Chapter 41: With Jessica

Jessica nodded slightly as she blushed. "I don't know why, but I feel so calm when I'm with you like this. I wanted to scold you for being so rude by kissing me without my permission last night, but my anger disappeared as soon as I saw you."

'Heh!' Tang Xiao inwardly snorted. "Does that mean I can kiss you if I ask your permission first?"

Jessica was momentarily stunned. "No! I have a husband! I'll go back to my room now."

"Don't you feel comfortable with me, miss?" Tang Xiao held her back.

"I—" Jessica nodded to him. "I'm comfortable being with you, but I can't do this because I'm a married woman."

Tang Xiao smiled at Jessica, making her confused and restless. His Heart-Seizing Technique affected her heart and soul, and his aura gave her extraordinary comfort. "There's no one here but us, miss."

"But—"

Tang Xiao pressed his index finger to her lips. "Miss, I know you missed our kiss, and no one will know if we don't talk about it outside."

Jessica bit her lower lip, feeling confused about whether to allow Tang Xiao to kiss her or not. On the one hand, the effect of his technique and aura made her want to kiss him, but on the other hand, she didn't want to cheat on her husband.

"Can I?"

Jessica eventually surrendered to the comfort that Tang Xiao gave her, and she pushed him onto the bed. She closed her eyes and took the initiative to kiss him, to which he responded immediately. 'He's an amateur kisser.'

Even though he was an amateur, Tang Xiao was a fast learner, and his kissing gradually got better. Soon, they were already engaged in a hot French kiss with their tongues moving from one mouth to another; they occasionally sucked each other's lips and tongues while enjoying their warm nectar.

'His kisses are becoming increasingly enjoyable.' Jessica trembled slightly when Tang Xiao touched her buttocks, but she didn't stop him. He gently fondled them, feeling their suppleness and softness. "Mhmm..."

The longer they kissed, the deeper and hotter their kisses became, causing Jessica to let out repeated muffled moans. Since she was wearing pajamas, Tang Xiao rolled up her upper pajamas and stroked her smooth back, unhooking her bra strap.

Jessica was startled by that, but Tang Xiao swiftly reversed their position. He held both her hands above her head and kissed her more passionately, and his other hand moved to her chest, fondling her massive breasts from the outside.

"Mhmm..." Jessica jerked and tried to release her hands from his grasp, but he held them tightly. "Mhmm..." 'Ugh! This is bad! I won't be able to control myself if he keeps doing this to me! I have to stop him, or it will be too late.'

Jessica tried to stop their kiss, but Tang Xiao didn't give her the chance to do so. He inserted his hand into her upper pajama, shifted her bra up, and groped her bare breasts.

"Mhmm..." Jessica was shocked by that, but Tang Xiao's actions quickly aroused her lust, especially when he rubbed her thick nipples. Her nipples hardened and became increasingly sensitive, and sexual pleasure quickly took over her mind. "Mhmm..."

Tang Xiao didn't use his pleasure touch on Jessica; instead, he focused his true eyes on the sensitive points of her body, stimulating one after another.

"Mhmm..." Jessica's struggles gradually weakened, and she began to enjoy the pleasure of their kisses, combined with his playing with her breasts and nipples. Her legs rubbed against each other, and her underwear began to get wet with her sexual fluid. "Mhmm..."

When Jessica was fully aroused, Tang Xiao unbuttoned her pajama buttons one by one before opening the upper part, revealing her massive breasts, which had long been free from their cage.

After Tang Xiao broke their kiss, Jessica stared at him with a lustful gaze. He moved to her ears, licking and occasionally nibbling on them in turn. His hands moved actively on her chest and massaged her breasts, and he also rubbed her nipples, bringing her lust to its peak.

Although he was still inexperienced, Tang Xiao had learned a lot about sex from the sex textbook Xiao Ai had given him, giving him a better understanding of sex.

"Mhmm..." Tang Xiao released Jessica's hand, moved down to her neck, and nimbly licked all over it. She grabbed his head, pressed it against her neck, and rubbed the back. "Mhmm... Feng Xiao..."

Jessica suddenly pushed Tang Xiao's head down to her chest, giving him a signal to stimulate her breasts. He licked the smooth skin around her breasts and wet it with his saliva, then he devoured one of her nipples, causing her to arch upward and release a louder moan. "Ahh..."

Luckily, Tang Xiao had installed a soundproofing device from the start, preventing Ouyang Qing outside from eavesdropping on them. As he stimulated Jessica's breasts and nipples, he inserted his hand into her lower pajama and rubbed her wet underwear.

"Ahh..." Jessica moaned louder as her body kept rising and falling on the bed. "Ahh... Feng Xiao... more gentle..."

Tang Xiao lifted Jessica's underwear and inserted his hand inside, and he began to touch her soaked pussy, causing her to writhe in delight. He parted her labia to search for her most sensitive point hidden between them, and he rubbed it once he found it.

"Ahhh... No..." Jessica's body trembled violently, and she hugged Tang Xiao's head tightly. Her legs tightened around his hand, and her vagina squirted her sexual fluid. "Ahh... I'm cumming... Feng Xiao!"

Tang Xiao didn't expect that Jessica would reach her orgasm as soon as he rubbed her clitoris, and her sexual fluid wet her hand on her pussy. 'Her clitoris is really sensitive, huh?'

Moments later, Jessica had stopped orgasming, causing her embrace and grip on Tang Xiao's head and hands to loosen. She breathed heavily as she looked at him, but she felt embarrassed toward him. She was a married woman with experience in sex, but she reached orgasm merely because of his stimulation.

"Did you enjoy your orgasm, miss?" Tang Xiao asked with a smile.

"Uhm." Jessica shyly admitted it, but she was shocked when Tang Xiao tried to take off her lower pajama. She grabbed his hand and shook her head at him. "Please don't do it, Feng Xiao. I am a married woman, and I really don't want to betray my husband."

"Alright." Tang Xiao didn't force Jessica; instead, he lay down on her side and pointed to the big bulge under his short pants. "What about this thing, miss?"

Jessica was stunned as she gawked, and she blushed imagining the big bulge under Tang Xiao's short pants.

"Can you help me with it, miss?" Jessica looked at Tang Xiao but didn't answer him; instead, she stretched her hand and rubbed the hard bulge from outside, and her heart pounded at the feel of its hardness and size.

Tang Xiao suddenly pulled down his short pants and underwear, and his dick towered before Jessica's eyes, causing her to swallow her saliva. 'Oh gosh! It's too big!'

If Tang Xiao was still the old him, his dick size would be no different from men in general. However, Xiao Ai had already reconstructed his body, and he also awakened the War God Physique, making his body undergo significant changes.

Jessica shifted slightly and held Tang Xiao's dick with both hands, but she couldn't hold it all the way. She started jerking his dick, and it enticed her. She started licking his glans, causing him to moan. 'Ugh! I shouldn't be doing this for another man.'

As she licked Tang Xiao's dick, Jessica stole a glance at him and smiled faintly at his expression. She placed his shaft in her cleavage and inserted the glans into her mouth, giving him a blowjob and a titjob simultaneously.

"Ugh." Tang Xiao moaned as he rubbed Jessica's head, and an evil smile appeared on his face. 'Heh! The time for you to fall will come soon.'

Jessica inserted Tang Xiao's dick deeper into her mouth; she licked it and sucked it quite hard, but her actions made him unable to hold back his orgasm any longer.

Jessica was shocked when Tang Xiao's dick was pulsating in her mouth, and she wanted to release it. She was too late because he had released a huge amount of his cum into her mouth, flowing down to her throat directly.

'Ugh! I should have known that this would happen because he is inexperienced!' Despite this, Jessica still swallowed Tang Xiao's cum, as it gave her a strange feeling, which was the same feeling she got from her light qi and aura. 'I've never swallowed my husband's cum before, but now I'm swallowing another man's cum.'

Once Tang Xiao stopped orgasming, Jessica quickly released his dick from her mouth, and she then got out of bed to straighten her pajamas. "Please forget what happened tonight, okay? This is the first and last time I did this for you."

"I know." Tang Xiao stood up and straightened his short pants before using his qi to help Jessica clean her mouth and body, which confused her. "Thank you, miss."

"No need." Jessica left Tang Xiao's room without realizing the presence of Ouyang Qing, who was hiding in the distance.

Thereafter, Tang Xiao closed his door and lay down on the bed with a satisfied smile. "Haha! You can say that, but you will definitely come to me again soon."

Chapter 42: Feng Yao

Jessica was confused when she returned to the room because Ouyang Qing wasn't there, but she quickly climbed into bed and covered herself with the blanket. She blushed as she rubbed her lips, remembering her previous crazy action of giving Tang Xiao a blow job. She even swallowed his cum, something that she never did for her husband.

Jessica suddenly heard the door open, and she naturally realized that it was Ouyang Qing, so she pretended to be asleep.

Ouyang Qing walked to the bed with a suspicious look, but she was also confused because she didn't hear any sound from Tang Xiao's bedroom before. She climbed into bed and sniffed Jessica's body, but she couldn't smell a man's scent from her.

'Was my previous assumption about them wrong? Are they not having an affair?' Ouyang Qing decided to ignore it and lie down next to Jessica, but there was a lingering feeling in her. 'What was that feeling before? I felt so comfortable when I was in front of his room, and I almost got caught by her when she left his room.'

The next morning, Su Rou goes to see Tang Xiao on Yi An's orders, but she keeps looking suspiciously at him, causing him to frown. "Why do you keep looking at me like that?"

"Did you do something with Madam Yao?"

"Why don't you ask Madam Yao directly?" Su Rou pouted her lips, as it was impossible for her to ask Meng Xin such a thing, but Tang Xiao then told her. "I didn't do anything with her, and I just waited for her to sleep."

"Oh." Su Rou immediately turned around and spoke to him. "Let's go! "Madam Yi wanted to accompany Madam Yao back to Yao House because if she goes back alone, Yao Wei will harass her."

Tang Xiao went straight to the parking area to get the car, and then he drove the three of them to Yao House. However, Yi An and Su Rou didn't notice that Meng Xin was behaving strangely as she kept glancing at him through the rearview mirror.

Tang Xiao was certainly aware of that, and he glanced at Meng Xin as he smiled, causing her to blush after remembering their time together last night. 'Ugh! What was I thinking last night? Why did I ask him to have sex with me?'

They had arrived at Yao House, but they didn't meet Yao Wei because he had left early in the morning. Yi An and Su Rou helped Meng Xin tidy up her personal belongings.

Tang Xiao circled Yao House to assess the areas and devised a plan for Yao Wei. 'People will be suspicious if I destroy him and Ran Linfeng simultaneously, which will put the other families on alert. Although I'm not afraid of them, I'm afraid that Ouyang Hong will ask Long Yin for help to investigate everything, and I'll have a hard time destroying them.'

[Master, I think it would be wise to hold yourself back for now, and you can think of a way to get rid of Yao Wei after you destroy Ran Linfeng.]

'You're right.' Tang Xiao replied by nodding in agreement. 'What about the situation at Ran House?'

[There's nothing important there, Master. Zhao Yixuan was panicked because her son had not returned, but she was on her way to the airport to pick up her twin daughters, Ran Xue and Ran Yue. As for Ran Linfeng, he hasn't returned home since yesterday, and he went to another city to meet someone.]

'Oh? Do you know which city Ran Linfeng went to? Who was that person he met in town?'

[Since you intended to destroy Ran Linfeng, I kept monitoring his activities. He went to Shenyang to meet Yang Shiya, and they spent time together there.]

'The Shiya?' Tang Xiao raised his eyebrows after hearing the name. 'Isn't she Yang Kang's sister? As I recall, she was married to Hu Wenlong, and they have been living abroad since then.'

[Yang Shiya was previously married to Hu Wenlong, who died of pancreatic cancer a year ago. After his death, she decided to return to this country, while her two sons still live abroad. No one knows about her return, except for Ran Linfeng, and they have been together ever since.]

Tang Xiao smirked faintly. 'I want you to record their activities, and I will use those recordings to destroy them.'

[I already recorded their activities before you ordered me, Master. Although there are not many recordings about their activities, I am sure that they will make Zhao Yixuan disappointed and depressed, and you can take advantage of her situation to get close to her.]

'That's great!' Tang Xiao inwardly exclaimed.

Xiao Ai then asked him. [Do you want me to send those recordings to Zhao Yixuan?]

'Have you investigated Zhao Yuxian's schedule?'

[Master, she has an appointment with her friend to go to the spa tonight.]

'I see.' Tang Xiao nodded slightly. 'In that case, I'll meet her there tonight, and you can send those recordings to her tomorrow.'

[Alright.]

"Feng Xiao!"

Tang Xiao turned to Su Rou, who was shouting at him from a distance, and he saw the three women standing near the car with several large suitcases. He went over to them and drove them away from Yao House.

In the car, Yi An asked Tang Xiao to take her and Su Rou to a place for a meeting with some clients, so he took them there before he took Meng Xin to Feng Yao's office.

Sometime later, they arrived at Feng Yao's office, but Tang Xiao was surprised by Tang Yuan's presence. 'Oh right! I forgot that she works in this office, and they are close friends.'

However, Tang Xiao was surprised by Feng Yao's current appearance, as she was different from the last time they met. 'She is more mature and more attractive than she was seven years ago.'

Feng Yao had a charming oval egg-shaped face, and her shoulder-length brunette hair was tied back in a ponytail. She has two slanted eyes with clear black pupils, a slightly big nose, and thin but wide lips covered in red lipstick. Her figure is almost as tall as Tang Xiao, but she looks too slim. She appears mature in her white blouse paired with a black blazer that accentuates her D-Cup breasts, while her lower half is covered by black skinny trousers.

Even though Tang Xiao was using his disguise, Tang Yuan could recognize his nephew easily through his qi, and she also noticed his glance at his best friend. 'This brat! Is he interested in Feng Yao?'

'Hmm? A rookie cultivator?' Feng Yao muttered as she looked Tang Xiao up and down. 'Who exactly is this young man? Why does he disguise himself as a chauffeur even though he is a cultivator?'

"I didn't expect to see you here, Yuan." Meng Xin's words brought the two women back to their senses, and she immediately sat down in front of them as she placed some documents on the table. "Yao, I leave the matters of my divorce with Yao Wei to you."

"Why did you suddenly decide to divorce Yao Wei? Hasn't your marriage always been good?" Tang Yuan asked as she looked at her nephew, and she thought that Meng Xin decided it was because of Tang Xiao.

"You're wrong about that." Meng Xin answered Tang Yuan by shaking her head. "Outsiders always think that our marriage is fine, but no one knows what exactly happened between us. Honestly, I have always been depressed in the past five years, particularly because of Yao Shao's behavior; he was always rude to me, and he repeatedly abused me. Moreover, Yao Wei never thought about my feelings, so I divorced him, and I want to reorganize my life."

Feng Yao then asked Meng Xin. "Who is the man behind you?"

"Oh!" Meng Xin turned to Tang Xiao for a moment before answering her. "He is Yi An's chauffeur, Feng Xiao. She asked him to accompany me here before dropping me off at the airport after this."

"Are you going on holiday?"

"I haven't gone anywhere in the past five years, so I decided to take a vacation for a few days. I will use the time to calm myself down while thinking about my future plans." Both women nodded in understanding to Meng Xin. "I hope you can finalize my divorce with Yao Wei as soon as possible, so I can be a free woman when I come back from my vacation."

"Leave everything to me."

After they talked about some other things, Tang Xiao and Meng Xin left the office. Feng Yao turned to her best friend while asking. "Do you know that young man, Yuan?"

Tang Yuan exhaled softly before telling her. "We've been friends for so long, so I won't hide it from you. That young man just now is my nephew, Tang Xiao, but he's using a disguise technique."

"Xiao'er?" Feng Yao was truly shocked after hearing that. "How did he survive after falling into that ravine? How did he become a cultivator?"

Tang Yuan immediately explained it to her. "Someone saved Xiao'er from that ravine, and that person also taught him to be a cultivator. After he became a cultivator, he taught Yin'er to cultivate too. However, I don't know his savior's identity because he himself doesn't know anything about it."

"Hmm?" Feng Yao raised her eyebrows after hearing that. "Could it be someone from Earth II who saved him?"

Chapter 43: Wang Fuxi 1st Mentioned

Tang Yuan simply smiled at Feng Yao's question, as she couldn't possibly tell her that Tang Xiao's savior was not a person from Earth II but a person who came from the future.

Feng Yao felt suspicious toward Tang Yuan, and she was sure that Tang Yuan was hiding something from her. Despite this, she did not intend to pressure her into revealing anything, as everyone had their secrets. "Back then, you and Uncle Huang wanted to teach them to become cultivators like us, but Big Brother Ye rejected your wishes because he wanted them to live peacefully as ordinary humans, and Sister Jing didn't like the life of cultivators either."

"Yeah, you're right about that." Tang Yuan replied with a nod. "My late big brother didn't have cultivator veins, so he couldn't cultivate to become a cultivator, and he became accustomed to the life of ordinary humans. After marrying Big Sis Jing, who was also an ordinary human, they didn't want their children to come into contact with such a harsh and cruel world. Unfortunately, their decision had fatal consequences for them, and they had to go through seven years in such conditions. If they had allowed us to teach them how to cultivate, they would never have suffered such a fate; however, everything has already happened, and there is no point in regretting it."

"You don't need to regret everything that happened in the past because Xiao'er and Yin'er have returned, and they are cultivators now, so they can take care of themselves better." Feng Yao suddenly remembered something. "Do you think they will move to take revenge on them? Even though their enemies are ordinary humans, it is not easy to destroy them, especially the Ouyang family. Moreover, that woman will take action if they dare to attack ordinary humans, and she's no less terrifying than Long Yin."

Tang Yuan instantly frowned as soon as Feng Yao mentioned that woman, and she forgot to warn her nephew and niece about her. "Currently, she's still in seclusion, and she won't be coming out any time soon. Actually, Xiao'er and Yin'er have already started their revenge, and they might have finished everything before the woman comes out of her seclusion."

"Oh? What have they done?" Tang Yuan informed Feng Yao about their actions against Yu Xiaoling, Yao Shao, and the Ran Family, which surprised Feng Yao. "I didn't expect they would move so quickly, and no one was aware of their actions. I heard that Yao Wei was busy looking for his son, who had disappeared without a trace, while the female teacher unexpectedly died in an accident. I don't know what to say about Ran Linfeng and his family, especially since Zhao Yixuan is Big Sis Jing's little sister."

"Even though Zhao Yixuan is their maternal aunt, they hate her so much, especially Xiao'er." Feng Yao nodded understandingly, as she was aware of the incident that occurred 19 years ago, and Tang Yuan spoke to her again. "They have made a move to take down Ran Linfeng, and I believe that the Ran family will be completely destroyed soon, but I believe they will not be careless in doing so, or they will attract danger."

"You should warn them about that woman so they can prepare themselves to face her, as we won't be able to help them deal with her." Thereafter, Feng Yao stood up while taking the files from the table. "I will go to court to arrange Meng Xin's divorce, and I will go to see Yao Wei after."

After that, Tang Yuan returned to his office and locked the door. She then went straight into the primordial divine ark to meet her niece. She found Tang Yin and Xiao Ai were in the training ground, so she decided to follow them there.

When she arrived there, Tang Yuan saw Tang Yin struggling to stand up because the gravity around her was two times heavier than other areas. "What is Yin'er doing, Xiao Ai?"

"Aunt Yuan, my mistress is practicing using the gravity feature." Tang Yuan was surprised to hear that, and she then looked at Yu Xiaoling, who was sitting at the side of the room. "I helped her become a cultivator yesterday, and I extracted her Yin Qi for my master to cultivate."

"Does that mean Xiao'er has decided to become a dual cultivator?" Tang Yuan frowned when she asked that.

Xiao Ai nodded at her. "My master has decided to become a dual cultivator, but he still doesn't have a dual cultivation partner now. He and my mistress love each other, but they haven't started dual cultivating yet, so I'm helping him by extracting their Yin Qi."

Even though Tang Yuan had seen the DNA test results that showed Tang Xiao and Tang Yin were no longer blood-related, they were still her nieces and nephews, which made it difficult for her to accept their relationship.

Before long, Xiao Ai turned off the gravity feature, and she helped Tang Yin, who was exhausted after training for a long time.

"Are you looking for me, Aunt Yuan?" Tang Yin asked after Xiao Ai carried her in front of her aunt.

"Yes." Tang Yun nodded at her. "You two must be careful in executing your revenge, as a powerful cultivator protects those ordinary humans, and he will take action if you kill them. Her strength is not inferior to Long Yin, so you two must be alert and avoid her immediately if she appears in front of you."

Tang Yin frowned after hearing that. "Who is that woman?"

"Her name is Wang Fuxi, and she is the princess of the Wang Clan on Earth II."

"Can you find out information about that woman, Xiao Ai?" Tang Yin asked the question while turning to face her.

Xiao Ai tried to search for information regarding Wang Fuxi before informing her. "I couldn't find any information about her, Mistress. She must be a native of Earth II, so her data is not listed in your government database."

"Xiao Ai is right, Yin'er. Wang Fuxi was indeed born and raised on Earth II." Tang Yin immediately turned to Tang Yuan. "Even though she is the protector of those ordinary humans, she will never interfere in their affairs, so she didn't do anything when they killed your parents. However, you and Xiao'er are cultivators now, and she will never allow cultivators to kill them, so you guys must always be careful."

Tang Yin nodded in understanding. "I understand; I will convey this matter to Xiao'er later."

"Does Xiao'er have a special relationship with Meng Xin?" Tang Yuan was really curious about that. "I met them in Feng Yao's office just now, and she suddenly decided to divorce Yao Wei, so I thought that way."

"Haha." Tang Yin softly laughed before telling everything to her paternal aunt. "Unfortunately, Xiao'er is not yet willing to sleep with Meng Xin, and he'd rather wait for her to calm her mind first, or else she has become his woman since last night."

After hearing that, Tang Yuan sighed as she shook her head. "Meng Xin is a good woman, but she made the wrong decision to marry Yao Wei, so I hope Xiao'er will not hurt her feelings."

"Hehe." Tang Yin giggled. "Don't worry about that; Xiao'er won't treat Meng Xin badly because she didn't do anything wrong to us."

"I hope so." After saying goodbye to them, Tang Yuan left the ark again, as she still had a lot of work.

"Bring me back to the residence area, Xiao Ai."

"Yes, Mistress." Xiao Ai then took Tang Yin out of the training ground. "After Yu Xiaoling finishes her cultivation, I will take her back to the factory."

Meanwhile, Tang Xiao and Meng Xin had arrived at the airport, but they didn't get out of the car straight away, as her flight schedule was still quite long.

Meng Xin suddenly moved to the lap of Tang Xiao, who was sitting in the driver's seat. She pulled the handle to recline the back of the seat and kissed him directly, surprising him.

'She has been acting like this since last night! I hope she got rid of her depression after she came back from her holiday.' Tang Xiao inwardly sighed, but he then held Meng Xin's head and returned her kiss, making her feel ecstatic in her heart.

Meng Xin felt a little amused by Tang Xiao's awkward kiss, and she guided him in a proper, slow but intimate kiss. Gradually, their kisses became more heated, and they started a French kiss, but she was more active than him.

After a while, they stopped their kiss, and Meng Xin laid her head on Tang Xiao's shoulder. "Honestly, I'm confused about why I've been acting like this toward you since last night, Feng Xiao. You are still young and have a girlfriend, while I am still Yao Wei's wife. However, I feel comfortable being next to you, and I enjoy kissing you so much."

"You don't need to think about Yao Wei anymore, right?" Tang Xiao hugged Meng Xin's waist. "For now, you must enjoy your vacation, and you don't need to think about other things. Feng Yao will finish your divorce before you return, and you will be a free woman again when you return to this city."

"Yeah." Meng Xin looked at Tang Xiao. "Hey, are you really not embarrassed to be with an old woman like me? Is your girlfriend really not mad if we get into a relationship?"

Chapter 44: Ran Twins

"To tell you the truth, I never think about age. As for my girlfriend, she—" Tang Xiao's smartphone suddenly rang, and he hurriedly picked up the call. "My girlfriend wants to talk to you."

"Huh?" Meng Xin received Tang Xiao's smartphone in shock, but not a word came out of her mouth, as she was afraid that his girlfriend would be angry with her.

[Sister Meng Xin, my boyfriend explained everything to me last night, and I don't mind if you really like him. However, you don't need to make a decision now, and you can think about everything during your vacation. After all, not all women can accept a polyamorous relationship, and we'll talk face-to-face after you return to this city.]

Meng Xin was speechless after hearing Tang Yin's words, and she looked at Tang Xiao, who was smiling at her.

"Do you believe me now?" Tang Xiao asked her as he took his cell phone from Meng Xin's hand.

"Yes."

They suddenly heard a call to enter the terminal, and Tang Xiao escorted Meng Xin to the entrance. "I will meet you again."

"I will wait at the Ouyang House."

After she kissed Tang Xiao, Meng Xin went straight into the airport building to check in, but she kept looking back at him.

Tang Xiao did not leave the airport because Xiao Ai had previously told him that Zhao Yuxian was picking up her twin daughters, and he walked toward the arrival exit while using his true eyes to look for her.

As he expected, Tang Xiao found Zhao Yuxian waiting not far from the exit, but her expression was still excited to welcome her twin daughters home.

'You can still be happy now, but the situation will change after you see those recordings.' Tang Xiao then approached Zhao Yuxian and sat in the empty chair beside her, surprising her. He didn't look at her and pretended to be waiting for someone, but he secretly used the Heart-Seizing Technique on her while enveloping her with his aura.

Zhao Yuxian got a strange feeling after Tang Xiao did that, and she repeatedly stole glances at him, but he pretended not to know. 'What happened? Why does the presence of this young man make me feel comfortable?'

After they waited long enough, Tang Xiao saw twin teenage girls holding hands walking out of the arrivals door, and they looked cheerful.

Both girls are 17 years old, and they have identical oval faces that are no less beautiful than their mother's. Even their appearances are completely similar, making it difficult for people to tell them apart. Both of them have slightly wavy, long black hair with bangs covering their foreheads; their eyes are slightly wide with dark brown pupils; their noses are slightly large and sharp; and their sweet lips are slightly thick at the bottom.

They have tall figures, with a white camisole and white sweater revealing their slender bodies and highlighting their collarbones. Even though their chest size not that big, they are not small either.

"Mom!" Both girls shouted as they rushed over to their mother.

Upon hearing her daughters' calls, Zhao Yuxian ran over, hugged them, and asked. "How was your holiday? Are you both having fun there?"

"Haha." Both girls laughed and nodded to Zhao Yuxian, and Ran Yue spoke to their mother. "Actually, I'm not satisfied with my vacation, but our college will start soon, so we have to go home."

"That's true; I actually want to continue my vacation, especially since it's cold there and not as polluted as this city." Ran Xue then looked behind her mother and asked her a question. "Mom, where are our father and big brother? Why didn't they come with you to pick us up?"

Zhao Yixian sighed softly, embraced her two daughters' shoulders, and led them to the parking area while explaining something to them. "Our family is facing a difficult situation right now, and your father has gone to see someone for help. As for your big brother, he hasn't come home since last night. I've tried to contact him, but his number is turned off."

Tang Xiao carefully followed them, and he heard Ran Yue ask her mother. "What kind of difficult situation do you mean, Mom?"

"Have you contacted Big Brother's friends to ask about his whereabouts?"

"I've contacted Ouyang Ming and his other friends, but none of them know Qingfeng's whereabouts." Unfortunately, Zhao Yuxian was still unaware that her son had died in Tang Yin's hands and Tang Xiao had burned his body to ashes. "We have to start saving now because our family's wealth suddenly disappeared by more than three-quarters, and your father is investigating everything, but his efforts still have no results."

"Hmm?" Both girls frowned after hearing that. "How could that happen, Mom? Did our father lose a lot when he gambled?"

"No." Zhao Yuxian shook her head at them. "Even though your father still often gambles, he is no longer as crazy as he used to be. Our wealth disappeared for no apparent reason, and the bank had difficulty tracking everything."

"That's weird! How could the bank not know where our wealth disappeared? Has our father asked Uncle Ouyang for help to trace it?"

"Your father has asked Ouyang Hong for help, but he is still abroad now, so we have to wait for him to come back in a few days. All right, there's no need for the two of you to worry about that issue; we'll take care of everything, and both of you must get ready for your college." The two girls could only sigh and nod to their mother, especially since they couldn't do anything to help their parents. Soon, they arrived at their car, and Zhao Yuxian immediately took her two daughters to leave the airport.

"Just wait, Zhao Yuxian! Soon, I will destroy your family and make you regret betraying my parents." Tang Xiao then went back to his car and thought of another plan. "What should I do now? Yi An is in a meeting with those people, and they won't be finished any time soon."

After thinking for a while, Tang Xiao directly left the airport and went to the city, but he still didn't have a clear destination.

Yao Wei frowned as he listened to the report from one of his servants about Meng Xin's departure. 'Where is she going? Why did she bring her things? I still haven't managed to find my son, and she left me without saying anything.' "Did she tell you where she was going?"

"Madam Meng didn't tell me anything, but she went with Madam Yi and her assistant, sir."

"Leave." After the maid left, Yao Wei called Yi An, but she kept rejecting his calls. He tried to contact her personal assistant, and Su Rou told him that she was in an important meeting. 'Sigh, I have to wait for her to finish her meeting to ask about Meng Xin's whereabouts.' "How did their search go?"

"None of them have found any clues about the young master, sir."

"Where did Shao'er actually go? Why did he disappear without telling me anything?" Yao Wei wondered to himself as he sat on the sofa. "What about the airport?"

The old butler informed him directly. "They couldn't find his name on the passenger lists in the past two days, so he probably left this city on other public transportation."

"Order them to check the port, bus terminal, and train station!" The old butler nodded and left the Yao House again. However, someone suddenly entered the living room, causing Yao Wei to frown. "What are you doing here, Feng Yao?"

"Mr. Yao, I came here on behalf of Meng Xin, and she asked me to take care of her divorce from you." Yao Wei was shocked to hear that, and Feng Yao handed him some documents. "I have prepared all the necessary documents, and the trial will begin in a few days after you sign them."

"Why does Meng Xin suddenly want to divorce me?" Yao Wei asked as he looked at Feng Yao with an angry look.

Feng Yao narrowed her eyes. "Isn't it weird for you to ask me that? Meng Xin is your wife, and you guys have been married for five years, so you should be able to understand her thoughts and feelings, right?"

"Hmm?" Yao Wei's expression turned even angrier. "Where did Meng Xin actually go? I want to talk to her first."

"Meng Xin was going on a vacation to calm herself down, but I don't know her destination. Regardless, it is too late for you to change the situation because she has made up her mind. Therefore, you can sign these documents, and I will go to court to file for the divorce." Yao Wei wanted to ask her again, but Feng Yao stopped him. "The matter between you two is none of my business, and I came here to carry out my duties as her lawyer."

Yao Wei was increasingly furious, but Feng Yao suddenly released a bit of her aura, causing him to break out in a cold sweat.

"Don't waste my time." After Yao Wei signed them, Feng Yao took them and left.

Yao Wei wiped his sweat. "What the hell with that woman? How could she scare me so much? I didn't expect that Meng Xin would decide to divorce me, but I won't let her go."

Yao Wei contacted the old butler, and he asked him to track Meng Xin's whereabouts as well.

Chapter 45: Zhao Yuxian's Restlessness

"Wake up?"

"Hmm?" Jessica, who had just woken up, turned to Ouyang Qing. "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"What have you been doing in Feng Xiao's room in the past two days?" Ouyang Qing's direct question shocked Jessica. "Do you think I'm stupid? Did you think you could sneak in there without being caught? There are plenty of CCTV cameras in this house, and one of them recorded you going there, so you don't need to lie to me."

Jessica inwardly sighed, realizing that she had been too careless and should not have gone to see Tang Xiao. She immediately sat on the bed and answered her question. "Feng Xiao reminded me of an old friend, so I went to see him to confirm. Two nights ago he told me that we had never met him before, but I doubted that because I felt so familiar with him. Therefore, I met with him again last night, but I left immediately after asking him a few questions."

"Who is your old friend? Is he your ex-boyfriend?" Ouyang Qing suspiciously asked.

Jessica shook her head in response. "Qing, I've never loved any other man except for my current husband, okay? Feng Xiao's face resembles that of my old friend from elementary school, Huan Bing, and since they both came from the same city, I mistakenly thought he was my old friend."

"Hmm?" Ouyang Qing was still suspicious of Jessica, but she also knew that she had never liked any man apart from her current husband. "Are you really not having an affair with him?"

Jessica became confused by Ouyang Qing's attitude. "Your questions make me feel that you are jealous of me, Qing. Are you interested in Feng Xiao? If—"

"No!" Ouyang Qing denied it with a low cry. "Feng Xiao is a poor chauffeur; only a foolish woman would fall in love with him! Wen Tian is a thousand times better than him, and we will get married soon!"

'Do you think you would have had a chance to marry Wen Tian if your father hadn't threatened him? He only loved Tang Yin, and he still loves her to this day.' Jessica then got out of bed. "I have business at the office today, so I'll be leaving now. I'll return home tonight, or you'll continue to suspect me of having an affair with Feng Xiao."

"Hmm?" Ouyang Qing did not stop Jessica, but she still had suspicions about her. She contacted some of her subordinates, asking them to monitor her friend's activities.

Ouyang Qing then went to the bathroom to clean herself, and she left her house shortly after Jessica left.

Five young men were gathered in a park, and their expressions looked serious, especially after one of them informed them about the disappearance of one of their friends.

"Hey, Ming! I think this matter is really strange." The man with short black hair spoke. "First, Yao Shao suddenly disappeared without explanation, and to this day, Uncle Yao has still not managed to find him. Second, Ran Qingfeng went out with you and Meng Hao last night, but he suddenly disappeared, and no one knows his whereabouts."

Ouyang Ming sighed softly. "I agree with you, Yang Chen. "I also find their disappearances really strange, and I think that they are related to each other."

"Who is the mastermind behind their disappearance? Why would that person do that to them?" Another young man with spiky red hair asked them.

A young man with brown hair and a muscular body joined their conversation. "Furthermore, the Ran and Yao families are allies of ours; no one should have the audacity to harm them; however, that mysterious person still dared to act without anyone being aware."

"Hey! Actually, I have suspicions about one person, but I'm sure you guys will laugh at me." The other four turned to Meng Huo, who immediately told them about his suspicion. Tang Xiao is the only person with a deep grudge against our family, and we all know that the police have not been able to find his corpse, particularly because the location is deep and dark. That's why I think he might still be alive, and he was the one who kidnapped them, but I can't understand how he managed to do it so neatly."

"That's impossible!" Ouyang Ming exclaimed while shaking his head. "Bai Huang shot Tang Xiao straight in the chest twice, and they witnessed him fall into the ravine, so I'm sure he must be dead by now."

"Even if Tang Xiao was still alive, he would be crippled after falling from such a height, and he wouldn't be able to leave the ravine, so I don't believe that he was the culprit." Yang Chen then asked them. "Do you guys have any guesses about the other perpetrators? I know that Yao Shao has many enemies, and I wouldn't be too surprised if someone kidnapped him. However, Ran Qingfeng is different, and he doesn't have too many enemies, so I was confused by his disappearance."

They could only sigh after hearing that, and Shen Xiang spoke to Ouyang Ming. "Hey, I'm concerned that the culprits will target us next, so I think it would be better if you sent Bai Huang and his gang members to investigate their disappearances. If they manage to find the culprits, we won't have to worry like this."

"I've contacted Bai Huang, but he has a task from my father in Songjiang, so he won't be able to help us until he gets back to this city." Ouyang Ming then told them something else. "Anyway, I've gotten my father's permission to send people to monitor the Tang House, and I've ordered that person to capture Tang Yin if the opportunity arises."

Unlike Meng Huo, the other three men were shocked to hear that, and Lin Xia asked him. "Are you sure that person is capable of capturing Tang Yin? After that incident, Tang Yuan will definitely not let her niece out of her sight, and she will protect her like a mother hen protects her chicks."

"You're right, and I have also considered that issue myself." Ouyang Ming suddenly grinned confidently before telling them. "That's why I asked my father to send a special person, and she is much stronger than Bai Huang, so I'm confident that she can do something against Tang Yuan."

"Who is that person? Is she really strong? What about Tang Huang and Tantai Lingyan?" Yang Chen asked with a frown, especially since those two people were powerful and their family could destroy the Tang family because they let their guard down completely.

"I can't tell you about her identity, but she's really strong." Ouyang Ming then patted Yang Chen on the shoulder. "I understand your worries, but Tang Huang hasn't come to this city for seven years, and my father's people told me that Tantai Lingyan isn't in this city right now, or else we would have heard about her actions because of Tang Xiao's death."

"That's true." The others agreed with it, and Shen Xiang spoke to them. "Tantai Lingyan loves Tang Xiao so much, and their relationship was truly unusual, so she would be furious if she knew that he was dead. However, news of his death has been spreading for several days, but we still haven't heard anything about her, so I think we should take action against Tang Yin before she and Tang Huang return to this city."

"All right, I'm going home now. I still have other things to do, and you guys can wait for news from me about Tang Yin." Ouyang Ming then got up and walked to his car, and the others also followed him. "After that person captures that bitch, she will hand her over to me, and we will finish things that have been pending for seven years."

After they arrived at their house, the Ran Twins went straight to their room to rest because the long flight gave them jet lag, making Zhao Yuxian shake her head at their behavior.

After she ordered the maid to carry her twin daughters' suitcases to their room, Zhou Yuxian went to her study and took out her smartphone before calling her husband, Ran Linfeng. However, she couldn't contact him because his number was inactive, and she tried to contact several other people, but none of them knew her husband's destination, confusing her.

"Why did he deactivate his phone number? Is he in a meeting with someone?" Zhou Yuxian then called her friend, asking about their plans for tonight. "Alright, I'll meet you and the others at that place tonight."

Thereafter, Zhou Yuxian called several other people, especially the police, to ask about their search for her missing son. Unfortunately, she was disappointed because they still hadn't managed to track down the whereabouts of Ran Qingfeng, unaware that he had already died at Tang Yin's hands.

"Where did you actually go, Qingfeng? Why didn't you tell us your destination?" Zhao Yuxian suddenly felt dizzy thinking about the whereabouts of her missing son, and she hurriedly returned to her bedroom, but her mind could never calm down.

Tang Xiao was sitting on top of an office building while holding his cell phone, and his eyes kept looking at a repair shop that was right across from it.

[Master, Zhao Yuxian will meet her friends at night. By the way, my mistress said that you should see Xing Xing as soon as possible, and she is not far in front of you now.]

Chapter 46: Meeting Xing Xing

Tang Xiao sighed as he paid attention to Xing Xing, who was chatting with Chu Lingxi and Grandpa Chen in the repair shop. "She really interests me, but I'm not sure if she will be able to adapt to life as a cultivator. The world of cultivation is much harsher than the world of ordinary people, and I'm afraid that she won't be able to face those harsh things."

"Hehe, why do you keep thinking like that, Master?" Hun suddenly came out of the Sun Stone and sat down beside Tang Xiao. "The world of cultivation is indeed harsh, but you have many advantages that other cultivators don't have, so you don't need to think too hard about it. Moreover, that little girl seemed to be a smart girl, and she could probably understand many things about cultivating faster than other people."

Tang Xiao felt that her words were true, but he still had doubts that Xing Xing would be able to do it. "Have you ever fallen in love, Hun?"

"No." Hun replied by shaking her head. "I am a queen, and I have to think more about my people, so I don't have time to think about such a thing. Unfortunately, my planet and people are gone, and I have no one now."

Upon hearing that, Tang Xiao tried to embrace Hun, and he was surprised that he could touch her soul. "I thought only you could touch me, but it turns out I can touch you too."

"Master, we are cultivators, so our souls are different from ordinary humans." Hun then pointed to the Sun Stone on Tang Xiao's forehead. "Moreover, my soul is bound to that stone and Atropos Glory, and both of them are bound to you, which means my soul is also bound to you."

"Hmm?" Tang Xiao frowned after hearing that. "Does that mean both of them will be separated from me after you reshape your body in the future?"

"No." Hun shook in response. "On the contrary, we will be bound to you forever. We will be your strength, and you can ask me if you need my help."

Tang Xiao let out a sigh of relief because the sun stone could boost his fire element, and the Atropos Glory was an extraordinary weapon, so he didn't want to lose either one. "Does that mean you can fight my enemies in your current state?"

"Yes." Hun then told Tang Xiao about the disadvantages of her situation. "I'm in my weakest state right now, and my strength decreased considerably after I destroyed my body, so I can only help you fight cultivators who are on par with my current strength. If I fight cultivators stronger than me, then they can destroy my soul, and I will disappear forever."

"I see." Tang Xiao then rubbed Hun's head. "Even though your realm and your people are gone, you have me and the others, and we will be your new family."

"Thank you, Master." Hun returned to the Sun Stone before speaking in Tang Xiao's mind. [Master, you should go see that girl now, and you can teach her cultivation. This way, you will get a partner to help you improve your cultivation.]

Tang Xiao shook his head and looked towards Grandpa Chen's repair shop again, and he saw Xing Xing and Chu Lingxi leaving the place, but they were going in different directions.

Tang Xiao could hear that Chu Lingxi wanted to go back to their house, and Xing Xing wanted to go somewhere else to buy something. He jumped down from the building and followed her.

For some time, Tang Xiao followed Xing Xing to find out some things about her, but he was still hesitant about meeting her. After all, they were in a public place, and he was worried that his enemies would notice him, which would put him in danger if they saw them together.

Tang Xiao exhaled softly, used his transformation technique to change his clothes, and then approached Xing Xing, who was window shopping, gently bumping into her. "I'm sorry, I was daydreaming, so I accidentally bumped into you."

"Eh?" Xing Xing was momentarily surprised before smiling at Tang Xiao. "It's okay; I was also seriously paying attention to that item, but I didn't expect to meet you here."

"I didn't expect we would meet again so soon." Tang Xiao replied as he smiled.

"My name is Xing Xing, and I already have your number; however, I forgot to ask for your name, so I am hesitant to contact you." Xing Xing then stretched out her hand to Tang Xiao. "So, what's your name?"

"Feng Xiao." Tang Xiao replied while shaking her hand, but he was confused to see Xing Xing's expression. "What happened to you? Why do you react like this after hearing my name?"

"Nothing." Xing Xing withdrew her hand. "Honestly, I had a friend called Tang Xiao, but he passed away a few days ago. Your name was Feng Xiao, and it reminds me of him."

"Do you like that guy?" Tang Xiao, with a deadpan expression, asked her.

"I do like Tang Xiao." Xing Xing had no intention of hiding it. "Actually, our relationship wasn't that close back then because he liked someone else, and I was also busy with my studies."

Tang Xiao inwardly sighed and asked her again. "I remember you approaching me that day because you felt like you had met me before. Does that mean you felt that I had a resemblance to him?"

"That's right." Xing Xing then asked back. "Are you busy now? Shall we talk somewhere else?"

"I'm not busy right now, but I have to pick up some people in the next few hours." Tang Xiao then looked around to find a suitable place to talk to Xing Xing, but the area was too crowded. "How about we talk somewhere else while eating? I know a quiet and comfy place to talk, and you might like that place because their foods are delicious."

"Alright, show me the place."

'Sigh, I think I should buy my own car.' Tang Xiao inwardly muttered before leading Xing Xing away. "Let's go then; I parked my car not far from this place."

Xing Xing was not surprised to hear that because they first met at a luxury jewelry store, so she guessed that Tang Xiao was a rich man. Even so, she had no interest in his other identity, and she was only curious about him because of her familiar feelings toward him.

When they arrived at the side of the car, Tang Xiao immediately opened the passenger door for her. "Come in; I'll take you straight to that place."

"En." Xing Xing nodded smilingly and entered the car, but her eyes never left Tang Xiao, and he himself immediately got into the driver's seat before driving away.

Sometime later, they arrived in front of an old restaurant, and there were almost no customers there, but Xing Xing looked at the place with raised eyebrows. 'Why did Feng Xiao bring me here? This place is not far from my middle school, and I remember for sure that Tang Xiao often ate here in the past, especially their spicy chow mein and mapo tofu.'

Tang Xiao immediately got out of the car and opened the door for Xing Xing. "Do you dislike eating in old restaurants like this?"

"No." Xing Xing answered as she got out of the car. "I often ate at this place in the past, and Tang Xiao also liked their food."

'Crap! I didn't expect that she knew more about me than I thought!' After he closed the car door, Tang Xiao led Xing Xing into the restaurant and took her directly to an empty seat. "What do you want to eat?"

"Hmm? I just want to eat congee and hot jasmine tea."

Tang Xiao called a waiter over and ordered both for Xing Xing, but his subsequent words shocked her. "As for me, I want spicy chow mein and mapo tofu, and I also want chrysanthemum tea."

"Is that all?"

"Yes." After the waiter left, Tang Xiao turned to Xing Xing, who was looking at him seriously. "Why are you looking at me like this? Is there something strange on my face?"

Xing Xing responded by shaking her head. "Who exactly are you, Feng Xiao?"

"Why is that?" Tang Xiao asked in confusion.

"Tang Xiao liked eating at this restaurant in the past, and his favorite menu was spicy chow mein and mapo tofu." Xing Xing's answer made Tang Xiao sigh again. "He also likes chrysanthemum tea, and everything makes me feel that I'm looking at him now. However, the faces of the two of you are obviously different, so I feel confused by this."

Tang Xiao was completely speechless after hearing that, and he thought that Xing Xing was an experienced stalker; she could even know such details about him. "It seems you like him so much, huh? You even know so many things about him, including his favorite foods and drinks."

"Haha! You must think that I'm his stalker, right?" Xing Xing asked Tang Xiao with an awkward laugh. "As I told you before, I fell in love with him, but I didn't have the courage to confess my feelings to him. I always watched him from afar, and I did all that to get to know him better."

"Why don't you dare to confess your feelings to him? What exactly made you fall in love with him?" Tang Xiao curiously asked.

Chapter 47: Revelation

Xing Xing sighed heavily. "Our parents were old friends, and Uncle Ye helped our family a lot in the past. Even so, we never met each other when we were little, and we first met when we entered elementary school. However, he was cold toward everyone, and my parents told me that he became like that because he saw his parents being murdered."

Hearing that, Tang Xiao clenched his fists, but he immediately suppressed his anger so as not to confuse Xing Xing.

Xing Xing then spoke to Tang Xiao again. "Unlike him, Big Sis Tang Yin is much more open and warm, and I'm quite close to her because we met a lot before. I heard a lot about him from her, but our relationship was just schoolmates for so many years. Everything changed for me after he saved me from Lin Xia and his friends, and he beat them to a pulp by himself. If he hadn't intervened, my life would have been ruined because of them, and I have fallen in love with him ever since."

'Lin Xia?' Tang Xiao tried to search through his memories about the incident, and he finally remembered everything. 'So, Lin Yan joined Ouyang Qing to frame me because of her brother, huh?'

"Unfortunately, he is no longer here now, so I didn't have the chance to confess my feelings to him." Xing Xing spoke with a sad expression, and Tang Xiao noticed tears gently dripping from her eyes. She hastily wiped them away. "I'm sorry, I got too carried away with my feelings, and it would be better if we talked about something else."

"What if he were still alive now?"

"Why do you ask that?" Xing Xing responded with a faint smile. "Of course, I would be delighted if he were still alive."

"Would you confess your feelings to him if he were still alive?"

"I don't know." Xing Xing replied by shaking her head. "I do like Tang Xiao, but he doesn't know me, let alone like me."

Tang Xiao wanted to ask Xing Xing again, but the waiter suddenly came and brought the dishes, so they started enjoying them. 'Sigh, I suppose I ought to be honest with her, but how should I do so?'

Xing Xing repeatedly glanced at Tang Xiao, but there was doubt in her gaze, and she kept wondering in her mind.

Some time later, they had finished their lunch and left the restaurant. "Are you in a hurry to go home? If you still have time, I'd like to take you somewhere else."

"It's okay; I've already told my mom that I'll be home late, so we can go now." Xing Xing answered as she nodded to Tang Xiao.

After that, Tang Xiao took her to another location, but Xing Xing's expression instantly changed to one of shock upon their arrival. Her eyes trembled when she looked at him, mainly because the place was their former junior high school.

Tang Xiao didn't say anything to her and immediately got out of the car, so Xing Xing hurried to follow him. Her heart pounded when she realized where he was leading her, and her hands were clenched into fists in front of her chest.

After a while, they arrived at the rooftop, and Tang Xiao walked toward a chair on the north side before sitting there.

Seeing that, Xing Xing stood behind him, but tears were already dripping from her eyes, and her body trembled quite strongly. "You are him, right?"

"Yes." Tang Xiao answered without turning to Xing Xing. "How could you guess my identity?"

"At first, I felt a strange feeling when you introduced yourself as Feng Xiao; even though you used a different surname, you still used the name Xiao, and the feeling only got stronger after you took me to that restaurant and ordered those foods. There are no perfect coincidences in life; even twins have differences, so I think you two are the same person. Big Sis Tang Yin has already told me that you are still alive, and you might not realize it, but I could see the anger in your eyes when I mentioned your parents earlier. Your previous questions made me even more convinced about it, and this place confirmed everything since you often went up here in the past."

Tang Xiao smiled bitterly after listening to Xing Xing's explanation. "I didn't know anything about you in the past, and I didn't expect that you were so observant."

Hearing that, Xing Xing sat on Tang Xiao's lap while hugging his neck, and she let out a cry of overjoy. "Sob... Sob... You have no idea how heartbroken I was when I learned that you had fallen into that ravine; I cried uncontrollably for several days because of that, but I can relieve myself now that you have returned home safely."

"I'm sorry; I've made you feel such feelings." Tang Xiao gently spoke while hugging Xing Xing, but she shook her head and cried. He hugged her in silence, rubbed her back, and waited for her to finish expressing her sadness.

Sometime later, Xing Xing had stopped crying, and she looked at Tang Xiao while rubbing his cheeks. "How did you get out of that ravine safely? How did your face become different like this?"

"I myself didn't think before that I could survive that incident because that guy shot me twice in the chest, and I was seriously injured after I fell into that ravine." Xing Xing's heart tightened after hearing Tang Xiao's words. "However, I was lucky because someone saved me from the ravine, and he healed all my injuries, so I was able to come back safely. As for my face, this is not my real face, and this is just my disguise."

Xing Xing was stunned as soon as Tang Xiao canceled his transformation technique, which made the longing in her heart overflow after she saw his real face. She cupped his face and stared at him intensely. "How can you do such a thing? How can your face change instantly?"

"I'm confused about how to explain it to you, but I'm different from the old me." Tang Xiao decided to show it to Xing Xing directly, which shocked her as soon as they floated up. She hugged his neck tighter as she was afraid of falling. "This is one of the abilities I got from my savior, and we call ourselves cultivators."

"Cultivator? What is that?" Xing Xing asked in confusion, as she didn't understand such things, but she looked so excited as she saw the scene below.

Xing Xing was a little disappointed when Tang Xiao took her back to the rooftop, and he then explained to her about cultivators, but she still seemed confused by it. "I am aware that you are perplexed, but you are a smart woman, and I have no doubt that you will be able to understand everything once you give them more in-depth study."

"Can I really become a cultivator like you?" Tang Xiao nodded to her, but Xing Xing then put on a doubtful look as he asked again. "Why do you want to teach me to be a cultivator? After all, our relationship is just ordinary, and you don't know anything about me."

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed and cupped Xing Xing's face, causing her to blush. "Although our past relationship was nothing special, it is not too late for us to begin a better one, right? Honestly, I accidentally saw you at Grandpa Chen's repair shop, and I used my ability to eavesdrop on your conversation with him."

"Eavesdropper!" Xing Xing exclaimed softly as her face grew redder, but she then realized something. "Were you the one who cured my mother's illness? Many doctors had checked her condition before, but none of them could cure her, and one of them asked me to do intensive treatment on her, but he said that her chances of recovery were small."

"Yes." Tang Xiao nodded to Xing Xing. "I healed your mother because I wanted to repay your trust in me, especially since you were one of those who believed that I didn't commit that crime."

"Hehe." Xing Xing giggled and hugged Tang Xiao. "I have paid attention to you for so long, so I know your character very well, and I also know Ouyang Qing's bad character. That's why I always believe that you will never do such a thing to them, and I am pretty sure that they framed you back then."

"Thank you for your trust." Tang Xiao pushed Xing Xing back a little and looked at her eyes. Xing, I understand your feelings for me, and I was attracted to you when I saw you at Grandpa Chen's place. However, there was something unusual in my heart, and I would rather not hide it from you, so I want to tell you the truth."

"What do you mean by that? Why are you talking so convolutedly?" Xing Xing asked with a worried expression because she was scared that Tang Xiao's revelation would hurt her feelings.

Tang Xiao let out a sigh in his heart. "Xing, I know this will disappoint you, but I want you to know that I also like another woman, and she is my first love."

"Huh?" Xing Xing froze as her eyes blinked repeatedly; she followed Tang Xiao for a very long time in the past, and she knew a lot about him. "Do... do you still love Jessica even though she has framed you?"

Chapter 48: Convincing Xing Xing

Tang Xiao was momentarily taken aback. "Hahaha! I did like Jessica in the past, but I no longer have such feelings for her after her betrayal seven years ago. Furthermore, she was not my first love but the second, and she cannot be compared to my first love."

Xing Xing found it difficult to believe what she heard, as she had always thought that Jessica was Tang Xiao's first love; however, he was disappointed because she loved their former teacher. "Then, who was your first love? Do I know her?"

"She—"

"I am his first love, Xing'er." Xing Xing jumped forward in surprise before turning to face Tang Yin, and her eyes widened. "Xiao'er is my first love, and I am his first love."

"But... Big Sis Yin..."

"Let's talk somewhere else." Tang Yin grabbed Xing Xing's shoulder and took her into the ark, but she forbade Tang Xiao to follow them.

Tang Xiao breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly returned to his car, and he went straight to Yi An's meeting place.

Xing Xing sat on the flying car with a shocked expression, and her eyes continued to pay attention to every area they passed. "What kind of place is this, Big Sis? Where did you and Tang Xiao get a place that looks like a sci-fi movie like this?"

"Xiao'er got this place from his savior." Xing Xing looked at Tang Yin. "We don't know the identity of his savior, but he was a powerful cultivator in the past. We also don't know his purpose in choosing him as his successor, but this place and all the technology within it are important to us, and we can take revenge on those who destroyed our family. Xing'er, I know you have many questions about my relationship with Xiao'er, but we do love each other. However, we haven't taken our relationship any further, and we're still waiting for our grandfather to return."

Xing Xing felt really strange listening to Tang Yin's confession. "How did you two fall in love with each other, Big Sis? You two—"

"Indeed." Tang Yin nodded at her. "Our parents died when we were little, and we always spent our time together, making us dependent on each other. As we grew up and began to know love, our feelings grew naturally, and we fell in love with each other."

Xing Xing naturally knew Tang Yin and Tang Xiao were close since they were little, but she never imagined that they would end up falling in love with each other after they grew up, and their feelings made her feel uncomfortable.

"Xiao'er is my brother, but he is no longer my brother." Tang Yin's words confused Xing Xing. "As you can see, there is a lot of modern technology in this ark, but you haven't seen our laboratory, and there is more advanced technology there."

Tang Yin then gave a device to Xing Xing and asked her to read it, which was the result of the DNA test between her, Tang Xiao, and Tang Yuan.

The device displayed several videos documenting the various processes Tang Xiao underwent, including the moment he inherited the celestial bloodline from his future self, which caused his blood to turn violet-gold.

Xing Xing's heart ached seeing Tang Xiao have to go through all that process, but she was grateful that he survived death and returned as a better person. "Does this mean you two are no longer blood-related?"

"Yes." Tang Yin didn't take Xing Xing straight to the laboratory, and she took her to look around the other areas inside the ark first, which would make it easier for her to accept everything.

Tang Yin explained many things to her, especially about cultivators. Xing Xing listened to all of her explanations seriously while trying to digest the new things she got, including their relationship.

Xing Xing was completely shocked and amazed after they arrived at the small factory because all the machines there could produce Tang Yin's business products automatically, which did not yet exist on their earth. This way, she only needed to check everything once in a while to make sure her products were perfect.

Thereafter, Tang Yin took her to the farm area, where Xing Xing was once more astounded by the sophistication of the machinery. Not only can they grow various types of plants and herbs, but they can also raise animals.

Xing Xing felt confused upon seeing several types of beasts in that place, as she had never encountered such creatures before; Tang Yin explained to her that they were cultivator beasts, which are entirely different from ordinary animals.

Then, Tang Yin took Xing Xing to other places, starting from the training area, treasury vault, residence area, and dining area.

What interested her most was the hot spring area, and Xing Xing looked impatient to try soaking in it, but Tang Yin asked her to be patient and took her to the prison area.

When they arrived at the prison area, Xing Xing showed an uncomfortable reaction because Tang Xiao spent seven years in prison, but Tang Yin calmed her down and assured her that it was all over.

After she showed her the other areas, Tang Yin immediately took her to the laboratory, but Xing Xing was confused by the presence of another woman there. "Who is she, Big Sis?"

"Haha." Tang Yin softly laughed. "You can't recognize her because Xiao Ai has changed her face, but she is Yu Xiaoling."

"What?" Xing Xing screamed in shock as she had heard the news that Yu Xiaoling died in an accident, but she turned out to be still alive and had turned into another person. "Is she really her, Big Sis?"

"Yu Xiaoling betrayed Xiao'er, but she helped him a lot in the past. Therefore, we didn't punish her too severely, and we let her stay here with us as a new person." Tang Yin pulled her into the laboratory and approached the little girl. "This little girl is Xiao Ai, and she is the AI that controls all the machines inside this place. Her body is an artificial one, but she is our daughter. She has assisted us with various tasks, including the falsification of news regarding Yu Xiaoling's death."

Tang Yin's words baffled Xing Xing, and she looked at Xiao Ai up and down, finding that she was really similar to ordinary humans. She massaged her forehead, feeling that everything was too bizarre because their Earth did not yet possess such advanced technologies and machines. "Where exactly did Tang Xiao's savior come from? How could he pass down such an advanced place to him?"

"It's hard for me to explain it to you, but everything in this place is his creation, and you can understand it slowly." Tang Yin then turned to Xing Xing. "You've seen everything, so you should already understand why I'm willing to accept Xiao'er's feelings, right? Our relationship is considered taboo due to our blood relations, but he has changed, so there's no problem if I become his wife."

"I know, but—"

"Listen to me." Tang Yin interrupted while grabbing her shoulders. "I know you're not used to our relationship, but if you love Xiao'er, I hope you are willing to learn to accept it. If you are unable to accept it, you'll lose him forever, and you certainly do not want that to happen, right?"

Tang Yin's words hit the mark because Xing Xing didn't want to lose Tang Xiao, as she had suffered so much when she heard the news of his accident. However, he had returned safely, and she wanted to be with him, but she was in a dilemma after hearing about their relationship.

Tang Yin inwardly sighed and tried to persuade her again. "You've certainly heard the saying that opportunity won't come twice, right? Moreover, you've paid attention to Xiao'er for so long, so you should understand his character well, and he won't come to you again if you give up this opportunity. That's why I hope you can make the best decision for your future, lest you regret it for the rest of your life."

"Yes." Xing Xing nodded while clenching her fists tightly and then looked at Tang Yin with a face full of determination. "I love Tang Xiao so much, and I don't want to lose him. Even though it's hard for me to accept the relationship between the two of you, I will learn to accept it because I would rather not feel the pain and sadness of losing him again."

Listening to their conversation, Yu Xiaoling could only lament her fate in her heart, and she felt extremely jealous of her. Tang Yin treated Xing Xing as Tang Xiao's woman, but she treated her as a servant.

"That's good." Tang Yin helped Xing Xing take off her clothes, which confused her. "After this, lie down in one of the glass capsules, and Xiao Ai will help you to become a cultivator and strengthen your body, so you will be strong enough to protect yourself and your mother."

After she was naked, Xing Xing immediately lay down in the glass capsule according to Tang Yin's direction, and Xiao Ai gave her anesthesia before starting the process of strengthening her body. Besides, she also helped her become a cultivator and imparted some knowledge to her, especially about how to absorb qi from the air.

"I'll leave her to you, Xiao Ai." Tang Yin then turned around and spoke to Yu Xiaoling. "Follow me; I need to prepare some things."

Chapter 49: Four Cardinal Families

After he waited for a few hours, Tang Xiao saw Yi An and Su Rou walking out of the building, but he raised his eyebrows when he saw the man accompanying them.

"Is he your new chauffeur?" The man asked Yi An as he looked at Tang Xiao with a frown.

"His name is Feng Xiao, and he started working with me a few days ago." Yi An walked towards Tang Xiao after saying goodbye to the man, and the two women immediately got into the car. "You can take us home now."

"Yes, madam." Tang Xiao immediately took the two women away from the location. "Madam, do you have any other activities after this?"

Yi An considered several things first. "You can leave if you have other things to do, but I have a meeting tomorrow morning, so you must be ready by then."

"Yes, madam." Tang Xiao then asked Xiao Ai. 'What about Zhao Yuxian? Has she gone to meet her friend?'

[Zhao Yuxian is getting ready, Master.]

'Inform me if she leaves her house, Xiao Ai.'

[Yes, Master.]

After some time, they arrived at the Ouyang House. Exhausted from the long meeting, Yi An hurriedly entered as Tang Xiao watched her in thought.

"Are you leaving again?" Su Rou's question brought Tang Xiao back to his senses.

Tang Xiao nodded at her. "I have important business, so I have to go now, and I'll probably be back at dawn. By the way, who was the man who was with Yi An before?"

"His name is Huang Xiaoming, the head of the Huang Family." Tang Xiao raised an eyebrow after Su Rou mentioned that name. "If you believe that Ouyang Hong and the Ouyang Family are outstanding, you are mistaken, as there are five other families that hold a higher status, with the Huang Family being one of them. The other four are the Xi, Dong, Bei, and Nan Families."

"The four cardinals."

Su Rou nodded at Tang Xiao. "They have great power in our country, and they have total control in several business sectors, with the Huang Family as their leader. Ouyang Hong once took me to meet them when his personal assistant was sick, and they were very scary. He and the others had to bow in front of them, which you would never see anywhere else."

"Have you had fun with them before?"

"No." Su Rou denied with a shake of her head. "Their class is far above Ouyang Hong, so they are not interested in me. At that place, I saw several top actresses, and they were no different from their playthings."

"I see." Tang Xiao nodded in understanding, and he immediately ordered Xiao Ai to track down the people from the five families. Although he hasn't had any problems with them, it doesn't rule out the possibility that they will come to him, especially after he destroyed the Ouyang and other families. "I'll go now."

"Alright."

After he parked the car, Tang Xiao directly left the Ouyang House. He searched for an empty place before using the Void Dragon Steps to go to the meeting place of Zhao Yixian and her friends, but they hadn't arrived there yet.

Tang Xiao decided to enter the place and bribe the owner, allowing him to disguise himself as one of the workers there.

"How do you feel after becoming a cultivator like us?"

"I feel a little weird, but I can feel my body is stronger than before." Xing Xing answered Tang Yin's question as she got dressed. "Moreover, I suddenly knew many things I never knew before, and they suddenly popped out in my mind after I woke up."

"Hehe! While you were sleeping, Xiao Ai imparted many things in your mind. All of them were related to cultivation, so you could understand everything more easily." Xiao Ai did not impart all the knowledge in her database to Xing Xing, so only Tang Xiao and Tang

Yin had full control over the primordial divine ark. "Besides, she imparted a technique that was suitable for your lightning element, and I also asked her to impart the celestial Yin-Yang art to you. You can learn that, and you can dual-cultivate with Xiao'er once you are fully prepared."

Xing Xing's face instantly turned red hearing that from Tang Yin, as the new knowledge that Xiao Ai imparted to her mind included that, so she knew that dual cultivation was having sex with Tang Xiao.

"Haha." Tang Yin embraced her. "Honestly, I've never experienced dual cultivation myself, so I don't know what it's like to do it with Xiao'er. If you don't mind, we can do it together in the future."

Xing Xing chose not to respond to that, as she herself still didn't know when she would do it with Tang Xiao.

Tang Yin spoke to her again. "By the way, you don't need to worry about your mother because Xiao Ai already strengthened her body when she cured her illness, and you only need to teach her to become a cultivator like us. However, you shouldn't bring her here for now because this place is too otherworldly, and she'll probably be too shocked if she finds out everything, but you can bring her here after she gets used to everything."

"I know." Xing Xing replied with a nod of approval. "I still find it difficult to believe that cultivators exist, but I'm more shocked to learn about the existence of Earth II, and the vast majority of them live there without ordinary people realizing it."

"It's okay; you will adapt to your new life soon, and you should also start practicing the techniques that Xiao Ai has given you, so those bad guys won't dare disturb you like in the past." Tang Yin grabbed Xing Xing's hand, put a ring on her ring finger, and gave her a device. "You can use this device to go in and out of this place whenever you want, and you can also use it to communicate with Xiao Ai, so you can ask her for help if you need something. Besides, you can use this storage ring to store your personal belongings, so you don't need to carry many things when you travel."

"Haha." Xing Xing laughed happily, rubbed the ring, and then placed the device inside it. "What is Tang Xiao doing now? What plans do you two have for those people?"

"You certainly remember the incident that befell our family in the past, right?" Xing Xing nodded to Tang Yin. "Xiao'er has already killed Yao Shao, and I killed Ran Qingfeng."

Xing Xing was truly shocked to hear that they had already killed people. "Big Sis, isn't Ran Qingfeng your cousin?"

Tang Yin nodded at her. "Ran Qingfeng is indeed our cousin, but his morality is too disgusting. He joined Ouyang Ming and others to do that to me that night, but I decided to jump off that building, so they didn't succeed."

"Big sis." Xing Xing called softly and hugged Tang Yin. "I'm grateful that you survived and are healthy again."

"I am grateful that I managed to survive, and I will help Xiao'er to take revenge for our parents' death." Xing Xing sighed heavily after hearing Tang Yin's words. "Currently, our target is the Ran Family because Ran Linfeng was one of the perpetrators of our father's murder, and he participated in the cruel act against our mother. Zhao Yuxian was our maternal aunt, but she betrayed our parents. Therefore, she must accept the consequences for her actions, and she will be in the same boat as Yu Xiaoling."

Xing Xing was shocked to hear that Ran Linfeng and Zhao Yuxian were involved in the deaths of Tang Xiao's parents, and she seriously asked Tang Yin again. "Is he going to kill your uncle? Is he really going to do that to your aunt?"

Tang Yin unhesitatingly nodded at her. "Ran Linfeng is not the only one, but everyone involved in the incident that night must die. Xiao'er will never spare any of them, including Zhao Yuxian."

Xing Xing took a deep breath as she looked at Tang Yin in shock, and her body visibly trembled in horror at the thought of them killing so many people. Although her late father had once told her many details about the Tang family's demise, including the incident that Zhao Jing had gone through, she was still horrified when she thought about it.

"All right, you don't need to think about it, and you don't need to interfere in the matter because it is our family's personal matter. However, I hope you won't stop Xiao'er from taking revenge, or he will be disappointed in you." Xing Xing could only nod to Tang Yin. "It's already night outside, so let's go out now, or your mother will panic looking for you."

After they left the ark, Xing Xing rushed back to her house, and Tang Yin decided to return to Tang House, but Tang Yuan was already waiting for her there. "Eh? Are you going to live here from now on?"

"Yes." Tang Yuan replied with a nod. "I kept thinking about Wang Fuxi, so I decided to stay in this house, and I could protect you if a strong cultivator suddenly came here and targeted you."

"Aunt Yuan, you shouldn't worry too much about that, right?" Tang Yin answered as she approached her paternal aunt. "My cultivation is weaker than yours, but you should remember that I can escape into the ark if I'm in danger."

Chapter 50: Capture An Enemy

"You are still too naive, and you lack experience regarding cultivators." Tang Yuan pulled her niece down to sit beside her. "I know you can escape into the ark, but many cultivators possess incredible speed and can stop you before you manage to do so. Therefore, I hope you don't underestimate them, or you will face the consequences yourself. Do you understand?"

"I understand." Tang Yin suddenly sensed someone was watching them, so she looked outside with raised eyebrows.

"Hmm?" Tang Yuan followed her niece's gaze and used her senses to check that direction. "Do you know her?"

Tang Yin first asked Xiao Ai to check the woman's data. "I believe Ouyang Ming ordered that woman, who should be one of Ouyang Hong's subordinates, to monitor me."

"Hmm?" Tang Yuan frowned. "After their failure seven years ago, they still want to target you again, huh? What are you going to do to that woman? Are you going to kidnap her like Yu Xiaoling?"

"That woman is useless to Xiao'er." Tang Yin then stood up and used her darkness transformation, which shocked Tang Yuan. She had not told her that she was a darkness cultivator. "I know you are shocked to see my form, but this transformation is one of my techniques, and I will try my other techniques on that woman."

"Yin'er, you should be careful when using your techniques because many cultivators dislike darkness cultivators. Wang Fuxi is one of them, and she will kill you if she discovers this." Tang Yin nodded in understanding, and Tang Yuan immediately stood beside her. "What are you going to do to her?"

"My technique is darkness summoning, and I can summon darkness creatures from the underworld." Tang Yin then made several gestures with her hands, and a black door appeared behind them. Soon, a black creature emerged from it, which made Tang Yuan quite surprised by it, especially since the creature was a grim reaper, carrying a long black scythe.

"Hmm?" Tang Yuan carefully observed the grim reaper before she asked her niece a question. "Is your summon random? Or can you choose the creature you summon?"

"I can choose my summon." Tang Yuan felt that Tang Yin's technique was quite powerful. "Actually, my technique has several levels, but for now, I can only use the lower level, and this grim reaper emerged from it. However, it was enough to get rid of that woman, as she was just an ordinary human."

"Wait a minute." Tang Yuan immediately stopped her. "Ouyang Hong will be suspicious of us if you kill her, and I'm afraid that she will contact Long Yin to take action. Therefore, we must think of something else to get rid of her, or it will be troublesome for us.

"What do you think we should do about her?" Tang Yin asked, as she couldn't think of any other solution.

"Hmm?" Tang Yuan pondered this while rubbing her nose. "Can Xiao Ai alter other people's memories? If she can do that, we can ask her to turn that woman hostile to them, so we can attack them and get rid of her at the same time, and they won't be suspicious of us."

Clasp

"Oh, right! Xiao Ai can do that." Tang Yin said as she clasped her hands together. "In that case, you can capture that woman, and she will take care of her."

"All right." Tang Yuan disappeared for a while before returning to Tang Yin's side a few moments later, carrying a woman with short black hair wearing a mask. "Ask Xiao Ai to take her inside the ark so she can do that to her now, or they will be suspicious if they can't contact her."

Soon, Xiao Ai appeared beside them, and she took the woman into the ark according to Tang Yin's orders.

"Where is Xiao'er now?"

Tang Yin canceled her techniques and returned to her human form, and she explained everything to her paternal aunt. "Xiao'er is disguised as a masseuse because Zhao Yuxian is going to the spa with her friends, and he will start his plans for them tonight. Perhaps, her husband will die tomorrow, and she will become our servant like Yu Xiaoling."

Even though she was sad about the situation between them, Tang Yuan had no intention of stopping her nephew; instead, she fully supported Tang Xiao's actions because Zhao Yuxian had betrayed them.

When she arrived home, Xing Xing found Chu Lingxi already fast asleep, so she went to clean herself and joined her mother in bed after that.

However, Xing Xing had difficulty sleeping because she kept remembering Tang Yin's words earlier, especially about their plan to kill everyone who destroyed their family, and she felt worried about Tang Xiao's safety. 'Sigh, I know you hate those people so much, but I hope you won't become such a cruel person; otherwise, you will be no different from them. know that I can't stop you, so I hope that you will carry out your revenge carefully because I won't be able to lose you, and I will suffer again once again.'

"Why do you come to see me so late at night, Miss Qing?"

Ouyang Qing did not answer Su Rou's question and barged into her room. "What do you know about Feng Xiao?"

"Eh?" Su Rou turned to her in surprise. "Why are you suddenly asking about him? Are you interested in him?"

"Do you think I would be interested in a chauffeur like him?" Ouyang Qing asked back with a frown. "I admit that Feng Xiao is handsome, but he is just a low-class man, so he isn't worthy of a goose like me."

'What an arrogant little bitch!' Su Rou inwardly cursed with indignation. "Then, apa yang kamu ingin tahu tentang him?"

"Everything."

'Did something happen between them? Why is her behavior so unusual?' Su Ruo looked at her with a suspicious look. "Unfortunately, I don't know much about him, Miss Qing. Feng Xiao rarely spoke whenever he took us to meetings, and he always answered questions as necessary. If you're curious about him, you should ask him yourself, and he'll probably be willing to tell you a lot because of your beauty."

'This shameless bitch! Does she think I'm a lowly woman like her? If my mother hadn't protected her, I would have beaten her up right now!' Ouyang Qing grumbled in her heart before walking out of the bedroom. "I want you to find out all the information about him in as much detail as possible, and you must report everything to me. Do you understand?"

Ouyang Qing hurriedly left the room, which made Su Rou wonder about her behavior. "What's wrong with her? Why does she want to know about Feng Xiao so much? Tch! What a hypocritical woman! I'm much more experienced than her men, so she doesn't need to lie to me if she's interested in him! Furthermore, he's also eyeing her;

otherwise, he wouldn't have asked me to approach Wen Tian. Hmm? Mu Ling's birthday is coming up, and that's my chance to do so."

After waiting for a long time, Tang Xiao saw Zhao Yuxian and her two friends arrive at the spa. He didn't recognize the other two women, but he could see that she was awkward with the scene inside. According to Xiao Ai, the place wasn't their regular spa, and one of her friends suggested going there because she was depressed due to Ran Qingfeng's disappearance.

After they entered a room, the spa owner called Tang Xiao and several other male masseurs to meet them, allowing them to choose their favorites.

Zhao Yuxian was surprised when she saw Tang Xiao. 'Isn't he the young man who was next to me at the airport?'

"Are you interested in trying the young man's massage, Yuxian?" A middle-aged woman with short brown hair asked Zhao Yuxian while glancing at Tang Xiao.

A middle-aged woman with long black hair immediately asked the owner. "Is he the new masseur? Why have I never seen him before?"

"Madam Hua, Feng Xiao just joined today, and his massage technique is excellent."

The woman with long black hair nodded slightly before speaking to Zhao Yuxian. "Try his massage technique and tell us the results."

Zhao Yuxian was hesitant about it, but she still followed Tang Xiao, who led her into a rather luxurious massage room.

Upon arriving in the room, Tang Xiao handed Zhao Yuxian a large towel. "Please take off your dress and use this towel, Madam."

"Yes." Zhao Yuxian accepted the towel and went to the bathroom, unaware of the evil smile on Tang Xiao's face.

Tang Xiao selected several available candles to find the right scent, and he lit one when he found it. 'Haha! Zhao Yuxian, let's start the game.'

Before long, Zhao Yuxian had returned with a large towel covering half of her body, allowing Tang Xiao to see her cleavage and the smooth skin on her half-naked chest.

Zhao Yuxian felt embarrassed and awkward under Tang Xiao's gaze, but she quickly lay down on her stomach on the bed. When he was about to start, she asked him. "You were the one who previously sat next to me at the airport, right?"

"My brother came from another city, so I picked him up at the airport." Tang Xiao poured massage oil into his hands, but it wasn't the spa's massage oil, and Xiao Ai had prepared it for him. "I'm sorry, but I have to open the back of the towel, Madam."

"Yes."
