

Chapter 1681 - 1681 Sharp Contrast

1681 Sharp Contrast

This incident developed around for almost a week before it slowly came to an end.

However, after the new episode of the show aired, Lu Tianqi received new criticism.

Fortunately, her agent had anticipated this and had negotiated with the program team beforehand that there would not be too many images of her in this episode.

This way, things wouldn't get too out of hand.

The show naturally did them the favor.

It was difficult to add scenes, but it was easy to cut them.

So, although there were still many fans who scolded Lu Tianqi on her social media account, compared to the previous siege, it was now much better.

Due to this incident, Lu Tianqi's mood had also been affected.

When she saw Xia Xibei at school, her mood got even worse.

Imperial Capital University's military training was very strict, and it took several weeks to train the students to hell and back.

There was no special reason to be absent.

Although Xia Xibei had connections so that she didn't have to attend such an event, she came anyway.

Even if she couldn't do the whole thing, she could still participate for a week.

When she came to participate in military training, it surprised many people.

Wasn't she a big star, who shot commercials and did acting? How was she so free to come to participate in military training?

She looked so thin and weak. Could she really withstand such military training?

When Xia Xibei started her military training, everyone was stunned.

Although it was known on the internet that she was very strong, many people felt that it was an effect of editing.

How could a young woman be so strong?

However, after seeing her performance with their own eyes, everyone was dumbfounded.

Whether it was standing in military posture, or learning other movements, she was always spot on.

What was even scarier was that she actually overpowered the instructors!

The instructors were all outstanding soldiers in the army, and because of the special nature of Imperial Capital University, they came over here to give military training to the students.

They were all very strong.

However, while the instructors were powerful, when they faced Xia Xibei, they did not have the strength to fight back!

At that time, all the students who were present were stunned and the scene was silent.

When everyone reacted, they were shocked.

She was simply too powerful!

The instructors who were beaten down first felt humiliated, but after they recovered, they immediately wanted to recruit her into the army.

Such a good seedling was simply born to be a soldier!

However, Xia Xibei refused.

Although she was not afraid of hard work, she preferred a life of ease and relaxation.

She thought she was selfish and didn't want to be so great and dedicated.

Due to the strength Xia Xibei showed, she didn't need to participate in more military training afterward.

The students of the school were more impressed with her.

Before, they only thought she was a big star, but after that, they found out that she was a top student. Now she was athletic too!

Simply too powerful!

Now, there were many more people who liked her in school.

Being in the same school, Lu Tianqi always heard people mentioning Xia Xibei's name, which made her feel even worse.

On this day, when she saw Qiao Yanjue at the Qi house, she finally couldn't help it.

"Wait a minute!"

She rushed to Qiao Yanjue, her eyes red.

"Is something wrong?"

Qiao Yanjue had come to look for Xia Xibei but was brought to a halt by Lu Tianqi.

What was she trying to do?

"I..."

Lu Tianqi opened her mouth, just wanting to say something, and tears came down.

Chapter 1682 - 1682 None of My Business

1682 None of My Business

Lu Tianqi's reaction scared Qiao Yanjue to take a few steps back, and his face immediately changed.

"What are you doing?"

If others saw this, they would think that he had done something to her!

Looking at the way Qiao Yanjue avoided her, Lu Tianqi became even more aggrieved.

She lowered her head, tears flowing, very wronged and pitiful.

"I... I..."

Qiao Yanjue's face was grim, "Miss Lu, if there is no problem, I will leave. I still have to..."

"You listen to me!"

Seeing that Qiao Yanjue was going to leave, Lu Tianqi immediately became anxious, ignoring her tears.

"I just want to talk to you about what happened in the past few days..."

Speaking of the past few days, she was sad.

Xia Xibei was popular with everyone at school, and on the contrary, except for a few good friends, everyone else was looking at her strangely.

Although most of the students at Imperial Capital University were focused on their affairs and rarely gossiped, the main characters of the gossip were all from their university.

So, it was only normal that they would pay attention to them.

That made her very sad.

The contrast between her and Xia Xibei was too tragic.

Qiao Yanjue maintained a distance of more than three meters from her and said seriously, "If you have something to say, just say it."

He was frowning, afraid that she would lean over.

Seeing him so wary, Lu Tianqi became even more aggrieved.

However, no matter how aggrieved, she had to say the words first.

"The thing is..."

She took a deep breath and brought her tears under control, then said, "I didn't expect that there would be so many marketing accounts online about this matter..."

Qiao Yanjue's expression grew serious as he listened to her statement.

In Lu Tianqi's words, she didn't know anything about this matter.

What happened online before, such as those press releases, or what happened subsequently, had nothing to do with her.

However, Xia Xibei did too much and did not give her any grace at all...

After listening to Lu Tianqi's complaint, Qiao Yanjue had no expression on his face.

"That is to say, all these things have nothing to do with you, you are innocent?" he repeated.

"Yes!" Lu Tianqi's heart fluttered with joy and she looked up at him with shining eyes. "That's it!"

The next second, she froze, because Qiao Yanjue sneered, "Miss Lu, do you think I'm a fool?"

Lu Tianqi was shocked.

"Why do you say that?"

How could she possibly treat him as a fool?

“If you didn’t treat me as a fool, why would you say such a thing?”

Qiao Yanjue looked her up and down and said nonchalantly, “So if the whole thing, from the beginning through the result, had nothing to do with you, who would do such a thing?”

“Of course it’s...”

“Of course it’s Beibei, right?” Qiao Yanjue interrupted her words with a more sarcastic expression.

Lu Tianqi blanched. What did he mean by this...

“Isn’t it a bit ungenerous for you to put everything on Beibei?”

Qiao Yanjue gave a light laugh, and his originally handsome face became even more moving.

However, Lu Tianqi didn’t have time to appreciate it, her heart beating wildly.

After Qiao Yanjue finished laughing, he returned to his expressionless state.

“Flying Saucer is your agency, and those notices were sent out by them. Yet you say it has nothing to do with you... So, your resulting high popularity has nothing to do with you either?”

He looked at her expressionlessly, “I would like to ask a question. How old are you this year?”

Chapter 1683 - 1683 IQ Problem

1683 IQ Problem

Qiao Yanjue’s expression was very sarcastic, and his eyes were cold.

“If you were 12 years old and said this to me, I would believe that you were tricked. You are 20 years old now, right? At this age, one should know what to do. but you tell me that you don’t know anything, that everything is done by others... You can say this, but I can’t believe it.”

Lu Tianqi’s face became even whiter.

“You are the Lu family’s daughter, and there is Mr. Qi, the grandfather... You have such strong backing. Would the Flying Saucer Company dare to go against you? Would they dare to hide these things from you?”

!!

Lu Tianqi’s face became more unpleasant with his words.

“Of course, if you think that you have problems with your intelligence and that’s why you are at their mercy, then I have nothing to say.”

Qiao Yanjue chuckled, "Moreover, you ran to me and told me that my girlfriend bullied you... Who should I defend? Defend you?"

Qiao Yanjue's attitude and words gave Lu Tianqi a strong blow, and she couldn't help but take a few steps backward.

Her face was full of panic and disbelief.

In her mind, the Qiao Yanjue who would step in to help her was such a wonderful person.

This person in front of her, who was as vicious as Xia Xibei, would never be the hero in her mind!

Lu Tianqi felt that the world had all changed, making her a little confused.

Qiao Yanjue did not care about Lu Tianqi's reaction.

In his opinion, it was ridiculous for Lu Tianqi to come to him to complain and blame others.

She either treated herself as a 10-year-old child or treated him as a 10-year-old child.

It was simply too ridiculous and absurd!

If it weren't for her relationship with the Qi family, he probably wouldn't even have stopped to say these words to her.

"Well, Miss Lu, I still have things to do and I need to go." Qiao Yanjue stepped away without lingering. "If there are any problems, let's talk next time."

Of course, there was no way to know when this would be.

Lu Tianqi's mouth was open, but in the end, she could only watch Qiao Yanjue leave.

When Qiao Yanjue was gone, she squatted down, hugged her knees, and cried.

It was only after Qi Yongjiang heard the news and came over that she stopped crying.

"What's wrong?" Qi Yongjiang looked at his crying granddaughter, all heartbroken. "What happened?"

How come here in the Qi family, Lu Tianqi would also cry like this?

Who bullied her?

"It's not...."

Lu Tianqi hesitated for a moment but finally shook her head.

However, just because she did not say it, did not mean Qi Yongjiang would not know.

After Qi Yongjiang went back, he found someone to check the situation and then realized that after Lu Tianqi said something to Qiao Yanjue, she cried.

How outrageous!

Qi Yongjiang was immediately angry.

His granddaughter was so good, but she was bullied by Qiao Yanjue!

Qiao Yanjue was not a good person either. If he were a good person, he would not be with Xia Xibei.

They were simply made for each other!

It was because they were made for each other that they bullied others!

This time, the one being bullied was none other than Lu Tianqi.

Thinking of this, Qi Yongjiang became even angrier.

Lu Tianqi had been bullied by Xia Xibei before, and now she was crying because of Qiao Yanjue. It was simply unforgivable!

Although he couldn't do anything to Xia Xibei for the time being, it couldn't be any easier to deal with Qiao Yanjue.

Only, when Qi Yongjiang researched Qiao Yanjue, his expression was not very good.

Chapter 1684 - 1684 Way to Get Rich

1684 Way to Get Rich

Qi Yongjiang wanted to start with Qiao Yanjue, but he found out that the Qiao Group was growing even faster than he thought!

In his imagination, the Qiao Group was still as weak as before.

However, in the past six months, the Qiao Group had expanded particularly fast.

They kept launching all kinds of new materials.

Those new materials made up for the current gap in the market and also brought huge benefits to the Qiao Group.

Due to such new materials, the development of the Qiao Group was getting better and better.

The worst thing was that the development of the Qiao Group was quite stable!

Qi Yongjiang was very annoyed. He wanted to teach Qiao Yanjue a lesson, which he could not do for a while!

However, the Qiao family was not infallible.

After the Qiao family's situation was made clear, Qi Yongjiang finally had an idea.

If he couldn't do it from the outside, then he'd do it from the inside!

Qiao Yanjue had no idea that Qi Yongjiang was preparing to teach him a lesson.

After he separated from Lu Tianqi, he went to find Xia Xibei and told her about this conversation.

After hearing Qiao Yanjue's words, Xia Xibei was also speechless. Lu Tianqi complained about this matter with Qiao Yanjue?

What a joke!

Xia Xibei was now very suspicious. How could Lu Tianqi have gotten into Imperial Capital University?

With such an IQ, how on earth did she do it?

Xia Xibei felt that she was simply bullying a child by laying her hands on Lu Tianqi!

“Come on, don’t talk about her anymore,” Qiao Yanjue shook his head. “I’ve got news about Jiang Rongguang.”

When these words came out, Xia Xibei’s spirit immediately lifted.

“What kind of news?”

Previously, Dolores had given a lot of information, and they had learned more about Jiang Rongguang.

However, because Jiang Rongguang had been very cautious, they could not find a way to get to him for a while.

After days of hard work, they finally found something.

“Do you know the way Jiang Rongguang made a fortune?” Qiao Yanjue’s face was serious.

“Hmm?” Xia Xibei was puzzled. “The way he made his fortune?”

Hearing Qiao Yanjue saying so, could it be that things were not quite right?

However, Jiang Rongguang had such skills. Surely he would not use ordinary ways to make a fortune.

Xia Xibei’s mind came up with several guesses. However, she did not dare to confirm.

“You tell me, I can’t guess.”

“Drugs,” Qiao Yanjue spat out.

This word also caused Xia Xibei’s pupils to shrink and she lost her voice in shock.

“Drugs?!”

“Right,” Qiao Yanjue nodded heavily, “He has at least two drug processing factories.”

Speaking of this matter, Qiao Yanjue also felt very terrible.

Everyone knew that good people didn’t get involved with drugs.

These things were very harmful to the human body. However, the profits of such things were also very large.

It could be said that when the profit was big enough, human beings could discard their conscience.

If there were enough profits, people would stop being human.

“Where is the factory?”

Xia Xibei’s face was ugly.

Although she knew that Jiang Rongguang was not a good person, she did not expect that he was involved with this kind of stuff.

What was even scarier was that he didn’t use it for himself, but to wreak havoc on others!

Could ordinary people still stay alive if they got involved with such things?

“One is in M country, and one is in B country,” Qiao Yanjue shared the news he received. “There should be other places, but my people didn’t dare to continue to follow.”

Xia Xibei’s brows were knitted and her face was grave, “Tell them not to follow. I don’t want them to lose their lives!”

If they were discovered, they would be dead!

Chapter 1685 - 1685 Drawing Out

1685 Drawing Out

Xia Xibei had thought before that Jiang Rongguang's situation would not be too good.

She never thought that he would be involved with something like this!

How many people must have been killed by these things?

From what Qiao Yanjue said, the drug processing factories in Jiang Rongguang's control were quite large!

!!

They just didn't know the exact locations of the factories.

"Do you know the locations?" Xia Xibei asked.

"The one in M, maybe, but it's not clear."

Qiao Yanjue also had a gloomy face.

To deal with Jiang Rongguang, they had to cut off his wings.

After thinking so much, they had never thought that he had such a terrifying backing.

“Didn’t the police in M find anything?” Xia Xibei asked.

“I don’t think so,” Qiao Yanjue shook his head. “He is very vigilant and does not let others find out at all.”

The people Qiao Yanjue sent to keep an eye on Jiang Rongguang had to stay far away.

Jiang Rongguang was different from ordinary people and was very strong.

If you got too close, you would be easily discovered.

Qiao Yanjue didn’t dare to let people get too close, lest they be exposed.

Due to this, they only found out a little bit about the situation as of now.

This was already with Dolores having provided the information!

So there was no way for them to solve this matter for a while.

“We can start with Qi Xin,” Xia Xibei offered her opinion.

Previously, they were trying to find out Ling Juan’s information via Jiang Rongguang. Now they wanted to solve the problem of Jiang Rongguang, the boss, through Ling Juan.

“But Ling Juan has not made a move for a long time.”

Since the last incident, Ling Juan seemed to have disappeared, and they didn’t know what she was doing in hiding.

Qi Xin had said that the mother-daughter relationship between her and Ling Juan had been severed, and she would not contact her.

Since this was the case, it was not that easy to find Ling Juan by keeping an eye on Qi Xin.

“If there is no movement from them, we can make the first move!” Qiao Yanjue suggested.

Although Qi Xin said that she and Ling Juan had no contact with each other for a long time, only Qi Xin believed such words.

Oh yes, plus Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao, who were willing to believe her.

Both Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had the same idea: they believed that Ling Juan must be guarding Qi Xin.

So, as long as they started from Qi Xin's side, Ling Juan would be unable to hide.

Thinking of this, Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue looked at each other and both had an idea.

They had wanted to wait for Qi Xin to make her move, but now it seemed that they would have to make the first move.

So, the two of them started to discuss the operation.

Of course, drawing Ling Juan out was not something that could be done overnight.

So, they had to take their time.

After discussing the situation with Qiao Yanjue, Xia Xibei went back to school.

Han Chuo was happy to see Xia Xibei back.

"You're lucky, you don't have to be in military training..." Han Chuo said bitterly, leaning on the desk.
"I'm really curious how my brother survived it."

Han Rui was a soldier, so naturally he had to train every day.

A simple military training like this wasn't that hard, but Han Chuo already found it painful.

How hard it was for Han Rui to keep going!

"How is your brother doing now?" Xia Xibei asked casually.

She and Han Rui had never met, so naturally she didn't know Han Rui's situation.

However, Han Rui was Qiao Yanjue's brother, so she should care about it.

"He, ah, has not contacted us for a long time. Before... He seemed to have gone on a mission, I think."

As for the specifics, Han Chuo was not sure.

Chapter 1686 - 1686 Freshmen Party

1686 Freshmen Party

Han Rui was a soldier, and knowing that he was also a member of the special forces, Xia Xibei understood that his whereabouts would not be told to his family.

Of course, she just asked and didn't think too much about it.

This should be a matter of concern for Qiao Yanjue and the Han family.

“By the way, after the military training is over in two days, there will be a welcome party for freshmen. Do you want to go?” Han Chuo asked.

“Freshmen party?”

“Yeah!” Han Chuo nodded. “Every year the freshmen party is held at this time. I heard they are already preparing for it. You’re a big star, you should be attending!”

Xia Xibei raised her eyebrows, “But no one has told me about it.”

Xia Xibei, after all, was a first-time university student. How would she know when the freshmen party was held?

Besides, she usually had other things to do, so normally she didn’t know what was going on in school.

It was just that she hadn’t heard about it at all, and that was a bit of a problem.

“No one told you about it?” Han Chuo was surprised. “No way! You’re a big star! Didn’t anyone in your class tell you?”

Han Chuo and Xia Xibei were different majors, but they were in the same dorm.

However, Xia Xibei was a big star and so popular. How could she not be invited to perform?

Wasn't it too much of a waste to not use such a good candidate?

What were those people at school doing?

"Maybe they think that I'm too busy, and it's not easy to find me."

Xia Xibei did not think too much.

This was also normal to do.

Although she was a big star, she was still a bit distant from other students.

Besides, she wasn't in school all the time.

Others could worry that she wouldn't be available for the party.

In that case, it was possible to not mention this matter to her.

“But that’s not right either!” Han Chuo shook her head. “A big star like you... And they don’t invite you? It’s such a pity!”

“Well, don’t talk about me anymore,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “What about you, will you sign-up?”

“Me?” Han Chuo pointed to herself and shook her head. “Of course I didn’t! I can’t do anything. I can’t sing, I can’t dance, what am I going to perform? Break a rock with my chest?”

Han Chuo had a good knowledge of herself.

With her level of performance, it would be a shame if she went on stage!

She didn’t have many talents to show off either, so there was no need to do that.

“Don’t you know how to play an instrument? You can perform a musical instrument,” Xia Xibei said.

“An instrument?” Han Chuo still shook her head. “Forget it, I’ll just be the audience!”

“Okay.”

Xia Xibei didn’t think much of it.

It wasn’t mandatory for anyone to participate.

Xia Xibei did not put this party in mind. After all, no one was asking for her, so she did not need to worry about it.

Only to her surprise, the next day, she heard other people's discussion about it.

The topic of the conversation, of course, was her.

Xia Xibei was a language major, studying the F language.

This was the easiest major for her. After all, her talent for languages was very good.

Moreover, it would allow her to have more development afterward. After all, she was an artist, so she must go abroad often, and it was good to learn more languages.

There were a lot of girls majoring in languages.

It was a good thing that Xia Xibei was able to be in the same dormitory as Han Chuo, who majored in another language.

However, the other girls didn't seem right when they mentioned her.

Chapter 1687 - 1687 Too Proud

The two girls who spoke were not in the same class as Xia Xibei.

The two also didn't notice that Xia Xibei was not far away, so they kept chatting about this freshmen party.

"If Xia Xibei had gone up there, we wouldn't have gotten any attention," one girl exclaimed.

Xia Xibei was a big star with many fans. If she were to go on stage, she would draw all the attention to herself.

Then, it would be impossible for others to make a splash at the freshmen party.

"You don't have to worry about that," the other girl reassured her. "She is a big star, why would she come to a party like this? All she attends are the big parties on TV!"

"That's not true. After all, she is also a student of our school..."

"That's true, but she's not the same as us!" the first girl hummed. "She is a big star, and not the same as us ordinary students. Besides, where does she have time to attend the party? There is no money to earn!"

"But if she doesn't participate, then others don't..."

“Oh, she does not want to come to participate. What can we say?” the first girl interrupted her. “I’ve heard from her class before, she has already refused to attend the party!”

“She refused?” The other girl was surprised. “But that’s right, she doesn’t have time to attend!”

“Yes, she has to make money! Unlike us, we are always free!”

The more they talked, the more bitter they became, as if they had eaten a box of lemons.

Xia Xibei became expressionless.

Since when did she refuse to attend the party?

The point was, no one had told her about it at all, okay?

She had only been in military training for a week, and spent the rest of her time on other things and not much time at school, and she had never heard of it.

What was even stranger was that no one had invited her.

If she hadn’t been invited, where was the rejection?

Thinking about it, Xia Xibei's expression was a little ugly.

It seemed that something must have happened here.

She lowered her eyes for a moment and then turned around to leave.

Soon, she arrived outside the Student Council's office.

At this time, many students were in class.

Of course, some students were not in class.

Xia Xibei walked all the way here without attracting too much attention.

When she arrived at the office, she was about to knock on the door when she heard the sounds of a discussion coming from inside.

"You guys, is Xia Xibei a little too proud?"

It was a female voice, full of dissatisfaction.

“Look at what you’re saying. She is a big star, she is usually so busy. How can she have time to come to the freshmen party?” said a male voice. “Besides, we can’t afford to pay the appearance fee!”

“Isn’t she a student of our school? What’s wrong with attending a party?”

Another female voice was also dissatisfied.

“Oh, stop it, it’s all over now. Tomorrow is the party, and we still have to prepare. How can we have time to think about these things?” a male voice persuaded.

“Yes, she has her plans. Let’s just do our own thing.”

Being so persuaded, although the others were dissatisfied, they only made some unspecified sounds, and then lowered their heads and began to work on their things.

Indeed, at this time, there was no point in talking so much.

Xia Xibei smiled faintly, then walked in.

“Hello, guys.”

“Hello... Xia Xibei?!”

Chapter 1688 - 1688 I Haven't Heard

1688 I Haven't Heard

The people inside couldn't help but stare in disbelief after seeing Xia Xibei.

It was Xia Xibei!

Why was she here?

There were quite a few people in the office, both guys and girls.

!!

By the looks of them, they were all sophomores or older.

That was right, the freshmen were still in military training and hadn't joined the student council yet.

After seeing Xia Xibei, the group was surprised.

Shouldn't Xia Xibei still be in military training?

Oh yes! She didn't have to be in full-time military training! She had the privilege!

“Hello, student Xia, you’re...” a girl said in surprise.

A guy had already walked over, “Come on, student Xia. Please sit down first!”

“Thanks,” Xia Xibei smiled and said thanks, then sat down gracefully and looked at them again. “Hello, I came over this time to ask about the freshmen party.”

“The freshmen party?”

The others were surprised. Didn’t she refuse to go, why would she ask about it?

Xia Xibei noticed that after those words came out, one girl’s face changed.

She knew this girl: it was Gu Fangyue, whom she had met before.

After seeing her, Xia Xibei also realized what was going on here.

“Yeah. I just heard about the school’s freshmen party today, so I came over to see if there’s anything I can do to help.”

The moment these words came out, the crowd’s expressions got even stranger.

Then, everyone’s eyes turned to Gu Fangyue in unison.

“Fangyue, didn’t you say...”

Gu Fangyue’s face became even uglier, and a little sheepish from being caught in a lie.

“I...”

“I am also a student of the school, and I want to do my part. I just don’t know what the requirements are for the party performances. Do I need to audition? Or rather, what qualifications are needed?”

Xia Xibei looked innocent, as if she had never heard of this matter.

Her words made the faces of the people present look even stranger.

These words were completely different from what they knew before!

Supposedly, Gu Fangyue went to invite Xia Xibei to the freshmen party and was rejected. How come she was saying this now?

Everyone’s looks at Gu Fangyue became more complicated.

Gu Fangyue’s face was blue and white. Her mouth opened, but she didn’t know what to say for a while.

When she was doing this, she also knew that she could be exposed, but definitely not now!

She had already inquired. Xia Xibei did not stay at school for long and did not make many good friends.

Moreover, Xia Xi Bei looked friendly, but after all, her status was different, so no one dared to treat her as an ordinary classmate.

Besides, her personality was not that good at making friends, and after a week of military training, she left again.

In this case, she certainly wouldn't have any friends.

Gu Fangyue asked around and no one had any contact information for Xia Xibei!

After all, she was a big star. Why would she hand over her contact information so easily?

Maybe people would get the number and then turn around and sell it for money!

In this case, even if they were curious about why Xia Xibei was not attending the party, they would not ask.

If no one told Xia Xibei about it, how would she know what was going on here?

So, Xia Xibei would never find out.

By the time she knew about the party, the party would have already passed.

At that time, her reputation would already be affected by this.

Gu Fangyue didn't expect that Xia Xibei would come out of nowhere at this time!

Chapter 1689 - 1689 I'm Here to Participate

1689 I'm Here to Participate

Xia Xibei looked at the crowd in the office with an innocent face, unable to see the slightest problem.

Although the students in the office had already found out in their hearts that something was wrong, they couldn't say anything at this time.

After all, Gu Fangyue was on their student council. If Xia Xibei knew what she had done, it would have an impact on the student council as well.

A guy came over with a smile on his face, "Hello, I'm the president of the student council. My name is Guan Chen. Thank you for joining!"

!!

Guan Chen was in his early twenties, so he should be a junior. He had decent features, and although not as outstanding as Qiao Yanjue, he was still considered good here.

Moreover, you could tell from his calm posture that he had been through a lot of things.

"You're welcome," Xia Xibei shook her head and smiled. "I'm a student at the school, after all, so it's only right to do my part."

She said in an offhand way, "I heard that the party is tomorrow night? Luckily, I made it in time. It's just as well that I'm not working these days. Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to find the time."

These words made the others' expressions weird again.

Earlier, Gu Fangyue came back and said that when she invited Xia Xibei, Xia Xibei said that she was too busy these days to attend the party.

Now, Xia Xibei said that she was available these days.

When the two girls appeared together, it was clear who was being real and who was not.

Everyone looked at Gu Fangyue with condemnation in their eyes.

Gu Fangyue's face was blue and black, and she didn't know what to say.

“You can choose what you are good at, singing or dancing or both, and we will arrange the time,” Guan Chen said with a smile.

Xia Xibei nodded, “Then, I’ll sing a song!”

“Good!” the others nodded. “It’s already an honor for us if you can come and participate!”

“Don’t say that,” Xia Xibei smiled and shook her head with a modest expression. “No need to exaggerate. We’re all students, there’s nothing to be honored about.”

“You’re a big star!” a girl said.

“I am a star, but I am also a member of the university!” Xia Xibei laughed openly. “I believe that even after we graduate, this feeling will not change!”

The expressions of the others became more complicated.

Then, everyone looked at her with admiration and goodwill.

Earlier, Gu Fangyue said that Xia Xibei was dismissive toward this party, and looked snobbish, not considering herself a student of the school at all.

Who would not be angry hearing such a description?

Now, looking at Xia Xibei so modest and low-key, everyone's good feeling came back.

Sure enough, this was the real superstar style!

The more they thought about it, the more strangely everyone looked at Gu Fangyue.

So this was all her doing!

If Xia Xibei hadn't come to the door, everyone would have been fooled by her!

"Well, if you need anything, you can contact me." Xia Xibei left a phone number for them. "This is my work number. If you have any problems, you can call me."

Seeing her write down the number, everyone was a little excited.

This was her number!

How valuable it would be if it got out!

However, Xia Xibei added, "This phone number is used by my agent, but don't worry. If there is anything, he will inform me and I will reply to you right away."

These words made the thoughts in everyone's mind sink again.

What a shame.

Only after finishing this matter did Xia Xibei get up and leave.

Before leaving, she also glanced at Gu Fangyue.

1690 Deny It to Death

When Xia Xibei left, the office was silent for a while.

It was only after a few minutes that there was finally movement.

“Fangyue, can you tell us what is going on here?” Guan Chen asked with a serious expression as he looked at Gu Fangyue.

“I...” Gu Fangyue’s face kept changing. “I- I don’t know what she... She means!”

!!

Gu Fangyue was annoyed and embarrassed. She didn’t know why Xia Xibei came out of nowhere!

Being caught off guard, Gu Fangyue was also helpless.

“Did you say that she didn’t know about it before?”

Guan Chen’s face was still as upset as ever.

They had previously misunderstood Xia Xibei for playing diva and not wanting to attend the party and wanted to say something afterward.

All of this was done by Gu Fangyue!

It was simply too much!

She was making everyone misunderstand Xia Xibei!

Luckily, the party hadn’t started yet, so there was still a chance to remedy the situation.

If it had come out afterward, it would have been a problem.

“I told you, I did tell her!” Gu Fangyue became annoyed. “Didn’t I give you guys her answer?!”

She had gotten a recording before and played it for everyone.

However, she also asked everyone to never say anything before the party started.

Otherwise, if Xia Xibei found out, she would know that something was wrong!

“Who knows, maybe she sees me in a bad light, so she wants to slander me!” Gu Fangyue gritted her teeth and said.

She must stick to her version of the story.

Anyway, Xia Xibei was gone now, and Xia Xibei wouldn't know what happened in the office, so she could say whatever she wanted.

“Recording?” Guan Chen's face was gloomy. “Where is the recording? Take it out and let's hear it.”

“I — ”

Gu Fangyue's eyes widened as she looked at the older classmate in annoyance.

Was he trying to antagonize her by forcing her like this?

“Come on, we've all heard the recording before and we know what happened. There's no need to fight over this matter.”

Someone came forward to ease the tension, “Maybe Xia Xibei was reluctant to participate before, and then things got cancelled, so she changed her mind and chose to come to the party!”

“Yes. No matter what, it’s good that things are resolved successfully.”

“That’s right, the entertainment industry is always changing. It’s normal for Xia Xibei to change her mind.”

Listening to everyone’s explanation, Guan Chen took a deep breath and didn’t say too much to Gu Fangyue.

He knew that Gu Fangyue’s family background was not ordinary, and it would not be good for him if he got into trouble with her.

Moreover, everyone understood this matter, so there was no need to make such a stalemate.

“All right, let’s get back to work!” he turned around and hummed.

Seeing that he did not continue to dwell on this matter, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Gu Fangyue also let out a sigh of relief, but before she could fully relax, she heard a knock on the door.

Everyone turned their heads to look and froze in unison.

How come Xia Xibei was back again?
