

Chapter 1921 - 1921 Solving Yang Mo (6)

1921 Solving Yang Mo (6)

Yang Mo and Wang Tianze could not have imagined that they would suddenly be shot at.

The man who fired the gun saw that they were not dead and wanted to shoot them again, but there were too many people. The police were coming too, so he could only grit his teeth and give up, fleeing in a hurry.

The mall was in chaos as customers crouched on the ground with their heads in their hands, screaming.

By the time the police came, Wang Tianze and Yang Mo's faces were white from blood loss.

Although they were not hurt in any vital places, their condition was not good.

Soon, they were taken to the hospital by ambulance.

When the police on the other side came over because of the bomb, they found them already lying in the hospital. The police were shocked.

Didn't these two people want to make a move on Qi Xibei? How did they get attacked now?

This development was too coincidental.

The police asked them if they knew the person who did this, but the two of them didn't know anything.

They couldn't imagine that they would encounter such a thing!

They hadn't offended anyone at all!

"You hurry up and find out the people who did it! The City of Xiang is too scary. How could someone be able to hold a gun in public?!"

Wang Tianze's face was pale and difficult, his expression angry. He wanted to slap the table and jump up.

Wasn't this place very safe? Why would such a thing happen?

To suffer this kind of attack just out and about was really bad luck.

Looking at Wang Tianze's commanding appearance, the police's expression was not too good either.

If it was before, they would think he was innocent and would only feel sympathy.

Now, it seemed that he was not so innocent!

His attitude of treating them as subordinates and commanding them was unpleasant.

While they were arguing, Zhang Hongbin also came over.

Looking at the two of them lying pitifully on the bed, Zhang Hongbin was surprised.

“What the hell is going on here? Why were you attacked?”

“I don’t know!” Wang Tianze’s tone was bad because of his injuries. “I was just walking on the road and I was attacked!”

If not for the fact that this was not his territory, he might have jumped to his feet.

“What have you done?” Zhang Hongbin’s expression was not pleasant.

“What can we do?!” Wang Tianze got angry. “We were just out shopping!”

Yang Mo also nodded weakly, “Yes, we don’t know why we were attacked either.”

Yang Mo was very puzzled. This kind of attack rarely happened here, so why did they encounter it?

Was the culprit attacking indiscriminately? Or were they particularly unlucky?

Zhang Hongbin still didn't believe it.

There were so many things that happened today that he couldn't help but wonder if Wang Tianze had done something to annoy people to encounter such things.

Seeing Zhang Hongbin's expression, Wang Tianze became even angrier. How could this person be like this?

Soon, the police had news.

Based on the report, they caught Sun Lizhi and a few others in another place.

Now, they were brought back to the police station.

At the same time, they also learned something from one of Sun Lizhi's cronies.

Sun Lizhi, of course, was reluctant to tell what happened. After all, he knew that if he told, it would be himself who would end up miserable.

However, just because he kept his mouth shut did not mean that others would not talk.

Moreover, after being hypnotized by Qi Xibei, they could not keep it a secret and were very happy about talking.

So, the police knew why Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were attacked.

So it was revenge!

Chapter 1922 - 1922 Solving Yang Mo (7)

1922 Solving Yang Mo (7)

Originally, when the police caught these people, they didn't think that much about it.

After all, they all knew that these people were very tight-lipped and could not be easily made to talk.

If this kind of thing was exposed, they wouldn't have a chance to live.

After all, everyone knew how ruthless the Sun family was.

Unexpectedly, the police just opened their mouths to ask questions, and these people started to expose everything.

As they broke the news, the police finally understood the situation here.

Their story was that this time, it was because Yang Mo and Wang Tianze wanted to deal with Qi Xibei that they cooperated with the Sun family.

After that, when the Sun family sent people to deal with Qi Xibei, they were backstabbed by the other side.

It was all Yang Mo and Wang Tianze who were behind the scenes! They were trying to set up the Sun family.

Then, the Sun family took on Wang Tianze and Yang Mo to get revenge.

These claims surprised the police.

How could this matter be related to Qi Xibei?

So they immediately went to find Qi Xibei and questioned her.

However, when faced with these people's accusations, Qi Xibei looked bewildered and innocent.

"I didn't, it's not me! I didn't do such a thing!"

She firmly denied it, "I couldn't have worked with Wang Tianze and the others, they are lying!"

Her attitude was very serious.

“Yang Mo and I are enemies! Maybe they’re having internal fights, and that’s why they’re saying such things!”

Such a statement again left the police confused.

The Sun family said one version, but Qi Xibei said another version. The two sides of the story were different. In the end, who was telling the truth?

Whether true or false, this matter was certainly related to Wang Tianze and Yang Mo.

On the other hand, Sun Lizhi found out that his men had told the police these things, and he got anxious.

Those fools exposed everything just like that!

However, the matter had been exposed, so he did not want to continue to hide it.

Of course, it wasn’t that easy for him to hide it even if he wanted to.

So, he told what had happened before, focusing on accusing Wang Tianze and Yang Mo of treachery.

On the other side, both Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were stunned.

When had they ever done such a thing?

They couldn't understand why they were attacked before, but it turned out to be because of this!

It was ridiculous!

"I've never even been to the temple there! I've been shopping at the mall all day today!" Wang Tianze screamed. "I didn't do any of those things! It's true that Sun Lizhi and I are friends, but I didn't ask him to do anything bad at all!"

Wang Tianze was a little bit flustered and confused about how this matter was developing.

He couldn't figure out why it had turned out this way this time.

Why would Sun Lizhi say that he and Qi Xibei had cooperated?

Yang Mo was also full of confusion. How could she and Qi Xibei cooperate to frame Sun Lizhi? What a joke!

This time, the confessions were so different and everyone was sticking to their own story, making the police a bit confused.

What was certain was that this time, it was indeed Sun Lizhi who made this happen.

He was the one who attacked Qi Xibei, and he was the one who placed the bomb on Qi Xibei's car.

After that, he was the one who attacked Wang Tianze and Yang Mo.

If not for the two of them being lucky, they would be dead now.

Sun Lizhi was furious after finding out that all the accusations were coming towards him.

When his father found out about it, he was livid.

Their Sun family had insisted on keeping a low profile for so long, and he had exposed the family just like that!

Now, the Sun family was facing trouble from all sides!

Chapter 1923 - 1923 Solving Yang Mo (8)

1923 Solving Yang Mo (8)

While Sun Lizhi's father was busy saving Sun Lizhi, he was shocked to find that the police had learned about their family from somewhere and were now cracking down on them!

They were doing something illegal before, so naturally they had to be discreet.

Plus they had inside sources, so every time something happened, they would get the message and go into hiding.

This time, things were happening fast, leaving them with no way to make a timely response.

The most troubling thing was that his son was taken in, and at the same time, there were traces of a gunfight on his body!

Sun Lizhi's father knew his son was simple-minded and impulsive.

However, nothing could happen here, so he wasn't too worried.

To his surprise, something happened, and it was a lot of trouble!

His son and several people were caught, and at the same time, a gun with their fingerprints was found on them.

Moreover, a few people were dead.

That was a lot of trouble!

When he thought about it, Wang Tianze was responsible for all this!

Only, why did Sun Lizhi's people say that it was Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei who collaborated to trap them?

What was even stranger was that Qi Xibei firmly denied everything, saying that she and Wang Tianze were not on good terms and could not have cooperated!

Sun Lizhi's father was confused by this whole thing.

After finding out what happened between Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei, Sun Lizhi's father finally figured out the details.

Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei had a grudge between them!

The grudge was not shallow.

So, it was indeed impossible for the two to cooperate.

Then, this time, someone must have lied.

As for who was the liar...

Sun Lizhi's father soon figured out all the problems after he had gathered everyone's statements.

It was all the work of Wang Tianze and Yang Mo!

They approached Sun Lizhi and fooled him to deal with Qi Xibei, but then turned against their Sun family halfway!

Wasn't Yang Mo a very good doctor too? Then it was possible for her to come up with something strange and weird.

Sun Lizhi's father also found out that Yang Mo seemed to know how to hypnotize!

Right! Hypnosis!

Sun Lizhi's father had it checked and found that Da Zhi had some drug residue in his system.

However, the dose of drugs in Da Zhi's body was much less than that in the others.

It should be because his body was stronger than the others, and that was why there was such a change.

So, everyone else was hypnotized and only Da Zhi was still slightly awake.

However, he also saw a lot of strange things.

The “Qi Xibei” that Da Zhi saw was probably Yang Mo.

Yang Mo gave those guys drugs and hypnotized them to come back to fight Sun Lizhi!

Only Da Zhi was a little bit sober, so he came back to save Sun Lizhi.

As for why they wanted to deal with Sun Lizhi: of course, they wanted to make Sun Lizhi and the Qi family feud!

Wang Tianze and Yang Mo did not simply target their Sun family, but also Qi Xibei!

The bomb in Qi Xibei’s car was placed by them!

If things went well, Qi Xibei would be blown up and Sun Lizhi would be in trouble.

The reason for Sun Lizhi’s accident would be blamed on Qi Xibei.

When both of them died, it would be natural for the two families to oppose each other.

As for Wang Tianze and Yang Mo, they could get more benefits from this matter!

Sun Lizhi's father found out that Wang Tianze's father had a good relationship with a certain top police officer in M!

If the Wang family wanted to use the Sun family as a stepping stone, it was possible!

Chapter 1924 - 1924 Solving Yang Mo (9)

1924 Solving Yang Mo (9)

Sun Lizhi's father soon had everything figured out.

Even though there were some unreasonable parts in it, they were all made clear by his own brain.

The final conclusion was that Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were two bastards who set up the Sun and Qi families and then tried to reap the benefits!

If Da Zhi didn't take fewer pills, he wouldn't have recognized what Wang Tianze, the bastard, was doing!

So, Wang Tianze must be held responsible for what happened this time!

While Sun Lizhi's father was investigating this matter, the police were also acting.

The police came to a different conclusion than Sun Lizhi's father, but there was one very consistent thing.

This matter was related to Wang Tianze and Yang Mo.

Otherwise, why would Sun Lizhi be so cruel to have someone to deal with them?

They just wanted to die together!

However, what was the identity of Qi Xibei in this matter? They did not understand.

While they were wondering, things changed dramatically.

Qi Xibei filed a complaint against Yang Mo, accusing her of copying her work.

This work, of course, was the previously developed anti-cancer drug!

When this news came out, everyone was in an uproar.

Qi Xibei's drug had almost been copied?!

Qi Xibei's expression was serious as she faced the swarming reporters.

She said into the microphone, "Ms. Yang Mo stole my semi-finished research and tried to publish it before me. Fortunately, I was able to develop the work before she did. However, I didn't expect that she would want to apply for the finished product to be marketed!"

This statement excited the reporters.

How could there be such a grudge between the two of them?

"May I ask, what is your relationship with Ms. Yang Mo? Why did she want to copy your work?"

"I'm kind of her teacher."

Qi Xibei faintly dropped this bomb that blew everyone away.

"Teacher?!"

Yang Mo was more than twenty years old, while Qi Xibei was not yet twenty years old, it was more likely that Yang Mo was Qi Xibei's teacher.

But this reversal... Was not quite right?

Faced with everyone's suspicion, Qi Xibei nodded seriously. "We met on the Internet, and at that time, I taught her a lot of things. Moreover, I also told her a lot about the concept of my new drug. It's just that I didn't expect that she would choose to betray me by copying the medicine."

This statement made everyone even more surprised.

The two of them actually met on the internet?

Was there any proof of that?

Faced with everyone's suspicion, Qi Xibei took out her chat records with Yang Mo.

These chat records were from more than a year ago when Qi Xibei happened to enter the entertainment industry.

The two of them talked a lot about medicine in the conversation. The knowledge in them was too complicated for the journalists to understand.

Still, it did not matter. While they did not understand, there were experts who did!

The journalists who were watching the action immediately looked for medical experts to understand the knowledge. They found that the knowledge here was true, and the content is a little ahead of its time!

After reading this, several doctors were suddenly enlightened, solving their own questions they had for many years and getting a new breakthrough.

This was an afterthought, but now there was no doubt about these chats.

It was also evident here that Qi Xibei was indeed very powerful, and the medical knowledge in it had amazed them all.

She was really a genius who was able to develop a new anti-cancer drug!

That Yang Mo who copied her was simply a bastard!

Chapter 1925 - 1925 Solving Yang Mo (10)

1925 Solving Yang Mo (10)

Everyone soon believed Qi Xibei's story. After all, the chat records she brought out were very real. The contents inside were not something that ordinary people could know.

So, everyone believed that Yang Mo was Qi Xibei's disciple.

However, she didn't cherish the relationship and stole Qi Xibei's research!

That was outrageous!

If Qi Xibei had shared her experiments with Yang Mo in the later stages of the experiment, Yang Mo might have snatched it and released it first.

How disgusting it would have been!

Fortunately, Qi Xibei was more powerful than Yang Mo, so the drug was quickly developed.

Yang Mo was several months behind her!

This was a huge difference in strength!

It was not that no one suspected a problem with the development of things here.

However, if Yang Mo was Qi Xibei's teacher, and those contents were told to Qi Xibei by Yang Mo, then Qi Xibei was able to come up with the results months in advance. Wasn't that even more impressive?

How could such a genius need to do such a thing?

Everyone was convinced of what Qi Xibei said.

When they thought about it, they understood why Qi Xibei was "not doing her job" in the entertainment industry.

The fans listed out Qi Xibei's various schedules since she entered the entertainment industry and were surprised to find that she really didn't spend much time on her acting job.

Compared to other dedicated artists, her "business" time was quite limited.

Previously, people would have guessed what she was doing.

Now they knew that she was working as a star while conducting her own medical research!

This range was too big, right?

Sure enough, Sister Bei was Sister Bei!

As for Yang Mo, she was the most disgusting being!

The chat logs showed that Qi Xibei was very helpful to her and answered all her questions.

Yang Mo asked some questions and Qi Xibei never failed to answer them. What's more, she was the one who knew everything!

Yet, Yang Mo repaid Qi Xibei with this betrayal!

The police then realized why Yang Mo hated Qi Xibei so much and made the bomb.

It turned out there was such an origin!

“I was unaware of her identity when I met her online before.”

Facing the media reporters, Qi Xibei’s expression was not very good.

“Our identities were kept secret, but we chatted quite happily. After that, we talked about medical things. So, I gave her serious answers. After a while, she said I was her teacher, and if we met, she would be filial to me.”

She pursed her lips and sneered, “To my surprise, after I told her about my vision and the progress of the experiment, she slowly stopped contacting me and her attitude was much colder than before. I was also busy at that time, and I had things to deal with on both sides. So, I didn’t have time to look for her either. After I developed the drug, I applied for various approvals. A while ago, I received a notice that someone had come up with a drug similar to mine!”

The reporters below were wide-eyed.

“I thought it was strange that the effect of that drug was not as good as the effect of my kind of drug, but it was the same type. There were also many of the same ingredients. I understand that it is possible for great minds to think alike, but this is too much! So, I got suspicious of the person I was chatting with online. I had someone check her IP address and found out that Yang Mo was my online student!”

Everyone was even more shocked.

So that was what happened!

Chapter 1926 - 1926 Yang Mo Results (1)

1926 Yang Mo Results (1)

Qi Xibei explained her relationship with Yang Mo in front of the reporters.

At the same time, the reporters also broke the story of the previous attack on Qi Xibei.

Online fans, while shocked, immediately dug deeper.

Everyone was horrified to realize that Yang Mo was so heartless!

It turned out that the bomb incident that almost happened before was caused by Yang Mo!

She not only stole a lot of knowledge from Qi Xibei, but when she realized that she was no match for Qi Xibei, she chose to poison her! Attempting to kill her and then rise to the top herself!

If it wasn't for Qi Xibei's sharp reflexes and intuition, the other party might have gotten her by now.

[It's insane! This is the first time I've seen such a vicious person!]

[This kind of person is simply too shameless! How dare they do this to Sister Bei?!]

[This kind of person is not human at all! Qi Xibei was so nice to her, and she bit back! And it's a poisonous bite at that!]

Everyone was shocked and angered by this incident.

Yang Mo was simply horrible.

Based on the chat log, at first, when she knew Qi Xibei was powerful, she was so warm and considerate.

In the middle, she found a lot of questions to ask Qi Xibei, her attitude became even more enthusiastic, and she treated Qi Xibei as a teacher!

Towards the end, she was like a different person. Her attitude was the opposite, very cold.

By now, she wanted to kill Qi Xibei to silence her!

It was too scary!

What kind of vicious person was this?!

For a while, everyone called for Yang Mo to be dealt with.

It was simply horrible for this kind of person to exist in the world!

If you were to be bitten by her, it would be over!

Everyone was convinced of what Qi Xibei said.

After all, Qi Xibei's performance had always been extremely incredible.

How could such a strong and talented being slander Yang Mo?

Moreover, Qi Xibei wouldn't put a bomb in her own car!

Wasn't that playing with her life?

Besides, the police had already found evidence that those bombs were planted by Yang Mo and Wang Tianze at their demand.

See? Ironclad evidence!

For a while, the public was outraged.

Everyone wanted to kill Yang Mo!

Yang Mo lay in the hospital for two days because she was injured.

When she woke up, she found that the world had changed.

Qi Xibei actually accused her of plagiarizing?

What a joke!

She went online and after reading most of the coverage, it was as if she was struck by lightning.

When did she have all these chats?

When did she call Qi Xibei “teacher” online?

When did she do these things?

Looking at Qi Xibei, who was talking so eloquently on the news, and the angry comments from the crowd below, Yang Mo’s body was as cold as an ice cellar.

What the hell was all this?

She wanted to kill Qi Xibei, but what did these things before have to do with her?

Moreover, the anti-cancer drug was her own research result!

It should be said that it was Qi Xibei who stole her results and published them first, robbing her of her fame and fortune!

The roles were reversed here!

Yang Mo went crazy.

She immediately issued a complaint, saying that the things Qi Xibei said were all rumors!

It should be said that she was the one who was plagiarized by Qi Xibei!

As for the chat log, it was all fake, she never did those things online!

However, the results that came out in the end and everyone's reactions were out of her expectation.

No one believed what she said. After all, the drug was indeed presented by Qi Xibei first.

According to the records, Qi Xibei's drug was registered months before hers was!

Chapter 1927 - 1927 Yang Mo Results (2)

1927 Yang Mo Results (2)

All of this evidence made everyone believe Qi Xibei's claim.

Besides, Qi Xibei was clearly much stronger than Yang Mo!

There was no need for Qi Xibei to tell these lies that could be easily debunked.

Most importantly, if it wasn't for these reasons, why would Yang Mo want to hurt Qi Xibei?

Wasn't she just annoyed and wanted to take her place?

Yang Mo was going crazy looking at the questions about her online.

Why did everyone believe what Qi Xibei said?!

She didn't plagiarize Qi Xibei! It was clearly Qi Xibei who copied her ideas!

It was just that Qi Xibei took out the finished product earlier than her, which made it invincible.

Looking at those comments on the internet, Yang Mo was so angry that her mind was not clear.

She didn't understand why Qi Xibei had to say such things!

Soon, she understood.

A while ago, because of the new anti-cancer drug Qi Xibei had brought out, her status was all different.

She was a pillar of the country!

How could such a pillar be bullied by others?

Previously, after Qi Xibei presented the drug, the higher-ups wanted to send someone to protect her, but she had refused.

She said that she could protect herself on her own, and didn't need someone around who could easily get in the way.

This time, Qi Xibei almost got hurt, which naturally made the others anxious.

If it wasn't for Qi Xibei's quick reaction, something might have happened by now, right?

In that case, wouldn't the country have lost a great person?

A bad egg like Yang Mo must be dealt with. She absolutely could not be allowed to continue hurting Qi Xibei!

Qi Xibei had also told them earlier that she now had a new idea, and would probably come up with some new drugs after a while.

These drugs could solve problems that could not be solved by the current level of medicine.

It would be great if that could be the case!

Therefore, Qi Xibei's status in the country was different.

What Yang Mo did was really hated.

Before, she used sweet words to become Qi Xibei's student, but afterward, she betrayed her teacher!

She was simply a heartless fiend!

Soon, the investigation team took action.

After a few days of work, the circumstances of the matter were clarified.

The investigation team came to the conclusion that Yang Mo wanted to kill Qi Xibei because of her betrayal, so that she could become famous.

So, she cooperated with Wang Tianze to fool Sun Lizhi into action.

Moreover, they wanted to kill two birds with one stone.

They asked Sun Lizhi to take care of Qi Xibei while they took action against Sun Lizhi.

In that case, in the end, it would be them who benefitted.

If it wasn't for the fact that Qi Xibei was fine because of a little accident in the middle of the process, and Sun Lizhi learned the details from his own men, it would have been even more troublesome by now.

As for why Da Zhi said that Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei were working together, it was naturally because of the hallucinations he had gotten from the medicine Yang Mo had given him.

After all, it was Yang Mo who was with Wang Tianze.

At that time, Qi Xibei was with Liang Feifei. This, Liang Feifei could prove.

Although Liang Feifei fainted for a while in the middle, it was less than ten minutes.

Afterward, the bomb in Qi Xibei's car was found to be related to Sun Lizhi.

Sun Lizhi also insisted that Wang Tianze asked him to do it.

In order to bring Wang Tianze to justice, he also brought out some evidence.

It was a recording.

It was a recording of Wang Tianze persuading Sun Lizhi to make a move on Qi Xibei.

With this recording and the previous evidence, there was no way for Wang Tianze to defend himself even if he wanted to.

Soon after, Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were arrested.

After Yang Mo was arrested, Qi Xibei went to see her.

Chapter 1928 - 1928 Yang Mo Results (3)

1928 Yang Mo Results (3)

Yang Mo gritted her teeth in hatred seeing Qi Xibei.

If it wasn't for the fact that someone was watching from the side, she might have rushed up and bit her to death.

"Why?! Why are you slandering me!"

Yang Mo's eyes were bloodshot and full of anger.

In the past few days, she had fallen straight from heaven to hell.

Everyone was condemning her betrayal. Everyone said that she was a heartless traitor.

However, she clearly didn't do anything!

She was victimized by Qi Xibei!

In the face of Yang Mo's anger, Qi Xibei sat leisurely on the chair and just looked at her.

"Are you sure I'm slandering you?"

When Qi Xibei came in, she knew that there was no surveillance equipment in this room.

There were monitors, but there was no need to worry about their words being heard.

“Isn’t it?” Yang Mo looked at her indignantly, her expression grim.

“Aren’t you feeling bad about that statement?” Qi Xibei looked at her with a raised eyebrow. “Oh yes, you really won’t lose heart.”

Qi Xibei let out a light laugh, but the words that came out were very cold.

“A villain like you who deceived her teacher and destroyed her ancestors... This is what you deserve!”

Yang Mo’s heart skipped a beat and her face suddenly turned white.

“I...”

“How have I slandered you?” Qi Xibei leaned on the back of the chair and looked at her coldly. “Aren’t all those skills you’ve learned from my side?”

“You’re babbling! I learned it all here! It has nothing to do with you!” Yang Mo retorted.

She hadn't spent much time following Qi Xibei before, and she hadn't learned much. It was more of what she was exposed to after coming to this world.

Therefore, her ability had nothing to do with Qi Xibei!

"Is it?" Qi Xibei laughed lightly. "You really dare to say something like that?! Didn't you steal the core of those drugs you developed from me? With the current level of research here, are you sure you really learned it from here?"

Her eyes were cold and her pupils were deep as she just looked at Yang Mo.

Yang Mo's hands and feet went numb from her gaze.

She opened her mouth, wanting to retort, but was unable to answer with a straight face.

Regarding this point, even if she did retort, it wouldn't be accepted by Qi Xibei.

Yes, the reason why she chose to research cancer drugs was because of the knowledge she learned from Qi Xibei.

It could be said that without these core contents, she would not be able to carry out her research. After all, it hadn't developed that far here yet.

Although the latter series of things were all done by herself, the most important part of the research here was indeed all from Qi Xibei's side.

She also knew that Qi Xibei could definitely see what was going on with her medicines.

“All of these things came from my side, so is it wrong for me to say these things?” Qi Xibei looked at her.
“As for deceiving your teacher, haven’t you done it before? If not, how could I have died?”

Thinking of her death back then, Qi Xibei’s expression became even colder.

She had only thought that it was a mere caldron accident.

Who knew that it was all because Yang Mo had tampered with it?

Didn’t Yang Mo do all this just to gain more benefits?

Even after changing worlds, Yang Mo’s mind and character would not change. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have chosen to research anti-cancer drugs.

After all, that was the best way to become famous.

Qi Xibei wanted to deal with Yang Mo, and she had figured out how to do it.

This time, she was going to make Yang Mo have nothing!

She was going to make her lose everything!

Chapter 1929 - 1929 Yang Mo Results (4)

1929 Yang Mo Results (4)

“I did all of this because I wanted you to go back to that year and just see what kind of outcome you deserve.” Qi Xibei smiled and stood up. “From now on, just enjoy your good life!”

After saying that, she left the room.

Behind her, Yang Mo had a look of fear, her eyes full of despair.

She knew that her life would not be good in the future.

Qi Xibei would never let her have a good time!

Qi Xibei had used this time to push her hard into the abyss!

All of this was to get back at her!

Oh no, she should say, all of this was what she deserved back then.

Qi Xibei basically replicated what happened in her previous life, and then let her get the punishment she deserved!

In her previous life, Qi Xibei couldn't do anything to Yang Mo. Now, she wouldn't let Yang Mo have it easy!

Qi Xibei met a familiar face when she returned to the Zhang family home.

"Why are you here?" She looked at Qiao Yanjue, her face showing joy.

"I came over to see you." Qiao Yanjue gave her a warm hug and smiled. "Where did you go just now?"

He had just finished handling the matter at hand and rushed to the Zhang family.

He had expected her to be here, but the Zhang family said that she had gone out.

"I went to see Yang Mo." Qi Xibei didn't hide anything. "I'm settling things this time."

Qiao Yanjue understood.

She wanted to anger Yang Mo to death, right?

Although Qiao Yanjue hadn't participated in the whole thing this time, he knew the specifics.

He understood what Qi Xibei's intention was with those series of words.

Qi Xibei was trying to infuriate Yang Mo.

"Well done," Qiao Yanjue nodded. "It's a bit late, but not too late."

They had wasted a lot of effort in order to make Yang Mo spend the future in remorse.

In fact, with Qi Xibei's strength, they could have killed Yang Mo.

However, they did not want to do so.

Instant death was of little use, so it would be better to let her spend a lifetime atoning for her sins.

With Qi Xibei's fame and importance, Yang Mo would be well "entertained."

Yang Mo could not get the fame and fortune she wanted, and would also be locked up for more than ten years. The result was definitely a kind of torture for her.

This was the best punishment for her.

“Hm. Not too late,” Qi Xibei nodded.

She was a patient hunter, someone who would wait for the opportunity to give her prey a hard blow!

First, she gave Yang Mo the hope that she could become famous, and then she ruthlessly ruined it.

Now, it would be strange if Yang Mo didn't cry.

Even if she tried to succeed afterward, it wouldn't be a good outcome. After all, she was already infamous, so who would believe her?

The fame and fortune she wanted were gone.

“There's also Qi Xin and them,” Qi Xibei's eyes flashed.

“Hmm. There's no rush,” Qiao Yanjue patted her shoulder.

Now that Yang Mo had been taken care of, only Qi Xin was left.

“I'll take care of Mr. Zhang first and return with you later.”

“Okay, take your time.”

Qiao Yanjue let go of Qi Xibei and let her go to treat Zhang Xun.

Today was already the last day, and Zhang Xun’s condition was much better.

Other than his body still being a little tired, all other parts of his body had responded.

Such changes made the entire Zhang family excited.

Zhang Xun was eager to go out and run laps.

The moment he stood up from his wheelchair, he couldn’t wait to let out a song!

He couldn’t wait to worship Qi Xibei, who had cured him!

Therefore, they agreed immediately to her collaboration with her boyfriend.

1930 A Temporary End

Qiao Yanjue was also very busy these days, so busy that he couldn't keep his feet on the ground.

Due to what happened earlier, the Qiao Group was a bit chaotic.

However, he quickly stepped in to resolve the chaos, and at the same time, he dug out quite a few bad apples from the inside.

Those who were stirring up trouble inside were removed, returning the Qiao Group to a clean slate.

Qiao Haoming, who had previously slandered Qi Xibei, was also kicked out.

Upon realizing that Qiao Haoming had slandered Qi Xibei, Patriarch Qiao was very angry.

They had long treated Qi Xibei as their own daughter-in-law and treated her as family.

When Qi Xibei first arrived at the Qiao house, Qiao Haoming hadn't said anything, as if all previous grudges had been cleared.

Unexpectedly, he jumped out and did something like this!

The most ridiculous thing was that he was also severely slapped in the face.

Qi Xibei had videos of him with men, and these videos were much more intense than those so-called photos.

Now, everyone knew that Qiao Haoming was into men and he had multiple boyfriends.

Patriarch Qiao didn't want to care too much regarding Qiao Haoming's sexual orientation.

After all, the children were all grown up and decided what to do on their own.

However, he couldn't stand Qiao Haoming slandering Qi Xibei!

It was simply too much!

Therefore, he chose to kick Qiao Haoming out.

Of course, even if he didn't, Qiao Yanjue wouldn't let him off.

If Patriarch Qiao hadn't kicked Qiao Haoming out, when Qiao Yanjue did it himself, it would be really irreversible.

After kicking the Qiao Haoming family out, Qiao Yanjue focused on the group's affairs.

These days, they had already sued the other companies that had falsely accused them.

At the same time, their newly developed materials had quickly taken over the market.

Although they had lost some of their partners before, they now had more partners and were stronger.

Qiao Yanjue, as the person in charge, had to control the direction of development.

That was why he couldn't accompany Qi Xibei over to the City of Xiang.

When Qi Xibei dealt with Yang Mo, he also contributed.

Of course, besides him, Tang Luo who was far away from home, also helped a lot.

If it wasn't for Tang Luo, a computer expert, he wouldn't have been able to make such realistic chat records.

No, the final result was quite good.

When Qiao Yanjue came over this time, apart from meeting up with Qi Xibei, he also wanted to work with others.

The City of Xiang and the City of Ao were both prosperous cities with very developed economies.

Both the Xue Family and the Zhang Family were bigwig families here.

Moreover, both families were involved in various aspects of the industry, so if they wanted to cooperate, it would be very good to look for them.

Since Sun Lizhi had been arrested and a lot of things were dug up, the Sun family wasn't doing too well this time.

The Sun family had been acting as a bully over the years and had done many things that could not be seen, and because of Sun Lizhi's arrest this time, they had all been dug out.

Since the Sun Family was targeting Qi Xibei, this very important pillar of the country, the higher-ups were instructed to make sure that this matter was handled properly.

If it was someone else that the Sun Family had offended, then it would have been fine to fix it.

However, who let them offend Qi Xibei and involve the country?

Qi Xibei's current status and position could not be compared to any ordinary person.

So, they were really miserable this time. The share price of Sun's company has been affected and was in turmoil.

Sun Lizhi's father was going bald these days due to stress. His son had been arrested and imprisoned, other things had fallen out, and there was also chaos.

The market they had previously occupied was naturally ceded.
