

Chapter 1931 - 1931 Outcast

1931 Outcast

Since all these things that happened to the Sun family, a chaotic vacuum was left behind in the market.

Everyone was now frantically seizing these market shares.

Qiao Yanjue had come over this time because he also wanted to have a place here.

Whether it was the Zhang Family, the Xue Family, or any of the other families that had already made appointments with Qi Xibei to be treated, they all welcomed Qiao Yanjue's arrival.

They had heard of Qiao Yanjue before.

They all expressed their admiration and appreciation for this young man,

The Qiao Group could be considered a large group before, but it was not really that impressive internationally.

However, after Qiao Yanjue came to power, the Qiao Group's development was rapid.

Moreover, after Qiao Yanjue's rise to power, the Qiao Group developed special materials one after another, and these materials have had a very important impact on current technology.

It could be said that these materials had influenced the present format of development.

Therefore, it was a very good thing to be able to cooperate with Qiao Yanjue.

Those companies that had tried to falsely accuse the Qiao Group before had all repented.

Besides, Qiao Yanjue was Qi Xibei's boyfriend!

Who was Qi Xibei?

Due to Zhang Xun's improvement, all the rich and powerful people in the City of Xiang now knew how powerful and incredible she was.

Who would offend such a miracle doctor?

Making good friends with such a miracle doctor would be equivalent to having an extra life!

If Zhang Xun could be cured of such a serious disease, was there any doubt about curing other illnesses?

Qiao Yanjue and Qi Xibei had made many allies here.

In contrast, there was Qi Xin and the others, who had suffered a big blow.

Qi Xin was aware of Yang Mo and Wang Tianze's actions.

After all, they were allies, so she naturally knew about each other's actions.

If Yang Mo's actions were successful, then they would also benefit.

Therefore, they were very supportive of Yang Mo and Wang Tianze.

Who would have thought that in the end, things would turn out like this!

Qi Xin certainly didn't believe what Qi Xibei said.

How could Yang Mo be Qi Xibei's student? What a joke!

As for the discussion about the order of their medical research, Qi Xin was also firmly on Yang Mo's side.

Yang Mo definitely wouldn't be so stupid as to get involved with Qi Xibei.

However, it was useless for her to believe Yang Mo. Other people didn't believe in it, and neither did the evidence!

Qi Xin had exhausted all her methods, trying to help Yang Mo find evidence to prove her innocence this time, but the result was still the same.

The most important point was this: Yang Mo and Wang Tianze really had Sun Lizhi target Qi Xibei!

When this matter was exposed, no matter what Yang Mo said, there was no way to clear her name.

As for the other things, they were all add-ons.

These additional things would only make people blame them more, but they couldn't explain everything.

No matter what, Yang Mo and Wang Tianze were in big trouble this time.

After all, the two were the masterminds in this matter!

Sun Lizhi was in trouble, and they were in no small amount of trouble either.

What was even worse was that Sun Lizhi's father hated them because Sun Lizhi had to go to jail for decades because of what happened.

If it wasn't for the fact that they were so far apart, maybe Sun Lizhi's father would have come to the door to settle the score.

However, Sun Lizhi's father and the Wang family had supposedly already cut ties, and all previous cooperation had been completely overturned.

Right now, the Wang family was also in a state of anxiety.

It was already helpless when they had broken off their cooperation with the Qi family before, but now that the Sun family had done this in an underhanded way, it was too troublesome.

It was rumored that the Wang Family wanted Wang Tianxin to take the throne.

As for Wang Tianze, he was treated as an outcast.

Chapter 1932 - 1932 Wang Tianze's Collapse (1)

1932 Wang Tianze's Collapse (1)

Wang Tianze had caused too much trouble this time.

Although he had offended Qi Xibei before, that matter could be resolved privately.

This time, the things he had caused were too big.

What was Qi Xibei's current status?

She was now a pillar of the country!

Who knew what kind of changes she would bring to the country and the world in the future?

It could be said that Qi Xibei's importance now was comparable to some experienced academics.

He actually wanted to kill such an important person?

What a joke!

Moreover, this matter had offended the Sun family.

Father Sun only had one son. Now that his son had caused such a ruckus, there was absolutely no way he could get out. The Sun family had also been affected because of this.

Then, the culprit who caused all this would have to be responsible for this matter.

Therefore, Father Sun was like a mad dog biting at the Wang family.

The Wang family had also suffered a lot of losses because of this. After all, Father Sun had taken action by dying together with them.

All of this was because of Wang Tianze!

The fact that he was gay had been exposed, so it was fine. Others would at most mock him with a few sentences, but he could do whatever he wanted.

Now, his actions had affected the entire Wang Clan, and that was unforgivable!

Old Man Wang had originally thought highly of his grandson.

Who knew that he would actually play stupid tricks all day long!

Now, he had even caused the Wang Clan to fall into such a trap!

It was fine that he had cut off the cooperation with the Qi family previously, but the impact was not too great.

Now, he had offended the Sun family!

Most importantly, he had offended Qi Xibei!

Therefore, the old man made a decisive decision.

Wang Tianze had been expelled from the Wang Clan and was no longer a descendant of the Wang Clan.

In other words, he would be responsible for what he had done.

The heir of the Wang Clan had become Wang Tianxin.

Before this, the old man didn't think highly of Wang Tianxin.

However, as Wang Tianze made a lot of mistakes, he felt that Wang Tianxin was the truly outstanding successor.

Such an heir would not say how far the Wang family would develop, but there was one thing that was very important: he would definitely not make a stupid move and offend people he could not offend!

The person he could not offend was Qi Xibei.

Not only did Wang Tianxin not offend Qi Xibei, but he even managed to get close to her.

After knowing that Wang Tianxin and Qi Xibei were on good terms, the old man was shocked.

Since when did the two of them hook up?

Facing the old man's doubts, Wang Tianxin's attitude was calm as he slowly explained the cooperation between the two of them.

It turned out that after Wang Tianze was captured, Qi Xibei had taken the initiative to contact Wang Tianxin.

Qi Xibei had contacted him because she wanted to cooperate with him.

As for their cooperation, it was naturally the anti-cancer drug that Qi Xibei had developed!

Thus, Wang Tianxin made his decision immediately.

Cooperation! We must cooperate! He definitely had to cling onto this thigh. He definitely couldn't let her escape!

The anti-cancer drug that Qi Xibei had developed was a hot topic in the world.

After all, anyone could get cancer. If there was such an effective medicine, it would be great. It would be an extra life!

The drugs were also sold through different channels in different countries.

Now, Qi Xibei had handed over the rights to the domestic sales to the higher-ups. However, the sales rights in other countries had not been handed over yet.

Right now, everyone was frantically fighting for the right to sell these drugs.

After all, this represented an astonishing profit!

Therefore, everyone wanted to praise Qi Xibei to the heavens.

With such a good opportunity in front of him, how could Wang Tianxin not grab it?

Chapter 1933 - 1933 Wang Tianze's Collapse (2)

1933 Wang Tianze's Collapse (2)

The sales rights in M nation had been handed over to the professors of CG University.

However, there were many other countries besides M nation!

The Wang family did not only do business in M nation and Hua. They also had channels in other countries.

Therefore, as long as he got the sales rights of a country, he would definitely have money and status! With this drug, they could even open up channels in other countries!

Therefore, Wang Tianxin decided to work with Qi Xibei.

Of course, their reward for Qi Xibei was to give up on Wang Tianze.

When Wang Tianze was captured, he was flustered but not in despair.

To him, as long as the Wang Clan was still around, he could be saved.

Even if he couldn't be released on the spot, as long as they worked hard, he could get the punishment reduced by a lot.

Therefore, he wasn't worried. He was still a little calm.

And Qi Xibei was about to completely eliminate his support!

If she wanted Wang Tianze to be punished, she had to make him lose all support and feel despair.

That was why Qi Xibei chose to work with Wang Tianxin.

It had to be said that Wang Tianxin was very sensible and knew how to seize the opportunity.

Therefore, he immediately agreed to this cooperation.

After knowing the contents of the agreement between Wang Tianxin and Qi Xibei, the old man was silent for a while and quickly made a decision.

He chose to give up on Wang Tianze!

If they didn't give up on Wang Tianze, the Wang Clan would suffer.

On one side was Wang Tianze, and on the other side were countless benefits...Even a fool would know how to choose!

Besides, Wang Tianze had brought so much trouble to the family previously. It was time for him to atone for his sins!

After learning of the old man's decision, Wang Tianze's father, Wang Qun, was stunned. He could not believe it.

"Dad!" He looked at the old man in shock. "You...Did you want Tianze to die?"

"Or what?" The old man looked at him coldly. "I have given him a chance before, right? Besides, I've already told you not to provoke that girl from the Qi family! How did you answer me?"

Meeting the old man's cold eyes, Wang Qun took a step back guiltily. "But..."

“No buts!”

The old master’s attitude was dignified. “I’ve said it before. If he doesn’t perform well, I won’t hand over the position of the family head to him. But now, it is not a problem of poor performance. He is bringing disaster to the family!”

The old master was heartbroken. “If we don’t do this, tell me, how will the Wang family get through this crisis?”

Wang Qun’s hands and feet went cold, and his mind went blank.

That’s right, how should they solve the current problem?

They had offended Qi Xibei!

Moreover, the things that Wang Tianze did were all proven!

Under such circumstances, what could they do?

If they helped Wang Tianze, the Wang Clan would be dragged into the pit.

“Alright, I’ve already made my decision. Don’t talk nonsense with me.” The old man waved his hand.
“Anyway, the result has already been decided. Now, you have two choices in front of you. One is for you to leave the Wang family with him. The other is for us to sever all ties with him.”

Wang Qun was speechless when he met the old man’s eyes.

After a long time, he sighed dejectedly, and his shoulders were already sagging. “I...choose the second one.”

When he made this decision, his heart ached.

However, he also knew that if he did not make this choice, he would have to leave the Wang Clan with his son.

If they left the Wang Clan, would they still have such good days?

Chapter 1934 - 1934 Wang Tianze's Collapse (3)

1934 Wang Tianze’s Collapse (3)

Wang Qun’s decision satisfied the entire Wang Clan, especially Wang Tianxin and his father.

This meant that they had obtained a true victory in this battle!

This time, they had completely kicked Wang Tianze out of the Wang Clan!

As for Wang Qun, they did not care.

Wang Qun was not old, he also had the ability to fight with the others. However, who asked him to give birth to such a son and raise him like this? The old master did not have a good impression of him either.

Most importantly, Wang Qun was Wang Tianze's father, and Wang Tianze had even offended the Sun family! The Sun family would never have let their father take over the family!

The father and son were usually too arrogant. They deserved it.

Seeing Wang Qun's dejected appearance, Wang Tianxin and his son were extremely excited.

Wang Tianze, who was in prison, also received news from his father.

After learning of the Wang family's decision, he was stunned and could not help but doubt his ears.

How could the Wang Family give up on him?

Impossible!

He was the most outstanding child of the Wang family. Although he had only made a small mistake, it could be changed!

Why did the Wang Clan abandon him?

“Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

Wang Tianze roared at his phone.

He definitely did not believe in this decision. “You must be lying to me, right? Don’t joke about this!”

Wang Qun’s helpless voice came from the other end. “Tianze, this is the family’s decision. This is the only way we can do this. But don’t worry, I’ll work hard for you...”

“Bullshit!”

Wang Tianze roared, “How can you help me?!”

Wang Qun had some ability, but compared to the entire Wang Clan, how could he compete?

Only if the Wang Clan worked together could they get him out.

How could it be possible if Wang Qun was the only one working hard?

“Tell me, what’s the situation at home now?” Wang Tianze suppressed the panic and anger in his heart and asked.

“At home...” Wang Qun stuttered. “It’s just...It’s nothing.”

Listening to his father’s stuttering, how could Wang Tianze not understand?

“Now, I’ve become an abandoned pawn, right?” His chest heaved up and down furiously. “Are Wang Tianxin and the others proud now?”

“Tianze...”

“Isn’t that so?”

He roared.

Wang Qun was silent on the other end of the phone.

“Hehehe hahaha...”

Wang Tianze laughed. His voice grew louder and stranger.

“Tianze, listen to me...Tianze? Tianze?”

Hearing his son's change, Wang Qun panicked.

However, Wang Tianze did not respond at all.

Soon, the call ended.

Wang Qun felt that something was wrong and immediately called his lawyer.

But the lawyer's reply was that Wang Tianze had just fainted, and now he was sent to the hospital.

Fainted?

Wang Qun was anxious. Ignoring the Wang family's decision, he immediately took a plane to Hua.

After more than ten hours of flight, he finally arrived in Hua.

However, the result was a huge blow to him.

Wang Tianze's mental state was affected by the blow.

In other words, he had a mental breakdown.

This statement stunned Wang Qun.

Was his son crazy?

How was this possible?

“It can’t happen! You must be joking with me!”

Wang Qun grabbed the doctor’s collar and roared.

Everyone hurriedly stopped him.

Only when everything calmed down did Wang Qun know that the matter was true.

Wang Tianze had really suffered a huge blow, so he had mental problems.

However, even if something happened to Wang Tianze, he couldn’t be exonerated.

Chapter 1935 - 1935 Wang Tianze's Collapse (4)

1935 Wang Tianze’s Collapse (4)

No one would have thought that Wang Tianze would develop mental problems because of this.

It was truly shocking that his endurance was so weak.

Qi Xibei was shocked when she found out that Wang Tianze was now mentally gone.

She really didn't expect Wang Tianze to be so weak.

However, after understanding the situation, she also understood that it was normal for Wang Tianze to have such a reaction.

Now, the Wang Clan had severed all ties with him, and the position he wanted had been snatched away by Wang Tianxin, who had always been fighting with him.

At the same time, he would have to go to jail.

After that, he would have to stay in prison for at least ten years.

Therefore, it was normal for him to break down.

After Wang Tianze's mental breakdown, Wang Qun's reaction wasn't any better.

Wang Qun had previously promised the old man to give up on Wang Tianze, but he had originally thought that he would agree temporarily and deal with this matter properly later.

After all, Wang Tianze was his only son!

But who would have thought that Wang Tianze would collapse?

Now, Wang Tianze had lost his mind. He was completely mentally gone. Even if he could really leave the prison, it would be useless.

It was impossible for the Wang Clan to let him take the lead.

This was a huge blow to Wang Qun, and he instantly aged by more than ten years.

For Wang Qun, this was a huge blow.

A month ago, he was still ambitious and thought that things would get better in the future.

However, who would have thought that things would turn out like this in such a short time?

They had fallen from heaven to hell.

Besides, there was no way to go back.

His only son, his best son, had gone crazy!

This almost made Wang Qun break down.

He could not help but regret offending Qi Xibei in the first place.

If he had not offended Qi Xibei, things would not have turned out like this!

His son would not have become like this!

Was this their retribution?

Many thoughts flooded into Wang Qun's mind, almost driving him crazy.

However, no matter how angry he was, he did not dare to settle the score with Qi Xibei.

Qi Xibei was no longer someone he dared to go against.

He only hoped that Wang Tianze could get better.

After learning that something had happened to Wang Tianze, Yang Mo was also dumbfounded.

Wang Tianze had actually gone mad? The reason was that the Wang Clan had given up on him?

But what was even more sorrowful was that the Yang family had also chosen to give up on her!

After Yang Mo was arrested, she also asked her parents for help.

However, her relationship with her parents was very weak. In addition, her memories were still there when she was reborn, so she could not get close to her parents.

Most importantly, she did not tell her family when she was developing the medicine.

Later on, she worked with others.

In other words, all her hard work was for herself.

After understanding her coldness, the Yang family decisively gave up on her.

After all, a person who couldn't bring benefits to the family and instead helped outsiders was useless to them.

Besides, Yang Mo's ending was already set. They could not afford to offend Qi Xibei, who was at the peak of her power, for her.

Therefore, Yang Mo was directly given up.

In the prison, Yang Mo looked at the white wall and was in a daze.

Outside, after knowing that Wang Tianze had been abandoned by the Wang Family, Qi Xin and Gu Guanlin were also stunned.

They did not expect the Wang Clan to be so decisive!

The current situation was that their three allies had been ruined by Qi Xibei.

Xue Zhelang was not dead, but he was powerless. Everything in the Xue family had nothing to do with him. Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were also abandoned by their respective families.

Now, only she and Gu Guanlin were left!

When they thought of Qi Xibei's methods, their expressions turned ugly.

Chapter 1936 - 1936 Hair Tonic (1)

1936 Hair Tonic (1)

Qi Xin and Gu Guanlin did not expect Qi Xibei's attack to be so fierce.

Before this, Qi Xibei had always been very gentle.

Therefore, they did not expect her to be so fast and accurate when she really took action!

Now, everyone believed Qi Xibei's words and stood on her side. They were all clamoring to punish Yang Mo severely.

Qi Xin could not help but worry that Qi Xibei's next target...It was her, right?

However, it was fine. She still had the old master on hand, so she was not worried that Qi Xibei would do anything overboard.

If she wanted to do something, she could just summon the old man and Qi Xibei would be under her control.

It was because of the old man's support that Qi Xin was not so nervous.

Of course, she also had Ling Juan's support.

If it weren't for Ling Juan, their operation wouldn't have gone so smoothly.

However, no matter how much Qi Xin comforted herself, she could not stop Qi Xibei's actions.

After Yang Mo was captured, Qi Xin realized that the situation was not good.

Recently, the Qiao family introduced many new materials, which changed technology's current structure.

It could be said that the Qiao's Group had successfully gained everyone's attention because of these materials, and it had even led to new developments.

Apart from Qiao Yanjue, Qi Xibei did not stop working either.

Hongyan Youth was the first to take action.

Hongyan Youth was Qi Xibei's business. After the previous scandal, its sales had increased rapidly.

Everyone knew that Hongyan Youth's products were all developed by Qi Xibei, and the effects were guaranteed.

Unexpectedly, Hongyan Youth quickly launched a new category.

Hongyan Youth's previous products were mainly for beauty, but this time, they launched a special product: a hair tonic.

In fact, Hongyan Youth had already planned to release a hair tonic before this. When Qi Xibei was overseas, she had even recommended it to the male actor in her own production team.

After the other party used the hair tonic, he was immediately shocked and even recommended it to his friends.

It could be said that the hair tonic was better sold overseas than in Hua.

They were supposed to advertise and promote this product.

However, due to a series of events, the plan was temporarily put on hold.

But this time, the Hongyan Youth Company officially launched an advertisement for a hair tonic. The most amazing thing was that the spokesperson of the hair tonic this time was Kallas!

Everyone was dumbfounded when they saw Kallas on the screen.

He was actually the spokesperson?

The scariest thing was that the advertisement even showed his previous hairstyle.

Everyone could clearly see that his previous hairstyle was terrifying.

His hairstyle was M-shaped, and his hairline was very high. People couldn't help but worry that he would go bald in the next second. Moreover, he didn't have much hair.

But now, with just a flip of his hair, one could see his enviable volume. At the same time, his hairline had also come down.

It was like wearing a wig.

It could be said that he looked a few years younger!

And all of this was brought about by the hair tonic!

Callas's fans were shocked. They dug up Callas's previous photos and were surprised to find that he wore a hat every time he went out recently.

His hair problem had existed for a long time. Everyone knew that he had spent a lot of time and energy on his hair, and it had become a problem.

Everyone naturally thought that he had been wearing a hat recently to cover his withering hairline.

But now, it seemed that he wanted to give everyone a surprise!

Chapter 1937 - 1937 Hair Tonic (2)

1937 Hair Tonic (2)

Looking at Callas in the advertisement and his short hair, everyone understood that Hongyan Youth's hair tonic was really useful!

Ever since the previous incident, everyone's trust in Hongyan Youth increased again.

Who wouldn't believe in the effects of a product developed by a genius like Qi Xibei?

After she taught those people who slandered the company a lesson, no one could have any other opinions about Hongyan Youth.

Even if there were still some haters who didn't give up, they wouldn't be able to cause much of an impact.

And these people who were jumping up and down would not be Hongyan Youth's customers. Therefore, there was no need to care.

This time, Hongyan Youth's hair tonic had successfully attracted everyone's attention.

In today's society, there was so much pressure and everyone often stayed up late. Hair loss and weight gain were all common changes.

It could be said that being obese and bald were the two things that people in modern society were most worried about.

This time, Hongyan Youth's hair tonic gave everyone hope.

If Callas's condition could be cured, then they should be fine too!

Most importantly, the hair tonic this time was not expensive.

A bottle of 50 milliliters of hair tonic cost 100 yuan.

Of course, this price was higher than other products.

However, compared to other products that easily cost tens of thousands, this was really a cheap price.

Even an ordinary person could afford it.

If it was effective, the price would be very high.

Therefore, after Qi Xibei posted the advertisement on Weibo, the sales of the hair tonic immediately increased.

Previously, Qi Xibei had said that she had something to deal with, so she wanted to leave the entertainment industry.

This made the fans feel very disappointed and sad.

If their idol left just like that, they wouldn't be able to see her beautiful face anymore.

Now, she had news again, even though she was only out to advertise.

However, regardless of whether it was because of Hongyan Youth's brand and product quality, or because of their trust in Qi Xibei, or because of Callas's ability to sell products, everyone chose to buy a bottle.

Some of them even bought a few bottles because they felt that their problem was serious.

Although there was quite a lot of hair tonic, no one could guarantee that they would be able to get it in the future.

After the previous incident, the number of Hongyan Youth's products remained unchanged.

However, while the production volume did not change, the number of customers increased, so there were more times when the products were out of stock.

Everyone called for Hongyan Youth to increase production, but Hongyan Youth told them that there was no other way.

In other words, they could only grit their teeth and wait for the next time the products were available.

Who knew if Hongyan Youth's hair tonic would also become so short of supply?

To be on the safe side, they had better snatch it first.

Therefore, in just a day, the stock of hair tonic was gone.

Among these clients, there were many fans of Callas from other countries.

These fans asked their friends in Hua to help buy them.

For a time, the hair tonic became famous.

With the help of hair tonic, Hongyan Youth's fame rose to another level.

However, if Hongyan Youth had profited, the others would not.

The others were, of course, Qi Xin and Gu Guanlin.

Their expressions were extremely ugly.

This time, they had also prepared a hair tonic and were even preparing to launch it on the market.

Based on their market research, this product was very popular.

Therefore, they spent a lot of effort to study it.

Don't look down on these things. After they were really listed on the market, the benefits they could bring were extraordinary.

Chapter 1938 - 1938 Hair Tonic (3)

1938 Hair Tonic (3)

However, who would have thought that when their hair tonic was about to hit the market, Hongyan Youth would beat them to it?

Although hair tonic was not an exclusive product, there were a few companies producing it. It could not be said that after one company had this product, others could not interfere.

However, the pie in the market was only so big. If someone took a big bite, others would naturally take less.

Initially, Qi Xin was ambitious and chose to use this product at the start of the battle.

But who would have thought that Qi Xibei would be faster than them?!

After all, they had prepared this plan for several months!

In the past two months, they had produced a lot of hair tonics and were waiting to go on the market.

It could be said that they had invested a lot in this area.

But who would have thought that Qi Xibei would beat him to it?!

What kind of joke was this?

Could it be that she had been watching them make their decisions?

Qi Xin was furious and immediately sent someone to investigate this matter.

Then, she realized that Qi Xibei had already come up with a hair tonic.

However, at that time, she did not mass-produce them.

Due to the small production volume and the lack of official publicity, even if someone used it and sold it online, not many people would notice.

After all, Hongyan Youth's skincare products were the essence. They had already attracted everyone's attention, so they did not have the mood to pay attention to an ordinary hair tonic.

After all, not everyone had such a need.

This time, Qi Xibei had made such a big deal out of it and even invited a big star to be her spokesperson because she wanted to be one step ahead.

Most importantly, she could even ruin Qi Xin!

Liu Manhong and Huo Zijun were overjoyed when they saw the sales report.

"Our products are good!"

Huo Zijun was very happy.

He no longer doubted Qi Xibei's strength. It could be said that he was now Qi Xibei's most loyal fan.

Of course, he was confident in the sales this time.

However, when the final sales exceeded his expectations, he was also shocked.

They had prepared tens of millions of bottles of hair tonic, but they were sold out in a day!

Such speed was truly shocking.

“Of course!” Liu Manhong nodded. “This is the celebrity effect that Beibei brought. Moreover, the quality of our products is the leverage.”

Now, who didn’t know how high-quality Hongyan Youth was?

Even foreign customers came to buy Hongyan Youth.

It was a pity that there were not enough products for customers in the country, let alone selling them overseas.

However, hair tonic was different from other products. With their production capacity, they could mass produce it.

“Get the factory to increase production.”

Huo Zijun called his secretary and gave instructions.

Qi Xibei had told them before that the production had to keep up.

This was the first time they wanted to completely seize the hair tonic market!

They would definitely not give Qi Xin any room to breathe!

After receiving the instructions, they immediately contacted the factory.

At the same time, they also sent out products by express delivery as soon as possible. They had to deliver the products to the customers in the shortest time possible.

Their products were effective as soon as they were used. Although the effect was not immediate, it was definitely much better than other products on the market.

After using these products, customers would naturally know which ones were the best.

At that time, a large number of people would definitely keep buying.

Therefore, their current production was to cope with the subsequent buying frenzy.

A few days later, there were indeed waves of good reviews online about this product!

Chapter 1939 - 1939 Can't Be Compared

1939 Can't Be Compared

“Awesome! I’m a programmer, and my hair is the most annoying thing every day. I have to wear a hat every day when I go out! I had originally bought the hair tonic with the intention of trying it out. But who would have thought that I would only use it for two days and it would have such obvious effects!”

There were also two photos of him posted at the back.

In the first photo, there was a head with a Mediterranean hairstyle.

The central part was already bald, and there was not much hair to be seen. There was even a faint tendency to reflect light.

Beside it was a circle of hair. They stood stubbornly around it, making a final stand.

Looking at this photo made one’s heart ache.

In the second photo, the hair on the side did not change much, but there was a little black stubble on the scalp in the middle of the head.

Although it was just a little bit, the black color brought endless hope.

The comparison between the two was not extremely depressing, but it was very obvious.

This post also brought more discussion.

“I bought a bottle and used it for two days. Now, some hair has grown out! I’m about to cry!”

“For my hair, I used many methods. Take medicine, apply ointment, massage... I used all of them. I only bought a hair tonic for Qi Xibei’s sake. But who would have thought that I would really pick up a treasure!”

“It’s for my dad. My dad only used it for two days. Now he’s urging me to buy a few more bottles for backup!”

Looking at the comments that flooded in, almost all of them were positive comments, and the Internet was shocked.

Was it really that useful?

If it was really that useful, then they had to keep up!

If they could grow hair, they would do anything!

People whose friends used it and it was effective. People who saw it on the Internet...They all clicked on Hongyan Youth’s official website.

No matter what, they would buy it and try it out!

Qi Xibei could even come up with anti-cancer drugs, so what was a hair tonic? Although the difference between the two products was huge, she was a genius.

Very quickly, the large batch of goods that they had prepared earlier were immediately snatched away.

This time, many people bought several bottles at once.

Who knew if they would have the chance to buy it in the future?

Moreover, everyone was worried that if they did not use it, they might lose their hair again.

Although this product couldn't cure this problem, it was very satisfying to be able to grow hair.

Regardless of the outcome, they had to be prepared.

Even if they had to use it every day, no matter how much money they spent, they would not spend more money than getting a hair transplant! Besides, a hair transplant was too difficult!

Everyone was worried about growing their hair.

Now that such an effective product has appeared, who wouldn't be willing?

Looking at the good reviews online, the cup in Qi Xin's hand was almost squeezed flat.

There were a few people sitting at the table in front of her.

"CEO Qi, even if our product is on the market, it won't be competitive!"

"That's right! Let's not talk about anything else, just the price alone, our price is higher than theirs! Who's willing to buy ours?"

"Most importantly, the effect is different! After using Hongyan Youth's products, why would they buy ours?"

"That's right! What should we do?"

The managers broke out in a cold sweat.

The current situation was not a good thing for their company.

Comparing the price? No. Comparing quality was even worse.

They had previously brought Hongyan Youth's products back for testing. The quality was much better than their company's products!

The effect was even more obvious!

Their products had to be used for ten days to half a month before they could see the effect. However, Hongyan Youth's product only took effect after two days!

How could this be compared?

Chapter 1940 - 1940 Not Mature Enough

1940 Not Mature Enough

Faced with the questions and opinions of these managers, Qi Xin's head was about to explode.

She didn't expect things to develop like this.

Now, Hongyan Youth's hair tonic was selling very well, directly snatching the market of others.

For this kind of thing, if one bought it from this shop, they would not buy it from another shop for a short period of time.

Of course, if they found that the effect was not good after buying it, they would only buy it once.

But the problem was that Hongyan Youth's products were of excellent quality!

Now, the Internet was crazily praising this hair tonic, and at the same time, they were also praising Qi Xibei.

After all, this was something that Qi Xibei had created. Of course, they had to praise her.

On the contrary, they were lonely and miserable.

They had stocked up a lot of hair tonic previously and were waiting to launch it in a few days.

But now, it didn't seem appropriate.

Even if they really launched a hair tonic, they would not be able to go against Hongyan Youth!

Who asked Hongyan Youth to become a national brand? Almost everyone had heard of this brand.

The previous incident had blown up too much, but it had also brought Hongyan Youth a lot of benefits in the end.

Qi Xin looked at the comments on the Internet and the media's report on this incident. Her expression was very ugly.

She didn't need anyone to tell her that the situation wasn't good.

"Even if the price is lowered now... We might not be able to compare to the other party!"

The managers' expressions were very ugly.

"Yes. What should we do? Why don't we stop production first?"

Even if they continued to produce but couldn't sell it, wouldn't that be a huge loss?

Someone muttered. He had already suggested not to invest so much energy and cost on one thing so quickly.

Wouldn't it be troublesome if something went wrong?

I told you so!

However, Qi Xin was too young. In order to convince the masses, she made such a decision.

If she succeeded, everyone would think that she was very capable. But now, this decision has brought more losses to the company and made everyone suspicious of her.

Listening to everyone's discussion and seeing their attitudes, Qi Xin's expression darkened.

"Alright, I'll handle the rest. Meeting dismissed."

After saying that, she stood up and left.

Looking at her departing figure, the people who stayed behind whispered to each other, their expressions unhappy.

"I've always said that one can't do anything without maturity! Look!"

"That's right! She had said it so well before, but what about now?"

"Sigh, you guys don't have to say so much. Who wanted the situation to develop so strangely!"

"Yes, the development is too sudden. We can't do anything about it."

"But, that Qi Xibei...She seems to be from the Qi family too?"

"It seems so! However, the two of them started to fight?"

“I heard...Something happened up there.”

“Forget it, let’s not talk about this anymore, lest we get kicked out.”

With that, everyone shut their mouths.

However, the curiosity in their eyes showed that they still had some thoughts about this matter.

They were the management of the company, so they naturally knew some things about the Qi family.

Even though they were unable to understand the Qi family’s situation, they would definitely have heard some things given their status.

However, this kind of family struggle was something that every family would have. The richer they were, the more trouble they caused.

As a result, the Qi family’s matter had also become a topic of conversation for everyone.

However, no one dared to say these words in front of Qi Xin. After all, they still wanted to make a living.

How dare they praise Qi Xibei in front of Qi Xin?

Then they would be chased out!
