

Chapter 1831 - 1831 All Kinds of Negative Stories (2)

1831 All Kinds of Negative Stories (2)

The marketing account said that this was Xia Xibei's boyfriend she had in private.

This boyfriend was the president of the Qiao Group, named Qiao Yanjue.

However, Xia Xibei also had a relationship with Qiao Yanjue's nephew before she got together with Qiao Yanjue.

There were photos for evidence.

Those photos were more intimate.

The photos showed Xia Xibei and Qiao Haoming hugging and kissing.

When this news came out, the online reaction was explosive.

No one expected that Xia Xibei would have relationships with so many men at the same time!

Before this, Xia Xibei rarely had this type of news. After all, Xia Xibei was so outstanding.

She was beautiful and good at school. She was so outstanding in every way, and every time something happened, she made others speechless.

Such a domineering Sister Bei would always immediately debunk any romantic rumors and easily refuted others.

So, there was very little romantic news about her and just photos of her work.

This time, so much of this kind of news appeared at once, and there were several male protagonists... This was completely out of everyone's expectations.

It seemed that someone was trying to ruin her.

People simply did not expect that Xia Xibei was such a person in private!

Some fans defended Xia Xibei.

[Sister Bei is so powerful, how could she do such a thing?! The rumor-mongers could just go die!]

[My Sister Bei is a queen, she doesn't need a man at all! What the hell are you talking about?]

[Are you kidding, does Sister Bei need the support of others to have resources?! You guys are too jealous! How many lemons have you eaten?]

There were some people who defended Xia Xibei, but there were more people who scolded her.

There were a lot of people who wanted to condemn Xia Xibei.

[See, I told you, I bet there is a benefactor behind her since she's so capable at such a young age! And it's not just one benefactor!]

[She's into good looks! The people she found are quite handsome!]

[I heard that someone say that middle-aged man is her father! Hahahaha... He's the godfather, right?]

[Wow, so exciting! Even a godfather has appeared?]

The online world was buzzing with these things and very lively.

There were many paid commentators who directly portrayed Xia Xibei as having no ability, only a pretty face, and who relied on her looks to hook up with countless benefactors. She was just an airhead who used her looks to get ahead.

Under the leadership of the paid commentators, many people felt that Xia Xibei was this kind of trash.

The previous so-called top scholar label was fake.

As for the matter that Xia Xibei was the top student in the college entrance examination, it was also false.

When people figured out Qi Zhi'an's identity, they felt that it was not a difficult task to make her a top scholar in the college entrance exams.

So, people online spewed wildly at Xia Xibei, wanting to trash her.

Of course, there were also people who admired Xia Xibei for finding some very handsome people!

At least they felt that her looks were not wasted.

If a beautiful woman was with an ugly man, it would be really hard on the eyes.

In the face of the comments and anger that swarmed the internet, SY Entertainment did not act.

It was not that there was no movement, but SY Entertainment was not calm either.

Due to these "revelations" and the fact that Xia Xibei did not come out immediately to deny the rumors, the advertisers were angry and wanted to cancel the endorsement with Xia Xibei.

Now, Xia Xibei had several endorsements.

There were several endorsements for clothing, food, and transportation, everything except for housing.

Here, except for Qi Yuntian's company, which did not move, all other advertisers asked to cancel their contracts.

For them, if Xia Xibei was involved in these matters, it was the end.

Chapter 1832 - 1832 All Kinds of Negative Stories (3)

1832 All Kinds of Negative Stories (3)

In the entertainment industry, unless male artists were involved with drugs, rumors of cheating or dating multiple people would just earn them some scolding. They could still make a comeback and have fans protecting them.

However, if an actress was in trouble, then it was a problem.

The actress would be demonized to death!

In the current environment, the requirements for women were much harsher than the requirements for men.

So, even if Xia Xibei was fantastic, after these kinds of things happened, she would be criticized.

Many girls, in particular, wanted to destroy Xia Xibei.

In their opinion, women like Xia Xibei messed up the morality of women, and she was really too insulting to the existence of women!

Men could cheat or misbehave, but women absolutely could not make a mistake.

It was not ancient times anymore, but many people's minds were still stuck in that era.

Other than some fans and some sober people speaking for her, everyone else criticized Xia Xibei.

With paid commentators leading the way, many people couldn't wait to catch Xia Xibei and torture her.

Even if the matter had not yet been decided, many people had already given Xia Xibei a death sentence.

Therefore, many advertisers had chosen to cancel their contracts with Xia Xibei.

Pan Yan had a bad headache.

As Xia Xibei's manager, he certainly knew the relationship between Xia Xibei and these men.

Except for the inexplicable Qiao Haoming, Qiao Yanjue was indeed Xia Xibei's boyfriend, and the man to whom she was rumored to be mistress to was really Xia Xibei's own father!

What the hell!

The trashy marketing accounts didn't know what they were doing and used this to spread rumors!

What was annoying was that even if they disproved the rumors, they couldn't make people change their opinion.

He didn't know where the paid commentators came from, but it was like they wanted to sentence Xia Xibei to death!

It was simply terrible!

He also had a headache dealing with the termination of those advertisers' contracts.

What was even worse was that he couldn't find Xia Xibei!

How could this matter be solved if the protagonist did not appear?

Even if there were fans who spoke for her, the fans were facing dozens of times more opponents!

What should they do in this situation?

Pan Yan kept calling Xia Xibei, but couldn't find her.

This made him grow half a head of gray hair.

While he was having a headache, something happened to Hongyan Youth.

He didn't know who broke the news that Xia Xibei and Huo Zijun, the president of Hongyan Youth, were also having an affair.

It was not known where the photo came from, but it showed Xia Xibei and Huo Zijun together.

When this photo came out, it immediately stunned everyone.

Was Xia Xibei collecting stamps? How dare she have her feet on so many boats?

What a joke!

At the same time, Hongyan Youth's products were also revealed to be faulty.

Hongyan Youth was now a star of domestic products, and although its price was a little more expensive, the effect was also very good.

However, some people came out and said that after using Hongyan Youth, their face was fine at first, but later on, their faces rotted!

Their faces rotted!

The photos of the puffy and pus-filled faces posted online made everyone gasp.

This was too damn horrible, right?

Was Hongyan Youth this horrific?

Then news broke out that Hongyan Youth came from Xia Xibei's research.

When this news came out, everyone looked at it sideways.

Xia Xibei, even if she was a top student, even though her top score in the college entrance examination was bought, was not a medical student!

If she did not study medicine, what was she doing with the research and development of skin care products?

Did she think it was as simple as taking two eggs and honey and putting it on her face?

She was experimenting with everyone's life for money!

Boycott! Boycott! Everyone wanted her out of the entertainment industry!

Chapter 1833 - 1833 Not Daring to Refute

1833 Not Daring to Refute

This time, the matter drew the attention of everyone.

Originally, Xia Xibei's fame and ratings were very good, and many people called her Sister Bei.

Top scorer in the college exams, was good-looking, achiever in all areas, and she also did a lot of good things before.

What a fantastic and positive idol she was!

Who would have thought that in just a few days, her "true colors" were uncovered?

What was even more frightening was that she was dating so many men. Wasn't she afraid of messing up?

Moreover, she was also the one who developed Hongyan Youth products. This was too much!

When this news came out, people couldn't help but wonder what happened in the first place.

Those people who said Hongyan Youth worked well... Were all paid, right?

These things were so expensive and ended up rotting people's faces. It was horrible!

She was simply evil!

She must be thrown out of the entertainment industry!

This kind of person absolutely could not continue to stay in the industry, she would ruin the children with her influence.

Many of the fans were minors, and those children's outlook was not set in stone yet, and if they were brought down by Xia Xibei, it would be the end.

Therefore, everyone was angry, and the hashtag #GetXiaXibeiOutOftheIndustry had become popular and stayed a hot topic.

The most annoying thing was that after all these things happened, Xia Xibei didn't come out and say anything. Was she feeling sheepish?!

Definitely sheepish!

Such a person should be arrested!

There were also people who called the police to have Xia Xibei arrested. After all, these things were too much.

Looking at the uproar on the Internet, Xia Xibei, however, remained silent.

Qi Xin's eyes were calm.

"You are really ruthless." Gu Guanlin looked at Qi Xin. "You even got Qi Zhi'an involved?"

Qi Zhi'an was the father of Xia Xibei!

However, Qi Xin also perverted the relationship between Qi Zhi'an and Xia Xibei in the media, the way she did it was very powerful.

Qi Zhi'an was her father too, who had been so good to her before, but she slandered his reputation anyway.

Although it was said that there were many people who knew the real relationship between Xia Xibei and Qi Zhi'an, those people would not come out to speak.

Although they didn't know what really happened to the Qi family, everyone knew that the Qi family had now completely changed.

It was previously thought that Qi Zhi'an would inherit the Qi family leadership, but that person had now become Qi Zhiqiang.

Qi Xin, Qi Zhiqiang's daughter, had also joined Gu Guanlin in marriage.

This kind of strong strength and background made others dare not mess around.

Besides, Qi Zhi'an was sure to lose. As for Xia Xibei, she was only Qi Zhi'an's daughter. Although she had a little fame, she was only a minor celebrity. There was simply no way for her to really fight with the Qi family.

So, everyone knew which side to take.

Those who were weak and wanted to speak up to defend Xia Xibei, it was even more useless.

Under the leadership of the paid commentators, everyone believed that the so-called father figure was definitely a godfather.

The word "godfather" had long been tainted.

The moment you mentioned godfather, you thought of benefactors and sexual favors.

So, people were not going to believe these kinds of words, they just felt that the real relationship was even more disgusting and obscene.

Even if those who knew the truth spoke up, there was no way to reverse the impression of so many people.

Most importantly, even if they explained that Qi Zhi'an was Xia Xibei's real father, who would believe it if the protagonist didn't come out and say anything?

Of course, even if Xia Xibei came out to explain, not many people would believe this claim.

So that was why Xia Xibei's situation was getting more and more complicated.

"Isn't this quite good?" Qi Xin looked at Gu Guanlin and slightly curved her mouth. "Did I do something wrong?"

"Of course not," Gu Guanlin shook his head. "You did a good job."

Chapter 1834 - 1834 Complacent (1)

1834 Complacent (1)

Gu Guanlin just did not expect Qi Xin would do something so ruthless.

However, the fact that she had gone after Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao before already showed her determination.

So, it was nothing more than being vilified as a messy relationship.

"So what's next? Qi Xibei doesn't seem to be coming out to say anything."

They hadn't found where Xia Xibei was yet either.

Of course, they didn't care about her whereabouts.

Even if Xia Xibei and company were still alive and well, it wasn't that easy to get past this.

"Of course, they have no way to escape," Qi Xin smiled.

At this moment, her expression was calm, but her heart felt very happy.

If Xia Xibei hadn't come back, she would still be Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao's daughter, and then, after that, all of Qi's fortune would be hers.

In that case, she would not hurt Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao.

So it was all because of Xia Xibei!

Ever since Xia Xibei came back, Qi Xin had been keeping a very low profile.

This low profile was a kind of torture for her.

Ever since she was little, she was the center of attention in a crowd, the proud focus of everyone. When she opened her mouth, everyone would pay attention to her.

Then Xia Xibei appeared and stole her spotlight completely.

No matter what she was compared to, she was overwhelmed by Xia Xibei.

This feeling was really too disgusting.

So, she chose to hibernate and finish Xia Xibei off in one fell swoop!

“There should be no way for her to escape,” Gu Guanlin nodded his head.

Of course, Xia Xibei could choose to quit the entertainment industry.

However, even if she quit the entertainment industry, Qi Xin would not let her go.

It was obvious that Qi Xin hated her and couldn't wait for her to die.

That was why Qi Xin didn't poison Xia Xibei.

No matter what Xia Xibei did afterwards, she would be disrupted by Qi Xin.

She would definitely make Xia Xibei's life miserable and painful.

"It's not enough," Qi Xin shook her head. "I want her to beg for mercy on her knees!"

Qi Xin's eyes were conspiratorial and very ruthless.

Looking at Qi Xin like this, Gu Guanlin did not feel afraid but felt good.

It was good to have such a partner, better her than those emotional fools.

"What about the old man?"

"You don't have to worry about that," Qi Xin shook her head. "He's still useful."

Gu Guanlin shrugged his shoulders and didn't continue to ask this.

The old man was now hidden by Qi Zhiqiang and the others, and he didn't know where he was.

However, this was the Qi family's business, so he didn't need to pay attention to it.

"By the way, Wang Tianze and the others are here," Gu Guanlin said.

Wang Tianze was the one who came over earlier and worked with them.

If it wasn't for Wang Tianze's participation, they wouldn't have had it so smooth now.

"What does he want?" Qi Xin asked.

"He said that Yang Mo's research results came out."

"It's out?"

Qi Xin's eyes moved slightly.

Before this, Wang Tianze and Yang Mo had contacted her about the research on anti-cancer drugs.

This made Qi Xin very excited.

If the anti-cancer drug was successfully researched, then she would be able to control the Qi family securely.

The majority of Qi's shares were in their own hands, but there were some small shareholders.

To get those shareholders to fully support them, they needed to let them see the benefits.

That was why Qi Xin chose to work with Yang Mo.

By taking advantage of this anti-cancer drug, they would be able to make a huge profit.

In this way, they would also know which side to be on.

Even if Qi Zhi'an and the others were really that lucky and came back safely later, everyone would know which side to choose.

"Then let's go over there."

Chapter 1835 - 1835 Complacent (2)

1835 Complacent (2)

Soon, the two of them met with Wang Tianze and others.

After seeing Qi Xin, Yang Mo showed a bright smile.

“Congratulations.”

Yang Mo paid attention to things on the internet, especially anything involving Xia Xibei.

Therefore, she naturally knew about the crisis Xia Xibei was facing now and was very pleased and ecstatic.

Previously, she was shafted by Xia Xibei, embarrassing her, and she wanted to kill Xia Xibei!

Unfortunately, she knew that Xia Xibei was strong enough and had no way to deal with her for a while, so she could only work on her own to get the anti-cancer drug researched.

Unexpectedly, before she could do it, Qi Xin had already struck.

When she thought of Xia Xibei being spit on by everyone, unable to argue, she felt happy and could not wait to laugh!

“Likewise,” Qi Xin also laughed.

When she met Yang Mo, Qi Xin knew that Yang Mo and herself were the same.

She also hated Xia Xibei.

They all shared a common enemy, then they could become friends.

They would have a bright future only when Xia Xibei was squashed.

“Okay, let’s sit down first,” Wang Tianze said to them.

Wang Tianze’s smile was also bright and in a very good mood.

All the displeasure of being rejected by Xia Xibei before had completely disappeared at this moment.

He now felt that Xia Xibei was a fool and had bad luck.

It was really too much of a waste of time to bother with such a person!

There were five people present, besides Gu Guanlin and Qi Xin, and Wang Tianze also brought his friend Xue Zhelang.

Of the people present, in addition to Xue Zhelang and Gu Guanlin, the other three were all enemies of Xia Xibei.

Xue Zhelang did not know Xia Xibei, but Wang Tianze was his best friend, and when his friend was bullied, he must help.

As for Gu Guanlin, he and Qi Xin were partners, so naturally they had to be on the same page.

All the people here were considered to have a common enemy, plus they all wanted to have more benefits, so they naturally had a good time talking.

After exchanging pleasantries, they began to pay compliments to Yang Mo.

“Once this drug is released, you will be famous!” Gu Guanlin said to Yang Mo.

“It’s nothing. It’s my wish to help the patients,” Yang Mo smiled and said.

The words were very lofty, but everyone present knew what her starting point was.

However, it was no big deal.

Although they had personal interests, didn’t they still do good to those patients?

All those things they did were indeed good things!

“Did it get approved completely?” Qi Xin asked. “All the formalities are done?”

In order for a drug to be marketed, it still had to go through various procedures and evaluations.

It was not like it could just be marketed. Who knew what the after-effects and side effects would be?

Yang Mo almost finished the research on the drug a month ago, but found that there were some problems here and there and had to do it again.

So, it was delayed until now that she had succeeded completely.

She had enough confidence in her work.

“It’s been sent for testing. The results will be out soon.” Yang Mo is confident.

“You’re really great!”

“It’s amazing!”

“It’s a lifesaver for cancer patients!”

Yang Mo's face was so red from the flattery and her mood was soaring to the sky.

In fact, Xia Xibei should have this kind of ability too.

However, it would take her quite a lot of time to do all these things.

Xia Xibei simply couldn't catch up with her.

So, Yang Mo wasn't worried.

Chapter 1836 - 1836 Complacent (3)

1836 Complacent (3)

In this regard, Yang Mo was not worried.

In this world, Yang Mo believed that she was the only powerful one.

Xia Xibei was so strong, yet she had degraded herself to become an actor. This kind of decision left her really puzzled.

If Xia Xibei put her heart and soul into the research of these drugs, wouldn't she already be rich?

Being an actor was very nice, but you also had to deal with many things and had a lot of trouble.

For example, this time, so many “negative materials” had been exposed about Xia Xibei, how would she be able to defend herself?

For Yang Mo, Xia Xibei’s approach was too silly.

What was the use of being an actor? If anything happened, you would still be scolded by the world.

If Xia Xibei had put her heart into medical research, she would not have been able to compete.

However, with this one anti-cancer drug, she would be able to completely overpower Xia Xibei.

Even if Xia Xibei rose to the occasion later, she was still one step behind.

Moreover, she would not give Xia Xibei a chance to catch up!

Thinking of this, Yang Mo’s smile became even wider, as if she had already seen the beautiful image of Xia Xibei crying and begging herself to let her go.

“Good, then I wish you success!” Qi Xin said to Yang Mo with a smile as she raised the glass of wine on the table.

“Good, success for everyone!”

After drinking a glass of wine, Wang Tianze smiled very brightly, but his eyes were grim.

“When she kneels down and begs me, I’ll make her give me a baby!”

Wang Tianze had never given up on this matter, although he was gay, not interested in girls, and could not get aroused by them.

However, he didn’t have to do anything to Xia Xibei, as long as Xia Xibei became his pregnant baby mama and helped give birth to the baby.

After all, Xia Xibei was good-looking, had a good brain, and was good in every way.

Such a woman as the mother of his child would be considered satisfactory.

When the time came, he would take Xia Xibei back, lock her up, and make her have his baby!

With the genes of the two of them, the child that was born would naturally be very outstanding.

When Xia Xibei had given birth to a child, then he could get rid of her.

When that time came, he would give Xia Xibei to someone else to play with!

When he had a child, he could go back to his family and continue to fight for the inheritance.

Who cared what his sexual orientation was when he had a child?

The more he thought about it, the bigger Wang Tianze's smile got. He was a little enchanted.

The expressions of the people in the room were all as joyful as one another.

Although the things they were rejoicing over were different, their purpose was the same, and that was enough.

"Let's drink!"

Yang Mo raised her glass again with a big smile.

She couldn't wait to see Xia Xibei's miserable end!

She would make her life worse than death!

Looking at the other allies, Qi Xin's smile also grew wider and bolder.

"I say, should we go have some fun?" Xue Zhelang drank a glass of wine and suggested. "It's too boring here, should we go out?"

In fact, the reason why he joined their team was not only because of brotherhood but also because of the anti-cancer medicine in Yang Mo's hand.

His father was now suffering from cancer and was lying in his hospital bed, connected with an IV to continue his life.

If he took home the anti-cancer medicine invented by Yang Mo and cured his father's illness, wouldn't the position of heir be his?

"Where to?" Qi Xin didn't refuse either.

It was indeed time to celebrate.

Although Xia Xibei wasn't completely crushed, it was enough.

"Just go to...."

Before Xue Zhelang could finish his words, his phone vibrated.

“Sorry.”

He picked up his phone, opened it, and his expression changed instantly.

Chapter 1837 - 1837 Health is Improved

1837 Health is Improved

Xue Zhelang opened his phone, looked at the content on it and his face changed.

“What’s wrong?” Wang Tianzhi immediately asked.

Xue Zhelang was his good friend, so of course he had to care about him.

“I have something going on at home, they’re asking me to go home now,” Xue Zhelang said with a frown.

“Something?” Everyone was puzzled. “What is it?”

“I don’t know,” he shook his head. “I won’t know until I get back.”

He was a little regretful, “It’s a pity we can’t go out to have fun now.”

“It’s okay, we didn’t have a chance this time. Next time.”

Everyone reassured him.

Anyway, there was no hurry.

“Okay,” Xue Zhelang nodded and waved his hand with the phone. “I’ll go back now. I’ll come back another time.”

“Okay,” everyone nodded their heads.

Of course, it was the Xue family’s business that was more important.

Xue Zhelang stood up and kept tapping on his phone.

Although he didn’t know what was happening at home yet, he had to ask about it.

In the next second, his expression froze and his movements stopped.

“What’s wrong?”

His reaction was so strange that everyone couldn’t help but worry.

"I... Damn it!" Xue Zhelang couldn't help cursing. "How is it possible?!"

"What's wrong? What happened?" Seeing this intense reaction from him, everyone became concerned. "Is everything okay?"

Xue Zhelang looked up, his hands were trembling, and his face was even more ugly.

"They said... My dad's illness..."

"What? It's not something wrong, right?"

Everyone became more worried.

Could it be that Patriarch Xue died?

If that was the case, then it was a bit of a headache.

After all, there would be some inheritance issues involved.

The Xue family's situation was very different

The City of Ao allowed people to have several wives because of historical reasons.

Of course, it was no longer allowed.

However, Xue Zhelang's father's generation was still allowed to do so.

So, Patriarch Xue had three wives.

All three wives were legal, which meant that all the children had the right to inherit.

It was up to Patriarch Xue to arrange how to divide the estate.

If Patriarch Xue did not leave an inheritance, then they would have to fight.

In serious cases, there could be a fight.

Of course, they had already fought in private quite a bit.

That was why Xue Zhelang chose to cooperate with Yang Mo and the others, just to get more benefits in this fight.

As long as Xue Zhelang waited for a few more days and the results came out, he could take the medicine back, let Patriarch Xue take it, and then Patriarch Xue could get well.

Although after recovery, Patriarch Xue probably still couldn't get completely better because of his age, it would be very good to not suffer as much from the disease.

In this way, Xue Zhelang, who brought the medicine back, would also satisfy Patriarch Xue and thus get more rewards.

At that time, most of the Xue family's property would fall into his hands.

However, if something happened to Patriarch Xue at this time, it would be a problem.

"No, no." Xue Zhelang looked at them with a stiff expression and a face of disbelief, "He... He has..."

"He has what? Just tell us!"

The people were a little anxious.

He was so slow in talking, it was worrying them!

"He has..." Xue Zhelang's eyes were in a bit of a trance. "He has gotten better!"

"What?!" several people spoke in unison, just as shocked.

“What did you say?!”

“What do you mean he’s well?! You didn’t say that wrong, did you?”

Everyone thought they had heard wrong, or Xue Zhelang said it wrong.

How could the man just get better?!

He had cancer!

Patriarch Xue’s old age made things even more problematic when he had cancer.

Chapter 1838 - 1838 An Ominous Premonition

1838 An Ominous Premonition

If Patriarch Xue didn’t have the money to renew his life with the best medicines and the best doctors, he might have died by now.

Yet, Xue Zhelang was saying that Patriarch Xue was doing well now?!

What a joke!

A few days ago, he was in bad shape!

It wasn't a dream, was it?

Xue Zhelang was in a trance and just felt like he was dreaming.

He showed his phone to everyone.

The content on the screen made everyone freeze for a moment.

It was a photo.

In the photo was a man on crutches.

The man was probably in his seventies and looked very old.

He could no longer be seen as handsome, as when he was young, but you could tell that he was in good spirits.

Although on crutches, he was in a very good mood, smiling and talking to the people next to him, his face blooming with happiness.

He looked very happy, as if he had experienced some fantastic event.

However, such a display shocked everyone.

This... Was Patriarch Xue?

This was Ao City's richest man, Patriarch Xue?!

"When was this photo taken?" Wang Tianzhi asked, with an ominous feeling in his heart.

"It was just now!" Xue Zhelang let out a low roar. "Just now my mother sent it to me!"

"How is that possible?!"

Everyone drew in a breath.

If it was a picture of Patriarch Xue before he got sick, everyone would believe it.

But didn't he have cancer?!

Then, how could he look so vibrant?!

"It really was just now!" Xue Zhelang's expression was inexplicable. "This is the photo my mother sent me, just now!"

Xue Zhelang's mother was the second wife of Patriarch Xue and fought ferociously with the other two wives.

So, when anything happened in the house, she immediately tipped off Xue Zhelang.

"How could it be!" Everyone was stunned. "How did he get better?!"

He had cancer!

How could he get well so easily after having cancer?

It was even harder when Patriarch Xue was older.

How could he be so refreshed in this condition, as if he didn't have the disease?

"I don't know." Xue Zhelang was a little flustered. "I just know he's better now!"

He was filled with anxiety and panic.

If his father was well now, that meant that someone had found a good doctor or medicine that would cure him.

So, who did it, exactly?

“How did it happen?” Yang Mo’s expression was hard to read, and her fingers almost gouged the palms of her hands.

She had an incredible candidate in mind: Xia Xibei!

But that couldn’t be it!

How could Xia Xibei suddenly run to Xue’s house?

She didn’t know Xue Zhelang’s role in this matter!

Besides, why didn’t Xia Xibei come out to solve the online crisis, but went to treat the disease?

What was wrong with her?

Yang Mo was madly cursing to herself, but she couldn't deny it.

If there was one person in the world who could cure an old man with cancer in a short time, it would be Xia Xibei!

Even she didn't have that kind of ability!

"I don't know!" Xue Zhelang's face was very ugly. "So, I have to go back and see!"

He did not continue to delay and immediately made a phone call to arrange a flight back.

Looking at his departing back, the few people who remained in the same place looked at each other. Their faces were not very pleasant.

This... Would not really have any problems, right?

Why was there some kind of ominous feeling?

Suddenly, Yang Mo's phone rang.

Looking at the number on it, her heart jumped and her face immediately changed.

Chapter 1839 - 1839 My Choice (1)

1839 My Choice (1)

After Xue Zhelang received the call, he immediately made arrangements to go back home.

To him, his family inheritance was the most important thing.

Getting the inheritance was the only way to be able to do more things.

Moreover, the situation of the Xue family was special.

There were three wives in the Xue family, and all three wives had several children. With so many people fighting together, it was a mess!

This was why Xue Zhelang chose to work with Wang Tianzhi and the others.

If he cooperated with them, he would be able to take the Xue family's succession with greater certainty.

However, he could not have imagined that something like this would suddenly happen.

His father's cancer had actually gotten better?

Before this, his father's cancer was already at an advanced stage, and if it wasn't for the expensive medicine that supported him, consuming plenty of medicine every day, he might have died long ago.

Looking at the situation, his days were numbered.

Only Yang Mo's anti-cancer medicine could bring new life.

Therefore, after knowing that Yang Mo had such research, he immediately chose to cooperate with them.

Who would have thought that before Yang Mo's drug came out, his father would be cured?

Who did it?

Xue Zhelang was very puzzled and shocked.

He remembered that a few days ago when he called home, his father was still in the same bad condition.

Only a few days had passed, and his father was able to stand up?!

Even with a new body, it was not that fast, right?

Could it be that the gods have come down to earth? Or was it some kind of last hurrah before death?

The thoughts in Xue Zhelang's mind were so mixed up that he could not calm down.

Soon, after he caught a flight back home, the others arrived as well.

No matter how old or young, the whole Xue family came back, and everyone crowded into the Xue family mansion.

There were three generations of the Xue family.

Patriarch Xue was the oldest generation and had long since had his own household, separate from his siblings.

Many of the siblings in Xue Zhelang's generation were already married and had children.

Therefore, the Xue family now had three generations in the same family.

However, there was not much harmony and friendship among them.

After all, who would be so foolish as to want to share with others when there was such a large fortune?

People heard that Patriarch Xue was getting well from their mothers or from other people.

After learning that Patriarch Xue was well, everyone reacted differently.

There were those who were happy for Father, but more people were curious.

This was not a common cold and flu, it was cancer!

Their father was cured?

Was he kidding?!

If they hadn't seen the photos, everyone would have thought that they were being fooled!

Soon, the Xue family mansion was packed with people.

Xue Zhelang first exchanged pleasantries with the other siblings without smiling and then stared intently inside.

After waiting anxiously for a while, they heard the sound of crutches on the ground.

The sound was not very crisp, a little dragging, and a little slow. It could be heard that the person was not very robust.

However, the sound also seemed to knock on everyone's heart.

Was... Was this the sound of the old man's crutches?

This meant that the old man could indeed walk around!

Before, he was lying in bed, relying on medicine to keep him alive.

Now, he could actually walk on his own?

If he had come in a wheelchair, everyone would not have been so shocked.

But the old man actually walked over by himself!

When they saw the old man walking, everyone was wide-eyed.

No amount of imagination could compare to the shock of seeing this scene with your own eyes!

The old man really stood up, and walked by himself!

Look at that speed, that energy!

Chapter 1840 - 1840 My Choice (2)

1840 My Choice (2)

Xue Zhelang's reaction was the same as everyone else's.

It was shocking to see Patriarch Xue, the patriarch, who had been lying on the sick bed for so long, suddenly walk out by himself.

However, after looking at who was next to the patriarch, Xue Zhelang couldn't help but draw in a breath.

The patriarch was followed by a beautiful young woman.

The woman was around twenty years old, tall, attractive, and elegant.

She walked by the patriarch's side with a neutral expression, but without being robbed of her luster.

What was more, when she walked over, everyone's gazes turned from the patriarch to hers.

What a beautiful girl!

However, it was Xue Zhelang who was most shocked.

It was Xia Xibei?

Why was she here?

At this moment, Xue Zhelang wanted to shout.

Why was Xia Xibei here, and by the patriarch's side?

Looking at the other people around the patriarch, their attitude towards her was so respectful!

People from the Xue family were very arrogant.

This was not surprising. After all, the Xue family was the richest in Ao City!

The family was even known internationally.

When they were out and about, they were very snobbish.

However, in front of Xia Xibei, these people's arrogance seemed to never have existed and they wanted nothing more than to bend over.

What the hell was this... Situation?!

Xue Zhelang was confused, and he could not figure out the story here.

Wasn't Xia Xibei hiding from the online outcry?

Instead of coming out to explain herself, she came here?

What the hell was going on?

Xue Zhelang's body stiffened as he watched Xia Xibei walk over step by step.

An absurd speculation surfaced.

Was it possible that... Xia Xibei had something to do with the patriarch?

At this thought, he couldn't help but laugh sarcastically.

It was hard to believe that Xia Xibei couldn't find a benefactor elsewhere, so she came to the patriarch for support?!

The patriarch, after all, was the richest man in the city, and if he could help, Xia Xibei's problems were not an issue at all.

Even if she couldn't get along at home, she could go to other countries.

Xue Zhelang had these thoughts, but his mind was still blank.

He didn't dare to admit another thought in his mind, and this speculation made his face freeze.

Under the eyes of the crowd, the patriarch walked with Xia Xibei in front of the crowd.

The patriarch's pace was heavy and slow, but it was steady, step by step.

Seeing his powerful movements, the whole hall was silent.

Even the children were controlled by their parents to keep them from making a sound.

Soon, the patriarch took Xia Xibei to the front of the crowd, stood, looked around, and then showed a big smile.

It was a great feeling!

After lying in bed for so long, unable to have any semblance of autonomy, only to be manipulated by the doctors and nurses, it was really unbearable.

Now that he was finally on his feet and could stand in front of everyone and could face everyone openly, he felt great!

“Okay, everyone is here. I have an announcement to make.”

The patriarch brought a smile to the corners of his mouth.

The old face also looked much younger at this moment.

Hearing the patriarch had something to announce, everyone could not help but perk up their ears.

Could it be about succession?

Sure enough, the patriarch spoke up, “We asked everyone to come back to talk about the matter of inheritance.”

Immediately, everyone’s eyes widened and their breathing became rapid.
