

Chapter 1691 - 1691 Second Meeting

1691 Second Meeting

Looking at the crowd in the office, Xia Xibei frowned with a puzzled face.

“I think I heard something about a recording?”

Gu Fangyue’s heart pounded and her face turned pale, “Didn’t you... You leave?”

Everyone saw her leave, so how come she came back?

How much did she hear?

Xia Xibei looked innocent, “I realized that I still have something more to say, so I came back. But... I seem to have heard something strange, and also related to me?”

When these words came out, the others looked at each other.

What should they say?

Gu Fangyue squeezed out a smile, “No, it’s nothing. You must have misheard!”

“Is that so?” Xia Xibei, however, did not let go gently like before. “Why do I feel like you guys are telling jokes about me?”

“Nope! No!”

“No! Definitely no!”

Everyone shook their heads in unison.

How could they admit it?

Although it was Gu Fangyue who did this kind of thing, Gu Fangyue was also a member of the student council.

Moreover, her background was strong and not something they could criticize at all.

“Really?”

Xia Xibei, however, did not believe it.

Her face became serious.

Looking at her face, everyone couldn't help but cower a little.

Although she was very good-looking, once she got serious, she was quite forbidding!

"Really! We're talking about other things!"

Everyone shook their heads in unison, dead set against admitting it.

"Okay then," Xia Xibei finally shrugged her shoulders and didn't continue to dwell on it.

She turned her head to Gu Fangyue again, "By the way, your name is Gu Fangyue, right?"

Gu Fangyue nodded hesitantly, feeling apprehensive.

What did she want to say?

"You still remember the first time we met, right? It was just after college started. At that time, there was a little conflict because of our friends' relationship," Xia Xibei said seriously. "However, we are all classmates, getting along harmoniously is the best. Today is our second meeting, and I just remembered this matter. If you have time, I hope we can have a meal together and turn our problems into peace."

When Xia Xibei's words came out, the scene became even quieter.

This was the second time they met!

The first time was at the beginning of the school year, this was the second time...

So, where did Gu Fangyue record the conversation with Xia Xibei? And when was it recorded?

Moreover, didn't she go to invite Xia Xibei to the party, so why was it recorded?

When they figured this out, the crowd's expressions became very interesting.

They didn't believe what Gu Fangyue said, and with the addition of Xia Xibei's words, no one would be stupid enough to believe Gu Fangyue now.

Gu Fangyue must have not informed Xia Xibei about the party at all because of the previous conflict.

Then, she got a recording from somewhere, saying that it was proof that Xia Xibei refused to attend the party.

Then, she also told everyone not to talk about this matter to the outside world.

Thinking about these things... Everyone looked at Gu Fangyue differently.

This was too vicious of her!

Due to the friction of the first meeting, she made such a problem?

If Xia Xibei hadn't come out to explain herself, wouldn't everyone have misunderstood that she was playing a diva?

Although this damage to Xia Xibei's reputation was not irreparable, who wanted to be talked about for no reason at all?

It was an unwarranted disaster!

Under the gaze of the crowd, Gu Fangyue's face was like a neon light, changing constantly and wonderfully.

Chapter 1692 - 1692 Busted

1692 Busted

Gu Fangyue felt that what had happened today had torn away the entire reputation she had for years!

The most embarrassing thing was being caught while she was doing something bad and then being viciously torn down.

Her hands and feet went cold as she felt the gazes of the others.

She looked up at Xia Xibei and met a mocking expression.

Her heart jumped and her face went white.

She understood that Xia Xibei must have known about the whole thing! Now she was deliberately coming to tear her apart!

Thinking of this, she wanted to leave the place immediately, lest she put herself in this embarrassing situation.

However, she didn't dare to leave.

Once she left, who knew what Xia Xibei would say?

Although, it wouldn't help if she stayed here now either.

"Sister Gu, I've just come to school and I don't know anything about anything. If there's anything I've done to offend you, I hope you can enlighten me, and I'll change."

Looking at Xia Xibei's sincere appearance, Gu Fangyue felt her chest suffocate, as if she was going to vomit blood in the next second.

Xia Xibei was pretending to be confused!

What was more hateful was that she couldn't say anything!

"No... It's nothing," Gu Fangyue squeezed out a smile. "We are all classmates, there's nothing to be offended about..."

"That's good," Xia Xibei patted her chest with a relieved look. "If that's the case, that's great."

She looked around at the crowd, "Well, I have no more questions. I have to go now, I have things to take care of."

Without waiting for anyone to say anything, she said to herself with a hint of distress, "I just had some people who tried to slander me, and I still have to take care of this matter!"

These words made everyone's heart jump.

Slander?

Wasn't that the same as Gu Fangyue?

“What’s going on?” Guan Chen asked with concern.

“It’s not too much of a problem.” Xia Xibei smiled and shook her head, “There are haters on the Internet who want to slander me and say that I am suppressing others. Our company is preparing to sue those haters and marketing accounts!”

“Sue?”

Everyone was taken aback.

That sounded really scary!

“Yeah,” Xia Xibei nodded. “It has affected my reputation, after all, and I can’t just let it continue!”

“So what would... Happen if they get sued?” someone asked carefully.

As they said this, they also glanced at Gu Fangyue.

“It depends on the situation. If it’s serious, they might go to jail,” Xia Xibei shrugged her shoulders.

That made everyone draw in a breath.

Jail time?

The way everyone looked at Gu Fangyue became even more frightened.

Gu Fangyue's hands and feet also started to feel chilly.

"After all, they made a mistake, so naturally they should be punished!" Xia Xibei laughed. "If there was no punishment, wouldn't this world be a mess?"

Everyone nodded in unison. That was the idea.

"However, we are all law-abiding people. This will not happen," Xia Xibei smiled. "Well, I have to go. I won't bother you guys anymore!"

After saying that, she left.

The scene was silent.

Everyone looked at Gu Fangyue with even stranger gazes.

Made very uncomfortable by everyone's gazes, Gu Fangyue finally couldn't hold back, stood up, and walked out quickly, leaving all the discussion behind her.

Only after she walked under a large tree did her arms and legs slowly warm up.

She almost forgot she was a member of the Gu family; it wasn't so easy for her to be sued.

She also understood that this time, it was she who lost!

Chapter 1693 - 1693 Who Leaked the Secret

1693 Who Leaked the Secret

Gu Fangyue would do this, of course, because of Lu Tianqi.

In fact, Lu Tianqi did not ask her to do such a thing.

However, as a close friend, how could Gu Fangyue watch her friend being bullied?

So, she took the initiative to do so.

If people knew that Xia Xibei was unwilling to attend the school's orientation party and was so arrogant, she would surely attract a lot of criticism.

A star being so arrogant... Wasn't she afraid of being beaten up?

Well, she wouldn't be beaten up, but people's impression of Xia Xibei would be greatly damaged.

Gu Fangyue considered this carefully, as this would be a good lesson for Xia Xibei.

Who would have thought that things would turn out like this just as they got underway?

She had obviously told everyone a long time ago to never tell Xia Xibei.

So, how did Xia Xibei know about it?

Thinking about it, Gu Fangyue was very confused. What had gone wrong here?

Although she knew that this was not a secret matter, no one should have told Xia Xibei, right?!

Xia Xibei was rarely at school, so who would tell her about this?

Moreover, there were not many people who knew about this matter, and it was impossible for them to blab in front of Xia Xibei.

After thinking about it, Gu Fangyue immediately thought of it.

Han Chuo must have said it!

Wasn't Han Chuo Xia Xibei's roommate?

Thinking of this, Gu Fangyue's face immediately turned even uglier.

She must teach Han Chuo a lesson!

However, the most important thing now was to get this matter settled first.

She gave herself a mental build-up before returning to the office.

When she returned to the office, her expression froze.

The people around her looked over in unison, looking at her as if they were looking at some horrible and disgusting bug.

Gu Fangyue's face turned white.

Guan Chen walked over, his expression light.

"You have heard what student Xia said just now. Since we are all classmates, and since the party will start tomorrow, I hope nothing bad will happen."

After saying that, without waiting for Gu Fangyue to answer, he turned around and left.

Looking at Guan Chen's back, Gu Fangyue was ashamed and angry.

She glared at the surrounding people before she left in a huff.

Looking at her departing back, someone whispered to Guan Chen, "President, there won't be anything wrong, right?"

"No," Guan Chen shook his head. "Would she dare to do something after all this? She won't say we bullied her, right?"

The truth of the matter was known to everyone, even if she wanted to say something, it was not that easy.

The most important thing was that this matter is related to Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei was a big star. What could she say as an ordinary person?

If Gu Fangyue dared to do something, Xia Xibei would make her lose face first!

After understanding this point, the others put their minds at ease.

However, everyone was curious. What was the grudge between Gu Fangyue and Xia Xibei? Was it worth her taking the initiative to target Xia Xibei?

Was it possible that she was robbed of her boyfriend or something?

Of course, everyone was curious, but no one asked.

After all, that was Gu Fangyue, the famous girl of their student union.

“Come on, it’ll be the party soon! This time, let’s do better!” Guan Chen clapped his hands, drawing everyone’s attention to him. “Come on!”

“Yes! Let’s go for it!”

The others nodded their heads and started to work.

On the other hand, Han Chuo, who had just finished her military training, returned to her dormitory covered in sweat.

She was exhausted.

However, just before she reached the door, she stopped because she saw Gu Fangyue.

Meeting Gu Fangyue’s fierce eyes, Han Chuo was confused.

“You’re looking for me?”

Chapter 1694 - 1694 All Because of Me

1694 All Because of Me

Han Chuo returned to her dorm room in a daze, and when she saw Xia Xibei, she couldn’t help but complain to her, “Do you know who I just saw outside?”

“Who?”

“Gu Fangyue!” Han Chuo looked puzzled and confused. “She looked at me as if she wanted to kill me! I asked her what she was doing, but she wouldn’t say anything!”

When it came to Gu Fangyue, she felt speechless.

“Was she on drugs or something? If not, why did she come to me and stare at me and then run away? It’s really inexplicable!”

When she saw Gu Fangyue in front of her dorm room, Han Chuo asked her what she wanted.

However, Gu Fangyue didn’t say anything, but just gave her a vicious look and ran away.

Han Chuo was bewildered. What the hell was this?

She and Gu Fangyue didn't have a good relationship, but it wasn't so inexplicable, right?

Gu Fangyue was on something!

"I think... This was because of me," Xia Xibei explained.

"You?" Han Chuo was even more surprised. "Why is it your problem? What happened?"

"I'm going to perform at the freshmen party tomorrow night."

"Huh?" Han Chuo froze for a moment. Why did it suddenly come up?

However, it was a good thing that Xia Xibei was going to attend the freshmen party.

"That's great!" After she finished chuckling, she felt strange again. "But... Didn't you say before that you weren't going to participate?"

"I thought so before, but I realized later that it wasn't that I wasn't participating, it was that no one had informed me at all."

“You did seem to say that.”

“Then I found out that the person who came to inform me from the student council didn’t even look for me.”

“The student council?” Han Chuo frowned, then suddenly clapped her hands. “You’re talking about Gu Fangyue, right?!”

If that were the case, then things could be explained!

Han Chuo knew that Gu Fangyue was on the Student Council.

Imperial Capital University’s student council had quite a lot of power.

The student council did the usual attendance of students.

Students’ attendance could be a big deal or not.

If the teacher didn’t care about it, it was not a problem.

However, if the student council noticed the absence, then it would be a problem.

In serious cases, it could affect the student's scholarship and grade promotion later.

Of course, besides the attendance aspect, the student council had other powers; they were the boss of the school.

So generally, people wouldn't get into trouble with the student council.

Gu Fangyue, on account of her family's money, joined the student council and became a recreation director.

Han Chuo had wanted to join the student council before, but when she saw Gu Fangyue there, she wasn't interested anymore.

She felt that she would definitely be targeted when she went in.

Since that was the case, there was no need to join.

Now that Xia Xibei had mentioned the student council, and thinking about Gu Fangyue's reaction just now, Han Chuo felt that she had found out the truth.

"Yes, it's her."

Xia Xibei didn't hide it for Gu Fangyue either.

Han Chuo and Gu Fangyue didn't have a good relationship, so Xia Xibei naturally wouldn't say anything good about Gu Fangyue.

"I knew it!" Han Chuo immediately grunted. "I told you, you're a big star. How come no one invited you to the party?! So it's all her doing!"

"Yeah," Xia Xibei shrugged. "So, I exposed her."

"That's right! That's the way to go!" Han Chuo applauded, very happy.

Then, she also understood.

"So, Gu Fangyue thought that I had something to do with this, so she took it out on me?"

Chapter 1695 - 1695 Reject Invitation

1695 Reject Invitation

Xia Xibei's expression was a bit embarrassed and apologetic. It was so disgusting for Gu Fangyue to do that.

Han Chuo, however, was not angry.

“It’s not your fault. It’s obvious that she’s the one who made trouble, and when she was exposed, she even put the blame on others! I’m used to it!”

She laughed, “If I see her, I’ll make fun of her!”

“Anyway, you should be careful afterward, she’s not a good character,” Xia Xibei said.

Gu Fangyue looked like a vengeful person. She definitely would not let go so easily.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be careful!”

Han Chuo and Gu Fangyue had known each other for so many years, how could they not know each other’s character?

Anyway, Gu Fangyue would never admit her own mistakes.

After being exposed for what she really was, Gu Fangyue would definitely be very angry.

Therefore, she would not have anything to do with Gu Fangyue.

Even if her crush, Gu Guanlin, was Gu Fangyue’s older brother, still no way!

She had boundaries!

Due to such thoughts, when Han Chuo received a message the next night that Gu Fangyue was looking for her, she simply refused.

“I’m not free now, I have to go help Beibei prepare! Have her find me herself!”

After saying that, Han Chuo left, not noticing the strange expressions of the people behind her.

It was now 7:00 p.m. and the school’s freshmen party started at that time.

This one was especially grand because of the addition of Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei was a student at their university and was going to participate in the party, so the caliber of this party was certainly different.

The annual freshmen party of the Imperial Capital University is in fact very grand and had a lot of sponsorship.

This year, with the addition of Xia Xibei, the event was even more different.

With Xia Xibei as a big star, advertisers were even more enthusiastic.

Although Xia Xibei made no endorsement, with Xia Xibei standing in front of their own billboard, or holding their products or advertising, the effect was fantastic!

Who did not know about Xia Xibei's strong ability to sell products?

Guan Chen reacted quickly and immediately told the other sponsors about it.

As a result, the amount of sponsorship was immediately increased.

With more money, you could naturally make it grander.

Xia Xibei couldn't help but marvel at Guan Chen's arrangement after she knew about it.

He was a talent!

She said she was going to attend the party at noon the day before. By now, only one and a half days had passed.

During this one-and-a-half-day, Guan Chen was able to take the whole party up a notch!

This speed and efficiency were impressive.

At this moment, Xia Xibei also had some more thoughts.

If she could pull Guan Chen into her team, that would be a great thing.

Of course, the focus was on the party now.

When the party was over, they could discuss this matter.

After all, Guan Chen was a junior this year and would be going for his internship next year, so hiring him early would be the right thing to do.

Since Xia Xibei joined the party, the event was especially elaborate.

If it wasn't so last minute, not only the students around the area would have come, but many fans would have come over.

Although it was just an orientation party, Xia Xibei treated it as a formal performance and prepared very well.

While she was getting ready, Han Chuo walked in with a mocking look on her face.

"Someone just told me that Gu Fangyue was calling me over! Oh, they really think I'm a fool!"

Xia Xibei was busy arranging her clothes and sniffed casually, "They're really stupid."

Chapter 1696 - 1696 Where Did She Go?

1696 Where Did She Go?

Xia Xibei didn't think too much about it, she just thought this thing was ridiculous.

Gu Fangyue and Han Chuo's relationship was already not great, and with this incident, their relationship became even colder.

It would be ridiculous for Gu Fangyue to ask Han Chuo to come over under such circumstances.

"Yeah, so I refused," Han Chuo grunted. "If I went over there, she would probably put a sack on me!"

Xia Xibei turned her head to look at her and nodded, "So, be careful."

"Don't worry, I wouldn't be so stupid!" Han Chuo waved her hand, then looked at her. "You look great!"

Xia Xibei was dressed differently than usual today, with a tank top and hot pants, revealing her waistline and long legs, and her makeup was flawless.

This was a cool and sexy outfit that would definitely make the girls in the audience scream and go crazy. Even guys couldn't escape her charm.

Han Chuo thought that even though she was a girl, she was still charmed by Xia Xibei.

“Can’t wait for your performance!” Han Chuo said with a fist clenched in encouragement.

“Okay,” Xia Xibei nodded, then gathered her mind and started to prepare for the stage.

Xia Xibei performed a song she had previously released, in a singing and dancing format.

Although the quality of the sound here was not as professional as that of the TV station, it was not bad either.

Due to the extra sponsorship fee, the equipment was upgraded.

The sound has also changed from ordinary to a semi-professional level.

Xia Xibei’s breathing was very stable. Even if it was both singing and dancing, it was effortless.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the audio-visual feast.

This was a live performance, not lip-synching.

After a performance, everyone knew that Xia Xibei is a real singer, and strong!

Although there was no backup dancer, just her, it was enough to hold the whole audience.

When she finished her performance, the applause was very loud and the screams from the fans were very intense.

Xia Xibei went backstage and removed the decorations that adorned her body.

“Where’s Han Chuo?”

She looked around as she removed her makeup.

Why didn’t Han Chuo show up?

“Oh, she just got called away,” a person next to her said.

“Called away?” Xia Xibei repeated as she took off her necklace. “Who?”

She was just asking casually when she heard someone else say, “It seems to be Gu Fangyue.”

These words caused Xia Xibei’s movements to freeze violently.

Gu Fangyue?

Gu Fangyue told Han Chuo to go out, and she did go out?

Han Chuo's reaction just now immediately surfaced in Xia Xibei's mind.

Very recently, Gu Fangyue had asked for Han Chuo, and Han Chuo refused.

Then, only ten minutes later, Gu Fangyue came again, and this time, Han Chuo went over?

Something was definitely wrong here!

She called Han Chuo first.

The phone rang for a while and was hung up.

This made her face hard to read.

She looked at the others again, "Do you know where Han Chuo went?"

"I don't know."

“I do, it’s at...”

With everyone explaining, Xia Xibei soon figured out where Han Chuo had gone.

After figuring out where Han Chuo was going, Xia Xibei immediately walked out.

Luckily, no one was allowed outside. The audience was waiting inside to see the show. They thought Xia Xibei might perform again, so they didn’t block backstage.

Xia Xibei soon left the venue and went in the direction they pointed out.

However, when she got there, Han Chuo wasn’t there!

Chapter 1697 - 1697 Taken Away

1697 Taken Away

Xia Xibei took out her cell phone and called Han Chuo again.

This time, there was a ringing in front of her.

It was Han Chuo’s cell phone ringing!

Xia Xibei's heart jumped and she immediately ran over.

Then, she saw a cell phone on the ground.

It was Han Chuo's cell phone!

The pink phone was left alone on the ground.

This made Xia Xibei's face look even worse.

If Han Chuo's cell phone was left here, something must have happened!

Recalling what had just happened, Xia Xibei's face was very serious.

She looked around and immediately had an idea.

She found a dark and quiet place and then sent her spiritual power out.

Soon, several cats appeared around her.

There were many stray cats and dogs at the Imperial Capital University, and they were often fed, so they were very close to people.

Moreover, this was Xia Xibei!

Usually, when she passed by, those cats and dogs would come over and rub on her legs a little.

Now, as soon as her power was sent out, these dogs and cats came running over very enthusiastically.

Surrounded by several fluffy dogs and cats, Xia Xibei squatted down, petted them, and asked them what had just happened.

These stray dogs and cats moved back and forth on campus and there wasn't much to chase them away, so they would see quite a few things that no one else knew about.

Han Chuo was definitely in trouble now.

Although there were surveillance cameras around, it would take a lot of time to find out the contents of the recordings.

Ten minutes had passed since Han Chuo had left, and if she continued to delay, there was no telling where she would be taken in the meantime.

Soon, Xia Xibei learned about Han Chuo from the mouths of these enthusiastic dogs and cats.

Han Chuo had been taken away by two men!

The two men made Han Chuo pass out and then carried her away.

Although she was on campus, the others didn't notice this and just assumed something had happened to her and she was carried away by her classmates.

Once Xia Xibei knew what happened, she immediately rushed to the place they said.

There was no telling who it was, but it was clear that they were out to get Han Chuo.

She just didn't expect that they would come here to kidnap people, it was just too brazen!

Xia Xibei moved quickly and ran straight towards that side, while the dogs and cats followed her and showed her the way.

She was very strong in terms of physical ability and ran fast, but the campus was too big and it could be too late when she got there.

Just in time, Xia Xibei saw someone skateboarding on the road and immediately ran over to them.

"Hello, I'm in a bit of a hurry, can I borrow your skateboard? I'll return it to you later!"

The girl was taken aback when a person suddenly appeared in front of her.

Looking up, it turned out to be a pretty and somewhat familiar face, and the girl drew in a breath.

“You’re...”

“I’m a little busy right now, can I borrow your skateboard?” Xia Xibei said sharply.

The girl could also see that she must be in a hurry and immediately nodded, “I can lend it to you, but do you...”

Before she could finish her sentence, Xia Xibei nodded, “Don’t worry, I know how to use it!”

Without waiting for the girl’s reaction, she snatched the skateboard.

“Well, I have to go, you can find me in my dorm tomorrow. I’m on the fifth floor of the girls’ dorm...”

Before the words finished, she had already slid out several meters away.

The girl looked at her back, dumbfounded.

Xia Xibei's skateboarding skills were so much better than hers!

Chapter 1698 - 1698 Rescue

1698 Rescue

The skateboard rolled forward on the ground, much faster than Xia Xibei could run. After all, she couldn't maintain a full sprint.

The speed of the dogs and cats running next to her also accelerated.

If it wasn't a big night and many people were watching the party over at the hall, they might have been attracted by her movements.

Xia Xibei's expression was serious as one foot landed on the ground and slid, moving the skateboard quickly forward.

She used the skateboard as part of her body and controlled it with ease.

Soon, several dogs and cats stopped in front of her.

Up ahead was a relatively secluded area, and there were many trees here, blocking the light.

Even if there were cameras here, not many people would dare to come here at night time.

After all, even if there were more surveillance, if something happened, the damage was irreparable.

Now, under the shady tree, there was a parked car.

In front of the car, two men in ordinary clothes were stuffing a person into the car.

Xia Xibei caught up just in time.

“Stop!” Xia Xibei shouted angrily, tossed aside her skateboard, and rushed straight up.

The two men spotted Xia Xibei’s figure and their faces changed, immediately speeding up.

“Hurry!”

They stuffed the unconscious Han Chuo inside and prepared to get in the car to escape.

They were wondering how Xia Xibei could have rushed over when she was supposed to be performing in the hall right now.

Even after the show, she couldn’t have come over that quickly.

Moreover, how did she know they were here?

While they were wondering, there were a handful of mournful “meow” and “ow” sounds behind them.

When they looked back, they were shocked.

Several figures lunged toward them.

In the dim light, they were horrified to find that it was cats and dogs!

These cats and dogs were acting crazy and attacking them!

They drew in a breath and blocked the attacks with their hands, but they could only cover their faces from being hurt.

However, these stray cats and dogs were much more powerful than pet cats and dogs.

They were not docile, as they had been living in the wild for so long and had survived many ill-intentioned people.

They wailed and waved their paws, landing directly on the men.

“Argh!”

“Get out of the way!”

The two men screamed miserably and waved their hands, trying to drive them away.

However, the dogs and cats attacked them in unison, as if they had been given a stimulant.

The weather was not yet cold, and they were wearing short sleeves, so in a short time, their arms were covered with bloody scratch marks.

Their faces were ugly and they could not wait to kill these beasts!

In the next second, they felt a gust of wind coming at them.

They subconsciously dodged, but they couldn't avoid the gust of wind.

As if with a click, they felt a pain in their bodies.

“Ah!” someone screamed miserably, feeling like their bones were about to break.

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

There was one miserable scream after another; it was very exciting.

The commotion over here also attracted the attention of others.

The others ran over from afar, and when they saw clearly what was in front of them, they couldn’t help but draw in a breath.

A dim light came through the leaves, and in front of a black car, three men, including the driver, were sprawled out on the ground, with one or two dogs and cats on top of them. The dogs and cats held their heads high, as if they had defeated a monster.

The real monster stood in the middle of them, imposing.

“Call the police!” Xia Xibei snorted coldly, breaking the stiffness of the scene.

Chapter 1699 - 1699 Credit to the Cats and Dogs

1699 Credit to the Cats and Dogs

When everyone rushed over and saw the chaotic scene, they were stunned.

The people on the ground looked miserable, and their faces were covered with scratches from cats and dogs.

However, after seeing the unconscious young woman in the car, everyone was angry.

Did they come to the school to kidnap people?

What garbage!

Everyone was furious and immediately detained them.

The unconscious Han Chuo was also saved by Xia Xibei.

When she woke up, she was in a daze.

She only remembered that she was sought out and then... Passed out.

Thinking of this, she blushed and immediately looked down at her clothes.

“Don’t worry, it’s okay,” Xia Xibei reassured her.

Han Chuo then let out a sigh of relief.

Listening to the chaos, she was full of confusion.

“Do you know what’s going on?” Xia Xibei asked.

“I... I don’t know,” Han Chuo shook her head.

“Then why did you come out to see them?” Xia Xibei asked.

Xia Xibei suspected that Han Chuo was called out by Gu Fangyue and the others.

If that was the case, then it was too hateful and they must be taught a lesson!

However, just as this thought occurred, Han Chuo said in a startled voice, “It was someone who said that my brother was looking for me and that’s why I came out!”

“Your brother?” Xia Xibei’s face changed slightly.

“Yes!” Han Chuo nodded. “That person said that my brother was looking for me, but he couldn’t let anyone find out, so he told me to sneak out.”

Thinking about it, Han Chuo’s face turned pale.

“And then... I was tricked!”

Xia Xibei's expression was serious, "They lured you out."

"Who were those people?" Han Chuo looked at her. "Have you figured it out?"

"Not yet," Xia Xibei shook her head. "The police are handling it."

This incident didn't cause any victim casualties, so it wasn't a serious problem, and it was easy to solve.

Moreover, the bad guys had been caught and were just waiting to be dealt with later.

Han Chuo was kind of scared and thankful after the kidnapping, and her face was pale but not too scared.

"You can rest here, I'll go check it out."

As a direct participant in this matter, Xia Xibei, of course, had to be questioned by the police.

When they saw Xia Xibei, those police officers were also a bit surprised.

When they came over just now, they thought that the bad guys were stopped by the students.

Then they heard that Xia Xibei was the one who stopped them.

Oh, the dogs and cats played a role here too.

It just sounded a bit magical.

“Miss Xia.” A police officer came over and smiled at her. “Can you please tell us the details?”

“Okay.”

Xia Xibei was of course fully cooperative.

She sorted the story out and gave the specifics.

In her explanation, she happened to find Han Chuo missing, so she came out to look for her.

As for how she discovered Han Chuo’s whereabouts, it was the cats and dogs that were responsible.

“Cats and dogs?” the policeman froze.

“Yeah,” Xia Xibei nodded and pointed to the well-behaved dogs and cats on the ground. “They’re smart enough to know who I’m looking for. Then, I followed them.”

Of course, she didn't dare to say that she was sure that the dogs and cats were right.

Xia Xibei's explanation surprised the police, but they were confident that Xia Xibei would not lie. After all, if they checked the surveillance, they would know the truth.

Considering further that there were online rumors of her close relationship with the animals, the police officers quickly accepted the story.

Chapter 1700 - 1700 Hired by Someone

1700 Hired by Someone

It soon became clear that the men had indeed come to kidnap Han Chuo.

However, they were hired by someone.

As for who was behind it, they didn't know.

It was impossible to say exactly who was behind it, but it was true, and they were caught red-handed and had to face punishment.

While the police were investigating, the president and the leaders also quickly brought the matter under control.

Although this kind of vicious incident could have had an impact on the school, the impact had been minimized.

Fortunately, it was discovered by Xia Xibei in time. Otherwise, irreparable consequences might have occurred.

Due to this incident, the atmosphere in the school was even more tense than before.

Who knew when the bad guys would come out?

Xia Xibei had become famous again because of this incident.

She was the one who saved Han Chuo!

She was really a positive role model who always did what was right!

Although the matter was resolved successfully, there were still many people who wondered.

Who was trying to harm Han Chuo?

Although the school had made it clear that it was the bad intention of an unscrupulous person from outside the school, people could not help but continue to be suspicious.

The group of people who were suspected had a bad relationship with Han Chuo.

Among them, Gu Fangyue and Yang Shu were the most suspected.

Yang Shu and Han Chuo's relationship was not good, which was known to many people.

Usually, when they met, they were stern-faced with each other.

Moreover, there were some students from the same high school as them at Imperial Capital University who knew about their feud. So, it was possible that they would do such a thing.

As for Gu Fangyue, her relationship with Yang Shu was good, and her relationship with Han Chuo was naturally bad.

The most important thing was that Gu Fangyue did something to Xia Xibei, Han Chuo's roommate, before!

It was not impossible that Gu Fangyue would do something bad to Han Chuo.

Such suspicious speculations spread around the campus, causing Gu Fangyue's face to turn grim.

It was true that she wanted to teach Han Chuo a lesson, but those people had nothing to do with her!

However, no one believed her explanation.

People cared more about what they saw.

Meanwhile, word spread that she had set up Xia Xibei earlier, and when she was out on campus, there were always people looking at her and then whispering.

However, by the time she looked over, they all ducked away.

Who couldn't see the problem with this situation?

Gu Fangyue was furious about being bad-mouthed behind her back.

She was even angrier at how Han Chuo was so coincidentally saved by Xia Xibei!

While the outside world was in an uproar, Xia Xibei was concerned about Han Chuo, who was traumatized.

Although Han Chuo was not in trouble and was rescued safely, she was still a little affected.

She felt that people around her were trying to hurt her.

What she didn't understand was who was trying to hurt her.

Those people said that they were hired to do so.

So, who was behind it?

Since they didn't get their way, would they try again?

Although the people were caught, Han Chuo didn't feel relaxed.

Xia Xibei was concerned about her, but she didn't know how to help her either.

After all, those people didn't know anything and couldn't say anything useful.

When she returned, she told Qiao Yanjue what had happened.

Qiao Yanjue immediately frowned, "Could this... Have something to do with Han Rui?"

This made Xia Xibei's heart jump.

Yes! Didn't those people use Han Rui, Han Chuo's brother, to lure her out?
