Chapter 71: Tang Huang - Tantai Lingyan

"No." Jessica rejected Tang Xiao directly. "Feng Xiao, I'm comfortable with you, and I enjoy my time with you. However, I feel guilty toward my husband by being intimate with you like this, and I don't want to feel even more guilty for having sex with you."

'Heh! Sooner or later, I will enjoy your body, Jess.' Tang Xiao nodded at her. "It's alright; I will never force you."

Jessica breathed a sigh of relief and moved to Tang Xiao's lower body, holding his still erect dick. "Since you are still not satisfied, I will satisfy you with my mouth until you are completely satisfied."

In the end, Tang Xiao orgasmed in Jessica's mouth several more times before his dick went limp, and he also made her orgasm several times. After he was satisfied, he left her house and returned to the Ouyang House.

After Tang Xiao left, Jessica went to the bathroom and cleaned her body under warm water, but her body heated up again as their previous intimate activity replayed in her mind.

"Sigh! I not only gave him oral sex, but I also let him play with my pussy. At first, he was an amateur, but he learned quickly, and his oral sex made me so comfortable." Jessica rubbed her lips and breasts, recalling the time when Tang Xiao had kissed her and made love to her. "Ugh! My husband won't be back in three days, so I'll ask him to come here again tomorrow night."

Jessica hurriedly finished her shower and returned to her bedroom, where she slept with a satisfied smile.

Tang Xiao first monitored the people living at Ouyang House, but he couldn't find Su Rou, making him think that she was out having fun with one of her affair partners. He found Yi An asleep in her study, and he infiltrated there without thinking twice.

When he arrived there, Tang Xiao used the Heart-Seizing Technique and celestial aura on Yi An, and he mixed a little of his cum into her drink. Thereafter, he sneaked into Ouyang Qing's bedroom, finding her sleeping soundly wearing only a bra and a thong.

Tang Xiao was tempted by the sexiness of Ouyang Qing's body, but he smiled amusedly, seeing that her body was filled with festering lumps. 'Haha! She'll be in shock when she wakes up this morning.'

Tang Xiao sat by Ouyang Qing's side, grabbed her hand, and channeled his light qi into her body while enveloping her with his celestial aura.

"Mhmm..." Ouyang Qing moaned softly due to the flow of Tang Xiao's light qi inside her body, making her expression look much calmer.

'Honestly, I want to have fun with you, but you're lucky because I'm not that kind of person. Instead, I'll slowly make you fall for me, and I'll enjoy your body at that time.' Tang Xiao withdrew his qi, covered Ouyang Qing's body with a blanket, and left her room.

[Master, I thought you no longer had a heart, but I was wrong about that. She harmed you and my mistress, but you treated her that well.]

'Is that so?'

[Yes.]

Tang Xiao shook his head and walked toward his room. 'I will never spare my enemies, and I will treat them the worst. However, I don't want to be like them, and I will take them down with gentle but deadly methods. I am eager to see Ouyang Qing's reaction when she discovers that the man who claims her is the one she despises, as her expression will be quite revealing at that time.'

[Haha! Unfortunately, Ouyang Qing is useless to you because she was born with cultivation veins, so she will never be able to become a cultivator. Yi An is no different from her; she also doesn't have cultivation veins.]

'Jessica has cultivation veins, right?'

[Jessica and Zhao Yuxian have cultivation veins, and I will help them to become cultivators if you like.]

'Bring Zhao Yuxian to the laboratory and turn her into a cultivator, and I'll meet her later.'

[I will do it now, Master.]

After he arrived at his bedroom, Tang Xiao locked the door and entered the ark, and he went to the training ground afterward, where he practiced using the gravity feature.

A sexy middle-aged woman walked into a residence, but she rushed to the back garden of the house. Soon, she arrived in front of a secluded room and banged on the door. "Hey, Old Huang! It's time for you to come out! Old Lin's birthday is coming in a few days, and you've missed it for seven years. Additionally, you haven't seen Xiao'er and Yin'er for too long, so you should stop your isolation and come with me to see them, or else I will drag you to them." (A/N: Imagine her as Tsunade.)

Crack

The door suddenly opened, and Tang Huang walked out of the room, and his expression was filled with longing for his two grandchildren. "I didn't expect that seven years have already passed, but I still haven't managed to break through to the tyrant level, and I'll never be able to fight Long Yin if it continues like this. Do you have any news about Xiao'er and Yin'er, Lingyan?"

Even though Tian Huang had repeatedly communicated with his daughter, Tang Yuan had not told her father that his two grandchildren had returned, let alone the news that they had become cultivators, as she wanted to give him a surprise.

"No." Tantai Lingyan replied by shaking her head. "A year ago, I entered into seclusion, and I haven't seen them since then, so I don't know anything about their current condition. However, Xiao'er should already be out of prison, so I want to go back and see him soon. As for Yin'er, I don't know whether she has woken up from her coma or not."

"Damn it!" Tang Huang suddenly cursed after he sensed Tantai Lingyan's cultivation. "Since when did you break through to the peak Emperor level?"

"Haha!" Tantai Lingyan laughed at that. "I broke through two days ago, but I had to stabilize my cultivation first, so I came here today. Honestly, I was able to break through after I gained enlightenment, or else I still need some time to reach this stage."

"An enlightenment, huh? What did you gain from your enlightenment besides your cultivation breaking through?" Tang Huang curiously asked.

Tantai Lingyan's lips curled into a playful smile. "You certainly know that I can't tell you, right?"

The corners of Tang Huang's lips twitched after hearing that, but he immediately contacted the people in his clan and informed them that he was going out. "I think we should leave now because Old Lin's birthday will be in a few days, but I want to look for some items first since I've been absent seven years straight. Additionally, Little Yan will be disappointed if I don't bring her new toys, so we'll go somewhere else first."

"Haha." Tantai Lingyan softly laughed, causing her massive breasts to jiggle. "You always liked kids, huh? However, Yan'er was always annoyed with you because you teased her too often in front of her friends."

"Hahaha." Tang Huang laughed out loud remembering that. "Little Yan is always like that, but she always likes my gifts. After we arrive there, we'll go see Xiao'er first, and I also want to visit Yin'er at the hospital."

"Let's go." Tantai Lingyan said as she flew away from the Tang Clan, and Tang Huang flew beside her while discussing some things.

Sometime later, Xiao Ai informed Tang Xiao that Zhao Yuxian had become a cultivator, and she sent her to one of the bedrooms in the residence area.

Tang Xiao stopped his training and smiled with satisfaction, as he had perfectly adapted to twice the gravity after several days of training, and he left the training ground directly.

Soon, Tang Xiao arrived at the residence area and went straight to Zhao Yuxian's bedroom, finding her sitting at the foot of the bed naked.

"Xiao'er!" Zhao Yuxian screamed in surprise, and she hurriedly pulled the blanket to cover her body. However, she gulped hard while looking at Tang Xiao's naked torso and then browsed down at the bulge under her shorts. 'Ugh! I can't think about that anymore!'

Tang Xiao smiled faintly at Zhao Yuxian's reaction, and he swiftly took off his shorts, revealing his sleeping dick. He stood in front of her and lifted her chin.

Zhao Yuxian was aroused by the sight of Tang Xiao's naked body, but her mind was clear now, unlike two days ago. "Xiao'er, please don't do this; we can't—"

"Shh." Tang Xiao covered Zhao Yuxian's mouth with one hand. "Why are you acting shy now? Two days ago, you enjoyed my dick inside you, and you kept begging me to fuck you, remember?"

Zhao Yuxian's face turned extremely red after Tang Xiao mentioned that, as she vividly remembered her wild behavior that night. However, things have changed, and she already knew the truth, so she didn't want to do it with him again.

Tang Xiao picked up Zhao Yuxian and laid her down in the middle of the bed before sealing her lips, and his hands quickly played with her breasts.

"Mhmm..." Zhao Yuxian tried to resist the pleasure, but Tang Xiao swiftly stimulated her sensitive spots, causing her lust to flare up. She eventually closed her eyes, embraced his neck, and returned his kiss. 'Ugh! How can he be this skilled? He instantly makes me horny with just a kiss and a few touches.'

Chapter 72: Upper Rank Beginner Level

"Ahh..." Zhao Yuxian sank into sexual pleasure as Tang Xiao sucked, nibbled, and licked her nipples. His hands kept squeezing her soft mounds, enjoying their flexibility and softness.

Xiao Ai not only helped Zhao Yuxian become a cultivator, but she also strengthened and rejuvenated her body, bringing it back to its youth.

Tang Xiao was truly grateful to Xiao Ai, and he thoroughly enjoyed playing with Zhao Yuxian's breasts and nipples. His dick repeatedly rubbed her pussy, which was becoming increasingly wet with her sexual fluids.

Zhao Yuxian's eyes kept opening and closing, and her lips parted frequently, followed by sensual moans. Despite her initial refusal, she fully enjoyed the pleasure that Tang Xiao gave her, and her body jerked and writhed beneath him.

"Ahh..." Zhao Yuxian released a loud, sensual moan as soon as Tang Xiao's dick penetrated her pussy. He wasted no time and fucked her straight away, plunging her deeper into sexual bliss.

Xiao Ai suddenly informed Tang Xiao about his cultivation. [Master, your cultivation is close to breaking through to the Upper Beginner Level, and you should be able to break through before morning.]

'That's great!' Tang Xiao was increasingly eager to fuck Zhao Yuxian, but he stopped for a moment and made her crawl on all fours.

Tang Xiao fucked Zhao Yuxian in doggy style while leaning forward, and his hands played with her breasts, which were hanging below her and giving her more pleasure with repeated deep thrusts.

Luckily, Tang Xiao had already mastered the Everflowing Qi Method, which made his body continue to absorb Qi regardless of his activities, even when he was sleeping. Additionally, he also cultivated using Tang Yin and Yu Xiaoling's Yin Qi for the past few days, which accelerated his cultivation.

A few minutes later, Zhao Yuxian reached her first orgasm, but Tang Xiao was still not satisfied with it. He took her to the dressing table, made her lean forward, and fucked her again.

While enjoying the sensation of Tang Xiao's dick pounding inside her pussy, Zhao Yuxian looked at their reflection in the mirror and was astonished by her own lewd expression. She had been married for decades and had sex with her dead husband countless times, but she recalled never having made such an expression during their sexual activities in the past.

Tang Xiao ended up having sex with Zhao Yuxian for a full hour, and they reached their orgasm several times, with him ejaculating repeatedly inside her. Like Xiao Ai's previous information, his cultivation finally broke through to the Upper Beginner Level.

Thereafter, Tang Xiao placed Zhao Yuxian on the bed and let her rest, and he returned to the Ouyang House after getting dressed, where he stabilized his cultivation.

Zhao Yuxian covered her eyes with her arm, as she felt confused about her situation. On the one hand, she didn't want to have sex with Tang Xiao anymore, but on the other hand, she fully enjoyed their sex just now and wanted to do it again.

'What happened to my body? He fucked me for so long, and I orgasmed several times. However, I don't feel tired at all, and I feel that there are significant changes in my body.' Zhao Yuxian rubbed her stomach. 'Will I be pregnant with Xiao'er's child? He ejaculated inside me too many times, and these days are my fertile period.'

"Ahhhhh!"

In the morning, Ouyang Qing's loud scream woke everyone in the Ouyang House.

Crack

Yi An hurriedly walked to her daughter's room, followed by Su Rou, who still looked sleepy. However, they were shocked after they entered the room and found Ouyang

Qing sitting on the floor while crying, and they were even more shocked because her whole body was covered in lumps of pus.

"What happened to you, Qing'er?" Yi An asked as she ran towards her daughter. "Su Rou! Call Feng Xiao right now! We'll take her to the hospital straight away!"

"Yes." Su Rou rushed to Tang Xiao's room, but she also laughed because Ouyang Qing's appearance was awful. 'Humph! That little bitch! She was always proud of her beauty, but she now looks so disgusting, and Wen Tian will definitely break up with her if he sees her like that!'

"Sob... Sob... I don't know what's happening to me, Mom." Ouyang Qing answered as she continued to cry, but she didn't dare to hug her mother for fear of infecting her, and she then explained to her everything that had happened since yesterday.

"Hmm?" Yi An thought for a while before asking her daughter. "Where did you go before this disease infected you?"

Ouyang Qing wiped her tears and answered her. "I went to a beauty salon yesterday, and afterward, I went with the others to buy some facial medicine. It was just my face yesterday, and this disease suddenly appeared on my body, Mom."

Yi An released a soft sigh and carefully lifted Ouyang Qing to her feet, or else those lumps would burst. "I'll help you change clothes, and we'll go to the hospital once Feng Xiao gets here. Besides, I'll call people from the health department to check your and Ming'er's rooms, and they will clean both of your rooms."

Not long after, Tang Xiao and Su Rou had arrived at the room, and he was inwardly laughing at Ouyang Qing's condition. Yi An asked him to carry her daughter, so he followed her orders after covering his body with qi.

Although Ouyang Qing felt embarrassed that Tang Xiao was a chauffeur, she did not protest to her mother and allowed him to carry her. However, she felt a strange comfort while being in his arms, mainly because he channeled a bit of his light qi into his body and his celestial aura.

Ouyang Qing snuggled closer to Tang Xiao's chest and unconsciously sniffed his masculine scent. 'I've never felt this comfortable before; even my mother's hugs weren't as comfortable as his.'

As she changed clothes, Yi An also contacted a skin specialist doctor she knew to go to the hospital, and Tang Xiao drove them there after she finished preparing.

Two women were already in the prison, and they seriously examined Yao Wei's corpse, but they couldn't find anything unusual about his sudden death.

Since yesterday, Sun Xiang has been monitoring Tang Yuan, but she didn't show any strange movements, and she stayed at her apartment after returning from her office. However, a police officer suddenly contacted her to inform her about Yao Wei's sudden death, prompting her to rush there and ask Xiao Mei to meet her.

"What do you think was the cause of his death? Could it be that Tang Xiao sneaked in and killed him?" Xiao Mei asked her best friend.

"No." Sun Xiang denied it as she shook her head. "There was no external cause for his death, and I also did not find any strange substances in his internal organs, so Yao Wei died of natural causes. However, I could sense two remnants of qi in this room, but they were different from the ones I sensed in Du Zhong's room, so I'm sure that Tang Xiao wasn't the culprit."

After all, Tang Xiao used his fire element to kill Du Zhong, but he didn't do anything to Yao Wei, and he only used his void element to bring Tang Yin to meet him.

"Did you really sense two qi in this room?" Sun Xiang nodded to Xiao Meng, who immediately looked around the room. "How did they manage to sneak in with such tight security? Even though they are cultivators, the CCTV cameras in this place will record their presence, but they told me that no one has infiltrated here since last night."

Sun Xiang herself had heard about the matter, so she was confused about the purpose of the two Qi possessors coming to Yao Wei. "Hey, Meng, have you ever met a cultivator with the darkness element?"

"I met cultivators who had that element several times before." Xiao Meng then asked her back. "Do you think those two are cultivators of the darkness element? If that's true, there's a possibility that they are from that group, but they never cause trouble here because they're afraid of Wang Fuxi, so I think that possibility is small."

"You're right." Sun Xiang answered with a heavy sigh, but her cell phone suddenly rang, and she instantly frowned upon hearing the caller's words. "We have to go somewhere else to examine another corpse."

"Another corpse? Who else is dead now?" Xiao Meng asked as she followed Sun Xiang away.

"Xiang Ning died in a hotel." Xiao Meng was shocked to hear that, and Sun Xiang explained to her according to the words of the person who called her before.

They arrived at the hotel room where Xiang Ning was found dead, and they shared the task of investigating the cause of her death, but Sun Xiang once again found nothing unusual about her corpse. The medics who examined her corpse told her that she most likely died of a heart attack, as they found heart medication in her bag.

However, Sun Xiang could feel the same trace of qi in Yao Wei's detention room, but there was only one in that room. 'Who exactly are those two? Why did they come to him and his ex-wife before their deaths? They died of natural causes, so I'm not sure if those people killed them. Even if they killed them, I couldn't understand their purpose because they were just ordinary humans.'

Chapter 73: Level Two Gravity

Xiao Meng walked into the room while talking to her best friend. "Xiang, the staff just told me that Xiang Ning stayed at this hotel with Zhao Zheng last night, but he already left before she died, and they didn't see anything suspicious about him."

"Zhao Zheng?" Sun Xiang turned to her with a raised eyebrow. "Isn't he Zhao Jing's cousin?"

"Yes." Xiao Meng replied with a nod. "Did you find any Qi remains in this hotel room?"

Sun Xiang sighed softly as she stood up. "I found one qi remnant, and the owner was the same person who came to Yao Wei's detention room."

"Did that person kill her?"

"Xiang Ning died of a heart attack." Sun Xiang then walked out. "Since she also died of natural causes, we don't need to interfere with both cases, and Chief Jiang can take care of everything himself."

"So, where are we going now?"

"Where else?" Sun Xiang replied with a shrug. "I will monitor Tang Yuan again, and you can go back to Tang House to monitor Tang Yin."

Two women were sitting together enjoying their coffee when Tang Yuan spoke to her best friend. "Sun Xiang and Xiao Mei suspected that Xiao'er was still alive, and they started monitoring me and Yin'er."

"Hehe." Feng Yao chuckled, as she had expected that the two women would act immediately. "Sun Xiang has sharp observation and instinct, so I wouldn't be surprised if she already suspected it, and she must have checked the bottom of the ravine. As for Xiao Meng, she's just a spoiled little girl, and she always depends on her best friend. Then what will Xiao'er do to them?"

"Nothing." Tang Yun answered by shaking her head. "Both women are stronger than him, so he doesn't want to face them for now. That's why I went back to my apartment last night, and Yin'er was supposed to stay at Tang House to stop their suspicion of us, but I'm sure they won't stop monitoring us."

"That's true." Both women raised their eyebrows after Feng Yao turned on the TV in her room, particularly since the news on TV broadcast the deaths of Yao Wei and Xiang Ning. "Do their deaths have anything to do with Xiao'er?"

"I think so." Tang Yuan replied as she watched the news. "Since they died of natural causes, Sun Xiang should not suspect Xiao'er of being involved in their deaths."

"How can Xiao'er kill them without harming them?"

"I don't know." Even though she answered like that, she suspected that Tang Yin was involved in their deaths. "Since Xiao'er returned, I've only met him once because he was infiltrating Ouyang House as a chauffeur, and he hasn't explained anything to me about his abilities, so I don't know how he managed to kill them."

"Then what about Yin'er? You should already know something about her abilities, right?"

"Yes." Tang Yuan did not deny that. "I'm sorry, Yao. I can't tell you about Yin'er's abilities because her abilities are unusual, and it would be better if few people knew about them, or else I wouldn't be able to protect her."

Feng Yao raised her eyebrows for a moment before nodding in understanding, and she could guess more or less about Tang Yin's abilities. "Even though I don't know about her abilities, you should guard her from Wang Fuxi, and you should ask her not to use her abilities carelessly, or she will notice them and hunt her down."

"I know."

At Meng House, two people slumped down after they saw the news about Yao Wei and Xiang Ning's deaths, but Yao Wenhua immediately stood up from the sofa while talking to her husband. "Yao'er probably already knows this news, and she must be sad now, so I will accompany and comfort her."

Meng Wuya nodded to his wife while focusing on the TV, resting his chin on his hand as he wondered. "What actually happened to them? How did they die suddenly? The news said that they didn't find any strange cause for their deaths, but I don't believe that they could die all of a sudden. However, Yao Wei was inside a prison with tight security, so no one could infiltrate there, let alone kill him. Xiang Ning does have a heart disease, but she should always carry her medicine."

Suddenly, Meng Wuya's smartphone rang, and he immediately left his house after talking to the caller for a while.

"What about Qing'er's condition, Wu Shuang?" Yi An worriedly asked the female doctor who was examining her daughter.

Wu Shuang turned her head to face Yi An and explained her thoughts. "Qing'er's illness is no different from smallpox, but smallpox shouldn't be able to spread this fast, and it takes several days to spread all over her body, so I'll take her blood to examine her condition in more detail. Although I'm not sure that they'll be of any use, I'll still give her some smallpox medicine, and it would be better if she stayed here for a while, or it will spread to you and the others."

"I hope you can cure Qing'er as soon as possible." After Wu Shuang left, Yi An turned to Tang Xiao. "You can leave for now, and I will wait for my daughter here."

"Yes, madam."

Yi An then looked at Su Rou, who was busy with her smartphone. "Contact Shen Tianhu and Wang Dong now, and you can tell them that I want to postpone the meeting until Qing'er and Ming'er recover. Additionally, contact Lin Yanxiu too and tell her that I can't fulfill Uncle Zhao's invitation."

"Yes."

After he left the hospital building, Tang Xiao searched for a quiet place before using the void dragon steps to return to Tang House, but he didn't linger there and took Tang Yin to another place because he had an appointment with Zhao Qing to interview several prospective employees.

At first, Tang Yin asked him to stay and accompany them to interview the women, but Tang Xiao refused and went straight to Xing Xing's apartment, and he took her into the ark.

After that, they went straight to the training ground, and Tang Xiao demonstrated a few things, especially about the basics of martial arts for Xing Xing, who was seriously watching him.

Tang Xiao then asked Xing Xing to practice on the side of the field first, and he decided to practice using the second level of the gravity device, which makes the gravity in the area three times heavier than normal.

"Tang Xiao!" Xing Xing screamed as soon as she saw him fall to the ground, and his expression looked distressed.

"Stop right there, Xing!" Tang Xiao stopped her because Xing Xing couldn't possibly withstand the gravity. "The gravity in this area is three times heavier, so you can't come here. I'm fine; I just need to adjust to this weight, so you don't need to worry about me."

"Are you really okay?"

"Yes, I'm fine! You just stand there and learn them first, and I'll help you practice once you understand them."

Xing Xing nodded in understanding and returned to the side before starting to study the basics of martial arts that Tang Xiao showed her before. 'Sigh, people would be jealous if they knew that I could learn everything easily, but I still have to train hard to master everything because I've never practiced martial arts before.'

Yao Wenhua arrived at Xiang Ning's house, but she released a heavy sigh after she saw Yao Yao hugging her legs on the sofa. The sound of her crying made her sad, and she went over and sat beside her.

Yao Yao hugged Yao Wenhua and she cried even harder. "Sob... Sob... Why did this have to happen to them? They were fine yesterday, and my mom was happy to see me, but now they're dead."

"Your mother did have a chronic heart disease, and the doctor had asked her to undergo surgery. I repeatedly persuaded her to undergo it, but she was never willing to listen to us, and her heart disease relapsed and caused her death." Yao Wenhua said as she rubbed Yao Yao back. "As for your father, I don't know what happened to him because he didn't have a history of serious illness, so we can only wait for the results of the police autopsy."

"Sob... how long will their autopsy process take?"

"It usually takes a few hours." Yao Wenhua lifted Yao Yao's head and wiped her tears. "I know you are sad about their deaths, and we haven't been able to find Shao'er. I hope you can be strong enough to overcome this ordeal, and I will accompany you to get through it."

"Sob...Sob..." Instead, Yao Yao buried her face into Yao Wenhua's chest again, and she continued to release heartbreaking cries.

Yao Wenhua inwardly sighed and took out her smartphone, and she contacted several people to prepare a ceremony for her brother and former sister-in-law. She also called several people to tell them of their deaths, but some already knew from the news.

Yao Wenhua then contacted another person, but she was shocked to learn that Yi An's two children were hospitalized. 'Our lives have always been calm and peaceful for the past two decades, and no one dared to disturb us. However, things suddenly changed for the worse, and many strange events happened in succession.'

"Sob... Aunty, I want to go to the hospital now, and I want to see my parents."

"All right, I'll take you there."

Chapter 74: Three Employees

"Why is Xiao'er still not coming to see me, Yin'er?" Zhao Qing irritatedly asked because it had been a few days since her nephew had returned, but he had not yet come to see her.

"Haha." Tang Yin laughed in amusement. "Aunt Qing, you already know that Xiao'er is disguised as a chauffeur at Ouyang House, so he can't roam around freely for now. Moreover, he is currently considered missing, and many people think that he is dead, so he doesn't want to appear in public too often. However, you don't need to worry because he is fine, and you will meet him soon. What we can do now is speed up the opening of our business, and we will help him expedite our revenge."

Zhao Qing could only sigh before grabbing Tang Yin's hand. "When I was staying at Zhao House for three days, I heard your grandfather talking to some people, and they were talking about the strange events that happened in this city in the past few days. One of them was the disappearance of Yao Shao and Ran Linfeng, and I also heard several other things. Before I left his house, I saw the news on television that Yao Wei and Xiang Ning had suddenly died. Does this whole incident have anything to do with Xiao'er?"

Tang Yin felt that it was the right time for her to tell Zhao Qing the truth, especially since she and Tang Yuan were the ones who raised them after their parents died, so she didn't want to sugarcoat the matter for her. "Those incidents were related to Xiao'er, and I was involved in some of them."

Zhao Qing tensed up and squeezed Tang Yin's hand tightly. "Please tell me the truth, Yin'er. You two are the children of Big Sis Jing, and both of you are like my own children, so I'm worried about you two."

Tang Yin nodded and explained everything in detail to Zhao Qing, but her maternal aunt was completely shocked when she learned about the deaths of Ran Linfeng and Ran Qingfeng, who were her brother-in-law and nephew.

"Did... did you two really kill them, Yin'er?" Zhao Qing asked with a trembling voice.

"I killed Ran Qingfeng, and Xiao'er killed Ran Linfeng." Tang Yin then spoke to calm Zhao Qing. "We couldn't kill Zhao Yuxian because of our late mother's request, so you don't need to worry about her. However, we will never forgive her because of her betrayal of our parents, and she lives with us along with her twin daughters, but she's our servant now."

Zhao Qing looked at Tang Yin with mixed feelings because Zhao Yuxian was her second sister, but they treated her as their servant. However, she herself was aware that her mistake was difficult to forgive, but she still felt it was inappropriate for them to treat her like that.

"Aunt Qing, I know how you feel about Aunt Yuxian, but that is the lightest punishment we can give her." Zhao Qing released a heavy sigh after hearing that, and Tang Yin spoke to her again. "As for Xue and Yue, they didn't do anything wrong to us, so we won't treat them badly."

Zhao Qing nodded to her, but she found it strange that they could do everything so neatly. "How did you and Xiao'er manage to do all that? I heard from your grandfather that the police and the others couldn't find any trace of the perpetrators; even the bank couldn't trace the disappearance of their wealth."

"Hehe." Tang Yin chuckled at that. "Aunt Qing, I will take you somewhere else and tell you things later, but the three women have arrived now, so we have to interview them first."

Knock... Knock...

Before Zhao Qing had time to ask Tang Yin again, someone had already knocked on the door of the room from outside, and she immediately invited them to enter one by one.

The first to enter was a woman in her mid-twenties, and Tang Yin smiled faintly when she saw her appearance. The woman has a cheerful face; her waist-length black hair is tied in a neat ponytail, with bangs covering her wide forehead. She looked sexy in a tight white sleeveless shirt covering her chubby figure, which made her DD-cup breasts stand out perfectly, and her lower body was covered by a short black skirt.

"Liao Yuxi, right? Please sit down." Tang Yin said as she pointed to the chair in front of them.

"Yes, I am." Liao Yuxi answered and sat opposite them, and Tang Yin placed three bottles of products in front of her while asking for her opinion, so she took them and observed them one by one before conveying her opinions.

"That's good." Tang Yin nodded in satisfaction at Liao Yuxi's explanation. "I heard that you are still working at another online commerce company, and you want to resign to get a better income."

"Yes." Liao Yuxi explained her decision, shared her current salary details, and requested a few things from them.

Zhao Qing raised her eyebrows after hearing that, but Tang Yin shook her head at her aunt. She didn't mind Liao Yuxi's request because she was confident that their products would sell well. "All right, I will fulfill your requests. However, I want you to live with the other female employees later, and I have prepared a nice place for you guys to live in, but you can go home every Saturday and Sunday."

After thinking about it, Liao Yuxi agreed to Tang Yin's conditions, and she left the room after they reached an agreement on her salary.

After that, Zhao Qing asked the second lady to come in. Even though she was already in her late thirties, she was no less beautiful and sexy than Liao Yuxi, but the aura that radiated from her was more serious than hers.

Apart from being slightly older, Lin Qingxue herself was more experienced in the business world. She has a tall and slim figure, and she wore a black one-step dress that reached her knees, coupled with a square scarf tied around her neck, which made her look elegant and sexy with her breasts around D-Cup. She has thin pink lipstick on her lips, long brown hair tied up, and glasses covering her brown eyes.

Their conversation didn't last too long; Tang Yin asked the same thing she asked Liao Yuxi before, and Lin Qingxue agreed to join them after hearing her long-term plans.

Unlike Liao Yuxi, Lin Qingxue was not very demanding, and she only asked for a residence close to the company. Besides, she also asked for a special day to go home to accompany her family, which Tang Yin immediately agreed to.

As for the third woman, she was Qiao Yumei, who was already in her mid-thirties. Even though she was less beautiful than the two previous women and her figure was smaller and less sexy than theirs, she was more mature and serious than them. She has short black hair and wide eyes covered by blue contact lenses, and her lips are quite sensual.

After she asked Qiao Yumei for her opinion on the three products, Tang Yin decided to accept her, and she also appointed her to lead the other two employees.

Qiao Yumei was naturally excited about Tang Yin's decision, especially since she had been unemployed for some time, but she then asked her. "Have you chosen the person who will be the advertising star for your product?"

"Yes." Zhao Qing answered Qiao Yumei's question. "I've contacted Fu Chen, and she has agreed to be our brand ambassador, but she's busy filming her latest film now, so she'll only come here after everything is finished."

Qiao Yumei was satisfied with their choice. "That's excellent; she is still young, but her popularity is extraordinary. With her as our brand ambassador, I believe these three products will sell well."

After they discussed some other things, Qiao Yumei immediately left the office, and Tang Yin decided to take Zhao Qing into the ark.

As she sat beside her niece in the flying car, Zhao Qing looked around the area they were passing through with a completely astonished expression. After all, she could only find everything inside the ark in sci-fi movies. Even their country and several other technologically advanced nations still hadn't been able to create it, and he was sure they would be eager to obtain all the technology in the ark for their benefit. "Where did you get all this, Yin'er?"

"Aunt Qing, it wasn't me who got all this, but Xiao'er, and he got everything from the person who saved him from death." Zhao Qing immediately turned to Tang Yin with a look full of questions, but she shook her head at her maternal aunt. "We don't know who his true savior is yet, partly because she has sealed all information about him so that not even Xiao Ai can access it."

"Xiao Ai?" Zhao Qing was even more surprised to hear that.

"I'm sorry I lied to you before." Tang Yin spoke with an apologetic look, but Zhao Qing simply shook her head in response. "Xiao Ai is an AI, and her body is artificial. She is different from the AI developed by every country, and she is almost like a complete human being because she can think and understand our feelings."

"An advanced AI, huh?" Zhao Qing muttered to herself. "So, the disappearance of Ran Linfeng's wealth and the spread of Yao Wei's confidential documents were Xiao Ai's doing?"

Chapter 75: Zhao Qing A Cultivator

Tang Yin then told Zhao Qing. "Xiao Ai's system is connected to all the systems in our world, and all the technology she uses is far more advanced than theirs, so no one can stop or track her actions. The money I gave you before was part of Ran Linfeng's wealth, and his wealth is completely ours now. Not only did she previously secure Yao Wei's wealth, but I have now asked her to transfer everything to Feng Xiao's account.

"Is that Xiao'er's pseudonym?"

Tang Yin nodded to her. "That's why I ask you not to worry about Xiao'er; he can enter here whenever he wants, and no one can catch him. Unfortunately, it does not apply to the person behind Ouyang Hong, as he is different from other humans and possesses great power."

"What do you mean by that?"

"In our world, not only ordinary humans live in it, but there are also some special people who call themselves cultivators." Zhao Qing became more confused the more Tang Yin explained to her. "You've probably watched such movies before, and I can tell you that cultivators are real. Xiao'er and I are cultivators now, but our cultivation is still too low. My grandpa, Aunt Yuan, and Aunt Lingyan are also cultivators like us, but they are much stronger than us."

"If they were as strong as you say, why didn't they save your parents from them? If they saved them, they would still be alive now." Zhao Qing asked with an angry expression.

Tang Yin let out a heavy sigh when her maternal aunt brought up the matter. "As I said before, there was a powerful cultivator behind Ouyang Hong, and he stopped my grandfather and Aunt Lingyan during the incident that night. Furthermore, cultivators usually do not interfere with ordinary human affairs, and they live in a separate place from us, including my grandfather and Aunt Lingyan. As for Aunt Yuan, she is a bit different from them, so she lives among ordinary humans, but she is bound by strict rules."

Although Zhao Qing felt disappointed that Tang Huang and the others did not save her eldest sister and brother-in-law years ago, Tang Yin's words made her understand some things about their situation. "Does that mean you brought me here to teach me to become a cultivator?"

"Yes." Tang Yin then took Zhao Qing's hand. "You are our aunt, but you are also a mother figure to us. If you and Aunt Yuan had not accompanied us, we might have fallen into depression and sorrow long ago. You are one of the important people in our lives, so we can't possibly let you die of old age, and we will live together for a long time if you become a cultivator like us."

"I see." Zhao Qing nodded in understanding and embraced Tang Yin's shoulders. "Honestly, I myself don't want to be separated from you and Xiao'er, and I want to stay with you two until both of you get married so I can help you look after your children."

Tang Yin smiled awkwardly before taking out her marriage certificate, surprising Zhao Qing to see it appear out of nowhere. "You can read it yourself."

"This." Zhao Qing looked at Tang Yin in shock after she saw the two names on the marriage certificate and realized that Xiao Ai helped her make it. "How is this possible? How could you marry Xiao'er? Yin'er, you two—"

Tang Yin was not surprised by her aunt's reaction, as she was still an ordinary human. Therefore, she explained some things about Tang Xiao's change to her, but Zhao Qing found it difficult to believe it. "We will arrive at the laboratory soon, and you will find out that my words are true. Moreover, we have loved each other for a long time, so this is the best choice for us, and Aunt Yuan agreed to our relationship after I persuaded her for a few days."

Zhao Qing had a headache after listening to Tang Yin's words, and she found it difficult to believe that Tang Yuan agreed with their strange relationship. She couldn't wait to arrive at the laboratory to find out the truth of her words.

Before long, they had arrived at the laboratory. Xiao Ai, who had been waiting for them there, immediately greeted her. "Welcome to the ark, Aunt Qing."

Zhao Qing sighed softly and rubbed Xiao Ai's head. "I still can't believe that you are an AI and an android; you look no different from an ordinary girl."

"Hehe." Xiao Ai chuckled and pulled Zhao Qing into one of the glass capsules. "I am indeed an AI, and my old master created me. By the way, you should take off your clothes and lie down in this capsule, Aunt Qing. I will help you become a cultivator and strengthen your body, making it stronger than that of other cultivators."

Zhao Qing followed Xiao Ai's instructions and began to undress, but she also asked her a question. "Are Yin'er's words about Xiao'er's changes true? Can you show them all to me?"

"My mistress didn't lie to you, Aunt Qing." Xiao Ai displayed on the screen the changes that Tang Xiao had previously undergone, and she also showed Zhao Qing that his blood was now violet-gold. "As you can see for yourself, my master is not the same person he used to be, and they are no longer bound by blood. He has become a different person now, and his change is good for everyone."

Although she was shocked after seeing everything, Zhao Qing finally believed that Tang Xiao had changed, and she turned to Tang Yin just before entering the glass capsule so Xiao Ai could help her become a cultivator.

As she helped Zhao Qing, Xiao Ai spoke to Tang Yin. "Mistress, my master said that he won't do anything to the other families for now, and he wants to focus on his cultivation and training."

"We will hold back for a while, and I will focus on our new company. This way, we will destroy them using ordinary people's methods, and we don't need to worry about Long Yin and Wang Fuxi." Tang Yin then walked out of the laboratory. "Take care of Aunt Qing, and I will go to the training ground to train with Xiao'er and Xing'er. If Zhao Yixuan has already woken up, you can order her to go to the factory to help Yu Xiaoling, and I want our products to be produced faster."

"Yes, Mistress."

A while later, Xiao Ai had finished helping Zhao Qing. "How do you feel after becoming a cultivator, Aunt Qing?"

Zhao Qing, who was getting dressed, turned to Xiao Ai. "I can't explain it exactly, but I feel that my body has become much fresher and brimming with energy, and I feel that I could probably run around a football field with my current physique."

"Hehe! That's for sure." Xiao Ai answered with a chuckle. "I've strengthened your body, so your body is much stronger, and you will become stronger as your cultivation increases."

"What kind of element do I have?"

"You can see your data on the monitor." Zhao Qing immediately looked at her element, but she was a little surprised by what she saw, so Xiao Ai explained it to her. "The wood element has unique characteristics, Aunt Qing. You can use it to attack, defend, and trap enemies. Besides, a high-level wood element has several other advantages, one of which is accelerating plant growth, and it is very useful for alchemy. Some herbs require a very long time before they can be used in alchemy—around tens, hundreds, or even thousands of years. Unfortunately, you can't use such a technique for now, and you have to wait for your element to reach level five first."

"I see." Zhao Qing looked excited after listening to Xiao Ai's explanation. "Do you have a suitable wood technique for me?"

"I've imparted the Yi Wood Cultivation Method to you, and it has several sub-techniques, so you can read them and learn them. However, each sub-technique has a certain cultivation level requirement, so you can only learn them after meeting the requirements. Even so, you can learn the wood body technique included in that method, which will be beneficial for you." Zhao Qing nodded in understanding after hearing Xiao Ai's words. "Besides, I also imparted some martial arts to you so you can protect yourself after learning them, particularly since you can't use cultivation techniques to fight ordinary humans."

"I understand; I will learn everything step by step, and I will help them fight those people." Zhao Qing then asked Xiao Ai. "Where is Yin'er now? Is my second sister also here?"

"My mistress is training at the training ground along with my master and Xing Xing, and I can take you there if you want to meet them." Xiao Ai then gave a ring-shaped device to Zhao Qing, and she also told her how to use it properly. "As for Zhao Yuxian, she just woke up from her sleep, and I asked her to go to the factory to help Yu Xiaoling there."

"So, Yu Xiaoling is still alive now?" Xiao Ai nodded and informed Zhao Qing about the woman, causing her to release a heavy sigh. "Then, what about Xing'er?"

"She is my master's second wife." Zhao Qing was surprised by that, but she knew Xing Xing's feelings for Tang Xiao. "I will take you to the factory first, and you can meet Zhao Yuxian there."

Chapter 76: Two Men

After a while, they arrived at the factory, but Zhao Qing was stunned when she saw the two women in maid outfits that were too sexy for mature women in their forties, like them.

Even though Tang Yin had told her, Zhao Qing was still shocked by Zhao Yuxian's appearance. "Second Sister, you two—"

"Yes, we have the same fate." Zhao Yuxian answered her straight away because she already knew what Zhao Qing was going to ask her. "You don't need to feel sorry for me, and you don't need to persuade them either. This is the consequence of my past actions, so I've decided to accept it."

Even though she was disappointed by the fact that Zhao Yixuan was involved in the murder of their brother-in-law and the death of their eldest sister, she was still her biological sister, so she felt sad about her fate.

"You don't know the current Xiao'er and Yin'er, and I don't want our father to have problems with them. Therefore, I forbid you to talk to him about me and my family, or he will have the same fate as my husband and son." Zhao Qing released a heavy sigh and nodded in understanding to Zhao Yuxian. "Moreover, they won't hurt Yue and Xue enough, and that's good enough for me."

After Zhao Qing talked for some time with Zhao Yuxian, Xiao Ai took her to the training ground, but she seemed to be contemplating many things.

After he tried for so long, Tang Xiao still couldn't move his body an inch under three times the gravity pressure. He asked Xiao Ai to turn off the gravity device, and he let out a heavy sigh. "Triple gravity is still too much for me, so I have to think of something to adapt to it."

"Xiao'er?" Zhao Qing was momentarily taken aback by the change in her nephew, but she quickly dashed towards him and jumped into Tang Xiao, who stretched his arms out to greet her, bursting into tears while hugging him. "Sob... Sob... I'm glad that you're still alive, Xiao'er. I thought I would lose you forever after Yuan told me that you fell into that deep ravine."

"Yes, I am glad to be alive, and I can meet you again, Aunt Qing." Tang Xiao spoke as he hugged her back. "From now on, we will never be separated again, and we will stay together forever."

"En." Zhao Qing nodded and hugged Tang Xiao tighter, and her tears flowed even harder, but her heart was truly relieved to feel the warmth of his body.

Xing Xing and Tang Yin, who were practicing basic martial arts, smiled when they saw them.

A few minutes later, Zhao Qing had stopped crying and released Tang Xiao from her arms. She then cupped his cheeks while rubbing them. "I've heard about your changes from Yin'er and Xiao Ai, but I didn't expect that you changed so much, and I almost couldn't recognize you just now."

"Haha." Tang Xiao softly laughed. "Aunt Qing, my change was thanks to my savior, and he has sacrificed many things for me, including his life. Otherwise, I wouldn't be like this now."

Zhao Qing nodded to him. "Even though I don't know your savior, I am truly grateful and indebted to him, and I will always pray that he will get many good things in his next life."

'Unfortunately, my old master does not have the next life, Aunt Qing. His soul has already disappeared forever, and only his soul imprint remains in my current master's soul.' Xiao Ai inwardly muttered in sadness. 'Even though they are two people from different times, they are basically the same person, so he will always live by my side.'

"Me too; I am grateful and indebted to him." Tang Xiao then asked Zhao Qing to join the two women. "Since you've never practiced martial arts before, I'll teach you the basics for now, but you'll have to train hard to master them."

Zhao Qing wanted to say something to Tang Xiao, but she chose to abandon her intention and wait for the right time, and she joined the two women.

"What about the blood test results of my daughter, Wu Shuang?"

Wu Shuang shook her head at Yi An with a soft sigh. "As I previously thought, Qing'er's illness is not ordinary smallpox, and she seems to have contracted a new type of smallpox virus, so I needed more time to examine her condition in more depth. That's why I decided she should remain in the hospital longer; however, I need to transfer her to a special ward to prevent her disease from spreading to others, which would create even more complications."

"Can you find the source of the disease?"

"I don't have a definite answer right now." Wu Shuang replied by shaking her head. "However, I've contacted several experts on skin diseases, especially smallpox, and they will arrive at this hospital soon. After that, we will carry out a follow-up examination on Qing'er, and we might be able to find the source of the disease."

"I see." Yi An nodded in understanding. "In that case, I will leave Qing'er to you, and I hope you can cure her as soon as possible."

Wu Shuang just nodded and called a few nurses over, and she asked them to move Ouyang Qing to a special ward far away from the other patients to prevent infecting them.

Following that, Yi An visited another inpatient room to check on the condition of her son, who was also receiving treatment at the hospital. She found Ouyang Ming unconscious, and the nurse who was helping him immediately explained his condition to her.

After she finished explaining everything, the nurse immediately left the room. Yi An fell limp on the sofa while massaging her dizzy head. 'What really happened to my children? Why were they both suddenly exposed to mysterious diseases?'

"Madam Yi, the officials from the health bureau just contacted me, and they have finished cleaning their rooms, but they didn't find anything strange in either room." Yi An just nodded to Su Rou. "Do you want to go home first, madam? Your face looks pale, so you should go home first to rest, and you can come back later."

After she thought about it, Yi An immediately got up from her seat and walked out. "Let's go home, but you don't need to contact Feng Xiao, and we will go home by taxi."

"Yes, madam."

Meanwhile, two men were standing side by side on a bridge; one of them was muscular with a white tiger tattoo, and he was listening to the other man's story. "Are you sure that those three men disappeared, like Ran Linfeng and the other one, Pei Yan? Aren't they stronger than my people?"

"Why would I lie to you, Bai Huang?" Pei Yan responded while shaking his head. "Last night, our boss tried to contact them, but he couldn't reach them. That's why he contacted Hong Yi, but he hasn't met with them because our young master assigned him to watch over the Tang House. After that, he contacted me and asked me to meet you, and he ordered you to take your people back to Beijing to investigate those mysterious events."

"Tang House? Why did our young master order Hong Yi to watch over that house?" Bai Huang asked with a frown. "Tang Xiao is dead, and Tang Yin is still in a coma, so there is no one else in the house."

"You're wrong about that." Pei Yan then told Bai Huang. "Tang Yin has already woken up from her coma a few days ago, and our young master ordered Hong Yi to kidnap her, but Tang Yuan stayed by her side, so she can't do anything to her yet."

"Tang Yuan is indeed strong, and I am not even sure that I can fight her myself. However, there is something preventing her from fighting us, or else she has already taken revenge on our boss and the others." Bai Huang suddenly received a call from one of his men informing him that their task was complete, and he then walked away while saying this to Pei Yan. "Let's go back! My people and I will investigate those matters, and you should help us to investigate their disappearance, or else our boss will punish us if we fail."

"Sure."

While Ouyang Qing was thinking about her illness, someone knocked on her bedroom door from outside.

"Young miss, it's me, Jing Yuan."

"Come in." Soon, Jiang Yuan entered the room, but he didn't dare approach Ouyang Qing. "What about Hong Yi? Is she acting weird?"

Jing Yuan shook her head at her. "I don't find anything strange about Hong Yi, and she's still watching the Tang House from a distance. She still can't take action against Tang Yin because Xiao Meng is also watching the house, but I don't know her reason for doing so."

"Hmm?" Ouyang Qing raised an eyebrow. 'Xiao Meng? Isn't she Sun Xiang's assistant? Could it be that she is closely monitoring the Tang House due to recent incidents? Did they think Tang Yin was the perpetrator of those incidents?'

"Do I still need to keep an eye on Hong Yi?"

"No need." Ouyang Qing shook her head. "Hong Yi has always been loyal to my father; I believe she will never betray us."

Jing Yuan nodded at her. "I'll return to Hao Lin's house. You can contact me again if you need anything."

"Leave."

Chapter 77: Zhao Zheng - Wang Yuelin

Three men were enjoying various dishes in a VIP room of a restaurant, but their expressions were serious while discussing the events that happened in the past few days. "All these incidents started with Du Zhong's horrible death, which was followed by the disappearance of Yao Shao. After that, Ran Linfeng and his son disappeared, and his wealth vanished without a trace. However, Zhao Yuxian didn't seem worried about them, and she took her two daughters to live with Tang Yin. Then, Yao Wei's wealth also disappeared, and his confidential documents were leaked to the public, but he suddenly died for no apparent reason in a place with such tight security. Even Xiang Ning had the same fate as him, but her death was not strange, considering her history of illness."

"I agree, Yang Kang." Meng Wuya said this. "I also feel weird about Zhao Yuxian's sudden decision, as she hasn't had contact with Tang Yin for too long."

Another man then conveyed his conjecture. "If I think about it again, these incidents happened after Tang Yin woke up from her coma, and she might have something to do with them."

"Do you think that Tang Yin was the mastermind, Shen Tianhu?"

"Yes." Shen Tianhu nodded to them. "Tang Yin may be weak, but Tang Yuan is not weak; even Bai Huang doesn't dare mess with her, so I think that they are working together to attack us."

"I disagree." Yang Kang said this while sipping his drink. "If Tang Yuan wanted to take revenge on us, then she didn't need to wait for Tang Yin to wake up from her coma because he was useless, and she would have done it a long time ago."

"He's right, Tianhu. I'm unsure whether they were the mastermind, and maybe someone else did everything. Meng Wuya suddenly remembered someone. "Do you think Tian Huang is the mastermind? We killed his son, and he's been missing for too long, but we've never managed to find out his whereabouts, so I think he hid somewhere else and planned everything. However, he only started recently because Ouyang Hong is abroad now, and none of us can contact that person."

"That possibility does exist." Shen Tianhu nodded in response. "However, you should remember that Ouyang Hong once told us that Tian Huang was afraid of that person, and we could kill Tang Ye because he assisted us in stopping him."

"That's true." Meng Wuya released a heavy sigh. "So, who is the real mastermind?"

Both men shook their heads because they themselves didn't have an answer to it. "Ouyang Hong has ordered Pei Yan and Bai Huang to return, so we'll leave it to them to find the mastermind, and we'll move once they find out that person's identity."

Tap... Tap...

A middle-aged man with a tired look walked into his house, and a middle-aged woman asked him directly. "How did it go, husband? What was the cause of Xiang Ning's death?"

"As reported by those reporters, Yuelin." The man was none other than Zhao Zheng, and he then sat beside his wife before continuing. "She died of a heart attack, and the police questioned me because I was the last person to meet her at that hotel. However, her and Yao Wei's deaths seem to be related to the strange events that have occurred recently, but they still haven't managed to find the mastermind behind all those events."

Wang Yuelin nodded slightly. "I've contacted my father and discussed those incidents with him, and he asked us not to get involved in those matters."

"What did my father-in-law say to you?"

"According to his observations, all those incidents are related to one thing." Zhao Zheng turned to Wang Yuelin with a raised eyebrow. "If you pay close attention to those events, you should realize that they only happened to the families involved in Tang Ye and Zhao Jing's deaths, so he suspected that the masterminds were people who were related to them."

"Tang Ye and Zhao Jing, huh?" Zhao Zheng muttered while looking up at the ceiling. "Those people killed him and took over his wealth, and they were also the ones who caused my cousin's death. For almost two decades, they were able to keep everything so neat, and Ouyang Hong's influence prevented the police from investigating their deaths. However, the situation seems to have changed now; one of them disappeared along with his son, and one of them is dead now along with his ex-wife, so only a few of them remain."

"That's right." Wang Yuelin replied with a nod. "The masterminds seemed to be targeting the Meng family now because Meng Wuya contacted my father for help, and he told him that his situation was in chaos, but he rejected him because he didn't want to be dragged into those matters. Not only that, I heard from the head of my family's hospital that Ouyang Ming and Ouyang Qing were being treated there now, and they were exposed to an unusual disease."

"Hmm?" Zhao Zheng was shocked to hear that, as he never expected that they would dare attack the Ouyang family. "Who are the real culprits? There are only three people left in the Tang family now that Tang Xiao is dead in prison. Tang Yin just woke up from her coma a few days ago, so she couldn't possibly do anything alone. Tang Yuan shouldn't have to wait 19 years to take revenge on them, and she could have done it years ago. Besides, Uncle Huang disappeared after the incident that befell his two children seven years ago, and no one ever saw him again after that."

"My father dares not confirm the identity of the perpetrators." Wang Yuelin said as she shook her head. "Despite this, he was sure that the perpetrators were one of them, but their actions were too neat and impossible for anyone else to do. Even the bank gave up on the matter, so the police didn't have any evidence to take action against them. That's why he asked us to stay away from those matters, and you have to refuse Uncle Zhao if he asks me to investigate them."

"I know." Zhao Zheng nodded in understanding. "I always follow my uncle's orders, but I'm not stupid, and I won't interfere in those matters. Back then, he strongly opposed their marriage, especially since Tang Ye was not that rich at that time. However, he was truly persistent and tenacious in developing his business, and he managed to overtake those families in just a few years. Unfortunately, his success provoked their jealousy, and they ended up collaborating to commit heinous acts against him and my cousin. My uncle was no different from them, and he was jealous of him, but he didn't dare to do anything to him because of Zhao Jing. Even though he never liked her husband, she was still his first daughter."

"Forget it; we don't need to mind their business; let them solve their own problems." Wang Yuelin then gave a document to Zhao Zheng. "We've been married for several years, but we still don't have children, so I want to go through the IVF process, and I hope you will agree to it."

"Hmm?" Zhao Zheng read the document for a while. "Alright, you can do it as soon as possible."

Wang Yuelin's smile widened after hearing that, and she immediately contacted someone to prepare the process as soon as possible.

After they had practiced for quite a while, Tang Xiao asked the three women to stop, and Tang Yin invited them to go to the hot spring with her because the hot water there could relieve their fatigue.

Tang Yin asked Tang Xiao to follow them there, causing him to shake his head because Zhao Qing was with them.

"Let's go to the treasure vault, Xiao Ai." Tang Xiao said as he placed the little girl on his shoulders and carried her to that place.

"What do you want to look for there, Master?"

"If I remember correctly, cultivators have basic pills, right? Therefore, I want to look for those pills, and I want to look for some other useful items."

"Master, there are five basic pills, but you guys can't swallow them for now."

"Why is that?"

"Each pill has its own level, and the first basic pill is the foundation pill, but you can only swallow it after your cultivation reaches the peak beginner level and is about to break through to the foundation level." Tang Xiao released a disappointed sigh after hearing that, and Xiao Ai spoke again. "That's why you have to make a decision as soon as possible to dual cultivate with my mistress and Xing Xing as soon as possible. This way, your cultivation will reach the peak level faster, and you can swallow the pill before you break through to the Foundation Level.

Tang Xiao nodded slightly. "Are there any other items we can use with our current cultivation?"

Xiao Ai searched her database for some items that would be useful for them, and she informed him after finding some. "Master, you can use the Qi Absorption Pill, and it will speed up your qi absorption by two times. However, you can't consume it every day, or your Yang Qi will become excessive, and you can only swallow one in three days. Additionally, there are two pills that are highly beneficial for everyone, but I'm uncertain whether my mistress and Xing Xing can withstand the effect."

"Hmm? What are those pills?"

Chapter 78: Xingyu Pills

"Red Xingyu and Blue Xingyu pills have the effect of increasing the amount of Yang Qi and Yin Qi for a day, but both pills will also make men and women too aroused." Tang Xiao looked at Xiao Ai with his mouth wide open. "Hehe! You have four women by your side now, so you can take that pill, and they can help you relieve the effects. However, they can only dual-cultivate with you, so I'm afraid their bodies won't be able to withstand its effects, and they will explode if the Yin Qi in their bodies is too excessive."

"I see." Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "If the red xingyu pill can increase my Yang Qi, then it will be useful for speeding up their cultivation. This way, their Yin Qi will become stronger after they successfully break through, which will be beneficial for me too."

"You are right, Master."

Before long, they had arrived at the treasury vault, and Tang Xiao rushed to the pill area. After he found the pills, he stored some in his storage ring, and he went to the hot spring to catch up with the three women.

As for Xiao Ai, she decided to go to the small factory to monitor Yu Xiaoling and Zhao Yuxian.

"Xiao'er!" Zhao Qing screamed as she submerged her body in the hot spring. "Why did you come here?"

Although Xing Xing also felt embarrassed by Tang Xiao's arrival, she did not intend to cover her body because he had seen her naked before.

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed while scratching his head, but he then took off his clothes and only left his boxers on. Zhao Qing's face turned red after she saw the bulge behind it, and he swiftly joined them in the pool. "Aunt Qing, I'm tired after training, so I want to soak here to relieve my fatigue."

'Tch! Xiao'er is truly shameless now!' Zhao Qing inwardly muttered and moved away from them, hiding behind the rocks on the other side of the pool. 'Sigh! My late brother and sister would be sad if they knew about their relationship.'

Tang Yin moved to her little brother's side and whispered to him, and Tang Xiao turned to her with a raised eyebrow. "I didn't believe it at first either, but I am telling you the truth, and you can ask Xiao Ai."

Tang Xiao didn't say anything about it and turned to Xing Xing, who looked shy. He pulled her to his other side before planting a soft kiss on her lips. "Why do you feel embarrassed toward me? You're my wife now, and I've seen you naked before, so— ouch!"

"Humph!" Xing Xing snorted while pinching Tang Xiao's waist. "Even though you've seen me naked before and I'm your wife now, I'm still a virgin, so it's natural for me to feel embarrassed."

Instead, Tang Xiao picked up Xing Xing and placed her on his lap. He kissed her again, which made her sigh helplessly; however, she immediately returned his kiss with closed eyes while hugging his neck.

Tang Yin smiled in satisfaction at seeing the two of them hotly kissing each other, but she had no intention of stopping them and waiting for them to finish. Her eyes kept glancing at Zhao Qing, who seemed to be enjoying herself behind the rocks.

As their kiss became more heated, Tang Xiao's hands moved to Xing Xing's buttocks and kneaded them repeatedly, which made her even more excited to kiss him, especially after she felt his dick start to harden.

Tang Xiao was taken back when Xing Xing's lower body began to move, and his dick became harder as she rubbed against it. However, he stopped their kiss and looked at her intensely.

"Why are you looking at me like this? Don't you like it?" Xing Xing asked in a disappointed tone.

Tang Xiao shook his head. "I liked it, and I couldn't wait to take things further with you. However, I wasn't sure if you were ready to do it with me, so I was surprised by your action."

"Phew! I thought you didn't like it." Xing Xing said it with a pout. "Honestly, I'm not ready to do that, but we're married now, and you're bound to want to do it with me sooner or later. That's why I decided not to hold myself back anymore, but I want to do something before we do it."

"What do you want to do?" Tang Xiao asked this as he handed their marriage certificate to Xing Xing, who immediately put it into her storage ring.

"What else?" Xing Xing asked back while shaking her head. "Big Sis Yin asked Xiao Ai to make our marriage certificate without telling me first, and you haven't asked my mother for approval either. Therefore, I want you to meet her and ask for her blessing first."

"Haha!" Tang Xiao laughed at that. "Do you want to go see my mother-in-law now?"

"Yes." Xing Xing answered with a firm nod. "The sooner we go to her, the better, and you can take me as your wife after getting her blessing."

Tang Xiao was overjoyed, and he took Xing Xing out of the hot spring. "Let's leave now, and we'll go straight to him."

'This guy can't wait to eat me!' Xing Xing dried her body and got dressed, and they left the ark after they finished dressing.

After they disappeared, Zhao Qing moved next to Tang Yin, and they talked about some things, especially about their new company.

They were already sitting in front of Chu Lingxi, and Xing Xing showed their marriage certificate to her mother, which was quite surprising for her.

"Aunt Lingxi, I—"

"Xiao'er, you are already married to my daughter, remember?"

"Haha." Tang Xiao laughed awkwardly at that. "Mother-in-law, I know that it's too late, and I should have come to you first. I like Xing, and I hope you're willing to bless our marriage. As for our wedding party, you don't need to worry about it, and I will hold it after I take care of those people."

"Back then, your parents were always kind to our family, and they often helped us. Even so, I never imagined that my daughter would marry you; however, I know that she has liked you for a long time, so I will bless your marriage. After hearing that, Tang Xiao exhaled with relief, but Chu Lingxi continued speaking. "Xiao'er, I still don't know much about the lives of cultivators, but Xing'er has already told me a few things about you. I hope you will never push her aside, and you must always cherish her."

Tang Xiao put on a serious look and nodded to her. "Don't worry, mother-in-law. I promise you, I will always cherish her for the rest of my life."

After they spoke with Chu Lingxi, Tang Xiao took Xing Xing to leave the apartment. They strolled in a nearby park, but he seemed to be thinking about something. "What are you thinking?"

"I was thinking about eating you." Tang Xiao's spontaneous answer made Xing Xing's face redden. "My mother-in-law already blessed our marriage, and you yourself said before that I could take you as my wife after that, so you must not go back on your words."

"Humph!" Xing Xing snorted and asked him with narrowed eyes. "Didn't you have fun with Jessica and have sex with Aunt Yuxian last night? Why are you so eager to eat me? Are you dissatisfied with them?"

"Not really." Tang Xiao then faced Xing Xing and hugged her waist. "I'm satisfied with them, but Zhao Yuxian is our servant, and Jessica will follow her and Yu Xiaoling soon. As for you, you are my wife, so I can't wait to become one with you. Moreover, we are both cultivators, and we can help each other through dual cultivation."

Xing Xing didn't deny Tang Xiao's words because Tang Yin had explained many things to her, and Xiao Ai also imparted many things about cultivation to her, especially dual cultivation. She was eager to become strong to help them face their enemies, but she was afraid to have sex with him.

"Are you afraid of pain when we have sex for the first time?" Xing Xing turned her red face to the side and nodded to Tang Xiao in embarrassment. "Hehe! You needn't be afraid, as I can alleviate your pain with my light qi, ensuring that you won't feel the slightest pain."

"Can you really do that?" Tang Xiao responded to Xing Xing by nodding. "Let me prepare myself first, okay?"

Tang Xiao nodded at her. "I'm impatient to eat you, but I'm not in a rush with that either. Therefore, you can prepare yourself first, and you can cultivate using my Yang Qi for the time being."

"Phew." Xing Xing felt relieved. "What about Big Sis Yin? Why don't you do it with her first? Although I still find your relationship unusual, she is now your wife, so it is time for you to consummate your marriage with her."

Tang Xiao smiled at that, as he couldn't wait to eat Tang Yin. "My grandfather will probably be back soon, so I'll eat her after we meet him."

"Are you going back to Ouyang House now?" Tang Xiao's smartphone suddenly rang, but the name on the screen caused Xing Xing to frown. "Jessica seems to be falling for you even more, so you should go see her now, and I'll take my mother to Grandpa Chen's house."

"Alright."

Chapter 79: Peak Rank Beginner Level

Tang Xiao didn't go straight to Jessica because she asked him to come at midnight and he returned to the Ouyang House. To his surprise, he couldn't find Su Rou there, and he assumed that she had gone to meet one of her paramours.

Tang Xiao found Yi An sitting beside her bedroom window while looking outside, but her face looked pale because she was worried about her two children.

Tang Xiao could see that Yi An stole glances at him several times, which was because he had used his Heart-Seizing Technique and celestial aura on her before. Additionally, he mixed his cum into her drink, which she had already consumed.

Tang Xiao smiled faintly at Yi An's awkward expression when their eyes met, but she hurriedly stood up and closed the curtains. He used the void dragon steps to sneak into her room, but he kept hiding inside the void while watching her change into a nightgown.

Despite being in her mid-forties, Yi An's face looked quite young, and her skin was firm due to her expensive treatments. Tang Xiao smiled faintly when he saw her taking a pill, which he believed was a sleeping pill.

Within minutes, Tang Xiao saw that Yi An was already sound asleep, so he came out from hiding and sat beside her on the bed. He grabbed her hand and injected his qi into her body; he also used the Heart-Seizing Technique and celestial aura on her again.

"Mhmm..." Yi An moaned softly without opening her eyes, but her expression looked calmer due to Tang Xiao's actions.

Tang Xiao didn't stay there for too long and returned to his room, where he cultivated using the Yin Qi of the four women that Xiao Ai had prepared for him. At first, he wanted to swallow the Qi Absorption Pill, but he canceled his intention because he would meet Jessica soon.

Just like the night before, Jessica pulled Tang Xiao into her house as soon as she arrived. However, she was still wearing her half-unbuttoned blouse and long black skirt.

Jessica jumped to hug Tang Xiao, wrapping her arms around his neck and her legs around his waist. The two kissed for a while before she separated their lips. "I don't know why, but I've been missing you ever since you kissed me the first time, and I missed you even more after our intimate activities last night."

"You can call me anytime if you miss me, miss." Tang Xiao then asked her. "Did you just come back from outside?"

"Yes." Jessica pointed towards the bathroom. "Previously, I visited Ouyang Qing in the hospital with two of our close friends, and I went to several other places with them afterward."

"I see." Tang Xiao then took Jessica to the bathroom.

Arriving at the bathroom, Jessica jumped down and took off all her clothes, and she helped Tang Xiao undress afterwards. She pulled him under the shower, but she didn't turn it on right away; instead, she started filling her bathtub with warm water.

After Jessica turned on the shower, Tang Xiao grabbed both her hands and pressed her against the wall. He held them above her head and kissed her in a passionate manner straight away, which she immediately reciprocated.

Jessica closed her eyes as she enjoyed their passionate kiss under the warm water from the shower, making her quickly aroused. Tang Xiao himself was aroused by the sexiness of her body, and he placed his erect dick between her inner thighs, which she immediately clamped down on.

"Mhmm..." Jessica started moaning as soon as Tang Xiao moved his dick, and his shaft rubbed against her pussy, which aroused her further.

Tang Xiao held both of Jessica's hands with one hand, and his other hand moved to her breasts, squeezing and massaging them, sometimes gently and sometimes roughly.

"Mhmm..." Jessica squirmed quite strongly as Tang Xiao activated the low level of the pleasure touch, and her sexual fluids began to seep out of her pussy, wetting his shaft. 'Mhmm... His stimulation is more pleasurable than before.'

Unfortunately, Tang Xiao's actions caused Jessica to reach orgasm too soon. Her body tensed and jerked repeatedly as her pleasure flowed freely from her pussy. 'Oh gosh! He made me orgasm too fast!'

"You orgasmed so fast, miss." Tang Xiao whispered to Jessica.

Jessica was embarrassed by that, but she immediately squatted on the floor and gave Tang Xiao a blowjob for a few minutes until he orgasmed in her mouth.

After the bathtub was full of water, Tang Xiao took Jessica inside. He leaned against his head with her back leaning against his chest, and she lifted both legs to the side of the bathtub, allowing him to stimulate her breasts and pussy at the same time.

"Mhmm... Ahh..." Jessica kept moaning because the pleasure was getting more intense, especially when Tang Xiao's fingers fucked her pussy. "Mhmm... you are getting better at stimulating me."

Tang Xiao nibbled Jessica's ear. "I can give you more pleasure than this, miss."

Jessica's heart pounded when she heard that, and she grabbed Tang Xiao's dick while imagining it penetrating her body. However, her guilt toward her husband held her back from having sex with him. "Ahh... I—"

"It's okay, I'll wait for you to be ready, miss." Jessica neither agreed nor disagreed with Tang Xiao, and she actually considered stopping seeing him after her husband returned.

During their activities in the bathroom, Tang Xiao made Jessica orgasm several times. They didn't stop there and continued their sexual activities in the guest room.

Tang Xiao left Jessica's house at dawn and returned to the Ouyang House, and he saw Su Rou had just returned carrying several bags of shopping from famous brands.

In the morning, Tang Xiao drove the two women to the hospital again. Yi An informed him that she wasn't going anywhere, so Tang Xiao was free to leave; however, she requested that he pick them up at night.

Since Yi An had said that, Tang Xiao returned to Ouyang House and entered the ark. He immediately asked Zhao Yuxian to meet him in his room, and Tang Yin ordered Yu Xiaoling to join them.

Tang Xiao did not touch Yu Xiaoling directly, and he was fully focused on having sex with Zhao Yuxian. The female teacher was stunned and speechless as she watched their sexual activity, mainly because of the relationship between the two of them.

Zhao Yuxian's expression and moans aroused Yu Xiaoling, and she masturbated beside them until she reached her orgasm.

Although he was still not satisfied after he had fun with Zhao Yuxian, Tang Xiao still did not touch Yu Xiaoling; instead, he went to the training ground to practice. He never thought of forcing his former teacher to have sex with him, and he wanted her to take the initiative to serve him by herself.

Quickly, three days passed, and Tang Xiao was preparing to break through to the Peak Rank Beginner Level.

For the past three days, Yi An hadn't gone anywhere except the hospital, so he had plenty of time to focus on his cultivation and training. He sneaked into her room every night, using the Heart-Seizing Technique, qi, and celestial aura on her. He also mixed his cum into her drink, which made her feel awkward every time they met.

Tang Xiao also visited Jessica and made out with her, but she was still not willing to have sex with him. She forbade him from coming to her house again because her husband and son would return, but she promised to meet him somewhere else for fun.

Tang Xiao did not forget to have sex with Zhao Yuxian, with Yu Xiaoling watching them every time. However, he still didn't touch the female teacher, which made him anxious and jealous.

Tang Xiao began to take his relationship with Tang Yin to the next level, and they began to satisfy each other through oral sex. His relationship with Xing Xing also became closer, but they haven't taken it to the next level yet because he's not ready.

Since Zhao Qing handled all the affairs for her new company, and Xiao Ai helped her speed up matters related to their products, Tang Yin didn't have to bother with all those trivial matters. Not only did she and Xing Xing concentrate on their cultivation, but they also dedicated themselves to practicing martial arts.

Tang Yin's cultivation broke through to the Upper Rank Beginner Level, and Xing Xing's cultivation broke through to the Middle Rank, as both women continued to cultivate using Tang Xiao's Yang Qi.

After some time, Tang Xiao finally broke through to the Peak Rank Beginner Level. His breakthrough increased his raw power and strengthened his body, which was thanks to his War God bloodline and physique.

"Congratulations on your breakthrough, Xiao'er."

"Congratulations on your breakthrough, Husband."

Tang Yin and Xing Xing spoke as soon as Tang Xiao opened his eyes, and he pulled both women onto his lap before giving them a gentle kiss. "Your cultivation may fall behind me now, but I will always assist you both to ensure you don't fall far behind."

Both women nodded at Tang Xiao with a smile, but Tang Yin reminded him, "Xiao'er, I think you should go out now. I'm afraid Yi An will need you. Xing'er and I will also go out to see Aunt Qing, as she has already completed the purchase of the building for our company."

"You two have to be careful when you're outside, okay?"

"Yeah."

Chapter 80: One Step Ahead

Just as Tang Xiao exited the ark, he found Su Rou standing in front of his room door. Yi An wanted to go to the hospital, so he immediately left the room before walking away with her.

"Have you done anything to Ouyang Qing?" Su Rou asked curiously.

Tang Xiao looked at her. "Why do you ask that?"

Su Rou shrugged her shoulders. "Before she fell ill, she was already acting strangely, and she ordered me to investigate your private life. After she was hospitalized, she repeatedly asked me about you, and she seemed impatient to meet you."

'Haha.' Tang Xiao inwardly laughed when he heard that. After all, he repeatedly sneaked into Ouyang Qing's wardroom in the past few days to carry out his actions, and he also made her drink his cum without her realizing it. "I haven't done anything to her, and she's probably fascinated by my good looks."

"Narcissistic!" Despite this, Su Rou acknowledged Tang Xiao's good looks, and she was eager to experience what it would be like to have sex with him. Unfortunately, he was never attracted to her, mainly because she had relationships with many men. "Today is Old Mu's birthday, and Wen Tian was supposed to attend the event with his family. However, Ouyang Qing is still sick now, so it is impossible for her to attend the event."

Tang Xiao nodded in understanding. "Let's see later."

After that, Tang Xiao took a car in the parking lot and picked up Yi An in front of the main building, and he drove the two women to the hospital.

In the car, Yi An's heart fluttered as she repeatedly stole glances at Tang Xiao through the rearview mirror, and her gaze was like that of an enchanted woman.

'Why have I been thinking about him for the past four days? Every time I see his face, I want to go to his side so badly, and that urge has gotten stronger every day.' Yi An averted her gaze and pretended not to see when Tang Xiao looked at her through the rearview mirror. 'Sigh! I probably feel this way because I'm too stressed! I hope my children recover quickly and my husband returns from abroad so they will accompany me at home.'

Before long, they arrived at the hospital, and Yi An hurriedly got out of the car before running away in a hurry.

"What happened to her? Why is she suddenly acting strange?" Su Rou found Yi An's behavior puzzling. "Do you want to go inside? Ouyang Qing will probably be overjoyed to meet you."

"I'll park the car first."

"Alright." Su Rou hurriedly got out of the car and waited for Tang Xiao in front of the hospital entrance.

A while later, Tang Xiao and Su Rou arrived at Ouyang Qing's room, but they didn't find Yi An there because the doctor had invited her to check on Ouyang Ming, whose condition was much worse than his sister's.

Ouyang Qing was stunned for a moment as soon as she saw Tang Xiao, and her cheeks reddened for no reason, making him smile in amusement.

Su Rou naturally noticed Ouyang Qing's behavior and teased her instantly. "Young miss, you have been asking about Feng Xiao in the past few days, so I brought him here to see you."

'This slut! How dare she tease me in front of a chauffeur!?' Ouyang Qing grumbled inwardly as she stole a glance at Tang Xiao, who was standing by the door. After all, he was disguised as a chauffeur, so he positioned himself as one. 'Ugh! What's happening to me? I've been thinking about him ever since I tried to eavesdrop on him and Jessica a week ago, and this feeling has only gotten stronger since I started suffering from this unknown illness.'

"Hehe." Su Rou chuckled and pulled Tang Xiao to the side of the bed, making Ouyang Qing's heart pound even more, especially when he enveloped her with his celestial aura.

Su Rou suddenly placed Tang Xiao's hand above Ouyang Qing's hand, causing her to fiercely glare at her. She responded to her glare by sticking out her tongue. "Don't be shy, young miss."

'I'll teach this slut a lesson after I recover!' Ouyang Qing wanted to pull her hand away, but extraordinary comfort suddenly flowed through her body after Tang Xiao channeled his qi into it. 'Is this feeling really coming from him? When he carried me a few days ago, I felt the same way, and it made me feel so comfortable with him.'

Ouyang Qing closed her eyes as Tang Xiao rubbed the back of her palm, enjoying the comfortable sensation he gave her. 'Heh!'

Su Rou stood behind Tang Xiao and carefully observed Ouyang Qing's expression, but she found that her behavior was strange. 'Did this little bitch really fall in love with Feng Xiao? Wasn't she infatuated with Wen Tian? Did she change her mind?'

Ouyang Qing always acted haughty and looked down on people without status like them, but she looked comfortable when Tang Xiao held and rubbed her hand.

'Hehehe! I want to see how she humbles herself by falling in love with a chauffeur! However, Ouyang Hong will not allow his daughter to fall into his arms, and he probably will kill him if that happens.' Su Rou's lips curled up when she saw Ouyang Qing pulling Tang Xiao's hand to her chest. "I'm going out to buy some drinks first."

"Mhmm..." Ouyang Qing was startled by her own moan, and she shut her mouth tightly while peeking at Tang Xiao, who was using his fingers to rub her soft mounds from outside her clothes. She wanted to stop him, but a sudden jolt of pleasure electrocuted her body, causing her to squirm. She rubbed her legs together, feeling her pussy start to get wet. 'What happened? Why am I aroused by his light touch?'

"Are you feeling better now, young miss?" Tang Xiao asked, pretending to be considerate of her and continuing to use a low-level pleasure touch on her.

"Mhmm... Yes..." Ouyang Qing shut her mouth again as her face became even redder; she was sure Tang Xiao heard her moans just now. 'Ugh! It's truly embarrassing, but I don't want him to stop.'

As the pleasure increasingly flooded her body and mind, Ouyang Qing flipped and pressed Tang Xiao's hand against her breasts. She squeezed his hand, making him squeeze her breasts.

Ouyang Qing's body jerked slightly as Tang Xiao pinched her erect nipples between his fingers, and her pussy became increasingly wet with her sexual fluid.

Unlike with Jessica or Yu Xiaoling, Tang Xiao did not intend to hold himself back. Since Ouyang Qing took the initiative by placing his hand on her chest, and she was the main mastermind behind his and Tang Yin's suffering, he immediately seized the opportunity.

Ouyang Qing opened her eyes, and she looked at Tang Xiao with blurry eyes. "Mhmm... Feng Xiao..."

"Yes, young miss?"

"I—" Tang Xiao smiled at Ouyang Qing's expression, and he brought his face closer to hers before planting a kiss on her thin lips, causing her to momentarily go into shock. 'Ugh! A chauffeur like him kissed me!'

Instead of stopping Tang Xiao, Ouyang Qing returned his kiss and inserted her tongue into his mouth, leading him into a passionate kiss. He immediately sucked and licked her tongue, and his hands became bolder in fondling her breasts and pinching her nipples, heightening her lust.

'She's quite experienced with kissing, huh?' Tang Xiao kissed Ouyang Qing deeper and more passionately, and they exchanged warm saliva.

[Hahaha! Master, Ouyang Qing is not as innocent as you think, and she often watches porn when no one is home.] Tang Xiao was surprised to hear that, but Xiao Ai immediately warned him. [Master, Yi An is on her way there, so you should stop now.]

Ouyang Qing felt confused as soon as Tang Xiao broke the kiss and pulled back his hand, but she heard the door open and saw her mother walk in. She hurriedly pretended to be asleep while trying to calm her lust. 'Ugh! Mother! You came at the wrong time!'

Yi An was taken back when she saw Tang Xiao, and her heart pounded again. She hurriedly calmed herself down and sat on the sofa. "Why are you here, Feng Xiao?"

"Madam, Su Rou went out to buy drinks, and she asked me to look after the young miss. Since you're here, I'll take my leave."

"Wait." Yi An stopped Tang Xiao. "Go home, but you must pick us up at 6 p.m. to attend Uncle Mu's birthday."

"Yes, madam." Tang Xiao immediately left the room.

Yi An didn't pay attention to Ouyang Qing's expression; instead, she leaned back on the sofa and closed her eyes, thinking about her conversation with the doctor who treated Ouyang Ming. "Qing'er, I can't take you to Uncle Mu's birthday party."

"Mom, I'm not interested in that event either, and I just want this illness to go away quickly." Ouyang Qing covered her face with the blanket, worried that Yi An would notice her expression. She rubbed her lips, thinking back to her kiss with Tang Xiao. 'Ugh! I've gone insane! I let a chauffeur kiss and touch me.'

Two people walked down the hospital hallway, but they exchanged confused glances after they arrived in front of an inpatient room, as they couldn't find the person they were looking for.

"Nurse, where is the patient who lives in this room?"
