In fact, he was the one who asked me to recruit you, especially after he listened to your conversation with Grandpa Chen this afternoon."

"Huh?" Xing Xing was shocked to hear that. "How is that possible? That place was very quiet this afternoon, and no one went there."

Tang Yin sighed softly while embracing Xing Xing's shoulder. "I can't tell you anything right now, but I can ask him to meet you if you want it, and you can ask him many things yourself."

"Yes." Xing Xing nodded her head repeatedly. "Please tell Tang Xiao that I want to see him."

"I'll inform Xiao'er about it, but I don't know when he'll see you." Tang Yin then stood up from her seat. "I still have some work to do, so I have to go home now."

After she escorted Tang Yin out, Xing Xing leaned against her door while clasping her hands against her chest, and a beautiful smile appeared on her face. "I'm glad to hear that you're still alive, Tang Xiao."

"Who came just now, Xing'er?"

Chu Lingxi's question brought Xing Xing back to her senses. "Big Sister Tang Yin just came, but she's gone home now."

"Tang Yin?" Chu Lingxi was surprised to hear that. "Didn't she fall into a coma seven years ago?"

"She's awake now, and she came here to offer me a job." Chu Lingxi seemed relieved after hearing Xing Xing's words, as she knew the Tang family more or less. "Her offer was excellent, and she would provide a house for us, so I accepted it. Mother, can change clothes now, and we will go straight to Grandpa Chen's house before going out to eat together."

Chapter 37: Meeting Enemies

Tang Yin didn't return to Tang House or enter the ark, and she chose to go for a walk in the city since she missed so much time due to her coma. When she was enjoying her time, she saw two cars stop in front of a famous cafe, and she recognized the three men. "Hmm? Ouyang Ming, Ran Lingfeng, and Meng Huo. Seven years have passed, but I haven't forgotten your actions that night. Luckily, God hasn't allowed me to die, and things have changed now, so I will repay you for what you did to me that day."

After that, Tang Yin entered the cafe, ordered a VIP room adjacent to theirs, and then took out a device to ask Xiao Ai to display the CCTV footage from their room.

"Yao Shao has been missing since morning, and Uncle Yao has been looking for him everywhere." Ran Lingfeng and Meng Huo immediately turned to Ouyang Ming. "I heard this matter from my father because Uncle Yao asked for his help, and he also ordered several people to help them, but their search was still to no avail."

"How could Yao Shao disappear?" Meng Hao asked with a frown.

Ouyang Ming shook his head. "Yao Shao and his bodyguards went to the Hawker Center, and they disappeared there. Uncle Yao had even ordered people to check all the CCTVs in that area, but there wasn't a single recording showing his presence there."

"I recall that area had many CCTVs due to frequent disturbances, so it was odd if they weren't recorded." Meng Huo then asked Ouyang Ming again. "Could it be that one of our enemies did something to them?"

"I'm sure that our enemies wouldn't dare to do anything against Yao Shao, especially with our family's authority and influence." Ouyang Ming then informed them about something else. "I heard from Qing'er that Yu Xiaoling suddenly died, and her husband also faced big trouble because his affair with Tan Xiaoqian was exposed to the public."

"Huh?"

"Was Qing'er the one who leaked her husband's affair?" Ran Lingfeng asked with a surprised look, but he didn't seem to care about the news of Yu Xiaoling's death. "After all, she had their recording, and she used it to blackmail her seven years ago, or else she wouldn't have been willing to help her frame Tang Xiao."

"Qing'er never ordered her people to spread the video, and she said that someone stole it."

"You guys must have heard that Tang Yin has woken up from her coma, right? Should we do something about her?" The other two turned to Meng Huo. "Why are you guys looking at me like that? Don't you two also harbor the desire to sleep with her?"

"Do you think we can do that now?" Ouyang Ming frowned and responded with a question. "We had the chance to do that seven years ago because her family let their guard down, but that bitch actually jumped off that building. I'm sure that Tang Yuan will closely monitor her now, so we won't have a second chance at it."

"I agree with you, Ming." Ran Lingfeng said that while nodding. "We can think of something to trick Tang Yuan, and we will get a second chance to get close to Tang Yin. Moreover, Tang Huang has not been seen for the past few years, so he won't be able to stop us."

Ouyang Ming thought for some time. "We can do something about Tang Yin as long as we can keep Tang Yuan away from her side, but we need my father's help to do something for her, so I'll contact him later."

Clasped

"That's good!" Meng Huo exclaimed as he clasped his hand. "We failed seven years ago, so we can't fail now."

"Foolish people! Do you three think you can do something like that to me now?" Tang Yin muttered with a cruel smile. "At first, I just wanted to know about your activities, but I didn't expect you guys to devise such a plan against me, so I will give you a nightmare that you will never forget for the rest of your life. Unfortunately, I can't touch Ouyang Ming for now, and Xiao'er is already planning to destroy the Ran Family first, so I will take my revenge, starting with my dear cousin."

[Is there anything I can do for you, Mistress?]

"I want you to collect all the information about Meng Huo, especially about all the crimes he committed in recent years, and I will decide my next plan for him after getting everything."

[What about Ran Qingfeng? Do you need my help?]

Tang Yin shook her head. "You don't need to do anything about Ran Qingfeng, and I will take care of him myself. As for his family, I won't do anything to them, and you can follow Xiao'er's plans for them."

[All right, I will do everything now.]

Meanwhile, Tang Xiao had just finished his training, and he directly returned to his room to look for Tang Yin, but she was still outside. "Xiao Ai, do you know where my big sister went?"

[Master, my mistress was walking around the city, but she ran into Ouyang Ming, Ran Qingfeng, and Meng Huo. She followed them to a cafe, and she's eavesdropping on their conversation right now.]

"Which cafe are they in?"

[I know you're worried about my mistress, but she's no longer a weak woman, and those three men won't be able to fight her.] Tang Xiao didn't argue with that, as they were ordinary humans and Tang Yin was a cultivator. [Anyway, why don't you teach Yu Xiaoling to cultivate? After all, she has cultivation veins, and she will be useful to you in the future.]

"No, I will never teach a traitor like her to cultivate." Tang Xiao decisively rejected Xiao Ai's idea. "Even though she did it because of Ouyang Qing's threat, it is a fact that she betrayed me, and she will do it again if someone else threatens her in the future, so I will not do such a stupid thing."

[Why should you worry about that, Master? I've implanted my sub-chip into Yu Xiaoling's brain, and she's completely under your control. Even if you send her out of the ark, she won't be able to do anything, let alone betray you. Therefore, you don't need to worry about that, and I will help you to extract her Yin Qi so you can use it to improve your cultivation.]

Tang Xiao pondered for a while. "Alright, teach her to cultivate and help me extract her Yin Qi."

[Alright, I'm going to meet Yu Xiaoling now, and I'm going to help her become a cultivator.]

Tang Xiao then went to the prison to check on Yao Shao and his two bodyguards, but he found them dead, and he burned their bodies to ashes. After that, he left the ark and went to look for Tang Yin in the cafe.

"Why did you come here, Xiao'er?" Tang Yin asked as she pulled Tang Xiao to sit on the sofa.

Tang Xiao released a soft sigh. "You are indeed a cultivator now, but there are some enemies in the next room, so I came here because I was worried about your safety."

"Haha." Tang Yin softly laughed and embraced him. "Actually, you don't need to worry about me because they won't be able to find me if I use one of my techniques. However, I like your concern for me, and I will definitely always be careful."

"We are the only ones left in our family now, so I will always worry and care about you." Tang Xiao then used his true senses to eavesdrop on the three men's conversation, but his face darkened because they were still talking about Tang Yin.

Tang Yin then informed Tang Xiao about her previous conversation with Xing Xing. "She likes you so much, you know? She even cried with joy when I told her that you were still alive, so I believe it would be best for you to meet her soon; otherwise, she would keep anxiously waiting for you."

Tang Xiao certainly knew that, as he previously eavesdropped on Xing Xing and Grandpa Chen's conversation. "Alright, I will arrange a time to meet her, but I can only do it when Yi An has nothing to do outside. So, what do you plan to do to those guys?"

"Since we can't touch Ouyang Ming, I will leave him for now, and I have asked Xiao Ai to collect information about Meng Huo." Tang Xiao nodded in understanding, and Tang Yin put on a serious look as she spoke again. "As for Ran Qingfeng, I want to handle him myself, and I don't want you to interfere."

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao raised his eyebrows after he saw his big sister's strange smile. "Somehow, I feel like you've completely become a demon now, but I like the current you. All right then, I won't interfere in the matter between you and Ran Qingfeng, and I'll watch your actions against him from afar. By the way, these guys have finished talking, and they will leave soon, so we must leave now."

Upon hearing that, Tang Yin pulled Tang Xiao to his feet, and they immediately left the cafe to wait for the three men outside.

Shortly after they left, the three men also left the cafe. Ouyang Ming went with Meng Huo, and Ran Qingfeng drove his own car, so immediately they followed him.

Chapter 38: Tang Yin's 1st Killing

When they arrived at the quiet street, Tang Yin landed in the middle of the street and waited for Ran Qingfeng to arrive at the place, and Tang Xiao just watched from a tree on the side of the road.

Screech

Not long after, Ran Qingfeng arrived at the road, and he braked the car when he saw Tang Yin standing in the middle of the road, blocking his way.

"Why is she here?" Just as he was thinking about that, Tang Yin waved her hand. A black crescent moon shot horizontally toward Ran Qingfeng, which shocked him. He ducked to avoid it, but her attack split his car in half. "What the fuck is that? How could he do such a thing?"

"Are you surprised to see me, cousin?" Tang Yin asked as she walked slowly towards Ran Qingfeng. "Do you still remember what happened seven years ago? We were blood cousins, but you joined your friends and intended to violate me by force. Back then, I thought I would die after I jumped off that building, but I'm still alive now. Therefore, I will exact vengeance upon all of you, starting with you."

Tang Yin's words made Ran Qingfeng quiver in fear, especially after he saw her action splitting his car with her darkness qi just now, and he grabbed the smartphone in his pocket to call for help.

However, Ran Qingfeng's smartphone flew toward Tang Yin, and she crushed it to pieces. He felt even more frightened by her bizarre actions, as he had never witnessed such things before.

Unfortunately, Tang Yin's surprising actions didn't stop there, as she used her darkness transformation. Ran Qingfeng instantly peed in his pants as soon as she turned into a demon, and his body trembled even more violently as he was frightened by her demon form.

Tang Yin jumped onto the hood of the car, and she lifted Ran Qingfeng using her aura before strangling him by the neck, causing his face to turn red from difficulty breathing.

"Ugh... Let me go... I'll die if you strangle me this hard." Ran Qingfeng said it with great difficulty as he tried to remove Tang Yin's hand from his neck, but he was completely shocked by the strength of her grip.

"Why should I let you go?" Tang Yin indifferently asked, and her red eyes glowed sharply. "For seven years, I've been trapped in that dark place alone, and you won't be able to understand the suffering I've been through during those times, but now I've returned as a demon thirsting for revenge."

"You—" Ran Qingfeng didn't continue his words, and his eyes widened in shock as soon as he saw Tang Xiao float down from the tree. 'How? How could he be here? Shouldn't he have died in that ravine?'

"Are you disappointed to see me still alive, cousin?" Tang Xiao asked Ran Linfeng a question after landing behind Tang Yin. "Honestly, I wanted to kill you with my own hands, but my big sister would be disappointed if I did, so I handed you over to her. However, you won't be lonely in the afterlife because your father, Ran Linfeng, will catch up with you soon. As for Zhao Yuxian, we couldn't kill her because she was our late mother's little sister, and we didn't want to disappoint her."

"You—Ugh!" Ran Qingfeng wanted to curse at them, but Tang Yin squeezed his neck harder, causing his face to be completely red from her action. 'Fuck! I didn't expect that I would have such bad luck by meeting these two demons!'

"You can kill him now, Big Sis."

"Goodbye, cousin." Tang Yin thrust her right hand into Ran Qingfeng's chest and pulled his still-beating heart out of his body, causing blood to flow from his mouth and chest, and she crushed it before his eyes.

After he died, Tang Yin threw Ran Qingfeng's corpse onto the street, and Tang Xiao used his fire element to burn it to ashes. As for his car, he threw it into the void so no one would be able to find any trace of him.

"How do you feel?" Tang Xiao asked Tang Yin, who had returned to her human form.

Despite it being her first experience killing someone, and the fact that the victim was her cousin, Tang Yin's expression showed no remorse. "Perhaps you are right that I have become a demon now, and I don't feel anything about his death."

"Qingfeng may be our cousin, but he and his family are villains. They have done many cruel things to our family because of their greed, so we don't have to regret killing them." However, Tang Xiao's cell phone suddenly rang with an incoming message, and it was a message from Su Rou asking him to return to Ouyang House on Yi An's orders. "Sigh, I can't accompany you tonight because Yi An asked me to come back."

"It's okay; you can go back there, or they will be suspicious of you." After Tang Yin disappeared into the ark, Tang Xiao used the Void Dragon Steps to return to Ouyang House.

"Where have you been? Why did you only come back after I sent you a message?" Su Rou, with a suspicious look, asked Tang Xiao.

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Tang Xiao responded with a raised eyebrow. "I'm still new to this city, so I walked around a lot of places to look around while memorizing the streets."

"I see." Su Rou nodded in understanding and led Tang Xiao to meet Yi An. "Follow me; Madam Yi asked you to move her best friend to the guest room because she was heavily drunk."

'Yi An's best friend? Who's she?' Tang Xiao wondered as he followed behind Su Rou, but he was surprised when he arrived inside the room, and he recognized Meng Xin. 'Isn't she Yao Wei's second wife? Why is she so drunk?'

"Feng Xiao, take Meng Xin to the guest room." Yi An ordered him as she staggered out of the room.

Seeing that, Su Rou hurriedly supported Yi An and helped her walk to her room, and she showed Tang Xiao the direction of the guest room.

Tang Xiao sighed softly and carried Meng Xing, and he brought her to the guest room that Su Rou had pointed out. 'Sigh! She reeks of alcohol.'

Arriving at the guest room, Tang Xiao laid Meng Xin on the bed. He wanted to leave the room, but he heard her mumbling something while sobbing.

Tang Xiao sat on the side of the bed and listened to Meng Xin. "Husband, I hate you so much! I've been with you for five years, but you keep thinking about your ex-wife, who is married to another man now, and you keep refusing to get me pregnant because of your stupid son! He abused me over and over again, but you blamed me instead for his unacceptable behavior."

'Yao Wei is truly stupid, huh? She was much better compared to Xiang Ning, but he wasted a woman as good as her, and he made her feel depressed.' Tang Xiao sighed softly before grabbing Meng Xin's right hand, and he injected his light qi into her body to neutralize the effects of the liquor.

Meng Xin suddenly opened her eyes after feeling something unusual in her body that originated from Tang Xiao's light qi, and she looked at him with blurry vision. "Who are you? Are you Yi An's employee?"

Tang Xiao nodded and spoke directly to Meng Xin. "My name is Feng Xiao, Madam Yi's chauffeur. She asked me to bring you to this guest room because you were too drunk, Madam Yao."

"Don't call me that anymore and call me Meng Xin instead." Meng Xin covered her face with her left hand, and Tang Xiao could see tears dripping from the corners of her eyes. "I've decided to divorce my husband."

"Alright." Tang Xiao then placed Meng Xin's right hand on the bed and stood up. "Since you have calmed down now, I will take my leave, and you can rest in peace."

"Don't leave me." Meng Xin let out a soft exclamation as she grabbed Tang Xiao's hand. "I need someone by my side now, so you can stay here to accompany me."

"Madam Meng, I am a chauffeur, so I am not fit to accompany a respectable lady like you." Tang Xiao said as he pulled his hand back, but Meng Xin held it tighter instead, so he tried to persuade her again. "It's already late now, so it would be better if I took my leave. People will look down at you if they see us together in a room at this hour, and I can call Su Rou to accompany you."

Instead, Meng Xin pulled Tang Xiao to sit down again before sitting on the bed, and she leaned back against the headrest. "I don't want anyone else to accompany me, and I want you to accompany me. Moreover, I felt comfortable when you held my hand earlier, and I felt a strange sensation running through my body because of it."

'Hmm?' Tang Xiao raised his eyebrows, surprised that Meng Xin, who wasn't a cultivator, could feel his light qi. "What did you feel before?"

"I can't find the right words to describe the sensation." Meng Xin extended her right hand to Tang Xiao. "Can you hold my hand again? I want to feel that sensation again because it makes me feel calm and peaceful."

Chapter 39: With Meng Xin

Tang Xiao held Meng Xin's hand before injecting his light qi into her body once again, and he saw her close her eyes with a faint smile as she enjoyed the calming and peaceful sensation. 'Why is she reacting like this?'

[Master, your aura and light qi originates from your celestial bloodline and physique, and a celestial is an existence far beyond humans. Many people even consider a celestial as a deity, so you don't need to be surprised if Meng Xin feels that way.]

'Did your old master often experience such a thing in the past?'

[Hehehe! You still don't know the true effects of your celestial bloodline, Master. In the past, countless women flocked around my old master, mainly because they were affected by the extraordinary tranquility and calmness of his aura due to the influence of his bloodline, but he did not respond to any of them.]

'Hmm?' Tang Xiao looked at Meng Xin after he realized something. 'Does that mean my aura will affect the people around me?'

[For now, your aura is too weak, but it will continue to improve as your cultivation increases. Your bloodline will strengthen it even further, which can affect the people around you, both men and women.]

Tang Xiao fell into deep thought, realizing that his aura could be both useful and problematic for him. He thought of a way to suppress it, as he didn't want people to crowd around him.

"What are you thinking?" Meng Xin's question woke Tang Xiao from his thoughts.

"I'm just thinking about my plans for tomorrow."

"Why do you look so serious if you're just thinking about tomorrow's plans?" Tang Xiao was speechless as to how to explain it to Meng Xin because she knew nothing about cultivation. "I'm sorry; I shouldn't have asked that."

"It's okay; you don't need to apologize to me." Tang Xiao responded with a relaxed smile. "I will—"

"Please accompany me tonight." Meng Xin looked at him with a pleading gaze, which made him sigh in his heart. She smiled happily at Tang Xiao's nod and then lay down again, patting the space beside her. "Lie down next to me."

'Sigh, this woman.' Tang Xiao complied with her request by lying beside her, and Meng Xin snuggled into his chest while savoring his manly scent. "Madam Meng, if—"

"Please call me by my name." Meng Xin interrupted Tang Xiao while hugging him, causing her breasts to press against his chest. "Do you have a girlfriend?"

"I have a girlfriend." Tang Xiao smiled slightly.

Meng Xin looked up at Tang Xiao. "Even though I don't know you, I think you are a kind and gentle man, so she must be very lucky to have a boyfriend like you."

"My girlfriend is my first love, and I am the lucky one to win her heart." Meng Xin only nodded at that, and Tang Xiao looked down at her. "Besides, I am not as kind and gentle as you think, and I am actually much worse than other men, including Yao Wei."

"I don't believe you." Meng Xin shook her head in reply. "We can't judge ourselves as good or bad, and only other people can judge us. In my opinion, you are a good man because you did not take advantage of me when I was drunk earlier; instead, you respected my boundaries. Moreover, your touch made me feel calm, so I don't believe that you are a bad man."

Tang Xiao smiled when he heard that. "Is that so?"

"Yes." Meng Xin then curled up in Tang Xiao's embrace again. "Why did you choose to work as a chauffeur? After all, you are handsome, and your stature is also good, so I think you should be able to find a better job, like modeling. By the way, do you know Feng Yao? You two have the same surname, so I think you know her."

'Feng Yao? As far as I remember, Aunt Yuan's best friend has the same name as her.' Tang Xiao inwardly wondered before answering Meng Xin. "I just came from the countryside a few days ago, and I'm used to working as a chauffeur, so I applied for the same job here. Many people have the same surname in our country, but not all of them have a relationship with each other, so I don't know her."

"Well, you're right about that. I have a friend with the surname Meng, but she's not part of my Meng family, and our families don't know each other either." Meng Xin then asked him again. "Do you need my help to find a better job? If you like, I can introduce you to a friend of mine, and she can help you get one."

"Thank you for your offer, but I enjoy my current job, so I would rather not look for another job." Tang Xiao rejected Meng Xin's offer without a second thought because he became a chauffeur to monitor the Ouyang family. "I will accompany you to sleep now, but I will leave after you sleep."

"Yeah." As she hugged Tang Xiao tighter, Meng Xin closed her eyes. However, her mind kept wandering over many things, which made it difficult for her to sleep. 'Sigh, I would be happy if Yao Wei could be as gentle as him, but that will obviously never happen, and I won't change my decision to divorce him.'

On the other hand, Tang Xiao frowned when he sensed someone's presence at the door, and he found Su Rou standing out there, but he ignored her.

"Feng Xiao." Meng Xin called out softly. "Can I ask something from you?"

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao looked at Meng Xin and asked back. "What do you want from me?"

Meng Xin's face turned red with embarrassment as she answered Tang Xiao by rubbing his dick from outside his pants, but she was surprised by its size. 'It's already big, even when it's not fully erect!'

Tang Xiao was certainly aware of Meng Xin's wishes, but he grabbed her hand to stop her. "I know that you are disappointed with your husband, but I am a chauffeur, and I am not worthy of a respectable woman like you."

Instead, Meng Xin quickly moved to pin Tang Xiao beneath her, and she surprised him by briefly kissing his lips. "I don't care if you're a chauffeur or if others laugh at me; I just want to have sex with you now. Moreover, I plan to leave this city tomorrow, and I won't bother you anymore, so I hope you can fulfill my request."

Xiao Ai suddenly spoke to him. [Master, my mistress asked me to tell you that you can sleep with Meng Xin because she is a good woman.]

'Huh? How did my big sister know that I was with Meng Xin now?' Tang Xiao asked with a frown.

Xiao Ai giggled and explained it to Tang Xiao. [Hehe, my mistress asked me about your activity, so I told her that you were with Meng Xin, Master.]

Tang Xiao facepalmed after hearing her answer, and he somehow felt that Xiao Ai was too innocent, but Meng Xin suddenly asked him. "Why are you daydreaming? Am I too old, so I'm not attractive to you?"

"You're wrong." Tang Xiao then grabbed Meng Xin's shoulders. "Even though you are in your early forties, you are not inferior to women in their twenties. However, you are a respectable woman, so I hope you don't degrade yourself for doing such a thing with a stranger like me. I know you wanted to do it with me because you were depressed due to Yao Wei's treatment of you, so I don't want to do it with you even more."

"You really are such a good guy, you know?" Meng Xin said that with a smile. "If I expressed such things about another man, he would undoubtedly ignore my feelings and proceed to fuck me without hesitation. Are you reluctant to do it with me because of your girlfriend?"

"Not really." Tang Xiao shook his head in response. "Actually, my girlfriend doesn't mind me sleeping with other women, but—"

"Are you serious?" Meng Xin asked with a look of disbelief because no woman would be willing to let her lover sleep with another woman.

Tang Xiao nodded at her. "I'm not lying to you, but I still can't fulfill your request. If you're feeling frustrated with your situation, you shouldn't put yourself down like this; instead, go for a vacation to refresh yourself. Once you've calmed down, you can decide to come back to this city or live in another city to start a new life."

"Yeah, you're right." Meng Xin once again kissed him before lying sideways and hugging him, leaving him speechless. "Tomorrow, I will ask Yi An to let you accompany me to the Yao House to pack my things, and we will go to Feng Yao's office because I have to hand her the documents for my divorce. After that, you can drive me to the airport, and I will go to another city on vacation for a few days, but I hope I can still find you here when I come back."

Tang Xiao nodded and spoke to her. "Don't worry, you will find me here when you come back. Sleep now, and I will accompany you for a while."

"Yeah."

Sometime later, Meng Xin had already fallen asleep, and her face was filled with smiles. After she slept soundly, Tang Xiao immediately left her room.

Chapter 40: Middle Rank Beginner Level

When he exited the guest room, Tang Xiao ran into Ouyang Qing, who had just returned from outside. His anger instantly boiled when he saw her face, but he immediately suppressed it.

"What are you doing here?" Ouyang Qing questioned him with a suspicious tone, glancing at the door.

Tang Xiao pointed at the room. "Madam Yi asked me to move Madam Yao to this room because she was too drunk."

"Hmm?" Ouyang Qing immediately opened the guest room and found Meng Xin was fast asleep.

"I'll go back to my room now, young miss."

"Stop." When Ouyang Qing grabbed his hand, Tang Xiao looked at her, pretending to be confused. "Did Jessica come to see you last night?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao truthfully answered her. "Miss Jessica thought that I was her old friend, but we had never met before, and she left shortly after our brief conversation."

"I see." Ouyang Qing nodded in understanding and let go of Tang Xiao's hand. "All right, you can go back to your room."

"Yes, Young Miss."

Ouyang Qing remained standing in her spot and looked at Tang Xiao, who was walking away. "He did look handsome when I saw him from afar before, but he looked even more attractive after seeing him up close. His body looked perfect with his muscles bulging out from under his shirt, but unfortunately, he was a poor chauffeur without any status."

Thereafter, Ouyang Qing hurriedly returned to her room, but she had many questions about Tang Xiao in her mind.

Upon arriving at her room, Ouyang Qing found Jessica still asleep. She hurriedly cleaned herself up and lay down beside her, but several thoughts kept popping into her mind, one of which was the video of Yu Xiaoling's husband.

After returning to his room, Tang Xiao closed the door and used his true eyes to search for Su Rou, discovering that she was already fast asleep. Then, he went straight into the ark to meet Tang Yin.

"Why don't you do something with Meng Xin?" Tang Yin asked with a teasing smile when Tang Xiao entered the laboratory.

"We both know that Meng Xin is a kind-hearted woman, and she acted that way due to her depression, so I won't take advantage of her difficult situation." Tang Xiao then stood beside the capsule and looked at Yu Xiaoling, who was asleep in it. "She's already a cultivator, huh?"

"Yes." Tang Yin handed him a storage ring. "Xiao Ai extracted a lot of Yin Qi from us and stored it in many bottles, and you can use them to improve your cultivation."

"Eh?" Tang Xiao turned to Tang Yin with surprise. "Did you ask Xiao Ai to extract your Yin Qi?"

Tang Yin nodded at him. "I would rather not do it myself, so I asked her to do it."

"I see." Tang Xiao hugged Tang Yin and kissed her forehead. "In that case, I will also do the same, and you can use my Yang Qi for your cultivation."

"Hehe." Tang Yin giggled as she nodded. "What are your next plans? When will you start your plans against Ran Linfeng?"

"When I accompanied Meng Xin just now, I discovered something interesting, and I thought I could use it on Zhao Yixuan." Seeing Tang Yin's curious expression, Tang Xiao told her about the effects of his celestial bloodline, and he also told her about some of his plans for the Ran Family. "What do you think about that?"

"I see." Tang Yin nodded her head several times. "Your plans aren't bad, and I will fully support you. Zhao Yuxian often goes to the spa for massages, so you can sneak in there to do something against her."

Tang Xiao smiled evilly. "Even though they are our family, their mistakes are truly unforgivable, and I will make them both pay dearly for their betrayal of our parents."

"Our parents were always good to them, but both of them betrayed them. Therefore, they have to bear the consequences of their betrayal." Tang Yin then reminded him.

"However, I don't want you to become a villain like Ran Linfeng, and you must make Zhao Yixuan surrender herself to you of her own accord."

"I know." Tang Xiao then lay down in the other capsule, and he asked Xiao Ai to extract his Yang Qi so that Tang Yin could speed up her cultivation.

After Xiao Ai finished helping him, Tang Xiao took Tang Yin back to their room, and they used each other's Yang and Yin Qi to cultivate.

After they cultivated for three days, their Qi helped each other to break through to the second minor stage, and their cultivation reached the middle level.

"How do you feel after breaking through, Xiao'er?" Tang Yin asked with a satisfied smile as her strength increased a bit.

Tang Xiao clenched his fists. "I feel a little stronger, but it's still insufficient to fight Long Yin."

"Even our grandpa and Aunt Lingyan were unable to fight Long Yin, so we still have to wait a long time to fight him." Tang Yin herself also couldn't wait to become stronger and take revenge on their enemies, and she then conveyed her idea. "What do you think if we go to Earth II? As cultivators, that place is the most suitable for us to train, and we can train there together."

"Actually, I've thought about that too, but our cultivation is still at the bottom right now. Besides, you don't have any fighting experience, and you'll have a challenging time adapting to that place." Tang Yin let out a disappointed sigh after hearing that, but Tang Xiao immediately comforted her. "I can understand your feelings, but you don't need to be disappointed like this, and I will take you to that place one day. For now, we don't need to think about Long Yin, and we should focus on destroying those families first. Moreover, our grandpa and my master will return to this city soon, and we will meet them to discuss this matter with them."

"All right then." Tang Yin lay down on the bed. "You should go back to Ouyang House, Xiao'er. Who knows, Jessica will come to you again tonight."

"Yeah." After Xiao Ai informed him of several things, Tang Xiao asked her to take Yu Xiaoling back to the prison, and he immediately left the ark and returned to the Ouyang House.

Ouyang Qing, who was sleeping, opened her eyes slightly when she sensed movement beside her. She discovered Jessica sneaking out, but she didn't stop her.

After Jessica left, Ouyang Qing immediately got out of bed and went to the window, focusing her attention on Tang Xiao's room.

Ouyang Qing was suspicious of her friend after Tang Xiao admitted that Jessica went to see him last night, and she was curious about her friend's reason for meeting a chauffeur like him.

As she expected, Ouyang Qing saw Jessica go to that room, but she noticed her friend was hesitant to meet Tang Xiao. "Is she having an affair with him? That's impossible, right? She's different from Qinlin, and she's always loyal to her husband, so it's impossible for her to have an affair with a chauffeur."

Curious about their relationship, Ouyang Qing decided to go there, and she wanted to check Tang Xiao and Jessica's relationship directly.

After she thought about it over and over again, Jessica decided to knock on Tang Xiao's room, and he hurriedly opened the door for her.

"Let's talk inside." Jessica hurriedly walked in, making a faint smile appear on Tang Xiao's face before closing the door.

"Why did you come here again, miss?" Tang Xiao softly asked as he enveloped Jessica with his aura.

At first, Jessica wanted to confront Tang Xiao about his reason for kissing her last night, but her heart thumped after he did that, and his aura deepened the effect of his Heart-Seizing Technique on her. Her desire to scold him instantly disappeared; instead, she felt an incredible calmness coming from him. 'Ugh! Why am I reacting like this? I wanted to scold him, but instead I felt calm being around him.'

"Miss." Jessica threw herself at Tang Xiao and hugged him, but she said nothing and felt the calmness that radiated from him, making him laugh in his heart. He himself didn't say anything to her, hugged her in silence, and rubbed her back. 'Haha! I knew you'd come back to me again.'

Due to his sensitive hearing, Tang Xiao heard someone walking carefully toward his room, and he discovered that Ouyang Qing was already standing in front of it.

Ouyang Qing pressed her cheek against the bedroom door, trying to listen to their activities inside. However, Tang Xiao and Jessica remained silent, making her even more curious about them.

Tang Xiao spread his aura out of the room and enveloped Ouyang Qing with it. 'Hehe! I won't do anything to you now, but you will fall into my hands when your turn comes.'

Tang Xiao took Jessica to the bed, and he sat there before lifting her onto his lap, causing her heart to beat fast.

Jessica felt weird and awkward sitting on another man's lap, but she didn't let go of her embrace and enjoyed the calmness more, even more so when Tang Xiao's light qi entered her body. 'What kind of feeling is this? Why do I feel so calm with him?'

"Miss." Tang Xiao called as he lifted Jessica's chin, looking at her eyes with a smile. "Are you calm now?"
