

Chapter 1641 - 1641 A Small Favor

1641 A Small Favor

Xia Xibei was celebrating her birthday, and Qiao Yanjue was of course coming over.

Qiao Yanjue was taking care of things in M these days.

He had someone keep an eye on Jiang Rongguang, but he must admit that Jiang Rongguang was able to hide for so long because he was brilliant. Moreover, he was very vigilant.

Qiao Yanjue had people watching him for a long time, but they didn't get anything useful.

So, they could only take their time.

Qiao Yanjue had people keep an eye on that end and flew back to Hua to spend Xia Xibei's birthday with her.

This time, he came as Xia Xibei's boyfriend for her birthday.

Although he had been to Qi's house as a boyfriend before, it felt different every time he came to the door.

Qiao Yanjue was prepared in the best way possible.

His clothes and hair were impeccable.

Soon, he arrived at the Qi family mansion.

After stopping the car, he walked toward Xia Xibei.

However, while passing by a certain small courtyard, someone rushed out from around the corner.

The person wore a hat, had a thin build, must have had short hair, and looked like a teenage boy.

His movement was fierce, and in front of him was a small puddle of water.

Qiao Yanjue reacted quickly and rushed up to pull the teenager to a halt.

“Be careful!”

When he looked down, he froze.

It wasn't a boy but a girl!

She looked quite pretty, and had very delicate makeup on, with long eyelashes.

She was not tall, maybe just about 1.60 meters, and she was wearing a hip-hop-style hat, her long hair was wrapped in the hat, and the loose clothes did not show her figure.

So, at first glance, she looked like a boy.

However, she was obviously a beautiful girl.

Qiao Yanjue's heart jumped and he immediately released her.

"Are you all right?"

He moved a few steps away from her, and only then did he ask.

The girl looked at the small pool of water in front of her and looked at him with a glow in her eyes, "Thank you for helping me!"

"You don't have to thank me, it's just a small favor." Qiao Yanjue shook his head, his eyes cold. "If you had not almost hit me, I would not have helped you."

These words made the girl's expression stiffen for a moment, a little exasperated.

She didn't do it on purpose!

If there wasn't water in front of her, she wouldn't have almost fallen!

However, this man was so handsome!

More handsome than any of the men she had ever seen! His movements were very sharp. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to catch her.

However, he should not be from the Qi family, otherwise, she would have recognized him.

"Anyway, thank you. By the way, what's your name?"

Meeting her dark eyes, Qiao Yanjue mentally frowned and carefully took another step back.

"It's nothing. I'm sorry, I have something to do, I have to leave now."

"Don't go yet! I need to know your name!"

"No need, it's just a small favor," Qiao Yanjue shook his head and refused.

He didn't want to get involved with other girls.

If he didn't think she was a boy, he wouldn't necessarily offer his help.

Besides, this was the Qi family, and those who could come in and out of there were all related to the Qi family.

This girl should also be a member of the Qi family. Then, she should also be somewhat capable.

So, his earlier move was superfluous.

"Come on..."

The girl tried to pout, but she saw Qiao Yanjue turn around and leave.

Looking at his unceremoniously departing back, the girl froze for a moment and then became angry.

She was so angry that she stomped her foot. What kind of insensitive man was this?

Wasn't she beautiful?!

Chapter 1642 - 1642 Perfume Smell

1642 Perfume Smell

Qiao Yanjue had no idea what the girl was thinking, he was rushing to meet Xia Xibei.

As he walked along, he looked down and examined his clothes to make sure they were okay before moving on.

After walking for a few minutes, he finally saw Xia Xibei.

As soon as the two met, Xia Xibei huffed, "Perfume?"

!!

Qiao Yanjue lifted his sleeve and sniffed it, his brow furrowed.

"I think I just helped a person, so I got the smell."

"What happened?"

"On the way over, I saw someone about to fall down, so I helped him. I just didn't expect that while he looked like a boy, she was actually a girl." Qiao Yanjue was also helpless and hurriedly raised his hand to say, "Don't worry, I definitely had no idea about her!"

Xia Xibei was exasperated by his cheekiness and glared at him, "Oh!"

She certainly wouldn't be jealous because of this point.

Even if Qiao Yanjue had any idea, he wouldn't be able to make trouble here.

He wouldn't be that stupid, coming over with the smell of a girl's perfume.

"Don't be like that, I'm very good!" Qiao Yanjue took her hand and rubbed it.

Xia Xibei rolled her eyes at him. "Be serious! Don't make people look at you funny!"

"Yes, as ordered! Big Sister!" Qiao Yanjue raised his eyebrows at her.

Xia Xibei was amused by him.

Ever since he had awakened his disciple's memories, Qiao Yanjue became more lively than before.

His personality was very cold and hard before, but now he was much more lively.

Of course, this side could only be seen by her. Others felt that he was as cold as before.

"Well, let's go in."

Xia Xibei took his arm and led him inside.

“They’re here.”

When they saw Qiao Yanjue appear, the people smiled and were very enthusiastic, especially Qi Zhi’an. After experiencing what happened to the Wang family, he felt that Qiao Yanjue really couldn’t be nicer!

Moreover, Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei were disciples of the same teacher!

Before this, Qiao Yanjue’s condition was much better than Xia Xibei’s, but both of them never left each other.

This was very rare.

All things considered, Qiao Yanjue’s condition was the best.

Of course, in Qi Zhi’an’s mind, Xia Xibei was better than Qiao Yanjue.

“Grandpa, Uncle, Auntie...”

Qiao Yanjue greeted them one by one, with a warm smile, not at all cold in front of outsiders.

“Come, sit down,” Qi Zhi’an beckoned for Qiao Yanjue to go over.

Then, the two men began a friendly and cordial conversation.

As the conversation progressed, cold sweat faintly appeared on Qiao Yanjue's forehead.

His future father-in-law was too fierce, and he could hardly stand it.

However, as Qi Zhi'an's conversation became more and more ferocious, he was finally rescued.

The group sat down at the large dining table and began to eat.

This time, there were not many people attending the birthday party.

It was just the patriarch, Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao, plus Qi Xin, Xia Xibei, and Qiao Yanjue.

Such a warm little party, but it seemed very harmonious.

The only issue was that Qi Xin had been eating with her head down, not messing around, and not affecting the big picture.

When they were halfway done eating, there was a sound from outside.

The crowd looked up and saw a man and a woman walk in.

The man was Qi Yongjiang, who had just given Xia Xibei a scowl, and his face was not looking too good now.

The girl made Qiao Yanjue frown.

Wasn't this... The same girl he just saved? Only, she seemed to have changed her clothes.

Chapter 1643 - 1643 Disappointed

1643 Disappointed

When he saw the girl, Qiao Yanjue's expression changed a little.

Xia Xibei naturally noticed his change and asked with her eyes.

Qiao Yanjue came up to her ear and whispered, "She is the girl I just saved."

Xia Xibei understood, "It's her."

!!

"Do you know her?"

“No,” Xia Xibei shook her head, “But she should be Qi Yongjiang’s junior.”

Xia Xibei had nothing to do with Qi Yongjiang, and their previous meeting was also unpleasant, so naturally she had no good feelings toward him.

She respected elders who treated her well, with good character, and who were enough to make her respect him.

She really didn’t care about old men like Qi Yongjiang,

Besides, no matter how good she was to Qi Yongjiang, he would not be nice to her.

In that case, why bother?

Qiao Yanjue also understood Xia Xibei’s attitude and didn’t say anything about it.

He nodded, “I guess so.”

He just didn’t know what they wanted by coming over now.

After all, this was a small family dinner.

Seeing the two of them so intimately conversing, the smile on the girl's face stiffened for a moment, and her eyes sank slightly.

"Uncle Jiang, you're here too." Qi Zhi'an stepped forward first and smilingly introduced Qi Yongjiang. "Just in time to eat together."

"No need," Qi Yongjiang shook his head and squeezed out a smile. "We just happened to stop by, we didn't expect such an occasion."

"It's Beibei's birthday today, so it's an early dinner."

"Is that so?" Qi Yongjiang looked surprised and unexpected. "So it's her birthday! Why not make it bigger?"

"It's a young person's birthday, there's no need to make it so big. We can just have a meal together."

"That's true." Qi Yongjiang nodded, then his gaze turned directly to Qiao Yanjue. "By the way, this is Beibei's boyfriend, right?"

"Hello," Qiao Yanjue stood up.

Qiao Yanjue and Qi Yongjiang had met before, but at that time, the conversation was focused on Xia Xibei, so the two of them had little communication.

Qiao Yanjue just didn't expect that Qi Yongjiang would directly point him out.

“Grandpa.”

The girl pulled Qi Yongjiang’s hand, prompting him to say something.

Qi Yongjiang looked at his granddaughter for a moment, and then looked at Qiao Yanjue.

“By the way, you saved Qiqi just now, right?”

“Qiqi?” Qiao Yanjue looked bewildered.

Qi Yongjiang’s face was slightly sunken, “Her name is Lu Tianqi, she is my granddaughter.”

“Oh! So it’s you!” Qiao Yanjue suddenly realized. “So you are the granddaughter of the patriarch! I almost didn’t remember after you changed clothes!”

“Hello, I’m Lu Tianqi,” Lu Tianqi flashed a shy smile at Qiao Yanjue.

Xia Xibei stood up, “So you’re Sister Tianqi. I am Qi Xibei. He is my boyfriend, Qiao Yanjue.”

As soon as Xia Xibei stood up, the atmosphere changed.

Qi Xin, who was sitting quietly, looked up at the scene, then lowered her head again, hiding the light in her eyes.

Xia Xibei's introduction also made Lu Tianqi's heart skip a beat. He really was Xia Xibei's boyfriend!

At this moment, she had a very complicated feeling.

Just now, after his "heroic rescue" of her, her feelings for Qiao Yanjue were different.

She immediately paid a little more attention to such a handsome and outstanding man.

After looking for him for a while, she realized that he had arrived here.

That was why she asked her grandfather to bring her over.

Originally she thought he was a guest of the Qi family, but she didn't expect that he already had a girlfriend, and his girlfriend was Miss Qi!

All her hopes got dashed.

Chapter 1644 - 1644 Granddaughter

1644 Granddaughter

Lu Tianqi's smile was a bit awkward, but she quickly recovered, "I came over this time because I wanted to thank you for saving me just now."

"No need to be so polite," Qiao Yanjue shook his head, "It's no big deal. Even if I didn't do it, you wouldn't have any problems. It's not worth mentioning."

That being said, Lu Tianqi still squeezed out a little smile, "Anyway, thank you."

"Sister Qiqi, you don't have to be so polite, it's just a coincidence that Brother Jue could help out, it's nothing. By the way, do you want to eat together?"

!!

Being so nudged by Xia Xibei, what else could Lu Tianqi say?

She could only purse her mouth, "No, we've already booked a table outside."

She looked at Qi Yongjiang, "Grandpa, let's go."

"Good." Qi Yongjiang nodded and gave Xia Xibei a meaningful glare before saying to the patriarch, "Then we'll leave first, you guys take your time eating."

"Alright."

No one tried to get them to stay.

So, Qi Yongjiang took his granddaughter and left.

After leaving, Qi Yongjiang said to Lu Tianqi, "I told you, he already has a girlfriend!"

He was also the boyfriend of that annoying Xia Xibei!

"Grandpa!" Lu Tianqi snapped. "Stop it!"

"Okay, I won't say anything. You should know what's going on," Qi Yongjiang sighed. "You are twenty years old. What you want to do, grandpa will always support you. However, you also have to grow up."

"I know," Lu Tianqi agreed with a dull voice.

"Your mother is no longer here, you have to take good care of yourself."

Qi Yongjiang's words took on a bit of emotion.

"I know."

The grandpa and grandchild walked out as they spoke.

In the dining room, several people also returned to their seats.

“Who is this Lu Tianqi?” Xia Xibei asked.

“She is your Grandpa Jiang’s granddaughter and a child of the Lu family.”

“The Lu family?” Xia Xibei raised her eyebrows.

“Yes.” Qi Zhi’an gave her a piece of food and said, “It’s the Lu family in H City.”

Xia Xibei nodded her head. Of course, she knew which family the Lu family was.

Wasn’t Liu Manhong’s boyfriend, Lu Xiaohang, a member of the Lu family?

She had heard before that these families liked marrying each other, so it would be normal for the Qi family to join the Lu family.

“But why is she here?”

“This child’s mother died a few years ago. Your Grandpa Jiang adores her and lets her come over every year on vacation. Moreover, she is now attending the Imperial University, so she often comes here to visit your Grandpa Jiang .”

“Oh,” Xia Xibei nodded. She could finally understand why Lu Tianqi would appear here.

“Your Grandpa Jiang has two grandsons and one granddaughter, so he loves her very much,” Qi Zhi’an explained the situation. “Oh yes, after you start going to the Imperial University, if you run into her, you should be able to make a friend as well.”

“Oh,” Xia Xibei nodded and did not say anything.

It’s not that she didn’t want to make a friend, it’s just that this friend wouldn’t necessarily like her.

The way Lu Tianqi looked at Qiao Yanjue just now had made her understand that the probability that they could be friends was very low.

Moreover, Lu Tianqi came over to express her thanks after changing her clothes. How could Xia Xibei not understand the meaning here?

Of course, Lu Tianqi did not do anything, so she would not do anything either.

It was normal to have feelings for the opposite sex. As long as it did not destroy others, what did it matter?

Chapter 1645 - 1645 Gift-giving

1645 Gift-giving

Xia Xibei had seen a lot of girls who liked Qiao Yanjue and also met a lot of guys who liked her.

Everyone had a love of beauty.

Anyway, as long as you did not do anything to affect each other, the heart could do what it wanted.

She could see that Lu Tianqi was fond of Qiao Yanjue.

Moreover, based on Qiao Yanjue's explanation, he was just rescuing a damsel in distress!

So it was normal for Lu Tianqi to have a crush on Qiao Yanjue.

As long as Lu Tianqi did not mess around, then there was no problem.

Not being a friend did not mean being an enemy.

This world was not only friends and enemies, there were strangers as well.

The crowd continued to eat and put the matter aside.

Qi Xin ate quietly throughout the meal, occasionally responding to a sentence, looking much more low-key.

Xia Xibei also did not care about her. Anyway, she was not a troublemaker now!

After eating, everyone began to give gifts.

After all, this was a birthday party. Birthday gifts were indispensable.

Moreover, this was their first birthday for Xia Xibei!

This first birthday gift had to be good.

The patriarch gave Xia Xibei a nice car.

This car cost three or four million, and would make people envious.

Then, Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao looked at each other.

Ling Xiao took out a uniquely-shaped key from her pocket.

It was a key in the shape of a maple leaf.

At the sight of this key, Qi Xin's heart jumped, and her original calmness froze.

Could it be...

Under her gaze, Ling Xiao handed the key to Xia Xibei.

“This is a gift for you.”

They were preparing a big gift for Xia Xibei before. It took a long time to come up with the final result.

The final result was this key... For a house.

“This...” Xia Xibei received this key with a curious face.

“This is the Red Maple Manor that your father and I are giving you together.”

“Manor?”

Xia Xibei was shocked.

“Yes, the manor,” Ling Xiao smiled and nodded. “This manor is near the imperial capital, it’s not far to drive over...”

Qi Xin could no longer hear what Ling Xiao said.

This was Red Maple Manor, the place she dreamed of!

This manor was not just an ordinary manor, there was a small mountain behind it, with many spiritual plants on the mountain!

The combined value was at least several hundred million!

A manor worth hundreds of millions was just given to Xia Xibei!

Qi Xin felt her breathing was going to be unstable.

Long before their relationship was exposed, she had thought about asking for this manor.

At that time, she didn't have the heart to ask for it. After all, it was a hundred-million-yuan manor.

To her surprise, they were now giving it to Xia Xibei!

Thinking of this, Qi Xin's heart was dripping with blood.

However, she could not say anything, and could only do her best to keep a smile on her face.

Xia Xibei was also very surprised after listening to Ling Xiao's introduction.

There was such a nice manor here too! And it was worth several hundred million yuan!

Sure enough, the Qi family was really a wealthy family with a lot of money to come up with such a gift for her.

"I've already done the transfer and all that, we're just waiting for you to sign," Ling Xiao finally said.

"Okay. Thanks, mom!"

Xia Xibei hesitated for a moment and finally gave Ling Xiao a hug.

Then she gave Qi Zhi'an a hug.

"Thank you, Dad!"

Being hugged by his daughter, Qi Zhi'an also showed a bright smile.

"It's good if you like it. If you don't like it, Dad will give you something else when the time comes."

These words almost made Qi Xin grind her teeth to powder.

Chapter 1646 - 1646 Not the Same

1646 Not the Same

Xia Xibei certainly liked the gift.

Although she had never seen the Red Maple Manor, she was sure it was not bad.

Stuff from the Qi family was surely not bad.

She also did not expect that she would receive such a powerful gift this year.

If she told people, they would be terrified!

Xia Xibei has received a lot of gifts from her friends and family, and there were also many gifts from her fans.

As early as half a month ago, the fans started the birthday activities.

In recent years, fans in the entertainment industry were supporting their idols in all kinds of ways, just hoping to come on top.

No matter how big they made a scene, however, it was no match for this one estate!

Of course, these were two different things and could not be compared.

There were tycoons among her fans, but no tycoon would go this far.

Xia Xibei was very emotional when she received such a gift.

Her life was completely different from her previous one.

After living such a miserable life in the previous one, she got back all the things that were missing in this life.

Thinking of this, she glanced at Qi Xin.

Qi Xin was still in a state of anger and irritation, her expression not properly contained, and she was seen by Xia Xibei.

No sooner had Qi Xin reacted than Xia Xibei's eyes shifted away.

She was flabbergasted. She couldn't have been mistaken just now, could she?

After getting the gift, Xia Xibei sat with the group for a while before returning to her room.

She had a room here long ago, where she could rest.

Qiao Yanjue wanted to follow her back, but was kept behind by Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao.

He gave Xia Xibei a look of "help," but Xia Xibei looked at him helplessly and ran away.

It was not clear what they discussed, but after they finished, Qiao Yanjue left.

After all, this was Qi's house. It was not as if he could follow Xia Xibei and live there.

It was not time for that yet!

The next day, Qiao Yanjue came to pick up Xia Xibei to go back to G City. She had to go back to rehearsal, and then the birthday party was about to start.

"What did my parents say to you yesterday?"

"Nothing," Qiao Yanjue shook his head. "Just a little word of warning."

Xia Xibei was speechless, then shrugged, "Okay."

Qiao Yanjue had a death stare, "Don't you feel sorry for me?"

"I am heartbroken for you!" Xia Xibei nodded. "But I trust you!"

She justified, "I believe that you will not do anything bad. Then, you will not have a problem. In that case, there's no need to be worried!"

She sounded so reasonable, he couldn't even refute it.

In the end, he could only ruffle her hair into a mess.

The two of them frolicked and soon arrived at the airport.

They went in separately and then got on the same plane.

The location was a bit distant.

Qiao Yanjue lamented, took out his phone, and sent a message, "Shouldn't we buy a plane?"

"Buy it." Xia Xibei swept him a glance. "Otherwise how can you be an all-powerful CEO?!"

Qiao Yanjue looked at her speechlessly.

However, this proposal was still very good.

He often flew around, and he needed a private plane.

Now that the Qiao family was developing better, it wasn't difficult to buy a plane, and it would be much more convenient than before.

Thinking of this, he took out his phone and asked his assistant to check out the situation.

The two of them were two seats apart, plus Xia Xibei kept a low profile all the way, and not many people recognized her.

Soon, the plane arrived back in G City.

Pan Yan was already waiting and picked her up. She rehearsed for half a day, and the next day it was time for the birthday party.

This time, the birthday party continued in the style of the last birthday party, but was also more lively than before.

Chapter 1647 - 1647 Birthday

1647 Birthday

This time, the birthday party was even bigger than before.

As early as half a month ago, the major fan groups started their support activities.

Everyone was competing with each other and wanted to make theirs the best, so as to attract Xia Xibei's attention.

However, Xia Xibei had long said that she didn't need to spend a lot of money on promotion. She preferred to show strong support with her own strength.

On her eighteenth birthday last year, she said that she hoped her fans would do well in their studies and work.

At that time, she gave away a lot of tickets for fans in a lottery, and fans had to have good grades or be hard-working to participate in the lottery.

At the birthday party, she urged everyone to study and work hard to make themselves better people.

This year had the same set-up.

After the birthday party was set, the company's official blog started a lottery retweeting campaign.

As long as you came up with good grades, you could participate in the ticket lottery.

This time, people were more cooperative.

After all, Xia Xibei was the top student in the college entrance exam!

The fans could not embarrass their idol!

Otherwise, people would say the fans were too pathetic for their idol and it would be humiliating.

Therefore, many fans were more serious than before to study and/or work.

It could be said that the idol's appeal was very strong.

Sometimes, fans would go crazy buying a product endorsed by their idol, and if their own idol performed well, it would also motivate the fans.

Xia Xibei had such outstanding test results, so naturally she motivated fans to work harder.

The tweet that was posted about the lottery was full of crazy scores from top students, and it also made the hot search several times.

After that, almost all the fans who came to the event were good students.

When the time came, Xia Xibei could pick them to go on stage and then ask about their scores!

If their grades were not good and their work was not good, then how embarrassing would it be when they introduced themselves?!

Although the probability of being picked to go on stage was not high, it was possible!

It would be a tragedy to have such a great opportunity fall out of the sky, only to end up screwing it up!

So, long before, everyone was working very hard to make sure Xia Xibei saw how good they were!

With this kind of atmosphere, the birthday party was a great success.

Xia Xibei was there, singing and playing games with everyone and having a great time.

The party lasted for three hours, during which she only stopped for a few sips of water and spent almost the rest of the time on stage.

The fans were finally satisfied.

After this birthday party, the next day, Xia Xibei flew back to the imperial capital.

This time, she was going to participate in the recording of a show.

This was a talent show called “Colorful Tomorrow.”

There were both male and female contestants, and whoever performed well would be able to debut.

Also, they could perform with the mentors in a concert or something like that.

So, even if people didn’t know who the mentors were yet, there were a lot of people who signed up during the previous auditions.

When the program team announced that Xia Xibei was a mentor, everyone was excited.

It was so surprising that Xia Xibei was going to be the mentor!

Since the beginning of this year, Xia Xibei had not been participating in any talent shows and was working abroad.

Now it was great that she was finally participating in a talent show!

The fans were excited to know that Xia Xibei was going to participate in this show and they were waiting to see her performance.

Some people said that Xia Xibei was too young to be a mentor. However, the person who said that got quickly rebutted by people.

Chapter 1648 - 1648 This Is Hilarious

1648 This Is Hilarious

With Xia Xibei's strength, why couldn't she be a mentor?

Xia Xibei hasn't participated in many programs, but her performance was very powerful, okay?

When she participated in an all-girl competition show before, she was indeed eliminated early. However, when she revealed her strength, it was really powerful!

Everyone knew that she was the true queen!

Moreover, the few members that were selected for this show didn't have much of a voice anymore.

After only a few months, they quickly fell apart and the group even broke up.

There was supposed to be a second season this year, but because of the bad start and the slap-back by Xia Xibei, it was a pretty ugly mess. They didn't dare to come back a second time.

The point was, the first season did not start well and they felt it was too unlucky.

So, people didn't sign up for it.

So now, the second season of this program was temporarily shelved.

People online knew that a big reason why the team couldn't do the second season was because of Xia Xibei.

Everyone was so embarrassed by the play she made at that time!

So, Xia Xibei was strong enough to be a mentor!

[If mentor selection was based on age, why don't you hire an old turtle? It has lived longer than you!]

This comment won many likes and support.

No matter where you were, you were always respected for your strength.

Even in the entertainment industry, Xia Xibei's achievements and strengths were already better than many others.

Just because she was not old, she couldn't be a mentor?!

Besides, she was superb, regardless of her book smarts or street smarts!

So, after some debate on this topic, it quickly sank.

Even haters of hers still recognized Xia Xibei's strength in this area.

When Xia Xibei arrived at the scene, the people here were very enthusiastic.

This time, the show's competition system was very simple. There were buttons in front of the mentor. If the contestant's performance was not good, they'd press the red button.

If the performance was good, they'd press the green button, which meant pass.

There were five mentors on the show, and if there were more than three red buttons, they would be eliminated.

If all the votes were green, then they would pass. If there were no votes at all, they would be pending.

After passing, the contestants could choose their favorite mentors and follow them.

This time there were four other judges besides Xia Xibei.

These four people were all artists who were well-known in the circle. Three men and two women, plus Xia Xibei.

They were all singers, or rather, artists who had released albums.

Their popularity may not be as high as Xia Xibei's, but it was not bad either, and they had a lot of fan support.

When Xia Xibei arrived backstage, she first met with these artists and exchanged pleasantries.

Xia Xibei's attitude had always been very humble, and these people naturally treated her well.

Who didn't know Xia Xibei was great?

The point was, she was also the number one actor in her company!

Now, the ST company was getting better and better, and as the top actor there, who dared to underestimate her?

Besides, the people who bullied her before were all beaten back in the end.

She also had so many fans. Who would cross her?

So, the crowd was very polite.

The scene was harmonious.

When the recording officially started, Xia Xibei froze for a moment.

She saw someone familiar on stage- Qi Yongjun's granddaughter, Lu Tianqi.

Apparently, Lu Tianqi also recognized her, and her expression was a bit complicated.

Xia Xibei met her eyes and then gave a meaningful smile.

This was hilarious.

Chapter 1649 - 1649 Pay Special Attention To

1649 Pay Special Attention To

The rules of this program were very common, which were to see the performance of the contestants. Then the mentor would comment and then choose the contestants to join their team and continue with the competition.

These contestants, in addition to some real amateurs, included many newcomers that the major companies were ready to launch.

If they didn't sign with a good company, it'd be hard to progress further. After all, no one would spend money to push contestants who didn't make money.

In any case, the contestants who came in after the auditions were quite good, at least in terms of their looks.

!!

As for talent, it depended on everyone's level.

Xia Xibei looked at two familiar faces among these contestants with a calm expression.

One of them was Lu Tianqi, and the other one was Meng Sushan, naturally.

Standing in the middle of so many people, Meng Sushan looked quite calm and composed.

Of course, whether she was really calm and whether she really had the ability all depended on her own performance.

Some of the other mentors were older than Xia Xibei, at least five or six years older.

It could be said that Xia Xibei was younger than many of the contestants on stage.

At her age, she should be a contestant, not a mentor.

However, her serious expression was enough to calm the contestants on stage.

She may be young, but she had a great aura!

Moreover, her popularity was very high and she had many fans, so naturally people would not underestimate her.

Those who were able to make a name for themselves in the industry were not ordinary people.

Soon, the recording began.

One by one, the contestants came on stage and showed their strengths.

In order to be able to stay, everyone was desperate to win.

When Meng Sushan came on stage, her performance was quite good.

Finally, with five green lights, she passed straight through.

Then, she chose Xia Xibei.

After a few more contestants, it was Lu Tianqi's turn.

At the sight of Lu Tianqi, the others couldn't help but talk amongst themselves.

"What, you guys know her?" Xia Xibei asked the mentor next to herself.

This mentor was called He Mingqiang, a singer who had acted in a few TV dramas before and performed well. He had many fans.

He was also a singer and dancer, with good strength.

"She's an artist from Flying Saucer," He Mingqiang said.

"The Flying Saucer company?" Xia Xibei suddenly understood.

The Flying Saucer Company was also a large talent agency, a little bit bigger than ST.

Moreover, there were quite a few famous entertainers in the entertainment industry there.

So Lu Tianqi was an artist of Flying Saucer?

It was the first time Xia Xibei knew this.

“She has to stay,” He Mingqiang said.

Xia Xibei looked at the paper in front of her, and it was especially marked with the contestants who were to be kept.

These were the people who wanted more attention from their mentors.

Xia Xibei raised her eyebrows and didn’t say anything.

This was also an unspoken rule of the industry; everyone would cooperate a little.

Unless the other party was really bad, then they would do a favor and let the person pass.

Xia Xibei had no intention to confront other companies. After all, there was no need to make enemies with each other.

Even if Lu Tianqi’s relationship with her was a bit delicate, she didn’t intend to do anything.

However, she didn't expect Lu Tianqi to behave in such a surprising way!

Lu Tianqi changed into an ancient costume with long sleeves, it looked like she should be doing a classical dance.

Other people usually did modern dance, jazz street dance, or something like that. When she looked like this, she was in contrast to others.

Xia Xibei was quite curious seeing her serious image.

However, Xia Xibei was dumbfounded once Lu Tianqi started dancing.

What kind of nonsense was this?

Did she know how to dance?

Chapter 1650 - 1650 What Level is This

1650 What Level is This

When Xia Xibei saw Lu Tianqi, she thought that her performance should be very good. After all, her family was so rich, so her talent was trained from childhood.

However, when the music started and Lu Tianqi jumped up, she was shocked.

She was dumbfounded!

What level was this?

She was here to make a scene, right?

Lu Tianqi danced a classical dance. The rhythm was relatively slow, but her gestures were quite graceful.

However, Lu Tianqi's movements... They were hard to describe.

It could be seen that she had studied dance and had a little dance training, but it was also evident that she hadn't danced for a long time.

Her movements were a bit stiff and she missed some of the beats.

If an ordinary person saw her, they wouldn't find it too problematic, and it was enough to fool the layman.

However, Xia Xibei was an insider!

She was stunned watching Lu Tianqi's movements,

How did someone of such a level... Come on the show?

Earlier, Meng Sushan had danced. Her performance was very good, with a good sense of rhythm and movement.

Of course, the reputation of ST company was a bonus here, which was why she passed unanimously.

However, Lu Tianqi's performance was not right!

If she was going to participate in the competition, she should have practiced, right?

However, her dance moves did not show her previous efforts.

It was more like she had learned to dance before she was ten years old, hadn't danced since then, and then picked it up again just two days ago.

Her body was still a bit stiff, and she couldn't even get her lower back fully in place.

Other dancers regularly stretched to make their flexibility better.

Otherwise, the dance would not be in place.

The problem was that Lu Tianqi's movements were so stiff that there was no sign that she had made any effort at all.

There were a few places where she stopped, as if she had forgotten to move.

Xia Xibei looked at the other mentors, and all of them looked a little bit confused.

However, they all gave green in the end.

Xia Xibei looked at their expressions and was speechless.

In the end, she didn't make a move.

No red light was given, and no green light was given.

In her opinion, this was the best rating she could give.

If she hadn't been told the name of Lu Tianqi's company, she might have just pressed the red.

Since she had no red light, Lu Tianqi ended up with a temporary pending decision.

If it were up to Xia Xibei, she would be eliminated straight away.

There were so many contestants here, and wasn't any one of them better than her?

Xia Xibei did this favor for Lu Tianqi because she was Qi Yongjiang's granddaughter.

Otherwise, she would have pressed red directly.

Obviously, Lu Tianqi did have any idea of her strength. The smile on her face disappeared as she looked at the light in front of Xia Xibei.

If not for the presence of the camera, her face might have looked even more unpleasant.

During the critique, the other instructors said that her dance was still beautiful, but there were just some areas that needed some practice.

This was a very polite way to put it.

When it was Xia Xibei's turn, her commentary was quite straightforward.

"I can see that you practiced very little. I hope you can work harder. This industry is not so easy."

It was not that harsh, Xia Xibei could have said a lot more, but apparently, Lu Tianqi could not stand such words.

Her eyes were moist.

It was as if Xia Xibei was bullying her.

Finally, she squeezed out a smile, "Thank you for the mentors' comments."

Of course, after the recording, she still went from pending to the next round.
