1881 Live Stream Face Slap (12)

The black-clad girl was terrified by the outcome.

She never expected Qi Xibei to take such action!

Prior to this, she had only thought that as long as the issues on her face weren't resolved, she could deny everything.

After all, as long as the problems weren't genuinely solved, she had plenty of room to explain herself. There was a great deal of maneuverability in this situation.

Facts speak louder than words, don't they?

Without evidence, who would believe her?

That was why she had come here.

Who could have imagined that as soon as Qi Xibei made a move, she would mercilessly strip away the mask she had tightly hidden her face behind?!

The girl's face turned pale, and her legs grew weak, almost causing her to collapse to the ground.

Who wouldn't understand the situation?

Surprisingly, Qi Xibei didn't say anything.

On the contrary, she beckoned another girl to come forward.

That girl, when called upon, immediately turned pale.

She was done for!

She walked hesitantly, with an unpleasant expression, towards Qi Xibei.

After calling her over, Qi Xibei then called for another girl from the company.

This girl, Xiaoyun, had joined the company around the same time as Xiaoxue.

She had been observing the entire situation and understood Qi Xibei's intentions.

She confidently walked over and asked, "What do you need, General Manager Qi?"

Qi Xibei looked at her open and sincere demeanor and was pleased.

“Can you do the same as with Little Snow?” Qi Xibei asked.

Xiaoyun immediately nodded, “Sure!”

Qi Xibei began by examining the other girl’s pulse.

Throughout the process, the girl’s complexion remained pale, and even though her skin was in poor condition, it couldn’t hide her uneasiness.

However, Qi Xibei didn’t pay any attention to her reactions.

Once she understood the condition of her face, she began preparing the medicine.

This time, Qi Xibei was even faster.

The number of viewers in the live stream room was increasing, and their curiosity grew stronger.

After witnessing Qi Xibei’s performance just now, everyone was in awe.

She was simply incredible! She really had the ability!

The black-clad girl was now sitting on a chair, unable and unwilling to move, looking somewhat pitiful.

However, everyone knew that she had come here to slander Hongyan Youth, so she deserved this outcome.

Moreover, what intrigued them even more was Qi Xibei's skills.

What other surprises did she have in store?

Under the watchful eyes of everyone, Qi Xibei applied the prepared powder to Xiaoyun's face.

After a few minutes, they all watched as Xiaoyun's face turned just as terrifying as the girl next to her.

Qi Xibei even instructed the director to give them a close-up shot, which was so shocking that it almost made some of the live stream viewers leave.

"Oh my God! It's so terrifying!"

"Both of their faces are so scary!"

"This is so disgusting!"

“Bei, please don’t do this. It’s us who are scared!”

If it weren’t for the desire to see how Qi Xibei would solve this matter later, many people would have already been disgusted and left.

Fortunately, Qi Xibei had no intention of scaring ordinary viewers to death.

After giving them a close-up shot, she continued making the antidote.

Once she applied the same powder to both of them, their faces quickly returned to normal.

Of course, the girl took longer to recover due to the longer duration and more severe condition.

The horrifying marks that had just appeared on Xiaoyun’s face quickly vanished.

If it weren’t for the camera as evidence, she would have thought she was dreaming!

What Qi Xibei did left everyone in awe.

If the situation with the black-clad girl earlier could have been dismissed as Qi Xibei’s fabrication, this time made it clear to everyone.

These problems had nothing to do with Hongyan Youth; they were merely an outcome of what these girls did to themselves!

Chapter 1882 - 1882 This is Not Scientific (1)

1882 This is Not Scientific (1)

Qi Xibei's series of actions left everyone in the venue and the live audience speechless.

With the presence of professional experts, notaries, and police officers, the truth of the matter had become crystal clear.

"Alright, you can confess to us now," Qi Xibei said, looking at the girls.

At this point, all of their faces had returned to normal.

Although two of them had slightly more severe conditions, with a few more applications of the remedy, their skin would be restored to its original state.

However, resolving their issues didn't mean the matter would be left at that.

Qi Xibei wasn't a person who easily forgave and forgot.

"I... I'll talk," the girl in black clothes confessed first.

At this stage, she realized that being stubborn and defiant would get her nowhere.

She had already embarrassed herself in front of millions of people, and if she continued to deny the truth, things would only become more complicated.

"Indeed, someone paid us to say those things," she revealed, causing everyone to widen their eyes.

While they had suspected this, hearing it spoken out loud still surprised them.

They couldn't help but feel outraged by whoever had orchestrated this malicious act.

"I knew it! There's no way Hongyan Youth would cause such serious consequences! It must have been a setup!" exclaimed one viewer.

"I've used Hongyan Youth before, and apart from being a bit expensive, it had no issues at all!" another viewer chimed in.

"These people have no conscience. How dare they try to defame Hongyan Youth?! And they dare to smear our Bei! They've only now realized how embarrassing their actions are!" expressed another viewer.

"This is outrageous! They must be severely punished! We can't let this matter just pass by!" added another viewer.

“If it’s allowed to be forgotten, won’t we continue to be bullied in the future?”

Qi Xibei’s fans were infuriated.

It was because of these individuals that Qi Xibei had been subject to severe criticism.

These girls were bought and used to tarnish Qi Xibei’s reputation. It was utterly despicable!

At the scene, Qi Xibei looked at these dispirited girls with an indifferent expression.

“You will have to explain this matter to the police,” she said.

“The police?!” The girls suddenly looked up, their expressions changing dramatically. “We...”

“You’ve committed wrongdoing. Shouldn’t you face the consequences?” Qi Xibei glanced at them without a trace of sympathy. “I have been merciful, haven’t I? I even cured your faces. Do you know that if I hadn’t intervened, your faces would have been ruined?”

Her tone was calm, but it sent shivers down their spines. Their faces turned pale as they stammered, “That wouldn’t happen! They said...”

“How can you be so sure?” Qi Xibei chuckled. “Do you think that once the matter was over and done with, your faces would have magically returned to normal? You’re thinking too optimistically. They were only responsible for creating the problems, not for solving them. In the end, you'd have to live with these disfigured faces."

For a girl, having terrible skin can bring immense suffering.

Qi Xibei's words left the looks on their faces looking dreadful.

"I suppose those people only gave you money but didn't provide a solution, right? If you were to go to a hospital, you might end up spending all the money you received and still not be able to return to your previous state," Qi Xibei said, causing their expressions to worsen.

"How is that possible!" one girl shrieked. "Other doctors surely can..."

"No, they can't," Qi Xibei interrupted her, exuding confidence. "Even if they could solve the problems on your faces, it would take at least six months!"

Her resolute words echoed through the silent venue.

Chapter 1883 - 1883 This is Not Scientific (2)

1883 This is Not Scientific (2)

Qi Xibei's confident and arrogant words left everyone in the venue and the live broadcast stunned.

The audacity... It was immense!

Was she implying that she was far superior to other doctors?!

In the blink of an eye, she had fixed their faces, while others would take six months. The difference...
Was quite terrifying!

Qi Xibei's audacity was not unprecedented, but it was excessively exaggerated this time.

She was practically declaring war on other doctors!

What if those doctors saw this and became angry?

They might ostracize her!

Silence fell upon the venue and the live broadcast.

However, this version of Qi Xibei appeared remarkably impressive!

That kind of dominance was necessary!

It seemed as though Qi Xibei was completely oblivious to the controversy she had stirred and simply looked at those girls.

“You should explain these matters to the police,” she said.

The faces of the girls turned pale, and they wanted to plead with her, but she stopped them.

“You are not children. You must take responsibility for the decisions you make,” she glanced at them indifferently. “Your actions amount to defamation and spreading rumors. The punishment you deserve will depend on your behavior.”

After finishing her statement, she no longer paid attention to those ashen-faced girls, looked into the camera, and smiled brightly.

“Alright, the matter has been resolved. Our company will release an official announcement later, and we hope for your continued support for Hongyan Beauty.”

With that, the live broadcast was about to end.

However, just before the closure, everyone noticed that her smile suddenly became even more radiant.

It was as if she had received some wonderful news.

The camera followed suit and turned towards something, and then the audience in the live broadcast froze.

Within the frame appeared a handsome, young face.

The person was a tall man, with a slender figure, exceptionally good looks, and an extraordinary temperament.

He stood there, seemingly emitting a radiant glow that made it impossible to look away.

Everyone quickly recognized his identity.

He was Qi Xibei's boyfriend: Qiao Yanjue!

"Damn! He's so handsome!"

"Oh my God! So stunning!"

"He and Bei are simply a perfect match!"

"He's too good-looking! I want to say, I'm available!"

The live broadcast descended into chaos with the appearance of Qiao Yanjue.

Everyone already knew about Qiao Yanjue and Qi Xibei's relationship, as she had already announced it.

However, this was the first time they saw Qiao Yanjue appear on camera.

What was more, this was their first time being seen together!

Although they couldn't see the subsequent scenes, everyone could imagine.

The live broadcast had ended, but the lingering excitement continued.

After the broadcast, someone recorded the screen and edited some of the content, quickly sharing the videos.

Those who hadn't watched the live broadcast out of curiosity clicked on them and were astounded.

The transformations of those girls, in particular, left people wide-eyed.

Qi Xibei had actually solved the issues on their faces, which was incredibly impressive!

This also proved that she had indeed developed the anti-cancer drug.

After all, with such capabilities, it wasn't surprising to witness some extraordinary accomplishments.

However, what sparked endless discussions was her final statement.

Could it be that the gap between her and other doctors was truly that vast?

Her audacity was sky-high!

How could someone so young dare to utter such words!

Some people even tagged other doctors.

Chapter 1884 - 1884 This is Not Scientific (3)

1884 This is Not Scientific (3)

Some people tagged other doctors and relayed Qi Xibei's words to them.

Many doctors had accounts on Weibo too.

Among them were experienced doctors from major hospitals. These doctors were not particularly active on the platform, but everyone trusted their expertise.

Among them were both traditional Chinese medicine and Western medicine practitioners.

When they logged into their accounts, they found their inboxes exploding with messages.

Curious, they clicked on the messages and were dumbfounded.

Netizens were telling them about an arrogant and conceited celebrity who claimed to be far more skilled than them.

Reading such comments left these doctors feeling quite displeased.

A celebrity? What a joke!

If it were another doctor, they might have taken a more amiable approach.

Why would a superstar meddle in their field?

Ridiculous!

Moreover, she had such a haughty attitude and claimed to be better than them.

On what grounds?!

With this dissatisfaction, they clicked on the links to the videos.

They entered with a sense of anger, but when they finished watching the videos, they came out pale-faced.

“Dr. Liu, come out and expose her! How dare a little celeb say such things! Expose her and make her realize her insignificance!”

“Dr. Jiang, Qi Xibei has gone too far, go take a look.”

“Dr. Chen, please have a look...”

“Dr. Zhang, you...”

Well-known doctors on the internet were mentioned, and they all clicked to watch the videos.

Other netizens who enjoyed spectacles were eagerly waiting for these doctors to speak out against Qi Xibei.

They had already forgotten about what Qi Xibei had accomplished earlier; their only concern now was whether she would be exposed.

It would be so entertaining to witness her downfall, especially with Qi Xibei’s current arrogance! Someone had to extinguish her flames!

After a while, a doctor finally spoke up.

“I want to know what medications Miss Qi used and in what dosage. I need this information to determine if it’s accurate.”

One doctor spoke up, and others cautiously joined the conversation.

Of course, there were one or two doctors who were furious and started hurling insults directly.

However, before others could celebrate, their Weibo posts were deleted.

It seemed they realized that Qi Xibei was not someone to be trifled with.

Before fully understanding the situation, they couldn’t afford to speak recklessly.

If they dared to speak out of turn, their friends would make sure they paid the price.

Qi Xibei’s account also showed some activity.

She posted several pictures, which included diagnoses for those girls, along with the corresponding prescriptions.

From the looks of it, she didn’t hold back and was quite generous.

Others didn't understand these prescriptions since they weren't medical professionals, after all.

However, the doctors' attitudes changed after watching the videos.

Soon, some doctors started posting on their accounts.

"Dr. Qi is truly skilled, I can't compare!"

"Dr. Qi is truly amazing! If it were me handling these cases, it would take at least a year to bring these patients' conditions under control."

"Dr. Qi is impressive! I admire her! I, an old man, humbly concede defeat! I never expected a young doctor to possess such expertise! There are so many prescriptions that I never imagined could be used in such a manner! I wonder if Dr. Qi has the time to meet and exchange ideas!"

As more and more doctors expressed their thoughts, netizens were left dumbfounded.

She was really that incredible?!

Even the doctors admitted defeat?!

This was too absurd!

It was not scientifically possible!

Chapter 1885 - 1885 This is Not Scientific (4)

1885 This is Not Scientific (4)

The netizens were shocked by the doctors' reactions.

What was happening?

They wanted these doctors to come out and criticize Qi Xibei, not praise her or seek her mentorship.

This was supposed to escalate into a confrontation!

This development was unbelievably strange!

Moreover, some doctors seemed to disregard their professional identities and became extremely excited, wishing to immediately engage in friendly conversations with Qi Xibei over a drink.

Everyone was dumbfounded by these doctors' lack of restraint.

On the other hand, Qi Xibei's fans were ecstatic and jubilant.

“Bei is amazing!!! I wish I could go out for a run!”

“No one can rival Bei! She’s unbelievable!”

“I told you, Bei never lets down! Those who wanted to see her humiliated have been humiliated instead, haha... Their faces must be swollen now! They deserve it!”

“I’m convinced, Bei never lets down. I promise that no matter what happens, I will always stand by her side! She’s simply not human! It’s not scientific at all!”

The netizens were left astonished.

Was Qi Xibei truly this capable?

Everyone’s minds were in a whirl, unable to believe it.

However, the undeniable facts were right before their eyes.

Qi Xibei’s actions were clearly presented without any alterations, and people rewatched her previous live streams multiple times.

After watching, her fan base grew even larger.

Song Jiaren couldn't stop smiling as she looked at the constant stream of notifications in the group chat.

She had said it before. If Qi Xibei truly took action, how could she fail to solve the problems?

Look, those who unfollowed her must be regretting it now!

With Qi Xibei's powerful display, all the mud that was thrown at her had been completely washed away.

At the same time, her fame continued to grow.

It could be said that there was no one in the country who didn't know her now.

Due to Qi Xibei's "laziness," she hadn't participated in many activities before.

You see, when other celebrities became popular, they would actively engage in various activities, such as filming, endorsing products, and performing in commercials.

They would appear on every TV channel you switched to.

This frequent exposure was what made them A-list stars.

They also had to work hard to make money while they were popular, so as not to waste this opportunity.

However, Qi Xibei was different from them.

So far, she hadn't been involved in many activities.

There was even a movie that hadn't been released yet.

Compared to those constantly appearing celebrities, her screen time was too low.

Such an approach was not conducive to making it in this industry.

Nevertheless, she managed to make everyone aware of her existence.

There was no other way. Each time she trended, it wasn't because of her film or television projects, but because of various bizarre incidents.

She had previously made headlines a few times for saving people's lives, and then she trended again due to scandalous rumors spreading about her.

What frustrated others the most was that every time she trended, her popularity would skyrocket a bit.

It could be said that she relied on these trending topics to increase her visibility.

Other celebrities would be disliked if they trended too frequently, and their novelty would wear off among the general public.

However, she was different.

This time, because of the previous widespread criticism she faced and the miraculous way she managed to clear her name, a method that no one else could replicate, it attracted the attention of everyone.

Not to mention her development of a new cancer drug, which alone was enough to keep her on the trending list for a while.

Moreover, this time, her online treatment of illnesses completely shattered everyone's preconceptions.

Chapter 1886 - 1886 Turning the Tables

1886 Turning the Tables

Other celebrities watched as Qi Xibei's name frequently appeared in various news articles, filled with envy.

They exhausted all their efforts to make it onto the trending lists just once or twice, hoping to gain recognition from netizens.

Qi Xibei, on the other hand, skyrocketed to popularity directly!

Observing the discussions about Qi Xibei on the internet, they were frustrated to the point of grinding their teeth.

They couldn't replicate such maneuvers!

Whenever they were targeted with malicious rumors, they could only grit their teeth and endure.

Even if they tried to explain, more often than not, their explanations were not accepted.

This constant frustration left them sleepless at night.

In contrast, Qi Xibei's counter attacks were fierce, and they could hear the resounding sound of people being slapped in the face.

Despite not having released any blockbuster movies or TV dramas, Qi Xibei's fame had surged inexplicably.

It was simply unbelievable!

As Qi Xibei had managed to wash away the dirt that had been thrown at her, some rejoiced while others were left in misery.

The first ones to suffer were the celebrities who had previously come forward to make negative comments about Qi Xibei when she was being criticized online.

They had made some insinuations and derogatory remarks.

Some claimed to have witnessed intimate moments between Qi Xibei and other male stars, while others accused her of having a diva attitude.

Some even liked and supported the posts attacking Qi Xibei.

If Qi Xibei had truly suffered this time, they would have benefited.

However, Qi Xibei had managed to cleanse herself of the accusations and had even risen to become the most formidable star, leaving them in trouble.

After the fans had finished cheering, they finally had the opportunity to strike back.

Consequently, the comment sections of these celebrities' social media accounts became chaotic.

Some celebrities chose to remain silent, pretending to be dead, but they couldn't escape the attacks from fans.

Some even lost numerous collaboration opportunities, not just in advertisements but in various other projects as well.

Witnessing these developments, these celebrities were left seething with anger.

How unlucky!

Yet, this was the price they had to pay!

While some were unlucky, others were fortunate.

When Qi Xibei was under attack, several celebrities had come forward to defend her.

People like Cui Tong, Nie Zehai, and Shi Shuhang had all benefited from Qi Xibei's kindness in the past.

Without her, they might have already left the entertainment industry.

Therefore, they were sincerely grateful to her, and they believed in her innocence.

Thus, when everyone was ganging up on her, they stood by her side.

In the midst of the previous chaos, everyone, including these celebrities, had also faced harsh criticism.

Nie Zehai and Shi Shuhang lost two advertising deals as a result, but they had no regrets.

They steadfastly supported Qi Xibei.

Now, with Qi Xibei's turnaround, they were no longer the same either.

Fans were incredibly grateful to them. In such a difficult situation, they had shown unwavering support for Qi Xibei, placing immense trust in her.

Their loyalty was truly remarkable!

Such loyal celebrities naturally deserved everyone's admiration!

Consequently, the lost advertising deals were regained, and even several new ones came their way.

As for the resources that had been on the sidelines, they flocked over one by one.

The stark contrast between the two parties left many people green with envy.

However, who could blame them for not standing by Qi Xibei's side earlier?

It was too late for them now.

Even their friends had received such treatment, let alone Qi Xibei, the protagonist herself.

Previously, due to the controversies she had stirred, many advertisers had canceled their collaborations with her, fearing that it might tarnish their own brand.

However, this time, the advertisers were left crying like little boys.

Chapter 1887 - 1887 Sheer Regret

1887 Sheer Regret

Before this, these advertisers couldn't even imagine that Qi Xibei would turn out to be so amazing.

They believed that with all the trouble she caused, she wouldn't be able to survive in the entertainment industry.

As a result, many advertisers went to the SY Company to terminate their contracts with Qi Xibei.

Previously, Pan Yan was furious when faced with such a situation.

How could they rush to terminate contracts before the matter had even concluded?

However, Qi Xibei said that anyone who wanted to terminate the contract could do so directly.

She would compensate those who required compensation, no matter the cost.

But the compensation for the advertisements signed by Qi Xibei was not insignificant.

How could anyone come up with a nine-figure compensation sum?

However, since Qi Xibei made such a statement, Pan Yan had no choice but to comply with her demands.

Moreover, Qi Xibei paid the compensation herself.

The advertisers were quite satisfied when they received the compensation.

At least they managed to cut their losses in time and receive compensation.

Little did they know, a few days later, they would deeply regret it.

Who could have imagined that Qi Xibei, who had been silent all along, would suddenly come out and clean up her image? And the way she did it was so unique and powerful!

Who could have fathomed that she developed a revolutionary anti-cancer drug in silence and became a savior for humanity!

It was unbelievable!

No matter how imaginative someone was, they could never have predicted this.

Qi Xibei's demonstrated abilities delivered a resounding slap to them.

No, it was a series of continuous slaps.

Smack!

Smack!

Smack!

One slap after another, they felt their faces swelling up.

What was even more detestable was that they had terminated their contracts with her!

Some quick-minded ones had already taken down the posters and advertisements featuring Qi Xibei, afraid of being associated with any bad luck.

They couldn't have imagined that things would turn out like this!

Qi Xibei had turned the tables! Not only that, she had soared to great heights!

Her value skyrocketed!

Her value was already high before all this.

After these events, her value was unparalleled!

Who could compare?

She was the inventor of the anti-cancer drug, after all!

At least for the next few years, no one could rival her!

If anyone wanted her endorsement at this moment, it would guarantee soaring sales!

However, her value had also increased. To have her endorse a product, it would no longer be at the previous price.

What used to cost a few tens of millions for an endorsement now became in the billions!

These idiots had actually foolishly lost such an advantage!

Watching Qi Xibei's appearance on the screen, those advertisers felt regret to the point of almost wanting to commit suicide!

They had carelessly thrown away a gold mine!

A gold mine!

What was even more detestable was that even if they wanted to approach Qi Xibei for cooperation again and offer more money, it would be useless now.

Even with just a little thought, it was obvious that Qi Xibei would never collaborate with them again.

Regret consumed them!

They regretted it to death!

While they were drowning in regret, they discovered that Qi Xibei had declined many new invitations.

She indicated that she had some matters to attend to recently and would temporarily set aside matters in the entertainment industry.

When this news broke, everyone's regret reached its peak.

At present, she only had two or three endorsements left in her hands.

One was for Qi Yuntian's clothing company, another was for God Luo's Streaming TV, and the last one was for Hongyan Beauty.

These were the only three she had left!

Scarce things are precious, and these few companies were about to make a fortune!

Especially Hongyan Beauty, their sales skyrocketed like a fountain!

Witnessing this, the companies that terminated their contracts earlier regretted it to death.

It turned out to be the biggest blunder of their lives!

Chapter 1888 - 1888 Furious

1888 Furious

There were even more regretful individuals apart from the advertisers and celebrities.

Upon the release of Qi Xibei's anticancer drug, Yang Mo was almost driven to madness.

Yang Mo had invested countless efforts and mental energy into this drug.

Ever since she arrived in this world and understood its circumstances, she had harbored such thoughts.

She believed that once an effective anticancer drug was developed, she could become famous!

With this drug, she could become a billionaire!

She would have both fame and fortune!

Over the years, she had dedicated a lot of time and energy to it.

Who could have predicted that after such a long and arduous journey, the outcome would turn out this way?

Why?!

Yang Mo smashed all the decorations in her room.

As the sounds of crashing objects resonated from within, everyone hurriedly distanced themselves.

Inside the room, Yang Mo's face twisted with fury, her gaze terrifying.

"Xia Xibei!"

It was her again!

Oh no, she changed her last name. Now it was Qi Xibei.

Yang Mo's resentment towards Qi Xibei grew even stronger.

She had toiled for such a long time and put in so much effort, only to be overtaken by Qi Xibei!

She had even purchased a similar drug for research and angrily discovered that it shared many components with her own drug!

In other words, Qi Xibei had refined it based on her foundation!

Of course, this couldn't prove anything else. It only indicated that their thinking was aligned.

However, it was precisely because of this that she was infuriated.

This was Qi Xibei's provocation against her!

A blatant provocation!

Qi Xibei must have known what she was researching, which was why she presented such a drug!

At this realization, Yang Mo's head throbbed, and her chest ached with pain.

Truly detestable!

She wished she could kill Qi Xibei!

If it weren't for the current circumstances, with everyone's attention focused on Qi Xibei, she might have taken matters into her own hands.

She had never anticipated that Qi Xibei would strike her with such a blow!

It was utterly chilling!

Witnessing all of this, she was driven to utter hatred.

All their plans had been ruined by Qi Xibei!

Ruined!

Yang Mo stared at the wall, her expression twisted with rage.

Of course, apart from her, the reactions of others were equally unpleasant.

Qi Xin and the others were taken aback upon seeing the launch of the anticancer drug.

Why hadn't anyone informed them about this before?

Why did Qi Xibei bring out such a thing?!

Why?!

With this move, she shattered all of their plans!

Their previous wishful thinking had turned into nothing but shattered fragments at this moment!

Qi Xin's expression mirrored Yang Mo's, equally fearsome and terrifying.

Among the bargaining chips Qi Xin had used to win over others was the interest in the anticancer drug.

The moment this drug hit the market, it would undoubtedly attract fervent attention!

After all, there were so many cancer patients in the world. How much interest did that involve?

Moreover, they were the first company to introduce an anticancer drug, so naturally, they got to set the price.

At that time, how could they not reap the benefits?

Who could have known that Qi Xibei would suddenly make such a move, ruining all their plans?

The drugs Qi Xibei brought out had better therapeutic effects than theirs, and the prices were lower too!

Even if their own drugs could enter the market, who would choose them?

People weren't fools. Who wouldn't choose a drug with better effectiveness and cost-effectiveness? Besides, the pricing of the two drugs was different!

In this way, their interests have been completely shattered.

What was even more detestable is that Qi Xibei managed to save Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao!

This was beyond Qi Xin's expectations altogether!

Chapter 1889 - 1889 Stay Put for Now

1889 Stay Put for Now

In Qi Xin's plan, Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao were destined to die.

Whether it was the poison on the ship before or the subsequent ship explosion, they couldn't escape.

There were already two layers of traps set, and Qi Xin couldn't believe that Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao still survived!

She couldn't have imagined that Qi Xibei actually managed to pull it off!

The realization hit Qi Xin hard, and she deeply regretted it.

She should have taken action against Qi Xibei as well!

She shouldn't have treated Qi Xibei with such indifference, just for the sake of witnessing Qi Xibei struggle and beg for mercy in the face of adversity.

If it weren't for that, Qi Xibei would be dead by now, and Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao would never have stood a chance of surviving.

They wouldn't have to go through such a turn of events.

The more she thought about it, the more regretful Qi Xin felt.

One wrong step led to a series of mistakes.

Now, Qi Xibei had washed away all the dirt on her, and even gained more benefits.

It seemed as if they were rewarding her.

Seeing the praise Qi Xibei received online, Qi Xin almost crushed the table in front of her.

Qi Xibei had actually turned the tables!

It was supposed to be a hopeless situation!

"Didn't you say it would be fine?" Gu Yinglei's expression wasn't pleasant either.

As Qi Xin's partner, if she was unhappy, naturally he wouldn't be happy either.

Their collaboration had been perfect, but they never expected things to turn out like this.

It made him feel extremely frustrated.

“How could I have known?” Qi Xin’s face darkened, her expression displeased. “Who could have known that bitch would have such ability!”

Gu Guanlin’s mouth moved, but in the end, he didn’t say anything.

After all, who could have expected that Qi Xibei would be so formidable?

Before this, they were aware of Qi Xibei’s medical skills.

However, they didn’t have a deep understanding or knowledge of her abilities.

After all, Qi Xibei rarely showed her true skills in front of them.

Qi Xibei had set a trap for Gu Yinglei before, but that trap had been resolved by Yang Mo.

Gu Guanlin couldn’t fathom the extent of Qi Xibei’s abilities. He couldn’t even imagine that she was already surpassing everyone else!

Even if they knew Qi Xibei had medical skills, they couldn't have expected that she was also researching anti-cancer drugs!

"So, what do we do now?" Gu Guanlin's expression wasn't pleasant.

Now that Qi Xibei had risen, what should they do?

"What can we do?" Qi Xin glanced at him. "We continue!"

She sneered, "At this point, what do you think?"

They were on the same boat, and Qi Xibei would never let them go.

Therefore, Gu Guanlin couldn't leave.

Gu Guanlin's gaze grew deep as he looked at her, "Is there no other way?"

"Like what?"

"Like killing her," he said calmly.

His tone was as if he was suggesting killing a chicken, as if it wasn't a big deal.

"I wish we could," Qi Xin glanced at him, "But how do we do it?"

With Qi Xibei's current situation, it wouldn't be so easy for them to make a move.

"She's definitely surrounded by a group of people now. Can we make a move?"

If they could make a move, they would have done it already.

With Qi Xibei's current achievements, she must be held in high regard.

At least during this period of time, they hadn't been able to find any loopholes.

"How about using the old man to lure her out?" Gu Guanlin suggested.

"No," Qi Xin immediately shook her head. "We absolutely cannot let her know the whereabouts of the old man!"

If Qi Xibei found out about the old man's location, there could be trouble in the future.

After all, Qi Xibei was too wicked, and she didn't dare to take risks.

In the end, Qi Xin said with a suppressed anger, "Let's stay put for now."

Chapter 1890 - 1890 Fading out of the Industry

1890 Fading out of the Industry

Qi Xin was waiting, but Qi Xibei had no time to wait.

After cleaning up the mess surrounding her, Qi Xibei temporarily faded out of the entertainment industry.

It was no longer a priority for her in her current state, and she had no interest in getting involved in such matters.

If she didn't make Qi Xin realize how powerless she was, all her efforts would be futile.

Moreover, the old man was still in Qi Xin's hands.

It would actually be beneficial for her to fade out of the entertainment industry. Her endorsements and other activities would become even more valuable due to scarcity.

Therefore, disregarding the pleas of her fans, she decisively withdrew from the industry.

Before leaving, she assured her fans that she would return once she resolved her current situation.

Besides, her starring role in “Cosmic Alliance” hadn’t even premiered yet. How could she simply quit like that?

No one could change her decision, regardless of who tried.

Pan Yan tried to persuade her for a while but quickly gave up, accepting her choice.

After all, she had been an “unconventional” artist before, yet her popularity hadn’t diminished.

In fact, her ability to stir up trouble only increased her fame.

She was way too good at that.

It could be said that if she wanted to return to the entertainment industry, the door would always be wide open for her.

After all, she was an unparalleled enchantress, unlike anyone before her.

As for whether there would be successors, that remained uncertain.

With the entertainment industry set aside, Qi Xibei focused on dealing with the matters of the Qi family.

Qi Zhi'an had recovered after several days of rest, and his health had returned to normal.

He initially intended to return to the Qi family, but Qi Xibei and Ling Xiao stopped him.

It wasn't necessary.

With the old master absent from the Qi family, Qi Xin and Qi Zhiqiang were the rulers there.

If he returned, he would only be walking into a trap.

Therefore, it was unnecessary to go back.

Furthermore, Qi Xibei had found out that the other members of the Qi family had sided with Qi Xin and her allies, except for a few individuals located far from the capital.

In this situation, Qi Zhi'an had no chance against them.

Of course, from Qi Xibei's perspective, she didn't need to return to the Qi family either.

She had confidence in creating her own realm.

Qi Xin's relentless pursuit of the Qi family, resorting to such tactics and targeting Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao, set her apart from Qi Xibei.

She didn't need to stoop to that level.

This incident with the new anti-cancer drug had made Qi Xibei realize that she had even more potential.

The timing of the drug's release had made Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao realize that their daughter was even more incredible than they had ever known.

They never imagined she could create such an anti-cancer drug.

Qi Zhi'an was also an alchemist, but he could only create anti-cancer drugs using spiritual plants at most.

However, due to the unique nature of spirit plants, mass production was impossible.

When something couldn't be mass-produced, it became less significant.

Qi Zhi'an's understanding of spiritual plants was not yet at a level where he fully comprehended them, let alone the ability to integrate spiritual plants with this world.

Once Qi Xibei demonstrated her strength, Qi Zhi'an quickly took a back seat.

He feared that he would hesitate and be indecisive in this matter.

The outcome was predictable for those who hesitated in such circumstances.

His daughter was much more decisive and capable than him, so it was better for them to assist from behind the scenes and leave all other matters to her.

With the delegation of power from Qi Zhi'an and Ling Xiao, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue embarked on a new round of counterattacks.

This time, they wouldn't allow Qi Xin and her allies to continue with their arrogance!
