

Chapter 1154: Cultivate Early

After sending Xia Xibei away, Mo Bonan turned around and went back to Tang Luo's room.

In the room, Tang Luo heard Mo Bonan's footsteps and remembered what Xia Xibei had said before, her face burning up again.

Was it really necessary to cultivate like Xia Xibei had told her to?

It was such a- A shameful way of cultivation!

The more she thought about it, the hotter her body felt. How Tang Luo wished she could bury herself under the covers forever!

"All right, come out now."

Mo Bonan pulled the covers away. There was a faint smile on his lips and a hint of eagerness in his eyes.

"I..." Tang Luo closed her eyes, "I'm going to bed now!"

Mo Bonan laughed. In a low voice, he said, "But she said that you have to start cultivating as early as you can if you want to get better soon."

That was indeed what Xia Xibei had said.

/

Tang Luo had been through way too much the night before, and now she felt almost completely hollowed out.

If she did not start cultivating soon, she would easily run out of vital energy.

When the time came, it would take her an even longer time to regain her health.

Tang Luo knew that it was true, but still she felt ashamed.

“Hmm...”

“Don’t you want to be healthy again?” Mo Bonan raised his eyebrows.

Tang Luo fell silent.

Of course she wanted to, but it was such an... Inexplicable way of restoring health!

“Well, we’ll have to start, or the day will just go by.”

It was afternoon already, so they had to start cultivating as soon as possible.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to get up the next morning.

"Alright then..."

Tang Luo bit her lips and contemplated for a moment, then finally made up her mind.

"Wait a minute," Mo Bonan said, unexpectedly.

Puzzled, Tang Luo looked at him.

"Have something to eat first."

Just as he finished speaking, they heard a knock on the door.

Mo Bonan opened the door to see the family's servant standing at the door with a food cart.

Mo Bonan pushed the food cart into the room and closed the door behind him.

"Have some food first, or you'll run out of energy."

His words made Tang Luo blush terribly again.

There was nothing wrong with what he just said... The problem was what was going to happen afterwards.

Tang Luo tried to sit up on the bed, but found that her hands and feet had gone weak.

“Let me help you.”

Mo Bonan fished her out of the blanket and made her sit on his lap.

“Hey!” Tang Luo’s eyes widened. “I can sit by myself!”

Sitting on his lap, the strange feeling behind her was so clear that she felt the urge to shrink back into bed.

Seeing how adamant she was, Mo Bonan shook his head regretfully. He did not force her, however, and placed her on another chair instead.

Tang Luo felt she could finally breathe after getting away from him.

Mo Bonan set up the table, then picked up the bowl and spoon.

“Come, let me feed you...”

“No need for that, I can do it by myself!” Tang Luo refused immediately.

She was not a child anymore! Of course she could feed herself!

However, Mo Bonan was determined this time.

“Save your strength, just let me do it.”

Tang Luo still seemed to have something to say, but her mouth was quickly stuffed with food.

She had no choice but to admit defeat.

That was how it went: he fed, and she ate. It was all smooth and harmonious.

Mo Bonan also had fun feeding. His skills were fine too, as he did not make a mess!

Tang Luo was worn out indeed, so she ate quite a lot.

After she was done eating, Mo Bonan also quickly finished up the remaining food.

They were both surprised as they looked at the empty plates and bowls.

They had held food for four people, and yet they managed to finish them all!

It seemed that the things that Xia Xibei had said, which sounded unscientific before, were true after all!

After eating, Mo Bonan cleaned up the table and pushed the food cart out, then turned and smiled at Tang Luo.

“Alright, time to start cultivating.”

Tang Luo’s cheeks flared up once again.
