

Chapter 1361: Not Afraid of Being Fat

Masen's attitude towards Xia Xibei was much better after this encounter.

He actually wanted to fight with Xia Xibei again, but, thinking about his previous humiliation, he gave up.

Once could be called an accident, and twice could still be blamed as an accident, but what about three times?

By then, all his prestige would be gone.

So, he could only suppress the feelings in his heart and start training the others.

After teaching Masen a lesson, Xia Xibei was very calm.

As long as he didn't mess with her, she wouldn't provoke him.

There was no need to make it so tense.

For a while, the training atmosphere on the set was very friendly.

When it came time to eat at noon, the crowd returning from hellish training finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Lunch was in the form of a buffet, with meat and vegetables, but everything was generally boiled and not very appetizing.

The others looked at these dishes, having long been accustomed to them.

Although they were very rich, when it was time to restrain themselves, they would do so.

They had to control themselves to appear in their best shape on the screen.

So, they all ate a few pieces of beef, then a little vegetables and eggs.

When they watched Xia Xibei, they noticed she picked the tastiest dishes and the portion size was quite large.

“You eat so much? Aren’t you afraid of gaining weight?”

An actress named Nora looked at her with an amazed face.

Xia Xibei's performance today was already enough for everyone to look at her sideways, and now the amount of food she ate was surprising.

"It's okay, I'm not afraid." Xia Xibei nodded and continued to pile the food on her plate very high.

"Can you finish it?"

Nora was shocked.

There was enough food for several meals!

She couldn't help but look Xia Xibei up and down.

Compared to their big bones, she looked very slim, although everyone already knew that she was not really defenseless.

However, people still couldn't associate her with so much food.

"Of course," Xia Xibei smiled and nodded, then set the plate aside.

Without waiting for Nora's reaction, she took another plate and continued to pile on the food.

This caused Nora to draw in a breath.

Not enough?

She looked so skinny and weak, but she could eat so much?

Under Nora's shocked gaze, Xia Xibei finally filled up two plates, then walked to the table with one plate in each hand.

The other guys were already eating when she walked over, and as soon as they looked up, they were stunned by the food in her hands and almost didn't spit out their food.

How could she have taken so much? Could she eat all that?

Wasn't she afraid of getting fat?

With the current exercise intensity, they did not easily gain weight, however, this portion was too much!

She ate more than all of the men combined!

Xia Xibei put the two plates on the table, smiled at them, and then picked up her fork and started to eat.

Everyone couldn't help but stop and just watch her eat.

Everyone was petrified when she actually ate the food one bite at a time.

She really finished eating!

The crowd had mixed thoughts.

“Aren’t you... Afraid of getting fat?” Nora couldn’t help but ask.

“No. I have slimming pills.”

“Slimming pills?” Nora froze for a moment. “What is it?”

“A good thing that won’t make you fat if you eat it!”

Xia Xibei’s eyes shone brightly and she started to go into sales mode.

Soon, Nora learned that the reason Xia Xibei was eating so much and not gaining weight was because of the pills, and that they had no side-effects!

There was such a good thing?

Chapter 1362: Going International

In fact, things such as beauty pills and slimming pills had long been created and registered for sale in the market.

However, their pricing was very high, so high that many people could not afford it.

A beauty pill cost tens of thousands of dollars, and many people did not earn that much in a year.

So, Hongyan Youth didn't advertise these things either.

They just put out a bottle on the counter with the price written on it.

!!

When people saw the price, they would back off, so how dare they look further?

Therefore, the customers who bought these pills were rich people.

Nowadays, many of the artists in the Hua entertainment industry were the main customers of these pills, and the socialites were also loyal customers.

However, Hongyan Youth had not been advertised to the public, so not many people abroad knew about it.

Moreover, this kind of stuff sounded so miraculous, it made people suspicious.

If it weren't for the domestic Hongyan Beauty Clubs, there probably wouldn't be so many customers.

Nora had never heard of such things before either.

On top of that, she hadn't even heard of the Hongyan Youth brand. After all, Hongyan Youth hadn't been advertised abroad yet.

The production of Hongyan Youth had increased a lot more, but it still had to supply the domestic market first.

There were a lot of people who didn't have money, but there were also a lot of people who did have money. They would not let go of what was good for them.

Expensive? As long as it was useful!

While the domestic market had been opened, Hongyan Youth also wanted to develop in foreign markets, and was waiting for the right time.

Of course Xia Xibei, as the spokesperson and shareholder of Hongyan Youth, had to make a contribution.

Nora was a big star in M and was well known, so it was definitely a good idea to start with her.

With Xia Xibei present, Nora was quickly convinced.

After the afternoon training, the two of them returned to the hotel, and Xia Xibei gave her two pills.

In order to dispel Nora's suspicions, she also logged on to the website and pulled up the instructions for the pills.

After that, Nora took the pills and left.

As for whether Nora would really take the pills afterwards, Xia Xibei was confident.

As a star, you couldn't just eat anything, particularly this kind of incredulous-sounding miracle medicine.

These pills were black and looked vague, so who knew what was in them?

If something happened after eating it, what could be done?

So, Nora would definitely do some checking when she gets back.

However, Xia Xibei was not worried.

These things were not from unknown sources, and there were many consumers. As long as Nora went to check, she would naturally know the truth.

After selling the slimming pills to Nora, Xia Xibei's target turned to another person.

Callas from Y.

Callas was an actor from country Y, and was also a very popular actor internationally.

He had a great body and face, and was a god to many people.

However, he had a very troublesome problem: hair loss.

Due to the air and water quality in Y, many Y men had this problem.

No matter how handsome a man was, as long as he lost his hair, he would look very bad.

Callas was not yet at the point of complete hair loss, but his hairline had already started to move up.

In a few years, he would be really bald.

How awful to be in your prime and go bald!

He had spent a lot of time and effort to solve this problem, but it still didn't work.

So, Xia Xibei was going to convert him into a loyal client of Hongyan Youth!

Chapter 1363: Hair Growth Potion

Hongyan Youth was not only for women, but also for men!

For many men, they felt that skincare was too girly and not in line with their manhood.

However, while the skin could be unmaintained, they couldn't help themselves when they found themselves on the verge of baldness.

Bald!

Even handsome people with good looks could not compete with baldness.

!!

Not many people could outshine baldness.

So, Xia Xibei came up with a new formula, and then the company quickly produced this hair growth potion and put it on the market.

As soon as the new product was launched, it immediately attracted a lot of attention.

People found that after using Hongyan Youth's hair growth potion, their hair volume really came back!

For some customers with severe hair loss, it was a life-saving gospel!

After the launch of the hair growth potion, the response was very enthusiastic.

Social media quickly started to flood with compliments on the effectiveness of Hongyan Youth's hair growth potion.

However, the price of Hongyan Youth's hair growth potion was much more expensive than other brands.

Of course, it didn't matter if the price was higher for something that worked.

Compared to the money spent on hair transplants, it was not a big deal!

Xia Xibei wanted to push Hongyan Youth to the international level, so of course she had to find other spokespersons.

Callas was the best spokesperson.

In two more years, Callas would have even less hair. By that time, he would be crying.

So, Xia Xibei came over this time and brought the hair growth potion with her.

When Xia Xibei approached him, Callas could not help but feel a little smug in his heart. She was trying to hook up with him, right?

As expected, not many people could resist his charms.

He could possibly date her, a beautiful asian girl.

However, when Xia Xibei opened her mouth to explain the purpose of her visit, he was suddenly confused.

She came for his baldness?

This was really embarrassing.

Callas' expression was very embarrassed while listening to Xia Xibei's explanation, so much that he wanted to turn around and leave.

However, looking at the hair growth potion in her hand, Callas was embarrassed but finally took the product.

After returning, he gritted his teeth and used the hair growth potion.

He didn't believe Xia Xibei would dare to lie to him!

If she dared to lie to him, he would definitely teach her a lesson!

The next day, he was stunned!

There was stubble coming out from the edge of the hairline where the hair growth potion had been used!

What a treasure! His hairline was finally saved!

Callas was so excited.

The others noticed that Callas and Nora were very nice to Xia Xibei, so nice that it was kind of weird!

Although Masen still had a weird attitude towards her, Xia Xibei didn't care about his attitude at all.

Moreover, although he had a bad attitude, he did not dare to say anything else. After all, it hurts to be hit in the face.

In this way, Xia Xibei's life at the training base became more and more relaxed, without any of the ostracism that Pan Yan feared would happen.

In another two weeks, Xia Xibei's muscle lines were even more beautiful, and when wearing a revealing dress, her toned waist and midriff simply made people unable to take their eyes off her.

She had left everyone speechless.

She was very smart and learned so fast that she had mastered new things before anyone else could react.

The other actors were stunned by her ability to learn, and they didn't have the same contempt for her as before.

Although she was a Hua actress, those who had ability would be able to succeed anywhere!

With her strength, she didn't need to stay here for three months at all, but for the sake of fitting in, she stayed obediently.

Chapter 1364: Attention

Xia Xibei had been here for a while and was in contact with home every night.

In addition to contacting Qiao Yanjue and others, Qi Zhiqiang would also send video chat requests over, but she usually just casually muddled through, said she was busy, and logged off.

She was training here, but she could not disappear from the audience's attention at home.

She didn't have to stress too much about it, as the attention from "Hongyan Chance" hasn't dissipated yet.

The movie "Hongyan Chance," as directed by Jiang Shenghe, had achieved the same result as in the previous life, or rather, this result was even better.

The film's content and quality were better than before because the queen of animals was now Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei didn't have many scenes, but when she appeared, she immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Moreover, her performance in it was also very wonderful.

In addition to her excellent acting skills, she was a queen of animals, so she had very close interaction with the animals.

When people first saw the movie, people thought that these interactions were made with special effects.

Although it looked a little too realistic, as long as one spent the money, the level of special effects Hua was also very good.

So, when the show sent out the footage, everyone was stunned.

There really weren't many special effects in this drama, and most of them were shot on location.

When they saw Xia Xibei really riding the tiger, everyone was dumbfounded!

Before, everyone thought that the big tiger here was absolutely fake and a special effect.

After all, how could there be such an obedient and well-behaved tiger?

Who would dare to be so close to a tiger? Was the person tired of living?

When the drama was just released, people were still discussing it. The special effects here were really too realistic, and the production team was spending a lot of money!

So, when it was discovered that this big tiger was real, everyone was shocked.

What was even more shocking was that the tiger was so obedient to Xia Xibei!

Where in the world did Xia Xibei get her powers?

Was she an immortal? Why else would the tiger listen to her?

The discussion about the tiger had also been on the hot search several times.

Due to these highlights, more people came into the cinema.

Everyone wanted to see how Xia Xibei really interacted with the tiger.

Everyone was so impressed she could get a real tiger to be so obedient!

Although Xia Xibei and the big tiger stole a lot of attention, it also brought more buzz to the movie.

When Xia Xibei first entered the cast, the others were busy doing publicity, and the movie was in theaters.

A month later, the movie was released and the buzz had dropped off.

At this point, it was up to Xia Xibei to work on her own.

Before she left the country, she spent a few days preparing new songs.

When the movie was released, the new songs came online.

With these new songs in, she was sure to have a good amount of buzz.

Moreover, she usually posted on social media to maintain her hotness.

So, Xia Xibei had been here for three months but her popularity in her own country had not decreased much.

It should be said that if it weren't for the fact that she ran away to M, there might have been even more people looking for her.

Looking at the popularity of Xia Xibei on the Internet, somewhere in M, someone dropped the tablet in her hand with a bang.

She gritted her teeth and wanted to pull the smiling Xia Xibei out and beat her severely!

However, after seeing Xia Xibei's latest news, she also had other thoughts in her mind.

Xia Xibei didn't know that someone wanted to kill her, so she stayed in the base for two months.

After two months, she finally got the chance to go out.

Chapter 1365: A Sudden Attack

Xia Xibei had a better relationship with the rest of the cast in the next two months.

She had the best relationship with Nora, the other heroine.

Nora had the pills tested and made sure they were harmless before taking them.

After taking the pills, she noticed the effect and was immediately amazed, gaining a better relationship with Xia Xibei.

Nora was able to eat more during the upcoming period, without any mental burden.

As a star, although she looked gorgeous on the outside, it was hard work to maintain such beauty behind the scenes.

Not many people could withstand the hard work.

So, the pills Xia Xibei took out were very timely.

After that, Xia Xibei also had someone bring a bottle of pills from Hua, successfully earning Nora's loyalty.

The two of them were the heroines of this drama, surrounded by a group of boys, so their relationship was naturally very good.

This time, when she had a rare break, Nora invited her to go out with her.

Their destination this time was Nora's school: CG University.

CG University was a very famous university in M, and also one of the top ranked universities internationally.

Nora was a star, but she was also a student.

Although this top scholar was no match for Xia Xibei, she was indeed an uncompromising scholar, and now a graduate student.

One more year and she would graduate.

Now, her advisor asked her to make a trip back to school, so she extended an invitation to Xia Xibei to come to school.

Xia Xibei readily agreed.

She was going to university soon. Although she hadn't thought about coming to a university abroad, it was a good idea to see a foreign university.

So, the two of them drove to the school.

On the way, Nora talked to her about the entertainment industry in M.

Nora was very nice to Xia Xibei, and the two of them had a good relationship.

Moreover, Nora didn't mind advising her.

After all, the two of them were not on the same level and there would be no conflict in resources.

If so, why not be friends?

More friends, more solutions!

Besides, Xia Xibei was doing very well and had future potential. So, she was not shy about sending friendly signals to Xia Xibei.

Along the way, the two of them had a great time chatting.

Nora also noticed that Xia Xibei had so much knowledge. She didn't seem like a teenage girl at all.

This made her more optimistic about Xia Xibei's future.

As they chatted, the two of them soon arrived at CG University.

It was Friday, so there are quite a few students.

The two of them drove into the school and went to find Nora's advisor.

It was an hour later before Nora was finally able to leave.

"Okay, I'll take you for a walk," Nora said to Xia Xibei with a relaxed look on her face.

"Okay."

The two of them walked forward.

Nora's popularity was not low, and with Xia Xibei's beautiful looks, they managed to attract a lot of people's attention.

The place was full of students, so even if people recognized Nora, they wouldn't risk rushing up to ask for a photo and autograph.

However, the number of onlookers grew.

Xia Xibei and Nora were both used to the crowds and didn't react too badly.

When they reached the front of the library, Xia Xibei suddenly stopped.

Then she turned around with a sharp look in her eyes, like a knife.

The students met her eyes and were taken aback.

Before they could react, they saw Xia Xibei rushing toward them.

There was an outcry from the crowd.

In the next second, they saw Xia Xibei charge at someone with a kick.

This kick successfully made the man fall down pathetically.

The scene was silent.

Chapter 1366: Vicious Incident

When everyone reacted, they immediately drew in a breath.

What the hell was this good-looking asian girl doing?

Even Nora was dumbfounded, wondering how Xia Xibei could suddenly make a move, oh rather, move her foot.

If this got out, Xia Xibei's reputation would be gone!

Everyone was in a daze, but Xia Xibei's actions didn't stop there

!!

She took a big step forward and grabbed the man who was lying on the ground.

At this time, everyone saw that the man's hand had an additional object.

When they got a good look at what it was, everyone was breathless.

"There's a gun!"

At this word, everyone was scared and rushed to dodge away.

He actually had a gun?

This was a school, what was he trying in bringing a gun to school?

Although guns weren't banned in M, people wouldn't run around with guns.

The man's appearance was very ordinary, and he did not look outstanding in any way.

His eyes were a bit angular. There was more white in his eyes, a bit fierce and vicious.

At this moment, he was looking angry, while the gun in his hand had its safety off.

He didn't expect that his plan would be discovered by Xia Xibei, and he became even more annoyed.

He took the gun and tried to shoot at Xia Xibei.

However, before he raised the gun, Xia Xibei's right hand was like a lightning bolt and snatched the gun from his hand. Then the gun was turned around and pointed at him.

Before the man could react, the gun was snatched away. When he looked at the muzzle of the gun, he froze and did not dare to move.

Everyone felt like they were dazzled, but in a blink of an eye, the man's gun was in Xia Xibei's hand. What kind of magical operation was this?

The students who were screaming and dodging before also noticed the change of situation and quickly gathered around.

"Catch him!"

Just before, everyone couldn't help but want to condemn Xia Xibei's violence, but now everyone was grateful for her sudden move.

There had been shootings at other schools before, and many people were killed and injured then.

Although they hadn't thought that something like this would happen in their own school, everyone broke out in a sweat when they saw the gun.

If this man had shot at them, would they have been so lucky as to be able to dodge it?

Of course, maybe the man had a specific target and was not trying to make a move on them.

However, this idea was immediately rejected by everyone.

If he had a specific target, then he should have chosen a specific time to make his move.

Those who would make a move in public were impulsive people.

They were not going to consider other things.

When they started shooting, others would not be able to avoid his attack if they wanted to come forward to save people.

Most likely, after he killed someone, he couldn't resist doing it again to others. After all, he was already crazy at that time.

So, everyone's hands and feet were cold.

Xia Xibei had saved everyone's lives!

The students were scared afterwards and very angry at the man.

“Get him!” someone shouted, and the others immediately gathered around.

This inhuman pervert must be arrested!

Some people were busy calling the police, others were busy controlling the man, and the scene was in chaos.

Soon, the school’s security guards and officials came over, all in a sweat.

Just now, they heard that there was a shooting incident in the school. They were scared out of their minds and rushed over immediately.

On the way over, they were worried about how many casualties there would be this time and how they would have to deal with it.

Chapter 1367: No Casualties

This school was an internationally renowned university, and the students here were world-class academics.

After graduation, these students would have outstanding performance in all walks of life.

It could be said that the world was driven by the power of these people.

Even if one person died, it would still be a very big loss, not to mention the fact that there was a shooting!

Generally speaking, there were heavy casualties in any shooting incident, with at least a few people being hit.

!!

If the shooter shot indiscriminately, it would be even more terrible. Who knows how many casualties there would be?

Therefore, the school officials' hearts hovered in tension, and they were covered with cold sweat and cold hands and feet.

When they arrived at the place, they saw a group of people gathered together.

They thought there were injured or dead people there, but then they heard the angry hissing of the students.

When they looked more closely, there was no injured person on the ground, and no one was crying at the scene.

Surrounded by the crowd, in the middle was a man of medium build.

The man's face was disheveled, his face was already red and swollen, and he didn't know who had punched him in the confusion.

However, no one would bother with such things.

Who cared about a shooter?

"Is there anyone injured? Did you call an ambulance?!" the principal asked anxiously.

"No."

The answer stunned him.

No injuries?

Looking around again, he was even more surprised.

There was really no wounded person in sight!

"The shooter was caught before we could do anything!" someone shouted.

“We didn’t catch him, he was caught by this girl!” others shouted.

Being reminded of this, the principal became anxious.

“Who?”

Who caught the shooter?

“It’s her!”

At the direction of the crowd, the officials looked over.

Then, they were all frozen.

It was this pretty asian girl who caught the shooter?

She was so skinny, so how did she do it?

“If she hadn’t caught the shooter, there might have been mass casualties now!” someone explained.

These words made them stand in awe.

Surprisingly, the shooter was caught in advance. No wonder there were no casualties at the scene!

Looking at the girl again, there was a somewhat familiar figure beside her.

Huh? Wasn't this the actress Nora?

The officials were stunned.

While they were surprised, the police came.

Due to the endless shootings, there was also a police force around the school, so the police came quickly this time.

Moreover, this was a university, the elite of the elite, so any loss would be horrific!

The police were anxious, but when they arrived at the scene, they were also stunned.

What was this situation?

Wasn't there a shooting? How come this place was so calm?

When they figured out the situation, they were equally shocked.

This girl actually had such a skill? People weren't kidding, right?

At this time, someone took out the video taken earlier.

After all, Nora was a star, and on the rare occasion she came to school, her fans certainly couldn't help but want to record videos.

Originally, they just wanted to keep the videos for themselves, but unexpectedly, something like this happened.

Although the scene was chaotic just now, the moment was still captured on film.

Now, the video really came in handy.

In the video, Xia Xibei suddenly moved her feet in a valiant manner, stunning the police officers.

If she hadn't caught the man with a gun, this would have been evidence that she had innocently hurt someone.

How on earth did she know that the man had brought a gun?

"It's Hua kung fu," Xia Xibei replied with a smile.

“Hua kung fu?”

Everyone’s jaws dropped.

Was Hua kung fu so awesome?

Chapter 1368: An Immediate Decision

Looking at everyone’s shocked looks, Xia Xibei smiled, a little embarrassed.

“Well, I’m kidding. Actually, I noticed that something was wrong just now.”

“How?” The police officers immediately became serious.

This was a very important clue.

“I was just waiting for her downstairs,” she pointed to Nora, “Then, I saw him walk past me.”

!!

Everyone frowned, but didn’t say anything.

So he was just walking past. What was wrong with that?

“If it was just once, forget it, but I noticed that he walked twice.” Xia Xibei had a serious look on her face. “I also noticed that he looked a little bit wrong.”

“What’s wrong?”

She looked innocent and serious, “He was very nervous and a little bit crazy.”

Xia Xibei pointed to the handcuffed shooter, “I wondered at that time if something was wrong with him. So, I paid more attention to him for a while. After that, I noticed that there was something in his pocket! Then I found out that it was a gun!”

Such a statement made everyone’s eyes widen.

Her observation was surprisingly meticulous!

However, it was also because her observation was so meticulous that she was able to help everyone avoid this disaster.

“After that, as we were walking along the road, I noticed that something was even more wrong with him. His hands were in his pockets the whole time, and it seemed like he was trying to pull his gun out! So, I immediately went up to him to stop him from doing that. I thought then that if I was wrong, I would apologize to him. Luckily, it didn’t lead to a disaster!”

She had a righteous expression.

This made everyone stand in awe.

She was so observant and so decisive, so admirable!

If it wasn't for her quick decision, something might have happened by now.

The man's gun was full of bullets!

If these bullets were all used, there was no telling how many people would be hurt!

Everyone was scared just thinking about it.

They were all part of the scene just now, and no one was sure how lucky they would be.

It was all because Xia Xibei saved everyone!

"Thank you!"

Someone spoke up, and the others immediately followed suit.

“Yes, thank you!”

“Thank you! You saved us!”

Although there were no casualties at the scene, everyone was very grateful.

No casualties were the best.

“You’re welcome.”

Faced with everyone’s gratitude, Xia Xibei hurriedly waved her hand, a bit flustered.

Seeing her look so shy, everyone had a better impression of her.

She was such a beautiful girl and so brave, everyone could not help but feel good about her.

Moreover, she saved everyone’s lives!

Such a life-saving gift was simply too incredible!

One could say that she was the savior of everyone on the scene!

After all, no one was sure who that gun would be aimed at.

“Well then, please come with us to the police station to make a statement.”

The police officers were also very gentle with her.

She was a big hero!

If it weren't for her, it would have been difficult to foresee the outcome today.

“Okay,” Xia Xibei, of course, cooperated fully.

In fact, she was making up some of the claims here.

The reason she had noticed the man was indeed because she had confronted him earlier.

She noticed that the man was looking at her strangely, so she paid more attention to him.

After that, they were walking in the front and the man was following behind, so she paid attention to him with her spiritual power.

So, before he was about to make a move, she noticed something wrong.

Only, she would not reveal this detail.

Chapter 1369: A Random Plan

Soon, Xia Xibei took Nora, along with the school officials, to the police station.

When they arrived at the police station and police officers there heard about the incident, they were very excited.

This was a hero!

Seeing how good-looking she was, everyone's attitude got even better.

Nora's presence also made everyone wonder about Xia Xibei's identity.

To be so close to Nora, she must be no ordinary person.

When they found out that she was also an actress, they could not help but admire her. Artists nowadays had such a high level of awareness!

The police also began to question the man and soon determined his identity, then went to his home to search.

In very little time, the search yielded some evidence.

The man left a plan at home.

In the plan, he was to go to CG University and carry out an indiscriminate attack.

After killing people, he would commit suicide.

Looking at the plan, which was not rigorous at all and very random, the police officers broke out in a sweat.

Xia Xibei really did the right thing!

She really saved a lot of people!

She prevented this tragedy!

This kind of action was reckless and arbitrary, but it was hard to stop!

The man's identity was also revealed.

He was unemployed.

Ordinary identity, ordinary background, ordinary everything. So ordinary that there was nothing extraordinary about him.

Moreover, he didn't even have any friends because of his strange personality.

So, he had this terrible thought.

He lived such a suffocating life, so he'd find others to die with him!

He had such a miserable life, why should others have such a good life?

Especially those students from famous universities. Why should they have such a wonderful life and a bright future?

So, things just happened.

After learning this information, everyone was furious.

He didn't have anything to be happy about and he blamed others for being too good, so he wanted to take others to death with him? It was just sick!

However, although he didn't succeed this time, the final punishment would not be weak.

News of this matter spread quickly.

Nowadays, everyone had a social platform, and after this kind of thing happened, students immediately reported their safety online.

When they heard that there was a shooting at CG University, the netizens were stunned.

Oh my God! Something like that had happened?

However, after seeing that no one was killed or injured and that the shooter was found early, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Luckily, it was okay!

Everyone was stunned when they learned that the one who caught the shooter was actually a girl.

A girl? What girl was so powerful?

Soon, some videos were circulating on the Internet.

After seeing the beautiful and slender girl kicking the shooter down with one foot, everyone in front of the screen let out a gasp.

This girl looked thin and weak, so how could she be so powerful?

She looked so incredible!

This move was awesome!

In a day, this video spread rapidly and successfully occupied the social network of M country.

The Hua students in M also found this video, and when they figured out the identity of the girl in it, they were stunned.

It was Xia Xibei?

Shocked, everyone immediately went to investigate the matter.

After figuring out the whole thing, they were even more shocked.

Xia Xibei had become a hero?

So, the news quickly spread back to Xia Xibei's home country.

It was eight or nine o'clock in the evening, when the Internet users were most active.

This news came out of nowhere and managed to attract everyone's attention.

In just ten minutes, this news landed on the hot search list, dominating everyone's attention!

Chapter 1370: Became a Hero

Xia Xibei has been out of the country for two months now, and although her songs were around and she usually posted on social media, it couldn't fully console the longing in the hearts of her fans.

However, they all knew that Xia Xibei was in training and was going to shoot a movie afterwards.

This was a great opportunity!

This was a great opportunity that no one else could grab!

For example, Cheng Yingni.

So, when Xia Xibei was given such a great opportunity, everyone was all for it.

Many people were fans of her looks, but they were also fans of her career.

Watching her work so hard and earnestly, getting better and better and going further and further, everyone was very happy and felt like they were going to reach the top too.

So, they all held back the longing in their hearts, only to quickly grab the front row when she posted anything online.

Everyone was ready to wait for her to post an update.

Who would have thought that Xia Xibei would suddenly become a hero in M?

After opening the video, the fans were excited.

[This reminded me of when Sister Bei caught a fugitive!]

[Wow, those legs!]

[Sister Bei is Sister Bei! Even if she changed places, she's still the same!]

[People of M shudder, Sister Bei is here!]

[I don't know if I should cry or laugh. What kind of person is Sister Bei? Before, she caught a fugitive and a human trafficker, and now she caught a shooter? She's not going to be a cop, is she?]

[Hahaha... Sister Bei is awesome, she is an auxiliary cop. She's doing all the police work!]

[With Sister Bei around, I feel very safe!]

[Sister Bei is going to play a heroine this time, isn't she? This is a heroine! She's playing herself!]

At the same time, the domestic media also reacted and quickly started to report.

Some people contacted Pan Yan, who was abroad, and asked him about the event.

Pan Yan dismissed these reporters with a strong smile and turned his head to gnash his teeth.

He didn't understand how Xia Xibei could encounter such a thing when she simply went out.

Moreover, she went to a university, not some horrible place!

She even took the initiative to fight with the shooter?

If she reacted slower and the shooter reacted faster and pulled out the gun, she would have been shot.

Thinking of this, Pan Yan's face turned white.

Although he knew Xia Xibei was very powerful, he never thought that she would be so impulsive!

This was a gun!

This was a gun that could cause terrible damage, even at several dozen meters!

Thinking about the result, Pan Yan's legs were going weak.

It was simply too terrible!

However, no matter how angry and scared he was, it would not help. After all, it had already happened.

What he had to do now was to get more PR out of the incident.

After all, Xia Xibei earned this with her life! The rest, of course, was his to deal with.

However, because of this matter, Xia Xibei quickly shot up in popularity in M country.

Before, Xia Xibei was just an ordinary actress from Hua, without any fame in M, and was questioned about her strength. After all, she had not released her works here.

According to Pan Yan's plan, she should start her official entry into the M market only after the movie is finished.

He also prepared quite a few programs.

Unexpectedly, all the preparations collapsed in front of Xia Xibei's ferocity.

However, such an accident was also a good thing.

He did not expect that this was just the beginning; there were better things to come!

When he received a phone call, his whole body was petrified, and he didn't come back to his senses for a while.
