

Chaplain 91

Chapter 91 Kiss Of Judas

The hatred these socialites bore toward Oliver Walker and Emilia was not any less compared to William Davis.

First, they were doing it to get on the good side of the godly doctor. Second, they wanted revenge for how their spotlight had been taken away from them!

After getting judged, Emilia felt anxious.

But....she had no other choice!

pAnD a(-)n0ve1.com She had done it. It was indeed a mistake she made!

A complacent smile appeared on William's face. For him, this was a chance that Emilia gave to him.

Hendric Smith quickly stopped him, "SHUT IT!"

What was this man trying to do?!

How dare he scream at his master and his master's wife?!

This was absurd. Even if this man was tired of being alive, he couldn't act like an idiot!

With one loud scream, the noisy auditorium quickly turned quiet!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Seeing how angry Hendric Smith was, all of the socialites present started smiling as they felt pleased.

Emilia might still be able to stay alive after offending them, but once she offended the godly doctor, it would be impossible for them to stay in this country!

This was because Hendric Smith had such authority!

"What is your name?"

The overpowering aura from Hendric Smith made him look domineering!

William Davis felt honored that he was called. Then, he quickly answered respectfully, "My name is William Davis, the young master of the Davis family in Colorado!"

He was getting noticed!

Would Hendric Smith be complimenting him now?!

If he got on the good side of Mr. Smith, it would be a pleasant surprise.

Without any exaggeration, a word from this elderly was enough to bring Davis onto an entirely different level.

Leon Williams? Who was that?

He was just a man with money!

Follow current on storynovel.net

When it came to their family background, what rights did he have to fight against some of the oldest families in Colorado?

He had already noted in his mind how he was badly beaten by Leon Williams.

Once there was a day when the Davis family flourished, it would be the day when this stupid man paid for his mistakes!

As for the rest of the socialites, they stared at William Davis with envy.

No one knew why Hendric Smith was angry. William Davis was only doing the godly doctor a favor.

As for Emilia, she felt even more anxious!

Everyone around her was their enemy!

No matter how careful she had been, it was still difficult to prevent getting framed by devils like them!

Forget about how William Davis had something against her now!

"William Davis?"

Hendric Smith repeated the name before asking, "You're the one who gifted me the painting, 'Kiss of Judas'?"

'Kiss of Judas' was a painting that was worth at least 5 million. Therefore, as soon as it was mentioned, it caused an uproar in the crowd.

Follow current on storynovel.net

Did William Davis go mad?

However, Emilia's body started trembling. Oliver Walker could also feel that his wife's hands were slowly turning cold.

There must be another story behind this painting!

"Mr. Davis! You're extremely generous!"

"I know about that painting. When Master Davis was alive, he was the one who bought it for 4 million at the Covent Garden!"

"If I'm not wrong, Master Davis gave it to Emilia as her wedding gift!"

"How did it become William's?"

"Emilia was kicked out of the family. It's only normal that she couldn't take the painting with her!"

"..."

The gasps and whispers in the room gave Oliver Walker the answer that he was looking for.

He finally understood why his wife reacted in such a way.

It was because the 'Kiss of Judas' was a painting that Master Davis left behind as Emilia's wedding gift, and William Davis took it away from her.

He had a cold glare in his eyes. William Davis was gifting his wife's wedding gift to another man, but it was a waste that William Davis chose the wrong person.

William Davis had no idea that Hendric Smith was Oliver Walker's apprentice!

As he was getting the spotlight, William Davis answered excitedly, "I am the one who gave you the painting. It is a precious treasure, but it still isn't enough to represent the respect that I have for you, Mr. Smith."

Chapter 92 It Was Her Grandfather's Gift!

William Davis was feeling proud of himself. When he saw how Emilia was visibly mad, he felt even happier.

Accepting gifts was always something common, and they usually wouldn't talk about it publicly. Now that Hendric Smith mentioned it, there was only one reason.

It must be because Hendric Smith loved it. Following that, would Mr. Smith be announcing that he would become allies with Davis?!

As he thought about it, he subconsciously became more arrogant.

After all, for honorable guests like Hendric Smith, he definitely wouldn't bat an eye if the gifts were something ordinary. However, it would be different if they were priceless antiques, especially exquisite paintings.

The rest of the room was incredibly envious as their jaws fell to the ground.

The gifts that they presented last night were too cheap compared to what William Davis had prepared.

Otherwise, wouldn't they be getting the spotlight now from Hendric Smith?

However, who could have thought that William Davis would go this far?

But....as they thought about it, who did they take Hendric Smith for?!

He was a godly doctor!

Follow current on storynovel.net

There were only 10 of them in the entire country! The connections behind this man who could get such honor, it was beyond words!

pAn,D a-n0ve1,c-o-m William Davis had definitely picked the right gift!

Then, there was a cold gaze that came from Hendric Smith as well.

Who did they take him for?

Since William Davis was the head of the herd here in Colorado, Hendric Smith decided to teach him a lesson!

But, before he could say anything, the crazy man, William Davis, suddenly turned toward Emilia and asked, "Emilia....how did you demonstrate your respect toward Mr. Smith?!"

"Did you come empty-handed?"

It was better to torture a man's heart than to sever his body!

This was definitely a blow to her heart!

Initially, William Davis had never thought about this. Now that Emilia entered the auditorium, this was even better. He was able to cause even more pain to her!

He could make her suffer!

"That's enough!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

Emilia suddenly got on her feet. The rage that she had been trying to suppress had finally burst. Then, she started screaming, "That was a wedding gift that grandpa gave me! How could you..."

She was at a loss for words due to how angry she was feeling!

When her grandfather was alive, he loved her the most, and he carefully prepared all of her wedding gifts.

But....look at what happened?!

It was all taken away by William Davis!

That was fine. However, what made her angry was how William Davis used her gifts against her!

She could no longer handle the suffocation that she felt inside her heart!

Otherwise, she wouldn't have stood up against William Davis, whom she had been trying her best to bear with when Olivia needed the chance the most in order to stay alive.

She knew that this man was clearly doing this to spite her.

However, as soon as she spoke, she regretted her actions! She shouldn't have been so impulsive!

But....as a woman, there was only one wedding to experience. The weight of these wedding gifts wasn't something that can be measured.

Especially when the 'Kiss of Judas' was the last gift that she got from her grandfather whom she loved most! The meaning behind it was so much more than what met the eye!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Who.....would be able to handle this?!

Forget about Emilia, even the socialites who were at the scene, felt that William Davis had gone too far!

But....there wouldn't be anyone who would be dumb enough to stand up for Emilia and point their fingers at William Davis.action

This was the survivor of the fittest!

The losers were supposed to bear the humiliation from the victors!

This was life!

"Hmmmm...?"

William Davis spread his arms like a vile character as he asked, "Why can't I?"

His arrogant face really deserved a good beating, but Emilia had no guts nor power to do anything to him!

This was why William Davis could act so unscrupulously!

Plus, this man even had the support of the godly doctor!

Emilia clenched her fist. Her eyes were burning with rage, but she had to hold it in!

She knew that if she continued to speak, she would be the one that would suffer!

Emilia slowly calmed down!

However.....Oliver Walker was the one who got mad instead. He stood up and said, "So now....you shall repent for the crimes that you have committed in the past!"

Chapter 93 Get Out!

All these while, Oliver Walker had been trying to suppress his anger in order to consider Emilia's emotions!

However, William Davis was repeatedly doing things that only animals would, and Oliver Walker could no longer stand it!

"Hahahahahaha....."

"Who is that idiot?"

"You? You want Mr. Davis to pay for what he has done?!"

"He must be crazy!"

"..."

There were noises of mockery that filled the room.

William Davis was losing his breath as well due to all the laughter. Who gave Oliver Walker the confidence to say such things?

Oliver Walker wanted him to pay?

Wasn't this a joke?

He continued saying arrogantly, "Well, I would like to see how you would do that!"

All of them were looking at Oliver Walker with disgusted looks!

This man had no idea what was happening!

How could a useless dog like him fight against the young master of the Davis family?

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Mummy!"

Olivia Walker's forehead was suddenly covered in cold sweats as she panted, "I....I'm so sleepy. Can I nap for a while?"

Her body has been weak ever since the surgery.

After all the drama at the entrance and the commotion inside, her body could no longer handle it!

Then, she fell unconscious in the arms of her mother!

"Olivia! You....what's happening?!"

"Please don't scare me!"

Emilia panicked as soon as she saw her daughter turn unconscious!

Even if she was feeling pissed, she had to hold it in!

Oliver Walker wanted to deal with William Davis, but now that his daughter was in a critical state, how would he still be in the mood?

He clenched his fist and said in a low tone, "Clear the room now!"

Willian Davis was merely a spoiled brat. Oliver Walker could deal with him whenever he had the time.

But....they could no longer delay the treatment for their daughter!

"Clear the room? Did you think you're the king like me?"

William Davis scornfully spoke to Oliver Walker before turning to Hendric Smith, "Mr. Smith, these dogs here has been tainting your mighty presence..."

Hendric Smith had also been holding it in for a long time. No matter how mild-tempered he was, he couldn't take it anymore, "Get out!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

Who did these people think they were?

How dare they humiliate his master and his wife?!

They even frightened their little sister, Olivia! They deserve to die!

"Get out!"

"Just leave already!"

"Even Mr. Smith is asking you to leave! Didn't you hear?"

"..."

The entire crowd turned wild once again!

This was definitely something they had expected!

Why would the honorable godly doctor allow these lowly peasants to taint his status?

As for William Davis, he was smiling, and he felt satisfied!

"Olivia! Please wake up! Mummy's begging you! Please don't fall asleep!"

Emilia was feeling desperate. She had no idea what she should do so that she could remain.

But...she had just offended Hendric Smith last night, and today, with all these socialites of Colorado screaming at him, Emilia didn't know what to do.

These screams were like the devil's voice. Not only were they humiliating her, but they were also killing her daughter!

However, she had no ability to fight them! Especially when all of them here were so powerful!

Follow current on storynovel.net

'Boom...'

Then, Hendric Smith kicked the chair that was next to him, and he pointed at the rest of the room, "I'm telling all of you to leave!"

With that said, the entire crowd turned mute!

All of them were looking confused, and they couldn't believe what they had just heard!

They thought that they had heard it wrongly!

What was happening? action

Wait....shouldn't it be Emilia who should leave the room?

William Davis was in shock as he asked, "Mr.....Mr. Smith, perhaps there has been a mistake?"

He had been trying his best to flatter Mr. Smith!

He didn't think he had done something wrong!

So....what went wrong?

"Those who have given me gifts, get out of my sight right now!"

Hendric Smith sneered, "Otherwise, I can save others with these needles, but I can also kill with these needles!"

He wasn't kidding!

Thereafter, he grabbed his needles and rushed off the stage.

At this moment, was there anything more important than the life of his little sister?

No!

"Move!"

Chapter 94 How Stupid Of Him!

"Quick!"

"Hey! Stop pushing me!"

"..."

The socialites of Colorado felt as if it was the end of the world, and they started pushing each other out of panic!

If Oliver Walker wanted to kill them, they would only dismiss it as a joke!

But these words came from the mouth of Hendric Smith, how could they take it lightly?

Especially for William Davis....his face looked pale, but he no longer had the chance to ask why because Hendric Smith was already walking toward him!

He quickly turned around to leave, but because he was frightened, he fell onto the ground. In the end, in order to keep himself alive, he could only crawl out of the room!

"Master, please pass Olivia over to me!!"

"Of course!"

Just when he was about to leave, William Davis had a bad feeling about it!

Mas...

Master...?

The godly doctor was calling that useless guy his master?

What was happening?

Follow current on storynovel.net

Who was this guy?!

However, he didn't have the courage to turn around. He felt chills all over his body as he tried his best to run out of the auditorium!

action

There were only six people left inside the room!

Oliver Walker!

Emilia!

Olivia Walker!

Along with Hendric Smith, Leon Williams, and James Floss!

"What's happening to my daughter?!"

"Please! Save her!"

"You have to save her!"

Emilia's heart was crushed, and tears rolled down her cheeks uncontrollably!

She really didn't care about anything else!

She only wanted her little girl to be healthy. Did those conflicts with the Davis family really matter?

"Ma'am, don't worry!"

Hendric Smith carried the little girl in his arms as he said, "I'm here now. There should be no other problem!"

Then, he quickly turned around and ran toward the room that they prepared earlier.

Follow current on storynovel.net

James Floss followed closely behind him!

Emilia also wanted to follow, but due to the shock, her legs turned weak. Just when she took one step forward, she immediately fell to the ground!

"Emilia!"

Oliver Walker was quick enough to catch his wife and carry her in his arms, "I swear to god that our daughter will be fine!"

Although Hendric Smith was not as talented and wasn't able to truly learn everything that Oliver Walker knew, it still wouldn't be a big problem for him to cure leukemia.

If he didn't stay behind to get rid of the enemy's army four years ago, he wouldn't have been injured. Then, he wouldn't need Hendric Smith to save Olivia!

But....there were no ifs in this world!

"Huhuhu..."

Emilia cried her guts out, "If anything were to happen to her, how would I be able to live?!"

Although she knew that Hendric Smith was good at his profession, Olivia was still in a critical condition!

The only reason why she was able to stay strong and wait for Oliver's return for the past 8 years was that her daughter was her pillar of strength!

If anything were to happen to Olivia, her life was over!

The bond between her and her daughter was strong!

They supported each other emotionally and helped each other throughout the storm!

"Trust me! Olivia is going to be fine!"

Oliver comforted her, "I can promise you that. Just calm down for now and rest!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

He was feeling anxious as well, but he had to calm his wife down first!

He was aware of how his wife and daughter were important to each other.

None of them were allowed to leave the other one behind!

He was envious of such a tight bond, but he didn't deserve to have one!

This was because he owed them too much!

But....it was never too late!

He returned home now!

As for Leon Williams, he was still in shock, and he couldn't recover from it!

The first war god referred to Oliver Walker as his master!

The godly doctor of the International Medical Center was doing the same!

This.....

It had to be noted that Aiden Wilson was a war god and Hendric Smith was a real-life Buddha!

No matter who it was, both of them possessed extremely prestigious status in this country!

It wasn't even an exaggeration to say that with one simple sneeze, it was enough to destroy the entirety of Colorado!

So....Oliver Walker, who was their master would be...

Leon William gasped! He couldn't even think!

Most importantly, he even tried to get favors done for this person who was as great as a god!

Oh...how stupid of him!

Chapter 95 Would They Be Able To Save Her?

action

With Olivia in such a dangerous condition, Emilia was not in the mood to think about others.

She felt weak as Oliver brought her to a chair, and they waited anxiously.

They had put in so much effort and finally got Hendric Smith to treat Olivia, but would it work?

It wasn't that she didn't believe in traditional Chinese medicine. It was just because leukemia was extremely terrifying!

However, with Oliver Walker comforting her, Emilia slowly calmed down.

Now....they could only wait!

In the resting room!

Hendric Smith was definitely giving his all while trying to save his little sister.

His medical skills might not be able to cure dead people, but he can confidently say that he had the skills to pull his patients from the hands of the death god!

The needles were slowly being driven into Olivia's body, and it was locking her meridians!

"This....this is the Heavenly Acupuncture!

James Floss was surprised, "Could it be that the man outside is the grandmaster of the Tianyi Sect?!"

The Heavenly Acupuncture was definitely something incredibly famous!

Follow current on storynovel.net

pAn,Da-n0v e1,c Even if he was someone who learned modern medicine, it was still something that he had definitely heard of.

It was said that once this skill had been mastered, they would be able to save the lives of the dead.

This was definitely something that could only be seen in the Wuxia s, but now....he was seeing it with his own eyes.

This...

After placing the needles, Hendric Smith was already covered in sweat, and he no longer had any inner Qi left.

If only his master wasn't injured, it wouldn't have been so difficult.

Perhaps, his master would never be able to use his acupuncture skills ever again, but his master's skills 4 years ago represented the peak of traditional Chinese medicine.

Hendric Smith, who was a godly doctor now, would never be able to witness once more the point where his master was at. He would never be able to reach the same peak as his master.

"Pay attention to the time. Let me know once 30 minutes are up!"

Hendric Smith was panting as he was trying to catch his breath. The better he became, the more he knew how good his master used to be.

The difference between them was huge!

No matter how hard he tried, he could only look up to his master!

"Yes, sir!"

James Floss stood respectfully next to him and was looking at the changes that happened to Olivia.

Follow current on storynovel.net

He was shocked to see how when all the needles had been inserted, Olivia's pale face slowly turned pink!

This was only the beginning!

He didn't dare to make a mistake, so he kept looking at the time!

He was worried that he would miss out on something!

...

'Boom—'

When William Davis got back to his room and fell on the ground, he tried to catch his breath after how he ran for his dear life.

Hendric Smith was calling Oliver Walker his master?

This.....

How was this possible?!

How on earth did that brat....?

"Big brother, what happened?!"

"Quick! Lie down on this bed!"

"How was the health talk? What did they say?"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"..."

No matter how Jessica Davis asked, William Davis kept quiet. He was still in shock from what happened earlier.

If Oliver Walker was indeed Hendric Smith's master, would the days for the Davis family come to an end?!

If he heard correctly that Oliver Walker was Hendric Smith's master, it could also explain why Hendric Smith got so angry when he was trying to be nice.

At this point, he couldn't hear a single thing. It looked like he had lost his soul as he stared into space.

"Big brother!"

"Did that wild dog, Oliver Walker, hit you again?!"

Jessica Wright Davis was getting anxious, but William Davis still did not respond.

Other than the visible bruises on his body, there was also a peculiar smell coming from him. Jessica Davis covered her nose subconsciously until she noticed how her brother had wet his pants! That's when she knew that something wasn't right!

In a fury, she stood up and gritted her teeth as she told the bodyguards who were standing outside, "Six, stay here and take care of my brother! Get more people here to the hospital!"

"Those b*tches dared lay their hands on my brother! Let me teach them a lesson!"

She had no idea what the truth was, but she didn't have to know.

There was only Oliver Walker in the entirety of Colorado who would dare lay hands on a Davis!

"Yes! Young miss!"

After receiving the commands, she quickly pulled out her phone to call for more backup.

Chapter 96 It Was A Miracle

Jessica Wright Davis was filled with rage as she rushed out of the room!

Emilia was already kicked out of the family. How dare she act so boldly?!

It looked as though they were acting too mighty. This was why Oliver Walker was able to attack them like mad dogs!

Back in the resting room!

James Floss didn't want to miss out on any changes that were happening to Olivia. Within 10 minutes, her breathing had gone back to normal!

Twenty minutes later, all of the vitals on the machines showed that everything was normal!

Upon reaching 30 minutes, he was certain that Olivia was just asleep based on his experience!

She had completely recovered!

It was a miracle!

Hendric Smith let out a breath of relief as he pulled out the needles. If his master and his master's wife found out about it, they would be delighted!

At the same time, back at the auditorium!

It had already been a long time, and Emilia was getting even more anxious, "My daughter.....would she be alright?"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Would he be able to treat our daughter?"

"If our daughter can't recover from this, I don't want to live anymore!"

"..."

Every sentence that she was saying was related to her daughter! It wasn't because she was making a fuss! Her daughter was a continuation of her life. She was her pillar of support! Her daughter was her everything!

Her emotions were getting heightened!

However, her tone was getting cold!

As she thought about the past 8 years, although she had already suffered so much, she still couldn't exchange it for a stable childhood for her little girl!

She was feeling extremely furious!

All of the anger and worries in her slowly turned into rage, and she released it to the man next to her!

Oliver Walker listened to her quietly as he knew that his wife needed an outlet.

It could only be him!action

"Talk! What have you been doing for the past 8 years?!"

"Even if you didn't have any signal in the no man's land in Indiana, you should have at least written a letter to us!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"How....how could you go missing for 8 long years?!"

"If anything were to happen to Olivia, I will never forgive you!"

"Huhuhuhu..."

Emilia remained in her seat as she covered her beautiful face with both hands!

She cried!

She screamed!

She was about to lose her mind!

Her heart was filled with rage, and it was about to explode like a volcano!

With how exhausted she looked, Oliver Walker's heart ached as he listened to how his wife was releasing her anger.

Then, he slowly asked, "If our daughter gets better, will you forgive me?"

Emilia lifted her head. She glared at the man who looked like he was deep in remorse. She didn't know what to say.

In fact, she didn't hate Oliver Walker!

She didn't!

Follow current on storynovel.net

But her daughter...

"I know that I don't deserve your forgiveness, and I wouldn't dare ask you to be as nice as how we were.

"But....there are a lot of coincidences that caused the misunderstandings today!"

Oliver Walker shook his head. Then, he pulled out a handkerchief from his pocket and wiped off the tears on Emilia's face!

This woman was so good that it made him feel that he wasn't enough. He also knew that it would be difficult for his wife to trust him now.

He was trying to be as gentle as he could because he was worried that he might hurt his wife!

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with tears.

For the past 8 years, she had been crying non-stop!

However, unlike the usual times when she was like an abandoned pet, crying by herself in the corner under the night sky as she cured her own wounds...

There was a man, right in front of her, who was gently comforting her. It made her feel touched!

She couldn't help but think of the past!

Oliver Walker looked hurt as his eyes were filled with tears as well, "Back then, before I went to the no man's land, I gave you a call!

"Why didn't you tell me that you were kicked out of the company?!

"Why didn't you tell me that you were sleeping on the streets of Colorado?!

"Why didn't you tell me that you were picking up rubbish while pregnant?!

"I...

"I always thought that you were living comfortably. I..."

Chapter 97 Goddess Of Colorado Has Returned!

However, as he spoke, Oliver Walker choked!

After the communication was cut off, if it wasn't for the letter sent to the military, he wouldn't have known that his wife had been expelled from Davis!

However, she did not know that her pregnant wife had been picking up trash.

He didn't know that he would leave the marriage with nothing!

It was only later that he slowly found out about it, so he tried his best to make it up to his wife. Who knew that his wife had never received a single cent?

It had caused the current misunderstanding and caused a crack to appear in the marriage that was more determined than gold!

Amelia frowned and didn't say anything because she didn't want her husband, who was on the front line, to worry.

She believed that she could persevere.

In fact, he had really persevered!

Although it was bitter, but ...

Leon Williams, who was standing at the side, didn't even dare to breathe. What kind of feelings were these?

A woman who was willing to wait, a man who was unparalleled in the kingdom!

Follow current on storynovel.net

It was simply ...

He took a deep breath and gradually understood what kind of person Oliver Walker was!

He regretted even more that he didn't help Amelia back then.

He clearly had the ability!

The atmosphere in the lecture hall was extremely quiet!

They looked at each other and seemed to have frozen time and space!

"Master, master's wife!"

At that moment, Hendrik Smith jogged in a hurry.

He wanted to share the good news as soon as possible!

"How is my daughter?"

Amelia instantly stood up, her beautiful eyes filled with worry. "I ..."

If something had really happened to Olivia Walker!

She did not know how to accept Oliver Walker!

Follow current on storynovel.net

As long as her daughter recovered, at least she would have a reason to accept it!

"Don't worry, Madam!"

Hendrik Smith quickly said, " junior Olivia's illness has been removed. After she wakes up, she'll be just like a normal child after two days of rest!

"I'll also get rid of the scar from the surgery!"

As soon as he said that, Emily laughed!

She, who had not been happy for eight whole years, finally smiled!

That smile was like a blooming flower in March, intoxicating people!

"Olivia's done!"action

our Olivia is done!

At this moment, she forgot all the unhappy things and ignored Hendrik Smith and Leon Williams, who were present. She rushed into Oliver Walker's arms excitedly!

He burst into tears!

He was just happy!

After waiting for so long, the day had finally come!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Oliver Walker's expression was slightly stunned. He had never thought that his wife, who had always avoided him as if he was the plague, would actually take the initiative to throw herself into his arms!

Olivia's illness had been cured. This was something within his expectations!

This shocking joy made him extremely excited. It was something that no amount of money could buy!

Hendrik Smith and Leon Williams understood that Emily had finally made it through all her hardships!

Of course, a woman who could do this was definitely rare in the world. She was worthy of any man's love and care!

"Yes, yes. yes ..."

After Oliver Walker reacted excitedly, he nodded repeatedly. He could feel his wife's tears soaking the clothes on her shoulders.

Then, he stretched out his hands, wanting to embrace this beautiful moment!

However, in the next moment, Amelia seemed to have noticed that she was being watched by two pairs of eyes.

No matter how she was now, she was still a young lady from a noble family and had learned traditional etiquette.

In the presence of outsiders, even if she was hugging her husband, she would still feel extremely shy.

However, when she smiled, her name as the number one goddess of Colorado was fully displayed.

Even though she was much more Haggard now ...

His magnificence was still peerless!

Chapter 98 A Complete Family!

Emilia quickly took one step back as she lowered her head. She looked like a young girl who had just experienced love. She felt shy and nervous at the same time with a hint of fear and excitement. Then, she quickly left the auditorium.

She really wanted to meet her daughter!

She wanted to meet her daughter. She wanted Olivia to see her the second Olivia woke up!

It was love!

It was a sense of protection!

It was a sense of companionship!

No matter if it was the love between couples or for their parents as well as their child, it was all a sense of protection and companionship!

Till the point that Emilia had disappeared out of his sight, Oliver Walker's arms were still raised in the air as if he was hugging air!

He was enjoying the scent of his wife!

"She.....hugged me!

"Has she forgiven me?!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

At that moment, he was no longer the chaplain of the country. He was no longer the general who frightened their enemy!

He was only a husband who had made a mistake and was begging for forgiveness from his wife.

"She has!"

Hendric Smith had never seen such pure joy on his master's face when they were in Indiana!

As for Leon Williams, he felt a little awkward as he remained there.

No matter if it was Hendric Smith or Oliver Walker, they were people that Leon Williams couldn't match, so he was feeling awkward.

He felt like a poor young boy who suddenly entered the banquet hosted by wealthy people. He felt nervous as he realized how tiny he was among the rest of them!

"You're still here?"

Hendric Smith looked to the side. He still had things that he needed to tell his master.

It would be impossible to do so with an outsider present.

As the richest tycoon in Colorado, Leon Williams answered in fear, "I...Ummmm...Mr. Smith, you only told those who gave you gifts to leave. I....I didn't give you anything so..."

He lowered his head, and he could feel his heart racing.

Follow current on storynovel.net

Oliver Walker turned around and said, "I still have other things to do here. You are in good health, and there aren't any major issues."

"But....make sure you rest well and stop staying up at night!"

This wasn't a superficial comment!

Although his inner 'Qi' had not recovered completely, he was still an expert in traditional Chinese medicine. He would still be able to diagnose a disease even though he still couldn't use his needles!

"Of course!"

"Thank you, Mr. Walker!"

Leon Williams nodded his head! This man was willing to talk to him! No matter if it was true or not, it still showed that this man had a good impression of him!

Otherwise, why would someone like Oliver Walker talk to him?!

As soon as Leon Williams left in shock, Hendric Smith spoke, "Master, what should we do about the letter?"

"Why don't we pass it over to the local police or..."

Oliver Walker smiled as he said, "Give them the money..."

As he said that, Hendric Smith was shocked at first. Then...

Follow current on storynovel.net

Were they really going to do so?

However, once he saw the smile on his master's face, he finally understood, "Yes, master!"

This liar who almost caused Oliver Walker to lose his family had definitely committed a huge crime.

If they handed him over to the police, he could only be charged with fraud and would then end up in prison for 10 years. Wouldn't that be too kind of them?

He was dying to see who this person was. He wanted to know if this person was a monster who had eaten the heart of a panther!action

With that said, Oliver Walker quickly walked into the waiting room.

As he pushed the door open, Emilia was sitting next to the bed as she was holding Olivia's hands. There was a beautiful smile on her face.

She was singing softly, "Twinkle twinkle little star! How I wonder what you are!

"Since I have loved you, I will never give up on you!"

"..."

Such a heartwarming moment!

Such a beautiful scene!

He really wanted to capture this moment, and he didn't want to interrupt. So, he stood by the door and wanted to protect this precious moment of peace!

"Olivia! Your father...whom you have been dreaming of, is finally home!"

"I know that you're overjoyed about it. In fact, I'm extremely happy as well!"

"This family is finally complete!"

Chapter 99 I Will Give You An Explanation

Emilia was muttering to herself as she finally felt that her future was filled with hope.

The only reason why Emilia had such a tough time growing up was because she didn't have a father.

However, after these 2 days, she could see that this man wasn't as horrible as she thought he was.

Of course, this was only her initial impression. If he dared to hurt her again, she would never forgive him ever again!

In order to give Emilia a complete home, she would have to try and accept Oliver Walker once again. Even if this might just be an extravagant dream that might hurt her once again...

"I would never hurt the both of you ever again!"

After hearing how his wife was muttering to himself, Oliver Walker was feeling emotional. What did he do to deserve such a perfect wife?

He wasn't going to look for any excuses or blame anyone for it. His family was only in such huge trouble because of him. Although there were also a lot of other factors that could have caused it, it wasn't worth mentioning.

Emilia was stunned when she realized that the man was standing by the door. He could hear everything that she had just said.

As she turned around, she frowned.

Follow current on storynovel.net

"You should know that I am only accepting you now because I want Olivia to have a complete family!"

"If there is ever a day where I see that you're being irresponsible, I will rather Olivia had no father!"

action

She was being serious about it!

In fact, after being alone all these years, there were times when she really needed another person to depend on, but she wouldn't force it to happen.

She was only making this decision for Olivia!

"That day will never happen!"

Oliver Walker nodded and said, "I will let you slowly accept me....and it will not be because of Olivia!

"Just like we used to be. No matter what happens, you will always trust me!

"It will also be the same in the future!"

His perfect wife was someone whom he wanted to treasure forever.

However, he also knew that there were things that he could never keep.

Follow current on storynovel.net

Those 8 years that went missing were definitely something that he could never compensate for.

Hearing the firm and sincere answer from Oliver, Emilia felt her heart racing. She was the only one who knew if she still loved this man.

She quickly calmed down as she said, "Then....tell me what happened for the past 8 years."

She was the one who personally sent this man onto the train.

In fact, from the moment he entered the no man's land, the connection between them had been broken.

Well, she wouldn't have known that there was someone else who was pretending to be her and had been using Oliver Walker's fortune and love.

Therefore, in order to accept him, she had to start by knowing the man's past.

"In regards to why you haven't been able to contact me, I will give you a perfect explanation."

Oliver Walker had a serious look on his face. That person had the guts to send the letters to the army base, so he would never let the person get away with it!

He would arrest whoever it was and then tell his wife what the truth was all these years.

This person had the guts to mess with his family, and they had to be punished!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Emilia frowned. She didn't say another word, but she really needed an explanation.

Oliver Walker then started talking about it, "All these years, I have been at Indiana. Since the battle is about to end and I have been injured recently, I finally got to return to Colorado!"

Emilia's heart ached. "You.....you got injured? Where?"

This reaction of hers clearly showed that she still cared. It was a concern from the bottom of her heart.

Oliver Walker smiled as he said, "It's nothing!"

He felt touched!

Even if he had left his home for 8 years, his wife still cared for him in the same way as before.

Emilia let out a breath of relief as she said, "Then.....what's the situation with Hendric Smith?"

This godly doctor was calling her his master's wife, and he even kneeled on the ground.

It was hard to imagine who Oliver Walker might be.

If he was really a doctor, why was he able to have such a powerful apprentice, but he couldn't save his own daughter?

This was indeed a very confusing scenario.

At least...

Chapter 100 The Other Davis Sibling

She still couldn't believe what had happened!

Oliver Walker then answered, "He learned a few things from me and managed to use them when he was getting assassinated by our enemies. He succeeded in counterattacking his enemies.

"This was why he took me as his life savior. I also learned a thing or two from him."

He didn't want to hide from his wife that he knew medicine.

However, his wife would never believe him if he told the truth. It would only make things worse.

Since Hendric Smith would not be in Colorado for long, it didn't matter what he said now.

Plus, he wasn't interested in establishing a business.

As the descendant of the Tianyi Sect, he would always have to be at the frontlines in order to protect the country.

He had to ensure a free and peaceful life for his country!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Although he knew how to fight and manage a business, he still preferred to be a doctor.

Once things in Colorado had settled, he would then open a traditional Chinese medical center so that he could develop his skills.

Plus, he had to pass on the Tianyi Sect.action

There was also another reason. He wanted to be with his family and fulfill the promise that he had made!

To remove his armor, return to their normal lives, and ensure that she would be happy for the rest of her life!

"So, that's why?!"

Emilia nodded her head. She could accept this explanation.

She always knew how smart Oliver Walker was, but she never heard of how he knew medicine.

So....if she was told that Oliver Walker was the one who taught Hendric Smith medicine, she would never believe it!

The difference between them was vast! Hendric Smith was a godly doctor, and he was someone with an honorable status in the country!

Follow current on storynovel.net

The people who would be able to teach him would already be buried in their graves by now!

However, after thinking about it, she asked another question, "Can I suggest something?"

Oliver Walker smiled as he said, "Of course!"

Seeing how he answered, Emilia felt relieved as she said, "Hendric Smith is someone honorable. You shouldn't take advantage of how you are his life savior."

"Since you are learning from him and he's so much older than you, I was hoping that.....you can stay as far as possible away from him!"

Oliver Walker answered, "I understand."

"You're afraid that Hendric Smith would become enemies with me because of his pride?"

Emilia nodded her head, "Yeah!"

No matter what, Oliver Walker was just a soldier, and Hendric Smith was much older than him. Plus, Hendric Smith was someone with an incredible identity.

If Oliver continued asking things from him, there might be a day when Hendric Smith might get tired of it and would turn against Oliver instead.

Follow current on storynovel.net

pA n,dan(-)0ve1.c0m Once Hendric Smith got annoyed and turned against them, it would be another storm that they would not be able to withstand.

Oliver Walker smiled, "I've already told him about it. He will only be in Colorado for another two days. Once he makes sure that Olivia's condition has been stabilized, he will leave.

"We're different from him anyways."

In fact, his wife was only worried for him because she cared about him. He suddenly felt a warm feeling inside his chest.

But....his wife didn't know the truth yet.

In order not to further provoke his wife's emotions, he decided to hide the truth for now since he was trying to cherish the relationship they currently had.

He no longer wanted to see his wife mad.

As for the 'Kiss of Judas', it was a gift from his wife's grandfather. He would definitely find the best chance to get it back from Davis.

"Also....we have to leave Colorado as soon as possible."

Emilia frowned as she said, "By the time William Davis realizes this, it would be too late."

She knew how William Davis and George Johnson were. She was clear that Oliver Walker had offended all of the socialites of Colorado.

Their lives would not be easy from today onwards!

'Boom!'

Just when Oliver Walker was about to answer her, the door was kicked open. Then, Jessica Wright Davis rushed into the room, "You are going nowhere. You would have to stay here and apologize to my brother!"