

CEO Bride 325

Chapter 325

Nash got up and left.

When he was in the car, Nash carefully tore open the backing of the painting and successfully obtained a piece of the map.

It was similar to the one he already had. It had some landscapes on it, and some new places he never heard of were marked on it.

Melody's phone vibrated in her pocket.

She looked at her phone and saw that Fabian had sent a GPS location.

"That's weird... Why is he in such a secluded area?" Melody asked curiously.

"Fabian's there already?"

Nash had planned to go to Baroque to look for Hera.

However, Fabian seemed to be in danger.

It was more important to find Fabian first.

"Yes, but the GPS location is at Falling Sunset Mountain!"

"Xeno, drive to Falling Sunset Mountain now!"

boredom and staring at

were taken with Nash on when he was holding her in their sleep during the too.

there were knocks

the

it, she said

lingering light left by a hand as skinny as a skeleton

ago, he had

was a problem

as he received the message, he took out his parachute, pressed the emergency escape button, unlucky enough to fall into a cut off his parachute and climbed down with pure white baby fox bared its pointed ears, and a

“Shoo!”

fierce look in Fabian’s little fox tilted its head and looked straight at Fabian with eyes full of up the cliff and what his father had said on

House of Representatives... They all have the same purpose, which is to get Universal Universal Foundation was established with dividends from the founder-Harper Young’s 10% shares.

Of this, 80% was allocated to charitable funds, and the remaining 20% was used for the cultivation of martial arts experts within the foundation.

For decades, the foundation trained many martial artists.

Some of them were in charge of overseeing the foundation, so no one dared to take them lightly.

Harper’s 10% of shares were kept for himself.

It was the token to control the martial artists.

When he returned to Drakonia, he had brought six stage-nine great-grandmasters with him.

However, that was far from enough.

To be absolutely safe, he had to take all precautions.

The little fox raised its head and made a gentle noise.

A tiger’s roar came from deep in the forest.

In the blink of an eye, chaos ensued.

“Shit... Be quiet!”