1871 Live Stream Face Slap (2)

Tang Luo was still abroad.

When Qi Xibei's crisis happened, she wanted to return to the country but was refused.

Qi Xibei's point was that she didn't need to intervene in this matter, and if she came back, it would make it difficult for her to act.

As long as Tang Luo continued to assist from abroad, it was alright.

That was why Tang Luo didn't come back, she trusted Qi Xibei.

This time, in order to cooperate with Qi Xibei to handle this matter, she ordered the company to cooperate with her action early on.

So, after Qi Xibei's "challenge letter" was sent out, a notice of Qi Xibei's live stream was put up on the homepage of God Luo's Streaming TV.

Before the live stream started, the live stream was filled with people who wanted to know how Qi Xibei was going to fix this matter.

If she couldn't resolve this matter, there was no way for her reputation to go back to its former state.

Those clients would make accusations against her and could even get her in jail.

Therefore, everyone was very concerned about this matter.

At one o'clock, the number of viewers on the live stream was increasing.

The technical staff of God Luo once again strengthened the support for the live stream, as the live stream must hold up to so many people watching.

At 1:30, the girls all arrived at Hongyan Youth's office.

Their faces were covered with masks and sunglasses, blocking their faces.

When they met Qi Xibei's eyes, their hearts jumped and they felt something ominous.

Qi Xibei glanced at them and said nothing, she just continued to let the others make preparations.

In addition to the staff, there was also the presence of police here.

In order to see Qi Xibei up close, those police officers went through a competition among themselves.

In the end, those who appeared here were young and handsome police officers who looked like they were participating in some sort of talent show, not at all like anything troublesome would happen.

It was almost two o'clock when the live stream finally had a visual.

The viewers who were waiting on the live stream were enthusiastically rejoicing and sending pop-ups like crazy.

Qi Xibei did not care about the situation in the live stream, she said to the girls who had their faces covered.

“Okay, it’s starting. You can remove the cover from your faces.”

The girls looked at each other, exchanged a look, and finally gritted their teeth and took their masks and sunglasses off.

At the moment when they took off the coverings, the camera immediately turned to their faces.

The viewers on the live stream were shocked and drew in a breath.

[Crap! This face is too scary!]

[Damn! I'm scared to death!]

[So scary! If it's true that Hongyan Youth made them look like this... Then Hongyan Youth should be too damned!]

These girls were young and beautiful, and their features were beautiful. However, their beauty was overshadowed by the condition of their faces.

Their skin looked horrible.

Some girls had many pimples on their skin, which were big, red, and swollen, and some sprouted a lot of white dots, which disgusted the viewers.

Other faces were full of small red dots that looked like a rash.

Some faces were full of dark spots covering the entire face.

These skin conditions made the viewers of the live stream feel frightened.

"My skin was fine, and it all turned out like this after using Hongyan Youth!"

A girl pulled out her phone and showed a photo from before.

Her previous skin didn't look very fair and perfect, but there was absolutely nothing wrong with it either.

Chapter 1872 - 1872 Live Stream Face Slap (3)

1872 Live Stream Face Slap (3)

There was a strong contrast between the girl's previous skin and the current one.

As soon as this girl opened up, others seemed to find the courage to pull out their phones and show their previous photos.

"I had heard that Hongyan Youth could get rid of acne, so I spent a lot of money to buy the acne kit. But after I used it, I got more pimples instead! Now it's all over my face!"

"My face had a few spots before, but now the spots are getting bigger and bigger!"

"I had a lot of confidence in Hongyan Youth, but now..."

The live stream became even more lively as people listened to their complaints.

Before this, people only heard that they had rotten faces after using Hongyan Youth, but they didn't really have many feelings about it.

Now, looking at the horrible state of their faces, people felt more real about the whole thing.

If their skin turned out like this, they would have to fight with Hongyan Youth too!

Their faces were ruined!

Qi Xibei's expression didn't change as she listened to their scolding and complaining.

Only after they finished, she nodded.

"Are you done?"

Her calm demeanor caused the girls' expressions to freeze.

How come... She wasn't nervous at all?

"I've already had it tested, this Hongyan Youth contains irritating substances. If you used it more, it will cause irritation to your face! The face will be easily ruined!" a girl said coldly. "How are you going to compensate us?"

"There's no rush," Qi Xibei shook her head.

"No rush?"

These words made the girls become livid.

They were in such a state, and she was still not in a hurry?

This was outrageous!

The viewers on the live stream were also a bit agitated.

There were some viewers who followed with angry curses and obscenities.

However, they were all dealt with by the house manager, banned, and kicked out.

Qi

What happened in the live stream did not affect Qi Xibei's attitude.

"Sit down first, let's take it one by one."

She took the lead and sat down on a chair.

In front of the chair was an ordinary table.

Xibei pointed at the girl with a cold expression and said, "Sit down."

Doubt flashed in the girl's eyes, but she sat down anyway.

"What do you want?"

"Hold out your hand."

Her hand?

This phrase made the audience a little confused.

It was not going to be a fight, was it?

"Hold out your hand, and I'll take a look," Qi Xibei said.

The girl put her hand out with a suspicious look.

Then, Qi Xibei's fingers landed on her wrist.

This somewhat familiar action surprised everyone a little.

Was she... Taking a pulse?

The girl almost pulled her hand back.

Qi Xibei carefully checked the girl's condition, and then came up to her, and after carefully looking at her face, curled her lips.

"You drank a lot of soup before, right?"

"How did you know?"

The girl was startled and blurted out.

How did she know she drank a lot of soup?

"I... I drink soup every night. What's the problem?" she asked with a sullen face.

"There's nothing wrong with drinking soup," Qi Xibei said casually. "But if there were bad things in the soup, then it's a problem."

"What?!" The girl's eyes widened. "You're kidding!"

What did she mean there's something bad in the soup?

Was she making up rumors?

"In the soup you drank were some herbs and the herbs have a type of poison. They will cause serious damage to your skin."

Qi Xibei didn't act like she had said anything terrible and was still speaking slowly.

Her reaction made the other girls react in different ways.

Did she think she was an old traditional medicine doctor? That she could tell the problem just by taking a pulse?

Chapter 1873 - 1873 Live Stream Face Slap (4)

1873 Live Stream Face Slap (4)

Qi Xibei's expression was calm as she faced the girls' questions.

"The soup you drink every night has a lot of toxins added to it, that's why your face has become like this. If you drink it for a few more days, your condition will get worse. Eventually, your health will also have problems."

Qi Xibei's words made the girl angry.

"What are you talking about?!" She slapped the table and got up. "Everyone in my family drank the soup, why should I be the only one to become like this?"

During the last meal, the whole family drank the soup.

If there was a problem, wouldn't the whole family have a problem?

"Of course. What you drank was not the same as what they had." Qi Xibei looked at her indifferently, her expression subdued. "I guess you didn't serve the soup yourself."

These words made the girl freeze.

This... Was true!

Every time she drank soup, she didn't get it herself. It was always someone else who helped.

"So, are you sure you ate the same thing as them?" Qi Xibei raised her eyebrows to look at her.

Looking at her confident look, the girl's expression became more unpleasant.

“You... This is nonsense...”

Although she said so, she could no longer stay calm.

Her original calmness was reduced to nothing now.

Seeing Qi Xibei so certain, and then thinking about her situation, her expression was very ugly because she knew that what Qi Xibei said was true!

Moreover, Qi Xibei should not know that her family was not related to her by blood.

The woman who gave her the soup was her stepmother, not her real mother.

What was even scarier was that she had a younger brother who was born to her stepmother.

The two of them were just three years apart.

The younger brother was twenty years old now and was almost ready to join the family business.

In that case, she, the previous daughter, would be an eyesore. Then...

Thinking of this, her face instantly turned miserably white.

“It seems that I was right,” Qi Xibei shrugged. “So the problem with your face is not with our Hongyan Youth.”

The girl was still dumbfounded and didn’t say anything.

The live stream camera gave the girl a big close-up, and the expression on her face was captured in full.

The live stream instantly erupted.

[Is what Sister Bei said true?! How did she know that?]

[Damn it! I can’t believe she’s telling the truth?! How else would this girl react like this!]

[Oh my! That’s awesome, isn’t it?]

[It’s not an act, right? Or did Qi Xibei buy this girl off and get her to play along?]

[It’s definitely an act! I don’t believe in other possibilities anyway!]

[So that’s how she’s going to whitewash Hongyan Youth, that’s quite a trick!]

[If it's true, then it means Qi Xibei is really powerful. But she is only 19 years old, so where did she get the ability? Don't bluff, okay?]

The viewers on the live stream had mixed opinions.

Some of them were fully convinced of Qi Xibei's strength.

Some were suspicious that the girl was bribed by Hongyan Youth and then acted in cahoots with Qi Xibei.

These two statements were not mutually exclusive.

If it weren't for the live stream's house manager, they might have started cursing at each other.

The commotion in the live stream did not affect Qi Xibei, she just looked at the girl.

"Of course, although the problem with your face is not because of our Hongyan Youth, since you are here, I will fix it for you."

When that came out, the scene and the live stream went silent!

Chapter 1874 - 1874 Live Stream Face Slap (5)

1874 Live Stream Face Slap (5)

Fix it for her?

Everyone was stunned.

It sounded so simple to her! As if it wasn't a rotten face anymore, but just a random scrape.

Everyone was stunned by Qi Xibei's confident tone.

Even if those experienced veteran doctors came over, they couldn't possibly fix it that quickly, right?

The girl was just as skeptical.

Although Qi Xibei was right about her situation, after she calmed down, she couldn't help but be suspicious again.

If Qi Xibei really wanted to, it would be easy to find out the people in her family.

Then, Qi Xibei would have known that her brother was not her biological one.

In that case, it would be possible to put the problem on her family.

But why on earth would Qi Xibei say she wanted to help her with her skin?

Where on earth did she get the confidence?

Doubts tumbled through the girl's mind.

Qi Xibei stood up as everyone watched.

Everyone just stared at her movements, and even the camera focused steadily on her, not moving at all.

Qi Xibei was not half affected, calmly walking to a shelf of herbs.

Before this, many people have seen this herb shelf, but no one knew what it was used for.

People simply could not imagine that Qi Xibei would be making medicine on the spot!

With everyone's complicated gazes on her, she started to make the medicine.

Everyone was stunned.

This was quite a skillful act!

Many people had been to the traditional pharmacy to get medicine. There were many pharmacists in the pharmacy, and when they grabbed the herbs, they also needed to spend a little time to find out where the herbs were.

Of course, there were experienced pharmacists who knew which herbs were where, and they could find them quickly.

However, when these people grabbed the herbs, they had to weigh them.

Without a scale, who knew whether the amount of herbs was correct?

But Qi Xibei didn't even have such a tool on hand!

Some herbs could not be touched directly with her hands, so she used a spoon.

Her movements were always very effortless, and she didn't even bother to weigh the herbs, pouring them directly into a pan.

She looked like she was picking vegetables.

However, the herbs were very particular about the dosage!

The live broadcast room became a mess again.

Everyone was stunned by her operation.

Some people knew some herbs, but more herbs were not understood by anyone who was not a professional.

However, the herbs here were all commonly used in this world, although some were more expensive.

Qi Xibei originally wanted to use a little spiritual plant here, but finally gave up, as there was no need.

Although the effect of these common herbs was not as effective and fast as the spiritual plants, the girls' faces were not much of a problem, so there was no need to waste the precious spiritual plants.

Moreover, she also wanted to let those people know that these herbs were all tried and tested.

Soon, she found all the herbs she was looking for.

Then, she began to make the medicine.

The washing, the grinding... Her movements were as easy and relaxed as if she was making tea.

During this time, she also adjusted the heat used in boiling the herbs. She looked as relaxed as can be.

While waiting for the medicine to be made, she grabbed some more herbs and began to grind them into powder.

Half an hour later, she didn't say anything, but the live stream was no less crowded.

It was a pleasure to watch her making medicine!

Half an hour later, Qi Xibei poured out the potion created and brought it to the girl.

"Drink it."

Chapter 1875 - 1875 Live Stream Face Slap (6)

1875 Live Stream Face Slap (6)

The girl looked at the bowl of black broth in front of her and her face turned green.

"Uh..."

"Don't worry, I won't poison you," Qi Xibei smiled. "Drink it and I'll help you apply the medicine."

The girl looked around and then at the camera that continued to run, finally gritting her teeth. She took the bowl and drank it all.

To her surprise, while the bowl of medicine smelled quite horrible, it didn't taste too bitter, and after drinking it, there was actually a little bit of sweetness.

"Okay, let me help you put the medicine on your face."

Qi Xibei brought over the medicine powder she had just prepared.

After the girl sat down, she helped the girl wipe her face and applied the medicine powder.

This scene was watched by several millions of people.

The number of people on the live stream was growing more and more.

Everyone heard that Qi Xibei was going to explain Hongyan Youth today, so they clicked in to see what was going on.

Those who didn't come in at first were curious when they heard that she was making medicine online to cure diseases, so they came in too.

The afterglow of Qi Xibei's development of a new anti-cancer drug had not yet dissipated.

After all, it was such a beneficial thing for the country and the people, how could it be over so quickly?

People heard that the drug was also exported and helped patients in other countries.

It could be said that Qi Xibei's performance was outstanding.

However, it was too outstanding, so some people could not help but express doubts about it.

How could a teenage girl have such a magical performance?

Could there be a team behind her?!

Those teams were too selfless to produce such results and give her all the credit!

There was still a lot of discussion on the internet about this matter.

Many media outlets wanted to interview Qi Xibei, but they couldn't find the opportunity.

However, the country had expressed full praise and high recognition for what she did.

It could be said that Qi Xibei was the most popular figure of the moment.

Who wouldn't be curious to know that such a figure was now seeing patients online?

People were even more curious about her real strength. Was she really that strong?

A genius who could develop a new anti-cancer drug must have something different.

So, there were more and more people on the live stream.

The people who came in didn't intend to leave.

Looking at the girls drinking the medicine and putting it on, everyone became even more curious.

Everyone stared closely at the girl, wanting to see the changes in her.

Of course, there were a lot of people here to see a joke.

How could Qi Xibei really have this kind of ability?!

They were just waiting to see her disgraced!

When the time came, they would know if she really had the ability to develop a new anti-cancer drug!

Or maybe she would fail and show everyone something unexpected!

Everyone stared closely at the girl's face while thinking various thoughts.

The camera naturally also gave the girl a close-up.

The girl's face was covered with a thick layer of white powder, which looked like a mask.

After ten minutes, Qi Xibei took the mask off.

Then, her face was washed clean with water.

When it was clean, everyone on the live stream was stunned.

Originally, the girl's face had a lot of pimples, which looked very scary.

Now, the pimples on her face were reduced by half!

This effect was too damn obvious!

“Crap!”

The girl’s face suddenly changed and she held her stomach.

The other people’s faces also changed.

Only Qi Xibei’s expression was calm.

“Take her to the bathroom.”

Chapter 1876 - 1876 Live Stream Face Slap (7)

1876 Live Stream Face Slap (7)

While the girl went to the bathroom, the viewers in the live stream did not relax at all.

[It couldn’t be a problem with the medicine she just drank, right?]

[Could it really be a problem with the medicine? Is she going to kill her opponent?]

[Sister Bei is not an idiot! Who would be so stupid as to kill someone on camera? Besides, didn’t you see how much the girl’s face changed?]

[Oh my god, that's a big change! Just now there were so many pimples and it looked so scary, but now it looks so good!]

[The effect is so amazing, it's like an immediate effect!]

[I also have a lot of acne on my face. I need this kind of mask!]

Qi Xibei, as usual, ignored the commotion in the live stream and instead looked at the other girls.

“Okay, it's your turn.”

Unlike the first girl just now, these girls clearly cowered.

They had just seen everything.

The live stream audience only saw what the camera showed them, but they were able to clearly see everything Qi Xibei did.

That made their hearts even more anxious.

The first girl may have been fooled by her family, so she blamed Hongyan Youth for the problem.

However, they knew their own situation!

If Qi Xibei saw the actual problem... then what could they do?

At this moment, they finally understood what it meant to be in an impossible situation.

Before this, they were apprehensive, but not too nervous.

After all, as long as they insisted that the problem was with Hongyan Youth, Qi Xibei should not be able to do anything about them.

Who would have thought that Qi Xibei was not an ordinary star at all, but a very powerful doctor?!

The way she combined and made the medicine looked very easy and comfortable.

Even if they didn't know anything about these things, they could see her talent from her actions!

Then, naturally, their problems would be more easily seen!

If they were exposed... They would be dead!

The girls looked at each other and used their eyes to tell the others to go up first.

“Well, who is next?” Qi Xibei raised an eyebrow in mockery. “Forget it, I’ll choose then.”

She looked around at the girls with a sharp gaze, making them all lower their heads.

Finally, she curled the corner of her mouth and told a girl in black.

“You.”

“Ah!” the girl was startled and drew in a breath.

Her reaction was naturally caught on camera as well.

The live stream audience also finally noticed that something was wrong.

[This is a sheepish reaction, right?! She looks ready to break out in a cold sweat!]

[Definitely sheepish! I told you, Hongyan Youth was framed!]

[Heh heh heh! She’s a dead woman, let’s see how she will be embarrassed!]

[Sister Bei is the best! See how this girl is going to explain!]

[Sister Bei has changed her surname, but her strength is still the same! Awesome!]

Everyone was ready to see Qi Xibei slap back at her haters.

The girl's face was a little white and her expression was stiff as she walked up to Qi Xibei.

"Sit down," Qi Xibei said indifferently.

The girl sat down abruptly, her movement was too intense, and she almost toppled over.

Qi Xibei faintly cast her a glance, then reached out to touch her wrist.

The girl's expression froze trying to take a deep breath so that she was not too abashed.

The next second, Qi Xibei's words made her face pale.

Chapter 1877 - 1877 Live Stream Face Slap (8)

1877 Live Stream Face Slap (8)

"What did you put on your face?" Qi Xibei let go of the girl's hand and just looked at her.

The girl paled and shook her head hurriedly, “What are you talking about?! What can I put on? I’m using Hongyan Youth, right? I used Hongyan Youth and now I look like this! Are you denying it now?”

She was aggressive and on the attack.

Her intensity didn’t make Qi Xibei waver.

“Did you really use Hongyan Youth?”

“What do you mean?! Are you saying I can’t afford it?!”

The girl got even more agitated.

Her sheepish look made Qi Xibei smile even wider.

“I didn’t say you can’t afford it. Even if you can’t afford it, some friends can give it to you.”

The words made the girl react again, “What are you talking about!”

What did she mean some friends could give it to her?

This intense reaction made the audience feel weird too.

[There must be something wrong, I'm sure of it!]

[There is definitely something wrong!]

[I swear there's a problem here!]

The girl naturally did not know that everything about her was exposed and was still struggling, "What are you talking about? We are talking about the problem of my face! Where are you going with this?"

Seeing how she looked, Qi Xibei laughed, "Okay, then I'll fix your face."

She smiled and then said the question without any politeness at all.

"The problem on your face is not caused by using Hongyan Youth. It's caused by applying some drugs that have irritating effects!"

"You're talking nonsense!" the girl shrieked.

"I'm not talking nonsense," Qi Xibei glanced at her lightly. "You ruined your face by applying these drugs on your face after using Hongyan Youth!"

“You...”

“Wow!”

The girl’s words were cut off by the person next to her.

She subconsciously looked back and then drew in a breath.

The camera also turned to the source of the commotion at the right time.

Then, everyone was stunned.

The first girl had come back from the restroom.

Then, everyone was stunned at the sight of her face.

Just now, after Qi Xibei had put a mask on her, the pimples on her face had been half healed, leaving some redness and puffiness.

However, after she returned from a trip to the bathroom, the original redness and swelling faded away quite a bit!

In other words, nine-tenths of the problem on her face had been solved, leaving only a few pimples!

The original soft and beautiful features of her face were finally revealed.

Just now, everyone's attention was on the pimples on her face, and they didn't have time to pay attention to her face at all.

Now, everyone finally got a good look at her face and saw what she looked like!

As for the pimples on her face, it didn't affect her appearance at all.

Ordinary people occasionally grew a few pimples, but it did not affect their beauty.

However, everyone was impressed with the look of this girl just now.

How quickly has her face changed?!

This speed was too fast!

Everyone was stunned.

What kind of supernatural speed was this?

The girl in black was stunned and looked at the girl with a dumbfounded expression.

The first girl was apprehensive. She couldn't help but grab the corner of her shirt, not daring to look up at people.

Just now, she had seen herself in the mirror, and the speed of change stunned her!

It also showed what Qi Xibei was capable of, and how she had slandered Qi Xibei!

"Come here," Qi Xibei beckoned, and the girl immediately walked over.

Chapter 1878 - 1878 Live Stream Face Slap (9)

1878 Live Stream Face Slap (9)

Qi Xibei looked at the girl's face and finally gave a conclusion, "It's almost healed. I'll give you a prescription, go home, drink the medicine, and you'll be fine. As for your soup at home. Don't drink it anymore."

Everyone was dumbfounded to see Qi Xibei's calm and collected appearance.

Didn't she... Feel miraculous?!

Oh no, such a miracle was created by her. Of course, she didn't feel magical.

“Good!” the girl nodded seriously, then blushed. “S-sorry! I was the one who misjudged you guys!”

Her expression was so tense and ashamed that she seemed ready to kneel down and apologize.

“You were right, I drank soup every night, and this soup... It was given to me by my stepmother. After my face started looking bad, I was going to go to the hospital, but she told me that it was a problem with Hongyan Youth, and told me to settle the score with you.” Her face turned red and she was very ashamed. “I’m sorry! I didn’t look for the truth of the matter, and then I came here to slander you! I’m sorry! As long as you can forgive me, you can make me do anything you want!”

The audience was silent, just looking at her.

Liu Manhong gave Lu Xiaohang a smug look.

Lu Xiaohang smiled and pulled her hand tightly.

As for the others, they were also stunned by this scene.

There was really a problem!

Not a problem with Hongyan Youth, but a problem with this girl’s own family!

[Oh my! I can’t believe I’m seeing a family drama!]

[I told you, Hongyan Youth is fine! It's all a misunderstanding!]

[Misunderstanding or whatever, maybe this girl is a misunderstanding, but the others... Shouldn't be a misunderstanding!]

Seeing the girl seriously apologize, Qi Xibei smiled, "Well, as long as you understand your mistake. You did not mean to do it."

Of course, although she did not do it intentionally, she was too easy to fool, so there should still be a punishment.

"As for your punishment..."

Under the girl's nervous gaze, Qi Xibei slowly spoke, "In the future, if you can, try to support Hongyan Youth more often."

"I will!" The girl immediately nodded her head. "I will!"

Qi Xibei was so powerful, the Hongyan Youth she developed was also absolutely powerful!

Moreover, she used Hongyan Youth's products before and had no problems at all.

If she was not fooled this time, she wouldn't have thought of blaming the brand at all.

“Besides supporting Hongyan Youth, you could do more charity work and help other people,” Qi Xibei added.

“Yes! I will definitely do that!” The girl’s face was flushed, and her eyes took on a glow.

[Oh no, there’s another love rival!]

[The girl has fallen in love, right?]

[Hahahahaha... Welcome to the club!]

The live stream was filled with joyful comments.

After Qi Xibei helped the girl, she turned back to the dumbfounded girl in black.

“How about it, do you admit it?”

The girl looked aghast and her face suddenly changed.

“I really didn’t....”

She still wanted to slyly argue but was interrupted by Qi Xibei.

“Okay, since you won’t admit it, let me help you out.”

Without waiting for the girl to speak, she went back to the herb shelf.

This time, she moved even faster, and in just a few minutes, she found the herbs she wanted to use.

Then, she moved quickly to make the herbs into medicinal powder.

“Sit down,” she said indifferently.

The girl could not resist, but could only sit down with anxiousness in her heart.

Qi Xibei then added some water to the powder and put it on her face.

Ten minutes later, the powder was washed off, revealing a much cleaner face than before.

Before the girl could be happy, she heard Qi Xibei’s voice.

Chapter 1879 - 1879 Live Stream Face Slap (10)

1879 Live Stream Face Slap (10)

"Little Snow, come here for a moment," Qi Xibei said to a girl on the side.

The girl was an employee of Hongyan Youth. Named Little Snow, she had just graduated and joined the company not long ago.

Hearing Qi Xibei call herself, she froze for a moment and immediately walked over.

"Boss Xia... Boss Qi, what can I do for you?"

"Can you do me a favor?" Qi Xibei smiled.

"Yes! Of course!" Little Snow immediately nodded her head, her eyes glowing.

She had only come here to help run the event, but she didn't expect to be asked by Qi Xibei to help.

"But it's a bit troublesome."

This made Little Snow shake her head, "I'm not afraid of trouble!"

"Ok, then," Qi Xibei nodded, then told her to sit down. "I will put something on your face, and then, you will become the same as she is."

She was pointing at the girl in black.

The girl's heart jumped with a sense of foreboding.

"Ok. It's okay!"

Little Snow's face first went white, then she immediately shook her head.

For her, as long as it was Qi Xibei's request, she would agree to it.

She also believed that Qi Xibei would not hurt her.

"Fine," Qi Xibei nodded. "Let's get started."

Everyone just stared at them, watching Qi Xibei's movements.

Qi Xibei put some strange-looking medicinal powder together, mixed it, and then applied it to Little Snow's face.

Little Snow closed her eyes, then felt her face itch a little.

She opened her eyes and her eyebrows wrinkled together, a little uncomfortable. "This... Is a little itchy."

"Don't move," Qi Xibei shook her head. "Don't worry, it will pass soon."

Little Snow nodded her head and continued to endure.

After a while, Qi Xibei just stopped.

The live stream was silent.

The eyes of everyone looking at Little Snow took on a frightened look.

Her originally clear face showed the same marks as the girl in black!

That girl's face was red and swollen, and there were many large pustules.

Now, everyone just watched Little Snow's face show these same large pustules; the visual was very ferocious.

The girl in black's expression was equally horrified, because she recognized what Qi Xibei was holding.

Those medicinal powders were the same as the ones she used before!

Looking at the others' reactions, Little Snow was a bit bewildered and nervous.

"What? What's wrong?"

The live stream room also exploded with discussion.

[Crap! What the hell is this? Is she going to scare people to death?]

[Oh my God! This is too scary! She had such a clear face, now she has turned into a monster!]

[What is Qi Xibei doing? Has she gone crazy?]

Everyone couldn't figure out what Qi Xibei was trying to do.

Then, they saw her turn Little Snow's face around to the girl in black and smiled.

"How about it, is it the same as your face?"

That girl's heart jumped and her face immediately turned pale.

After the incident with her face, she didn't dare to look at the mirror anymore, afraid that she would be scared to death.

Now, she just watched Little Snow become like this in front of her, and the shock was too terrible.

"I..."

Little Snow also finally saw her appearance in the mirror and screamed in fright.

"Argh!"

She never thought she would turn out like this.

This was too damn scary!

If not for the little bit of sanity left in her heart, she might have jumped at Qi Xibei.

She had turned herself into this!

"Don't be afraid," Qi Xibei smiled at her. "Let's take our time."

Qi Xibei then asked the camera to give a big close-up of Little Snow's face again.

Everyone was left speechless. What the devil was this?

Chapter 1880 - 1880 Live Stream Face Slap (11)

1880 Live Stream Face Slap (11)

Everyone was stunned by Qi Xibei's action.

Didn't she feel terrified?

Qi Xibei looked at the crowd's speechless expressions and smiled very happily, "Don't worry, I'm just recreating this young lady's condition."

She picked up the powder she had just mixed.

"These are the things this young lady used on her face. I won't talk about the specific ingredients, but later, we can test it on the spot and we will know what is inside."

Everyone's mouths twitched at these words.

Little Snow's reaction showed how terrible this stuff was, there was no need for any live test.

However, the live stream editor showed a picture of the girl in black's original face and compared it with Little Snow's current situation.

Then, everyone clearly saw that the situation on the two faces was more or less the same.

The same reddish swelling, the same pits, the same terrible state.

So, the reason the girl in black became like this was not even half related to Hongyan Youth. It was all her own doing!

The girl in black's face had gone white, "You... This is all nonsense..."

Seeing that she was still trying to lie, Qi Xibei laughed, "Is that so?"

"Little Snow."

Little Snow was still in a daze.

She was too stunned by this face of hers to touch it.

"I'll help you get rid of these things."

Qi Xibei pressed Little Snow back into the chair and took the powder she had just applied to the girl in black's face and applied it to Little Snow's face.

Just now, she had made two servings of the powder.

After giving a part to the girl in black, there was still one part left.

Moreover, everyone remembered that the two parts were not made separately, but in one container.

That was to say, the ingredients were the same, and there was no tampering.

Then, everyone watched Qi Xibei apply these medicinal powders on Little Snow's face.

After this was done, the scene became even quieter.

The girls who were in the room were petrified.

The girl in black's face was even more unpleasant. She wanted to run but did not dare to move.

She knew that even if she did not admit it, people would not be on her side.

After ten minutes, Little Snow's face was washed clean of the powder.

What shocked everyone again was that the redness on her face had disappeared!

The speed was simply amazing!

Little Snow looked at herself in the mirror and cried tears of joy.

She didn't mind being ordinary anymore!

Although ordinary, her skin was still good!

If her face really stayed like that, she didn't want to live!

She just didn't understand. Didn't these girls have any consideration for themselves? They could even sacrifice their faces?!

With Little Snow's change after using the powder, the girl in black looked as if she was struck by lightning and couldn't hold on any longer.

On the other hand, the test of the terrible drugs used came out.

The test was done by a professional organization that Qi Xibei specially hired, and at the same time, a notary was brought along.

In other words, these results were real and valid, with absolutely no falsification.

The expert announced the results of this test.

The vast majority of the viewers in the live stream couldn't understand what those what ingredients were, but, in the end, they understood the expert's words.

"These medicinal powders, if used on the face, will cause great damage to the skin of the face, making the skin sensitive, develop acne, and have peeling..."

These words were so simple and straightforward that even a fool could understand them.

It was because of hearing and understanding the message that people felt terrible.

In other words, this girl really used her face to frame Hongyan Youth!

The girls who had not yet resolved their skin issues were even more sheepish and were about to pass out.
