

Chapter 1951 - 1951 Robbers (4)

1951 Robbers (4)

After listening to the manager's explanation, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue exchanged surprised looks.

He did not expect Qi Xin and Ling Juan to set up a trap so quickly.

This series of actions was really cruel.

If it wasn't for their spiritual power and terrifying martial strength that surpassed ordinary people, they might have been injured even if they didn't die.

Of course, this was also because those people were not vigilant enough.

Perhaps the robbers had also been warned not to let their guard down. However, the robbers shouldn't have too much hope for their abilities.

They must have looked down on the two of them. After all, they were Hua, and they were so thin. Compared to them, they were far inferior.

That was why the robbers let their guard down.

After all, there were six of them, and they even had guns.

It was precisely because of this confidence that they did not use a hostage as a threat from the beginning.

If they managed to capture a hostage, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue would not dare to move.

If the other party had a hostage, the two of them would be held back.

If they made a move and the other party killed the hostage, then they would be in trouble.

Although Qi Xibei was using another face, her identity would still be discovered if a murder happened.

At that time, everyone would know that she had caused a person's death because she had acted recklessly and did not cooperate.

If such a thing happened, she would definitely be scolded to death.

Although that person was killed by the robbers, it was because of her that such a tragedy happened, wasn't it?

Therefore, with a hostage, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue naturally did not dare to act recklessly.

In this way, the robbers could take care of anyone with a single shot.

Unfortunately, the robbers did not take the two of them seriously at all.

So now, they failed.

After hearing the manager's reply, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue broke out in a cold sweat.

Who would have thought that Qi Xin and Ling Juan would come up with such a terrifying move?!

If they succeeded, Qi Xibei would be in trouble.

Fortunately, those robbers had always been arrogant and did not take them seriously.

That was why they were able to get through this easily.

However, this time, Qi Xin had left. No one knew where she went.

"It's fine." Qi Xibei shook her head. "He should know a little."

She pointed at the manager who was still unconscious.

Soon, she learned some more things from the manager.

The manager didn't know the details. After all, Ling Juan wouldn't tell him. However, the manager was Ling Juan's subordinate, so he naturally knew a little about it.

With this clue, it was enough to stop Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue from running around like headless flies.

After asking what she wanted to ask, Qi Xibei removed the hypnosis and let the manager continue sleeping.

"Should we give them a gift?" Qiao Yanjue suddenly said.

"A gift?" Qi Xibei raised her eyebrows and smiled. "Alright."

Then, Qiao Yanjue took out the manager's phone. He used the manager's finger to unlock the password and scrolled through it. Very quickly, he found what he wanted.

He smiled and used the computer.

Qiao Yanjue's computer skills have improved tremendously recently.

His spiritual power was very strong now, and his learning was also stronger.

He had also learned about computers.

Because of his strong memory and comprehension, he quickly got used to it.

Although he wasn't as awesome as Tang Luo, he wasn't bad either.

This time, he quickly sent out a few emails.

After they were done, the two of them revealed a sly smile and left.

Chapter 1952 - 1952 Another Plan (1)

1952 Another Plan (1)

Qiao Yanjue found some confidential information from the manager's phone and sent it to the police.

The manager and Ling Juan were in cahoots, so it was good to give them some trouble.

After settling this matter, the two of them had a headache.

Although the manager had mentioned a few places, they were not sure where Qi Xin was.

If they went over and did not find her, wouldn't that waste time?

“No matter what, let’s give it a try!” Qi Xibei suggested.

“Alright.”

However, they did not expect to see Qi Xin’s figure outside as soon as they walked out!

Yes, it was Qi Xin!

Qi Xin did not leave! She was still peeking from afar.

Perhaps she wanted to see the outcome of this incident with her own eyes and wanted to confirm if something had really happened to Qi Xibei, which was why she stayed here.

The scene was a little chaotic. The police were still taking notes from everyone. After all, this incident had happened too suddenly, and the police were in a mess.

However, it was best that there were no casualties in the end.

Qi Xin stood a little distance away, wearing a pair of sunglasses. She looked at them with a gloomy expression.

She had wanted to leave, but after thinking about it, she still wanted to see what would happen to Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue.

Unexpectedly, she really failed in the end!

Listening to the conversation of the other witnesses, her expression was very interesting.

Those people were idiots! In such a situation, how was there still no way to deal with Qi Xibei?!

As expected of a good-for-nothing!

At the thought of this, she turned and left.

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue looked at each other in surprise.

Unexpectedly, Qi Xin did not leave immediately but stayed here instead.

This was perfect. They did not have to spend time looking for her.

Soon, the two of them quickly followed Qi Xin.

Qi Xin's car wasn't fast, and the traffic wasn't too bad, so they didn't lose track of her.

The car drove for a long time. Just as the driver was getting impatient, the car finally stopped.

Qiao Yanjue immediately gave him the money, then pulled Qi Xibei out of the car and followed Qi Xin from afar.

The desolation here surprised the two of them.

This was the outskirts of a certain state in M Country. There was a large area of farmland here, and the terrain was very flat. If it weren't for the tall trees here, they might have been discovered.

There were few people here, which fully explained what it meant to be sparsely populated.

But why was Qi Xin here?

The two of them were curious and carefully followed behind.

To avoid being discovered, Qi Xibei asked Greenie to follow them.

Yes, this time, Greenie also followed.

Greenie was a snake, and it was a living thing. It could not get on the plane.

However, Qi Xibei had disguised Greenie.

Greenie was originally a spirit snake and had a very strong ability to pretend to be dead.

Qi Xibei had also smeared some materials on its body to make it inconspicuous. Moreover, no one would find out that it was a living thing.

In the end, it disguised itself as a bracelet and passed the security check on Qi Xibei's hand.

When they were at the jewelry store, Greenie almost moved.

However, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue could settle the previous matter, so they did not let Greenie take action to avoid being photographed.

But now, it was time for Greenie to take action!

Greenie landed on the ground. In the green grass, its petite body was not eye-catching at all.

With it following them, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue slowed down to avoid being discovered by Qi Xin.

About ten minutes later, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue followed the scent left behind by Greenie and arrived at a courtyard.

Chapter 1953 - 1953 Another Plan (2)

1953 Another Plan (2)

This was a very large courtyard with a bungalow inside. It looked very rustic.

This looked like the place where the farm owner lived.

However, while the courtyard looked ordinary, the protection inside was not simple at all.

Looking at the sharp weapons on the wall, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue looked at each other.

How do we get in?

The two of them carefully avoided the cameras and searched for a long time before finding a place where they could enter.

Inside, Greenie continued to follow Qi Xin. Moreover, it even followed Qi Xin to find the old master!

The old master was indeed here!

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue were very happy after learning of the old man's whereabouts.

They had finally found the old master!

They did not know how Qi Xin did it, but she had actually arranged for the old man to stay here.

It was also because the old man was here that they could not find him.

Now, there was finally a lead!

As long as they could save the old man, they would not have to be cautious and Qi Xin would not be able to make a move.

Qi Xin said something to the old man and left.

Qi Xibei felt uneasy when she heard the news of Qi Xin's departure.

However, their infiltration this time was very secretive and would not be discovered. Therefore, there should be no problem.

The two of them did not go to see the old man immediately. Instead, they let Greenie continue to stay there.

Qi Xibei used her spiritual power to carefully communicate with Greenie, asking it to tell her about the old man's situation.

From Greenie, Qi Xibei had also confirmed that this old man was real and not someone else in disguise.

At night, the sky darkened and lights were lit everywhere.

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue's stomachs rumbled and they exchanged helpless expressions. After all, they had not eaten for almost a day.

Once they got off the plane, they followed Qi Xin everywhere.

In order to keep up with Qi Xin, they did not have time to eat.

Fortunately, their current situation was different. Otherwise, just being hungry would make them feel uncomfortable.

The two of them waited patiently in a secret place for a few hours.

It was already late at night, and the others were finally asleep.

After a few hours of hiding, they realized that there were not many people in the courtyard. Other than the old man, there were only three or four people who were like bodyguards.

They were probably the people who were guarding the old master so that he could not leave.

The old man was not weak, but he was old after all. Moreover, he had been drugged these days, so he was very weak.

As long as there were a few people, they would be able to trap him.

As for Qi Xin, they did not know which room she was in.

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue waited until late at night, waiting for the others to fall asleep so that they could bring the old man out.

At two o'clock, everyone went to rest, leaving only one man to guard the old man.

However, judging from his expression, he didn't seem to care much about the old man inside.

After all, the old master had been locked up here for a long time, and no one dared to cause trouble here.

Therefore, his attitude was a little relaxed.

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue hid not far away and watched as his eyelids drooped and his head nodded.

The two of them looked at each other. In the next second, Greenie flew out.

It opened its mouth wide and bit the man's neck.

The man grunted. In the next second, his face turned green. He closed his eyes and stopped breathing.

After dealing with the man, Qi Xibei nodded in satisfaction.

Without the threat, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue walked out, carefully opened the door, and walked in.

But in the next second, their expressions changed!

Chapter 1954 - 1954 Another Plan (3)

1954 Another Plan (3)

After entering the room, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue's expressions changed immediately.

"Hurry!"

"Hurry!"

The two of them shouted in unison and rushed towards the bed in the middle.

The old man was lying in bed resting. It was obvious that he was not in good spirits. His face was much paler than before, and he looked much older than before.

However, this was not the main point.

The main point was that there was a bomb in this room!

As soon as they stepped into the room, they felt that something was wrong.

They immediately discovered the problem. In the middle of the room, not far from the old man's bed, there was a small bomb!

Qi Xibei finally realized why she had such uneasy thoughts.

This was a trap set by Qi Xin!

Qi Xin had deliberately lured them over!

There was a bomb in the room, waiting for them to come.

As soon as they entered the room, the bomb inside started to move.

There were only ten seconds left before the bomb exploded!

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue didn't have time to say anything. They used their fastest speed and rushed to the old man's bed in less than two seconds.

But the next second, the two of them were stunned.

That was because the old man's bed had turned upside down with a click.

The old man on the bed had already disappeared.

"Oh no!"

"Run!"

Their expressions changed again. They didn't have time to stop and rushed out like the wind.

Their speed was even more terrifying. If someone were here, they would only see afterimages.

The moment the two of them rushed out of the door, the bomb inside exploded.

With a boom, the place exploded.

The place immediately fell into chaos.

Feeling the heat wave and the powerful impact behind them, the two of them fell to the ground.

The two of them felt a burning sensation on their backs and almost fainted.

When they turned around, they were stunned.

The room had been blown to pieces!

Because this was the suburbs and private property, there was only this courtyard here. The nearest neighbor was at least a kilometer away from here, so there was no need to worry about being discovered.

Moreover, it was late at night, and no one came here to stroll around.

The bomb wasn't very powerful, but with it as the center, the area within ten meters of it was affected.

If they were within this range, they would be blown to pieces.

Although the two of them did not die from the explosion, they were still affected.

Qi Xibei finally understood why she felt uneasy.

She was wondering why Qi Xin would continue to stay where she was and leave without being vigilant.

So it was all to bait them!

What was even more hateful was that they had really fallen into her trap!

While Qi Xibei was fuming, the sound of footsteps made her look up immediately.

It was Qi Xin!

Seeing Qi Xin appear in front of them, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue immediately got up from the ground and found a hidden place to watch her warily.

When they saw the person beside Qi Xin, their expressions turned even uglier.

In Qi Xin's grasp was the old man who had fallen asleep just now.

The old man had already woken up. When he saw Qi Xibei, his eyes immediately widened in surprise.

But the next second, he exclaimed, "Leave quickly! She's crazy!"

The old master did not expect that his granddaughter, whom he had doted on since she was young, would be so crazy!

He had been regretting it all these days since he was locked up here. Why did things turn out like this?

Why would Qi Xin treat me like this?

However, no matter how he thought about it, he could not think of an answer.

“Leave?” Qi Xin chuckled. “We’re already here. It’s not good to leave just like that!”

Chapter 1955 - 1955 Another Plan (4)

1955 Another Plan (4)

Of course, Qi Xin did it on purpose this time.

She first lured Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue to the jewelry store, then let the robbers attack them.

However, she did not expect those people to be so stupid. They actually missed such a good opportunity and allowed the two of them to continue living.

This made her very dissatisfied.

She had come to M Nation to get rid of Qi Xibei once and for all.

If she allowed Qi Xibei to return just like that, she would lose face!

Therefore, if one plan didn't work, she had to come up with another.

She had led Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue here.

She had placed a bomb in the old man's room. As long as someone went in, the bomb would be activated.

However, she would not let the old man die just like that. Therefore, this bomb also had a time limit.

In these ten seconds, she had managed to get the old man out.

She also believed that Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue would die in those ten seconds.

However, she did not expect that they were really lucky!

They could still survive in such a state!

Looking at Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue in front of her, Qi Xin's eyes were filled with smiles, as if all of this made her very happy.

"You're already here. If you leave like this, won't you say that I didn't entertain you well?"

She looked at them with a smile, as if she could see their death.

"Qi Xin!"

The old man roared, "You're crazy!"

The old man had never thought that Qi Xin would become like this. It was simply too terrifying!

She was really crazy. She didn't care about the past at all.

She did not care that she was a member of the Qi family.

Even though he was her grandfather, he was treated like this.

His heart turned cold.

The old man's reaction did not move Qi Xin at all. She only pointed the gun in her hand at his face.
"Alright, shut up. Otherwise, I don't mind letting you die first."

These words made the old man's face darken.

This was too detestable!

However, he could also tell that Qi Xin was completely perverted now. If he really did not listen to her, he would definitely be killed by her.

In the face of life or death, he had no choice but to surrender.

"Qi Xin, what do you want to do?" Qi Xibei looked at her coldly.

"What do I want to do?" Qi Xin raised her eyebrows. "Don't you know what I want to do?"

She laughed out loud. "Since you're all here, how nice would it be to stay here together!"

Looking at her bright and crazy smile, their expressions were very ugly.

"If you want the old man to live, listen to me."

Now, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue did not dare to make any moves, but Qi Xin was not in a hurry to make a move.

She looked at the two of them and gave them an order. “Come, I’ll give you an opportunity.”

Opportunity?

The three of them looked at Qi Xin.

The next second, Qi Xin threw a knife at them.

This knife was extremely sharp, and one could tell at a glance that it could kill with one blow.

“Look, who will make the first move?”

Her eyes seemed to be shining as she stared at them. She wanted to see the exciting scene immediately.

If the two of them really killed each other, that would be great!

Even if they couldn’t kill the other party, it was still good to cause damage to the other party!

Besides, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue were usually so loving, and now she could just watch them fall out.

How wonderful!

These days, Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue's cooperation has caused great harm to Qi Xin and the others. Therefore, she hated the two of them!

Thinking of this, Qi Xin's smile became even brighter.

Chapter 1956 - 1956 Sending You to Death

1956 Sending You to Death

Qi Xin really wanted to see Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue stab each other.

In order to survive, the couple who were originally in love began to hurt each other. How wonderful!

"Hurry up."

She raised her chin at them. "Hurry up. Otherwise, I can't guarantee the old man's life."

These words made Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue's expressions turn even uglier.

Qi Xin had a gun, and she was quite a distance away from them.

Even if they wanted to go over and save him, it wouldn't be that easy.

Perhaps she would use the gun before they took action.

It was obvious that she was very wary of them and would never let them save the old man.

“Hurry up.” Qi Xin dragged out her voice. “What else do you want to do?”

There was a hint of provocation in her voice. “Hurry up. I don’t have time to play with you.”

The two of them exchanged a look and hesitated for a moment before Qi Xibei reached out and picked up the knife.

Qi Xin’s eyes lit up when she saw Qi Xibei move. She was even happier than before.

Her eyes were fixed on Qi Xibei, wanting to see her stab Qiao Yanjue.

“By the way, where are the others?”

“Are we the only ones here?” Qi Xibei suddenly asked.

Qi Xin frowned when she heard this. She realized that something was wrong.

There were at least five or six people in this house.

Moreover, these five or six people were all very strong, the kind that could fight against several people alone.

However, apart from the few of them, where were the others?

The next second, she heard Qi Xibei shout, "Greenie!"

Greenie?

Qi Xin was stunned. Who was Greenie?

In the next second, she saw a flash in front of her eyes and a dangerous aura instantly appeared in front of her.

Then, she felt a pain in her hand.

She subconsciously threw the gun away.

Her expression changed.

Before she could react, she saw Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue rushing over.

The two of them moved very quickly and cooperated well.

In just a short while, they had pinned the muddle-headed Qi Xin to the ground.

After being subdued, Qi Xin was stunned.

Why did it become like this?

However, she didn't think about this anymore because she realized that she was dizzy.

She tried her best to gather her strength, but she could not stop the poison from spreading in her body.

Her mind was already in a mess.

The old man whom she had held hostage had already left her confinement and was protected by Qi Xibei.

"Well done."

She heard Qi Xibei's voice.

She raised her head and looked at Qi Xibei with difficulty. Then, she realized that there was something green in Qi Xibei's hand.

Upon closer inspection, it was a snake!

The snake was green and translucent, not fierce at all. It even raised its head and rubbed Qi Xibei's face.

This snake...Qi Xibei raised it?

Qi Xin's heart skipped a beat. She raised her hand to take a look and immediately saw two small holes in it.

She was bitten by this snake and poisoned!

She finally understood why no one else in the house appeared. They must have been bitten by this snake too.

Otherwise, those people would have appeared.

However, even if she had figured it out, the situation was not much better.

She sadly realized that the situation had changed. She was now Qi Xibei's.

Qi Xibei looked at Qi Xin after praising Greenie.

“What do you want?” Qi Xin gritted her teeth and asked.

“What do I want?” Qi Xibei raised her eyebrows. “Of course...”

Her smile was bright, but then she retracted her expression. “I’m sending you to death!”

Chapter 1957 - 1957 Insect King (1)

1957 Insect King (1)

Qi Xibei’s knife fell fiercely and was about to land on Qi Xin.

But in the next second, her knife was knocked away by a force.

Qi Xibei raised her head in surprise and felt a strong gust of wind in the air.

She immediately rolled and avoided the opponent’s attack.

When she saw the other party clearly, she could not help but be shocked.

It was a huge falcon!

The falcon was huge, and its wings were at least two meters wide.

It was obviously a spirit animal too. After all, its aura was different. Moreover, its gaze was extremely terrifying. It was cold and devoid of any emotion.

On its back was a woman.

The woman's appearance made Qi Xibei quickly understand her identity.

She was Ling Juan, Qi Xin's birth mother!

Ling Juan rushed over on her falcon. When she saw the scene in front of her, she was almost scared out of her wits.

She knew that Qi Xin was going to attack Qi Xibei and had a plan.

Qi Xin had previously said that she did not need to come over, but she still felt uneasy and came over.

The current situation made her feel lucky. Fortunately, she had rushed over. Otherwise, Qi Xin might have already died!

Of course, Qi Xin was not dead yet, but her situation was not much better.

Her face was already white and green. She was obviously poisoned.

“Bastard!”

Ling Juan sat on top of the falcon, her eyes cold and fierce. “I’m going to kill you!”

They actually dared to hurt her daughter!

Unforgivable!

Ling Juan’s appearance did not surprise Qi Xibei and the others, but the appearance of this falcon surprised them.

They had thought that Ling Juan would be with Qi Xin.

However, after a night of surveillance and waiting, they didn’t find Ling Juan. They thought she wasn’t here.

Alright, she was indeed not here. But the problem was that she was here now, and it was such a coincidence that she happened to be here!

What surprised them the most was that Ling Juan also had a spirit animal.

Did Jiang Rongguang give it to her?

If that was the case, then the situation was different.

The thoughts in Qi Xibei's mind quickly turned and she immediately hid to the side.

"Greenie!"

She shouted. In the next second, her aura twisted and a huge green snake appeared out of thin air.

This giant snake was several meters long and had a thick body. It looked very scary.

It raised its head and stared at the falcon in front of it.

This falcon was obviously a fourth-grade spirit animal.

She wondered where Ling Juan had found a fourth-grade spiritual animal.

However, the current situation was not good.

What surprised them even more was that not long after Ling Juan appeared, the sound of a car stopping could be heard.

Then, many men in black appeared.

Most importantly, these men in black were all holding guns!

Their appearance made Qiao Yanjue and Qi Xibei's faces turn cold.

They didn't expect Ling Juan to bring so many people.

Right now, the other party had far more people than them.

The old man was also stunned by the changes in front of him.

He had never expected things to develop like this.

However, it could be seen that they were at a disadvantage now.

There were only three of them. Although Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue were not ordinary, the problem was that there were more than ten of them! Moreover, each of them had a gun!

How could they fight?

If the other party used guns, wouldn't they be finished?

For a moment, the scene was in a deadlock.

Ling Juan got down from the falcon's back and lifted up Qi Xin. She looked at her expression and immediately became anxious.

Then, she gritted her teeth and took out a bottle from her pocket.

Chapter 1958 - 1958 Insect King (2)

1958 Insect King (2)

Ling Juan took out a bottle from her pocket, looking a little hesitant.

But soon, she stopped hesitating.

She opened the bottle and poured out the contents.

Qi Xibei and the others were shocked when they saw what was inside.

It was not medicine in the bottle, but a creepy worm!

This wasn't an ordinary bug. It looked like a centipede with many small claws, but it also had three heads!

It looked terrifying. Its body was a shocking dark green color as if it had been soaked in poison.

It moved around in Ling Juan's hand, making people's scalps go numb.

Even though Qi Xibei was used to these things, she was still shocked when she saw these bugs.

This was... a compulsion bug?

Right, Ling Juan was a master of compulsion bugs!

Back then, she had even poisoned Qiao Yanjue with a compulsion worm!

However, the two sides had not interacted with each other these days, so Qi Xibei had almost forgotten that Ling Juan had such an ability.

Ling Juan looked at the worm, then at Qi Xin. She opened Qi Xin's mouth and stuffed the worm inside.

Qi Xin was already unconscious. However, after the worm entered her mouth, she subconsciously swallowed.

Both Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had good eyesight, so they could see the skin on Qi Xin's throat move, and the worm entered her stomach.

This scene made their scalps go numb.

Ling Juan fed her own daughter a compulsion worm?

However, after Qi Xin ate this compulsion worm, her condition quickly improved.

When Greenie's body was smaller, its poison was not as terrifying.

If it returned to its original state, the poison would be very terrifying, and one bite could kill someone.

It was also because the poison was weak that Qi Xin was still alive.

Of course, Qi Xin was also a cultivator, so she had spiritual power in her body that could resist the spread of the poison.

Otherwise, she would have died before Ling Juan arrived.

Now, after this compulsion worm entered her stomach, her face quickly turned from pale to red.

There was no sign of poisoning on her face.

Ling Juan reached out to check Qi Xin's pulse and heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, she made a prompt decision and stuffed the king of compulsion worms into Qi Xin's mouth, allowing her to fight poison with poison. That was how she managed to survive.

Otherwise, she would not have been able to save Qi Xin in such a short time.

After confirming that Qi Xin's life was not in danger, Ling Juan put her down and stood up.

"You all deserve to die!"

She gritted her teeth at Qi Xibei and the others. She was furious.

Although she wasn't in Hua, it didn't mean that she didn't know what was going on there.

Especially since Qi Xin would occasionally call her and tell her a lot about Qi Xibei.

Therefore, she was very clear about the conflict between Qi Xibei and Qi Xin.

However, in the battle between the two of them, it was obvious that Qi Xin lost more miserably.

Now, Qi Xin almost died!

Unforgivable!

Ling Juan had spent a long time creating this compulsion worm. She had spent a lot of effort and wasted a lot of materials on it.

However, she did not expect that she would not use it on Qi Xibei but Qi Xin instead.

However, the effect of the compulsion worm was up to her.

If it was used on Qi Xibei, this compulsion worm would be fatal.

But when used on Qi Xin, this compulsion worm was a lifesaver.

“Kill them!” Ling Juan ordered the falcon and the men in black.

Chapter 1959 - 1959 Turning the Tide

1959 Turning the Tide

Following Ling Juan's order, a dozen men in black behind her moved in unison and raised their guns.

The falcon was also prepared. Its eyes widened as it assumed a battle stance.

Qi Xibei and the others had already hidden behind a pillar and assumed a defensive stance.

Greenie raised its head and stuck out its snake tongue. It was about to rush over in the next second.

The old man looked flustered and helpless.

Was he going to die here tonight?

They only had three people and a snake, but the other party had more than ten people. He was useless and could not help much. On the contrary, he would be a burden to Qi Xibei and the others.

Thinking of this, he wanted to shake off Qi Xibei's hand and rush out to use himself as a shield to attract the firepower of those people.

However, he was stopped by Qi Xibei.

Ling Juan's eyes were fierce. "Kill them!"

She had to kill them!

When Qi Xibei was hiding in the country, they could not do anything to her.

However, this was M Country!

Moreover, this was a good place. Even if something really happened, no one would find out.

She wanted to avenge Qi Xin!

Just as the scene was about to erupt, sirens rang out.

It was the sound of a police car!

Moreover, the sound came from afar and very quickly.

F * ck! The police!

They actually called the police?

Ling Juan's face immediately darkened.

"Let's go!"

As the police approached, Ling Juan reluctantly made a final decision.

She wasn't afraid of the police, but their existence couldn't be discovered.

They weren't afraid of the police's guns. After all, they had their own.

However, she couldn't guarantee that nothing would happen to them in the upcoming conflict.

If anything happened to them and one of them was left behind, it would be troublesome.

The police would be on their trail and find out something they shouldn't know.

If this affected the overall situation, Jiang Rongguang would not let her off either!

Therefore, no matter how unwilling Ling Juan was, she didn't dare to delay.

Even though she knew that they should be able to kill Qi Xibei and the others before the police arrived.

However, they could not run into the police.

Ling Juan's face was darker than the night sky, almost blending into it.

“Hurry up and leave!”

As she spoke, she picked up Qi Xin from the ground and rushed out with the men in black.

The falcon moved very quickly and followed suit.

In just a few blinks of an eye, this group of people had left.

Qi Xibei and the others only heaved a sigh of relief when they confirmed that they had left and that there was no one else there.

Fortunately, the other party had finally retreated.

Otherwise, they did not know what the outcome would be.

The old man looked at everything that had happened in front of him with a dumbfounded expression. He did not come back to his senses for a long time.

“We... Is it safe?”

“Yes!” Qi Xibei nodded. “They’re gone. We’re safe now.””

“That’s great!”

The old man finally woke up and was immediately happy.

But the next second, he panicked. “No, we have to leave this place quickly. We can’t let the police find out!”

Although they were victims, it would not be a good thing if the police found out about this.

Who knew what would happen? Moreover, it was not appropriate for their identities to be exposed.

“I’m fine.” Qi Xibei shook her head. “It’s alright.”

The old man didn’t understand what she meant by “It’s alright.” He heard hurried footsteps.

In the next second, two people appeared in front of them.

“Beibei!”

A crisp sound rang out as a figure pounced over and hugged Qi Xibei.

“Beibei!”

A figure rushed over and hugged Qi Xibei.

“Long time no see!”

The girl’s clear and joyful voice lingered in Qi Xibei’s ears.

Qi Xibei also smiled. “Long time no see.”

It was Tang Luo and Mo Bonan.

Tang Luo came to M Nation to study because of her identity.

Mo Bonan also came over to protect her, and the Mo family’s business had also shifted to this side.

It could be said that the Mo family’s current development was quite good.

Tang Luo and Qi Xibei hadn't seen each other for a long time.

The two of them had been in constant contact over the phone, but they had not seen each other.

Tang Luo was in M Nation, so it wasn't appropriate for him to go back often.

Qi Xibei had many things to do, so she could not come over.

That was why these good friends had only met again now.

"Are you alright?" Tang Luo asked worriedly after giving her a warm hug.

"I'm fine." Qi Xibei shook her head. "You came just in time."

Yes, Tang Luo and the others had appeared here because of Qi Xibei's notice.

Qi Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had come personally for this operation.

Although they were confident in their own strength, this was not their territory after all. If anything happened, it would be too troublesome.

Therefore, they informed Tang Luo.

After all, one more helper meant more hope.

Fortunately, they had informed Tang Luo. Otherwise, it would have been hard to say whether it would be a good or bad thing this time.

They didn't expect Ling Juan to have a spirit animal with her.

If it wasn't for that spirit animal, with Greenie's help, they wouldn't have to worry about danger.

However, with the addition of a falcon, the situation changed.

The falcon could resist Greenie's combat power, so they had to face the attacks of those men in black.

If they really fought, the outcome would be hard to say.

Fortunately, Tang Luo and the others arrived in time.

Before this, Tang Luo and the others had been waiting outside. It was not good for them to come in. If anything happened, they would be wiped out.

Therefore, they used their phones to communicate.

Hearing that something was wrong, Tang Luo decisively took out the alarm she had prepared.

In other words, Tang Luo and the others were the ones who made the police sirens and drove Ling Juan and the others away.

Fortunately, Ling Juan and the others didn't dare to face the police, so they were scared away by the sirens.

If they really ignored the arrival of the police and insisted on killing them, the situation would be dangerous.

"It's good that you're fine."

Tang Luo heaved a sigh of relief and looked at the old man beside her. "This must be Grandfather Qi?"

"Yes, this is my grandfather." Qi Xibei nodded and introduced them. "Grandpa, this is my good friend, Tang Luo. This is her boyfriend, Mo Bonan."

"Hello."

The old man was still in shock. He looked at them and tried his best to force a smile.

What happened tonight was too terrifying. He felt like he had walked around the gates of hell.

He still hadn't come back to his senses.

Fortunately, Qi Xibei was well prepared this time. Otherwise, he would really have to stay here.

Qiao Yanjue and Mo Bonan were also chatting, and the two of them were much closer than before.

After all, their girlfriends were good sisters, so their relationship was naturally much better.

Moreover, the Qiao's Group and the Mo's Group also had a partnership.

The materials that the Qiao's Group had previously developed had entered the market here through the Mo's Group as a dealer.

This was also a win-win situation.

The Mo family could stand firm here, and the Qiao's Group could develop faster.
