

CEO is Chasing Ex Wife Back - Chapter 206

Chapter 206 Too Late

Everything went as Aurora expected. Not long after she returned to the villa, Zac's car drove in, and he questioned Aurora as soon as he entered, "You went to the hospital?" Aurora was peeling oranges in the dining room and raised her head, her eyes full of innocence. "What?" "Did you go to the hospital to scare Wenny?" Zac asked angrily. The psychiatrists said that Wenny had been out of her mind and that she kept talking nonsense. She even said that she saw someone who should not appear in the hospital, "Zac, you keep me here. Is it not enough for you?" Aurora stopped peeling and shouted angrily, "If you want to accuse me, you need evidence. Then I'll take it." They started arguing in the dining room. When Alma heard them, she quickly got out of the kitchen. "Sir, don't be angry. Ms. Bennet didn't go anywhere today." She did not want them to quarrel. Aurora looked at Alma and said nothing.

Zac lowered his gaze and stared at Aurora's beautiful face. "Alright, you'll be done when I find evidence..." Mr. Buchanna! Mr. Swon and his wife are arriving soon. They want to take Miss Swon out of the hospital as soon as possible," said Carter, who had picked up a phone call and rushed in.

Zac slowly stood up and asked coldly, "Take her out of the hospital?"

"Yes, they don't think Miss Swon should be there," Carter answered.

They even cursed on the phone, but

Carter didn't mention it.

He didn't want to rub it in.

Just then, Davis and Faye walked in with panic in their eyes.

After Faye saw Aurora, who was standing in front of Zac, Faye's expression twisted with jealousy. She frowned and avoided Aurora's smiling eyes.

Davis shouted, "No wonder you sent my daughter to that place. You want to stay alone with this woman. How could you do this to my daughter?"

"Davis." Faye tugged at him.

Davis ignored her. He shook off her hand and rushed straight at Zac. "I don't mind that you never respected and looked down on my family. But today, you must bring back my daughter."

Aurora thought, the show is on!

Aurora silently took half a step back, cooled down, and prepared to watch the show.

Wenny was sent to the psych ward by Zac. The Swon family wouldn't stand by and watch.

If something bad happened to the baby in her belly, they would not be able to get support from Zac. They wanted to use the power of the Buchanna family to make a fortune, but they were arrogant in front of Zac

Aurora was surprised by Davis' courage.

She had reminded him that Zac was not pushover. Yet, Davis still became a pawn in her hands.

In comparison, Faye was smarter.

She quietly looked at Aurora's expression and realized that it might have something to do with Aurora.

But Faye suspected that Aurora could trick Wenny under the control of Zac.

Faye thought for a while and only felt that Aurora was even more terrifying.

Not only was she scheming, but she was also good at acting.

Wenny was not her match at all.

Faye looked at Davis, who was angry, and sighed silently. She thought, they're not gonna get what they want.

"Are you done?"

Zac's face darkened, and the coldness in his eyes surged over. "Mr. Swon, if you disagree with me, you can take your daughter back."

Davis's face stiffened. He didn't expect that Zae would agree with him at once today. He thought that Zac must have been frightened by anger. So Davis felt better and said, "Smart man."

"1

"However," Zac coldly said, "The engagement will be canceled. And we're done."

"What?"

Davis frowned.

Faye's heart skipped a beat. She thought, damn. We're done.

Davis enraged Zac.

"Davis, don't be angry. Sit down and have a civilised talk.

Zac did this for Wenny and the baby in her belly. We're a family.

Don't say that." Faye had already married Davis, so helping the Swon family came naturally.

At that moment, she could only pretend to be a good wife and persuade Davis.

If they went against the Buchanna family, the Swon family would go bankrupt.

Zac can easily deal with them.

Her words helped Davis.

He placed his palm on the table and looked at Aurora, who was watching them. Anger grew in his heart again.

He didn't dare to go against Zac, but he had the guts to deal with Aurora.

Why does this woman appear in your house again and again? What is the relationship between you two?"

Although Davis was still roaring, his voice was much softer. Faye heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Davis was not too stupid.

If Aurora hadn't been there, the quarrel would have ceased. But Aurora wouldn't let it happen. She would make things worse, of course. "Mrs. Swon, you're right. You are family and I'm an outsider. I shouldn't be here. I will leave immediately!"

Aurora smiled, clapped her hands, and was about to leave. Davis was still cursing. The next second, Aurora's wrist was grabbed by someone. "She can't go anywhere?" Zac pulled her hard. "You..." Davis's eyes widened.

It was a slap in his face.

"Can you show us some respect? You went too far, Zac." As he roared, he touched his chest.

Faye immediately went over to support him and slowly looked up at Aurora with panic and worry in her eyes. Aurora knew what Faye was worried about. She tilted her head and put on a charming smile on purpose. “Mr. Buchanna, you can’t bear to part with me, right? What should I do? It’s not suitable for me to stay at your house. I’m not your fiancée.”

Davis was enraged. Zac sent his daughter to the hospital and locked her up, but he was here with his ex-wife! As Wenny’s father, Davis couldn’t bear it!

“Shut up.” Zac’s eyes were filled with anger as he tightened his grip on her wrist. “It hurts,” Aurora complained in an affected way

His face was gloomy. With a ruthless tug, he pulled Aurora towards him. Then, his tone was extremely cold. “I’ll make you my fiancée again. I’ll let you live in the cage I built for you for the rest of your life. You’ll live in hell.” Aurora froze, and she wanted to pull her hand out of his grip. Zac had a cold smile on his face.

“Want to run away? It’s too late, Aurora.” He pulled her into his arms, stopping Aurora from going away. He lowered his head to kiss her. It was a tough kiss...

Chapter 207 This Is Too Much

When he let go, Aurora finally could breathe. She gasped for breath and was pushed away before she could stand firmly. There was a small wound on the corner of Aurora’s mouth due to his kiss. Looking up again, she found that Zac’s face was dark and cold.

“You...” Davis’ eyes widened because of his anger “How could you do this to my daughter? She is still pregnant with your child. You went too far!” Zac frowned and felt that Davis was stupid. No wonder Wenny was so unreasonable. She was quite the same as her father.

“Mr. Swon, this is my home. I can do what I want to do. I didn’t invite you, and I have already shown you respect. If you want to order me around, I’m afraid you are not qualified.” Zac glanced over, and coldness filled the corners of his eyes.

“You!” Davis pounded his chest, almost unable to breathe. “Carter, send Mr. Swon off.” “Mr. Swon, please go.” Carter took a step forward. Davis’ hands trembled as he pointed at Zac, “You will pay! The Swon family will not let it go just like that.”

“I’ll be waiting.” Zac turned around and drank a cup of tea,

When the door closed, he turned around and walked towards Aurora.

Looking down at her, he suddenly sneered.

“It seems that I was too tolerant of you, and you got carried away.”

He gave her freedom.

She would never be out of his control.

Aurora kept her head down and tried to suppress her emotions before she raised her head again. Her beautiful pupils reflected his cold face.

She had expected this.

“What’s the point of saying this, Mr.

Buchanna? You have no evidence to prove that I did it. Moreover, Wenny has also been sent to the psych ward.”

Davis was so angry, and he would definitely not spare Zac.

And the news that Wenny had a mental problem would spread throughout the city tomorrow morning, and Zac would become the gossip of everyone. Her goal had been achieved.

Aurora smiled slowly. "My life is hopeless. But Mr. Buchanna, you have a great future. Unfortunately..."

Aurora," he said with his eyes cold

Aurora curled her lips indifferently. "The Bennet Group has already signed a contract with the Buchanna Group. If the current president of the Bennet Group mysteriously disappeared, do you think people will suspect you?"

She had carefully deployed such a scheme and was waiting for Zac to walk into the trap himself.

Now, it seemed that everything was going smoothly.

She was indeed humiliated just now, but so what?

She was willing to do anything to ruin Zac's fame.

Zac clenched his fists, his eyes filled with anger. "Good. You asked for it!"

Aurora saw him walk into the study, and with a bang, the door closed.

Alma immediately walked over and helped her up. "Why? You know him.

Tough stuff don't work on him."

Aurora smiled, and her smile was a little bitter.

"What a coincidence! I'm the same."

She stared at the direction of the study and took a deep breath. "Thank you, Alma."

In this "prison" if it wasn't for Alma's help She wouldn't have held on. She might have compromised.

"Alas, silly girl..." Alma patted Aurora's hand, she looked at the study, and shook her head.

They were so stubborn.

Aurora had already angered Zac. She couldn't leave the villa. Zac's bodyguards are outside.

She could only return to her room first, pacing back and forth as she thought about it in distraction.

Zac was so angry just now. Aurora wondered what he would do. She wondered, stop working with the Bennet Group?

Or...

She waited for quite a while, and there were footsteps outside.

Aurora frowned and stared in then-of direction of the door.

“Ms.

Bennet, Mr. Buchanna just went on a business trip. But there are still guards outside. You shouldn’t go out for the next few days,” Alma said.

Alma was afraid that Aurora would do something unwise.

The news shocked Aurora, who was unable to come back to her senses for a long time.

“What else did he say?”

WW

Alma shook her head. “Nothing.”

Aurora pursed her lips. She wondered if he was testing her.

“Thank you, Alma. I want to stay here alone for a while.”

“Alright... If you need me, just call for me.” Alma sighed and slowly closed the door.

On the way to the airport.

Zac was fluently communicating with his partner in a foreign language. There was a problem with the project, so he had to deal with it personally.

Zac ended the conversation after his partner agreed to let it go.

As soon as he put down his phone, Carter handed him a report. "Mr. Buchanna, Mr.

Swift and some other directors have been invited to Davis' home.'

He looked up, his face cold.

"Write down their names. We'll talk about it when I get back."

"Yes, Mr. Buchanna.

" Carter noted this down, but soon he thought of something. "Mr. Buchanna, do you need more people in your villa?"

Aurora wouldn't stay there obediently.

In order to prevent her from going to the hospital to cause trouble again, they should be prepared.

Zac had already thought about it. Let it be," he said indifferently. He thought of Aurora's incomparably firm eyes. His temporary business trip was definitely beyond her expectations.

She would seize such a good opportunity to do something. What he was waiting for was a perfect opportunity. He would let her know who made the rules of the game.

Zac believed that Aurora should be responsible for the losses of the Buchanna Group. He had plenty of time to play the game. He was just afraid that the Bennet Group would not be able to survive.

Ever since the Bennet Group went bankrupt, Zac had been secretly running the company, but he did not manage it well. As time passed, the company looked like an empty shell. But in fact, there was a bigger "surprise" waiting for Aurora.

Zac leaned against the back of his chair and slowly closed his eyes. At the Buchanna's villa. Aurora looked at the contract cancellation letters that were sent to her, shocked and speechless..

“The Bennet Group went bankrupt two years ago. There is a clear amount in the debt. Where did these come from?” She clenched the cancellation letters and gritted her teeth as a thought hit her mind. Aurora thought, Zac, this is too much!

CEO is Chasing Ex Wife Back - Chapter 208

Chapter 208 Climb Over the Wall

Alma noticed Aurora’s anger and leaned out to take a look.

Aurora held the contract termination letters from several companies in her hand, and the date was two years ago. Logically speaking, they should have been dealt with long ago. But now, they were still there. And Aurora just got them Only Zac could do this.

“Ms. Bennet, you don’t have to be so excited. We also know that it has been a long time, and it is a huge number. It may be hard for you to accept it for a while. But at eight o’clock tonight, my boss is holding a banquet at Joy Restaurant. Maybe Ms. Bennet will find a solution there.” The person who came to deliver these letters was a young man in a suit who spoke politely.

“Who is your boss?” “Well, I can’t tell you now. You’ll know tonight.” Aurora watched him turn and leave.

She pursed her lips deep in thought.

She thought, did Zac ask him to do so?

No. He didn’t have to do this.

But she was sure that the people behind this knew the conflicts between the Bennet family and the Buchanna family. Moreover, Zac must have already gotten the news.

“Ms. Bennet, are you going to the banquet tonight?” Alma was a little worried.

Aurora smiled, and she directly threw the letters into the trash can.

“Of course not.”

Alma was surprised. She was still thinking about how to persuade Aurora.

After all, Zac had told her not to let Aurora leave the villa before he went on a business trip.

Aurora revealed a smile.

“Alma, I may be impulsive, but I am not stupid. There is no need to go to such a banquet.”

What are we eating?” Aurora said as she stretched.

“Fish and...” Alma hurriedly went into the kitchen.

Aurora stayed put as her smile gradually faded.

She did not expect that the person who cared about her the most was the servant of the Buchanna family.

She couldn't bear to let Alma worry about her.

She lowered her eyes and glanced at the trash can. Aurora looked away emotionlessly. They had prepared so well that they had other plans. If she didn't go see them today, they would still come to find her.

It will not be so easy to deal with next time.

Aurora kept her word and watched TV in the villa that night.

Lightning suddenly flashed outside the window.

After a clap of thunder, the villa fell into darkness

“There’s a blackout. I’ll go find the candle.” Alma immediately went to the storeroom with a flashlight.

Aurora sat on the sofa and looked outside in a daze.

Several figures were passing by in the courtyard.

“Who was there?”

Another bolt of lightning appeared in the sky.

The courtyard was quiet as if she had been mistaken.

“Ms. Bennet, I only found two candles.

Let me send you back to your room first.”

Aurora withdrew her gaze and headed towards the stairs.

She entered the room, and Alma left.

The entire villa was dark and quiet.

Aurora heard the rain outside the window and frowned.

The rainy night reminded her of the day when his father got into trouble.

The memories had been imprinted in her mind.

The gate of the Bennet’s home was smashed, and people broke in to smash things and hit the people in the house...

The mess still made her angry.

Her phone suddenly lit up. It was a message from an unknown number.

“Ms. Bennet, you will regret it if you don’t come tonight.”

She wondered if it’s the boss of the ‘delivery guy’?

Aurora was still hesitating on how to reply.

She got another message.

It was a photo. There were seven men and two women in the photo. They were all famous businessmen. Shawn was in the photo too!

“Time flies. In the blink of an eye, Shawn has been dead for two years. It seemed to be raining too on the day of the incident in the Bennet’s house.

Aurora wondered, who the hell is he?

Aurora immediately took out her phone and dialed the number, but no one picked

She kept calling but couldn’t get through.

Aurora had to send a message. “Who are you? What are you doing?”

However, at noon the next day, there was still no reply.

“Ms. Bennet, do you want to eat something?”

After waking up, Aurora did not eat anything and looked at her phone every now and then.

“No, Alma. I’m not hungry.”

In fact, she had no appetite.

She had a very bad premonition, and she had to admit that the mysterious guy seemed to be more scheming than Zac.

Aurora felt controlled.

Alma sighed, "You can't starve yourself like this. If Mr. Buchanna comes back and knows it, he will definitely..."

"When will Zac come back?"

A thought suddenly popped up in Aurora's mind.

"Tomorrow night."

Aurora muttered and took her phone back to her room.

Alma sighed, "Should I tell Mr. Buchanna about this?"

In an overseas hotel.

After a whole day of the meeting, Zac returned to his room and saw the message from Davis.

Davis asked him to go back as soon as possible and take Wenny out of the hospital. Otherwise, he would have to bear the consequences.

The man stared at the screen and checked the next message.

He hated being threatened the most.

The Swon family always got on his nerves.

Just then, Alma called over.

A beautiful face hit Zac's mind. He frowned and answered the phone.

"Mr. Buchanna, Ms.

Bennet climbed over the wall."

"She ran away?" His voice was full of anger. "Where can she go? Get someone to catch her."

saw a lot of blood on the windowsill.

She seemed to have broken the glass and jumped down. Would she be hurt?" Alma was extremely worried.

She regretted not going upstairs earlier to take a look. Otherwise, she should have been able to stop Aurora.

Zac's eyes suddenly turned cold. But just as he was about to say something, he suddenly thought of something. "I see. I'll deal with it after I go back." "But..." Alma was worried. "Mr. Buchanna, should we look for her?"

"Look for her? She must be fine. The blood might not be hers," said Zac in a cold voice. He hung up the phone.

Alma stood by the window and became more worried. In a small shop a few hundred feet away from the villa. Aurora was enjoying her supper.

After she was full, she took out her phone and looked at it again. Then, her thin figure disappeared into the darkness. The moon hung high in the sky, and it was naturally a good day to go to the hospital.

“Although the bodyguards of the Buchanna family have all been withdrawn, in order to prevent outsiders from approaching Wenny’s ward, Bruce made it heavily guarded, Now it is indeed a little difficult to enter her ward secretly.”

Emily sighed, “I thought it was simple before. But now, I might not be able to bring you in secretly.” She was annoyed that she couldn’t help Aurora. But Aurora smiled casually, “Who said that I wanted to sneak in?”

CEO is Chasing Ex Wife Back - Chapter 209

Chapter 209 How Much Does the Swon Family Get?

Emily was stunned for two seconds. “You mean...” “Wenny is now a patient in the hospital. She is not in jail. I can just register according to the rules, right?” Aurora asked seriously.

“Yes, but you have to get the permission of the patient or her family.” “Take me to Dr. Norman. The Swon family will agree to let me in,” said Aurora.

Emily was confused. But she believed in Aurora and chose to take her to Dr. Norman’s office.

Th fact, Dr. Norman was very anxious at that time. Because there were big differences in the results of Wenny’s checkups. It might have something to do with their positive treatment plan. But what made Dr. Norman more anxious was that perhaps Wenny had no mental problems!

“Why?” As soon as Dr. Norman thought of the pressure from Lewis and Zae, he was so anxious that he broke out in cold sweat. Knocks sounded. “Who is it?” Dr. Norman shouted.

“Dr. Norman, this lady is Miss Swon’s friend, and Miss Swon’s family agreed to let her see Miss Swon. She wants to visit Miss Swon.” Emily walked in with Aurora.

“Who agreed to let her in?” Dr. Norman was annoyed.

He thought, this is about Wenny again?

“Wenny’s mother, Faye. She agreed to let me in,” Aurora said.

A few minutes later.

Aurora walked toward the ward of Wenny.

As soon as she entered, she smelled a strong smell of disinfectant.

“Dr. Norman, did you use too much disinfectant? Aurora looked around and pondered.

Dr. Norman thought that she was worried that too much disinfectant would affect Wenny’s health. He immediately explained, “Everything meets the standards of the hospital. If you think it’s too much, we can...”

“Too much?”

Aurora turned her head and said with a smile, "No, I think it is not enough."

She looked at the closed door of the ward in front of her. "Wenny is inside, right?"

Dr. Norman looked at her smile and felt there was a deeper meaning

However, Aurora was graceful. He could not say anything about it. "Please, Ms. Bennet."

However, after Aurora went in, he felt that he had heard her name somewhere before. It was very familiar, but he could not remember it for a while.

"The rest of you go to the office first. Emily, you stay outside and keep watch. Don't let Miss Swon feel uncomfortable."

"Don't worry, Dr. Norman. I will definitely be here." Emily put on an innocent smile.

In the ward.

Aurora's footsteps were very light.

Seeing Wenny, who had already fallen asleep on the bed, she chuckled and took out a small bottle from her bag, placing it on the table.

Perhaps because of her stare, Wenny quickly woke up.

She saw the person sitting in front of her.

Then Wenny immediately let out a piercing scream, "You slut, I'll kill you!"

If it wasn't for Aurora's scheme, Wenny wouldn't have been kept here with her reputation ruined!

Wenny should have been doing some endorsements, but now they were all ruined. And Wenny was not sure if she could still be in the show directed by Dominic.

Seeing Wenny's eyes, Aurora smiled faintly, "Miss Swon, it's not good for you and your child to do anything illegal."

When she heard Aurora's words,
Wenny's entire body trembled.

She touched her lower abdomen.

"Don't come over ... Someone help! Is there anyone outside?"

But the person guarding outside was Emily.

Wenny got no one to help her.

She could only watch as Aurora walked towards her step by step.

"What the hell are you doing..." Wenny was both angry and scared.

Aurora looked at her, who was in a panic,
and her smile became even bigger.

“I’ve said this so many times when I came to visit you. You’re mentally ill now, so of course, I have to show my concern.”

Wenny tugged at the corner of the blanket.

She pressed the bell hard.

Aurora frowned and looked at Wenny,

“After all, I sent you here.”

Hearing Aurora’s words, Wenny was already on the verge of crying.

Those nurses didn’t let her use her phone at all. She didn’t know what had happened outside the past few days. When she heard Aurora’s words, she had a breakdown.

If I were you, I wouldn’t ask such a stupid question.”

Aurora took out the three small bottles
she had brought and placed them in front of her.

“What is this?” Wenny stared at her.

“Don’t worry, it’s not poison. It’s just that the chemicals here will react to the disinfectant in the ward. The gas produced will make people feel that it is difficult to breathe and cause lung cancer.”

Wenny immediately covered her mouth and kept retreating.

“You’re crazy. If you hurt me, you won’t get away from this!”

She wanted to intimidate Aurora.

However, it was useless. On the contrary, the smile on Aurora’s face became brighter. “Get away? I never thought of getting away with this. I live to take revenge on Zac. After all, you are his fiancée.”

Wenny panicked, and she even blurted out, “We haven’t married yet! If you want to take your revenge, go find him. Don’t hurt me. I’m innocent.’ Aurora did not expect Wenny would hang Zac out to dry without hesitation.

“Is that so? I thought you loved him a lot.”

Aurora played with the small bottle in her hand, and her beautiful face seemed abit gloomy under the moonlight. However, when she looked up again, her eyes were cold.

"It's a pity that your acting is not good at all, and there are many flaws." She pretended to open the bottle. Wenny was so scared that she screamed and begged for mercy, "No, I beg you!"

She was locked on the balcony and then sent to the psych ward. Wenny's hatred for Aurora only increased, but she knew that Aurora was serious. In order to take revenge, Aurora really could do anything. So Wenny did not doubt her words about the bottles. "I'll do anything for you. Don't hurt me." Wenny was helpless. She cried. Aurora paused. "Are you sure?" Wenny leaned over and nodded.

"I can do whatever you want as long as you don't hurt me and the baby in my belly." She was really afraid of Aurora.

"Then answer my questions. If you do a good job, I will let you go for now," Aurora said as she sat down on the sofa. She didn't have much time. The Swon family must have known that she came to visit.

Aurora remained calm as she looked at Wenny with a smile. "Go ahead and ask." Wenny lowered her head, her voice low and fearful. "After the incident with the Bennet Group, how much did the Swon family get?"

CEO is Chasing Ex Wife Back - Chapter 210

Chapter 210 Leaker

"I don't know about business stuff." Wenny looked up and shook her head. "I really don't know..." She was tired of it, and every time there were guests at home, she would hide in her room.

Moreover, it had been a long time. How could she remember it? Aurora's eyes darkened. She did not expect Wenny to say anything, but from her face, Aurora could tell that Davis was definitely behind the bankruptcy of the Bennet Group. The Swon family deserved this.

The second question. When did Faye get together with your father?" Wenny finally knew the answer. She was afraid that she would make Aurora unhappy, so she quickly said, "Last summer."

"Continue." Aurora stared at her face, and her voice was cold. Wenny's voice became softer and softer.

"I also hated her at the beginning. She was always gentle, which captivated my father. Although my father had many lovers, he never said that he would marry them. Faye was the first one."

Aurora thought about the time. Wenny seemed honest. In terms of seducing men, Faye was indeed an expert. Otherwise, the Bennet family wouldn't have been messed up by her. "The third question..." Just as Aurora was about to speak, there was a sudden knock on the door. "Miss Swon, Mr. Gates sent you something. Do you want to take it now?"

It was not Emily.

Aurora suddenly looked towards the door, and she walked behind Wenny.

She raised her hand and tightly gripped Wenny's shoulder blade.

"I'm already in bed. Let's talk about it tomorrow," Wenny shouted at the door.

It hurt.

She did not know what Saul had sent to her either.

But her relationship with Saul was a secret, and she absolutely could not let Aurora know about it.

Unfortunately, Aurora already knew it.

If not for the fear that someone would come in and interfere with her plan, Aurora would not have done this.

"Alright then, Miss Swon. I will come back tomorrow," the nurse said again and turned to leave.

Aurora stared in the direction of the door.

She felt something was wrong.

The visitors needed Wenny's permission. Why did Saul do this?

Aurora put away the things on the table.

She opened the door and walked out, but Emily was gone.

She turned and wanted to go down the stairs. Suddenly, she saw the light below and immediately went into the nearby storeroom.

Then, the police came with a group of people

Saul was in the lead.

"Mr. Logan, thank you. Wenny will be safe only after the culprit is caught."

The policeman named Ablett Logan smiled and nodded. "Don't worry, Mr. Gates. You two take her statement. The rest of you go and find her."

"Yes."

Soon, the corridor was filled with policemen.

Aurora stood nervously behind the door, holding her breath.

The phone screen suddenly lit up.

It was a call from Zac.

Aurora immediately hung up, but he called again.

She covered her phone and tried to reduce the sound of the vibration as much as possible.

How is it? Did you find her?" Ablett asked his subordinate.

He was very close to Aurora, right at the door!

Aurora frowned as she thought about how to get away with this.

"No, Mr. Logan. Why don't we go downstairs and take a look? Maybe she has got the news and has already left."

"Maybe. You look for her downstairs."

Soon, the footsteps sounded further, and the corridor became quiet again.

Aurora weakly breathed a sigh of relief.

Who would tell her the news?

She glanced at the phone screen and sheered. Could it be that Zac called her to inform her...?

She thought, no way!

Aurora stuck to the wall of the storeroom and did not dare to let up. She had been listening carefully. Soon, Davis and Faye rushed over.

Aurora chuckled. What a coincidence.

Just as Saul left with the police, they arrived.

Then there were voices in the next room, and Wenny was crying.

Aurora carefully moved over and leaned against the wall to listen.

"Why didn't you tell me before? I was scared." Wenny slapped the bed hard.

Wenny, don't cry. Your father didn't tell you because he was afraid that you would give yourself away and make that slut suspicious. She has always been smart. If she knows the truth, she may hurt you," said Faye.

"But she still ran away." Wenny gritted her teeth in anger.

Davis slapped his thigh and said, "After Zac returns home, we'll immediately cancel the engagement."

Wenny was stunned

"No."

Her biggest wish was to marry Zac. How could...

"Then what do you want to do? Do you want to flatter him? Your wedding was ruined twice. I felt so humiliated." When Davis thought of this, he was so angry that his chest hurt.

Seeing how impatient they were, Faye secretly shook her head.

Davis was nothing compared to Shawn...

However, she still said patiently, "I don't think there's no way out. Don't we have helpers here?"

"Helper? Are you talking about Saul?" Wenny blinked.

Faye smiled and nodded.

Experienced, she could tell at a glance that Saul had a special relationship with Wenny.

And today's plan was proposed by Saul. If Aurora had not taken the initiative to leave, she would have been caught.

Aurora would be sentenced to more than six months then! Faye thought of the money she had taken from the Bennet family and made up her mind to cut off Aurora's way out. Only in this way could she live a peaceful life.

"Will he help Wenny? He's the vice president of the Buchanna Group. He's on Zac's side," Davis said in confusion. Faye shook her head. "I don't think so. They're both capable. No one wants to be overshadowed forever."

Aurora listened in the storeroom and scoffed at Faye's treacherous plan. She regretted that she had not discovered her true colors before. At the same time. Zac had already boarded the plane back home.

Carter reported everything that happened in the hospital to him. "Why did Saul go to the hospital?" His face gradually darkened, and his eyes flashed with a fierce light.

"I heard that Mr. Gates was not feeling well. He went there for a checkup," Carter reported in a low voice. Zac frowned. Who would go to the hospital for a checkup late at night?

"After the police searched the hospital, they found nothing. Ms. Bennet must have escaped." Carter subconsciously felt that Zac would not be so angry when he heard the news. As expected, the coldness in Zac's eyes dissipated. "Where is Wenny?" "Davis has gone through the procedures."

She will be discharged tomorrow morning.” We will head straight to the Swon’s home after landing,” said Zac after a while. “Yes, Mr. Buchanna.” Now that someone was tricking him, he would go and check on them.
