

Chapter 1661 - 1661 Resilience

1661 Resilience

Xia Xibei rested with this doubt in her mind.

When she got up the next day, she still hadn't received the news that Lu Tianqi had withdrawn from the competition.

She couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.

It seemed that Lu Tianqi was very resilient!

She originally thought that Lu Tianqi would choose to withdraw. After all, she was scolded terribly.

She didn't expect that Lu Tianqi would choose to stay, her strength of mind was outstanding.

In this regard, it seemed that Lu Tianqi was very suitable for the entertainment industry.

Anyone with a fragile psychological state would not be able to stay in this industry.

After all, some criticism was not well-intentioned, but malicious.

Even if you did a good job, there would be people who did not like you.

Of course, there were some professional haters here, who were being paid to demonize people.

So, if someone did not have enough resistance to pressure, she would not go far in this industry.

Xia Xibei did not expect Lu Tianqi to have such resistance to pressure.

Thinking of this, she smiled.

Anyway, what she should have said had already been said, so Lu Tianqi should not come back to trouble her.

As for Lu Tianqi still wanting to go on the show, then let her go on!

It was not like Xia Xibei would be the one who would be scolded when the time came.

When the show aired, Lu Tianqi would know that not everyone in this world coddled and held her up.

After understanding this point, Xia Xibei felt relieved.

When she got up, Pan Yan's call came.

Today, she had other work to do.

She had a lot of work to do before school started.

Pan Yan knew about Xia Xibei's life before, and he was stunned when he found out about it!

Xia Xibei's life was full of ups and downs! Just like a legendary story!

What was more amazing was that she was the daughter of the Qi family!

This was really awesome!

Pan Yan didn't know much about the Qi family, but he could look it up online!

Moreover, he also had his own connections, so he quickly figured out what the Qi family represented.

Then, he was stunned.

It turned out that Xia Xibei was the heiress of a rich family!

A very wealthy heiress!

So, after understanding Xia Xibei's identity, he became a lot more mellow.

For such a young lady, if she was not happy in the entertainment industry, she could go straight home to inherit the family business. It was better than hanging out here!

After thinking about this, he did not give Xia Xibei too many projects and was pickier about each job.

Those who did not have enough status were not worthy of Miss Qi!

This time, he helped Xia Xibei get a magazine cover shoot.

This was one of the top fashion magazines in Hua, and those who were on the cover were all famous actresses in the industry.

However, this was the first time that Xia Xibei was working with the other side.

It was not that they didn't invite her, but she just didn't have the time before.

Now that the overseas work was done, she could continue her domestic work.

In addition to the cover of this magazine, there were other magazine covers as well.

It could be said that Xia Xibei had to be very busy in the last few days before school started.

After two days of work, the second recording started again.

This time, Xia Xibei's comments were much harsher than before.

She didn't mince words, especially toward Lu Tianqi.

Lu Tianqi was a student of another mentor, but she also needed the comments of other mentors.

Among these mentors, Xia Xibei's comments were the most ferocious.

Lu Tianqi was crying after the competition.

When she returned, she couldn't help but cry to her grandfather again.

She cried so much that Qi Yongjiang's heart was breaking.

Chapter 1662 - 1662 Criticism

1662 Criticism

Since Lu Tianqi didn't quit, Xia Xibei didn't spare her criticism at all.

Of course, she didn't have a personal vendetta. After all, Lu Tianqi's level was poor and visible to the naked eye, so there was no need for her to criticize against her conscience.

As long as Lu Tianqi was playing normally, then she could criticize normally.

So, the other players noticed that Xia Xibei was not very nice to Lu Tianqi.

Although Xia Xibei was young, she did not act childish in any aspect.

On the contrary, her comments were very pertinent and to the point, and she never messed up.

If you thought about it carefully, you would see that the comments she gave were not unwarranted.

Due to this, her criticism of Lu Tianqi was particularly conspicuous.

Who let Lu Tianqi come in through the back door before?

Everyone could clearly see that her level was really not good.

It should be said that of all the contestants who made it to the second round, she was the worst.

Therefore, Xia Xibei's criticism was extra vicious.

This also shocked the other mentors.

Was this Xia Xibei's... Attempt to confront Flying Saucer?

They heard that Lu Tianqi was a big deal!

However, they didn't dare to say anything.

Moreover, they also had their own thoughts in mind.

If Xia Xibei offended the big guy behind Lu Tianqi and was targeted, wouldn't they have more room to grow?

So, with this hidden idea in mind, they didn't go against Xia Xibei and just watched her criticize Lu Tianqi from beginning to end.

They waited for a long time to see Xia Xibei getting in trouble, but they didn't see any movement from the Flying Saucer Company.

It was as if they were afraid of Xia Xibei.

This made several mentors feel very complicated.

They didn't know whether it was because they had missed out on a good show or because Xia Xibei also had a strong enough background.

There were various thoughts in everyone's mind, but it was not good to say them directly.

However, how could Xia Xibei not know what they were thinking?

She just didn't need to worry about that.

If Lu Tianqi could brazenly continue to stick around, would she dare to refute her comments?

She could! She could fight back with her performance!

After that, whenever Xia Xibei saw Qi Yongjiang, that old man treated her with a vicious expression.

However, she didn't care about this matter at all.

Her focus now was on school admission.

In a flash, it was September.

She was a freshman at Imperial University!

Although at her level, she no longer needed to go to college, having a degree was a very good bargaining chip in the circle.

Most importantly, this was her obsession in the first place.

In her previous life, she dropped out of school in her second year of high school, and after that, there was no chance of a college entrance exam.

After struggling in society for a while, she no longer had the strength to return to campus.

This time, she was going to fix her regrets of that year.

Although she may not have much time to stay in school even if she went to college, she was a college student!

On the day of the freshman's arrival on campus, there were many new faces outside Imperial University.

These people were all here for Xia Xibei.

Many of them were students from other schools, but they were waiting to see Xia Xibei in person!

However, no one knew that while everyone was waiting anxiously outside to meet Xia Xibei, she was already sitting in front of the president of the university.

She had come to ask the president to “open the back door.”

Chapter 1663 - 1663 Go Through the Back Door

1663 Go Through the Back Door

Xia Xibei came over this time, wanting to “go through the back door.”

Although she got into Imperial University, in her case, she must be running around during the week, so naturally, she had to take time off.

She could not spend much time in school.

If it was in other schools, it would be common for students to skip classes.

However, the students of Imperial Capital University were different. The students here were very serious, and there were not many who skipped classes.

Moreover, the students here were all top scholars. When they gathered, naturally, they wanted to compete fiercely.

Under such circumstances, Xia Xibei couldn't be as lax as in other schools if she wanted to have a good time here.

However, Xia Xibei couldn't be present all the time.

So, she had to take a leave of absence.

In order to be approved every time she took a leave of absence, she had to apply to the president of the university.

The Imperial Capital University was very famous, even internationally.

Although it was not as good as an older university like CG University, it was certainly not bad either.

Every year there were many international exchange students who came over to study.

In this case, the students naturally worked harder.

In fact, there were many rich and powerful students at Imperial Capital University, but here, everyone was equal.

Here, there was no difference between high and low, only good and bad grades.

Even if you had money and power, if you made a mistake, you would still be punished.

So, even if you were a child of a rich family, you had to keep your tail between your legs and not let yourself be embarrassed here.

In this case, it was not so easy for Xia Xibei to take a leave of absence.

Therefore, she could only find the president to solve this matter.

In order to be able to take a leave of absence later on, the biggest boss had to be appeased.

The president, of course, knew Xia Xibei.

She was such a big star, and a provincial top student, so she would naturally attract attention.

The president had a good impression of Xia Xibei.

After all, there were not many stars with such good grades.

Such an academic star could bring a more positive influence on the children.

Moreover, the principal's family also had children who liked Xia Xibei, worshiped her as a goddess, and then followed her career.

His sister's child, now in her first year of high school, was studying very hard and said she wanted to meet Xia Xibei on her birthday the following year.

She wouldn't dare to go over there if her grades were bad.

So, of course, the principal was very pleased to see his own family's offspring working so hard because of Xia Xibei.

So, after meeting Xia Xibei, his attitude was very kind.

However, after hearing the reason for Xia Xibei's visit, he was a bit troubled.

"So you want to take leave often... This is not very good." The president pondered for a moment. "The school has to look at the usual attendance in addition to the grades..."

Although some talented students were not suitable for this style, the university could be a little flexible.

However, it was not good to start this with something like frequent leave.

"I believe that the university must have a way to solve it," Xia Xibei smiled.

“Yes, there is a way to solve it,” the president nodded, “But, your situation ...”

This was a university with a strong academic atmosphere, which valued academic achievements above all else.

If Xia Xibei was doing some research or something similar to take a leave, then naturally she would be encouraged.

However, she was now taking time off to attend business events that were purely for her own career, which was not good.

It was okay to take off one or two times, one or two days, but it seemed she wanted to take a long-term leave, which was not good.

If this precedent was started, it would be a problem.

Chapter 1664 - 1664 Approved Leave

1664 Approved Leave

Xia Xibei looked at the president with a serious face, “Don’t worry, when I came here, I also made preparations.”

Preparations?

The president froze for a moment and looked at her movements in confusion.

Then, he saw Xia Xibei pull out a pile of documents from her bag.

!!

“What..”

“Please take a look,” Xia Xibei handed the stuff over.

The president took it in bewilderment and looked down at it.

When he read the contents clearly, he was stunned.

What?!

Anti-cancer drug?

This was a joke, right?

“You’re...”

He looked at Xia Xibei with disbelief.

Xia Xibei smiled, "This is the drug I developed before, now it has been verified by the professors of the medical department of CG University in M and others. Moreover, it has been filed in M now, and is just waiting to be launched..."

The president felt his ears buzzing and was a little confused. Was he dreaming?

Xia Xibei was using simple words, but even if it was easy, it was a little difficult for him to understand for a while.

What was this... Situation?

She had developed an anti-cancer drug, and now it was in the final stage of distribution?!

What a joke!

How old was she?

And she was a big star, usually running around. How did she have time to do these things?

Could she be joking with him about this kind of thing?

Or she wanted to use these inexplicable things to fool him so that he could grant her leave.

The president's mind was surging with all kinds of thoughts, all overshadowing the shocking news of this drug.

"Oh yes, I have also submitted an application to our country, and it should be approved soon."

The president froze for a moment before his eyes widened, "Really?!"

"Of course," Xia Xibei nodded, "I've already submitted this drug to the relevant departments, and the results will be out soon."

In fact, Xia Xibei had previously contacted the domestic agencies through Qi Zhi'an's connections.

This was a drug that benefited the country and the people, so she also got in touch with the big boss above.

The big boss knew that she had this drug in her hands, so naturally there was no problem, and he immediately made the research department below study whether this drug was really so effective.

If this drug was really effective, it would be crazy news to the world!

Based on the timeline, the results would be available in another month at most.

So, Xia Xibei used it to make the president open the back door.

If the president only learned about it in the media, he would definitely be shocked.

It was better to make him have some mental preparation now.

Of course, Xia Xibei wanted to settle her own affairs at this time.

The Imperial Capital University had stipulated that freshmen must live in the school, and there would be teachers patrolling every night.

No matter how rich you were, as long as you attended Imperial University, you had to obey the rules here.

Xia Xibei could have a place in the dormitory, and she was not short of money.

However, the teacher's patrol could not be avoided.

In order to avoid trouble later, she had to start from here.

The president was stunned by Xia Xibei's words.

After he figured out the situation, he had no second thoughts.

He granted her a leave of absence right away.

The back door was properly opened.

In the future, she could take leave whenever she wanted, as long as she came back!

After all, when the drug was released after a month, the world would be shaken by it!

Even if Xia Xibei only occupied a small place in the discovery, it would cause a sensation!

How could they miss such a talent?

Chapter 1665 - 1665 Roommate

1665 Roommate

After getting permission from the president, Xia Xibei left the president's office satisfied and went back to her dormitory.

The accommodations at Imperial Capital University were very good.

There were doubles and quadruples, all of which were very nice little apartments with all the equipment inside.

If you were rich, you could choose a double room.

If there were fewer students, you could pay more money and live in a double room by yourself.

Naturally, Xia Xibei chose a double room.

Unfortunately, there were too many students this year, so it was not possible to have a double room for one person.

However, this was not too much of a problem for Xia Xibei, as she would not be spending much time at school.

Even if she was at school, she could still commute to school.

It was natural to keep a place on campus because of the school's rules, and it was a little more convenient.

When she returned to her dorm room, there was already someone else inside.

When she saw her roommate, Xia Xibei couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.

She seemed... A bit familiar!

“Hello, you must be Xia Xibei! I’m your new roommate, and my name is Han Chuo!”

After the girl saw her, she immediately showed a bright smile and got a little excited.

After all, it was the first time she saw a big star so close up!

Han Chuo was the same age as Xia Xibei and also a beauty.

Of course, in front of Xia Xibei, this beauty was not enough.

After hearing Han Chuo’s introduction, Xia Xibei immediately understood.

Her last name was Han!

The Han family!

However, was she from that Han family?

“Hello.” Xia Xibei smiled at her, very friendly. “Do you know Han Hui?”

“Han Hui?” Han Chuo froze for a moment and thought. “That name sounds a bit familiar.

“Oh yes! She’s my cousin!” Han Chuo finally remembered.

“Your cousin?”

“Yeah,” Han Chuo nodded, her little round face full of energy. “We rarely see each other, because we do not live too close to each other. We usually see each other less.”

Xia Xibei understood that Han Chuo was not close to Han Hui’s family.

“Do you have a brother?” she asked again.

“How do you know I have a brother?” Han Chuo’s eyes widened. “I do have a brother named Han Rui!”

Sure enough!

Xia Xibei suddenly realized.

She knew the girl looked familiar!

She had seen a photo of Qiao Yanjue’s cousins together on his phone.

Han Rui was in it.

Han Rui was a soldier, so his temperament was different from others.

He was also good-looking, but his temperament was a bit cold and hard, with the military's heroism and hardness.

While Han Chuo was a girl with a delicate and lively look, she was not the same as Han Rui.

However, the two were brother and sister, so their features looked a bit similar.

That was why Xia Xibei thought Han Chuo looked a little familiar.

"So you're Han Rui's sister!"

"You know my brother?" Han Chuo was surprised. "My brother is rarely at home. He knows you?"

Who was Xia Xibei? She was a big star!

She was such a big star, there were a lot of people who knew her.

However, Xia Xibei actually knew them. This was completely different.

“You know Qiao Yanjue, right?”

“Brother Qiao?” Han Chuo was even more surprised. “Of course, I know him! They’ve been playing together since they were kids. I’ve been running behind them since I was a kid. I know them!”

Han Chuo looked at Xia Xibei up and down, and then it dawned on her.

“You’re Brother Qiao’s girlfriend, right?”

Her voice was a little loud, and Xia Xibei was startled and her face changed slightly.

Chapter 1666 - 1666 Used to be Mean

1666 Used to be Mean

Xia Xibei did not expect Han Chuo to guess her relationship with Qiao Yanjue and was startled.

Luckily, the room door was closed so that no one could hear it.

After Han Chuo shouted, she also realized that she had overreacted and reflexively looked back at the closed door, then breathed a sigh of relief.

Then, she whispered to Xia Xibei, "Don't worry, I didn't tell anyone."

!!

Seeing her like this, Xia Xibei relaxed.

It seemed that the girl was not the kind who made trouble.

"But how did you know that?"

"My brother said so," Han Chuo said. "My brother rarely comes back home, however, he will occasionally call home. He told me before that Brother Qiao has a girlfriend. So when you said that today, I immediately reacted."

She looked Xia Xibei up and down with a puzzled look, "But how did you get together with Brother Qiao?"

"Why? Is he bad?" Xia Xibei asked with a smile.

"It's not that he's bad." Han Chuo hurriedly shook her head. "It's just... His personality... Who can stand it?!"

Just after saying this, she thought, Xia Xibei must be able to stand his nature.

"I'm not bad-mouthing him! Just that... I've really never seen him in love before!"

“Oh? What was he like before?” Xia Xibei asked.

“Brother Qiao is very good indeed!” Han Chuo first confirmed and only then continued, “But he... he’s so indifferent to all the girls close to him and doesn’t smile. He makes them panic.”

Thinking of Qiao Yanjue’s behavior back then, Han Chuo couldn’t help but shake her head.

“To be honest, I liked him when I was a kid,” Han Chuo said. “But after I saw how he rejected other girls, I immediately understood that we weren’t on the same page.”

Han Chuo’s scared look made Xia Xibei laugh, “Was he mean?”

“Very!” Han Chuo patted her chest and said, “When he was a teenager, he was especially fierce!”

At that time, she was not yet ten years old, still a child.

Children, too, liked handsome older brothers.

However, they had to be gentle and handsome brothers!

Back then, Qiao Yanjue was ferocious!

Maybe it was middle school, but Qiao Yanjue never had a good attitude toward anyone. He was rather vicious.

There were many girls who professed love to him before, but they were all rejected. His rejection was not at all concerned about letting them down easily.

“I can say that, if not for his family’s money, he may have been attacked!”

As a child, Han Chuo saw how Qiao Yanjue ferociously rejected others, and any ideas she had about him were extinguished.

After that, she entered her teenage years while Qiao Yanjue went to college, and their interactions became even less frequent and naturally faded.

Han Chuo’s explanation made Xia Xibei laugh.

She really didn’t know the Qiao Yanjue of the past was like this.

However, when she first met Qiao Yanjue, he did act like this too.

When facing other girls, he was still as cold as ever.

However, no matter how cold and vicious he was to others, what was certain was that he was good to her.

“I really didn’t expect that he had found you as his girlfriend!” Han Chuo continued to exclaim, “But you guys really look good together!”

“Thanks,” Xia Xibei laughed, “But I have to trouble you to keep it a secret.”

“Don’t worry! No problem!” Han Chuo immediately nodded. “I’m not the gossiping type!”

Chapter 1667 - 1667 Good Roommate

1667 Good Roommate

In a short while, Han Chuo and Xia Xibei got to know each other well.

Xia Xibei found that Han Chuo, a young woman, had not encountered any troublesome things since she was a child, so her personality was still very lively.

Such a lovely and cheerful personality was really pleasant.

The most important thing was that, although she talked a lot, she was also very sensible.

The two of them lived in the same dorm room, and there was a lot of space inside, but she had deliberately set aside a personal area.

Xia Xibei was also very happy with this approach.

She liked friends who had a sense of boundaries.

If there were no boundaries, it would be very tiring to get along.

Han Chuo was Han Rui's sister, and Han Rui was one of Qiao Yanjue's best friends, so because of this relationship, the two of them were naturally closer.

Han Chuo was from the Imperial Capital, so this time she came here on her own, without having to be accompanied by her parents.

Although she was from a wealthy family, she was obviously very capable of doing things herself and taking care of herself.

After the two of them cleaned up a bit, it was time for dinner.

Han Chuo first took out her cell phone and browsed online, then she was surprised, "Beibei, there are so many people waiting for you outside!"

Only now did she realize that Xia Xibei was a big star!

Originally, she remembered Xia Xibei's identity, but Xia Xibei's personality was too good. She could pick up anything she said and was not at all impatient or snobbish.

In this case, she forgot that Xia Xibei was a big star.

In Han Chuo's opinion, many big stars looked gentle on screen, but their attitude was different when you really dealt with them.

It was the easiest to see each other's character in private.

She didn't expect Xia Xibei to be so gentle and relatable.

So, she forgot that Xia Xibei was still a celebrity and a bunch of people outside were there for her!

"If I go out with you, I'm sure I'll be mobbed too!" Han Chuo tsked and lamented. "Luckily, I'm not ugly either. Otherwise, I'll definitely be ridiculed then!"

"No, we can't go out together often, or else, people might say I'm riding on your coattails!"

Xia Xibei has not spoken, but she kept talking.

"Wait! It's nice to have coattails to ride on!"

Listening to her nonsense, Xia Xibei could not help but laugh.

This girl was a chatterbox!

“Well, let’s just go eat!”

After talking a lot, Han Chuo finally made a decision and looked at Xia Xibei with shining eyes.

“If you don’t mind, that’s no problem,” Xia Xibei nodded her head.

Although she didn’t care about being surrounded by people, it would affect other students.

She didn’t care about her grades, but other people went to college to study.

If they were disturbed because of her, it would be bad for them.

“Eating out? Yes!” Han Chuo nodded. “I’ll treat you!”

“No, I’ll treat you.”

Han Chuo thought about it and nodded, “Okay then, you treat me this time, and I’ll treat you next time!”

“Okay.”

“But... How are you going to get out?” Han Chuo was curious.

There were still so many people in the university. If Xia Xibei went out, it would be easy to be surrounded.

Then, how else would they leave?

“You go out first, and I’ll follow.”

Xia Xibei smiled.

Han Chuo clapped her hands and said, “Oh! I see, you must have your own way of disguising yourself!”

“Hmm...” Xia Xibei didn’t deny it either.

“Okay then, I’ll wait for you outside.”

Chapter 1668 - 1668 Making Friends

1668 Making Friends

Han Chuo soon arrived at the designated place, and after waiting for a while, she saw a girl walk in.

Although the girl looked unfamiliar, she knew that it was Xia Xibei.

When she went up to take a look, she was even more shocked.

Xia Xibei's disguise skill was really very powerful!

Obviously, she was still the same person. Her features had not changed much, but her temperament had changed a lot, and she was not the same as before.

The previous Xia Xibei was very superstar-like and very imposing.

Now, she looked very ordinary. She would not make people want to take a second look.

This was awesome!

Han Chuo whispered in awe, "You're too good! How did you do it?"

With a skill like that, she wouldn't be noticed!

It was so much easier to go out during the day.

Xia Xibei smiled and took a patch off her face, and then Han Chuo was even more amazed.

“Wow! What is this? So incredible?!”

“This is my disguise prop.”

Xia Xibei handed it over with a smile.

In fact, it was just half of a skin mask.

After putting this half mask on her face, a little change was noticed in her facial features.

Although it was not a big piece of disguise, she looked much worse in general. Combined with the changes she had made to her own aura, it made her look a lot worse.

Han Chuo looked at the piece back and forth several times and was stunned.

“That’s amazing! Where did this come from?”

Xia Xibei smiled and said, "A friend gave it to me."

"That's great!" Han Chuo exclaimed, not overthinking it. She returned the item.

Han Chuo had already ordered the food. Xia Xibei had told her about her eating habits before she left.

While waiting for the food to come up, Xia Xibei suddenly asked, "By the way, I have a friend. Can I ask her to come over?"

"A friend?" Han Chuo flinched for a moment and immediately nodded. "Of course!"

"Okay then, I'll have her come over now. She's at the university near here."

Xia Xibei immediately took out her cell phone and called Song Jiaren. The university Song Jiaren attended was near this restaurant.

Xia Xibei knew that if she dared not call Song Jiaren, she would be scolded to death if she was found out afterward.

After receiving the call, Song Jiaren immediately agreed.

"I was getting ready to eat! Wait for me!"

In just ten minutes, Song Jiaren arrived.

Looking at the private room with an unfamiliar girl, Song Jiaren was very curious.

“She is...”

“She is my roommate, her name is Han Chuo.” Xia Xibei introduced the two of them. “This is my good friend, Song Jiaren.”

“Hello.”

“Hello!”

They greeted each other warmly.

With Xia Xibei in the room as a buffer, and both of them being cheerful people, they soon got along well.

Han Chuo even wanted to order a bottle of wine to celebrate.

However, she was only thinking about it, as Xia Xibei was not comfortable with drinking.

Song Jiaren and Han Chuo were both cheerful and gregarious people, and with the two of them around, there was no need to worry about a stiff atmosphere.

Han Chuo also learned a lot about Xia Xibei through her interaction with Song Jiaren.

“So you’re even more impressive than I thought!” Han Chuo looked at Xia Xibei with admiration. “This is the first time I heard that Jiabei Sweet is owned by you!”

Song Jiaren had just spilled the beans on this matter.

“Of course! It’s all Beibei’s recipe!” Song Jiaren boasted proudly.

Now there were branches of Jiabei Sweet in every city in the country, and they were booming.

Chapter 1669 - 1669 Argument

1669 Argument

Jiabei Sweet, the business, was opened by Xia Xibei and Song Jiaren during their sophomore year of high school.

Over the past year, Jiabei Sweet has long had branches in various cities across the country.

Since they did not accept franchises and were directly operated, they could guarantee that the recipes and flavors would not change.

Now the store had many varieties of their two main products.

One was a milk tea that would not make you fat, and the other was a milk tea that could help you lose weight the more you drank it.

Of course, the price of these two was not cheap.

However, they both tasted very good, which was why more and more people were buying them.

This led to more and more branches of Jiabei Sweet and more assets for Song Jiaren and Xia Xibei.

Although Song Jiaren was not short of money, it was her own property.

As for Xia Xibei, she was also taking a share of the profits too.

"I have a drink almost every day!" Han Chuo was a bit excited. "I also own a small bookstore, which sells milk tea, but I usually drink milk tea from your store."

Here, she was a little embarrassed.

After all, she was the owner of the store, but if she drank milk tea from someone else's store, how disgraceful would it be to her own business?!

“In order to keep the customers and staff from finding out, I put the milk tea in a thermos.”

Her approach made Song Jiaren laugh, “That’s a clever way to do it!”

Han Chuo was embarrassed, “I can’t help it, I’m the boss!”

Since she said these things about herself, Han Chuo and the two of them became a lot closer than before.

Although it was the first time they met, they had the same aura and knew the other was a cool person, so they quickly got to talking.

After chatting with Han Chuo for a while, Song Jiaren was also very happy.

She was studying in the Imperial Capital, and of course she wanted to meet more people.

She hadn’t made many friends at school yet, but Han Chuo was very nice.

The three of them had a great time eating and talking.

However, Song Jiaren felt a bit sad.

It would have been better if Tang Luo was here.

Unfortunately, Tang Luo was out of the country and would not be back for at least a year.

Otherwise, they would have had company.

When they had almost finished eating, Han Chuo wanted to go out for a bathroom break.

However, they waited in the room for a while, but Han Chuo didn't come back.

They thought it was strange, so they came out to look for her.

Soon, they were hearing an argument not far away.

Xia Xibei walked over with Song Jiaren and was a little surprised to see a few people there.

Among these people, there were also some acquaintances!

One of them was Qi Xin, who had been quiet lately.

In addition to Qi Xin, there was also Lu Tianqi and two beautiful girls.

The girls were all very distinguished, and their dresses were very sophisticated, so it was obvious they were rich girls.

They were arguing here and attracted the attention of others.

Han Chuo obviously still had some sense. "Forget it, I'm not going to argue with you guys. Get out of the way!"

However, while she wanted to leave, the others didn't want her to leave.

"That's easy for you to say! If it wasn't for you, how could I have gotten into this mess? You have to pay for my clothes first!"

"No way!" Han Chuo was annoyed. "It's obvious that you ran into me! Why should I pay for it?"

"You did it! You pay for it!"

The girl who was arguing with Han Chuo wouldn't let it go.

"What's going on?"

As the girls were arguing more and more, Xia Xibei walked up.

Several people turned their heads to look and then froze for a moment.

Lu Tianqi and Qi Xin, in particular, were surprised.

“Why are you here?!”

1670 Pay for My Clothes

Xia Xibei looked at the girls, looked around at the customers who kept looking this way and sneered, “You want to make more noise here so you can attract more attention, right?”

Song Jiaren also frowned and said, “Even if you wanted to attract attention, you don’t have to do it here!”

She looked around, “Are you guys trying to become internet celebrities through this?”

These girls were beautiful and youthful. They shone in the crowd, easily attracting the attention of others.

In this case, if their argument was put online, it would be a proper internet sensation.

The girls looked around and finally reacted to where they were.

Arguing here would only make people look at them funny.

“Go back to the private room.”

Xia Xibei turned around directly and took the lead to leave.

Han Chuo quickly followed.

The girls looked at each other, hesitated, and followed.

On the way back, Xia Xibei asked what had happened.

Han Chuo was angry, “I just came out to use the bathroom, and when I came back, she bumped into me from the front, and then her lipstick got on her! She said it was my fault and asked me to pay for her clothes!”

Han Chuo was very angry about the incident.

It wasn't that she couldn't afford to pay for the dress, but it wasn't her fault!

Besides, she had a grudge against that girl, so naturally she couldn't have agreed that easily.

“Who is she?”

Xia Xibei looked back at the girl with the lipstick mark on her body.

“Her name is Yang Shu. We used to be classmates.”

Xia Xibei immediately understood.

There was a grudge there. No wonder.

As they talked, the group quickly returned to the private room.

“All right, there is no one else here. Hurry up and pay for my clothes!” Yang Shu was very annoyed and shouted at Han Chuo.

“It’s none of my business!” Han Chuo yelled at her in annoyance. “It’s your own problem, you fix it!”

“If it wasn’t for you, would my clothes have gotten like this?!”

Yang Shu was also angry, pointing at the clothes she was wearing and cursing.

It wasn't that Yang Shu couldn't afford the clothes; she was just angry at Han Chuo's attitude.

It was not a big deal, but because the two of them didn't give in to each other, it escalated.

"What's wrong with you? Who walks and puts on lipstick at the same time?"

"I just like it, so what? Who told you to get in my way!"

Yang Shu was not willing to give up either.

Looking at the two of them fighting like chickens, Xia Xibei was speechless.

It didn't sound like a big deal, but it had to be like this.

"Anyway, pay me back for the clothes!" Yang Shu finally said.

This was a matter of who had the upper hand and no one wanted to give up.

"Pay you? Pfft!" Han Chuo spat at her.

Yang Shu was so angry by her action that she jumped to her feet. "Do you want to fight?"

“We can fight if you want. Do you think I’m afraid of you?!”

Looking at the two of them about to fight, Xia Xibei was speechless.

“Okay, I’ll help her pay you.”

“No way!” Han Chuo immediately vetoed the idea.

Xia Xibei and she were on the same side, and if she paid for it, it would be the same as her paying for it.

That way, she would be the underdog!

“No way!” Yang Shu also refused.

She wanted Han Chuo’s concession, not Xia Xibei’s help!

That would mean something different!

“All right!”

Seeing that they were about to argue again, Xia Xibei interrupted them in a cold voice, “It’s decided. You don’t want to go, but I have things to do!”

She looked at Qi Xin and Lu Tianqi standing behind her.

“What do you think?”
