

Chapter 1155: Who Did It?

While Mo Bonan and Tang Luo were in the process of dual cultivation, Xia Xibei began dealing with the matter.

If Tang Luo hadn't eaten something she shouldn't have, her physique wouldn't have changed.

The question was, who exactly had given her the stuff?

The gathering was so chaotic, and there were just too many people who had given Tang Luo a toast. It was a piece of cake to do something fishy in that situation.

Xia Xibei made them show her the surveillance videos and began searching for clues.

Even Ren Juncheng came over, looking completely puzzled.

"What are you looking for?"

"Help me find out who offered Luo food."

Despite not understanding what Xia Xibei meant, Ren Juncheng began to run through the videos as she requested.

Even though it was a huge, confusing crowd, it still was possible to find out what really happened if they did what they had to.

/

Ren Juncheng was an employee of the company, and thus was familiar with the other employees, so he could easily tell them apart.

Half an hour later, he managed to identify the people who had come into contact with Tang Luo.

He selected a video clip and showed it to Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei ran through it for a while and came to a sudden stop.

“Who’s this?”

She remembered him- It was the boy who stopped Mo Bonan from taking Tang Luo away.

It seemed like he had handed a glass of wine to Tang Luo earlier on.

It didn’t raise Xia Xibei’s suspicion before. Although the boy was somewhat overly enthusiastic toward Tang Luo, she didn’t think it was much of a problem.

However, it was to be a major problem now.

After handing Tang Luo a glass of wine, he stopped her from leaving...

Xia Xibei also remembered his reaction.

He was somewhat frustrated after Mo Bonan took Tang Luo away.

It was all starting to make sense now!

“Oh, him?” Ren Juncheng took a glance and knew right away. “His name is Zhang Fengjia, a new employee of the company.”

“When did he join the company?”

“About a month ago!” Ren Juncheng explained, “His skills are not bad though.”

“A month ago?”

“Yes.”

“Any other information about him?”

“Yes, I’ll look for it.”

After browsing through the data for a while, Ren Juncheng managed to find Zhang Fengjia’s information.

Zhang Fengjia seemed to be in his mid-twenties. He was quite clean-looking, but there was a gloomy look to his eyes.

Xia Xibei stared at the photo for a while before sending it to Gou Yi.

She eagerly waited to know if Zhang Fengjia really was related to the matter at hand.

In addition to Zhang Fengjia, of course, Xia Xibei also continued to look through the others. Maybe there were more than one culprit?

After looking through the rest however, it seemed that Zhang Fengjia was indeed the only problematic person.

After receiving her message, Gou Yi sent someone to investigate Zhang Fengjia.

Gou Yi had somehow become Xia Xibei’s detective.

She had thought it would take at least a few days to confirm things, but Gou Yi soon got her some news.

They found out that Zhang Fengjia had been living in luxury for the past couple of days. It turned out that a huge sum of money had been credited to his account, just out of nowhere.

That surely wasn't an amount that he could have earned at this point of time.

Something was awfully wrong!

As Gou Yi tracked him down, he also managed to capture photos of Zhang Fengjia rubbing elbows with other people.

It was an ordinary-looking, middle-aged man. Apparently, the two of them ran into some trouble and had an argument.

After that, Zhang Fengjia returned to his home.

Gou Yi continued his investigations and found out that the middle-aged man was the wealthy owner of a network company of a considerable scale.

A network company...

Could it be a problem with business then?

Xia Xibei frowned, but did not continue the investigation. Instead, she called Zhang Fengjia.

Since Zhang Fengjia wasn't a big shot in any way, they might as well question him directly!