

Chapter 1851 - 1851 The Island and the Spiritual Snake (5)

1851 The Island and the Spiritual Snake (5)

Xia Xibei returned to the villa area with the newly emerged Little Green.

Xue Pingze came out soon after.

“Dr. Qi, is it done already? Do you need our help?” Xue Pingze said with great respect.

“It’s done,” Xia Xibei smiled. “We can go back now.”

“You’re going back so soon?” Xue Ping was surprised. “Don’t you want to relax here for a few days?”

They were all ready to entertain Xia Xibei here.

“No,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “I have things to do.”

“All right then.”

Xue Pingze was a little sorry but didn’t say anything.

Xia Xibei's current situation was indeed a bit troublesome, so he couldn't let her stay without worry.

"Then let's go back now?"

"Yes," Xia Xibei nodded her head.

Xue Ping was just about to leave when he suddenly stopped, his eyes fixed on Xia Xibei's wrist.

This was a tropical place, so they had changed into short sleeves when they came over.

However, on Xia Xibei's pale wrist, there was suddenly a touch of verdant and translucent green.

On top of this green, there were some silver stripes, which looked quite beautiful.

When she came over before, wasn't her hand free of any accessories?

Xia Xibei did not have any jewelry.

However, this was only an hour later. How come she wore a bracelet?

In the next second, still in doubt, he shrank backward in shock. "Uh... what is this?!"

On Xia Xibei's hand, the thing that looked like a bracelet moved!

How could it move?

Then, Xue Pingze saw that the front of this bracelet suddenly raised its head and he was eye-to-eye with a snake.

The next second, he couldn't help but scream. "Snake!"

While screaming, he stepped back.

Xia Xibei had a snake on her hand?

While he was horrified, the snake shook its head at him, as if it was nodding in greeting.

Looking at Xue Pingze, who was scared into screaming, Xia Xibei couldn't help but cough.

"It's okay, this... Is something I found in the forest."

“Found?!”

Xue Pingze’s face went white.

She found a snake in the forest?

What a joke!

Moreover, this snake looked... Like it was poisonous!

“It- It’s poisonous, right?!”

His face was pale.

“Don’t be afraid. It won’t hurt anyone,” Xia Xibei reassured him.

When she came back, Xia Xibei made a deal with Little Green.

She would take out the snake, but without her permission, it could not show its real appearance in front of outsiders, let alone attack people.

Little Green was a level four spiritual animal and was highly venomous.

Supposedly one bite could kill you after a while.

Moreover, no one but Xia Xibei could guarantee that these poisons could be undone.

So, she couldn't let the snake mess up, or there could be a disaster.

Little Green agreed to all these requests.

It wanted to be at Xia Xibei's side, so naturally it had to agree to these conditions.

"Let me introduce you. This is Little Green," Xia Xibei held up the snake and introduced it to Xue Pingze.

"Little Green?"

The corners of Xue Pingze's mouth twitched and his expression was incoherent.

The name Little Green... Was familiar!

It should be said that many Hua people had heard of this name.

However, it was really too amazing watching a real "Little Green" appear in front of him.

Dr. Qi was really a miracle doctor, even her pet was so different!

Chapter 1852 - 1852 A Miracle Doctor

1852 A Miracle Doctor

No matter what Xue Pingze thought, he could not change Xia Xibei's decision.

Of course, he also had confidence in Xia Xibei.

As long as she was there, this snake would not bite.

Still, when he got on the plane, he couldn't help but stay away from Xia Xibei, not daring to get too close to her, afraid he might accidentally touch her hand and get bitten.

The journey was trepidatious, and he soon returned to Ao City.

After returning to Ao City, Xia Xibei gave the patriarch some medicine and left.

Before she left, the patriarch warmly asked her to stay. However, she left anyway.

Before leaving, Xia Xibei said that the patriarch could talk about her to the public.

If someone asked for medical treatment, they could also contact her.

As for whether to treat them or not, that was her decision.

The patriarch had no problem with her decision and happily agreed to it.

When Xia Xibei left, he was happy to call others, especially his old friends.

The old friends who received his call were stunned.

Everyone knew that Patriarch Xue was sick these days and that his days were numbered.

Now he called people in such high spirits?

Could it be a last hurrah before death?

This was what everyone thought, but it was quickly dispelled.

The patriarch proudly bragged to his close friends that he had recovered from his illness and was in much better health than before.

This statement was unbelievable to those who received the call.

How was it possible?

It was obvious that he had terminal cancer!

How ludicrous?!

Who would joke about such a thing?

However, all the doubts completely vanished when they saw the man.

Looking at the patriarch, who was in great spirits, everyone believed that the patriarch was really well!

Everyone was shocked.

Where did the miracle doctor come from? Who had such skills?

The jaws of everyone dropped to the floor when they realized it was Xia Xibei.

This was a joke to them, Xia Xibei?

Wasn't she just an actress? When did she become a doctor?

Was this a career change?

But that was too big a leap!

After learning that Xia Xibei was a doctor, people couldn't help but look her up online and found out that there were more and more negative stories about her.

In addition to the fact that many advertisers wanted to cancel their cooperation with Xia Xibei, some people went to Director Smith's official site and asked him to remove Xia Xibei's parts in the movie!

Xia Xibei had not done many productions.

So far, only two or three TV series had been made, and only two movies, one of which was a Director Smith movie.

Due to the long production cycle, "Universal League" was still in post-production, and no release date had been set yet.

Xia Xibei's reputation was so shady now, with so many things going on, that people didn't want to see her work released.

Director Smith and the rest of the cast were great, and it would be bad if they were brought down by this villain, Xia Xibei.

Of course, while the public was making so much noise, Director Smith did not come out to speak.

Director Smith was an international director after all, and the film would be released not only in Hua but also in other countries.

Other countries were not too concerned about such “scandals” as Xia Xibei.

What was the big deal with romantic news?

In many countries, falling in love and breaking up, and having a couple of boyfriends or whatever was common.

Therefore, Director Smith did not worry too much about the Hua film market and was not controlled by the thoughts of the fans there.

Chapter 1853 - 1853 Telling the Truth (1)

1853 Telling the Truth (1)

Besides Director Smith’s crew, people dug up all of Xia Xibei’s previous exploits.

For example, her interaction with the tiger in “Hongyan Chance” was also said to be all post-production.

Haters said that she was not a “queen of animals” at all, but that her team had given her a fake persona!

The people online conducted a frame-by-frame analysis and found a lot of “suspicious” parts.

In addition to these stories, some people dig up Xia Xibei’s variety show appearances.

Xia Xibei’s previous performances in the show were said to be collaborations with the show.

As for the several good things Xia Xibei did, they were also said to be premeditated.

Even her capturing of the most wanted criminal was said to be planned. After all, she had so many benefactors.

When each of the benefactors helped her, how could she not be famous?!?

This kind of news came one after another, and the whole internet seemed to be discussing her.

In everyone’s discussion, she became a person who was dating lots of people and faking everything.

Although much of the so-called “inside information” was very exaggerated and ridiculous, because of Xia Xibei’s current reputation, many people thought that it sounded quite reasonable.

Except for a few fans who were “resisting,” the whole internet had become her haters.

Patriarch Xue's friends were stunned to see these messages on the internet.

Were all miracle doctors... So dramatic now?

While the internet was going crazy with discussions, Xia Xibei arrived at the hospital.

In the hospital, Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xue were both lying on the hospital bed, quietly slumbering.

Xia Xibei checked their condition, and then went to the lab to start making the antidote.

Before leaving, Xia Xibei put Little Green in the room to keep watch over the two.

She felt that sooner or later, something would happen.

It should almost be time to start.

Although there were other bodyguards in the room, she didn't think those people would be of much use.

Little Green shook its head at this arrangement, not wanting to leave Xia Xibei, but it had no choice but to stay.

It was coiled on a chair, looking small.

Although its color was a bit bright, it was not conspicuous.

The room was very quiet, with only the noise of the instruments and the sound of two people breathing.

Little Green rested on the chair, bored.

After half an hour of this, there was a sudden movement from outside.

“What’s going on?”

The bodyguards in the room frowned, then opened the door to go out.

Just as they opened the door, they felt that there was someone in front of them, and then their bodies were hit by a burst of electricity.

After a faint “zip” sound, they fainted on the floor.

The people who arrived looked at the situation and had sinister smiles on their faces.

Four people came over this time, and they were not weak.

They looked at the couple lying on the bed and exchanged a look with each other.

Then, they pulled out their knives and moved forward.

Seeing that the knives were about to fall on the two people, a voice sounded scared, "There is a snake!"

"Snake?!"

The others subconsciously turned their heads to look at where the voice came from and became terrified and wide-eyed.

The room somehow had a huge green snake.

The snake on the chair had a thick body, as if it was a tree growing for decades. It just raised its head and looked taller than them!

The snake's slithering tongue terrified them.

What they found most frightening was that the snake's tail was super powerful!

Chapter 1854 - 1854 Telling the Truth (2)

1854 Telling the Truth (2)

As these people came in, Little Green grew larger and flicked its tail, effortlessly slamming the men onto the floor.

The four men who came over simply did not expect such a strange snake to appear here and were almost ruined.

Of course, they were not far from being ruined.

Little Green took care of these people and waved its tail, a little regretful.

Xia Xibei said it could not bite people.

After all, its poison was too vicious. If people were found to be poisoned and had died, it might cause problems.

Cause problems?!

Little Green was speechless. How could humans be so troublesome?

After these men were taken care of, there was the sound of chaotic footsteps outside.

Little Green waved its tail and changed back to its previous small form.

“Hurry!!!”

The door was opened and the panicked voices came to an abrupt end.

The situation here stunned everyone.

What was all this?!

Looking at the four people lying on the ground, everyone was dumbfounded.

Those four people were not in good condition, and two of them had already vomited blood and were just lying on the ground, looking miserable.

So what had happened?

“Go and see sir and madam!” Someone shouted.

Someone rushed over to check on Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao, surprised to find that they continued to lie quietly on the bed, no different from before.

As for the instruments and so on, nothing had changed either.

There was no change except for the presence of those four poor men in the room.

Was it Qi Zhi'an and his wife who fought the men after they woke up?

If not, then who did it?

There was no one else in the room, was there?

Based on the appearance of these men, the person who did it had a lot of strength!

Everyone looked at each other with a dumbfounded and confused expression.

"Snake! Snake!" one of the dazed people on the ground moaned, his face pale.

The others quickly spotted Little Green on the chair and saw its petite size, the corners of their mouths twitching.

How weak were these men, to be scared like this by a small snake?

“Isn’t this the pet snake that Missy just left behind?”

“These men are useless!”

When Xia Xibei came over, the scene was no longer chaotic, and those men had been tied up.

She was unsurprised and asked in a cold voice, “What’s happening?”

“Hello, Missy!”

“Who are these guys?”

Xia Xibei walked in with two bottles.

The next second, there was a green glow in front of her eyes, and Little Green’s tail flicked and pounced on her.

Little Green flew into Xia Xibei’s arms, feeling the comfortable aura, and could not wait to roll around.

Xia Xibei looked at everyone and said lightly, “Let’s talk about what’s going on here.”

Hearing her say so, everyone turned their eyes toward the men on the ground.

“We don’t know what happened. When we came over, we saw they had fainted. One man said that they were knocked down by the snake...”

This was a little difficult to say, because the only snake here was the small snake in Xia Xibei’s arms.

What could this little snake be capable of?

The people were bewildered and confused.

“Forget it, get rid of them.” Xia Xibei touched Little Green, already understanding what was happening, and spoke to the people indifferently.

“OK!”

Everyone immediately nodded and carried these people out.

As for taking care of the situation, they naturally had experience.

Xia Xibei stroked Little Green’s head with satisfaction and praised it.

Little Green got even more pleased and rolled wildly on Xia Xibei’s wrist.

Luckily, no one else saw this scene. Otherwise, they would have wondered if their eyes were seeing things.

Chapter 1855 - 1855 Telling the Truth (3)

1855 Telling the Truth (3)

After complimenting Little Green, Xia Xibei let the others go out, then walked over to Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao's bedside and started giving them medicine.

She had made antidote pills that would help them release the toxins from their bodies.

Soon, the two who had taken the antidote started to open their eyes.

"What the..."

Qi Zhi'an opened his eyes and was filled with confusion.

Only after a long time did he react. Shouldn't he be on the ship? How come he was here?

He tried to sit up but found that his body was weak and feeble.

Ling Xiao also opened her eyes and reacted similarly.

“Beibei?” They saw Xia Xibei and couldn’t help but ask in confusion. “What happened?”

Xia Xibei took their pulse and made sure there was nothing wrong with their bodies before answering, “Qi Xin poisoned you on the ship and blew it up, then I brought you back.”

The short sentence made both of their faces turn pale.

“Poisoned?!”

“Blew up the ship?!”

They couldn’t help but stare, both stunned.

How could that be?!

Why would Qi Xin poison them?!

“I’ll let the others explain.”

Xia Xibei was not affected by their reactions and said indifferently.

Then, she called over the two bodyguards from the ship.

“You guys can explain what happened before.”

Although Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao had just woken up recently, the medicine she gave was good stuff, plus they had days of good care, so their health wasn’t affected too much. They didn’t have to worry about getting overly excited and hurting themselves.

“Yes, Missy!”

The two bodyguards immediately nodded their heads and gave them an account of what happened before.

As they explained, the change in Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao’s expressions became more and more intense.

“In other words, it was Xinxin who poisoned us and now she’s confined the patriarch and snatched the Qi family away?”

Qi Zhi’an uttered this conclusion with difficulty.

“Yes, sir.”

“Now...”

“Sir, there are other accounts on the internet.” Seeing that Qi Zhi’an’s health condition was fine, one of the bodyguards took out his own cell phone and quickly clicked to a page, then handed it to him.

Qi Zhi’an took the phone and lowered his eyes to look down.

Soon, his face changed and he became very angry.

“How dare they! Nonsense!”

He was so angry that he pounded his fist on the bed.

“What’s going on?” Ling Xiao asked anxiously with uneasiness.

“Look for yourself!”

Qi Zhi’an handed the phone over.

Ling Xiao looked down and read it at a glance.

Then, her expression also changed.

“This is too much!”

What she saw was the news that Xia Xibei was Qi Zhi’an’s “mistress,” she was so angry that she almost jumped up.

“Are they crazy?”

“Of course, they’re not crazy,” Xia Xibei shook her head. “They just want to ruin me.”

Her tone was a bit flat, as if she wasn’t affected by the incident at all.

Meanwhile, Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao were very guilty.

“I’m sorry, Beibei. It’s all because we dragged you down!”

After this incident, even if Qi Zhi’an and Ling Xiao still had any feelings for Qi Xin, they were all worn out.

If they hadn’t been defenseless toward Qi Xin, they wouldn’t be like this now.

In all this, it was Xia Xibei who suffered.

“I’m sorry!” Qi Zhi’an also said to Xia Xibei.

"It's okay," Xia Xibei smiled. "Anyway, after this, either she dies or I die."

These words made the couple's hearts jump and their faces go white.

They understood what Xia Xibei meant.

Chapter 1856 - 1856 Making a Choice

1856 Making a Choice

The reason why Xia Xibei told them what happened was because she was going to do something.

Before, she was concerned about Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao, so she didn't do anything to Qi Xin.

However, while she didn't do anything to Qi Xin, Qi Xin did it to her.

This made her lose the first opportunity.

If she lost the first opportunity, she could just make up for it later. However, she could not continue to let Qi Xin continue to be arrogant.

This was not her style.

She said these things to let Qi Zhi'an and the others know that she and Qi Xin were sworn enemies.

At this point, it was time for them to make a choice.

Before, Xia Xibei did not want to make any comparison with Qi Xin.

After all, people were emotionally complex, and Qi Zhi'an, Ling Xiao, and Qi Xin had more than ten years of a relationship which could not be ended overnight.

At that time, she had only just met them, and her feelings were naturally not that deep.

So, she would not ask Qi Zhi'an to make a decision right away, that would be torture for them.

Now, the situation was different.

Almost a year has passed, and they should know which side to take.

Looking at Xia Xibei's calm expression, Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao looked at each other and immediately understood what she meant.

Now, it was time for them to make a choice.

"Of course, if you guys feel sad for her, you can go back to Qi Xin's place. I am sure she will accept you," Xia Xibei said to them.

These words made both of their faces go white and their eyes were shocked.

They certainly understood what Xia Xibei meant by these words.

"No, I'm on your side." Unexpectedly, it was Ling Xiao who spoke first. Her expression was calm and resolute. "You are our daughter. Moreover, we have never wronged her in any way, yet she did this to us. If I continued to trust her, we'd be fools!"

She spoke seriously, "So, we will fully support you! Whatever you want to do, we will cooperate."

In the beginning, when she first learned about this matter, Ling Xiao was incredulous.

However, after hearing what had happened before, she understood.

She knew that she had never done anything wrong to Qi Xin.

Even after she met Xia Xibei, her love and care for Qi Xin did not decrease much.

She felt guilty towards Xia Xibei, but her 18 years of relationship with Qi Xin could not just be thrown away. She could only do her best.

However, she had done so much for Qi Xin, yet she had been discarded like nothing.

In that case, there was no need for her to continue to think of Qi Xin.

She was not made of steel and iron, she could get hurt.

The fact that Qi Xin would poison them and make the ship explode already showed how cold-blooded she was.

Ling Xiao thought it was ironic. Was this the power of genes?

Ling Juan was already a very cold-blooded and heartless person, and now Qi Xin, her daughter, was the same way.

She had been around for 18 years, but in just one year, Qi Xin had become just like Ling Juan.

Rather, Qi Xin had always been this kind of character, only that she did not show it before.

Now, they were on opposite sides.

“Yes, I support you too!”

When his wife spoke up, Qi Zhi'an followed suit and took a stand.

Only a fool wouldn't know how to choose at this point.

"But..." Qi Zhi'an bit his lips. "I hope you can save your grandfather."

This was what they are most concerned about.

"Don't worry." Seeing them make a decision, the corners of Xia Xibei's mouth curled up into a bright smile. "I'll take care of it."

Chapter 1857 - 1857 Fully Support

1857 Fully Support

Xia Xibei was relieved after she got the most resolute answer from Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao.

"You guys can rest well here, just leave everything else to me."

"Alright."

Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao looked at each other and nodded their heads.

When Xia Xibei left, the two of them lay back on the bed, their expressions blank.

“I didn’t expect that Xinxin would be so heartless toward us...”

Qi Zhi’an’s tone was bitter and helpless.

He had never thought of this possibility.

Even though the girls were swapped when they were born, he felt that his feelings for Qi Xin had not changed.

“Yeah. We haven’t changed, but she has changed.” Ling Xiao’s smile was sarcastic as she looked at the ceiling. “She wants to kill us.”

“This is done.” Qi Zhi’an had the same action and expression as her. “From now on, we are enemies.”

“Right,” Ling Xiao nodded, erasing the only remaining feelings in her heart and becoming indifferent. “We are enemies now.”

At this point in time, they wouldn’t be so foolish as to think that everyone could go back to the old peaceful way of life.

That was an unrealistic fantasy that only a fool would have.

“By the way, how many assets do you still have on hand?” Ling Xiao suddenly sat up. “Beibei should be trying to fight back!”

Looking at Xia Xibei’s appearance, it was clear that she was going to fight back against Qi Xin’s attack.

However, what Xia Xibei had on hand was a bit worse than Qi Xin...

Qi Xin was now in control of most of the Qi family’s assets!

“Yes, I should give the stuff to Beibei.” Qi Zhi’an also sat up with a dazed look. “Otherwise, she’ll be bullied!”

“You hurry up!” Ling Xiao urged.

She couldn’t watch Xia Xibei get bullied anymore!

“Okay,” Qi Zhi’an immediately nodded his head.

He had someone bring his own phone and began to transfer the assets to Xia Xibei’s name.

By the time Xia Xibei knew about this, she realized that she had a lot more assets under her name.

These assets added up to a very large amount of assets, which startled her!

Previously, Ling Xiao had given her half of the properties at hand, and that was already enough for her to be surprised.

Now, Qi Zhi'an gave these to her, and it was several times more!

This also showed their support for her!

This made her feel much more comfortable and her smile was much wider.

With the full support of her parents, Xia Xibei's will to fight was even stronger.

She pulled out her phone and smiled sarcastically as she looked at the curses and negative news about her on the internet.

Now that things had been festering for days, everyone was shouting for her to hurry up and come out and apologize.

Her supposedly dating several men was not the most troublesome; the biggest problem was the matter of Hongyan Youth products.

Since those few customers came out and said that Hongyan Youth's products had damaged their faces, there were now several more so-called injured customers.

Now, Hongyan Youth's production had been dealt a fatal blow.

Before, Hongyan Youth's sales were so high that Huo Zijun even increased production.

Now, Hongyan Youth's production line was forced to stop.

At the same time, Hongyan Youth was inspected by the relevant authorities.

Although there was no big problem in the end and they even showed the product specifications, people did not believe the explanation given by the company at all.

In their opinion, Hongyan Youth's products were a scam!

There were also many people who wanted to return the products, fearing that they too would rot their faces, making a big fuss.

Chapter 1858 - 1858 Stay Tuned (1)

1858 Stay Tuned (1)

Looking at the commotion and the curses about her online, Xia Xibei gave a cold laugh.

Then, she took out her cell phone and dialed a number.

Soon, she hung up the phone, her eyes faintly twinkling.

After that, she made a few more calls.

After setting things in order, she finally called a number she had never called before.

“Qi Xin.”

“Qi Xibei?”

Qi Xin, who received the call, jerked to her feet with a horrified look on her face.

“You finally showed up?”

“Yes.” Xia Xibei’s tone was relaxed. “If I didn’t show up, won’t it be a waste of your efforts?”

“How could it be a waste?” Qi Xin sneered. “Isn’t it great now?”

They were acting very well in this big show!

"It is great," Xia Xibei nodded. "So now it's my turn to take the lead role."

"Oh? Finally, you're up for it?" Qi Xin also laughed. "I thought the main character was absent and didn't want to come on!"

"How could that be?" Xia Xibei tsked. "You are so thoughtful. If I don't go on, it'd be a pity for your careful arrangement."

The two of them went back and forth with veiled insults.

In the end, Qi Xin laughed, "Then I'll look forward to your performance."

"Yeah. Please stay tuned."

Xia Xibei hummed, then hung up the phone with a smile.

Qi Xin, on the other end, looked at the phone's black screen, her eyes cold.

"She finally showed up!"

Unfortunately, someone just sent back word that the people she dispatched had been caught.

It seemed that there was no way to take care of Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao.

Qi Xin thought that Xia Xibei's luck was still quite good.

They didn't get blown up before, but now they didn't die either!

However, what did it matter?

There was absolutely no way Xia Xibei could change things!

That being said, Qi Xin always had a bit of an uneasy thought.

She picked up her phone and dialed another number.

"Hello, Yang Mo?" As soon as the phone picked up, she asked anxiously. "How are things going on your end?"

"It's still being processed." Yang Mo's voice had a suppressed impatience. "It's not done yet."

Yang Mo had received a phone call earlier with information about her newly developed anti-cancer drug.

It said that her patent for the drug had not been approved.

A few months before her, someone had already registered the patent first!

Moreover, the effect of the other party's drug was better than hers.

She was stunned by this news.

How could it be?

If there was really such a drug, why was there no news before?

She thought she had a lot of sources of information, but why was there no word on such important news?

She thought she had misheard it! Or maybe the other party was joking.

However, the other party's attitude was very certain that her drug could not pass because there were many aspects of the technology here that were consistent with the other party.

This explanation startled her again.

That was why she immediately flew to M to ask for an explanation.

However, because of the patent holder's concealment, she had no way to know who the other party really was for a while.

She had been in M for two or three days, but no result yet.

As for the response from Hua, it was the same.

Again, it was saying that someone had already beaten her to it.

"Then you go take care of it," Qi Xin had no choice but to say.

"Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Qi Xin was a bit distracted.

How could the big move that she had prepared be so useless?

"Miss Qi, something is wrong!"

Chapter 1859 - 1859 Stay Tuned (2)

1859 Stay Tuned (2)

On social media, the topic #XiaXibeiGetOutOftheIndustry was still trending and also extended to many other topics.

They were all trashing Xia Xibei.

Despite this, Xia Xibei still did not come out to speak. She must be feeling very sheepish!

If she was sheepish, it meant that things were true!

Therefore, more and more people have followed to trash Xia Xibei.

Among them, there were also a number of celebrities who followed the trend to criticize her.

Except for a few friends who stood firmly on her side, it was as if the whole entertainment industry had become her enemy.

Those friends who supported her, such as Cui Tong and Nie Zehai, were blamed for being her allies.

Many people lamented watching such a development.

If they didn't know, they would think Xia Xibei had dug up someone's ancestral grave!

Otherwise, what was the need to be so excited?

Now, trashing Xia Xibei had become political. Political correctness.

As long as she was the enemy, they could become friends.

The fans who were "resisting" inside were in the minority.

Several days passed and things were getting more and more troublesome, yet Xia Xibei still didn't come out to speak, which made her fans feel cold.

They were not afraid of fighting, but they were afraid that when they were fighting, the main person did not say a word.

They were fighting so hard in the front, but Xia Xibei was nowhere to be seen, which made them feel heartbroken.

Slowly, other than a few loyal fans, others began to change sides.

There were also a lot of fans who became haters instead.

Song Jiaren was furious seeing such chaos.

She did believe in Xia Xibei.

Moreover, she also knew who the so-called multiple boyfriends were.

Qi Zhi'an was Xia Xibei's own father, and Qiao Yanjue was Xia Xibei's boyfriend. As for Qiao Haoming, he was Xia Qinghan's boyfriend. She didn't know why he would jump out to smear Xia Xibei.

As for the other things, they were even more ridiculous.

However, no matter how she believed in Xia Xibei, she couldn't convince others.

In the eyes of the others, Xia Xibei was a person with so many flaws, and they were the kind that could not be washed away.

Therefore, even if Song Jiaren did her best to vouch for Xia Xibei, there was no way to stop the other people from not being her fans.

Moreover, she couldn't contact Xia Xibei either!

What she was more worried about was Xia Xibei's safety.

It had been several days, but Xia Xibei hasn't shown up, which meant something must have happened to her.

This made Song Jiaren very nervous.

Xia Xibei was missing, fans were leaving... All of these things made her anxious.

Today, a few more people had dropped out of Xia Xibei's fan group.

This exhausted Song Jiaren.

While she was having difficulty, the screen turned to the incoming call page.

Looking at the number on it, Song Jiaren's expression immediately changed.

It was a call from Xia Xibei!

"Where have you been?!" When she picked up the phone, her voice was super loud and aggravated. "Where the hell have you been? Why didn't you say anything?!"

Listening to Song Jiaren's aggrieved complaint, Xia Xibei smiled, "Sorry, something happened, so I couldn't contact you. But don't worry, I'm back now. The online thing will be resolved soon."

“Really?” Song Jiaren immediately widened her eyes. “You are not lying to me?”

“When have I ever lied to you?” Xia Xibei laughed. “Just open your eyes and see clearly.”

“Yes!” Song Jiaren immediately nodded. The hope in her was rekindled.

After hanging up the phone, she immediately went to the fan group and sent a message.

“Beibei has returned! She’s back to fight her haters!”

She was the group leader and directly spoke to the entire group.

Everyone came out.

Chapter 1860 - 1860 Stay Tuned (3)

1860 Stay Tuned (3)

“Sister Bei is back?”

“Really? No kidding?”

“Where did she go? How come there was no sign of her?”

“Something’s happened, right?”

“Is everything okay?”

“Is Sister Bei really back?”

In a moment’s time, everyone in the group popped up, and even those who were just lurking immediately jumped out.

Looking at everyone’s worry and concern for Xia Xibei, Song Jiaren’s chest ached, but her eyes glowed.

“Of course! Beibei is back! Don’t worry guys! Those things online, they will definitely be settled! Let’s trust her!”

“I believe in Sister Bei!”

“I also believe in Sister Bei!”

“I believe in my own eyes, Sister Bei is absolutely innocent!”

“But is it really okay? It’s been so long before she came out, could it be...”

“What are you talking about? If you don’t believe Sister Bei’s words, you should quit the group!”

“I’m just voicing my concerns, it’s not like I don’t believe her!”

“If you really believed in Sister Bei, then don’t say such things!”

Looking at everyone about to get into a fight, Song Jiaren came up with a ban.

“Don’t worry about it, you will soon have news!

After a while, she released the ban.

The ones who stayed in the group were die-hard fans, they had experienced a lot of things, and were sworn to be loyal to Xia Xibei.

Even though so many things happened before, they still stayed until now.

They believed that Xia Xibei must be innocent!

Of course, there were some spies here, because soon, someone online broke the news that Xia Xibei was back.

[So Xia Xibei really came back and said she can fix things?! I'm laughing my ass off! Does she really think she is so powerful?]

[Before anything else, please explain the matter of Hongyan Youth!]

[Explain my ass! She's just a fame-seeking bitch, she's just trying to impress people. Well, it's backfired now, isn't it?]

[So many scandals... How is she going to clean up? I'll wait!]

Looking at all this gloating online, the remaining fans were angry, but compared to their previous helplessness, they now had a lot more confidence.

They believed that what Xia Xibei said must be true!

Sister Bei would never do something she wasn't sure of!

Everyone ran to Xia Xibei's account and desperately refreshed it, just waiting to see her explanation.

However, two hours have passed since the words were spoken, and Xia Xibei's account still hasn't been updated at all.

This time, everyone laughed again.

[Did she just brag and run? Where is she? I thought she was going to come out and explain?! What is the situation?]

[Explain my ass, how dare she come out to explain! Don't be laughed at!]

[Xia Xibei, come out! Don't hide in there, I know you're home!]

[Come out! Come out and explain! Explain to those women with rotted faces! They want compensation!]

The following comments were also unpleasant. It was as though Xia Xibei had ruined their lives. They were all cursing furiously.

Moreover, her account did not restrict comments, so there were many comments below.

When everyone was madly mocking her, Xia Xibei's account finally updated.

[Thanks for the collaboration with @HuaNationalMedicalAssociation, we hope to bring health to patients.]

What?

The Hua National Medical Association?

People who saw this message froze for a moment, thinking they were blinded.

Who was she @?

When they looked at what was attached to it, everyone drew in a breath.

A new anti-cancer drug?