

Chapter 1341: Impressed

Pan Yan was stunned to find out that Xia Xibei was going to audition for Director Smith's movie!

Didn't they say they had already found someone? He was waiting for the official announcement of the contract, but suddenly the process started all over again?

What the hell did Xia Xibei do?

This was too much luck!

Pan Yan had already given up on the idea. After all, the situation there was almost finished, and they couldn't interfere now.

Yet, Xia Xibei had gotten another chance!

Although it was only a chance, not the final role, compared to before, it was already much better!

At least now there was a chance!

Faced with Pan Yan's excitement, Xia Xibei could only tell him what happened before.

"You mean... You met Director Smith?!" Pan Yan drew a breath, "When did you meet? How come I didn't know?"

"Just yesterday, when I went to Clearwater Pavilion."

Xia Xibei's answer made Pan Yan's jaw drop, "Clearwater Pavilion?!"

Xia Xibei nodded, "They went to dinner, then we met and talked a little. After that, he asked me to audition."

Pan Yan was more shocked.

Before, when Xia Xibei wanted to open a restaurant, he was not very agreeable.

With Xia Xibei's current status and popularity, if she wanted to take on a few more jobs or commercials, she could definitely make a lot of money.

How much money could she make from a restaurant? It was not a seven-star hotel!

Moreover, there were many things needed to open a restaurant.

During the restaurant's opening period, Xia Xibei was often busy, and even her own serious business was put aside.

Pan Yan was frustrated by her willfulness!

Alas, Xia Xibei had the idea, so he had to let her be.

What else could he do?!

He was just a small manager, and if Xia Xibei didn't listen to him, he couldn't do anything about it.

He felt better after going to Clearwater Pavilion for a meal and bringing back a few bottles of liquor.

However, he still felt that Xia Xibei was not doing her real job.

If she put her mind to work, what couldn't she do?

To his surprise, she really made a name for herself!

Even Director Smith went to Clearwater Pavilion!

That was impressive!

Director Smith went to the Clearwater Pavilion and gave Xia Xibei the opportunity to re-audition... It was amazing!

"I take back what I said before!" Pan Yan looked at Xia Xibei with admiration. "I was wrong before! You're really good!"

The corners of Xia Xibei's mouth twitched.

Pan Yan perked up, "Then what are we going to do to prepare? We must get this role!"

He had more confidence in this casting. Director Smith changed his mind because he met Xia Xibei, so that meant that he must be very happy with her!

If he was not satisfied, how could Director Smith overturn his previous decision?

So, Pan Yan had full confidence in Xia Xibei.

The audition was the next day, and Pan Yan immediately started to prepare for it, urging Xia Xibei to rest early so that she would be in the best condition for the audition.

Xia Xibei didn't let his excitement get the better of her and did as she was told.

The next morning, the two of them went to the location set by Director Smith with their assistants.

However, when the car was halfway to the road, Pan Yan couldn't help but be speechless.

"What the hell is the car in front doing? What kind of driving is this?"

The car in front of them was driving very slowly, and most importantly, several cars were lined up in a row, so they couldn't overtake them at all.

"Stop the car!" Xia Xibei suddenly said.

Chapter 1342: I'll Drive

"Stop the car."

Once Xia Xibei said these words, Pan Yan slammed on the brakes and stopped at the side of the road.

He was puzzled, what did Xia Xibei want to do?

Not waiting for him to ask, the car in front of him also stopped.

Pan Yan immediately became nervous, “What are they going to do?”

!!

In an instant, his mind was filled with many speculations.

These people were not trying to do something to them in broad daylight, right?

Before he could think about it, Xia Xibei had already gotten out of the car.

“Change seats.”

Pan Yan looked confused, but got out of the car anyway.

“I’ll drive.”

These words startled Pan Yan, “You’re driving?!”

He was so surprised that his voice broke.

Xia Xibei was now 18-years-old and had already gotten her license, but she hadn’t driven much before!

In this case, it would be fatal for her to drive now, right?

Xia Xibei had already put on her seat belt and started the car, saying, “I’ll do it.”

Those people in front of them had just come down and saw their car backing up, and they were confused.

What was this?

Pan Yan looked over and saw that it was a few young men and women.

These people did not seem very mature, probably in their teens and twenties.

He was relieved that they were probably not bad people.

However, they appeared here at this time. They couldn’t be looking for Xia Xibei’s autograph, right?

It must not be that simple!

Were the fans always this crazy nowadays?

Xia Xibei didn’t know what Pan Yan was thinking, as she had already changed her direction and reversed.

As those people watched the car go back, they were also confused, but they hurriedly got into their cars to chase them.

Looking at the cars following behind them and not letting go, Pan Yan was also finally sure that these people were really here for Xia Xibei!

Who were these people? Were they really fans? Were they crazy?

They were in a hurry to go to the audition today, so they couldn't be late! What was wrong with these people, showing up out of nowhere?

These damn fans!

Son, Pan Yan didn't have the heart to think about that much, because he noticed that Xia Xibei was fast.

In just a few minutes, she arrived at another road.

It was a side road, a path that Pan Yan had not taken before.

Xia Xibei looked calmly ahead, fast but steady, weaving through the narrow road with a steady hand.

Pan Yan and his assistant were stunned. How were her driving skills so good?

The cars behind them were also in hot pursuit, but, although they were chasing, they didn't dare to get too close.

After all, there was not much space here, and if they followed too closely, something might happen.

Both Pan Yan and his assistant were surprised that Xia Xibei was so fast and very familiar with the route here.

Pan Yan had lived here for so long, but he never knew that there was such a road here.

Xia Xibei seemed to be particularly familiar with the route here, and she didn't need to think much at all; she just knew directly where there was a road.

The cars behind them were in hot pursuit, but they couldn't overtake her because there was no room for them to do so.

Xia Xibei weaved through the side roads and soon arrived at the main road.

This was a four-lane road, so you didn't have to worry about not having room to drive.

The people in the cars behind them were happy, but they soon realized that Xia Xibei's speed had increased again.

Within the speed limit of this road, she was at the top of her speed! They couldn't catch up!

By the time Xia Xibei finally stopped, she had already reached the building where the audition was taking place.

The people behind her were stumped as they watched the car enter the basement garage.

Cheng Yingni, who received this news, was so angry that she almost smashed her phone!

Chapter 1343: Another Fall

Cheng Yingni certainly didn't want to do anything too terrible to Xia Xibei. If she was found out, she wouldn't be able to handle the consequences.

However, she could make it impossible for Xia Xibei to arrive on time!

As many people knew, Director Smith hated it when people were late.

There was a shoot where an actor was late and was soon replaced.

After all, he was a big director. It was normal to have a temper.

So, people all understood that they should never step on this minefield.

Cheng Yingni only wanted Xia Xibei to be late.

If she was late, she wouldn't be able to audition.

Therefore, Cheng Yingni found some people to be Xia Xibei's fans, stopping her halfway and blocking her for a little more time.

Even if Xia Xibei called the police, it would not be a big problem. It was just a little delay, and they were not kidnapping or hurting anyone, so what was the big deal?

Cheng Yingni had planned well, but who would have thought that Xia Xibei would not take the bait and still arrive here in time?!

Looking at Xia Xibei, who appeared in front of her, Cheng Yingni's heart was burning with hatred.

When she met Cheng Yingni's eyes, Xia Xibei suddenly smiled.

Cheng Yingni was startled by her smile.

However, after Xia Xibei finished smiling at her, she didn't say anything and just walked past.

Pan Yan was still beside her and mumbling. "You were driving too fast..."

Looking at their departure, Cheng Yingni gritted her teeth.

At this point, she could only pray that Xia Xibei would misbehave and be kicked out by Director Smith.

It was almost time for the audition, so Cheng Yingni adjusted her mood and walked in.

This time, there were four actresses auditioning.

Cheng Yingni and Xia Xibei were younger, while the other two actresses were older.

One of them was almost 30 years old and the other was in her twenties.

However, these actresses were well maintained. Even if they were almost thirty, they looked as if they were in their early twenties.

Cheng Yingni was not afraid of these two. In her opinion, they were no match for her.

Who she cared about was Xia Xibei, who made Director Smith change his mind.

Those two actresses also saw Cheng Yingni's attitude, looked at each other, and then lowered their heads to do their own preparations, not getting involved in their business.

Xia Xibei went to her seat and smiled at Cheng Yingni, who was glaring at her.

Looking at her being so calm, Cheng Yingni simmered with anger.

However, this kind of occasion did not allow her to lose her temper. She could only hold back her displeasure.

Soon, the audition started.

The other two actresses went in first.

When they came out, their expressions were a bit strange, probably because they didn't expect Director Smith to make such a request.

Cheng Yingni was curious but didn't go up to ask them about the details.

Only after she went in did she understand why their expressions were so strange.

In the room, there were several strange-looking machines!

Those machines were even stranger than the ones in the gym, more like the ones used for military training.

Director Smith spoke up, “Try to use it.”

Cheng Yingni was dumbfounded looking at these machines.

How did this work? How would she know?

When she was confused, she suddenly felt a pain in her knee and then her whole body fell forward.

“Ah!” She screamed miserably, and her nose almost got twisted.

The others immediately rushed over to help her up.

It was chaos.

Cheng Yingni burst into tears, covering her bruised knees and sore nose. She looked fiercely at Xia Xibei, meeting her mocking eyes.

Now, Cheng Yingni couldn't help but shake.

Chapter 1344: I'm Too Nosy

“Are you okay?”

Hu Yuling immediately helped Cheng Yingni up and looked carefully at the floor, but there was nothing wrong here!

How could she suddenly fall down?

“What’s going on here?” Xia Xibei came over with a concerned face. “It’s not a calcium deficiency, right? Why do you think you often fall down for no reason?”

Pan Yan also had a confused expression. “Sister Ling, shouldn’t you get checked out?”

!!

Pan Yan was full of incomprehension.

Cheng Yingni was an adult, but how come she fell so often?

There was nothing in front of her. No water stains, no bumps, no rocks. How could she fall for no reason?

Hu Yuling also got worried.

Cheng Yingni couldn’t really have any health problems, right?

"It's you!"

Cheng Yingni lost it as she pointed at Xia Xibei and roared in anger.

It was clearly Xia Xibei who did it! She had just smiled at her!

"Me?" Xia Xibei pointed at herself in confusion. "What did I do? I'm just concerned about you."

"That's right!" Pan Yan looked at her unhappily. "Our Beibei just cares about you. You don't have to be like this, right? Besides, Beibei was so far away from you, what can she do to you?"

Pan Yan was unhappy.

She was throwing dirt on Xia Xibei?

They were so far away from each other, how could Xia Xibei make her fall?

That was ridiculous!

The others couldn't help but look at each other.

They could see clearly that Xia Xibei and Cheng Yingni were quite far away from each other. Besides, how could Xia Xibei do anything to her in public? Push her?

This kind of casual slander was ridiculous!

“It’s you!” Cheng Yingni was so angry that she jumped to her feet.

Xia Xibei grimaced, “Sorry, I don’t agree with your accusation.”

“I just came over to check on...” She snorted, “Fine, I guess I’m nosy.”

Pan Yan was also very unhappy and pulled Xia Xibei away. “Okay, let’s not be nosy, or else the reporters will later say that we hurt her!”

People around them were also a little embarrassed, but more than that, they had contempt for Cheng Yingni.

How dare she talk nonsense in this situation?! It was simply too disgusting!

Everyone knew that Cheng Yingni and Xia Xibei didn’t have a good relationship, but they didn’t expect it to get to the point of telling outright lies!

Looking at their faces, Cheng Yingni was furious.

It was clearly Xia Xibei!

Although she didn't know exactly how Xia Xibei had done it, she definitely had nothing to do with it!

Otherwise, why would Xia Xibei smile at her like that just now?

"It's..."

"All right, let's go see the doctor first," Hu Yuling interrupted her with a cold face, not allowing her to continue to say these hateful words.

"What's going on?"

Director Smith and others came out, and when they saw the chaos outside, they couldn't help but frown.

"What's wrong?"

Someone immediately came forward to tell the story.

After understanding the cause and effect, Smith's expression became even more ugly.

He looked at the distance between Xia Xibei and Cheng Yingni, then asked Cheng Yingni, "Are you sure she did it? She was five meters away and made you fall?"

"I..."

Cheng Yingni wanted to answer, but wimped out after meeting Director Smith's ice-cold eyes.

"Sorry, it was my mistake."

Cheng Yingni's mouth twitched and she finally shook her head.

Although she was sure in her heart that Xia Xibei was responsible, if she continued to insist that Xia Xibei did it, she would definitely be ridiculed.

Moreover, Director Smith would definitely not like this situation.

Chapter 1345: Falling Again

Director Smith and his team were inside discussing the performance of these actors and were still waiting for the last candidate, Xia Xibei, to come in, but after waiting for a while and not seeing anyone come in, then hearing the noise outside, they came out to take a look.

After listening to all the situation, Director Smith's face became very ugly.

Cheng Yingni had fallen, but had said that Xia Xibei had done it?

That was ridiculous!

Did she think that this was her own house and everyone would unconditionally believe her words?

Luckily, Cheng Yingni didn't dare to accuse anyone anymore and admitted her mistake in the end.

However, this also made Director Smith's impression of her much worse.

He originally thought that he could let Cheng Yingni play another role in this movie, but now it seemed that it needed to be reconsidered.

Hu Yuling sensitively noticed that Director Smith's face looked different and hurriedly spoke, "Excuse me, I'll take her to the doctor first."

"Good," Director Smith nodded his head.

Before leaving, Cheng Yingni couldn't help but glare at Xia Xibei.

It was all because of Xia Xibei!

Thinking about it, she gnashed her teeth with hatred.

She didn't know where Xia Xibei got her evil magic from, to make her fall out of thin air!

Looking at Cheng Yingni's reaction, Xia Xibei raised her eyebrows and didn't say anything.

However, when they turned around, her right hand flexed her fingers and snapped.

"Argh!" Cheng Yingni suddenly shouted miserably and flicked her right hand viciously, pushing away Hu Yuling, who was holding her.

Losing Hu Yuling's support, she fell straight to the ground with a dull thud.

The sound made everyone gasp.

Damn, it hurt too much!

Also, why did she push Hu Yuling away? She wasn't having a seizure, was she?

Xia Xibei grunted from behind, "I didn't do it!"

The others certainly didn't take her words at face value.

After all, everyone saw with their own eyes that it was Cheng Yingni who pushed Hu Yuling away and then fell down again. There was no connection with Xia Xibei.

"Sister Ling, this is not right," Pan Yan frowned, "You'd better take her to see as soon as possible."

Director Smith's team members also looked at each other.

What was wrong with Cheng Yingni? Why was she moving like this?

Smith's gaze became even deeper.

If he was hesitant before, he was certain now.

If Cheng Yingni was allowed to enter his cast, there was no telling how many things would happen.

Therefore, she absolutely could not be allowed to enter!

Previously, because he suddenly changed his mind, Director Smith still felt a bit guilty about Cheng Yingni.

However, for the sake of better results, he had to do it.

Unexpectedly, this kind of thing happened to Cheng Yingni.

There might be something wrong with her health.

What if something happened when she joined the cast?

So, his mind immediately dismissed the previous thoughts.

Hu Yuling was anxious and instantly helped Cheng Yingni up with his assistant.

Cheng Yingni's face was already full of tears and the pain made her unable to hold back the tears.

What was even more terrible was that Director Smith's expression was so strange, as if there was some ominous decision.

"I..."

Just as she opened her mouth, she pulled her nose and her eyes instantly teared up.

"Well, let's go to the hospital first," Director Smith interrupted her and urged Hu Yuling. "You take her to the hospital first. Her health is important."

“Okay!”

Hu Yuling sheepishly pulled the corner of her mouth and immediately helped Cheng Yingni to leave.

When they left, there was a clear sigh of relief.

“Okay, it’s your turn.” Director Smith looked at Xia Xibei with a rare gentle look in his eyes.

Chapter 1346: Action Director

Director Smith was already very fond of Xia Xibei, otherwise he wouldn’t have reopened the audition.

This time, Cheng Yingni made such a mess that the scales of his heart tilted completely towards Xia Xibei’s side.

Xia Xibei followed them inside, amazed.

There were several kinds of equipment here: a vault, climbing poles and ropes... Things she had only seen during military training.

She looked at Director Smith in confusion.

“You try it.”

Director Smith did not say anything, let alone teach her how to use the equipment. He just let her go up.

Xia Xibei was confused, but of course she did as he said.

It was a large office, so there was plenty of room for her to move.

She started a few meters away, sprinted toward the vaulting horse, and then jumped straight over with both hands.

The vault was more than a meter high, almost to Xia Xibei’s chest.

It was not easy to jump over such a height.

However, her movements were particularly light and bouncy, and she went straight through.

Moreover, she didn’t stop moving, she continued to run forward. Running to the climbing pole, she grabbed the pole with both hands and quickly climbed up.

The crowd in the back looked at this scene, their jaws appearing as if they could fall off.

In fact, it was a last-minute idea for them to use something like this.

This was proposed by the action director in the team.

They were shooting superheroes this time, so the main characters had a lot of action scenes.

Of course, these action scenes had to be trained for, and certain situations needed special effects, as it was impossible to just let them do it themselves.

However, if the actor's reactions were sharp, and their movements were beautiful, it would be more trouble-free to shoot.

Moreover, the equipment was available, so they were used to test the actors' skills.

If the action scenes were good, the movie would be much better.

When Cheng Yingni came in before, she couldn't even jump over the vault, but Xia Xibei was amazing.

She got past the vault and climbed the pole so smoothly!

She whizzed past as if she was a monkey and easily reached the top, no need for special effects at all!

It was amazing!

Did she climb trees a lot? If not, how could she be so skilled?

Watching her movements, the action director's eyes glowed, "Great! I think she must have martial arts skills!"

Such movements were definitely not ordinary!

Director Smith also nodded, "She does have martial arts skills."

Cecil told him about it, and then he went to see Xia Xibei's variety show, and he found that she was really different from other female artists.

"She moves beautifully!" The action director's eyes glowed, "It's like I'm watching Bella!"

Bella was the name of the heroine.

In the story, Bella was a female soldier at the beginning, so there were some training scenes.

Afterwards, in a certain accident, she stimulated her inner psychic ability and became a heroine.

This was why Director Smith agreed to the action director's suggestion.

Xia Xibei's actions showed everyone how Bella could be.

Soon, Xia Xibei returned from the workout, and to their surprise, her face was not even sweaty.

"Aren't you tired?" the action director asked.

"No, I'm not tired," Xia Xibei smiled calmly.

"So can we move on to the next item?" Director Smith asked.

"Sure."

Outside, Pan Yan waited anxiously.

Ten minutes later, the door opened.

He greeted Xia Xibei nervously. "How did it go?"

"We're ready to sign."

Pan Yan was first stunned, then ecstatic.

Chapter 1347: Online Scoop

Pan Yan had given up hope, but to his surprise, the role ended up in Xia Xibei's hands!

It was so impressive!

She was able to play an important role in such an international movie!

It was not exactly a first for a domestic artist, but it was a very special first for both him and Xia Xibei!

"Well, I'll leave the next thing to you," Xia Xibei laughed. "They're going back tomorrow, so we need to get the contract negotiated today."

!!

"OK!" Pan Yan immediately patted his chest and nodded his head.

Xia Xibei had already done what needed to be done, so it was time for him to step in!

Both sides had professionals, and the contract was quickly negotiated.

When the New Year was over, Xia Xibei would have to join the cast for three months of training.

After all, she was a heroine and had to have different skills.

There were martial arts scenes here, not just artsy scenes. So, everyone had to spend time to train.

If it were anyone else, Pan Yan would be very worried, but he was not worried about Xia Xibei.

With her strength, there would be no problem!

Although in June, Xia Xibei would be taking the college entrance exam, it was not a big problem for her.

Even if she took a few months off, she wouldn't have to worry about her exam results.

After the contract was signed, both parties shook hands and said goodbye.

After parting ways, Pan Yan was so excited that he almost danced.

"That was great!" He waved with a clenched fist. "Should we announce it first?"

“Let’s wait first,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “There’s no rush.”

“Okay.”

Pan Yan was a little disappointed.

If other artists had gotten a good opportunity, they would definitely announce it to the world.

They had all signed their contracts and could officially show off.

Besides, it was a collaboration with Director Smith!

The famous Director Smith!

However, when Xia Xibei said so, Pan Yan could only keep his excitement down for now.

After returning, Xia Xibei found Gou Yi.

That night, a new revelation appeared on the Internet.

[Cheng Yingni’s role was stolen?]

When this news came out, Cheng Yingni's fans immediately got excited.

Their idol's role was stolen? Who did it?

Soon, a marketing account released the news.

[According to the source, Cheng Yingni was supposed to be in Director Smith's new drama, but unfortunately, the role was taken by a popular starlet! She also got injured because of it!]

When this news came out, the Internet exploded.

The news broke out and the internet exploded.

It was one thing to steal a role, but getting hurt? What happened here?

[I heard from the staff there that Cheng Yingni was beaten up, and twice!]

[My cousin is a nurse, and she said that Cheng Yingni was really injured and went to their hospital for a checkup!]

[Oh my! Which one of you is so awesome that you did it?]

[You guys are so funny, right? This is just a rumor. Where's the evidence?]

[The popular starlet... Is not a certain actress, right?]

[I know the entertainment industry is complicated, but you don't have to do it, right?]

[Wow! What a great scoop? More gossip please!]

For a while, the Internet was in an uproar.

Soon, the finger of blame was pointed to Xia Xibei.

[I heard that Xia Xibei did it!]

This time, Xia Xibei's fans were not happy.

How could their Sister Bei hurt someone?

So, the Internet world became even more chaotic.

At Cheng Yingni's home, Hu Yuling was so angry that her face turned red.

“Who told you to talk nonsense with the media? Who would believe you if you said something like that?”

Cheng Yingni was also confused, “I... I didn’t say that!”

She wanted to do it to Xia Xibei, but where did she have time!

Chapter 1348: She Did It

No matter how angry Cheng Yingni was and how much she suspected that her fall was related to Xia Xibei, she would not expose this matter on the internet.

Even if she was not in her right mind, she understood that this kind of thing without evidence would not do her any good.

Even if she wanted to do something about Xia Xibei, she wouldn’t do it at this time.

So, looking at the online exposé, she was also confused.

However, Hu Yuling was angry and felt that she couldn’t get away with it.

After all, there was no one other than Cheng Yingni who had an axe to grind with Xia Xibei.

Besides, with Cheng Yingni's temperament and intelligence, it was easy for her to do something so unwise.

"It's really not me!" Cheng Yingni yelled low with a grim face. "I haven't done it yet!"

Hu Yuling frowned, "If not you, then who? It can't be that Xia Xibei did it himself, right?"

The moment these words came out, the two people's expressions suddenly changed.

Yes, it could be Xia Xibei who did it!

This circle was full of news that no one knew whether it was true or not.

Many of the so-called explosive news were sometimes leaked by the parties themselves and then hyped, which could change to a different story.

As long as the result was good, who cared how it was done?

Hu Yuling quickly understood. This definitely had something to do with Xia Xibei!

However, it was useless for them to react now, because it was getting even worse online.

[I knew Xia Xibei and Cheng Yingni had a bad relationship, but I didn't think it would come to the point of doing something about it?]

[A friend of mine said she was there before and saw Cheng Yingni being pushed down several times with her own eyes!]

[Xia Xibei is so disgusting, she really thinks she owns the whole entertainment industry?]

[Come on, do you have any proof? Who can prove that Sister Bei did it?]

[Even if you want to steal a role, how dare you hit someone? Are all people so arrogant nowadays?]

[Xia Xibei is so disgusting, get out of the entertainment industry!]

[Oh, you get out first!]

The internet world had become even more lively, especially Cheng Yingni's fans, who were furious.

Cheng Yingni was the one they grew up with, from the cute little girl in the beginning to the youthful beauty now, and her fans felt very gratified.

It was a special feeling to have, that one's daughter was growing up.

Although she has become an adult, in everyone's mind, she was still the cute little girl who needed to be protected.

So, Cheng Yingni's loyal fans were furious and wanted Xia Xibei to pay.

Seeing the situation getting more and more chaotic, Hu Yuling also got anxious and immediately asked someone to control the heat of this matter.

Although it seemed that Cheng Yingni had the upper hand now, this was easy to reverse!

Once the situation was reversed, it would be a problem!

However, before she could do anything, there was a new online revelation.

["Xia Xibei beat Cheng Yingni?" With pictures and the truth!]

The following was a video, which the crowd immediately clicked on to watch.

When they saw what was going on here, everyone's faces turned ashen.

In the video, Cheng Yingni suddenly fell to the ground, then pointed at Xia Xibei and complained that she made her fall.

Xia Xibei looked innocent, and the two of them were not close to each other.

The scene shifted and Cheng Yingni was being helped to walk out. However, she suddenly jerked her hand and pushed the person beside her away.

Then, she fell down again.

After the fall, she said that Xia Xibei pushed her.

After watching this video, everyone was in an uproar.

Oh my God, when she said she was hit by Xia Xibei, that was what she meant!

Xia Xibei was so far away from her, how in the world did she hit her?

How could Cheng Yingni tell such a crazy lie?

Chapter 1349: Punched in the Face

This video once again set off a craze.

Everyone thought before that Xia Xibei had really made a move on Cheng Yingni.

This could not be forgiven!

If you really had a grudge, you could talk it out!

Besides, there were so many resource battles in the circle. You couldn't always get your hands dirty, right?

!!

So, everyone hated those who used force.

What couldn't be discussed properly and had to be done with force?

Besides, they were all stars and role models for many underage people.

It was not good for the kids if these kinds of things got out!

So, everyone strongly condemned Xia Xibei and wanted her out of the entertainment industry.

However, this video managed to shock everyone.

Xia Xibei didn't even touch Cheng Yingni, she fell down by herself!

When Cheng Yingni fell, Xia Xibei was still several meters away from her!

Did Cheng Yingni think that Xia Xibei knew qigong and could kill from a few meters away?

That was ridiculous!

What was even more ridiculous was that under such circumstances, Cheng Yingni still had the nerve to say that Xia Xibei had pushed her!

Where was her self-respect?

People who were previously shouting for Xia Xibei to get out of the entertainment industry were feeling sore in the face.

[Hahahahahaha... So our sister Bei is a worldly person who can kill people invisibly?! Awesome!]

[Sister Bei is so awesome that she can do damage to Cheng Yingni even from a few meters away?! I want to learn from her too! Do you take on students? I want to learn from you!]

[Kneel down to Sister Bei, what a skill!]

[Cheng Yingni is so pathetic that she was attacked by Sister Bei. Fans rush to kiss and hug the princess! Your poor little girl is hurt!]

[Now I know Cheng Yingni is more powerful than I thought. Her thick-skin and psychological quality is the best!]

[Hahahahaha... The sound of this face punch is too loud! I'm convinced!]

People sneered online. Although there were no vulgar words, the sarcasm was mortifying.

Cheng Yingni's fans, especially, could not wait to find a crack in the ground.

If Cheng Yingni and Xia Xibei had fallen down while pushing at close range, they could still put the blame on Xia Xibei's head.

However, Xia Xibei and Cheng Yingni were so far away from each other that she couldn't push Cheng Yingni even if her hands were several meters long!

This situation was simply too humiliating!

Even if they wanted to clear Cheng Yingni's name, it was useless.

Moreover, Cheng Yingni's angry look when she accused Xia Xibei made people cringe.

Who knew that such a sweet and gentle girl had such a side!

How hard they cursed before was how humiliated they were now.

As everyone turned the tables and scolded Cheng Yingni, an official blog posted a message.

[Looking forward to @XiaXibei joining our cast as our most gorgeous Bella. We're happy to be working together!]

When they looked at the name of this official blog, everyone was dumbfounded.

Wasn't this the official blog of "Universal League"?

And this... Seemed to be Director Smith's crew!

For a while, everyone went crazy.

Xia Xibei's fans, in particular, were ecstatic.

Their beloved idol was about to join director Smith's cast?

Not just as a sidekick, but as one of the leads!

It was so incredible!

It gave a great boost to Hua's show business!

As for what was said before, that Xia Xibei stole Cheng Yingni's role, it was instantly mocked.

Xia Xibei was the one who would play Bella, and this was officially certified!

The thing that Cheng Yingni said before about stealing the role was just nonsense.

Chapter 1350: Fan Turned Foe

Fans hated being manipulated.

They hated it when a show or platform said that their idol had won some role, but then two days later it was a different person.

This kind of fan-cheating behavior was very much despised.

If this happened to one's own idol, the fans would be furious and tear each other to pieces! Even the actor who stole the role would be canceled for life.

However, Cheng Yingni's case was different.

Although she said that the role was stolen, was it true?

Officially, there was no acknowledgement that the two sides were working together, so they were just in the contract negotiation stage.

This process was also normal. Which show would be so casual in deciding an important role?

If the official announcement was made and then changed, that would be hated.

Cheng Yingni's side said she was robbed of her role and beaten up....

Was this a joke?

The beating was proven to be a lie, so wasn't this so-called stolen role.... Also a lie?

The movie's official blog had confirmed Xia Xibei's role, so Cheng Yingni's previous words were a slap in the face?

For a while, people have started to mock Cheng Yingni, and she has lost a lot of likes.

[Before, I thought Cheng Yingni was a cute little girl, but now it seems... tsk]

[I've always thought that Cheng Yingni is very nice. But why would she do that? It's like she's playing us for fools!]

[It's the first time I saw such a slander! I'm not a fan anymore!]

Looking at the online comments, Cheng Yingni almost died of anger.

By now, she was sure that this matter was definitely related to Xia Xibei!

This was a very hateful move.

First, she released the news that she was beaten up, and then came straight to a reversal.

After the reversal, didn't all the anger head toward Cheng Yingni?

Cheng Yingni was infuriated by Xia Xibei's manipulation.

She really didn't expect that Xia Xibei would play this trick!

Hu Yuling was also angry.

She now knew that this matter was done by Xia Xibei and had nothing to do with Cheng Yingni.

However, why would Xia Xibei do this to Cheng Yingni?

"Did you do something to her?" Hu Yuling asked with a frown.

"What can I do?" Cheng Yingni's eyes wandered. "I didn't do anything!"

Hu Yuling understood her expression.

Cheng Yingni must have done something to Xia Xibei. Otherwise, it would not be so humiliating right now.

"Didn't I tell you before not to mess with her anymore?"

Hu Yuling was so angry that her face turned red.

She was trying to suppress Xia Xibei before, but after finding out Xia Xibei's identity, she immediately conceded.

Hu Yuling was able to go so far here because besides having a certain background, she also knew what to do.

After knowing Xia Xibei's identity, she knew that she couldn't do anything more.

Although Xia Xibei was only the illegitimate daughter of the Qi family, an illegitimate daughter was much better than a relative!

Under such circumstances, how could she dare to continue to do anything to Xia Xibei?

Thinking about the previous incidents, she now finally understood that Xia Xibei really had the power!

Previously, Xia Xibei must have found out what they were thinking, so she avoided it.

After avoiding the attacks, Xia Xibei did not retaliate, which was enough for them to be happy.

If they had continued to target Xia Xibei, the outcome would have been uncertain.

Hu Yuling did not expect that while she would give up, Cheng Yingni would not.

“That’s easy for you to say!” Cheng Yingni glared at her fiercely. “Do you think things will end so easily?”
