

Chapter 1861 - 1861 Strong Face Slap (1)

1861 Strong Face Slap (1)

Cancer was a very terrible disease.

People suffering from cancer would either use their resources to fight or wait for death.

Moreover, there weren't that many rich people in this world. Even if they were middle class, many of them would return to poverty because of a serious illness.

In addition to money problems, cancer could torture people to death.

Many people couldn't survive chemotherapy and simply collapsed.

Others choose to end themselves after being diagnosed.

So, when one heard about cancer, everyone got chills.

It was a disease with a low chance of a cure!

It could be said that there were cancer patients in any family, whether it was immediate family members or other relatives. There was always someone who had cancer.

So, cancer was something that concerned everyone.

To treat cancer, besides having strong perseverance, you also needed to have money.

You needed at least a few hundred thousand yuan for one round of treatment.

What was more terrifying was that the money could be spent and the person was still gone.

Cancer was also the most difficult disease in the world to treat, and many people were working hard to overcome it.

Many new drugs had been introduced before, but those drugs did not completely solve the problems of cancer patients.

However, Xia Xibei mentioned the Hua National Medical Association and they said the following...

[Thank you so much @XiaXibei for your help and your new cancer drug. On behalf of all the patients suffering from cancer, we thank you!]

Xia Xibei's new anti-cancer drug...?

You're kidding!

Today was not April Fool's Day!

Everyone was blown away by this development.

This was not some fake account, right?

But when they clicked on the account, they found out that the account and its verification were real!

Hua National Medical Association was a joint organization of domestic doctors and drug development, and all the medicines had to be verified before they could be marketed in the country.

So what they said was true!

Xia Xibei had really developed a new anti-cancer drug!

Then, everyone was confused.

How did Xia Xibei have this ability?

While everyone was confused, Xia Xibei's account made another post.

She retweeted something from an official blog [Thank you for your support, I will continue to work hard.]

It was the account of the national news station, and the account posted a video.

The length of the video was not short nor too long, just four or five minutes.

However, the content inside... Put everyone in a bit of a trance, as if they couldn't understand words.

This was an interview.

In the interview, Xia Xibei, wearing a white lab coat and looking very professional, was surrounded by several foreigners and Hua people.

In front of her was the microphone and logo of the national news station, while the caption in the bottom left corner of the video read: Ms. Qi Xibei developed and donated a new anti-cancer drug.

Qi Xibei?

Wasn't her name Xia Xibei?

And she developed and donated a new cancer drug?

What was happening?!

Xia Xibei was very stunning. Even in the midst of so many people, she stood out.

Even in the entertainment industry, her face was also a standout.

This was a face that made a deep impression.

However, the most shocking thing was her answer.

“Actually, I used to study medicine with my mentor. When my mentor passed away, I studied on my own. After that, I conducted my own private research on cancer cells and finally found a solution. Then, with the help of others, I managed to develop this new drug, which also passed national and international testing...”

These words were also played as subtitles and appeared on the screen.

However, those who watched the video were dumbfounded and felt a little dizzy.

They didn’t misread them, did they?!

Chapter 1862 - 1862 Strong Face Slap (2)

1862 Strong Face Slap (2)

Everyone thought this was a joke.

How could Xia Xibei be associated with something so lofty?

Didn't she just go to college? How could she have the ability to develop any anti-cancer drug?

However, the logo in the video and the official account that posted it told them it was real.

There were also other people's interviews after Xia Xibei.

Everyone was silent looking at the long list of names on there.

One of them was a tall foreign man, and his title was Dean of CG University Medical School.

CG University?

Wasn't it the same university in M that had invited Xia Xibei to study there?

Someone immediately went through the school's official website and was shocked to find that this man was real!

On the official website of the university, there was indeed such a person and his biography.

Moreover, the biography underneath his name was very long, talking about his achievements and the various projects he was involved in.

Those projects looked so high and mighty, as all of them were national or international level, and at first glance, they were not within the reach of ordinary people.

This man was the dean of the medical school and the chief physician of one of the hospitals in M. He was particularly powerful!

Now, this powerful dean was telling the media that this one drug was mainly developed by Xia Xibei herself, and they only played a supporting role.

After watching this video, everyone was silent.

[Is this... April Fool's Day?]

[It must be April Fool's Day! Otherwise, how else could something like this happen?]

[Definitely April Fool's Day! Otherwise, how else would I see such crazy jokes?]

Not many people believed such a thing.

This was an anti-cancer drug! Not just any cold medicine!

Well, even if Xia Xibei had developed a cold medicine, people would find it insane.

Now, she just came up and fought cancer. Wasn't that even more insane?

This incident had completely changed everyone's perception.

When everyone was shocked and confused, more reports appeared on the Internet.

In these reports, many cancer patients took the medicine developed by Xia Xibei and got better in just one week.

After another week, there were many patients who recovered.

The contrast between before and after taking the drug was very obvious.

People were stunned looking at the comparison here.

In addition to the report on the official account, there were many people who posted updates.

[My mother is in the advanced stage of stomach cancer and is now undergoing chemotherapy, which is very painful each day. However, after taking this new drug, she is doing much better. The doctor even told us today that in a few more days, she will be cured! Thank you, Xia Xibei!]

[My sister is only in her twenties and she has cancer! I watched her shave off her hair and suffer through painful chemo treatments every day. But, after taking the new drug that came out, she got better! It's a miracle!]

[My dad...]

[My brother...]

Looking at these comments, the internet users were silent.

This kind of talk was uniform, all of them were grateful for this new drug that cured their friends and relatives they knew.

It was as ridiculous and absurd as those ads on social media.

But, at this point in time, all of these messages left everyone speechless.

Everyone had only one thought: was Xia Xibei really that awesome?

It couldn't be that she stole credit from someone else, right?

However, this claim was immediately ridiculed.

This was an anti-cancer drug!

Even if it was an ordinary research result, no one wanted to give it away like that!

Chapter 1863 - 1863 Strong Face Slap (3)

1863 Strong Face Slap (3)

Even if it was just an ordinary drug, no one would be willing to give away the fruits of their research. Not to mention, this was an anti-cancer drug!

This was a groundbreaking invention of the century!

This drug turned cancer into a disease similar to a cold.

If one's cancer was more serious, one would get better after taking the drug for a month.

If one's cancer was only in the early stage, one might be fine after taking the drug for a few days.

Moreover, the price of this drug was not high.

Before this, when many people had to take cancer medicine, a lot of them were expensive imported drugs.

At the end of the day, one would need to spend hundreds of thousands of yuan.

Xia Xibei's drug was not super cheap, and it cost 10,000 yuan a week.

Before, many patients who took cancer drugs would spend 10,000 yuan in a few days. Moreover, they would have to keep spending the money for a long time!

A major disease could easily cost hundreds of thousands of yuan to treat.

However, the treatment time of this drug was measured in weeks, the shortest a week, and the longest just a month.

In other words, at most, one's cancer would cost up to 40,000 yuan to fix!

Thirty to forty thousand yuan was an amount any family could afford.

Even a poor family could come up with this money if they gritted their teeth.

Compared to spending hundreds of thousands, it was a difference between heaven and earth!

All of this was made possible by the drug that Xia Xibei had researched!

Due to this drug, she could become a celebrity for the rest of her life!

What fool would hand over such a thing?

Who would hand over the fruits of their labor? And with such an important result?

Even if Xia Xibei was more powerful, she couldn't make up this result!

A person who was completely unfamiliar with a certain field and said she was an expert would be trashed by everyone!

In Xia Xibei's case, no one could deny her credit.

Everyone said that it was her research.

Although this result was very unbelievable, it was true.

[I was wrong, I believe in Xia Xibei's innocence! Why would someone so awesome need a benefactor? Are you kidding!]

[Sister Bei is awesome! Sure enough, Sister Bei is the most awesome!]

[I'm so impressed, Sister Bei is so awesome! She's like a god!]

[She's not even 20 years old, and she's already accomplished so much, she's a genius! Obviously, we are all human, how could someone be so awesome?]

[Shouldn't she be a doctor? Why did she have to become a star? This was a big waste of her talent!]

The internet was once again abuzz over this matter.

This time, because of Xia Xibei's genius aura, everyone had new doubts about the previous news.

What couldn't a talented person like Xia Xibei do?

She was less than 20 years old, she was able to develop an anti-cancer drug, and she had a lot of fame and fortune, so why did she need a sugar daddy?

Her IQ and ability were beyond the realm of typical human beings, right?

Such a genius needed the help of others to climb to the top?! Hah!

She was the benefactor, she didn't need to find any benefactor!

Due to this drug, the previously overwhelming negative news about her was proven wrong.

The show could be faked, the performance could be faked, and even the top score of the entrance examination could be faked.

However, this one was impossible to fake!

This was because it was people from the country of M who assisted Xia Xibei in revealing the results.

They could not have given their own credit to Xia Xibei!

So, Xia Xibei was really incredible!

If she could invent an anti-cancer drug, what was a high score on the college entrance exam?

As for Hongyan Youth, that was even easier!

While the fans were going crazy, Xia Xibei's social media account was updated again.

Chapter 1864 - 1864 Strong Face Slap (4)

1864 Strong Face Slap (4)

[Let me introduce you. This is my real father and mother.]

There was a photo with three people in it, and they were Xia Xibei, a man, and a woman.

The couple was middle-aged, but the man was handsome and the woman was beautiful. They looked well-maintained, and it was obvious that they came from a rich family.

The most important thing was that the two people looked a bit similar to Xia Xibei.

The middle-aged man here, of course, was Qi Zhi'an, who was previously reported to be the benefactor of Xia Xibei.

There were also people who said that he was Xia Xibei's father. However, it was later ridiculed that he was a godfather and not a real father.

As a result, it also drew a lot of mockery.

Now, Xia Xibei herself has come out to explain, saying that this was her father, and also showing her own mother.

Looking at this online update, everyone froze for a moment.

[Not a godfather?]

[He really is her real father?]

[It can't be a joke, right?]

Everyone had the same doubts.

Someone suddenly remembered, didn't Xia Xibei fall out with her father before?

However, that father didn't look like this!

Soon, everyone found the original news item.

That time, Xia Xibei saved her half-siblings, but they vilified her.

So, at that time, she broke off her relationship with them.

The incident was quite a big deal, and there were many people who felt sorry for her.

Wasn't her real father the one named Xia Shaihai? How did he become this man?

Xia Xibei's explanation soon came out.

[When I was first born, I was exchanged with another baby. It wasn't until a while ago that I found my biological parents.]

The simple explanation surprised everyone.

How could there be such a thing? This development was too dramatic!

She was switched at birth?

Although people had heard a lot about getting the wrong child, who would have thought that Xia Xibei was actually swapped with someone else?

However, there were also people who doubted the authenticity of this matter.

It could not be that Xia Xibei asked these people to act with her and then come out together to fool everyone, right?

In the face of such doubts, Xia Xibei put out a few more photos.

The backgrounds in the photos were different, sometimes indoors, sometimes outdoors.

All three of them were seen here. And beside them, there were some people who were also obviously their family members.

At the same time, there were two more accounts online: Father Qi and Mother Qi.

These two accounts emerged and were verified as “I am Qi Xibei’s real father”

and “I am Qi Xibei’s real mother.”

They also posted a lot of photos showing their life.

Through these photos, people found that they were rich- very rich! In addition to all kinds of luxury cars, there was a mansion!

You could see that the background in the photos often changed, and there were many photos in foreign countries.

At the same time, there were also photos of them and other international celebrities.

Of course, the most popular photo was the one of them and Xia Xibei.

Oh no, she should be called Qi Xibei now.

The most important thing was that this woman and Qi Xibei had a resemblance. At first glance, it was clear that they were mother and daughter.

These two were husband and wife, so Qi Xibei was naturally their daughter!

So, how could Qi Xibei be any mistress?!

Moreover, they also sent a strongly-worded lawyer's letter to those marketing accounts that made the rumors.

This update instantly washed away half of the negative press off of Xia Xibei.

Chapter 1865 - 1865 Strong Face Slap (5)

1865 Strong Face Slap (5)

Only then did everyone realize that this man was really Xia Xibei's father.

Otherwise, his attitude wouldn't be so tough.

Those marketing accounts were too shameless to make the rumor that the biological father was the benefactor!

However, it seemed that there were other men besides Qi Zhi'an!

At this time, Xia Xibei's blog updated again.

[This is my boyfriend, Qiao Yanjue.]

There was a selfie of Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue.

The background of this photo was a sunset at sea, with the couple bathed in a gentle golden light, looking ethereal and beautiful.

The two of them were kissing under the sunset, which looked sweet and beautiful.

The most important thing was that both of them were stunning.

The man was handsome and the woman was beautiful, which looked soothing.

[What kind of divine looks are these? They're too beautiful!]

[Too cute together! Too good-looking!]

[I am crying like her mom, the two of them are too good-looking!]

[Wait, Qiao Yanjue... Is the president of the Qiao Group? They're really a golden couple!]

[Too good-looking! I'm using the photo as my screensaver!]

[The Qiao Group? Didn't something happen to the company? What about the falsification of materials?]

[So this is Sister Bei's boyfriend! Sister Bei has great taste!]

[What about the other one? What about Qiao Haoming? What's the story?]

Xia Xibei was certainly fully prepared for her return this time.

She acted quickly.

Only half an hour later, some marketing accounts sent out some photos. The fastest poster here, of course, was Gou Yi, a paparazzi reporter. He had a lot of photos of Qiao Haoming on hand, and some of them were quite intimate.

However, the main characters were two men.

In the photos, Qiao Haoming and the other man looked very intimate. One could tell the relationship was not ordinary.

The way the two of them were hugging and kissing together, it was clear that they were a couple.

[This Qiao Haoming turned out to be gay!]

[Holy cow! A gay guy scamming Sister Bei? You're kidding!]

[Sister Bei is not blind, how could she possibly date a gay guy?]

[Nowadays, all kinds of bullies are coming out to scam Sister Bei. It's disgusting!]

In addition to these photos, someone posted more photos.

These photos were very explicit, and although they were partially blurred, the protagonist was definitely Qiao Haoming.

Someone also figured out the identity of the other man here.

He was Qiao Haoming's cousin! His blood cousin!

In other words, the cousins were dating!

Everyone was stunned looking at these partially blurred photos.

Was there anything more scandalous?

What's even more disgusting was that Qiao Haoming, who clearly liked men, said Xia Xibei was with him?! What a joke!

He couldn't compare to Qiao Yanjue!

[By the way, Qiao Yanjue and Qiao Haoming are connected, Qiao Yanjue is Qiao Haoming's uncle! The two of them had a very unpleasant dispute because they were competing for the Qiao family's assets!]

[I know, so Qiao Haoming wants to use these methods to upset Sister Bei and Qiao Yanjue! That's disgusting!]

[Oh my! That's a disgusting trick! Scum!]

[He's hooking up with his cousin, so shameless!]

[What's even more shameful is that he used this to slander Sister Bei!]

[Scum! Get lost!]

This news made everyone explode, especially the fans, who wanted to dig up everything about Qiao Haoming and lecture him to death.

Chapter 1866 - 1866 Strong Face Slap (6)

1866 Strong Face Slap (6)

In fact, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had already stopped talking to Qiao Haoming a long time ago.

It couldn't be helped that they were now people of two worlds, destined to have no interactions.

Since the Qiao Group was handed over to Qiao Yanjue, Qiao Haoming's status was not the same.

Of course, they knew that Qiao Haoming would not be satisfied.

However, so what if he was not satisfied? He didn't have the ability!

What was the use if he couldn't snatch the company back?

So after that, Qiao Haoming kept a low profile.

Who would have thought that he would come out and give Qi Xibei and the others a hard time after just a short time?

Still, he forgot one thing while making a ruckus: Qi Xibei still had a lot of blackmail material on him.

Before, Qiao Haoming had tried to drug Qi Xibei, but ended up being victimized back, and had his video and photos taken.

These things were held by Qi Xibei, but they were not destroyed.

If he behaved, Qi Xibei would not have done anything.

However, he was so stupid that he really made trouble, so she could not be blamed for doing what she did.

In addition to the revelation that he and Wan Shicheng were “together,” it was also revealed that Qiao Haoming had many girlfriends when he was in college.

This was outrageous.

Since he was gay, he should have boyfriends, and yet he still went after girls. It was so shameless!

So, this matter had become even bigger.

It was certain that Qi Xibei and he were not involved, she was not so clueless.

That was to say, the romantic scandal that plagued Qi Xibei this time had largely been solved.

One man was her real father, one man was gay, and only Qiao Yanjue was her real boyfriend, it was just that their romance had never announced before.

So, she was very faithful.

Of course, the premise that made everyone accept it all so quickly was this anti-cancer drug that she came up with.

If this drug did not raise her profile and strengthen it to a height that no one could question, others would not want to believe her words.

As to Qi Zhi'an's identity, if he and Ling Xiao did not come out personally to explain, others would not believe it either.

After all, who would believe empty words without proof?

With such witnesses and material evidence, the negative coverage forced on Qi Xibei was mostly cleansed.

Finally, the most troublesome thing left was the matter of Hongyan Youth.

[I know Qi Xibei is very powerful, but how to explain the matter of Hongyan Youth?]

[How do you explain the rotten face thing? Hurry up!]

[You made Hongyan Youth, now you have to come out and explain it clearly, right?]

In response to these stubborn online commentators, Qi Xibei's account had a new message.

[Hongyan Youth's products are indeed all formulated by me, and I can guarantee that the formula is effective and harmless! Therefore, people who said that they have used Hongyan Youth and had a rotten face, you are welcome to come to our company to seek justice!]

This update stunned a lot of people.

This was too awesome, how dare she talk like this?!

This was too tough!

However, how dare she guarantee that her formula was harmless?

Many people couldn't help but criticize her again.

However, Qi Xibei made another post and also @ several accounts.

[Tomorrow at 2 pm, I will be waiting for you at Hongyan Youth's company office and I will solve your skin problems. We'll take care of the round-trip airfare and accommodation. If it's our problem, we'll admit our mistake and pay for it on the spot! But if you don't come, we will use legal means to solve it!]

The moment this update came out, it immediately made a big splash.

[Sister Bei is so dominant! This is the way to do it!]

[Awesome!]

[I like Sister Bei!]

[The rumor mongers, come out! Let Sister Bei prove you wrong!]

Chapter 1867 - 1867 Strong Face Slap (7)

1867 Strong Face Slap (7)

The romantic scandal was easy to explain. However, the impact brought by Hongyan Youth's products was not so easy to eliminate.

Even if the company had not been shut down by the relevant authorities and had already released product ingredients on the internet stating their innocence, ordinary people didn't believe it!

Who knew if the company had colluded with the officials?

Besides, those few people had rotten faces!

Their faces were red and swollen, some had all kinds of red spots, and some had pus running down their faces, how horrible they looked!

Their faces were ruined! How could they go on living?

This was a very troublesome product failure!

Although Qi Xibei had developed new anti-cancer drugs, and these drugs had brought very good reactions, they did not erase the mistakes she had made before.

Did she not develop Hongyan Youth? Then it must be her problem!

When faced with this matter, Qi Xibei certainly had a solution.

She sent out invitations to the customers who came out and said their faces were ruined, asking them to come to the company and she would help them solve the problem.

If they didn't dare to come over, it meant they had something to hide.

Of course, after she said so, those people really did feel sheepish.

[What if we go over and are controlled by you?]

Someone asked this question.

In response to this query, Qi Xibei gave a reply.

[Don't worry, I will ask the police to come over tomorrow, and the whole thing will be broadcast live, there will be no problem.]

The police would come over and it'd be broadcast live?!

This was a huge event!

With Qi Xibei's public announcement, if they still refused to go, it would be awkward.

Plus, Qi Xibei said that if they didn't show up, she'd send a lawyer's letter.

These people were feeling helpless. Who knew it would come to this?

However, things had come to such a point that they had no choice. They could only grit their teeth and go over.

Before the live broadcast started, everyone was talking about Qi Xibei.

On this day, everyone was all kinds of excited.

What Qi Xibei did was really too much.

Whether it was the anti-cancer drug before or the series of things that followed, it shocked everyone.

Until now, many people still haven't come back to their senses.

However, it was certain that Qi Xibei was starting to clean her image.

As soon as the Hongyan Youth matter was resolved, it'd really be over.

Qi Xibei's fans were also excited. Their previous depression was swept away, leaving excitement and joy.

Before, they could only be bullied by those haters and paid commentators, and they had no way to fight back.

Now that Qi Xibei was back, their backbone is back, and they could get excited!

The ones who were so sarcastic and mocked Qi Xibei before were singled out and scolded by them.

[Did you get hit in the face? Does your face hurt? Here you go... bah!]

[Does it feel good? Our Sister Bei is back! Do you want to say what you said again?]

[Now you know how shame feels, right?]

[I told you, Sister Bei would never do such bad things. Come on, let's see who's more humiliated!]

[The face slap is so good! Sister Bei is Sister Bei, Sister Bei is awesome!]

The fans were so excited that they couldn't calm down and couldn't wait to go out and run laps.

The excitement brought by Qi Xibei personally coming out to refute her haters made them want to look up to the sky and roar.

[Just... Sister Bei is really in love?!]

This matter made many people silent.

Yes, their Sister Bei really fell in love!

Oh God! They just reacted now!

Their goddess had been snatched away!

Chapter 1868 - 1868 Strong Face Slap (8)

1868 Strong Face Slap (8)

The internet was buzzing with excitement, and Qi Xibei's fans were cheering as if it was New Year's Eve.

However, when Qiao Yanjue was mentioned, their mood was immediately affected.

Although they knew that Qi Xibei would definitely fall in love, no one expected that she would be so young and already be in a relationship?!

She must be joking!

After the previous excitement calmed down, everyone's heart was broken by this unexpected news.

Someone even went to research Qiao Yanjue and came back in shock.

[It seems that something has happened to The Qiao Group? I heard that there seems to be a problem with their materials?]

[Yes, there was a business that wanted to sue him before!]

[No way? How could a person like that be worthy of Sister Bei?]

[The Qiao Group is a big company, but if something like this happened...]

[The Qiao Group has some news!]

While everyone was talking about Qiao Yanjue, Qiao Yanjue also made a move.

Several companies jumped out and said that the materials provided by The Qiao Group were faulty and caused serious losses to their companies, so they wanted to take The Qiao Group to court.

In addition, there were a lot of things going on with The Qiao Group.

Some factories had some problems and their supply was not normal. Some subsidiaries had some problems too.

When all these things came together, the level of trouble instantly skyrocketed.

So, Qiao Yanjue had to stay at home to solve this matter.

Faced with several companies' accusations, he did not admit fault but said he would sue them, saying that they had violated the law and made false statements.

Such a nasty fight stunned everyone.

How could such a thing happen?

The companies didn't expect such a situation.

Didn't they say that Qiao Yanjue had absolutely no energy to fight against them? Why was the situation different?

However, this matter could not end that simply.

The Qiao Group launched several new materials while suing the other companies.

One was a biomimetic material, which was just like the texture of human skin and could also regulate temperature just like human skin.

This material could be used to make prosthetic limbs.

The prosthetic limbs on the market looked very fake.

It should be said that there was no way they looked like human limbs.

As long as the prosthetic limb was exposed, anyone would know what it was.

The Qiao Group was now developing materials that made these patients' prosthetic limbs look like they were part of the body.

If a leg was missing, the prosthesis would look just like a real leg, and no difference would be visible.

Moreover, even if you touched the limb, you wouldn't notice the difference.

It could be said that as long as the patient did not remove it, no one would notice that it was a prosthetic leg.

Even if you put on a short skirt and shorts, you would not find the problem.

The second one was a high-strength material.

This material could cope with very intense explosions.

Even if a bomb exploded nearby, it would not be affected too much.

Moreover, it could also ease the impact caused by the explosion.

The strong impact brought by the bomb blast would be cushioned and disintegrated.

In other words, it could save one's life and would not be blown into pieces.

If this material was used by the bomb disposal police, it could save lives and there would be no need to worry about casualties.

In addition to this material, there was also a material that could be used in the human body.

This material was harmless to the human body and could also be turned into human bone marrow.

In other words, this was paired with prosthetic skin.

Once this series of materials was introduced, it quickly impressed the public.

Chapter 1869 - 1869 Strong Face Slap (9)

1869 Strong Face Slap (9)

These were just like black technology!

They were so amazing!

Qiao Yanjue didn't stop his research and development.

Although he was the president, he only needed to be in charge of the business side. Other things like research and development could be left to the researchers.

However, he couldn't really ignore everything.

He had been exposed to a lot of different materials when he was a junior apprentice before.

Qi Xibei had a strong talent in medicine refining and healing, while his talent was in weapon refining.

It could be said that he could master the refining content that took Qi Xibei a year to master in a month.

After awakening his memories, he chose to use these skills in this world.

The two worlds were different, and so many of the materials were not the same.

However, this was not a big problem for Qiao Yanjue, but rather a very good loophole that could be exploited.

He had come into contact with many materials in the Land of Fantasy, which were particularly magical and did not seem real to the people here.

Here, he could take these incredible materials and replicate them in a scientific way.

He was extremely talented in refining and had an extremely deep understanding.

Therefore, he was able to use these materials to replicate the materials he had come into contact with in the past.

For example, a material that could fight against strong explosive impact was one of them.

Qiao Yanjue was the one who fused the different knowledge of the two worlds to develop these materials that were not scientific at all.

Therefore, as soon as these materials were released, they immediately attracted the attention of everyone.

These were materials that spanned the centuries! When these materials hit the market, they would have an impact on many things!

These materials, if used well, could bring very different effects.

Some materials could be used in the aerospace industry or in the military. Even for civilian use, there would be unexpected effects.

Now that many people were studying robots, these materials could make these studies go more smoothly!

The materials were not the same and brought different results. If you had the ability, it could bring about significant changes!

However, he was not going to cooperate with those companies that were going to sue The Qiao Group.

Before, he canceled the cooperation with those people after receiving their accusations.

From now on, he would never sell the materials to those companies!

His action stunned the leaders of those companies.

They had received a message from the Qi family earlier, saying that they should make a move against the Qiao Group.

The Qi family assured them that they could come up with materials that were better and cheaper than the Qiao Group's materials.

Given the Qi family's strength, they chose to cooperate with them.

Besides, the Qiao Group had offended the Qi family, and it did not look good for Qiao Yanjue.

That was why they did it.

Who would have thought that the Qiao Group would come up with so many new materials at once?!

Other people would take a lot of time to develop a new type of material.

The Qiao Group, on the other hand, had come up with so many miraculous materials in just a few days!

These materials represented new opportunities!

With these materials, they could do many things that could not be done before!

Now, because of their betrayal, The Qiao Group has completely refused to cooperate with them.

When they saw the launch of The Qiao Group on TV and saw the explanation of these materials, the leaders of these companies regretted their actions so much!

After Qiao Yanjue launched the new materials, he went straight to Hongyan Youth, regardless of the businesses who flocked to him, wanting to cooperate.

Today, those who said they had rotten faces from Hongyan Youth were coming over.

Chapter 1870 - 1870 Live Stream Face Slap (1)

1870 Live Stream Face Slap (1)

Everyone heard the message Qi Xibei sent out.

Everyone knew that she was now going to settle the matter of Hongyan Youth.

However, no one was too optimistic.

This matter could not be solved that easily.

People had rotten faces!

Even if some people knew that this matter may be staged by Qi Xibei's enemies, it was not that easy to solve this matter...

As long as those people's skin problems were not solved, because they swore that the problem occurred only after using Hongyan Youth, Qi Xibei couldn't do anything about it.

Only, everyone was curious: how exactly was she going to solve this matter?

While everyone was waiting, those girls who said they had rotten faces because they used Hongyan Youth appeared at the Hongyan Youth's company office.

This time, Huo Zijun and Liu Manhong also came.

The two of them were also shareholders of the company, so they certainly had to step up in this matter.

If it wasn't for the two of them trying to keep the company afloat, more trouble might have happened.

Liu Manhong's expression was not very good.

"Those bastards! How dare they slander us with such things!"

She held her waist, her face angry.

If the situation allowed it, she might have to teach those people a lesson herself.

It was abominable to lose your conscience like this for the sake of money!

Lu Xiaohang placated her, “Don’t worry, I’m sure Beibei will take care of it.”

With his understanding of Qi Xibei, there was no way those people could get away with this incident.

“But the Qi family is bullying us!”

Liu Manhong was so angry that her face turned red.

This time, because of Lu Xiaohang’s information, she learned of the culprits behind the scenes as well.

Other than Qi Xin’s people, no one else would have done these things.

However, even if they knew who did it, Liu Manhong could not handle it.

This matter was directed at their company, and if they didn’t solve the matter, the damaged reputation would take a long time to come back afterward.

“Well, don’t you still believe in Beibei?” Lu Xiaohang remained good-naturedly placating her.

Liu Manhong grunted and looked out the door.

Qi Xibei arrived.

Seeing Liu Manhong's furious expression, the cold hardness on Qi Xibei's face softened a lot.

"Sister Hong, I'm sorry," she walked over and said seriously.

"Don't say sorry!" Liu Manhong shook her head. "It's not your fault, it's those bastards' fault!"

"All these things were directed at me," Qi Xibei said.

"Even without you, we're still very eye-catching," Liu Manhong shook her head. "It's okay, I'll wait for you to hit back hard today! Show them no mercy!"

"Don't worry, I won't," she nodded her head.

They waited for a while and the others came.

For this occasion, Qi Xibei even opened a live stream.

She hadn't had a live stream for a long time, and this time, in order to hit back at her haters, she would have live stream again.

God Luo's Streaming TV was still doing quite well.

However, before that, God Luo's Streaming TV also had some problems.

Some of the anchors who had signed up before were poached by other platforms, and it was a big deal.

Since the rise of live streaming, there had been more and more live streaming platforms.

People all knew that this market was just beginning and the money was good.

So, there were several other live streaming companies.

These companies followed behind God Luo's Streaming TV and chased market share furiously, but there was no way to catch up. So, they had to poach the anchors from God Luo.

Tang Luo didn't say anything about this practice and let those anchors leave with pleasure.

However, after leaving, they wouldn't be able to come back.
