

Chapter 1941-Anthony felt bad with her looking at him. He gulped, "Five years ago, I hurt you.

I know there's no use for me to say anything to you. You may hit me, scold me or put me to jail. Please, don't do anything silly?"

His voice was anxious and urgent, though his tone was gentle.

Charmine looked at him coldly, "You knew this all long, why did you lie to me?"

Anthony met her disappointed eyes and he could not breathe.

He took a few steps forward, "I didn't do it on purpose but..."

He was afraid that once she learned about the truth, she might be in pain as of now.

He was also afraid that she might do anything silly. Afraid that their difficult marriage would be over...

He had always wanted to come clean to her but he lacked the courage to...

Anthony's eyes darkened with guilt, he said with a serious voice, "It's all myself but do remember, you're Charmine Jordan. You should punish me and not yourself. Listen to me, come down, alright?" As he spoke, he reached his hand out at her.

Charmine looked at him and her red lips curled into a smile. Suddenly...

Her stunning figure stood up at the edge. She faced Anthony as she stood by the edge.

Behind her was an abyss of over a hundred meters...

The wind blew by and her red gown was flying in the air. Her thin figure looked as if she would fall off at any given moment.

Anthony was so worried that his eyes reddened. His heart was up his throat.

"Charmine!"

He was about to jump over. If she was to do anything silly, even if she was to die, he had to protect her and be with her!

And yet...

As he was on the verge of breaking, he saw...

That Charmine did not jump. In fact, she reached out her hand to make a sign.

A moment later...

The building opposite to them suddenly had cracking sounds.

Following that, shots of fireworks were sent up the skies. The darkened skies were filled with big and blooming fireworks.

The colorful fireworks filled the skies. It looked so beautiful and romantic.

Charmine faced away from the fireworks. Her red gown flew in the air, she was looking so stunning.

While she stood below the fireworks as she gazed at Anthony, her eyes were filled with softness.

Anthony frowned as he stood transfixed on the spot.

He looked at Charmine and said in shock, "Charmine, you..."

What was she doing?

Charmine curled up her lips, "Surprise?"

Anthony was speechless.

Surprise?

Was she not jumping off the building? What surprise was she on about?

Charmine looked at him and her red lips parted, "Actually, I'm glad that it was you."

Anthony frowned.

He ruined her and yet she said that she was glad? Did he hear her correctly?

Charmine said clearly, "I know you were drugged. You were a victim yourself.

Even if it wasn't you, it would have been another man. I'm glad that it was you, so that I haven't been with another man."

Her voice sounded glad, she was genuinely glad.

She thought she was ruined by Rex Walker and then Alexander.

No matter who it was, she did not love them...

However, she was shocked to find out that it was Anthony! How lucky was she to have met Anthony at that time? 1 This was the first time that Charmine felt so genuinely grateful, she looked at Anthony and asked, "Don't you feel that we're destined to be together?"

They had been with one another since five years ago. And they met again five years later, they even fell in love...

Chapter 1942-Antony looked at her darkly, he found it hard to believe.

Charmine did not hate him and she genuinely thought so?

How lucky was he to have married such a nice woman?

Charmine smiled at him and reached out her arm.

Under the fireworks, her smile was wide and gentle.

Anthony walked toward her and hugged her tightly. He lifted her off the edge.

He felt her body in his arms. His tightened chest finally loosened up.

He looked at her and said with a serious tone, "Charmine, thank you for looking at it this way. Please, can you not make such a joke in the future!?"

God knows how worried he was.

And this place was so dangerous, if anything happened...

Charmine saw how worried he was, she hooked her arms around his neck.

"It won't happen again. We will be so loving in the future..."

With that said, she leaned in to kiss his lips.

Anthony hugged her waist and deepened the kiss.

The both of them stood on the balcony, making out passionately.

The fireworks bloomed above their heads. Their shadows were stretched out behind them...

The sight was so romantic!

Annabel stood before the balcony. When she saw them kissing, she found it unbelievable.

How could this be?

Charmine did not hate him and yet she found herself to be lucky?

What Annabel anticipated did not happen!

Not only that, the two of them were so passionately in love, they even ignited the air around them!

Annabel looked at the two of them, her small figure could not help from trembling.

This was her last chance, the only thing she had to break them up and it was now over...

Her, Annabel, was over...

Charmine and Anthony went back to the hotel. They went into a room.

When the door was shut, Charmine pressed him against the door and kissed him hard.

As she leaned in on him, her eyes sparkled, "So this is why you've been stopping midway all the time?"

Anthony's eyes darkened and he nodded.

Before he could speak, Charmine tilted her head and kissed his lips hard.

Anthony halted and then took back the charge. He tightened his hands around Charmine and deepened the kiss.

When the time was right, the both of them went into the bedroom from the living room.

Anthony gently placed her on the bed, his big figure leaned against her. He looked at her darkly and said with his hoarse voice, "My darling, may I?" His voice was filled with the long-repressed desire, his tone was low and hoarse.

Charmine looked into his eyes and her fair face blushed. She nodded.

Anthony saw that she had nodded, he felt his blood rushing to the same direction.

He lowered his head to kiss her lips again...

This time, there was nothing else stopping him... 5 Afterwards.

Charmine felt as if she was run over by a car, her body was so sore as she leaned in his arms.

Her fair face blushed red, she threw a flirtatious look at Anthony.

She should not have doubted his capability!

And yet, she thought a powerful man like him had malfunctioned.

Anthony caught her alluring look and said in his hoarse voice, "Why look at me this way? You want more?" 2 Charmine was speechless.

She looked away and cuddled in his arms listlessly.

After holding him for a very long while, she suddenly thought of something. She asked, "If it was you five years ago, Momo should be my son but his blood type is completely different from mine. How could that be..."

Chapter 1943-Anthony looked at her gently and explained, "Your blood type was mutated later on. I have done the DNA test, Momo is indeed our son."

With that said, he pulled out the drawer and handed her a stack of papers.

Charmine received them and read on.

The papers showed that Chris' DNA did match up to hers!

So, Chris was indeed her actual son!

Charmine's eyes were filled with shock and disbelief.

Among the shock, she could not cover up her happiness.

It was Anthony whom she slept with five years ago!

And the baby that she had lost was still alive! i Charmine was so touched. At this moment, she felt that her life was complete!

Suddenly, she thought of something and asked, "How could this be? I had a stillbirth. They told me that the baby was thrown away, how did you end up picking him up?"

Everyone was too much of a coincidence...

Anthony said, "I still haven't figured it out." Charmine's eyes darkened, she felt unsettled, "We will find out slowly, there will surely be clues." "Yeah," Anthony hugged her and comforted her, "No matter what, this is the best outcome of all."

Charmine smiled, "Indeed."

She was with the man that she loved and cared for the most. Nothing could get better than this.

She hugged him tightly, "My darling, you did give me a big surprise..."

In the past, she thought she was very unlucky. Now that she realized how the unlucky incidents were destined for her to have met Anthony!

Anthony hugged her and his eyes were soft, "Then prove it to me."

Charmine was speechless.

She tilted her head and left a soft peck on his cheek.

Anthony held her chin and deepened the kiss.

After the kiss, she cuddled in his arms with her cheeks red. She was panting for air.

Anthony looked at her and said, "You need more practice." "What for?"

"Kissing." Charmine was speechless.

Anthony saw how shy Charmine was, his eyes were filled with affection.

How lucky was he to have met her.

It was as if she was his missing body part all along. She fitted in his life so perfectly.

Charmine fell silent for a moment. She was thinking of how happy Chris would be when he found out.

She looked at Anthony and said, "Let's go home and tell this to Momo."

Anthony narrowed his eyes on her.

They rented a hotel room for this occasion and left right after it seemed rather...

However, since Charmine was pleased, he would say yes to anything she requested.

Charmine went out of the blanket when a powerful hand held her back from behind.

"Anthony?" Charmine was shocked.

He wanted it again?!

Anthony carried her up arrogantly and said, "Let's shower together."

Charmine put her skinny arms around his neck and she blushed. She nodded in his chest, "Hurry." "Yes, my love."

Anthony walked to the bathroom quickly.

Though, it was expected of them.

A normal functioning man like Anthony who had been restraining himself for so many years, it was hard for him to hold back any longer.

Inside the bathtub, Charmine had to go through it all once again.

Charmine was speechless.

Men were all liars!

An hour later, the two of them finally left the hotel.

When they went inside the hotel, Anthony looked at the butler and instructed, "Send Annabel to the hospital to have an abortion! From now on, she has nothing to do with the Baileys!"

Chapter 1944-The butler was confused. Seeing the chills in Anthony's eyes, the butler dared not to question further. She went to the backyard to get Anabel.

Annabel was caught back long ago. She was forcefully pinned away when she struggled to get out, "Let go of me! What do you all want to do to me...I have a Bailey baby in me, you all can't do this to me..If anything happens to me, you all will be held against this!"

The butler did not care, the maids pinned her away quietly!

Annabel thought of the matter between Charmine and Anthony, her heart sank.

Following that, she cried her lungs out, "Help! Murder... someone is trying to kill me and my baby! Someone, help..."

Finally...

With her crying, the people in the living room heard her and walked over.

Grandma Bailey saw her being taken away, she frowned, "Gina, what are you doing?"

She did not care about Annabel but she did have a Bailey baby in her belly.

She must be kept safe!

The butler said weakly, "Master instructed me to do so, he wanted Miss Annabel to have an abortion." "What!?" Grandma Bailey turned to look at Anthony in shock, "Anthony, what are you doing? She has your child in her belly!" Anthony said coldly, "The baby in her belly is not mind. Including Momo, he's not her child as well!" 3 Grandma Bailey was confused, she was unable to react.

What did that mean?

What did he mean by the baby in Annabel not belonging to the Bailey? That Chris was not her child? Then who was Chris' mother?

As Grandma Bailey was feeling confused, Charmine handed a stack of papers to her and said, "The truth is, I was the one that gave birth to Momo, not Annabel. Therefore, Momo is my actual son, Annabel is not his mother!" "What?"

Granda Bailey was shocked and surprised.

Chris was actually her great-grandson? That Annabel was not his mother?

How could that be? 1 She quickly took over the papers and read them carefully.

Following that, her hands holding on the papers trembled with excitement.

She looked at Charmine and Anthony with excitement, "Is this true? Momo is really my great-grandson? He's a Bailey?" 1 "Yes," Charmine said.

"How wonderful, how wonderful..."

She did not expect to have a great-grandson so soon!

Grandma Bailey was so touched that she was tearing up. She held Charmine's hand tightly and she was so emotional and guilty.

She never liked Chris and treated him badly. 1 Thinking back now, she was being silly!

If Chris was angry at her, she might as well...

She sighed and then looked at the butler, "Listen to Anthony. Bring this woman to have an abortion! From now on, she has nothing to do with Bailey!"

When Annabel heard this, her face turned pale like snow.

Even Grandma Bailey was no longer on her side. It was over for her...

Her tiny body kept on struggling, she begged Grandma Bailey weakly, "Please, don't...Grandma, even though Chris is not my son, the baby in my belly is President Bailey's. The baby is a Bailey! It was a test tube baby! Please, do not kill him!"

Charmine scoffed "McKenzie has already told me. The baby in you is not Anthony's!" 1 Annabel was shocked, she glared at Charmine, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

It was her baby with Anthony, how could it not be his!?

Charmine said coldly, "Back then, McKenzie switched the test tube!" 2 This was the one thing that McKenzie had done correctly!

"What are you talking about..."

Annabel's palm sized face was very pale. Her eyes were filled with disbelief.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1945-"How could this be...how..."

The baby in her was not Anthony's...

McKenzie framed her!?

No! No way! How would it be!?

She thought she had Anthony's baby all along...

Grandma Bailey no longer wanted to hear from her, she scoffed, "Bring her to the hospital, now!" "Yes!" The butler dragged the soul-sucked Annabel out.

Annabel was being dragged listlessly.

Her eyes were dull, she looked at the luxurious mansion before her with so much pain in her eyes.

She had been plotting this for so long, she thought she could use McKenzie to get closer to Anthony, to marry rich!

She was so close to success! She was about to become a Mrs. Bailey and now she ended up like this!

She was unwilling to give up...she was furious...

However, she was forced into the car roughly, she had no way to resist.

The car sped away toward the hospital...

After Annabel had left, Anthony saw that the time was still early, he held on Charmine's hand and said to Grandma Bailey, "Grandma, Charmine and I will go to find Momo."

Grandma Bailey knew why they had to find Chris, after a moment, she said, "I want to come as well. I want to meet my great-grandson!"

This implied that she had already treated Chris as her great-grandson! i Charmine curled up her lips and smiled, "Okay." The three of them left together to find Chris.

Susan stood by the door, she crossed her arms coldly. She watched them leave with a hint of disgust in her eyes.

Sigh, so what if Charmine was Chris' mother?

She still hated Charmine!

Ever since this woman moved in, the mansion had always been chaotic!

Charmine was the source of all troubles, affecting everyone!

Wait for it! Although Annabel was no longer useful to her, she would eventually find a suitable pawn to kick Charmine away!

Susan remained cold and she walked over in her heels.

On the other side. 1 Chris was hosting his solo robots exhibition!

The robots had combat and protection abilities!

A human sized robot was placed in the middle of the exhibition hall. It was for everyone to look at.

The robot seemed as if it was ready to fight. When someone got closer to it, it would throw out a punch.

After the combating mode was turned off, it could be switched to a conversational robot. The robot could communicate like a human. It did not speak like a robot.

This high-tech design attracted a loud round of applause.

The countless attendees were impressed by this young inventor.

"This invention is too clever! He is so young and he's invented this high- tech robot! He's a genius!" "This robot can protect a child while also communicating with the child. I want to buy one for my child!" "I also want to buy one for my girlfriend, so that she won't get bullied!"

Countless reporters focused their cameras and microphones at Chris: “What inspired your invention?” “What’s the aim of your design?” “Why are you so clever? Would you like to work in a laboratory?”

Chris was dressed in his tiny suit, his tiny face was looking cool and adorable He had no idea that his parents were about to give him a surprise..

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1946-Chris looked at the countless cameras and he was not frightened at all. He answered calmly, “I designed this because I saw my Mommy getting bullied when she was alone, that she was lonely. I hope that this robot can protect my Mommy. To chat with her when she’s feeling lonely...”

Everyone was so impressed.

This kid designed this so that his Mommy would not get bullied and feel lonely...

Chris was not only a genius, he was also a kind-hearted son.

Everyone could not help wondering how Anthony managed to teach such a clever and polite son who showed so much respect toward his parents.

As they were all talking, Charmine and Anthony showed up.

“Mommy When Chris saw Charmine and Anthony, his eyes lit up.

When the reporters heard this, they looked over, following his eyes.

They saw Anthony in his fitting suit, his big figure was exuding elegance all over.

While Charmine stood beside him in her long dress. Her hair was tight up, she was looking stunning and wild.

The man was handsome and the woman was beautiful, they were a perfect couple.

The reporters took photos of them.

The event was so successful, with Anthony and Charmine’s appearance, this would go viral!

Chris got off the stage and ran toward Charmine. He hugged her and looked up at her, “Mommy, Daddy, why did you two come?”

Charmine looked at him and for the first time, the word “Mommy” made her feel so emotional.

Although she had always treated him like her actual son, now that she knew that he was actually her actual son, she was very touched.

This felt so different from before.

She ruffled her hair and said, “We’re here to celebrate your success and to bring you good news.” “Eh?” Chris widened his eyes, “What news?”

Anthony looked at the two of them before him, he handed the papers over.

Chris took it over and looked at Charmine in shock, “Mommy, does that mean you’re my actual mother? That we’re actually related?”

Charmine looked at him and nodded, "Yes!" "How wonderful! How wonderful!"

Chris jumped up and down with excitement. He jumped into her arms and hugged her tightly. He kissed her on her cheek. 1 He had always loved her, and now that she turned out to be his actual mother!

How wonderful!

Charmine looked at him lovingly.

This was such positive news. She had never once thought of the baby she gave birth to surviving up till this day. And now that he was right in front of her!

Chris was happy. He then thought of something and asked Charmine, "But why didn't we find out earlier..."

Charmine hugged him and explained, "I also suspected that you're my son but our blood types are different. Since the difference is huge, I didn't continue the investigation. However, your Daddy just told me that my blood had a mutation and this was the reason why."

Chris instantly understood and hugged Charmine again. He was very happy. Countless reporters were taking photos of them both. When they heard their conversation, they were very surprised and curious.

What did that mean?

It seemed that Chris was an actual child of Charmine's?

Was he not a son of Annabel's?

As the reporters were about to ask, Anthony walked up the stage in his long legs.

He picked up a microphone and said to the audience, "Today, I have an announcement! Regarding the incident from five years ago, on her giving birth before her marriage! The truth is that I was drugged and slept with her! The stillbirth that she gave birth to is Chris Bailey. Someone framed us and caused this! In other words, Charmine had never slept with another man. It was just me alone, Anthony Bailey."

His bossy voice resonated all over.

After a while of silence, a loud applause was heard.

👉 👉

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1947-God! How dramatic! Who'd have thought!1 "After all, they ended up together!"

"This is just like a movie!"

Grandma Bailey stood by the side, she looked at the family of three and she had a friendly smile on her face.

So, she had always had a great-grandson. It was just that she did not realize.

Her great-grandson was so clever, he was the pride of the Bailey!

Chris was hugging Charmine, he felt that his great-grandmother was staring at him. He met her eyes and said politely, "Great-grandmother..."

Although she was mean to him and never liked him, and she used to scold him a lot, Charmine taught him to be polite to her.

"Hey..." Grandma Bailey looked at him with affection, she could not help reaching out to caress his adorable cheeks.

Thinking of what she had done to him, she said apologetically, "My dear, I didn't like you and scolded you in many instances. However, since a long while ago, even before I found out that you're my great-grandson, I grew fond of you. Now that I found out you're my great-grandson, I feel so guilty. Please, could you give me a chance to treat you the way you deserve to be treated?"

Chris looked at her wide eyed. Instantly, his cool face broke into an adorable smile, "Great-grandmother, I was never angry at you..."

Hearing this, Grandma Bailey became even guiltier.

From now on, she had to treat this adorable and clever guy better!

After the exhibition had ended, the four of them went home together.

Meanwhile, the reporters also posted the articles online.

Instantly, #Charmine-Anthony went up the heat list No.1!

Under the topic, there were clips of Anthony speaking up for Charmine.

When everyone heard what he said, everyone was shocked.

Their marriage caused a scene due to the incident from five years ago.

Everyone said that a woman like Charmine was not good enough for Anthony, that she was messed up!

However, the truth turned out to be that Charmine made herself powerful enough to appear equally as powerful standing beside Anthony!

Not only that, the man who slept with her turned out to be Anthony! That Anthony was drugged!

Therefore, Charmine had only slept with Anthony!

Gosh!

Everyone commented" [This is so dramatic!] [This made me believe in destiny!

How I wish that the President slept with me instead!] [Charmine had been with another man in the past five years. Anthony also had not been with another woman! This is such a powerful love, how admirable!" [I'm imagining a romantic novel!"

At the Bailey mansion.

After everyone learned about the truth, they treated Charmine differently.

While Chris had become the official Young Master of the Bailey family!

At night, the group of them sat along the long table, and they had dinner together.

This was considered as the official reunion dinner.

Grandma Bailey was in a good mood, she kept on getting food for Charmine and Chris, Senior Bailey and Darryl also treated Charmine as a part of them. The usually serious-looking men were very friendly toward Charmine.

“Charmine, please eat more.” Senior Bailey said.

“Yeah, you’re so skinny, you should eat more.” Darryl also took some food for Charmine.

Charmine nodded, “Thanks.”

Instantly, her bowl was filled with a pile of food.

When Chris saw this, he was very happy, he grinned.

His Mommy was no longer being mistreated...

They could live on happily ever after! i However...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1948-Among the peaceful atmosphere, an unfriendly voice was heard.

“Charmine should be the one getting food for us! Where’s her table manners?

How dare she eat when her mother in law hasn’t eaten!”

When Anthony heard this, he frowned right away.

He glared at her, “What are you trying to say? If you want Charmine to respect you, why don’t you try showing her some?”

Grandma Bailey also did not seem pleased, “Stop looking for trouble!”

Darryl saw how mean his wife was, he looked at her coldly, “Today is a good day, why’re you making a scene again?”

Susan scoffed and looked at Grandma Bailey coldly, “Am I wrong? When I first came to the Bailey mansion, I dared not to even sit before you picked up the fork. I would bring you tea every morning and even make breakfast when I’m not working. And Charmine? She’s moved in for so long, but has she ever woken up early? Has she ever cooked me a meal or even brought me tea?! We both married a Bailey and why was she being treated differently!?”

Grandma Bailey frowned and she had a complex look.

Susan did more than Charmine, including herself. She did more than Susan!

And now...

Grandma Bailey looked at Susan and said, "Now the time is different. Is this why you're trying to give Charmine a hard time?"

Susan scoffed, "At least it has to be fair!"

Grandma Bailey felt tired, "When I first moved in, I did more than you. I had to make three meals after working everyday. I even had to wash the clothes!

However, when you moved in, all you had to do was to make breakfasts. I never asked you to do more than that, did I try to give you a hard time? Times are different now. Women are becoming more independent, we're no longer just the stay-at-home wives. The maids can clean the mansion. Why even I understand these and you have such a rigid thinking?"

This made Susan embarrassed.

Everyone looked at her speechlessly and almost disgustingly.

This was a nice meal, why did she have to make a scene!?

Bam!

Susan threw the fork away and stood up, "Since you're all boycotting me, you all remain as a family and eat your meal!"

With that said, she walked out angrily in her heels.

The loving atmosphere instantly turned stiff and awkward.

Senior Bailey reassured Charmine, "Charmine, don't mind her."

Darryl also said, 'Yeah, don't mind her, we eat our dinner. She is just looking for trouble."

Charmine smiled and said, "Don't worry, I don't mind."

Grandma Bailey's face only then eased up. She looked at Charmine and said, "Charmine, sorry to have wronged you. Don't mind her, she can say what she wants to."

Charmine looked at Grandma Bailey and said, "Yeah, I know."

Grandma Bailey took more food for her, "Eat more..."

The family resumed the dinner as if nothing had happened.

Though the atmosphere was slightly different due to Susan...

The next day.

As everyone was having breakfast.

A maid saw the news and quickly came over to tell them, "Madam...I saw the news from the "Wealthy Wives" and they had a discussion about Mrs. Bailey."

With that said, she carefully looked at Charmine.

Grandma Bailey frowned, "What do they say about Charmine?"

The maid said weakly, "They said that Mrs. Bailey has been rude at home, that she bullied and boycotted her mother in law." "These people are too bored!"

Grandma Bailey said angrily, "Who wrongly accused Charmine? How they turned the truth around! I will speak up for Charmine, this is not true at all!"

Charmine already knew who started this discussion.

☒

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1949-Charmine continued to finish her breakfast nonchalantly, "Grandma, don't worry.

You don't have to speak up for me, I can sort it out myself."

Grandma Bailey stopped short and nodded, "Okay, I trust your capability.

I'm not worried if you think you can sort it out."

Charmine nodded.

After breakfast, she went to the study room and logged into the Wealthy Wives.

This was the platform for all wealthy wives and heiresses to gossip.

There were hundreds of posts insulting Charmine.

[Charmine is always looking so cold. It's not hard to tell that she's not easy to get along with!] [Yeah, and there's rumors about her and her mother in law.

What a woman! It hasn't been long since she moved into the Bailey mansion. I wonder how she's keeping up after these rumors!] [She looks so arrogant as if the world owes her money! I wonder how the Baileys let her move in!] [If I had an in-law like her, my days would become so tough!] Charmine sat before the computer and read the posts against her.

Her delicate face was looking calm. She then typed on the keyboard quickly:

[Don't worry, I wouldn't want to be your in law and you're not good enough anyway. Instead of worrying about me, why don't you care about the wrinkles growing on your face!] Her tone was wild and rude!

After scolding them, Charmine was not bothered to reply further. She turned off her computer and put her arm around Anthony, "My darling, why don't we go to Poulenc?" "Okay."

Anthony tucked her hair behind her ear gently, he said softly, "Don't mind these people."

Charmine never minded these comments, and they were even harsher to her in the past!

Why did she bother to reply to them?

Charmine said arrogantly, "They talked about me, and you won't even let me scold them?"

The truth was...

She did not even care about these.

She cared about the Bailey and Anthony.

Those people were saying that Anthony must have been blinded to marry a woman like her.

Nobody should criticize her husband other than herself!"

Anthony said lovingly, "Of course you may. You may scold them however you like, as long as you're happy." Charmine curled up her lips and interlocked her fingers with Anthony. They went out together.

When they just got out, they bumped into Susan who just came home.

Anthony blanked her completely, so did Charmine.

The both of them treated her as transparent as they walked past her.

Susan was furious. She turned at Charmine and said with an unfriendly tone, "How rude! You're married now and yet you dressed so suggestively. You don't even greet your mother in law!"

Anthony stood in front of Charmine protectively, his tall figure exuded arrogance in front of Susan as he scoffed, "I will say this again. If you want our respect, you should learn to show some first. If you keep behaving like this, I won't treat you as my mother!"

With that said, he left with Charmine.

Susan stood on the same spot, she was trembling with anger. 1 D*mn this woman!

Charmine boycotted her last night and now she even made Anthony speak to her in this tone!

Did she drug the entire Bailey family!?

She made them hate her! 3 When Charmine and Anthony arrived by the gate, a maid ran over with a big pile of things, "Madam, Sir, someone sent a lot of parcels for you both."

Charmine looked at the pile of parcels and frowned. Who sent them so many parcels?

?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1950-Anthony frowned and simply picked one up. She saw that these parcels were all sent by someone named "Charmine's biggest crush".

He looked at Charmine and curled up his lips, "The fans are so imaginative.

They romanticized us and even sent us gifts."

Charmine raised an eyebrow and unwrapped one of them.

There were some gifts, accessories and handwritten words...

Looking at the beautiful gifts, she had a complex feeling.

From the beginning, their relationship was controversial. Everyone who saw the news would say the same thing: She's not good enough for him!

All these years, she worked hard to improve herself. The incident from five years ago had now been resolved...

Finally, their love was now official and blessed.

Charmine's red lips curled up as she continued to unwrap the parcels.

Anthony sat by the side and saw her expressions. He knew what she was thinking.

He looked at her emotionally.

It was his fault that this day did not come sooner.

He simply picked up a parcel to unwrap with her.

However...

When he pulled it open, he smelt a strong scent of blood.

He looked down and saw that the box was filled with blood. There was a sharp knife inside!

Anthony frowned and tossed the box away.

The bloody knife fell on the white carpet. The sharp red contrasted the white...

Susan who was sitting on the sofa heard the sound. When she saw the blood on the floor, she jumped up and cried out, "What happened? Why's there blood?"

Charmine already saw it.

She frowned. As she was about to find out who sent it, the door was opened and the butler walked in unsettled. She said, "Sir, it's bad. Your car is splashed in blood!" "What are you saying!?" Susan's face changed.

The butler repeated, "The car is splashed with blood. The black car is now red, it's a shocking sight!"

Susan's reaction was the biggest, she frowned, "Seriously? How did these happen one after another!?"

Anthony and Charmine exchanged a look.

Charmine said, "Perhaps some haters sent them." Susan heard and scoffed, "And here I wonder what's happening. So it's the"

gifts" from your haters!"

Her tone was very unfriendly, "It must have been you offending people with that arrogant look of yours. You're such an unlucky person! Since you're here, we're never at peace!"

Everyone thought Anthony had married a mogul. The truth was that she was nothing but trouble!

"Shut up!" Anthony's face darkened as he glared at Susan, "Nobody will think you're dumb if you don't speak."

Grandma Bailey was at the stairs, she also heard what Susan said. She said, "Susan, do you think we don't have enough trouble? Can you speak less?"

She scoffed at Susan, she did not seem pleased, i She did not understand why Susan hated Charmine so much!

Even Senior Bailey frowned and said, "Stop adding troubles at this time!"

Susan's face turned pale, she glared at them and curled up a cold smile.

It seemed that everyone was fooled by this evil woman!

Ha!

Susan said mockingly, 'You're all a family, I'm an outcast. It doesn't matter what I say! You better investigate this, if not we will all live in fear!'

With that said, she walked upstairs in her heels arrogantly. Nobody was bothered to mind her.