

Chapter 258

Finally, it was Zhang Fan's turn to rest, and there was no special operation in the private hospital. This break can be taken directly to normal work. Zhang Fan has had many happy events in the past year.

First of all, Jingshu was admitted to a good university. Zhang Jingshu was admitted to a university. Zhang Fan was happier than himself. His sister went to a famous university! Zhang Fan is so proud!

Established a relationship with Shaohua and felt more and more suitable. For such a long time, neither of them has ever quarreled. And the old people on both sides are very reasonable, which makes Zhang Fan and Shaohua feel comfortable.

Not to mention the others, when Zhang Fan wanted to work in a private hospital, the old couple took out their lifetime savings and recklessly became the legal person of Zhang Fan's private hospital. The hospital is not a supermarket. The legal person here has to bear the risk. In case of a medical accident, the first thing the police look for is not a doctor, but the legal person of the hospital!

The third is the residence. Both parents have a new house to live in. Compared with the previous house, the new house is bright and convenient. After a lifetime of hard work, they can enjoy a few years of happiness!

The fourth is that so far, the system inexplicably obtained by Zhang Fan has not disappeared, and with the blessing of the system, Zhang Fan has reached the peak of doctors at the prefecture and county level! Even if the system disappears now, Zhang fan can at least protect the people he loves and the people who love him from food and clothing!

Although three days have passed, the custom of China is that it has not been 15 years. The gathering between relatives has begun. Zhang Fan has no relatives here, but there are many Shaohua families.

In previous years, each family lived a tight life, that is, the younger generation of both sides went to each other's house to visit each other for the new year. Zhang Fan supported the children of aunt Shaohua's family to have a small business, and his life is much better than in previous years.

Shaohua's cousin sent a lot of chicken, duck and mutton to Shaohua's house on the 29th of the lunar new year. Shaohua's mother wants to give money, but people don't want it directly. People who don't forget to dig wells are grateful!

A few days ago, Zhang Fan was busy and Shaohua was busy. Why did Lao Shao go to the hospital with Shaohua to stare at him. Although they can't see anything, Zhang Fan doesn't go for such a big business. They are not at home. They are really worried!

Now as long as they hear the sound of 120, the old couple lie on the window and look at the direction of Zhang Fan's private hospital. Although they can't see it, they still go to see it again and again! This is the old man. He doesn't say it in his mouth, but he always cares about his children and what his children care about!

The conditions of the aunt's family are good, and the second aunt is also happy. Although the second uncle is a little muttering, he won't say anything frustrating. If his relatives live well, at least he won't be implicated again, so he can be happy!

The second sister-in-law is retiring. She feels the warmth and coldness of her unit. If she thinks about it again, she may not have a job in the tax bureau without her own brother and sister. So this year, I directly wrapped a table in the hotel and invited my brothers and sisters to have dinner together.

This matter was discussed with Shaohua. Although the second uncle didn't think much of his sister-in-law and brother-in-law, he treated Shaohua differently.

Shaohua and his children are less than two years old. Shaohua himself takes the high school entrance examination, which is the best high school in tea vegetable city. His children spend money to enter the best high school. Shao huakao University, his children stroll the street. However, although Shaohua's cousin didn't study very well, he listened to Shaohua very much. In high school, Shaohua often asked his cousin to pull him down to eat at home.

After graduating from high school, I couldn't help it, so I sent it to France. It is said that I went to study luxury management. There are a lot of tuition fees for a year. I have been an undergraduate for five or six years. After graduation, I spent a year in the capital and came back for the new year this year.

Shao Hua's second uncle has very low requirements for his children. As long as he doesn't go astray and break the law, go and break the law! This is a kind of mentality. How to say, just like Lao Zhuang, let's do nothing! Or if you want to cure it, you can't cure it!

"Sister, look! I bought you perfume. Lipstick! Silk scarves cost me a lot of money. I wanted to come to you before the Chinese New Year. As a result, I was too busy to care. " Shao Hua's cousin is a talented person. It's just a little bad. I'm wearing jeans with holes, marine boots and socks in cold weather!

"You must be busy looking for your little girlfriend!" Shaohua took Zhang Fan's arm and talked to his cousin with a smile.

"This is my brother-in-law! Hi! I know it's my brother-in-law at a glance. He's so calm! Brother in law, your hospital doesn't have that kind of bone! "

"Hehe, Hello! What bone? " The young people arrived at the hotel first, and the old people were still behind. Shaohua's cousin didn't go home for several days. Today, Shaohua called for a family party!

"It's a human spine. Find me one!" The boy quietly walked to Zhang Fan and whispered.

"Well! What do you want this for? There's really no hospital. "

"No! Ah, this is very popular in the capital literary circle this year! "

"You're still in the literary circle. You're not afraid of getting sick if you wear broken pants in winter!" Shao Hua didn't hear the previous words, but the literary and art circle heard them and ridiculed them.

"Sister, why are you like my mother. Hey! Let my brother-in-law take you out when you have time. Small cities fool you! " Then run!

"This smelly boy!" Shao Hua's mouth is crooked!

"In fact, what your cousin said is also good. Why don't we go around sometime!"

"You can be stupid for a long time if you listen to him. You have insight if you wear your pants! You too!
" Shao Hua doesn't want to travel, but can he go out now!

I have to be busy with the exam and help Zhang Fan manage the hospital's finance. Zhang Fan is even busier. The two hospitals run at both ends, and I have to go to acupoints from time to time, not to mention big cities. I'll be very satisfied after a safe weekend!

Shaohua's great uncle, little uncle, father, Zhang Fan, cousin and cousin sat on one side, their lady sat on the other side, and Jingshu was also there. Lively, the situation of several families is getting better and better, life is happy, of course, happiness is full, and the atmosphere on the table is also very good.

The second uncle is no longer. As before, facing his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, his face is not his face, and his nose is not his nose. If he often troubles others and can't help others, the relationship will change over time ~! So, anyway, the most important thing is to live well in your own family.

Zhang Fan doesn't drink. The old man doesn't drink much except Shaohua's father. The women gossip, "huazi, when are you engaged. I think this little Zhang is very good. He is polite and polite. " Shaohua's sister-in-law asked Shaohua quietly.

"I was going to get engaged this year for the new year. As a result, Zhang Fan's parents had something to do, so they delayed the engagement until the second half of the year."

"Potato eggs! There are many things! " Shao Hua said jokingly, learning the unique tone of Su province.

"Ha ha, sister-in-law, you really learn! But Zhang Fan doesn't seem to like potato very much. "

"That's eating!"

My sister-in-law hugged Shaohua and said with emotion: "huazi has grown up and is going to get married. You are the only girl in the family, and there is nothing good left for you. This was left to me by your grandmother. For this reason, your sister-in-law has been jealous for a long time and hasn't talked to me for several years. Now I'll give it to you! "

As he spoke, he took out a very old-fashioned bracelet made of silver, which was also badly oxidized, but the patterns were very unique.

"Aunt, you leave it to Xiaojun's daughter-in-law!"

"Hi! His daughter-in-law may not have been born yet! " Shao Hua's sister-in-law's mentality is really good. Her cousin is lucky to have such parents!

Women talk about women. Men don't drink, and the relationship in previous years was not so harmonious, and there was not much to talk about. Therefore, Shaohua's second uncle shouted to fight the landlord!

Shaohua's father and two uncles began to fight the landlord. Shaohua's cousin was busy carrying tea and pouring water, and Shaohua's cousin was busy sending messages with his mobile phone.

Zhang Fan was also bored, not familiar, and had nothing to talk about. He stood behind Shaohua's father and watched them fight the landlord. The old man's skill is too smelly, that is, he can't play chess as soon as he plays cards. He's the second uncle who has been fishing in the mechanism unit for many years!

"Why don't you come!" Always lose, no one likes to play. Shaohua's father stuffed poker to Zhang Fan. At this time, Shaohua took her cousin to chat, and her sister-in-law also came. Although my aunt and father are also in the unit, the situation at home has just improved. I lost a little sweating! Although I didn't play much, I was really reluctant to give up after a lifetime of poverty.

"Come on, brother-in-law, let me play. I want to win some Xiao Zhang's money!" Shaohua said after looking at her brother-in-law.

"How big?" Aunt Shaohua asked grandly.

"One piece, with double!" Shaohua said.

"Ten dollars, today I want to win some Doctor Zhang's money. Xiao Zhang, who's in charge of the salary now! "

"Sister-in-law, it has been handed over to the Secretary!"

"Well, that's good. Listen to the Secretary, the route can't be wrong." Then several people laughed!

He started playing cards and mahjong. Zhang Fan estimated that he could not play the old Youzi of these two organs. He could fight the landlord. This is his main business! After a while, the husband and wife lost three or four hundred. My aunt threw down poker and said, "good brain! Good memory and courage, I can't play! "

"Xiao Zhang, just play around during the new year. This can't be addictive!" My sister-in-law probably looked at Zhang Fan as too professional and said with worry.

"He can't catch up with his busy dog. He doesn't have time to play this. But I really don't know, Zhang Fan, you still have this ability! " Shaohua stood behind Zhang Fan with Jingshu in her arms and said with a smile.

"Luck, luck, good luck today. My uncle and aunt let me."

"Really? Jingshu, you say! "

"My brother loved to play this thing since he was a child. One year, he won all the lucky money of several people in his hometown. Then my father almost didn't break my brother's leg. That fight was too fierce. My brother was lame for half a month!" Jing Shu has long defected to the enemy!

"Yes! Your brother doesn't have any hobbies at ordinary times. He likes playing poker and can play bridge! It is said that it is very important to exercise people's brain! " Shaohua has always been very interested in Zhang Fan's lack of interest. And she is very relieved of Zhang Fan. She is not worried that Zhang Fan will be contaminated with the bad habit of gambling!

"There's no time!" Zhang Fan's tears came out!

After relatives get together, they get together with friends all year round. Not only did Tang Jingjing come home to pay New Year's greetings, but even Zhu Bing specially brought Lu Renjia home to pay New Year's greetings, but Zhang Fan was either on duty or went to a private hospital for surgery. He didn't meet them all. They were all entertained by Shaohua.

These days, Zhang Fan has time to discuss with Shao Huayi and simply get his friends together for dinner. One by one to pay New Year's greetings, Zhang Fan really can't attend to it!
