

Chapter 1671 - 1671 Fighting Over a Guy

1671 Fighting Over a Guy

After being looked at by Xia Xibei, Lu Tianqi, and Qi Xin frowned for a moment.

“Yang Shu, come on. Let’s leave it at that!”

They finally walked out and persuaded Yang Shu.

Was it necessary to be here for so long over such a small matter?

!!

If they kept arguing like this, there would be no result.

Instead of wasting time on these things, it would be better to just settle it!

Yang Shu was still reluctant to give up, but she stopped when the other girl whispered something in her ear.

She gave Han Chuo a look, then grunted and said with a great deal of mercy, “Fine, so be it! Count your blessings today!”

“My blessings?” Han Chuo grunted. “It’s called bad luck in eight lifetimes to meet you!”

The two of them looked at each other, then snorted in unison and turned their heads away.

If it weren’t for Xia Xibei and the girls here, they would have fought.

The way they were fighting, it was clear that this had happened many times.

Before leaving, Yang Shu gave Han Chuo a look and grunted in triumph, “I’m going to go ask Brother Guanlin to dinner!”

This comment managed to make Han Chuo’s face change.

Han Chuo bit her lip and gave the girl beside Yang Shu a very indignant look.

Watching Yang Shu leave like a victorious rooster, Han Chuo was getting pissed off.

Only when they were gone did she sit down in her chair as if she had lost the battle.

“Who is Brother Guanlin?” Song Jiaren asked curiously.

“It’s that Gu Fangyue’s cousin from earlier, Gu Guanlin,” Han Chuo was a bit demoralized, “And he’s someone I like.”

“Oh...” Song Jiaren finally understood.

No wonder Han Chuo and Yang Shu were fighting like chickens. It was over a man!

She shook her head with a tsk, “Is that guy that amazing? Do you need to fight like this?”

“Brother Guanlin is incredible!” Han Chuo immediately spoke up for Gu Guanlin.

“Incredible? How is that?” Song Jiaren asked.

“He is the heir of the Gu family and is exceptionally capable! He’s handsome and gentle in character...”

Speaking of her male god, Han Chuo cast away her previous ferociousness and became shy.

To her, her own male god was really too good.

Looking at her eyes shining, the corner of Song Jiaren’s mouth twitched.

Was she crazy?

“Then who does he like? You or that Yang Shu?”

“Um...” The light in Han Chuo’s eyes suddenly went out. “I don’t know who he likes. Maybe he likes Yang Shu’s cousin.”

“Hmm?” Song Jiaren was surprised. “That means you guys have been arguing here for so long, but the male god already has someone in his heart?”

The corner of her mouth twitched. She thought that they were fighting like this because Brother Guanlin didn’t have a sweetheart, so they were scrambling for qualifications.

Little did she know that he already liked someone!

It was so funny.

Wasn’t this a waste of time?

Talking about it, Han Chuo also felt a little childish and ridiculous about what she did.

“What is the name of Yang Shu’s cousin... The one that you mentioned?” Xia Xibei suddenly asked.

“Yang Mo.”

Han Chuo said immediately.

Sure enough!

Xia Xibei nodded her head in a daze.

Sure enough, they were all children of the Yang family.

Xia Xibei also remembered the situation of Gu Yinglei before.

Gu Yinglei was cured by Yang Mo.

Yang Mo and Gu Guanlin had a great relationship, which was why she helped out.

Xia Xibei knew that she would definitely face the other families when she returned to the imperial capital, but she didn't expect to meet so many people from other families on the first day of college.

Sure enough, everyone was from the same circle.

Chapter 1672 - 1672 Substituted

1672 Substituted

On the night of her return, Xia Xibei's previously recorded episode of "Colorful Tomorrow" officially went on air.

This episode has been recorded twice, and it would be broadcasted in several phases.

After editing, all that would be shown were the outstanding performances of the contestants.

Even if they didn't perform well, they would be edited well at the end.

!!

So, in this episode, Lu Tianqi did a great job.

As Xia Xibei expected, Lu Tianqi's performance was well-edited.

That was not a problem.

The problem was that Xia Xibei found out that the show had done something even better- – they had edited the comments she gave to the others onto Lu Tianqi!

In other words, Xia Xibei's comments about others became her comments about Lu Tianqi!

After all, her previous comment to Lu Tianqi was just one sentence, and it wasn't too good.

How could such a comment appear in the show? Besides, Lu Tianqi couldn't be judged like that!

There were other contestants on the show who did very well, and Xia Xibei was naturally not shy about praising them.

So, the program team just moved the comments she gave to the others to Lu Tianqi's segment.

Everyone knew that this kind of manipulation was normal. After all, the right to edit was in the hands of the program team, and they could do whatever they wanted to do.

Xia Xibei was very upset about it.

Although she knew the operation of the program team, wasn't such an operation too rude?

However, thinking about her relationship with the show, she put up with it.

There was no need to fall out with the show over this little thing.

Moreover, Lu Tianqi was not very popular and many viewers were here for Xia Xibei.

In this case, if she had a falling out with the show, she would be giving Lu Tianqi popularity instead!

Xia Xibei's popularity was so high, it would be bad if she was scammed by Lu Tianqi!

As long as she didn't say anything, Lu Tianqi's side shouldn't be able to start anything.

Therefore, she did not make a move.

She did not expect that while she did not act, Lu Tianqi's side was not willing to be idle.

Soon, Xia Xibei received a call from Song Jiaren.

"Beibei, is that Lu Tianqi plotting something against you?"

Lu Tianqi was in the other group during the argument, so of course, Song Jiaren had an impression of her.

After the program started, she naturally recognized Lu Tianqi.

Although she felt that Lu Tianqi's dancing was a bit strange, Lu Tianqi finally advanced to the next level, so she should be considered decent.

This was nothing, but when Song Jiaren finished watching the show and went online, she was livid.

There was already a press release on the Internet that started to blow up about Lu Tianqi's excellent performance.

Well, such a press release was typical.

Usually, when some actresses attended various award ceremonies they would put out a press release to “outshine” other actresses.

It was normal for Lu Tianqi to do this. After all, she had money!

Song Jiaren could see that those girls today were rich people, so it was normal to pay for the press.

However, the press release brought Xia Xibei into the picture and said that Xia Xibei was very appreciative of her, and had a sense of why she needed to be here when Lu Tianqi was better.

What?

Who was better than whom?!

What the hell?

Was she stepping on Xia Xibei to get to the top?

Based on what?

How dare a first-time actress be so arrogant?

Xia Xibei's other fans were a little annoyed to see this, but they didn't make a fuss. After all, it was not good to give Lu Tianqi too much attention.

Still, Song Jiaren keenly noticed that something was wrong here and immediately called Xia Xibei.

Chapter 1673 - 1673 Faking

1673 Faking

Song Jiaren had been in fan circles for so long, and her sensitivity was not low.

When they had just quarreled with the small group Lu Tianqi was in, Xia Xibei didn't look like she had made up with them.

In this case, Xia Xibei and Lu Tianqi were definitely not good friends.

Then, for the other side to use Xia Xibei like this, there was something wrong.

So, she immediately called Xia Xibei.

After receiving the call, Xia Xibei was also a little surprised.

She originally thought that editing the show was still a normal thing to do.

However, she did not expect that Lu Tianqi's side would use her to promote herself.

Ohhhh...

Did they get too full of themselves?

Xia Xibei did not argue with the program team. It wasn't that she wasn't angry, but she didn't think it was necessary.

However, she did not have a good attitude toward Lu Tianqi.

Who would have thought that under such circumstances, Lu Tianqi had made things happen for herself?

If she didn't get angry, would Lu Tianqi think she could be easily bullied?

Xia Xibei originally thought that if Lu Tianqi was peaceful, she would not say anything.

Who would have thought that Lu Tianqi was really so restless?

Therefore, Xia Xibei replied directly to Song Jiaren, “I really don’t get along with her. Don’t worry, I will make a move. You don’t need to rush into anything. I will give you an update.”

Once these words came out, Song Jiaren immediately perked up.

She understood what Xia Xibei meant!

She would make a move on Lu Tianqi!

She knew it!

Lu Tianqi was not a good person!

Although she didn’t know what kind of grudge there was between Xia Xibei and Lu Tianqi, if Lu Tianqi was trashing Xia Xibei like this, and if she didn’t do something about it, wouldn’t she be treated as an easy victim? Then wouldn’t she be bullied even worse?

After hanging up the phone, Xia Xibei went online to check on Lu Tianqi’s situation.

Then, she was surprised to find that Lu Tianqi was really not subtle at all!

The paid commenters on her side were really powerful.

The show had only aired its first episode, but the followers of her blog account had increased by more than 100,000.

This speed was faster than the speed of those D-list stars trying to grow fans!

There were thousands of likes, comments, and retweets.

Although it was only a few thousand, with paid commenters everywhere, most second or third-tier stars would be considered growing more popular to have this many comments. After all, most people didn't comment on posts, just liked them.

When there were hundreds of thousands of retweets and comments or whatever, it was created by fans and mostly fishy.

If there were no paid commenters in Lu Tianqi's data, there would be no problem.

Moreover, such data also showed that she had the potential for development.

However, in Xia Xibei's opinion, this was an army of paid commenters.

Although some accounts looked normal, not like fake accounts, how could Lu Tianqi have so many followers so quickly?

She did not believe that Lu Tianqi had such ability. Even if the program team's editing was powerful, it could not achieve such an effect.

Xia Xibei also found that under some of the articles mentioning her, there were many comments from fans enthusiastically agreeing to praise Lu Tianqi.

This was ridiculous.

Xia Xibei had been on the scene for so long and was so popular. How could Lu Tianqi compare?

Even if she wanted to hype herself, she should follow the basic process and take one step at a time!

Xia Xibei looked at this media coverage, rolled her eyes, and called Pan Yan.

After she said a bunch of things, she hung up the phone and showed a slight smile.

Since she wanted to play, they'd play!

Chapter 1674 - 1674 No Resistance

1674 No Resistance

Looking at the comments made by the paid commenters, Lu Tianqi was a little nervous.

She looked at the middle-aged man beside her and hesitantly asked, “Is this... Really ok?”

Long before that, she joined the Flying Saucer Company.

The boss of the Flying Saucer Company had a relationship with the Lu family, and as one of the Lu family’s girls, she was certainly treated well.

Due to her status, the company had arranged an experienced agent for her and prepared various ways to make her popular.

This promotion was one of their plans.

In their plan, Lu Tianqi would first participate in the show “Colorful Tomorrow,” and then wait for the show to air before starting the hype.

There was so much room to operate here, and it was easy to get up.

They had long been accustomed to various means of promotion, so it couldn’t be easier to bring Lu Tianqi up.

This process required a little connection with other artists.

Xia Xibei, for example.

Their plan was to find an actress with comparable qualifications to Lu Tianqi for comparison.

This was what most often happened in the industry when you did a bundle promotion.

Once bundled with another star, one could attract the attention of more fans.

In the entertainment industry, you were not afraid of being criticized, only afraid of no one noticing you.

Being hated was also a kind of fame!

First, you had to have enough attention, after which you could have more popularity.

One's name would only appear in people's mouths often if they made a lot of noise, and then it would be easier to become famous.

So, their plan this time was to bundle Lu Tianqi and Xia Xibei together for comparison.

Xia Xibei had so many fans, and she could bring much more attention.

So, they sent a lot of press releases.

Of course, they did not dare to make too much noise. After all, she was Xia Xibei. Lu Tianqi and her ranking were still too low.

The bundle promotion provided a great benefit, but also a great disadvantage.

If one party was too strong and one party was too weak, it would be easy to backfire.

One side could easily be crushed by the other side if it was too weak.

Of course, Lu Tianqi didn't have to worry too much about this problem. After all, she was the main artist promoted by the company.

As long as Xia Xibei's side didn't act up, their side wouldn't have a problem.

The middle-aged man, the agent, said to Lu Tianqi with a smile, "Don't worry, it will be fine."

Lu Tianqi thought about the announcements she had just seen, and her cheeks heated up a bit.

Although she knew that the announcement was exaggerated, this was so over the top that she felt embarrassed.

This press release talked her up too much!

In the release, she turned into a once-in-a-century talent, just waiting to soar to the sky.

It was easy to make fun of such a bragging press release.

However, she had already prepared herself mentally. After all, to succeed, she had to endure some things that ordinary people could not endure.

Of course, the result obtained in the end would be wonderful.

“I’m just worried if Qi, Xia Xibei...”

“Don’t worry, she won’t say anything,” the agent shook his head and said with certainty. “We are just making a small play. Why would she open her mouth?”

As long as Xia Xibei did not talk, things would not be beyond their control.

As long as the main person didn’t come down, there would be no problem.

Even if there were fans who were angry, so what? Wasn’t this a normal operation in the industry?

When had the fans ever stopped arguing?

Every day they wanted to get other people killed!

Lu Tianqi nodded, but in her heart, she always felt something was wrong.

Xia Xibei... Really wouldn't resist?

Chapter 1675 - 1675 Bragging

1675 Bragging

As Lu Tianqi was distracted, things developed online just as they had planned.

Her manager arranged for more paid commentators to brag about her.

At the same time, they also had someone make a very beautiful short video and started to distribute it.

Lu Tianqi's period drama look was quite beautiful, and her face was pretty.

The entertainment industry, of course, valued the face.

So, many people were attracted by her face and vaguely had the intention to become her fans.

At the same time, the agent also sent out a press release, saying that Xia Xibei praised Lu Tianqi and felt that she would do a great job.

Moreover, she would probably be the winner of this show!

Some people were bragging about her, and others were praising her, which seemed very lively.

Xia Xibei's fans were really annoyed to watch all this.

What the hell was this?

When did Sister Bei say something like that?

How could Xia Xibei be so sure of who had the look of a champion?

It was obvious at first glance that it was all paid comments!

However, under the control of Song Jiaren and other leading fans, people did not say anything about this issue.

After all, this was all the bragging of those marketing accounts and other paid commentators online, and Lu Tianqi did not jump out to say anything.

When the central person didn't come out to speak, it seemed unstable for them to jump out and say anything.

Besides, they were representing Xia Xibei and didn't want to give Lu Tianqi that much attention!

They didn't have time to tear her up!

Was a contestant even worth their effort?

Tearing her up was still giving her attention!

However, the situation was getting out of hand.

They didn't say anything, but the commotion on Lu Tianqi's side was getting louder and louder.

Originally there were only a few fans jumping up and down, saying Lu Tianqi was the best in the world, incomparably beautiful, and other compliments.

This was quite normal.

In the mind of every fan, their own idol was the top beauty, the most outstanding, etc.

Other people, even if they thought the artist did not look that good, would not say such things to the fans. After all, they would be picking a fight.

However, they not only bragged about Lu Tianqi's beauty, they even used Xia Xibei for comparison!

They even said that Lu Tianqi looked better than Xia Xibei!

WTF!

Everyone was furious.

Xia Xibei's face was recognized as the best in the industry!

She was an ethereal being!

Her face simply made everyone envious and jealous!

Lu Tianqi also looked good. After all, her face was qualified to enter the entertainment industry.

The question was: was she qualified to be compared with Xia Xibei?

Xia Xibei had such a stunning face, could Lu Tianqi compare?

Although annoyed, with Song Jiaren and others controlling them, the fans put up with it.

Let Lu Tianqi brag about herself.

Anyway, when something was too exaggerated, it would fall apart on its own.

Any discerning eye could see the difference between Lu Tianqi and Xia Xibei's faces.

Even passersby could see the difference here.

They were waiting for Lu Tianqi to be ridiculed!

Yet, that was not all!

After comparing faces, Lu Tianqi's fans started to compare their capabilities.

They dug out Lu Tianqi's background.

Only then did people realize that Lu Tianqi was also a student at Imperial Capital University!

She was a sophomore, and she entered Imperial University with excellent grades.

In other words, she was also a top student!

Well, Xia Xibei was also a top student!

No, it seemed that the two of them were on a collision course.

Then, the fans exploded.

Lu Tianqi's people issued a press release boasting that she was the most powerful student goddess in the entertainment industry.

Chapter 1676 - 1676 Contrast

1676 Contrast

Those words provoked immediate anger in the public!

Although artists in the entertainment industry generally did not have many talents in their studies, there were some top scholars among them.

For example, Xia Xibei was the number one student in the college entrance examination this year!

The top student!

How was this freshly minted top student not as good as Lu Tianqi?

Lu Tianqi was also a student at Imperial Capital University, but even though she had good grades, she wasn't the top student in the entrance exam!

Was there any room for comparison between the two?

In fact, if you took a look at top students in the entertainment industry, it would not be a problem to put Lu Tianqi among the group. After all, Imperial Capital University was really renowned.

The ones who were able to go to Imperial Capital University were the best of the top scholars.

However, she couldn't belittle others even if she was great at school, especially if she wanted to tread on Xia Xibei!

How dare she say that Xia Xibei, the top student, was no match for her?!

Where did she get the nerve to say such a thing?

Even if you bragged, you had to follow common sense!

So, the fans couldn't hold back any longer and were outraged.

Before, they put up with the comparison of looks.

Now, Lu Tianqi's people continued to stomp on Xia Xibei! Did they think Xia Xibei didn't have any fans?

So, furious Xia Xibei fans started to attack those marketing accounts.

Xia Xibei's fans had already experienced all kinds of battles and naturally knew how to fight back.

They put various links under these marketing accounts, all with beautiful Xia Xibei pictures and college entrance exam results, as well as various news reports.

Others compared Xia Xibei with Lu Tianqi, from their appearance, then to their academic knowledge, and then everything else.

Just like the comparison between Xia Xibei and Xia Qinghan, they put the two together and posted a nine-picture collage.

The nine pictures were full of various comparisons, which were incredibly clear and tragic.

Even passersby who did not know about this matter could clearly see the difference between the two girls.

The two were not comparable at all!

Moreover, passers-by also understood the specifics through these comparisons.

This was so pathetic!

Xia Xibei's popularity was high! Lu Tianqi had just debuted- Oh no, not even officially debuted yet, but she had the nerve to offend Xia Xibei?

You were kidding!

Xia Xibei's fans were many times more numerous than Lu Tianqi's paid commentators. Even if they did not come out in full force, just a tenth of them were much more than Lu Tianqi's fans.

In just half a day's time, Lu Tianqi's fans were crushed to pieces.

The battle was simply too tragic.

Xia Xibei's fans originally did not want to give Lu Tianqi attention, but why was she so shameless?

If they didn't speak up, they'd be treated like easy targets.

If you wanted to fight, fight hard!

The fans thought that Lu Tianqi should give up and stop plotting against Xia Xibei.

To their surprise, they heard the news.

Lu Tianqi's side complained that Xia Xibei was tripping her up and giving her unfair treatment during the competition!

This was a message posted by someone who claimed to be a fan of Lu Tianqi, and the text in it was blood-curdling, accusing Xia Xibei of being too diva and specializing in suppressing newcomers.

Obviously, Lu Tianqi performed very well, but she was still targeted.

If it weren't for the fact that the show wasn't Xia Xibei's, Lu Tianqi would have been eliminated.

When this news came out, Xia Xibei's fans were out of their minds!

Chapter 1677 - 1677 Jealous Attack

1677 Jealous Attack

Before, people would complain a little about all the things Lu Tianqi said, and then it would be over.

Now, she said Xia Xibei suppressed her as a newcomer?

Was she kidding?

Xia Xibei had never done anything like this since she started her career.

Whether it was when she first debuted and had no popularity, or later, when her popularity skyrocketed, Xia Xibei was always humble and kind.

Although there was arrogance, she was so powerful, wasn't it normal to have arrogance?

Moreover, she never took the initiative to provoke others.

She rarely sent out the type of press releases that other stars often sent out, and she didn't need to attack anyone.

Although there had been a few incidents before, it was always someone else who started it and then she fought back!

She had never taken the initiative to start a fight!

The most important thing was that she had saved many people, and she liked to do what was righteous.

Who in the entertainment industry was as special as she is?

So, she would suppress people more junior than her?

You were kidding!

Xia Xibei became a mentor this time, not to go bullying!

Looking at the news that broke out online, Xia Xibei's fans were filled with anger.

Their Sister Bei was so righteous! How could she do such a thing?

Everyone was very angry, but they also looked at the matter from beginning to end and quickly found loopholes.

Lu Tianqi's fans said that Xia Xibei felt that Lu Tianqi was too good to be true, so she suppressed her first before she could be outshined.

This was strange.

[Didn't you say before that Sister Bei also praised Lu Tianqi for being amazing? How did this turn into suppression?]

[Yes! Can this kind of rhetoric be standardized?

[The first thing you need to do is unify your rhetoric before you cry! Disgusting!]

[No, you said our Sister Bei is jealous of Lu Tianqi, so she chose to suppress her... I just want to ask, what is Sister Bei jealous of?]

[I asked my friend who participated in the competition, and she said that this Lu Tianqi's performance was very poor. That's why Sister Bei criticized her!]

[Very poor? That's what I said! It must be too bad, that's why Sister Bei said so!]

Even the passersby followed suit with their comments.

[Although I don't feel anything for Xia Xibei, it's obvious who is good and who looks good! Jealous? Are you kidding?]

[The fact that Xia Xibei is so powerful that she's anxious about an 18th-tier newcomer is a joke. This is as absurd as a billionaire being jealous of a beggar!]

Looking at these comments online, Lu Tianqi was confused.

She went to ask her agent, "Did you do this?"

The agent looked at the news on this, and his eyebrows were locked.

“No, I didn’t!”

Although they wanted the hype, they could not hype too much.

If it was too much, it would backfire!

So, he was prepared to take it one step at a time.

However, this online situation was not quite right!

The agent frowned as he watched the wind blowing in the wrong direction on the internet.

“It seems that someone is making trouble.”

“Who?!”

Lu Tianqi’s expression immediately changed.

Who the hell would be messing around here?

The agent frowned, "I think... It is..."

"It's her!" Lu Tianqi immediately said, with a face of certainty. "No one but her would do this!"

The agent's expression also changed slightly, "Would she do that?"

"Yes!" Lu Tianqi's face was very ugly. "It's definitely her! I'm sure of it!"

The agent looked at Lu Tianqi with confused eyes, "But she didn't have to do this..."

"She did!"

Lu Tianqi's expression was bitter, and her mouth seemed to have eaten crow.

Chapter 1678 - 1678 Admitting Defeat

1678 Admitting Defeat

Lu Tianqi was sure that this matter was definitely related to Xia Xibei.

However, her agent felt that Xia Xibei should not do anything to Lu Tianqi. After all, she was just rubbing up against Xia Xibei's popularity.

When other big stars encountered this kind of thing, they usually didn't say anything.

Moreover, Lu Tianqi was also a member of the Flying Saucer Company.

The company clearly wanted to promote her, so others would more or less help out.

Under such circumstances, how could Xia Xibei fall out with them?

"What did you do? Why would she do that?" The agent looked at Lu Tianqi and asked.

"I..." Lu Tianqi's expression was ugly. "I... I had some conflict with her."

"Conflict?" The agent frowned. "How come you didn't say that before?"

"I... Didn't think of this." She looked unpleasant. "And... You didn't ask!"

The agent's face was even harder. Wasn't this something that should have been said a long time ago?

If there was a conflict with the other side, surely the situation would develop differently!

"So, she said that about you at the competition because you had a conflict?"

The manager finally remembered what happened before.

When Lu Tianqi was recording the show, the agent was watching from the side and naturally knew the comments Xia Xibei had given Lu Tianqi.

Originally, he thought that Xia Xibei was just very demanding and that's why she was strict with Lu Tianqi.

Now it seemed that there was really a problem between the two of them!

If the two had problems, the situation would be difficult to manage.

That's not good!

"Right..." Lu Tianqi nodded with an ugly face. "That would be a bit of a problem..."

The agent immediately frowned but still said seriously, "Now it seems... I have to talk to that side."

He could see that people online were trying to roast Lu Tianqi!

This must be from Xia Xibei's side.

Then, they had to explain clearly to that side.

Only after reconciliation with the other side could the situation get better.

It couldn't be that ugly!

Thinking of this, the manager immediately contacted Pan Yan.

However, he was soon speechless, as Pan Yan sounded innocent and confused, as if nothing had happened.

Such a reaction made the agent's face difficult to look at.

If Pan Yan's side was angry or had any attitude, it was fixable.

The worst was if Pan Yan treated it as if nothing had happened.

If nothing had happened, what was there to say?

This also showed that Xia Xibei's side was not willing to let go of this matter.

In other words, Xia Xibei was going to fight with them to the end.

After hanging up the phone, the agent's face was ugly.

He looked at Lu Tianqi and told her the situation.

Lu Tianqi's face was also grim, "Her side is not willing to settle?"

"No." The agent's face was stern. "I'll see if I can find someone to reconcile with. Otherwise, you'll be at a disadvantage."

After all, Xia Xibei was so much more popular than Lu Tianqi, and she couldn't fight if Xia Xibei wanted to mess with her.

What was even scarier was that Xia Xibei was too ferocious.

"I..." Lu Tianqi bit her lip and thought for a while, made a decision, and decided to concede. "Can't we give up the plan on our side?"

"It is okay to give up," the agent nodded, "But I'm not sure if the other side will continue."

They started the thing, but it was up to the other side to end it or not.

After they said these words, the situation did develop as they thought.

Unedited footage of Lu Tianqi's performance appeared online.

As soon as this video appeared, it immediately triggered a thousand reactions.

Chapter 1679 - 1679 This is the Truth

1679 This is the Truth

In fact, it was stated during the recording of the show that you couldn't bring a cell phone or anything that could record, but there were still people who went in with their cell phones hidden.

However, as long as you didn't share the footage, no one really cared that much.

Besides, this was all going to be aired anyway. They were not afraid of people recording.

However, the premise was that nothing like what Lu Tianqi did would happen.

When Lu Tianqi's side hyped up how great she was and how well she performed, and such a video suddenly appeared, it was like adding water to the frying pan, and everything exploded.

This was a video shot on a cellphone. The resolution was not as good as a camera's, and it showed Lu Tianqi's performance.

In the video, Lu Tianqi was wearing a period costume and dancing to music.

This was without editing.

This was the most realistic situation.

So, this was Lu Tianqi's real performance!

Even if there was a lot of noise, people could clearly see that Lu Tianqi's movements were a bit stiff, and most importantly: she did not move to the right beat!

[She is like someone who has just learned to dance for a few days, not at all as good as what they said online.]

[Holy crap! That's her real level!]

[That's her real level? That's the level Sister Bei is jealous of? What the...! The nerve!]

[This level gets people jealous? Or jealous by Sister Bei? Oh my god! This is the level of elementary school students, right?]

[Don't insult elementary school students! My cousin is only 10 years old and can dance much better than her!]

[So, this is the talent that made Sister Bei jealous and made her suppress Lu Tianqi? Hahahaha.... What a joke!]

[I know there is hype in the entertainment industry, and many things are blown out of proportion, but I did not expect they could hype like this! How dare they hype this level of skill? It's laughable!]

[I'm sorry, is such a level real? This is the level of the fairies who dance for the heavenly queen, right?]

[It is indeed the level of the fairy who dances for the heavenly queen, but it is the level of the fairy who fell from the sky and broke her leg!]

[So that's the truth! I told you, Sister Bei would not criticize people for no reason.]

[Did you see the comments from Sister Bei later? The ones that aired before didn't seem to say that.]

[That's the magic of editing! It also shows that Lu Tianqi has a powerful background. Otherwise, how could the program team give her such editing?]

[Hohoho... I finally know who has thicker skin.]

[Sympathy for my Sister Bei, who was scammed and disgusted!]

The Internet immediately exploded.

Previously, the marketing accounts said that it was Xia Xibei who felt that Lu Tianqi was doing too well and that's why she was out to suppress Lu Tianqi.

Now it seemed that it was all Lu Tianqi's own news.

And it was fake news, the kind that exploded when researched.

For a while, Lu Tianqi's reputation became rotten.

Although people knew that it was normal to hype in the entertainment industry, however, this practice was too ridiculous.

It was obvious that she danced so poorly, but still had the nerve to say that people were jealous of her!

Where was her conscience?

Not only fans but also passers-by were stunned by the truth.

Lu Tianqi's skin was really too thick!

There were also people who told Lu Tianqi to get out of the show. She was stealing other people's spots by making it to the next round at her level!

Those who were robbed of their spots by her might not be able to progress because they missed such an opportunity.

Lu Tianqi's face turned pale looking at the curses and complaints online.

Chapter 1680 - 1680 The Entertainment Industry is Hard

1680 The Entertainment Industry is Hard

If Xia Xibei were in front of Lu Tianqi, she would have told her that this was just an appetizer.

Xia Xibei had told Lu Tianqi before: in this industry, a lot of things could happen.

There were countless haters here. Some haters didn't like you and simply liked to vent, and some professional haters too.

In this environment, even if the performance was perfect, you could not block everyone's words, let alone if the performance itself was not very good.

!!

Xia Xibei had done so many things and performed so well before, but there were still so many people who were not used to her and hating on her.

In this case, how could Lu Tianqi think that the entertainment industry was so easy to survive in?

Just a few tricks, and she couldn't hold on?

Lu Tianqi had no idea what Xia Xibei meant when she said that.

She didn't expect that things would turn out like this after being exposed.

What she didn't realize was that it wasn't over yet!

After this story broke, some marketing accounts continued to send out releases.

These marketing accounts analyzed the incident in a seemingly rational way.

The final result: Xia Xibei was jealous of Lu Tianqi, and that's why she did such a thing!

What?

Fans were simply gasping and gnashing their teeth with hate after seeing such news.

How could they have the nerve to say such a thing after all this?

How thick was Lu Tianqi's skin?! Even a machine gun could not penetrate it.

People thought that this matter had come to an end, and if she came out to apologize or something, it would be over.

They didn't expect that she wouldn't give up!

Then, let her be even more humiliated!

Someone dug up Lu Tianqi's history.

From elementary school to college, all her experiences were dug up, even whether she had a boyfriend or not.

At this moment, Lu Tianqi felt as if she was being paraded naked in public.

This feeling was so terrible that she was going crazy.

"What should I do?!"

Lu Tianqi was angry and annoyed, shouting at her agent.

If this went on, what privacy did she have?

“Don’t worry.” Although the agent was not in a good mood, he still reassured her. “This kind of thing will pass soon.”

“How will it pass?” Lu Tianqi was anxious. “You said it was fine before, but now it’s become like this. How will it pass?”

“Don’t worry, we will take care of it.”

The agent had people put out negative news about other stars.

Sure enough, after the news was released, it quickly shifted everyone’s attention.

There were so many scandals in the entertainment industry, who had time to watch her every day?

However, although the attention was diverted, Lu Tianqi’s affair was already remembered by everyone.

As everyone knew, here was a newcomer with very thick skin but poor strength, not to do the right thing, but to scam Xia Xibei.

This time, the loss was not worth the gain.

Lu Tianqi looked at the online comments. Other than the comments of the paid commentators, there were no good words at all. She was going to cry.

The agent comforted her, “You don’t have to worry, I have arranged a drama for you on my side. As soon as it is released, there will be no problem.”

Fans’ memories were poor and would soon pass. So, as long as there were good projects coming out, it would be fine.

When fans didn’t like you, they hated you to death.

When fans liked you, you had no problems whatsoever.

When her popularity went up, everyone would forget about the previous negative history.
