1741 Don't Want to Involve You

Han Rui was very serious and resolute when it came to his own affairs.

He did not want to involve Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei. This was not something they should know about in the first place.

Those people were heartless, not something they could deal with.

However, Han Rui's good intentions were not accepted by the two.

"It's come to this, and you still don't say anything?" Qiao Yanjue snorted coldly, "You think you're a superhero and the whole world is waiting for you to save it?"

Qiao Yanjue looked him up and down, his eyes showing contempt.

"With this skill, if you want to save the world, won't you just die halfway?"

Han Rui's face turned grim.

Although he knew Qiao Yanjue was provoking him, this was too toxic!

“At least I’m much better than you,” Qiao Yanjue laughed coldly. “I really can’t understand how you can be so great with this level of ability.”

Han Rui looked at him with a sharp gaze, firing death rays.

Han Rui wanted to retort, arguing that he was much stronger than Qiao Yanjue.

Thinking about earlier, however, when he was subdued by Qiao Yanjue, the words came to a halt.

He didn’t know why Qiao Yanjue had gone crazy to think he was better than him!

So, such words could not really be said.

However, he still stiffened his face and did not say anything.

Looking at the two people squirming, Xia Xibei shook her head speechlessly.

Couldn’t they talk properly?

“Don’t worry, we are more capable than you think,” Xia Xibei said in a warm voice.

Her gentle tone made Han Rui feel a little better, but he still shook his head firmly.

“This is not something you should know, and I don’t want to drag you down.”

“Are you mistaken?” Qiao Yanjue looked at him while hugging his own chest. “You’ve already dragged us down, okay!”

Only Han Rui was deceiving himself to say that he would not involve them.

These words made Han Rui’s face even darker.

This... Seemed to be true.

What he did had already involved the two of them.

Even his own sister, Han Rui, did not know about these things.

However, Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei both knew him well.

“If you don’t tell us the truth, we might be bullied instead,” Xia Xibei said with a calm expression. “If you tell us, we could help more.”

“Come on, don’t talk nonsense with him.” Qiao Yanjue put away the bottles on the table. “Why are you giving him these things, they’re not useful.”

“Don’t!” Han Rui immediately stopped Qiao Yanjue.

These pills were all good stuff!

Qiao Yanjue sneered, “What’s the matter, you think these are good things? Pfft! Not for you!”

When Xia Xibei looked at Qiao Yanjue’s childish appearance, the corners of her mouth could not help but twitch.

She held her forehead and couldn’t bear to look anymore.

It was too terrible, this Qiao Yanjue looked ridiculous.

However, he was just being himself in front of his close friend.

“Don’t!” Han Rui was anxious. “These are all from Beibei, not you!”

Qiao Yanjue got even angrier. “She’s my girlfriend, we’re one! Of course her stuff is mine too! Get lost!”

The two of them argued for a while, and Xia Xibei separated them.

“Sit down!”

With a long black face, she put the two away like two misbehaving kids and made them sit on one sofa each, pulling them apart.

“If you move again, don’t blame me for not being polite!”

She was a little tired. What the hell was all this?!

Chapter 1742 - 1742 What Is the Strength

1742 What Is the Strength

The two finally separated under her strong oppression.

Qiao Yanjue gave Han Rui a haughty look and another hum.

He was not going to take care of this fool!

Looking at the medicine bottle on the table, Han Rui couldn’t help but swallow a mouthful of saliva.

This was good stuff!

!!

Moreover, he could feel that his body was changing, as if he was regaining his strength.

As soon as this thought came to him, he immediately felt himself carefully, then stared with wide eyes.

It really was!

He could feel his body's strength recovering little by little!

Some of the pain left from old injuries were now gone.

He couldn't help but poke his elbow.

He had injured his elbow during a previous mission.

Although he was treated afterward, it still left a little aftereffect.

Now, when the weather was not good, he could feel that his elbow was a little weak and sore.

Now, it was starting to rain outside.

Surprisingly, he didn't feel the soreness!

He continued to poke and prod, but to his amazement, it was really okay!

It was awesome!

It really worked in half an hour!

Watching Han Rui foolishly feel the various injured places on his own body, Qiao Yanjue sat on the sofa and grunted coldly.

However, after seeing Han Rui feeling himself for a while, he couldn't help himself.

His face was unpleasant.

He didn't know the art of healing, nor could he refine medicine, so naturally he didn't know Han Rui's problem.

He had only heard Xia Xibei say that Han Rui had been injured many times.

However, no amount of hearing was better than seeing it with one's own eyes.

Han Rui was touching himself everywhere. Didn't it mean that all those places had been injured?

Roughly counted, it was at least a dozen places!

Qiao Yanjue's face became even darker when he thought that his brother had suffered so many injuries and was still so tough-mouthed.

"No no!" Han Rui subconsciously shook his head to deny it. "I did not suffer any injuries!"

"Hah," Qiao Yanjue gave a cold chortle.

Did he really think he was a child? So easily fooled?

"All right, stop it!"

Xia Xibei couldn't stand it anymore and slapped the coffee table.

A loud bang echoed in the space.

Han Rui and Qiao Yanjue were startled.

Han Rui was scared even more, because he found that the coffee table that was slapped by Xia Xibei...

Had broken!

Damn!

It was tempered glass, right?!

Han Rui's eyes were round and he was about to jump up.

What kind of force was this?

He knew that this coffee table was made of tempered glass and was very hard.

Even he could not break the glass with his bare hands.

Xia Xibei actually broke the glass?

Looking at the marks on it, his expression stiffened.

What kind of powerful female warrior was she?

Xia Xibei's action shut him up.

As for Qiao Yanjue, he was also warned by Xia Xibei.

"Have a good talk. Don't argue and make noise."

Xia Xibei faintly glanced at Han Rui.

Han Rui's scalp tingled and he almost jumped up.

He wanted to explain himself.

When did he make noise? It was clearly Qiao Yanjue who was making the noise!

She was too protective!

However, thinking about Xia Xibei's slap just now, he gave in.

He did dare not mess with this kind of woman!

"Do you think my ability is okay?" Xia Xibei raised her hand and asked indifferently.

Han Rui's heart jumped and his face changed immediately.

"Of- Of course."

His expression stiffened.

"That will do."

Xia Xibei glanced at him, "How does our strength compare to yours?"

Chapter 1743 - 1743 Violent Thugs

1743 Violent Thugs

The reason Xia Xibei slammed her hand on the table was clearly to show Han Rui her actual strength.

What was the point of explaining? They would believe it once they saw it with their own eyes.

The situation was looking pretty good right now.

Han Rui's mouth twitched for a second before he nodded and admitted, "You... Are powerful indeed."

If that iron palm had landed on him, it would have shattered his bones, wouldn't it?

!!

So there was no way he could deny it.

Despite seeming weak and fragile, Xia Xibei was a violent thug!

She hadn't even hit her twenties, yet she had such terrifying strength.

Han Rui's surrender made Qiao Yanjue chuckle.

He picked up the other half that hadn't broken, smiled and slammed down on it too.

With a loud snap, that glass shattered.

Han Rui was petrified.

Qiao Yanjue's move was truly stunning.

"How was it? I ain't too weak either, right?" Qiao Yanjue sneered.

Despite having witnessed their capabilities, Han Rui still had a hard time admitting it, and Qiao Yanjue found that annoying.

He knew Han Rui was worried about them and didn't want to get them involved, but he also wanted to help.

Qiao Yanjue was aware of his own limitations. If he hadn't been that strong, he wouldn't have done something like that. He would stay far away and make sure he didn't cause trouble for Han Rui.

However, he had confidence in his own capabilities.

His training with Xia Xibei had been ongoing, and unless someone was firing at close range, they wouldn't be in danger.

Even if they fired, they would be able to dodge it as well.

Sure enough, they couldn't let Han Rui know that. It would sound way too unscientific.

"Alright... Then," Han Rui finally relented. "I'll tell you. but you can't tell anyone else."

"Do you not trust us?" Qiao Yanjue gave him a sideways glance. "Our lips are sealed tight. No one else will know."

Xia Xibei nodded in agreement.

"Fine, I'll tell you," Han Rui said, finally deciding to stop putting it off. "I am currently dealing with a drug lord named Jin Ji'en, who operates in country M. He is a powerful figure with many followers, and he manages his subordinates very well. Those who have access to his core are all his trusted confidants."

Han Rui had infiltrated their organization half a year ago.

He put up a show, in which he risked getting injured to save a sub-lead under Jin Ji'en's command.

He used the identity of a retired soldier whose parents had passed away.

This was why he was so skilled, and his combat abilities earned him the admiration of the sub-lead.

After ensuring his loyalty, the guy often took him to secret bases.

However, he hadn't gained access to a lot of details and had only touched the surface.

His identity was exposed before he managed to identify the mastermind of the organization.

It must have been the team who had exposed him.

The other side must have infiltrated their team, or he wouldn't have been exposed so soon.

"What now, then?" Xia Xibe raised an eyebrow. "Are you going back there?"

"No," Han Rui shook his head. "I plan to make a move from somewhere else."

Even if he had the guts to go back, he would undoubtedly be discovered.

After all, he had been in close contact with many people for some time, and it was easy to expose his identity.

He didn't want to walk into the trap willingly.

"Forget about the others for now. We need to deal with the ones here first," Han Rui said coldly.

Chapter 1744 - 1744 Join Forces

1744 Join Forces

Han Rui came back not only because he didn't want to be caught, but also because he was worried that his family would become the target of revenge.

Those guys were outlaws who didn't care about ethics like leaving a foe's family out of the conflict.

As far as they were concerned, if they managed to capture his family, they could use them as hostages to threaten Han Rui.

Han Rui would then be at their mercy.

Without the help of Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue, those guys might have succeeded by now.

!!

After all, his parents and Han Chuo were ordinary people who were powerless against those guys.

“Well, I’ll help you too,” Qiao Yanjue said.

“How?” Han Rui was puzzled. Even though he did tell Qian Yanjue about his situation, how could he possibly help him?

“Easy, I’ve fished out things about those guys already,” Qian Yanjue said with pride.

“You found their whereabouts?!” Han Rui was surprised.

“Of course,” Qiao Yanjue nodded. “You think I’m fooling around with you?”

Only by finding those guys and eliminating them could they ever have peace of mind.

Moreover, they had to uproot those guys completely to prevent future troubles.

Right after Han Rui asked him for help, Qiao Yanjue sent someone to take care of things.

After investigating for some time, he found their whereabouts.

“Where are they?” Han Rui got excited.

“In a hotel twenty miles away from us,” Qiao Yanjue disclosed without holding back anything. “Just waiting for you to act.”

Han Rui took a deep breath, and the look on his face turned resolute.

If he could wipe out those guys, his family wouldn’t have to worry anymore.

Besides, he found that Qiao Yanjue was much more capable than he had imagined.

“But should we also lure out the person behind this?” Xia Xibei said.

“Yes!” Qiao Yanjue nodded. “There’s still a problem to deal with!”

“Do you know who betrayed you?” Qiao Yanjue asked.

“I’ve got some thoughts, but no proof,” Han Rui shook his head.

“That’s good enough,” Qiao Yanjue smiled. “Let’s just lure them out!”

Han Rui looked at the bottle on the table, touched the mask on his face, and it occurred to him.

“Okay, let’s lure them out!”

He needed to know who had set him up!

That person clearly wanted him dead!

After a quick discussion, they came up with a plan.

Han Rui looked at them with awe after listening to the plan, “You two are way more ferocious than I am!”

“Ferocious?” Xia Xibei looked innocent. “I think we’re pretty kind.”

If they hadn’t shown some ferocity to those who wanted to cause harm to them, wouldn’t they feel sorry for themselves?

Qiao Yanjue patted Han Rui’s shoulder, “Go get some water. You look parched!”

Han Rui was stunned for a second when Qian Yanjue reminded him, and then he jumped and rushed to the water dispenser.

He had been so completely engrossed that he forgot he had taken a sip of vinegar.

Now that he finally came to realize it, the dreadful sensation came flooding back.

After downing several glasses of water and diluting the vinegar in his system, Han Rui breathed a sigh of relief.

He then noticed that all his pains had disappeared!

The potion was truly a miraculous one!

Since Han Rui was feeling fine now, it was time to act right away.

That night, he headed to the hotel, as per Qiao Yanjue's instructions.

There, with the new face that he was wearing, he caught sight of a somewhat familiar face.

Chapter 1745 - 1745 Acquaintance

1745 Acquaintance

After putting on the mask, Han Rui had effectively changed his appearance.

With this new face, he was more confident in moving about outdoors, since no one could recognize him.

In addition to changing his face, he used shoe lifts to increase his height.

He also appeared much thinner than before.

He looked completely different now, and even his closest family members and teammates wouldn't be able to recognize him.

As a result, he acted naturally and confidently as if he were just visiting a friend when he entered the hotel.

However, as soon as he arrived, he saw someone he knew, which surprised him.

The man was not his teammate, but a member of the Han family.

Although Han Rui bore the surname Han and had some connections to the ancient martial arts family, which was the Han family of the imperial city, his father was from a side branch and had always kept a distance from the main family.

Therefore, Han Rui did not have true relations with the main family.

During his childhood, he used to accompany his father to the main residence of the Han family several times and had gotten to know some of the people there.

Despite not having a good relationship with them, he had an excellent memory, and had memorized their faces after seeing them just twice.

This person was one of the members of the Han family, and according to his rank, he was probably Han Rui's uncle.

The man's brows were furrowed, and he seemed to be in a bad mood.

Han Rui didn't think too much of it when he saw him, since this was a hotel after all. It was pretty normal to run into acquaintances here.

Not having given it much thought, Han Rui followed him into the elevator.

The man was constantly checking his phone and seemed very anxious.

Han Rui glanced at him out of the corner of his eye, then lowered his head to avoid catching his attention.

After a while, the elevator stopped on the twelfth floor.

The man walked out, and Han Rui followed suit.

He didn't think much of it, assuming it was a coincidence, since there were many rooms on this floor.

However, he was surprised to find himself following the man more and more closely.

The man had a clear goal and was walking quickly before stopping at a room door.

At the same time, he looked carefully around him.

Han Rui kept walking calmly past him.

The man didn't notice anything suspicious around him and didn't pay much attention to Han Rui either.

Then, he began knocking on the door with a specific rhythm- three long beats followed by a short one. He repeated it twice.

Han Rui's heart skipped a beat, but he continued walking steadily forward.

Soon, the door opened, and the man walked inside.

At that moment, Han Rui slapped his forehead and muttered to himself, "Damn it! This isn't the right floor! I messed it up, what a fool!"

He cursed himself quietly and turned around to leave.

The man and the person inside the room both glanced at Han Rui, but his ordinary appearance didn't raise any suspicion.

As Han Rui walked away, he slapped his forehead and swung one hand as if it were unintentional.

Then, a small inconspicuous object followed the man's footsteps into the room.

The door closed, and Han Rui walked on.

As soon as the elevator doors opened, the room door opened again.

A head stuck out.

Seeing Han Rui enter the elevator, the person shrank back and closed the door.

After a while, however, the door quickly opened again.

Seeing that there was no one outside, the person in the room finally relaxed.

After closing the door, they began discussing the matter at hand.

Little did they know, their conversation was being wiretapped by Xia Xibei.

Chapter 1746 - 1746 Wiretapped Content

1746 Wiretapped Content

The wiretapping device that Han Rui had planted this time was given to him by Xia Xibei.

It turned out that this device was even more advanced than the one he had on hand!

Han Rui was, after all, a special forces soldier and would bring these gadgets onto his missions often.

These devices were incredibly miniaturized, with the smallest one being the size of a fingernail.

Furthermore, these devices were the most advanced ones he could get his hands on.

With such advanced devices, he could avoid being detected by others.

However, his opponents weren't idiots.

After all, the business they were in was shady, and they couldn't let others know what they were up to through these channels.

Hence, there were plenty of anti-bugging tools in every location.

If they found the presence of devices, they would track down the culprit.

That was why Han Rui hadn't dared to place his own devices at that location before.

The device that Qiao Yanjue had given him, however, was totally shocking.

It was simply too good!

It looked just like any ordinary device, small and inconspicuous.

However, this device could evade all current searches- that was what Qiao Yanjue had told him.

When Han Rui first received the device, he didn't believe in its abilities.

He had been exposed to the world's most advanced technology, but he couldn't guarantee that those devices could evade searches from other parties.

After all, those bad guys hadn't given up their research in this field, and they valued their lives even more than the others.

Thus, Qiao Yanjue's confident claim made him very curious.

Was this device really that miraculous?

Nonetheless, after Qiao Yanjue demonstrated it personally, he finally believed it.

This device was now thrown into the room with those guys.

Han Rui quickly returned to Xia Xibei's home and listened to the conversation with them.

Inside the room, those guys were apparently conducting routine checks, as there were some beeping sounds coming from it.

These sounds should be from the machine that was looking for wiretapping devices.

If it found something that shouldn't exist, it would emit an urgent beeping sound.

However, they obviously hadn't found anything amiss.

Han Rui didn't notice anything suspicious on their end and breathed a sigh of relief.

Not having noticed any problems, they put down their things and began to discuss business.

At first, there was an impatient voice with a slightly awkward tone, which was not quite like the accent of the mainland, but more like a foreigner's accent.

"I mean, it's been so long, how come we still haven't found the guy!"

Then came another voice.

This voice was clearer and carried a local dialect accent from somewhere in the mainland.

"Everyone is searching, but that kid is hiding too well. We can't find him!"

The first voice sounded a little displeased, "I mean, don't you guys have a way? How come you haven't found him?"

A middle-aged man answered, "Don't worry, we're still searching. We'll find him soon."

This voice made Han Rui look up with an uneasy expression.

"This is Han Guangxiang from the Han family. He's my uncle."

Qiao Yanjue raised his eyebrows, "They're involved too?"

Han Rui nodded heavily, "It seems like it."

They just didn't know how much they had contributed to this.

"Let's keep listening," Xia Xibei gestured for them to be quiet.

The two of them stopped talking and continued to listen.

What came next shocked them even more.

Even Xia Xibei widened her eyes.

Chapter 1747 - 1747 A Weirdo

1747 A Weirdo

Han Guangxiang's voice continued, "Don't worry, we'll look everywhere for the guy. Besides, we still have to continue our collaboration, don't we?"

The other person laughed, "It's good that you understand the situation!"

"But I'm really curious though, how did such a weirdo come out of your family? And he's standing against us?"

“What to do? They weren’t raised at home.”

“That’s true though...”

!!

The expressions of the trio were ever-changing as they listened to the voices coming from the other end.

Han Rui was wearing a look of shock mixed with bewilderment on his face.

“Did they really?!”

The amount of information revealed was overwhelming!

The Han family had produced a weirdo like Han Rui.

If Han Rui was an oddity of the Han family, then the usual situation of the Han family would be...

Han Rui’s expression turned more unpleasant as he thought about it.

He never thought that the Han family would have any connection with those people!

Even Qiao Yanjue was shocked, “Oh god, it’s the Han family that they’re talking about!”

The Han family was a reputable family who practised ancient martial arts!

Although the Han family couldn't compare to the Qi and the Gu families, and was one of the last families among several ancient martial arts families, there was no reason for them to be involved with such things!

Those who came to kill Han Rui were the henchmen of the drug lord, which meant that they were involved with drugs.

And the Han family was connected to them...

It was spine-chilling to even think about.

Was there a possibility that the Han family's rise to power was related to such things?

However, Xia Xibei rubbed her chin, looking thoughtful. "I knew it..."

Her reaction surprised Qiao Yanjue, "What's wrong?"

"Didn't I tell you before that I gave something to the Han family...?"

Although she didn't make it clear, Qiao Yanjue knew what it was about.

“What happened then?” he quickly asked.

Han Rui was puzzled, but also turned to look at Xia Xibei.

“The Han family started with those medicines, and...” Xia Xibei said.

“And they contained prohibited substances!” Qian Yanjue figured it out before she could finish.

Qiao Yanjue didn’t have much talent in alchemy, but he had the basics, so he knew that there must be a problem!

The medicines used by the Han family to manipulate those girls controlled their nervous systems, and drugs were also used to control people’s minds and rational thinking!

Therefore, adding these ingredients to the pills was nothing but normal for the Han family!

“There is indeed such an element,” Xia Xibei nodded. “When I was researching before, I found that there were traces of toxins in their bodies, but I didn’t think too much about it at that time. Now, looking back...”

At that time, she didn’t think much about it, and only figured that their systems were having problems probably due to the fact that they had been over-harvested.

Now, however, it seemed that the situation wasn't that simple at all.

There were quite a few toxic components in these things that could control them!

"But didn't you say that something happened to the Han family?" Qiao Yanjue asked, confused.

Xia Xibei had previously stated that she had ruined the business for the Han family, and they could no longer profit from using girls.

So why was Han Guangxiang still in contact with these people?

Furthermore, from their conversation, it seemed like nothing had happened, and Xia Xibei's actions had not affected them at all. Everything was still the same as before.

"Maybe they have come up with a new solution," Xia Xibei raised an eyebrow.

Han Rui was completely confused, so he raised his hand to ask, "What happened exactly?"

The two of them seemed so animated, but he couldn't understand a thing!

Chapter 1748 - 1748 Completely Nuts

1748 Completely Nuts

Han Rui was completely bewildered.

He couldn't understand a single thing that Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue were talking about.

What did they mean by the "Han family's medicines"?

What was strange about the Han family?

However, when he vaguely recalled what his father had told him before, he started to understand it.

!!

His father had warned him before that the Han family were not good people to be associated with.

He had advised Han Rui to stay away from them and not be influenced by them, so as to avoid trouble.

At that time, he was young and didn't quite understand what his father meant.

Still, as an obedient child, he had followed his father's instructions.

Right now, however, the situation seemed to be different.

"Have you heard about the Han family?" Xia Xibei asked.

“What about them?” Han Rui was a bit puzzled.

“It’s related to medicines,” Xia Xibei explained.

“Medicines?” Han Rui furrowed his brows and thought for a moment. “My father did mention something about medicines before, but he didn’t say much, just that I should stay away from the Han family.”

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue exchanged a look. They understood what Han Rui’s father meant.

Although he knew that there was something wrong with the Han family, he didn’t want to get involved with them. He also didn’t want to terrify his son by telling him too much.

Moreover, it might provoke the Han family’s dissatisfaction.

Over the years, the relationship between the two families had gradually become distant, and they had reached a point where they didn’t have much contact with each other, so there was no need to bring up the topic.

Therefore, it was normal that Han Rui didn’t know about these things.

“Okay then, I’ll explain it to you,” Xia Xibei said, organizing her thoughts as she began to tell Han Rui about the Han family.

As she explained, Han Rui became increasingly surprised. By the end, he was staring in disbelief.

How on earth was the Han family... So perverse?!

It was completely nuts!

“This could be bad news for Han Chuo, right?”

Han Rui became anxious as soon as he finished listening.

If the Han family’s girls were to be used as hearths, could Han Chuo avoid it?

She was only nineteen years old. If she became caught up in such a situation, it would be truly terrible!

“She won’t,” Xia Xibei reassured him.

Xia Xibei smiled and comforted him, “Han Chuo’s situation is special, so you don’t have to worry about it.”

She had previously examined Han Chuo and found that her physical constitution was rather weak.

If her body was used as a hearth, she could die after just a few times.

The Han's family must be aware of this situation, which was why they didn't take action against Han Chuo.

Although they were insane, they were after long-term benefits.

Han Chuo would not be useful as a hearth because of her weakness, so it was her weakness that saved her.

After hearing Xia Xibe's explanation, Han Rui finally breathed a sigh of relief.

He only had one sibling, and the last thing he wanted was for something untoward to happen to her.

"But what the Han family did... Was too insane!" Han Rui exclaimed.

"I know," Xia Xibei nodded. "And I also think that maybe they exposed your identity."

Her statement made Han Rui widen his eyes in shock, "They exposed me?!"

"I think so," Qiao Yanjue nodded. "Although you didn't have much contact with them, they must have been paying attention to you. It's possible that they discovered your identity. You hadn't conflicted with their interests previously, so they hadn't done anything before."

This made Han Rui ponder, but it seemed to make sense!

Chapter 1749 - 1749 Who Exposed It?

1749 Who Exposed It?

Han Rui never expected such a twist in the story!

He had always thought that his identity had been exposed by someone from the organization.

After all, only those within the organization knew his true identity.

Now, as he thought about it, things seemed off.

While his teammates in the organization knew each other's real names, they wouldn't necessarily know each other's true backgrounds.

!!

Besides, to protect themselves and their families, they wouldn't disclose their backgrounds to others unless they had been through life-and-death situations together and trusted each other completely.

Otherwise, it was all kept secret.

Back then, Han Rui was unwilling to suspect his teammates because only two people knew his identity, both of whom were his closest brothers in arms.

They had been through thick and thin together, and that was how they had come this far.

He didn't want to doubt them.

This time, however, the situation was definitely not right.

He was supposed to be undercover, yet his identity had been discovered.

He had hidden himself so well!

That was why he began to think that his comrades had betrayed him and joined forces with the organization.

It had been troubling him ever since.

After all, who wouldn't feel upset to be betrayed by their closest mates?

That was why he didn't dare to contact the organization, for fear of being discovered and sold out.

Now, Qiao Yanjue was saying that it might have been someone from the Han family who did it!

That changed everything!

“The question is... How did they find out my identity?”

Han Rui couldn't figure it out. Why would someone from the Han family expose him?

“Think carefully. Did anything out of the ordinary happen there?” Qian Yanjue asked.

The more Han Rui spoke, the more excited he became.

“I think I said something while he was around, something like, ‘Let's go to the Gold and Silver Fountain and have some fun when we have time.’”

The Gold and Silver Fountain was a private club in the capital that offered a wide range of leisure activities, from swimming, tennis and golf, to spa services.

In the club, there was a beautiful fountain that sprayed water in both gold and silver colors, hence the name.

“So that person must be from the Han family and is familiar with the capital enough to know about the Gold and Silver Fountain, which was why he suspected you,” Qiao Yanjue quickly came to a realization.

“They would have investigated you now that they had suspicions. Despite your flawless background, the information you revealed may have raised some questions. Therefore...” Xia Xibei added.

Han Rui was stunned, "But there could be numerous places called the Gold and Silver Fountain!"

"Perhaps they'd rather kill the wrong person than let someone slip through," Xia Xibei shrugged, "After all, you know their business doesn't allow any room for error."

Besides, Han Rui was a newcomer, and even if they had confirmed his background, they couldn't just let him go so easily.

Furthermore, Han Rui had the potential to become a trusted subordinate, which made it even more critical that they didn't overlook any issues.

That person knew Han Rui's profession, making it easier to discover problems.

Chapter 1750 - 1750 Asking the Police for Help

1750 Asking the Police for Help

They came to that conclusion after discussion, and even though they weren't certain if it was true or not, it left Han Rui in devastation.

"So it was me who exposed myself?!"

If that were true, he would literally cry for being such a fool!

“In fact, even if you hadn’t exposed yourself, they wouldn’t have let go of you,” Xia Xibei comforted him.

The reason why those people could evade the law for so long was because they were cautious enough.

If they hadn’t been, they would have been arrested long ago.

Therefore, it was not a bad idea to be cautious, as this was a life-threatening matter.

Even with the slightest bit of suspicion, the police would begin to investigate.

Strictly speaking, Han Rui did not lose it all this time around.

Despite Xia Xibei’s comfort, he still felt terrible.

He exposed his identity due to his carelessness, which subjected him to numerous attacks.

Moreover, he doubted his own comrades because of this.

It was heart-wrenching to even think about.

“Of course, if you think of other possibilities, we can verify it in other ways,” Xia Xibei flashed a sly smile.

“What ways?” Han Rui queried.

“What would an ordinary person do in the face of danger or something untoward?” Xia Xibei smiled.

“What would I do, you mean?” Han Rui frowned, “I would deal with it myself, of course!”

Qiao Yanjue patted him, “Silly! You should of course ask your comrades for help!”

Xia Xibei knocked the two of them, “You should call the police!”

She was frustrated.

From the reactions of the two, they both preferred to rely on themselves when something happened.

This was a good thing, as everyone should rely on themselves, but they didn’t have to rely on themselves all the time.

They should call the police when necessary!

“Call the cops?!” Han Rui was shocked.

He was a member of the special forces, with a status higher than that of the police.

Therefore, he never thought of asking the police for help when something happened.

After all, if he couldn't solve the problem, how could the police do it?

Now, after Xia Xibei said so, he was stunned.

"Isn't that obvious!" Xia Xibei said confidently, "When you encounter danger, call the police!"

"But..." Han Rui panicked, "Those people may have guns!"

He would feel so bad if the cops got hurt!

"Can't you split up and deal with them separately?" Xia Xibei gave him a disdainful look.

She was very skeptical about his IQ and the fact that he hadn't got himself killed all these years.

"Split up and deal with them?" Han Rui was shocked, and then widened his eyes, "Yes! We can split up and deal with them!"

They had listened to the wiretapping device and heard that there were at least four people.

If four of them started shooting, it would definitely injure a lot of police officers.

However, if they dealt with them separately, it would be much safer.

“Besides, if we’re worried about them getting hurt, we can first replace the things in their bags!”

“Replace them?” Han Rui got even more surprised. “How do we do that?”

“Now, who can get close to them?” Xia Xibei posed a question.

“They’re all dangerous criminals!” Han Rui said incredulously.

“Don’t worry, there’s always someone who can get close to them,” Xia Xibei said with a smile.

“You’re not thinking about becoming a janitor, are you?”

Qiao Yanjue, who understood Xia Xibei well, realized her intentions right away.

“A janitor?!” Han Rui was shocked. “No way! You’ll get hurt!”

Those guys had guns!

“They won’t hurt me,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “We’re not going to rob them by force.”
