Chapter 21 – Tv Shows Are All Lies

Chapter 21 TV dramas are all lies

“Let’s go, I’ll find you for a drink next time.”

Seeing that the matter was settled, Zhou Xiaoke, who was a little embarrassed, left first.

My younger brother bumped into a classmate in elementary school, I can’t afford to lose this person.

As soon as Feilonghui left, Brother Honglong, who was sitting face to face, also left one by one.

At the same time, Zhou Anan couldn’t help but heaved a sigh of relief.

According to the plot of some * TV series, it should be that as the protagonist, he encountered a crisis and his pavement was smashed, so he had no choice but to ask his elementary school classmates for help. Afterwards, under the great power of the elementary school classmates, he will find the place again, and then make the barbecue stall bigger and stronger. He, in turn, assists the elementary school classmates to dominate one side, and finally because the short-sighted younger brother is too arrogant, angering the big shots, Then he was forcibly KO by the state administrative organ.

Cough, cough, thinking too far, Zhou An’an doesn’t want to go through the twists and turns of the plot, it’s better to have an ordinary life.

Currently, if there is no fight, it is the best result.

After that, the trouble of protection fees was eliminated, and the income increased by at least one hundred per day, but Zhou Anan didn’t know whether to be happy or worried.

If it wasn’t for the harassment of gangsters, maybe Zhou An’an didn’t want to get to know Zhou Xiaoke again. The decadent young man who occasionally got together in his previous life was too uncomfortable to watch.

Sometimes, favors are more troublesome than money.

“Anzi, I didn’t expect you to know that boss, why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

Without any trouble from his friends, Wang Rong, who saw the gangsters retreating, excitedly thumped each other's shoulders.

The posture of those people just now was so awesome that he had an urge to do something.

And it's so big, leading dozens of younger brothers, it's really enviable and scary.

However, one thing is conceivable, the barbecue stall will be absolutely safe in the future, and Xu Wenwen can stay longer, instead of going back before ten o'clock every day.

"Go, go, pack up quickly, and rest early today."

Waving away the worries about the future in his mind, Zhou An'an didn't have much, so he sent the other party to clean up the tables and chairs.

Although it was only eleven o'clock, the flow of customers in the past had already dispersed due to the confrontation between the two gangs.

The operating profit of this day was the first record low, only 368 yuan. Among them, there were a few customers who fished in troubled waters and took away a few barbecues without paying.

However, with the addition of the 700 protection fees returned by the two gangs, the average daily income exceeded 1,000 for the first time, reaching 1,068 yuan.

At this point, Zhou Anan could only helplessly look at thousands of dollars and sigh.

How should I repay this favor.

"Wang Rong, hurry up."

"The ninth table is ready, Wenwen, go and tidy up."

"Wang Rong, the table for six is ready."

"Boss, here is your barbecue. It costs twenty-five yuan."

Under Zhou Anan's instruction while grilling, Wang Rong and Xu Wenwen were like spinning tops, shuttling between the tables non-stop, flying up in a hurry.

Fortunately, Zhou Anan's mental arithmetic ability has been improved through years of mathematics teaching career, and he can accurately tell the cost of packing, which also saves Xu Wenwen a lot of effort in calculating accounts.

On July 25th, without the harassment of two gangsters, the profit of the barbecue stall reached a new high of 802.5 yuan, which is not far away from breaking the thousand mark.

This is completely incomparable with yesterday's one thousand yuan, which is a real 800 profit.

If this momentum continues, it will not be a problem at all if the monthly profit exceeds 20,000.

As long as you can earn 30,000 to 40,000 yuan, you will have the starting capital for the training department.

"Everyone go back and rest early, there will be a class reunion tomorrow."

Tonight is also the first time Xu Wenwen persisted until the barbecue stall was closed. Zhou Anan looked at the time approaching the early morning and asked Wang Rong to send him back first.

He had heard from Wang Rong before that the first batch of university admission notices had been delivered, and at the call of some students with good grades or good family backgrounds, Class 3 and 4 of Senior High School would hold a reunion to celebrate.

Zhou Anan knew clearly that because he was selected as the third choice, the admission notice would be a few days late. Because of his obedience to the deployment, he was directly transferred to the newly established science education major when he was close to the score line of a book. Most of the students in the class were in the same situation as him.

Well, I thought a little too far.

Speaking of class reunions, after ten years of class reunion, everyone has already taken root in a certain field.

Of course, most people just take root in it and silently contribute a little to other people's companies, and very few really germinate. Self-employment like Zhou Anan, with an annual income of more than 500,000 yuan, can still be ranked first. It has to be said that it is the happiness of a small county.

And during the period of high school graduation, there were not so many impurities in the class reunions held.

Everyone looks forward to a beautiful college life together. The worst thing is to hear some students who have succeeded in the college entrance examination brag, that it is a bit far to go to a certain university, and so on.

Not so much utilitarianism, not so much calculation, and not so much hypocrisy.

Alumni reunions in this era are worth joining.

At least, Zhou Anan didn't want to miss this time.

In the future class reunions, very few people will come, just to have a meal, chat, and brag, which is really boring.

“Ah.”

Looking at the backs of the two going away, Zhou Anan shook his head.

Wang Rong, let him see him off, the distance is more than one meter, and his EQ is so low that it is outrageous.

However, he can only help here. As for the rest, it depends on the fate of the two.

Anyway, knowing a little about the future, he is not very optimistic about the humble Rongrong who has just started a relationship.

“Old Liang, it's not that I won't help you. Who knew that kid would know Xiao Xiao when he knew Feilong.”

Taking a stick of Double Happiness handed over by the other party, and taking the half-opened cigarette from the other party's hand, Huang Mao said with a little regret.

Although the matter was not completed, he had done his best. As for the deposit of 200 yuan previously collected, it will not be refunded.

Yes, the encounter between the two gangsters was caused by the yellow hair.

Although the little boss gave fifty yuan every time, he couldn't resist someone paying more.

The deposit is 200, and there will be 2,000 after the event is completed.

“That is, that is, I can't think of it.”

With his hands empty, the unhappy Lao Liang could only curse secretly, but still had a smile on his face.

He had worked as a supper stall at the intersection of the night market before, but he couldn't stand the harassment of the two gangsters, and Lao Liang had no choice but to give up, but he met Huang Mao in the process.

Now seeing the turmoil of the boy with no hair growing, Lao Liang was naturally upset, so he specially asked Huang Mao to create this encounter between the two gangs.

Unfortunately, the success fell short.

“Okay, come to me next time if you have something to do.”

Taking advantage of a pack of cigarettes, Huang Mao also left contentedly, and the business was considered to be over, leaving only a resentful look in his eyes.

In the early morning, the sun was shining on the earth, and Zhou Anan, who was covered in sweat, adjusted his breathing constantly, shifted his attention to the surrounding river scenery, and insisted on running three laps today.

Still no chance encounters with morning jogs. Young people these days don't like morning exercises, especially since Lizhou City is a small county, which made Zhou Anan's vague expectations come to naught.

Sure enough, people are lying on TV.

Running met a big beauty, the big beauty accidentally abducted her foot, the hero sent her back, after that the two developed and became the envied couple.

This bridge section makes people think so sad.

Forget it, let's take a shower and go to the class reunion.

Chapter 22 – It'S Not Good To Leak The Secret

Chapter 22 It's not easy to leak the secret

Didn't wear any formal clothes, Zhou An'an simply put on a set of Metersbonwe short sleeves and mid-pants, and shaved off the unsightly fluff around his mouth.

I took a picture in front of the mirror, and it was not bad. I instantly looked five or six years younger.

Wang Rong, who paid 200 yuan in advance for this month's salary, bought a set of Anta's white short-sleeved long pants, exuding a smoldering atmosphere.

However, compared to Wang Rong in the memory of his previous life, Zhou An'an felt that the other party's face was a little more confident, and reckoned that it would also add a little more charm to girls.

Of course, it's just a few points, the full score is 100 points, and the starting point is barely 20 points.

"Anzi, are we really closed tonight?"

After wiping his hair with mousse from the shampoo shop downstairs, Wang Rong asked worriedly again.

You know, Zhou Anan will lose hundreds of dollars if he is closed on this day.

In other words, will he deduct a day's wages, which averages out to 100 yuan?

"It's okay, let's take a vacation for ourselves. Maybe it will rain tonight."

Zhou Anan, who vaguely remembered the historical trajectory, did the math and knew that there would be rain in the sky after six o'clock tonight, and then the rain would intensify after seven o'clock.

It is rainy today, so it is not suitable for opening.

It's a magic calculation. The local TV station in Lizhou said that it was cloudy to sunny, and the 15% chance of rain was simply nonsense.

Calculate again, well, fortunately, this summer vacation is not rainy, otherwise the business of the barbecue stall will be troublesome.

This day's reunion was initiated by the class committee members of Class 4 (Senior Grade 3). The venue was set to be in the 'Jiangnan Fish Village' across the river from No. 1 Middle School. Each person paid 100 yuan in advance.

At 9:50 in the morning, ten minutes earlier than the scheduled time, Zhou Anan and Zhou Anan came outside the gate of No. 1 Middle School where they had assembled in advance.

"Wen Wen."

At first glance, Wang Rong saw Xu Wenwen, and ran over eagerly to show off his new equipment.

Boys buy new clothes or something just to let girls see how handsome they are.

And Zhou Anan's eyes glanced at the so-called class girl Li Yuhan at first glance. In fact, there are so many class girls and school girls in reality. It's just that Li Yuhan fits the aesthetics of boys of this age, and there are more lace news than other girls. Over the years The later classmate association was dubbed "the class flower of the year".

What's more, at the class reunion many years later, Zhou An'an clearly remembered that the height of this "class flower" student hadn't changed much, but her face had become a little uneven, not a bit worse than the other female students who were gradually growing. It really disappointed him who had been throbbing.

Women's eighteen changes, sometimes they may become paralyzed.

Besides the well-known Li Yuhuan, there were also a few girls with slightly more delicate faces. Afterwards, Zhou Anan's eyes fell on a certain girl with a bloated figure.

Of course, Zhou Anan has absolutely no feelings for a girl with this figure.

But thinking of this rich second-generation girl whose family business ranks in the top 30 among the top 100 tax-paying companies in Lizhou City, Zhou Anan feels that many male students will regret that they didn't start early, which is enough to save people from struggling for a lifetime high-quality stocks.

Furthermore, Zhou An'an remembered that this classmate Cheng Qiuqiu went to a certain Bangzi country after graduating from university, and when he came back, he became a socialite with a good figure and face, and then married a second-generation official who was well-matched, envious of others .

So, young people should start as soon as possible, it may save a lifetime of struggle, and it can also make their children a rich second generation.

It's a pity that at Zhou Anan's current age, a kid is still in the age of looking at faces.

The only one who knows the future trajectory is Zhou An'an, but he doesn't bother to bend his waist to be rich. He himself will be a rich generation in the future, a rich generation who can make money while lying down.

"An'an, you are here. There are still people who haven't arrived. Let's go to Yuzhuang after the photo is taken."

As an important initiator of this alumni reunion, "Hu Shangyi", who is still active in the annual reunion in the future, holds a Motorola flip phone in one hand, and shakes Zhou Anan enthusiastically with the other hand, explaining along the way.

I have to say that male students with a high starting point these days also develop their emotional intelligence early.

However, it is not good to show off your wealth so obviously, if you shake it any longer, the phone will almost drop.

Mobile phones are not rare these days. Parents will buy one for their children after they are admitted to university. Many students present also have mobile phones in their hands.

It's just that the average family will buy a cheap candy bar phone, generally around 2,000 yuan or even lower. At this time, you can buy a flip phone worth 5,000, 6,000 or even tens of thousands, which is definitely a small local tyrant.

"Row."

Didn't have any idea of getting close to this rich second-generation classmate, Zhou An'an and the other party's hand touched each other immediately, and then walked into the circle of male classmates in the same dormitory, recalling the youth of those years.

Well, his memories are all about how his classmates will look blessed in the future.

"An'an is here."

"Xiao Anzi, long time no see."

"An An, you seem to be getting fat."

".

It seems that this enthusiastic atmosphere is a little far away.

Looking at the students whose faces were full of yearning for a better future, Zhou An'an resisted the urge to hit them, and reluctantly blended into everyone's topic.

For an eighteen-year-old boy, isn't the topic of chatting four-piece set of bragging, games, longing, and memories?

If it wasn't for him not to reveal too many secrets, Zhou An'an would have wanted to strike them down.

You must hold back, or what will you do if you are struck by lightning.

"Okay, everyone, come over and take pictures."

"eggplant."

After taking photos at the main entrance of No. 1 Middle School, everyone went to the lunch gathering spot in a bustling manner.

Walking on the yellow mud road, Zhou Anan looked at the busy construction site not far away, thinking of the scene many years later in his mind.

The village that has just been demolished will become another bustling place besides the pedestrian street in two years, and the price of a 20-square-meter store will be as high as three million.

Who let the city government building just choose a new location this year, the location is just across the river from the gate of the No. 1 Middle School, making those originally poor households instantly become the first batch of demolished households who were the first to get rich in Lizhou City.

It was Liu Jinfei in the team, who was also one of the people who benefited from this batch of demolition.

Regardless of the fact that Liu Jinfei used to wear old clothes and old shoes, now he is dressed in Adidas, looks a little handsome, and chats with female classmates very openly, not at all reminiscent of the shy and shy appearance back then .

Man, money smolders.

“Anzi, are you ready to repeat?”

When Zhou Anan recalled bitterness and thought of sweetness, a voice rang in his ears. Liu Jinfei, who had been in the same dormitory for three years in high school, looked at him enthusiastically.

“Me, I’d better go to a third-rate university to fool around.”

Shrugged, Zhou Anan said mockingly, but there was no look of frustration on his face.

Perhaps for children of this age, self-esteem still needs to be maintained.

But for the soul of the uncle in his thirties, Zhou An’an didn’t have the slightest pressure.

Even if he wasn’t a reborn person, Zhou An’an was no worse than most of his classmates in his previous life.

Now that he was reborn as a teenager, how could he be left behind.

To put it in a pretentious way, even if Beijing University and Tsinghua University are here to invite you, Zhou An’an will not go.

After leaving, what will happen to his plan to make money?

Mess around.

“Are you willing? I’m the bottom of the crane, but you’re the top math student in our class. If it wasn’t for the failure in the science and comprehensive exam, Jiang Da’s score line would not be difficult.”

Since he thought he had a good relationship with the other party, Liu Jinfei hugged the other party’s shoulders and said insignificant words ‘heart-piercingly’.

Since his family has money, he wants to build a good relationship with his classmates who are good at studying. This is called stealth investment.

“And you?”

Unaccustomed to struggling to open the opponent’s arm, Zhou Anan changed the subject and asked back.

“Me, my dad asked me to study for the third degree in the Industrial and Commercial University. After graduation, I can run the store assigned to my family.”

Talking about where he was going, Liu Jinfei said indifferently, he was a little happy about not having to go to Gao Fu.

High and high, the world is turned upside down.

People who have gone through the college entrance examination once, unless it is absolutely necessary, who would want to go through the second time.

Even Zhou Anan, who performed abnormally in the college entrance examination, would not think about reliving that painful experience.

“That’s not bad.”

Zhou Anan knew that Liu Jinfei had indeed taken over the family shop after graduation. He had opened a breakfast shop, a milk tea shop, and a mobile phone shop. A certain bank worked as an idle clerk with a monthly rent of 20,000 yuan.

“That’s the way I am, it’s just you, what a pity. You haven’t seen Zhu Pengfei like that, who will go to heaven if he is admitted to Jiaotong University?”

Facing the representative of the chemistry class who was among the girls, Liu Jinfei said with some taste.

“You are better than others in the exam, you have to obey.”

Regarding this kid’s complaint, Zhou An’an smiled and let it go.

As a man who can become a billionaire by buying some TX stocks in the future, Zhou Anan has no envy or jealousy towards the students around him.

The large team walked for about 20 minutes and arrived at Jiangnan Fish Village by the Lijiang River.

The name sounds good, and the shape is also good. Many bamboo houses are built on the pond, and the name is not small.

Until 2018, this fish village in the south of the Yangtze River still survived, but Zhou Anan didn't know how much business it was, and he just glanced at it casually when he drove by here occasionally.

But for now, the Jiangnan Fish Village with its unique shape is still very popular in Lizhou City.

Between toasts and chips, Zhou Anan looked at the smiling faces, and his thoughts drifted back to his future plans.

Based on the current turnover of the barbecue stall, Zhou Anan can raise about 40,000 yuan before school starts in September, but compared to his plan, there is still a long way to go.

After all, if you start a tutoring institution, it will be a great loss if you miss the school season in the second half of the year.

Maybe, you can expand your business.

It's just that if the barbecue booth expands, there is no need.

What can make money?

"Zhou Anan, what are you thinking?"

Patting the shoulder of his former tablemate, Ying Chengcheng, who was about to toast each other, asked curiously.

Chapter 23 – Time To Show Real Technology

Chapter 23 It's time to show real technology

"I didn't think about anything."

After clinking glasses with the other party, Zhou Anan looked at the pretty girl in front of him, and immediately remembered the other party's life trajectory in his mind.

A full-time employee of the Construction Bureau, 32 years old, unmarried, 70 points in appearance, and 74 points after the professional attire bonus.

When the ten-year class reunion got together, Zhou Anan joked with the other party, whether they should try it out as a single couple.

As a result, Ying Chengcheng invited him to dinner the next day.

It's just that on that day, Zhou An'an couldn't make the trip because of something, and the two lost contact after that.

To be honest, although Ying Chengcheng's figure is not tall, he is still 1.6 meters tall, which is not short for Zhou An'an who is 1.66 meters. The family background can be regarded as a good match.

It's a pity that Zhou An'an didn't have the willingness to take the initiative, and he was busy with the expansion of the tutoring organization during that time, so he didn't have the heart to talk about it.

Furthermore, if classmates fall in love and break up, they will be embarrassed when they meet in the future, and they will have a bad reputation among classmates.

There used to be a pair of lovers among the senior students in high school. After they parted ways, they rarely appeared in the same occasion at the same time.

"An'an, I heard that you and Wang Rong are setting up a barbecue stall, do you still need someone?"

Seeing such a cold answer from the other party, Ying Chengcheng was embarrassed for a moment, and then asked a question he cared about.

After playing at home for a month, it was really boring.

Hearing Xu Wenwen's experience, Ying Chengcheng felt a little eager to try.

It's great to be able to make money and exercise yourself.

"Our BBQ Stand"

Just as he was about to say that the barbecue stall doesn't need too many people, a flash of light flashed in Zhou An'an's mind, and then changed the subject: "There are a lot of people needed, but the work is very intensive. I don't know if you can take it."

“It’s okay, I can suffer.”

Showing off his white and tender arms, Ying Chengcheng said very stiffly.

“Okay, I will notify you when the time comes.”

After a casual sentence, Zhou Anan didn’t care about chatting with the little crush, took a drink and found a quiet corner, quickly perfecting the idea just now in his mind.

It seems that there is something to do.

Satisfied with food and drink, a group of people went to Lijiang to have fun, then walked to the gate of No. 1 Middle School, and spent more than ten minutes calling to the reserved KTV.

“Anzi, Wenwen promised to have lunch with me tomorrow.”

Sitting in the taxi, Wang Rong poked Zhou Anan’s waist, said something in a low voice, his face was full of excitement.

“Oh.”

Zhou Anan, who came back to his senses, thought about the other party’s previous topic, and then asked, “Then have you asked her where she went to study?”

“It’s also Hangzhou, and I happen to be going to Hangzhou too. Brother, I’m going to have a girlfriend.”

Speaking of this, Wang Rong was obviously very excited and wanted to announce it to the world.

For him, Xu Wenwen agreed to have lunch with him, which was a prelude to being his girlfriend.

“You think too early, she just agreed to have lunch with you, and she didn’t even write a word.”

Regarding the impulsiveness of young people, Zhou Anan felt that it was necessary to pour cold water on the other party to sober up, lest the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment.

However, seeing Xu Wenwen silently accepting Wang Rong’s kind flattery on weekdays, Zhou Anan felt that the probability of the two becoming boyfriend and girlfriend was still very high.

After all, everyone is born in the 1980s, not as free and easy as the post-90s, nor as casual as the post-95s.

If a girl accepts the boy's kindness, she will probably acquiesce in this relationship.

It's just that whether the two can make it to the end depends on God's will.

"Can you say something nice. By the way, where would you like to go for lunch?"

"Coffee bar on both sides of the Strait."

"That's a bit expensive, can you advance a little more salary?"

Under Jian Rongrong's tireless harassment, Zhou An'an couldn't think about his money-making plan quietly at all, so he had to give advice to the other party.

In some respects, Zhou Anan, who was not married in his previous life, is definitely the other party's senior, and he can be called an old driver.

It's just that the driving direction is a bit unstable, and there is no way to drive into the palace of marriage.

Dihao Entertainment Club is located in the center of the pedestrian street, on the top four floors of the same building as Xinhua Bookstore.

As a local tyrant, Hu Shangyi has already booked a VIP box with an area of more than 100 square meters, enough for more than 40 students to have fun in it.

In the previous life, Zhou Anan, who had no interest, had already found a reason to leave the team and go to the Internet cafe to squat, but in this life, he obediently followed the team to the KTV.

Some trajectories are already different.

"An'an, do you want people in your barbecue stall?"

"An'an, can you see me?"

"An'an, I'm also going to work for your barbecue stall."

However, as soon as he and Wang Rong entered the gate of KTV, Zhou Anan was surrounded by girls.

Before Zhou Anan confirmed the plan, Ying Chengcheng had already spread the news of the recruitment of staff for the barbecue stall.

Ears filled with the chirping of Yingying and Yanyan, Zhou An'an still had time to study the figures of the girls, but it's a pity that since No. 1 Middle School is the base camp with high scores, there are really no amazing girls.

"Everyone calm down, calm down."

Taking the time to pick up the microphone, Zhou Anan comforted the girls.

Ignoring the envious eyes of some boys, Zhou Anan squeezed away from the group of girls, and breathed a sigh of relief: "Our barbecue stall needs to recruit ten to twenty people. If you need to find a summer job, come to me to register. I'll get back to you sometime."

After a burst of excitement, the atmosphere of the graduation party resumed in the box again, but Zhou Anan enjoyed the girls' gazes from time to time.

No way, he is so handsome.

"Anzi, do you really want to recruit so many people? How much salary do you get?"

Wang Rong, who probably knew the turnover of the barbecue stall, had no way to refute Zhou Anan's decision, but he was more and more worried.

The wages of so many people are paid all at once, will his wages be reduced?

"It's okay, let's sing in peace today, I have other arrangements."

Smiling and patted his friend on the shoulder, Zhou Anan looked at the ever-changing big screen, and the joyful singing of girls sounded in his ears, and his mind was distracted again.

"Zhou Anan, come here."

After a passionate song, Hu Shangyi, who was somewhat tone-deaf but thought he was extremely handsome, handed the microphone to Zhou Anan, who was sitting in the corner and playing dice guessing games with Ying Chengcheng.

There are only a few prettier beauties in the class, but they always pay attention to this little-known roommate, which makes Hu Shangyi, who usually has a sense of superiority, very tasty.

Of course, talking about envy, jealousy and hatred is too much, it's just a little bit uncomfortable.

“I’m tone deaf, so I won’t sing any more, you guys continue.”

Waved his hand, Zhou Anan declined.

To be honest, the songs these days are only familiar to him, but he doesn’t know how to sing them very well.

“What are you afraid of? I have all the five notes. We are all classmates. Let’s have one.”

“Really not.”

“Is it a man? How can a man say no?”

“Well, let’s play the “Difficult to Recite”.”

Zhou Anan was provoked by the other party and could only choose one song.

(end of this chapter)

Chapter 24 – Heart Knot

Chapter 24 Heart Knot

“What song is it?”

After hearing the title of the song reported by Zhou Anan, Hu Shangyi asked in amazement. It seemed that he didn’t know the song at all.

Thinking that he has been in KTV for many years, how could he still have such a remote song, and Zhou Anan, an otaku who can sing, is unlikely.

“Zhou Anan, can you tell me the title of the song again?”

Because of the noise, Zhu Pengfei, who was sitting in front of the karaoke stand, asked again.

“I know, it’s the theme song of Tianlong Babu, and it’s called Sutra of Difficulty.”

Shen Wei, who likes to listen to music on weekdays, suddenly remembered and answered loudly.

Deciding to show off, Zhou Anan’s breath quickly calmed down, and he entered the state of singing.

Back then, in order to go to KTV and not become the background of Maiba, Zhou Anan rented a small box to practice repeatedly in his spare time, and finally found a professional female musician. Under the guidance of the other party, The skills are advancing by leaps and bounds.

Whoever it is, after one or two years of unremitting practice, one or two songs can always be practiced to the level of Maiba.

Moreover, how many people present can understand this Cantonese song.

Sing it out, that fan, that aura, can definitely suppress the audience.

“So it’s this song.”

After searching for the title of the song, Zhu Pengfei said in surprise.

The prelude sounded, and Zhou Anan’s slightly hoarse singing sounded.

“It’s useless to laugh at you,

Love competes for the beauty of Jinghua.

I am afraid that luck will disappear in a blink of an eye,

Fascinated by greed, anger, joy, and anger.

Blame you and me for being too greedy for power,

Blame the earth for being too beautiful.

Repent of the old days, too stick to the promise,

At the moment when the singing sounded, the audience was silent.

In the era when Hong Kong movies were rampant, the TV series “Dragon Babu” is definitely a must-see program for young people born in the 1980s. Everyone may not be familiar with the title of this theme song, but they are definitely familiar with the melody.

Otherwise, Zhou An’an would not have chosen such a difficult track to challenge at the beginning, and the professional musician who guided him had such a headache that he almost fell into bed with a headache.

What started out as a friendship turned out to be super intimate.

After more than half a year of hard work, after Zhou Anan learned this song, every KTV party, when this song comes out, the world is invincible.

In the next few decades, Cantonese songs will still be very bluffing.

Especially Zhou An'an's rhythm didn't go out of tune too much. In other words, no one present knew whether Zhou An'an was out of tune.

At this moment, the halo of Maiba almost formed, covering Zhou Anan, and the girls' eyes sparkled.

Of course, this should be regarded as the psychological effect of those boys who are envious and jealous.

At least, in the eyes of Hu Shangyi, who encouraged the other party to sing, the other party is simply a model of pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger.

Same dormitory for three years in high school, why didn't he know that this guy could sing such an awesome Cantonese song, it's too low-key.

“Oh”

“another one.”

“Zhou Anan, you hide too deeply.”

“If you want to be fined for drinking, you must be fined.”

When everyone was booing, Zhou Anan, who had finished singing, continued to run to the corner in a low-key manner, playing a game of guessing dice with Ying Chengcheng.

Hiding merit and fame deeply is the highest level of pretense.

What kind of envious eyes, how can it compare with talking to the little crush.

Looking at those eyes secretly staring at him, Zhou Anan felt very refreshed, they were all young girls.

When everyone was having fun, Zhou Anan changed people around, round by round. The notebook sent by the waiter recorded more than 20 students who wanted to do summer jobs. There were men and women, but most of them were girls.

In general, everyone who came from No. 1 Middle School is still very upright in their three views. After playing for more than a month after the college entrance examination, they are tired of playing. Earning some extra money is not afraid of hardship or tiredness at all.

The only thing I care about is whether I feel ashamed of the extra money job.

“An An, do you live on Nanyuan Road?”

At ten o'clock, the squad leader Chen Yuan came over and asked Zhou An'an and Wang Rong.

“yes.”

“That's just right, Ying Chengcheng and Ying Heng also live there, you can be flower protectors later.”

“it is good.”

Seeing that Zhou Anan agreed to come down, Wang Rong said in a low voice: “I will send Wenwen home later.”

“It's okay, you give it to you, I'll give it to me.”

Zhou Anan gives a thumbs up contemptuously to friends who are of the opposite * but inhumane.

Young man, he fell in love too deeply.

“Thank you.”

Obtaining the other party's promise, Wang Rong excitedly returned to Xu Wenwen's circle and continued bragging.

This night, Wang Rong only had Xu Wenwen in his eyes, and there were no other beautiful girls at all.

Youth infatuation is pure love.

There were no so-called fights, and no gangsters molesting girls. Nowadays, no one dares to mess around in their territory. The first class reunion of Class 4 (Senior Grade 3) ended peacefully.

“Ah, it's raining.”

At eleven o'clock in the evening, Ying Chengcheng, who walked out of the elevator, looked at the majestic heavy rain outside the building, and sighed depressingly.

The weather during the day is good, who would remember to bring an umbrella when going out.

I knew it earlier, and I would play with my classmates for a while, but the phone at home has been urged three or four times. If I don't go back, I will be nagged by my parents.

“How do we go back?”

The tall and slender Ying Heng stretched out his hand to test the raindrops, and when he retracted, it was already full of water marks.

“I'll call a car for you.”

Frowning, he looked at the uninterrupted rain. Zhou Anan knew that the rain would last until tomorrow morning, and it was impossible to wait any longer.

Borrowing an umbrella from the service desk, Zhou Anan was about to go out and hail a taxi by the side of the road.

“Then be careful.”

Looking at the heavy rain outside, Ying Chengcheng asked worriedly.

“Wow.”

Just as Zhou Anan was about to go out to take a taxi, a group of figures rushed in from the rain curtain.

With all kinds of hair and unorthodox attire, Ying Cheng was so frightened that he immediately grabbed Zhou Anan's short sleeves, and Ying Heng quickly hid behind the boy.

The appearance of these people is not very good at first glance.

“Yo, there are two chicks.”

“Get out, what are you talking about. Little boss, why are you here?”

Patted the younger brother on the head, and the blue-haired Hu Cong came forward to say hello with a smile.

Hu Cong's memory of this little brother of the boss is extremely deep.

If the other party hadn't told about the fact that he secretly took the favor fee, it is estimated that the boss would not have spared him lightly.

“Hello, my classmates and I are singing here.”

Thought he had encountered some gangster, but he didn't expect it to be Zhou Xiaoke's men, Zhou An'an settled down.

Otherwise, in such a situation, he could only take his two little sisters and escape in the rain.

The enthusiasm of youth is not as precious as life.

Be careful when pretending, the price of life is higher.

“Oh, you guys left so early, do you need to call a taxi for you? Fifth, call the little boss a taxi.”

Looking at the two girls only slightly, Lan Mao smiled and ordered to take it down and help take a taxi.

This little boss is Niu, with one belt and two.

In comparison, he is a bit weak.

“no, I'm fine.”

When he refused, Zhou Anan looked at the gangster who ran out in the rain, feeling a little sad.

Are all the gangsters so enthusiastic?

“An'an, do you know them?”

Getting into the taxi that came to the door, Ying Chengcheng, who was still in fear, asked the boy in the passenger seat suspiciously.

Being at the same table for one year and two years before and after, Ying Chengcheng thought he was very familiar with Zhou An'an, and never thought that this shy and good boy would know those people in society.

The scene just now was too scary.

If those villains mess around, it would be terrible.

“I don't know them, but a classmate of mine in elementary school knows them very well.”

Regarding this point, Zhou Anan felt that there was no need for girls to get to know the dark side of society so early, and he said it very briefly.

“Oh, that’s how it is.”

After listening to Zhou Anan’s explanation, Ying Chengcheng subconsciously agreed with the other party, and felt inexplicably relieved.

As for Ying Heng, who hadn’t spoken all this time, he only occasionally glanced at the boy in front of him, and Zhou An’an, who was unfamiliar with him, didn’t talk to him.

After all, Zhou Anan is very interested in flirting with girls, but he will definitely protect the relationship with classmates carefully.

To mix in society, one’s character cannot be bad.

On the road of rapid development of past life counseling institutions, Zhou An’an did not accept help from old classmates, so naturally he would not destroy this purest relationship.

Furthermore, the taller Ying Heng of the two girls was not very friendly in Zhou Anan’s impression. In his previous life, he asked the other party in the bank for an urgent loan, and the other party hung up the phone directly.

After that, the two had no contact with each other, and they never saw each other at the class reunion.

Pedestrian Street is just across the river from Nanyuan Road. Zhou Anan sent the two of them home respectively, and then came to the riverside with an umbrella, looking at the opposite Lizhou Bridge.

Zhou An’an still remembered that it was something that happened under this Lizhou bridge that caused a shock in the entire Lizhou city.

The next typhoon period is just ten days away, and the situation is changing at the right time.

What Zhou Anan hesitated was whether to intervene and let Zhou Xiaoke get away from it.

Yes, he is weighing the pros and cons.

Before Zhou Xiaoke offered to help, Zhou Anan, who didn’t want to owe favors, naturally wanted to help him. Although it is possible to wait for the other party to be released from prison, and then help the other party start a small business, Zhou An’an feels a little blocked.

After all, Zhou Xiaoke really regarded him as a friend, and he didn't want to see that desolate back.

But if you make a move now, you don't know the probability of success at all, and the result is also unknown.

Returning from rebirth, Zhou Anan, who is familiar with the context of history, has a natural resistance to things with unknown results.

However, Zhou Anan, who knows the trajectory of historical development, knows that this is not impossible.

China's laws cannot get rid of the etiquette, which gave Zhou Anan room to manipulate.

Thinking of the possibility of helping Zhou Xiaoke escape, Zhou Anan felt a raging fire inexplicably ignited in his heart.

The man is alive, why not take the magic sword and shake all the knots in your heart.

Changing history starts from this step.

Children, it's time to show a wave of real operations.

Chapter 25 – A Good Seed For Handing Out Leaflets

Chapter 25 Good seedlings for handing out leaflets

“An'an, I have 7 people confirmed to come here.”

Hung up the phone, Wang Rong handed over the list of names he had written down, holding the Nokia 3125 with extreme force, for fear of accidentally dropping it on the ground.

If a worker wants to do a good job, he must first sharpen his tools.

Before preparing for the food delivery business, Zhou Anan bought both him and Wang Rong a Nokia candy bar mobile phone, which was the same type as the mobile phone he bought in his previous life. It could make calls, send text messages and play Snake, but could not surf the Internet.

With Zhou Anan's current financial resources, he can only buy this kind of straight mobile phone that can be used as a brick.

However, because of such a mobile phone that Zhou Anan disliked, Wang Rong had been giggling for more than an hour. Zhou Anan was really afraid that the muscles on his face would be broken.

Young people are superficial and too easily satisfied.

“I have 8 here.”

Hearing Wang Rong’s words, Zhou An’an, who had expected it for a long time, would not have many disturbances.

Last night, among the 29 students who reported their names to him to participate in the summer job, after a night of calm consideration, only 15 were really willing to come.

Laziness has always been an important factor separating the two extremes of human beings.

Of course, some of them are a matter of face.

However, there is no business in the world that can save face and make money. Well, there really is one, and that is the official ape.

Perhaps among those who said they would not come, they will be regular workers in a certain department in the future, but it will be difficult to move up the leadership level if they mix with middle-level cadres.

Any position, any job, luck will only favor hardworking and shameless people.

Like among those who are willing to come, the Zhu Pengfei who considers himself handsome is not only a top student, but also a person who is willing to endure hardships and stand hard work in life.

In the ten years after graduating in the future, among the civil servants in the third (4) class of senior high school, he is the one who has gone the fastest and the farthest. He is only thirty-five years old, and he is already the deputy secretary of the discipline inspection committee of a bureau in Lizhou City. He can be described as young promising.

However, this may also have something to do with him having a retired father-in-law who served as the head committee of a certain bureau.

“Okay, things haven’t started yet, I don’t know if it will work, these people can just try the water.”

Glancing at all the name lists, Zhou Anan said lightly.

Yes, Zhou Anan had a flash of inspiration last night and was going to make takeaway.

But at this point in time, there is no 4G network, no smartphones, and the food delivery industry is not sure if it will work. After all, many fast food restaurants will take the initiative to deliver food to the door. A phone call will deliver a meal, and there is no errand fee.

The only one that can win by surprise is the crayfish set meal that is not available in the market.

If you don't do well, at worst, you will be given 100 yuan for hard work each of the students, and you will be disbanded on the spot.

If you do a good job and then turn into an errand company

Ahem, thinking too far, he hasn't started college yet.

"Testing the waters?"

Hearing Zhou An'an's words, Wang Rong's mind was instantly lost.

Could it be that so many people were invited at once, but Zhou Anan was not sure if he could make money? What happened?

Could it be that he just bought him a mobile phone with his salary, will the barbecue stand go bankrupt and close down?

In other words, he hasn't received his salary for this month yet.

"Come on, let's do some preparations first."

Without making it clear, Zhou Anan took Wang Rong to a printing shop not far away.

After watching the printing shop owner's magical one-finger typing speed for a few minutes, Zhou An'an went into battle in person, and spent five minutes finishing a dynamic leaflet.

"Special offer of crayfish set meal."

It's a pity that there are no delicious photos of crayfish. Zhou An'an can only use words to seduce him, and he can do whatever he wants.

It cost 200 yuan to bargain, and 5,000 leaflets were copied, and Zhou Anan carried the leaflets back to the barbecue stand.

At 8:50, ten minutes before the agreed nine o'clock, the fifteen students are basically in place.

“. That's basically it. The basic salary is 600. Is there any problem?”

After briefly introducing everyone's work arrangements, Zhou Anan asked in a very humane manner.

If some students feel ashamed, he can understand.

If you don't do it, just get out.

The young people nowadays are not as bold as those born after 2000. In his previous life, Zhou Anan would invite the little guy who graduated from the third year of junior high school to distribute flyers at the gate of their old campus.

The times are advancing, and young friends will be eliminated if they are not careful.

“No.”

Fortunately, everyone is mentally prepared to do summer jobs, and they don't have much resistance to handing out leaflets, but a few people's eyes are a little flickering.

As long as you send two hours a day in the morning and evening, you will have a monthly salary of 600, and there will be an extra commission for sending a meal, which is already a very good salary.

“Okay, let's go early, everyone.”

Seeing that everyone was fine, Zhou Anan clapped his hands and started working.

As the boss, Zhou Anan didn't have to go to the street to distribute leaflets, but he volunteered to choose the mall with the largest traffic flow and prepared 500 leaflets.

The headquarters center has not yet started construction, the shops in Times Square are still in a downturn, and the pedestrian street business district is in the ascendant. The shopping mall that has become a landmark building in Lizhou City more than ten years ago is undoubtedly the key target of Zhou Anan's takeaway business development.

It can be said that the store owners in the mall at this time are people with middle and upper income levels in the entire Lizhou City, and many of them have an annual income of over one million, which is definitely the main force of potential consumption.

The shopping mall covers an area of thousands of square meters and consists of three floors, with a total of 1,200 shops. Zhou Anan, Wang Rong, Xu Wenwen, and Ying Chengcheng are in groups of two and quickly distributed leaflets.

“Boss, do you want to see takeaway?”

“Walking, walking.”

“Boss, do you want to take a look at the takeaway? Delicious crayfish”

“Didn’t you see that we are busy, hurry up and go away.”

“boss”

At the beginning, Ying Chengcheng, who was in the group with Zhou Anan, was still a little reluctant to let go, and repeatedly hit the wall.

Zhou Anan looked at it, but did not teach him anything, but went straight to a shop that occupied two shops, and said to the fat lady who was there to settle accounts: “Sister, hello, we are doing delicious food. Crayfish takeaway.”

Under Zhou Anan’s shameless compliment, the fat lady accepted the flyer with a smile on her face, and ordered three crayfish set meals for her shop, which was not bad at all.

Don’t look at these store owners and customers who are so penny-pinching, even talking about two dollars for half an hour, but it is easier to spend money than some small factory managers.

“An’an, how did you do it?”

Ying Chengcheng, who finally sent out two leaflets, asked curiously as he watched the boy take care of a seemingly difficult shopkeeper in twos and threes.

“When we distribute leaflets, we must be careful with each other. Women under the age of 50 are called sisters, and men are called elder brothers; women over the age of 50 are called elder sisters, and men are called elder brothers.”

Seeing that Xiao Meimei was humbly asking for advice, Zhou An’an unreservedly passed on her experience in distributing leaflets over the years to the other party, which made Xiao Meimei stunned for a while.

However, the comprehension ability of this little girl Ying Chengcheng is really amazing. With the sweet smile of two small dimples, she can get started quickly. The speed of distributing leaflets is not inferior to that of Zhou An’an when she kills those uncle-level shopkeepers in a few seconds. .

It is indeed a good seedling who was born to distribute leaflets.
