

Chapter 1891 - 1891 Take a Different Path

1891 Take a Different Path

Although Yang Mo was angry and wished to kill Qi Xibei, she knew that it wouldn't be so easy at this moment.

Not to mention other factors, just the fact that Qi Xibei had presented such a remarkable medicine meant that her status and position had changed.

There would surely be many people guarding her now.

Under such circumstances, Yang Mo had no way to make a move against Qi Xibei.

So, she could only suppress her anger and focus on other matters.

After learning about Xue Zhelang's situation, she had a new idea.

If it weren't for Qi Xibei saving Xue Zhelang's father, they wouldn't have been able to evade the attacks from their group.

Who would have expected that Qi Xibei would choose to run to the City of Ao and collaborate with others?

By saving the Xue family patriarch, she would undoubtedly gain his support.

If she continued in this manner, she would be able to join forces with others to deal with them!

With this in mind, Yang Mo felt that she couldn't let it happen.

Qi Xibei had previously blocked her path, and now it was her turn to block Qi Xibei's path!

So, she immediately had someone contact other wealthy and influential patients.

As long as she could win over these people, Qi Xibei would be isolated and helpless.

Soon, there was a response to the situation.

Wang Tianze found a patient for her.

This patient was a well-known wealthy individual in the City of Xiang named Zhang.

The Zhang family was a renowned and wealthy household in the City of Xiang, with a history spanning over a hundred years.

Zhang Xun was the head of the Zhang family and the current patriarch.

However, a few years ago, he developed a strange illness that left him weak in his limbs while retaining a clear mind.

They had consulted numerous doctors before, but they could only determine that it was an issue with his immune system, and they were unable to find a solution.

Zhang Xun was a sharp-minded individual; otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to elevate the once ordinary Zhang family to its current prominence.

Building upon the foundation of the Zhang family's century-long legacy, he further developed it to its present renowned status.

Moreover, he was not old, only in his fifties.

He was still in the prime of his life and could continue to pursue great ambitions.

Unfortunately, this peculiar illness forced him to be confined to a wheelchair, relying on others' care and unable to pursue other endeavors.

Encountering such a situation, Zhang Xun must have been in great pain.

After all, he was usually a carefree and independent individual, but now he was restricted to a wheelchair.

The feeling was truly unbearable.

Zhang's family had consulted many doctors, but they all said that with the current level of medical science, they couldn't resolve his problem.

However, Zhang's family never gave up seeking medical treatment.

After all, Zhang Xun was the pillar of the Zhang family.

Unfortunately, after searching for such a long time, they still couldn't find a suitable doctor.

The Zhang family had some connections with the Wang family, even though the Wang family was in Country M while the Zhang family was in the City of Xiang, with a considerable distance between them.

However, the City of Xiang was an international metropolis, and naturally, it maintained connections with foreign countries.

Wang Tianze's father, Wang Qun, had previously had considerable interactions with Zhang Xun, so naturally, he was concerned about his condition.

This time, Yang Mo took the initiative and offered to help with the treatment, creating an opportunity for herself.

It was important to note that Yang Mo was now their ally.

Since they were allies, it was only natural for them to collaborate.

Therefore, as soon as Yang Mo learned about Zhang Xun's situation, she immediately decided to go there.

Previously, her focus had been on researching cancer drugs, leaving her with no time to deal with other people's affairs.

But this time, when the drug encountered problems, she had to take a different path.

The Zhang family became the key to her new beginning!

As long as she could take over the Zhang family, she could continue to gain control over others!

Chapter 1892 - 1892 Preemptive Networking

1892 Preemptive Networking

Yang Mo's medical skills were indeed impressive. Otherwise, she wouldn't have achieved her current status.

However, before this, her focus was entirely on pharmaceutical research.

For her, if she succeeded in developing this particular drug, it would undoubtedly be a groundbreaking achievement.

Presenting an anticancer medication would make her the greatest presence imaginable.

After all, this type of drug was closely related to the lives and health of numerous people.

If it proved to be effective, she would undoubtedly achieve great success and renown.

Although treating other patients, especially wealthy individuals, could bring her fame and profits, it paled in comparison to the benefits that could be obtained from developing an anticancer drug.

The difference in weight between these two scenarios was immense.

Healing the wealthy could only earn her recognition within a specific circle.

However, bringing forth an anticancer drug would make her famous worldwide!

Moreover, the potential benefits in this endeavor were far greater.

After all, there were so many people suffering from cancer! Even if she made a small profit from each person, it would be a fortune.

That was why she dedicated all her time to this pursuit.

However, who could have anticipated the turn of events?

The medication she had worked so hard to create was unexpectedly preemptively released and suppressed by Qi Xibei.

Consequently, she had to take a different path.

However, it didn't matter. She could gather all the wealthy people within her circle and ally them with her, leaving Qi Xibei without any supporters.

Filled with this mindset, Yang Mo set off for the City of Xiang.

The City of Xiang was an international metropolis. Although not very large in size, it housed a significant population, and the billionaires residing there were internationally renowned for their wealth.

It could be said that establishing connections with them would pave the way for smooth future development.

Following Wang Tianze, Yang Mo quickly arrived at Zhang Family's residence.

Upon arriving, she promptly met Zhang Xun.

Zhang Xun sat in a wheelchair, his body restrained by various fixtures.

Prior to coming here, Yang Mo had researched Zhang Xun's condition.

It resembled amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) to some extent, but there were certain differences, and it was more severe.

Therefore, doctors were unable to treat him.

This time, Yang Mo had come prepared.

She was ready to utilize all her abilities to cure Zhang Xun.

Once Zhang Xun learned of her capabilities, more clients would follow suit.

Things would only get better from there.

Upon seeing Yang Mo, Zhang Xun greeted her with a gentle smile. "Miss Yang, hello."

"Hello, Mr. Zhang," Yang Mo responded amicably. "I'm Yang Mo. I hope my visit can be of assistance regarding your condition."

“Thank you, Miss Yang. I appreciate your effort,” Zhang Xun replied, not particularly hopeful.

He had already seen too many doctors before Yang Mo, but none could resolve his condition.

At this point, he had lost all hope.

Without hope, there would be no disappointment.

Yang Mo’s visit, however, demonstrated her goodwill, so he naturally wouldn’t refuse her.

Wang Tianze also greeted him, “Uncle Xun.”

“Tianze, my dear.” Zhang Xun smiled warmly, his demeanor remarkably amiable despite the torment of his illness. “Thank you for your help.”

“Don’t mention it. It’s my honor to be of assistance, Uncle Xun,” Wang Tianze replied with sincerity.

After exchanging pleasantries, Yang Mo steered the conversation to the main topic. “Mr. Zhang, let me first assess your condition.”

“Sure,” Zhang Xun nodded, instructing his assistant to hand over his medical records to Yang Mo.

While Yang Mo had already been informed of Zhang Xun's situation, she still took a moment to review the medical records.

The documents detailed Zhang Xun's diagnosis and the course of treatment he had undergone.

However, judging from the information, it was evident that Zhang Xun's condition was indeed quite severe.

"Let me examine you first," Yang Mo set aside the medical records and addressed Zhang Xun.

Chapter 1893 - 1893 Confident

1893 Confident

Zhang Xun had no objections and allowed Yang Mo to proceed with her examination.

Yang Mo came well-prepared this time.

In addition to taking Zhang Xun's pulse, she had also brought various medical equipment to detect any issues in his body.

After conducting a thorough examination, Yang Mo's expression became somewhat solemn.

“How is the situation?” Wang Tianze immediately inquired. “Are you confident?”

Yang Mo nodded reservedly, “I have a fifty percent chance.”

These words caused everyone present to widen their eyes in astonishment.

Fifty percent?

“Miss Yang, are you truly capable of resolving my problem?”

Even Zhang Xun, who had always maintained a calm demeanor, grew anxious.

It should be noted that he had heard countless helpless answers before.

Yang Mo’s unequivocal response, though only a fifty percent chance, was enough to uplift his spirits.

Zhang Xun’s family members were equally excited, “Miss Yang, are you telling the truth?!”

“Of course,” Yang Mo nodded, her posture somewhat proud. “Although the situation is not favorable, I will do my best.”

“Thank you so much!”

The others immediately rejoiced and refrained from asking further questions, quickly arranging a treatment space for her.

Soon, Zhang Xun was wheeled into the hospital room.

The Zhang family had already prepared a well-equipped room in their home, complete with various expensive medical instruments.

The equipment available here surpassed that of a small hospital.

However, these instruments were of no use to Zhang Xun and couldn't slow down his condition.

With Yang Mo's assurance this time, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

If Yang Mo could truly cure Zhang Xun, it would be wonderful!

While Yang Mo was inside, everyone waited outside.

"Tianze, thank you so much!" Zhang Xun's eldest son, Zhang Hongbin, expressed his gratitude to Wang Tianze.

This was the first doctor who had confidently claimed to have a chance, and this doctor was brought by Wang Tianze!

“Yes, I didn’t expect Dr. Yang to be not only young and beautiful but also so capable!” others chimed in with flattery.

“Could Dr. Yang be your girlfriend, Tianze?”

“That would be perfect!”

Although everyone had heard about Wang Tianze’s sexual orientation, at this moment, nothing could stop the barrage of compliments.

As long as their father’s illness could be cured, they were willing to do anything.

The Zhang family couldn’t afford to be without their father.

“Young as she is, Yang Mo is indeed very competent,” Wang Tianze proudly lifted his chin, reveling in the praise. “Of course, since our families have such a good relationship, I will certainly do my best to help you.”

“Thank you so much!” Others expressed their gratitude one after another.

Being surrounded by people praising him felt wonderful. Wang Tianze felt elated, almost bursting into laughter.

After all, he was used to being adored, as he was the young master of the Wang family.

However, after being tricked once before, the situation changed for Wang Tianze.

Wang Tianxin, that bastard, started competing with him for the position of family head.

Moreover, once his previous actions were exposed, he immediately faced cold treatment.

Combined with the AIDS incident, no one dared to approach him, even though he had confirmed that he hadn't contracted the disease.

However, who could guarantee its authenticity?

As a result, everyone kept their distance from him, leaving him isolated.

It had been a long time since he had received such adulation, and it felt incredibly good.

"If father's illness is really cured, we must express our heartfelt gratitude to you!" Zhang Hongbin said earnestly.

"You're welcome. I'll be happy if Uncle can recover," Yang Mo replied sincerely.

The atmosphere among the group was lively, as if Zhang Xun would be completely fine in the next second.

After two hours passed, Yang Mo emerged, her face slightly pale but her expression bright.

“As long as we continue treatment for another month, he will recover.”

Chapter 1894 - 1894 Bringing the Miracle Doctor over

1894 Bringing the Miracle Doctor over

Upon hearing the news, everyone in the Zhang family became excited.

Just one month?!

Could it really be cured?!

“Thank you, Dr. Yang!”

“Thank you so much!”

They immediately expressed their heartfelt gratitude.

Looking at their enthusiastic expressions, one couldn't tell that they were wealthy and knowledgeable individuals.

Yang Mo smiled and shook her head, "You're welcome. As a doctor, the patient's well-being is my priority."

Seeing her friendly attitude, everyone became even more enthusiastic.

Witnessing their warmth, Yang Mo's mood improved even further.

Qi Xibei! Let's see how you can compete with me now!

Amidst the joyous atmosphere, Zhang Hongbin's phone rang.

He smiled apologetically to everyone and stepped aside to answer the call.

"Hello," he greeted the caller, "Uncle Xue, it's been a while!"

It was the old man Xue on the other end of the line.

"How is your father's condition going?"

The old man's voice was lively and energetic.

“He’s doing okay,” Zhang Hongbin replied, “And how about you? How is your health now?”

“Oh, me? I’ve been cured of my illness a long time ago!”

The old man’s voice resonated like a bell.

“Cured?!” Zhang Hongbin was astonished. “But... You...”

Wasn’t he diagnosed with cancer?! How did he recover?!

Although he had heard about a new anti-cancer drug on the market, the effect couldn’t be this quick, right?

Moreover, wasn’t the old man in the late stage? It couldn’t have improved so fast, could it?

“It’s all thanks to the miracle doctor, Doctor Qi!” The old man laughed heartily, without a hint of sorrow. “If it weren’t for her, this old man would have already kicked the bucket!”

“Miracle Doctor?!” Zhang Hongbin was shocked, “Who is this Doctor Qi?”

They knew many doctors, but he had never heard of a miracle doctor named Qi.

"I'm talking about the miraculous Doctor Qi who cured me!" The old man laughed, "By the way, I'll bring Doctor Qi to see your father's condition!"

"Well..." Zhang Hongbin hesitated.

"What's wrong?"

"It's just... We have found a doctor now who is treating my father," Zhang Hongbin explained. "So..."

"So what?" The old man snorted, not giving Zhang Hongbin a chance to speak. "Haven't you tried many doctors before, but to no avail? Let me tell you, Doctor Qi is exceptional! I'll bring her over to take a look at your father. I'm telling you, it's not easy to invite Doctor Qi!"

The old man continued to speak without giving Zhang Hongbin a chance to respond.

"I'll bring her over now. She agreed, and this is a rare opportunity!"

After finishing his words, the old man hung up the phone.

Zhang Hongbin stared at the blank screen of his phone, his face turning dark.

If this had happened earlier, he would have been delighted if the old man brought someone over.

Now, when Yang Mo had already said that she could cure his father's illness, bringing in another divine doctor seemed inappropriate, right?

Wouldn't it make Yang Mo think that they didn't trust her?

That wouldn't be good at all!

However, the old man was accustomed to being decisive and not giving him a chance to refuse!

Nevermind, then. If the old man wanted to come, he would just let him.

Anyway, when the time came, he would find an opportunity to refuse the old man and Doctor Qi.

With this thought in mind, Zhang Hongbin returned to the crowd.

"Big brother, what's wrong?" The second son noticed that something was off with his elder brother and immediately asked in a low voice.

"It's nothing," Zhang Hongbin shook his head. "Uncle Xue is coming to see Dad."

"Ah?" The second son was surprised. "Isn't he..."

“He’s already cured,” Zhang Hongbin said. “It should have happened a few days ago. We’ve just been too busy lately and didn’t receive the news.”

“Cured?”

The second son was taken aback.

Chapter 1895 - 1895 Treacherous Scoundrel (1)

1895 Treacherous Scoundrel (1)

Due to Zhang Xun’s condition, everyone’s thoughts were focused on him, leaving no time or energy to pay attention to other matters, especially regarding Elder Xue.

It was well-known that the elder was in the advanced stage of his illness, but each family had their own difficulties and couldn’t afford to concern themselves too much.

Unexpectedly, in just a few days, the elder had miraculously recovered?

It was cancer we were talking about!

“Right,” Zhang Hongbin nodded, his expression filled with puzzlement. “And from his tone, he seems to be in good spirits too.”

Zhang Hongxing, the second son, was even more astonished.

“In good spirits? Could it be?”

“Perhaps it’s the new cancer drug they used before?”

He immediately thought of the possibility.

However, he quickly dismissed the idea himself.

“That doesn’t make sense,” he shook his head. “I’ve heard that this drug can only transform cancer cells back into normal cells. It doesn’t seem to have any effect on the person’s energy level afterwards.”

Nevertheless, this was already a significant change.

The ability to transform cancerous cells back into normal cells was enough to astonish the medical community.

It was said that even the medical field abroad was in shock and eager to worship the doctor who had developed this cancer-fighting drug.

However, regardless of the excitement, this medication only targeted cancer cells and had no effect on other ailments.

After all, a medication for treating the common cold wouldn't alleviate stomach pain.

Even if the elder did take such drugs, it wouldn't explain why he was so spirited, right?

"I don't know either," Zhang Hongbin shook his head, wearing a puzzled expression. "I don't understand the situation. Anyway... He said he would bring that doctor to our house."

"What?" Zhang Hongxing was surprised. "Is it true?"

"Yes," Zhang Hongbin nodded. "He said he would bring that doctor to help Dad."

"That's..."

Zhang Hongxing was also taken aback.

If it were before, they would have welcomed such a gesture from the elder.

Now that Yang Mo was already here, would it be appropriate to have another doctor come over? It didn't seem right.

The two brothers exchanged a glance, feeling somewhat helpless.

In the end, they made a decision: let the elder come.

Otherwise, they had no other choice!

They couldn't possibly make a phone call now and ask the elder not to come.

Even if they did say something like that, it wouldn't change the elder's decision.

The brothers could only smile helplessly and pray that nothing major would happen as a result.

However, they couldn't shake off the uneasy feeling. It seemed like something ominous was about to happen.

With this helpless thought in mind, they could only continue to treat Yang Mo with great hospitality.

They arranged an exquisite guest room for her and provided whatever she needed promptly.

Seeing their considerate and attentive demeanor, Yang Mo was naturally satisfied.

However, she didn't expect that on that very evening, she would come face to face with someone she least wanted to see, someone she couldn't have imagined would appear at this moment: Qi Xibei!

When Yang Mo saw Qi Xibei, her expression stiffened.

“How could you be here?!” she couldn’t help but scream, her expression filled with shock.

Her exaggerated reaction also surprised the others.

Did they know each other?

Were all geniuses acquainted with each other?

Upon seeing Yang Mo, Qi Xibei’s smile brightened.

“Yes, what a coincidence.”

Chapter 1896 - 1896 Treacherous Scoundrel (2)

1896 Treacherous Scoundrel (2)

Qi Xibei’s bright smile contrasted with Yang Mo’s calm expression, revealing no signs of a problem.

Little did everyone know, she had intentionally come here.

She had known that Yang Mo was here a long time ago.

Thus, she came here to create a scene.

Others assumed that the two had coincidentally met here and didn't think much of it.

However, Yang Mo could clearly see the meaning in Qi Xibei's eyes.

After all, she had spent some time with Qi Xibei and understood her to some extent.

Moreover, Qi Xibei made no effort to conceal her intentions.

She simply looked at Yang Mo with a smile, laced with a thick layer of irony.

This made Yang Mo explode with anger.

"Who let you come here?!" Yang Mo's face contorted, devoid of the previous calm and composure.

This reaction left the members of the Zhang family exchanging bewildered glances.

When they had previously encountered Yang Mo, she had been gracious and polite.

But now, her reaction... Was somewhat too exaggerated.

Yang Mo didn't pay any attention to the reactions of the others; her entire focus was on Qi Xibei.

Why did Qi Xibei come at this time?!

Witnessing Yang Mo's agitation, Qi Xibei's smile remained unchanged.

"I came here this time to help Mr. Zhang with his health issues."

These words caused Yang Mo to explode again, "I do not need your interference! I can handle it myself!"

She wished she could kick Qi Xibei out.

The stark contrast in their reactions left the others feeling somewhat perplexed.

What kind of relationship did they have?

Furthermore, it was evident that the two of them didn't get along well.

However, no one knew what had transpired between them.

“How is that possible?” Qi Xibei shrugged. “I came here sincerely to help Mr. Zhang with his difficult problem.”

“I’ve already said that I can handle it. There’s no need for your meddling!”

Yang Mo glared at her with a gloomy expression.

“But with your abilities... I doubt you’re capable,” Qi Xibei shrugged, displaying an arrogant attitude.

Her response nearly caused Yang Mo to explode once again.

Was she mocking her?!

The onlookers were also shocked by Qi Xibei’s audacious demeanor.

Wasn’t she too arrogant?

After all, Yang Mo was a highly skilled doctor! How dare she mock her like this?

Zhang Hongxing tugged at his elder brother’s sleeve, using his eyes to inquire about the situation.

Zhang Hongbin also wore a bewildered expression, but as the host, he quickly stepped in to defuse the situation.

“Doctors, let’s have a proper discussion.”

If it were any other people arguing like this in front of them, they would have kicked them out immediately.

However, Qi Xibei and Yang Mo had different statuses, and they were both trusted doctors of their relatives. They couldn’t afford to fall out with them.

Qi Xibei glanced at Zhang Hongbin and smiled, “You must be the eldest young master, right? I came here this time to treat Mr. Zhang.”

“I’ve already said it!” Yang Mo’s voice was sharp. “You don’t need to interfere!”

Seeing Yang Mo in such a frenzied state, the others were slightly taken aback.

Wasn’t the previously elegant and gracious Dr. Yang behaving a bit out of character?

Qi Xibei looked at her, the smile disappearing from her face, her tone heavy.

“Miss Yang, with your level of skill, it’s best not to show off. Otherwise, things may escalate to an irreparable extent!”

These words made Yang Mo widen her eyes, wishing she could pounce on Qi Xibei and beat her to death.

What did she mean by her level of skill?!

Her skill level was exceptional!

After Qi Xibei finished speaking, she looked at Zhang Hongbin.

“Mr. Zhang, am I right?”

Chapter 1897 - 1897 Treacherous Scoundrel (3)

1897 Treacherous Scoundrel (3)

Zhang Hongbin’s mouth twitched, unable to utter a word.

What did it mean by Qi Xibei being right?

Was she trying to set him up with her words?

He didn't know the grudges between the two, but he knew that if he dared to answer, things would become even more troublesome.

During his silence, Elder Xue stepped forward.

"I say, who is this?"

Zhang Hongbin quickly introduced them, "This is Doctor Yang Mo, whom we've invited. She has already started treating my father and has achieved remarkable results. Doctor Yang said that in another month, my father's illness can be cured."

There were many implications in his words.

He wanted to convey to the elder that Yang Mo was also a skilled doctor. Her medical expertise was excellent, and after some time, the positive results would become apparent.

In other words, they had already found someone to help and didn't need any further trouble.

In this situation, he hoped that the elder would persuade Qi Xibei to leave and prevent things from escalating further.

"Is that so?" Elder Xue looked at Yang Mo's youthful and beautiful appearance, furrowing his brow. "She's so young... Can she really do it?"

The previous doctors Zhang's family had hired were all over forty years old.

After all, with age came experience, and their capabilities were stronger.

However, Yang Mo was only in her twenties, and she appeared to be in her early twenties due to her well-maintained appearance. She didn't seem like someone with remarkable skills.

Once the elder spoke, the others were left speechless.

Yang Mo appeared young and inexperienced. What about Qi Xibei?!

Wasn't she still under twenty?!

One was under twenty, and the other was in her twenties. Who was truly inexperienced?!

If it weren't for the fact that he was the elder, Zhang Hongbin might have already told them to leave.

"I may be young, but isn't she even younger than me?" Yang Mo couldn't hold back, her gaze fierce as she stared at the elder.

The elder was startled by her reaction, furrowing his brow even more.

Why was this little girl so impolite?

“I’m younger than you, but I have better skills,” Qi Xibei smiled. “Aren’t you well aware of this? Didn’t you consider this issue before you became my apprentice?”

With those words, the scene fell into silence.

Became... Became her apprentice?!

What a joke?!

Qi Xibei was only nineteen, and Yang Mo was already twenty-seven. She was actually Qi Xibei’s apprentice?!

What an absurd drama?!

Yang Mo also widened her eyes, staring at Qi Xibei in astonishment.

Qi Xibei was completely acknowledging her own identity!

This revelation shook Yang Mo, her expression turning extremely unpleasant.

For a moment, she was speechless, unable to utter a word.

Her reaction also led to whispered discussions among the others.

Could it be true?

Based on her reaction, it seemed like it was true!

If it was true, then it was truly miraculous. Qi Xibei turned out to be Yang Mo's mentor!

Wang Tianze stepped forward, "Miss Qi, what do you mean by that? Yang Mo has nothing to do with you! It's impossible for her to have been your apprentice! She studied at the best medical school in Country M!"

His words successfully brought everyone's attention back.

That was right, Yang Mo didn't study in a local school.

Moreover, there was no way she could have that kind of relationship with Qi Xibei!

Qi Xibei smiled, "Hehe... She really was my apprentice, but I have already expelled her from my school."

Her smile suddenly disappeared, replaced by a stern expression.

“After all, those who betray their masters have no right to stay!”

Chapter 1898 - Treacherous Scoundrel (4)

Qi Xibei’s words were harsh and resounding, plunging the scene into silence once again.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

What the hell!

Betraying the master and being expelled?!

The amount of information conveyed was staggering!

Yang Mo was actually Qi Xibei’s apprentice, but she had already been expelled from her school...

Heavens!

Everyone felt like they were witnessing a sensational revelation, and it was both enormous and satisfying!

“You’re talking nonsense!” Yang Mo finally regained her senses, her voice piercingly sharp, as if her tail had been stepped on. “You’re talking nonsense!”

“Nonsense?” Qi Xibei’s lips curled up. “Whether I’m talking nonsense or not, you know it deep down in your heart!”

She stared at Yang Mo with icy eyes, emanating a thick sense of murderous intent.

“You spent a few years by my side, only learning some superficial skills, and then you came out here to deceive and deceive! Simply despicable!”

Her voice carried a hint of bewitching charm that unsettled people.

“Shameless and conscienceless, like a wolf in sheep’s clothing. Not only should you be expelled from the school, but you should also be stripped of all your skills!”

“You’re spouting nonsense!” Yang Mo was on the verge of going crazy, her eyes turning red. “You’re talking nonsense! My skills are all acquired by my own efforts! It has nothing to do with you!”

Even if she had learned a few things from Qi Xibei before, it wasn’t much!

Moreover, most of her skills were learned in this world and had nothing to do with Qi Xibei!

She would never admit to such accusations and slander!

“Is that so?” Qi Xibei sneered. “If that’s the case, then why did you follow my lead and also develop a new anti-cancer drug?”

Her words caused everyone present to gasp in shock.

Damn!

The amount of information in her words was enormous!

Even bigger than before!

Yang Mo studied under Qi Xibei and then went on to develop an anti-cancer drug?

Heavens!

The story was unfolding in such a miraculous way!

“You’re talking nonsense!” Yang Mo stomped her feet. “It was clearly you who copied me!”

“Is that so?” Qi Xibei chuckled. “What ability do you have that would make me copy you?”

Her gaze turned icy, staring straight at Yang Mo. “You learned these meager skills from me. Why would I need to copy you? Where did you get the audacity from?”

Under the gaze of Qi Xibei, Yang Mo felt her spine tingle, her expression becoming flustered.

“What nonsense are you talking about!” Wang Tianze became anxious. “It was clearly Yang Mo who started the research first, you came later...”

Qi Xibei looked at him, “Is that so? Do you have any evidence? Keep in mind, my medication was developed months ago, and I have already gone through various procedures and patent applications. At that time, how far had your progress reached?”

These words left Wang Tianze speechless.

They had investigated before, and Qi Xibei’s medication had already been formulated several months ago, during the summer vacation.

Moreover, she had applied for a patent and gone through various processes.

It was just that at that time, she was still keeping it confidential, so no one knew about the progress.

At that time, Yang Mo’s research was still at its final stage.

Although it was the final stage, it took her several months to successfully break through.

If such a timeline were revealed, who would believe in Yang Mo's innocence?

"Enough," Qi Xibei spoke up, breaking the tense atmosphere in the room.

Rather than pressing her advantage, she paused for a moment.

"I didn't come here to argue this time; I came to resolve the issue."

She looked at Zhang Hongbin, "Young Master Zhang, may I go and see Mr. Zhang now?"

Caught off guard by being addressed in the midst of the spectacle, Zhang Hongbin was momentarily stunned before reacting.

"Y- Yes! I'll take you there right away!"

Chapter 1899 - 1899 Treacherous Scoundrel (5)

1899 Treacherous Scoundrel (5)

Everyone watched as Qi Xibei and Yang Mo argued.

Although, it couldn't really be called an argument, as Yang Mo was completely powerless in front of Qi Xibei.

It was more accurate to say that Qi Xibei was overpowering Yang Mo.

So Qi Xibei was actually Yang Mo's mentor?

That revelation surprised everyone even more.

What was even more shocking was Yang Mo's attitude.

If Qi Xibei's words were false, her reaction wouldn't be like this.

However, her current response made people suspect that there was some unusual connection between her and Qi Xibei.

Otherwise, why wouldn't she dare to refute the accusations?

Although she did offer some refutation, it lacked any force behind it.

After Qi Xibei displayed her dominance, Zhang Hongbin wasted no time and immediately led her inside.

Moments ago, he wouldn't have acted this way.

After all, they had already found a doctor like Yang Mo, and if they allowed another doctor to intervene, it would be a slap in the face to Yang Mo.

People from their background wouldn't do such a thing.

However, Qi Xibei's assertiveness and strength made them involuntarily submit.

They didn't dare to resist.

By the time Yang Mo and Wang Tianze regained their senses, Qi Xibei had already been taken into the room by Zhang Hongbin.

They exchanged a glance, sharing the same anger and fear.

In the end, they followed along. They had to see for themselves what Qi Xibei was planning to do!

Moreover, Yang Mo was unwilling to believe that Qi Xibei truly possessed such capabilities.

Even though she had learned a lot from Qi Xibei during their time together, the two worlds were different.

Different worlds meant different events and different solutions.

In this situation, she couldn't bring herself to believe that Qi Xibei had the ability to solve Zhang Xun's problem!

Yang Mo's heart was filled with determination, but she couldn't hide the guilt in her heart.

Soon, everyone arrived in the room.

Zhang Xun was resting and was startled by the entrance of so many people.

"Brother Xue, why are you here?" Zhang Xun was puzzled when he saw Elder Xue.

He became even more bewildered when he noticed how lively and energetic the old man appeared.

"Aren't you..."

Although there was a ten-year age difference between them, they had always addressed each other as peers.

"Brother, I've brought a very skilled doctor this time to help you with your illness!" The old man laughed heartily, "Rest assured, Dr. Qi is exceptionally capable. There won't be any problems!"

Zhang Xun's expression turned strange upon hearing this, and he instinctively looked at his own son, seeking answers with his eyes.

Didn't they seek Yang Mo's help in treating the illness? How did Qi Xibei suddenly appear out of nowhere?

Zhang Hongbin was also at a loss.

Why did Elder Xue have to complicate matters?

The events of today had made them all somewhat flustered.

They had witnessed many things in the business world, but this situation exceeded their understanding and left them feeling helpless.

"Brother Xue, well... Dr. Yang has already been helping me with the treatment today, and there isn't a major issue. You don't need to trouble yourselves," Zhang Xun said with a smile.

"No, Dr. Yang isn't capable enough," Elder Xue waved his hand casually and disdainfully.

Those words nearly made Yang Mo jump up.

Being looked down upon like this infuriated her.

What did he mean by saying she wasn't capable enough?!

The others also had frozen expressions upon hearing the old man's words.

Was he intentionally stirring up trouble?

The old man's reaction left everyone speechless. Then again, his status and position were different from theirs.

Although Yang Mo was a capable doctor, Elder Xue's social standing ensured that he could easily find an even better physician, and he wasn't afraid of offending anyone.

After all, Yang Mo hadn't reached the point of being irreplaceable.

Moreover, the most crucial factor was that he had found a true miracle doctor.

With a genuine miracle doctor, these mediocre doctors became insignificant.

Elder Xue was a wise man, and now that he had sided with Qi Xibei, he had to maintain such a stance.

If he had met Yang Mo earlier, Elder Xue would have been friendly towards her.

After all, she was a doctor, and no one wanted to offend her. They couldn't predict when they might need her services anyway.

Especially since Yang Mo seemed to be competent, he wouldn't do anything to offend others.

However, today's events made it clear that there was animosity between Yang Mo and Qi Xibei.

In such a situation, Elder Xue understood that he couldn't please both sides simultaneously.

Furthermore, upon observing the situation, he immediately knew whom he should choose.

Qi Xibei was completely overwhelming Yang Mo! The difference between them was simply too great.

That was why he boldly stood by Qi Xibei's side and openly belittled Yang Mo.

Zhang Hongbin was also startled by the old man's reaction.

Wasn't Elder Xue renowned for his business motto of "harmony brings wealth"? Today, his response seemed excessive.

However, Zhang Xun wasn't a fool.

He immediately understood the old man's intentions.

At the same time, he became even more curious about this Dr. Qi, whom Elder Xue mentioned.

Being a businessman, Elder Xue naturally knew how to make choices.

In this situation, he chose to fiercely criticize Yang Mo, indicating his strong confidence in this miracle physician, Qi Xibei.

With these thoughts in mind, Zhang Hongbin fell silent for a moment, then looked at the old man.

"Since it's your intention, I'll accept it courteously. I wonder which one is Dr. Qi?"

Seeing Zhang Xun betraying her as well, Yang Mo's expression turned even more unpleasant.

Elder Xue chuckled and immediately pulled Qi Xibei out, "Here she is, Dr. Qi! An exceptionally talented physician! She's the one who cured my cancer!"

Upon seeing Qi Xibei for the first time, Zhang Xun was greatly surprised.

Such a young miracle doctor?

Was this a joke?

After hearing the old man's words, he was thoroughly astonished.

Qi Xibei was the doctor who had treated Elder Xue?

Did she really possess such remarkable abilities?

Witnessing the old man's confident and open demeanor, Zhang Xun finally understood.

He greeted Qi Xibei with a smile, "Hello, Dr. Qi. I apologize for the trouble."

"It's no trouble," Qi Xibei shook her head. "Being able to help is my honor."

As long as it wasn't directed at Yang Mo, Qi Xibei's attitude was quite gentle.

For a "miracle doctor," her demeanor appeared exceptionally approachable.

This left Zhang Hongbin and the others with varying thoughts.

They never expected that Qi Xibei would have such a mild side to her.

“Mr. Zhang,” Yang Mo spoke with a grim expression, “I have treated you today, and with just another month of additional treatment, your health will be fine. I cannot guarantee the outcome if you were to join someone else’s treatment.”

Her words instantly silenced the room.

Everyone could discern the implicit threat in Yang Mo’s words.
