

Chapter 171

After snoring all night, the three drunken people quarreled that the couple next door couldn't have a good weekend. It was noon when they woke up. Except Ma Wentao was a little embarrassed, the other two were not embarrassed. What to do if they were embarrassed. Then find a topic to chat.

When Ma Wentao learned that Wang Yongyong wanted to find Zhang Fan for minimally invasive knee surgery, he strongly encouraged Wang Yongyong to go to his hospital for surgery. Ma Wentao had thought that all the operating expenses would be exempted, but he had to advertise for him. Wang Yongyong is not very famous, but he used to be a professional athlete, and the frontier basketball team is too famous in the frontier.

Eating and drinking can be saved, but the operation cost can not be saved. Large hospitals have certain advantages because of advanced equipment and comprehensive inspection. In fact, if it is a general disease inspection, there is little difference between large and small hospitals.

"What are you afraid of! You don't understand this either. Let's go to Dr. Zhang and let him decide. " Northwest men are not good at refusing, and they drank together yesterday. They are even more embarrassed to refuse.

Although Zhang Fan slept late at night, he woke up at six in the morning. His habit has been formed. Get up and run, because you don't have to take care of the patient now, and you don't have to go to ward rounds on weekends. Shao Hua's mother made eight treasure porridge this morning. She ate a bowl of warm porridge. It's not as delicious as this bowl of porridge.

Ma Wentao took the two coaches to his hospital first. He threw up last night and had to change his clothes first. Then the three drank a bowl of milk tea in the hospital canteen. They drank too much yesterday and had no appetite for dinner in the morning“ Dr. Zhang, where are you? " Ma Wentao calls Zhang Fan.

"Oh, at home, you're all awake!"

"Ah! I can't mention it any more. I was ashamed yesterday and threw up all over! Come to the hospital. We have tea in the office. Come and talk to us. "

"OK!" As soon as Zhang Fan heard this, he knew what Ma Wentao wanted to do. The hospital was on the right track and saw hope. Ma Wentao worked hard like a chicken. Wang Yongyong, this is an opportunity. He must not let it go.

How can we reassure Wang Yongyong and them? Zhang Fan plays a decisive role, and he still needs to beat the side drum for the rest. After drinking milk tea, Ma Wentao took two to visit the hospital. In front of the expert introduction column in the hospital, Ma Wentao began to show off.

"Brother Wang, look at these experts. I invited them from the bird market. There are a few medical experts in the bird market. As for surgery, there are no more experts in the bird market. Dr. Zhang's level is very high, no less than some of the top surgical directors in the bird market. " Last night's wine scene was familiar to three people.

Wang Yongyong looked at the introduction of the photo. When he saw the director of the respiratory department, he asked, "President Ma, do these experts sit directly in the hospital or come for consultation occasionally?" Wang Yongyong, director of the respiratory department, knows that his mother-in-law has been hanging up the expert's clinic for many years.

"After all, their family is not from the tea market. They sit here for 15 days a month. They go home and rest the rest of the time. They are not young."

"Oh!" In this way, Wang Yongyong is also a little relieved. He knows that the hospital that can invite respiratory experts from bird market still has the least strength, so he won't cheat him for a little money.

The three were drinking tea and chatting in Ma Wentao's office. At this time, Ma Wentao began to show off. Sometimes showing off is also the most common and direct way to reflect his strength.

Even if tea is one hundred twenty-five thousand, ordinary people can't drink it. For ordinary people, it's enough to show off cigarettes and wine and add a car. "I drank too much yesterday. I felt sick in the morning. My head was like an axe. Now I can't even touch your hair. I really admire your drinking capacity. Let's drink another two mouthfuls of soul reviving wine, otherwise I won't be able to stand the headache." As he spoke, Ma Wentao moved out of Maotai and took out his cigar.

His cigars are very particular. The moisturizing box, knife and even the matches of his cigars are special. After repeated operation, he calmed the two wine friends who drank together yesterday. Wu Yanchao and Wang Yongyong are a little unnatural. After all, they are an economy centered society. The economic foundation determines their social status. They are both ordinary people. For the big boss, yesterday's acquaintance has disappeared. This is class!

Zhang Fan came. After entering the office, there was a miasma in it. At the moment of opening the door, smoke sprayed directly down the door " You are so powerful, and you are not afraid of hypoxia and suffocation! "

"Doctor Zhang, ouch, I was sorry yesterday. I was drunk. I was supposed to treat, but it turned out ~ ~ ." When Wang Yongyong saw Zhang Fan, he quickly stood up and greeted him.

The other two also stood up to greet Zhang Fan, "it's all right, it's the same. I'm sober today. How can I drink again! "

"You're right to say that we left yesterday. I feel like I'm smelling in the morning. You don't need cigars to get rid of the fishy smell. Today it's soul reviving wine. You don't drink much after drinking two mouthfuls, otherwise it's too uncomfortable! "

Zhang Fan opened the window, waited until the smoke was almost released, sat down and said, "what's the matter?"

"Brother Wang wants to have a knee operation. I said he would come to my hospital. He's a little worried. Tell me." Ma Wentao said.

"Don't worry, I don't understand!" Wang Yongyong's face is a little red. A man with good face!

"Oh, that's OK, but I don't know how to get medical insurance. The equipment here is pretty good. The surgical lens is imported from Japan, which is better than those in our hospital. Coach Wang, are you sure you want to have an operation? "

"Well, I think the knee joint is good. I'll be a personal coach for others. Now the knee joint is a big problem. It's not good to move a little."

"Personal trainer! You said earlier, I'll make an appointment for you now. You're a professional basketball player, and you're definitely more professional than those wild ways. "

"Don't worry ~! Don't worry! Wait until I recover from the operation! " Wang Yongyong hurriedly stopped him.

"Don't worry. You don't have to go for medical insurance. I'll exempt you from the operation fee."

"How can this work!" Wang Yongyong was shocked!

"Hehe! But after brother Wang's operation, you have to give me a free advertisement for a period of time! " Ma Wentao said calmly.

"Me? Advertising? They are all friends who can help. They can definitely help, but is this advertising OK? I'm not famous. Don't delay your business! " Wang Yongyong said embarrassed.

"It's all right, brother Wang. Don't worry. Feel at ease to have an operation here! "

"Doctor Zhang, what do you think!"

"It's OK to do it here. Your operation is a minimally invasive operation. It's not a major operation. Boss Ma can also do it here. If you decide to have an operation, start to improve the examination. Although it is a minimally invasive operation, it is also an operation, and the necessary examination still needs to be done. There are also family members to sign. This is a compulsory course. " Zhang Fan said, the more you know, the more you should pay attention, otherwise there is a problem that even your friends have to do!

"Good! Then trouble you and Mr. Ma! " Wang Yongyong thought a little and agreed.
