Chapter 31 – Everything Is Under Control

“boom.”

Zhou Anan, who was dealing with Zhou Xiaoke’s speech, watched the fiery red car shadow fly into the puddle area under the Jiulin Bridge.

According to the speed of the car, it should have been speeding past, but the Ferrari sports car was stranded.

Stranded.

I’m not a native of Lizhou, so I don’t even know the depth of the puddle under the Jiulin Bridge.

Whenever it rains heavily, the water under the Jiulin Bridge will fill Jinshan Mountain, and the deepest point can reach two meters. Even a Raptor Land Rover can run aground for you, let alone a sports car with an extremely low chassis.

Outlander, too naive.

Almost instantly, most of the sports cars were submerged.

“Hurry up and save people.”

Seeing the Ferrari hood raised to reveal the beauty inside, Zhou Anan quickly pushed Zhou Xiaoke who was opposite him.

The root of everything lies in the beauty who faced the watery sports car with a panicked face.

As long as Zhou Xiaoke saves the other party, he will definitely be able to survive the next prison sentence because of his love for saving others, which can be regarded as repaying the protection of this elementary school classmate.

Everything is under control.

“it is good.”

Before he had time to say anything, Zhou Xiaoke spat out the bones in his mouth and ran out quickly.

Saving people is still an essential homework for loyal people like them.

“Haha, beauty, do you want to help?”

At this time, a Land Rover and a BMW stopped in front of the puddle, and a young man with dyed half-red and half-blue hair got out of the driver’s seat of the Land Rover, and shouted at the beautiful woman in the sports car with a smirk.

The car door continued to open, and four young people got out of the two cars, laughing in unison.

Needless to say, the culprits are these few.

“Asshole, you wait for me.”

Seeing the gangster who forced herself to this road, the young beauty looked at him and shouted angrily.

It’s just that the water spreading into the car is getting bigger and bigger, and the fact that the whole sports car is about to sink into the water makes her a little panicked.

wanted to run out, but there was water all around her, and she couldn’t swim.

Seeing the panicked appearance of the beauty, the young man with red and blue hair waved his hands and laughed.

Before striking up a conversation with the other party, he was ignored by the other party, but now he is as comfortable as he is playing.

“MD, Liu Zhi, you kid, don’t run away.”

Zhou Xiaoke, who originally ran to the edge of the railing to save someone, saw the red-and-blue hair, his eyes immediately turned red, the position of the jumping railing changed instantly, and the whole person rushed towards him like flying.

“I’ll take the exam, Xiao Dasha, let’s go.”

Looking at the flying figure, the red and blue hair scrambled back to the driver’s seat in fright.

This Xiao Dasha is really crazy, isn't he just abducting the other party's little girlfriend, as for such a deep hatred, it is simply unreasonable.

Zhou Anan, who followed and ran out, looked at the figure of his elementary school classmates rushing towards the Land Rover, and his whole body was in Sparta.

Everyone has to face many choices in their life. If you make the right choice, you will become a successful person in the eyes of everyone; if you make a wrong choice, you will be just an ordinary person in the eyes of others.

However, Zhou Anan has never seen such a clear trajectory of fate.

In Zhou Anan's expectation, Zhou Xiaoke rushed directly into the water and rescued the beauty. After that, he could use his life-saving grace to avoid the next thunder strike, dominate Lizhou, and reach the pinnacle of life.

But, what the **** is in front of me.

Originally, in front of Zhou Xiaoke, someone had already paved a road to success for him, but under the influence of old hatred in the past, he suddenly rushed to another bridge that might lead to the abyss.

It's like a rich second generation whose fate has allowed him to live his whole life carefree, but he has to be self-reliant and ends up begging on the street.

MMP, the plot he designed for so long was in vain.

"Your sister."

Looking at Zhou Xiaoke's unrecoverable back, Zhou Anan cursed inwardly, and walked quickly to the bridge above the puddle.

Plan No. 1 failed, so we had to use Plan No. 2 that came to mind temporarily.

At this time, the entire sports car was submerged in the puddle, and more than half of the woman standing on the seat of the sports car was submerged underwater, with a helpless and panicked expression.

Hooked one foot on the concrete pillar of the bridge, and grabbed the iron railing with the other hand, Zhou Anan handed it down: "Hurry up."

No way, Zhou Anan has been a landlubber since he was a child. In his previous life, he was only 27 years old when he was free to go to the swimming pool and learned the dog crawling style, but it can only be regarded as a three-legged cat kung fu.

If the water quality is better, just jump into the water and swim to save the beauty, it will definitely be easier to win the favor of the other party.

Now, we can only depend on God's will, whether Zhou Xiaoke can let Zhou Xiaoke change his original life trajectory, and let him follow his own fate.

"Oh."

Seeing the posture of the boy above flying down from the sky, the woman froze for a moment, and then quickly grabbed the palm that saved her with both hands.

At this time, if you can get out of the water, no straw will be let go.

"Hold on tight."

Holding the woman's white hand, Zhou An'an took a deep breath, looked away from the beautiful scene in the blouse, and pulled up the woman underneath with force.

Arm almost cramped, Zhou Anan didn't expect that the seemingly slender woman was quite heavy. Fortunately, his arm strength has improved recently, otherwise this feat of saving lives would have been blind.

"what."

Yu Xian'er, who rose into the sky, looked at the inconspicuous public face above, but for some reason, he saw the sun's rays from the sweat on the other party's face.

This guy is a bit handsome.

"Grab it well."

After pulling the other party up, Zhou Anan hurriedly used his arms to circle the woman who was still standing still by the bridge.

It's just that in this way, the positions of the two are really indescribable.

Smelling the light fragrance coming from in front of him, Zhou Anan couldn't help but look down a few times.

Beauties these days, why are they dressed so avant-garde?

"what."

Leaning in the boy's arms, Yu Xian'er hurriedly grabbed the railing in front of her.

Before she grasped the railing with both hands, Yu Xian'er, who felt that the strength behind her was empty, screamed in shock.

"It's okay, go up."

Found that his actions were causing trouble,.

It is good to be young, but how can you be impulsive at this time.

If you annoy this beauty with an inexplicable background...

It is definitely not just talking about the forces that can pull out the two major cancers in Lizhou overnight.

However, I have to say that this beauty's figure is really nothing to say, her front is convex and her back is curled up, and she should be slender than ordinary people.

Waiting for the girl to walk out from the gap next to the railing, Zhou Anan subconsciously pulled the hem of the T-shirt, and then stepped out.

"Thank you so much."

Yu Xian'er, who had calmed down, nodded and thanked the other party.

In an instant, her mind recalled the scene where she almost lost weight and fell backwards, which almost made her laugh out loud.

Chapter 32 – Lizhou Still Has Such Expensive Clothes

Chapter 32 Lizhou still has such expensive clothes

"You're welcome, are you okay?"

Shaking the pants wet by the other party, Zhou Anan asked with concern.

As for the idea of asking the other party to pay for a pair of pants, Zhou Anan killed it the moment it appeared.

He is not a bad guy who wants to return favors.

"It's okay, if it weren't for you, I don't know what to do?"

The wet jeans and the hem of the blouse on her feet felt uncomfortable, but Yu Xianer still had a beautiful smile on her face, which made people look like a lady.

“Your clothes are all wet, go back and change quickly, so as not to catch a cold.”

The typhoon has just passed, and the weather is still a bit cool, Zhou Anan kindly reminded me.

He didn't ask the other party's name, and he was too embarrassed to ask directly.

Sometimes it's too obvious not to do good.

Waiting for the other party to repay their kindness, isn't it better to raise conditions like that.

“There is no place to change, I'll go buy one, is there any clothes seller in Hualian?”

Looking at her drenched underwear, Yu Xianer frowned, and then asked.

She doesn't have a place to change clothes. Before she came to Lizhou to play, she didn't think of such a thing.

“have.”

“Then can you accompany me to buy a set?”

“what?”

After listening to the other party's request, Zhou An'an looked at the other party in bewilderment, fully interpreting the bewilderment and stupidity that should be expected at this age.

He is a teenager, keep a low profile.

“My bank card and wallet are in the car, do you see?”

Seeing the other party's puzzled look, Yu Xian'er pointed to the sports car soaked in water and said.

Unknowingly, she had a new liking for the boy in front of her. She was so stupid that she knew that she had never chased a girl before.

“Ah, I see, I'll go shopping with you.”

I was stunned for a while, as if Zhou An'an who had just realized it, nodded in response.

Bringing the beauties through the crowd, Zhou Anan, as a guide, skillfully led the girls to the women's clothing area on the third floor.

Although the clothes on her body were a little messy, Yu Xian'er showed a good upbringing. When she walked to a women's clothing area marked with English letters, she pointed a little: "I didn't expect this small town to have this store. This set, This set, this set, and the set of underwear opposite, take it down for me to try on."

Standing aside, Zhou Anan raised his eyebrows. He didn't seem to remember that Lizhou, a small county, had such high-end women's clothing. He saw that even the price of unlined clothing started from thousands.

After thinking about it for a while, Zhou Anan just remembered that now is the peak moment of Hualian, and it is normal for some big-name women's clothing to settle in.

Presumably, he will move away in the next few years. After all, when he accompanied a certain girl to go shopping in his previous life, he had never seen such a brand of women's clothing, and they were all unremarkable brands.

He has only seen similar brands in Yintai and Wanda City in Wuzhou City.

"How about it?"

While Zhou Anan was in a daze, Yu Xian'er, who came out of the fitting room, turned around and asked the boy next to him with a smile.

"good."

Looking at the girl in a black short skirt suit, Zhou Anan's eyes lit up, and he nodded.

She has the temperament of an office girl, with a good figure and appearance.

"Yes, but it's not very good. I'll change it."

Unsatisfied with the boy's evaluation, Yu Xian'er pouted, turned and walked back to the fitting room.

"What about this set?"

Yu Xian'er, who changed into a white dress, came out and showed it to the boy twice.

"fine."

I have to say that some girls are born to be clothes hangers. Zhou Anan admired the white angel-like beauty and found it very pleasing to the eye.

Compared with a certain fairy sister in his impression, her beauty is not much inferior, and she even surpasses her in stature.

Even in big cities, this is a rare beauty.

Frowning, Yu Xian’er walked into the fitting room again.

Finally, Yu Xian’er, who was wearing a straight waist skirt, tugged the hem of the skirt with dissatisfaction, and walked out of the fitting room.

“very beautiful.”

Inexplicably, Zhou Anan remembered the clothes he had given to a certain girl in his previous life. She had the same figure, but her height was slightly lower, and her appearance was also much lower.

That was a girl he had dreamed of walking into the palace of marriage, and also a girl who he thought was a good match for him, a girl who made him wish to build a castle for her to live in.

When he was giving away the dress, the girl who tried on the dress once told him that she would definitely wear this dress when she invited him to dinner next time.

It’s a pity that the girl with many suitors forgot that promise. After asking Zhou An’an for help next time, she will just wear a simple denim outfit when she treats guests.

In the end, the relationship between the two was too shallow, and he could only watch the other party walk into the castle built by others in the circle of friends and become someone else’s bride.

Hey, if you think about it too much, you will cry.

“Really? That’s what I want.”

Noticing the twinkle in the boy’s eyes, Yu Xian’er didn’t expect the dress she didn’t like to have such an effect, and said to the waiter with satisfaction.

“Okay, cash or card?”

The waitress who was also amazed for a while came forward and asked with a smile, and another waiter thoughtfully went to the fitting room to tidy up the clothes that the other party had changed.

“Swipe.”

Hearing the waiter's question, Zhou Anan, who came back to his senses, quickly took out a wallet from his trouser pocket.

Although he had a thousand cash on him, but considering the price of the clothes here, how could Zhou Anan feel that a few hundred dollars could be spent.

By the way, Yu Xian'er, who was wearing a suit of skirts, went to another not-so-good shoe store to buy a pair of matching low-heeled shoes.

Looking at the list in his hand, Zhou Anan felt a little pain in his heart.

2850+320+1200, it will take him at least two days to earn back.

MMP, why does Lizhou still have such expensive clothes.

Fortunately, I made a little money in this life. If I were an otaku in my previous life, I would be embarrassing every minute.

I hope that the beauty driving the sports car is not a bad girl, otherwise Zhou Anan will definitely not be able to sleep tonight.

"By the way, lend me your mobile phone."

Yu Xian'er, who had changed into dry clothes, walked comfortably on the stairs, thinking of the sports car sunk in the water, and just remembered that she hadn't dealt with it yet.

"Ok."

Turning his head and handing over the mobile phone, he gestured with his right hand in his trouser pocket.

".Okay, I said I'm fine. Okay, that's it, I'll hang up first."

Chatted with the person on the other side of the phone for a few words, Yu Xian'er handed the phone back to the person, and asked by the way: "Have you had lunch, I'm a little hungry."

Chapter 33 – A Little Out Of The Plot

Chapter 33 is a bit out of the plot

After listening to the content of the other party's call, Zhou An'an smiled from the bottom of his heart, and prepared to take the other party to the pedestrian street for dinner.

Everything is under control.

"Hey, An An, where are you going?"

Just as the two walked out of the gate of Hualian, Zhou Anan heard a familiar shout, and turned to look at Zhou Xiaoke who was out of breath: "We are going to the pedestrian street to eat something."

Fuck me, big brother, you ran at the right time, can you be a little longer.

It is too difficult to save you.

"It's just right to eat. I just wasted a KFC meal. I treat you."

Didn't ask where the big beauty came from, Zhou Xiaoke, who felt that he couldn't understand the world of cultural people, said in a big way.

Although I let that guy run away just now, I have let out a lot of pent-up air for a long time, my thoughts are clear, and I am in a good mood.

"Need not."

"OK."

Yu Xian'er wanted to refuse with this kind of Yu Xian'er, who looked like a big boss and didn't want to get in touch, but she didn't expect the boy next to her to agree generously, so she swallowed the next words.

The other party rescued her and even bought her clothes, so they must show some face, right?

Zhou Anan, who was worried that he couldn't change Zhou Xiaoke's fate, was about to introduce the two enthusiastically, only to realize that he didn't know the beauty's name yet.

In his previous life, he only heard a few classmates mention it, and he didn't go into it at all. How could he expect such a thing to come out now.

What's more, it would be too exaggerated to know the other party's name in advance.

"This is my elementary school classmate Zhou Xiaoke. He took me to rescue you when he saw your car fall into the water."

It doesn't matter if you don't know the name, Zhou An'an introduced his elementary school classmates warmly first, and reminded the other party's credit with seven points and three points.

There is no way, the original plot was completely disrupted by Zhou Xiaoke, this idiot, Zhou Anan can only try to deepen the impression of the other party, so that Zhou Xiaoke can escape.

These days, if you are not afraid of your teammates being pigs, you are afraid of your teammates being stupid.

"Hello, my name is Yu Xian."

Nodding with the other party, Yu Xian'er said her own name.

"Hello."

Just a simple eye-catching, Zhou Xiaoke, who had long forgotten the previous rescue incident, enthusiastically led the two of them to the pedestrian street in the next street.

At this time, the newly established pedestrian street has a retro atmosphere, which is quite popular with many merchants. Many high-end restaurants have settled here, which is a world away from the depression a few years later.

The three of them, led by Zhou Xiaoke, walked to the entrance of a restaurant named "Xiaolizhou", greeted the boss, and went to the elegant seat on the second floor by the window.

Antique, but it really has a taste.

During the dinner, Zhou Anan wanted to enliven the atmosphere and increase the friendship between everyone, but found that the beauty and Zhou Xiaoke lacked interest in chatting. Instead, they kept asking him questions, but he himself had to answer each other's questions sentence by sentence.

MMP, this is completely different from what he expected.

"By the way, An An, where are you going to study in college?"

"Deer City."

"I'm studying in Hangzhou, I want to hang out with you when I have time."

"OK."

"Do you have siblings?"

“Does cousin count?”

If Zhou Anan is asked to flirt with a girl, then his words will definitely be the same.

But Zhou An'an was a bit embarrassed to ask Zhou Anan to flirt with this young lady with unknown background.

He is just an ordinary person. Who knows what intrigues are going on in those wealthy families. It is safe to use the ability of the other party to do some private affairs, and try to keep a distance as much as possible.

Sometimes, reality is even more outrageous than TV dramas, just like what happened to a classmate's family that Zhou An'an knew, it's even scarier than the struggle of wealthy families in the great era.

While the three of them chatted happily, time passed unknowingly.

After an unknown amount of time, the old-fashioned cell phone in Zhou An'an's trouser pocket rang. He looked at the unfamiliar number and handed it to the beautiful woman beside him.

“Okay, I'll come down later.”

Talked about the location with the opposite, Yu Xianer smiled and said to the boy opposite: “My brother is here to pick me up, next time I will come to Lizhou to play with you.”

“Okay, I'll treat you to crayfish next time.”

“Then it's settled.”

Eyes narrowed, Yu Xian'er said something with a smile.

While Zhou Xiaoke was chatting with the boss, Zhou Anan sent the beauty to the door. A domineering jeep had already parked by the side of the road, and a burly young man stood beside the car solemnly.

Although Zhou Anan had never been in the army in his previous life, he could feel the military atmosphere of a young man after participating in military training.

Nonsense, which ordinary person stands with his legs together and is still so straight.

Furthermore, the license plate number with red letters on a white background was clearly hanging there, and he was not blind.

In an instant, Zhou Anan thought of the identity of the other party, and easily connected the big event that will happen in the next two days with the young man in front of him.

No way, people are too smart, which is also a kind of mistake.

Secrets must not be leaked, calm down, calm down.

“By the way, my name is Yu Xianer, you can call me Xianer.”

When she was about to walk over, Yu Xian'er said to the boy with a smile, then walked up to the young man, and softly called 'Brother'.

“fine?”

Glancing at the boy not far away, Yu Xiang looked around at the little girls, asked with concern, and instantly changed from an iron-blooded man to a tender little brother.

“It's okay, brother, let's go.”

Knowing the temperament of the second brother, Yu Xian'er was not prepared to introduce the two of them.

Of the peers I met before, which one was not scared away by her second brother.

“It's impolite, your savior, I always want to thank you.”

After saying something about my younger sister, Yu Xiang walked up to the boy, smiled and stretched out his hand: “Hi, my name is Yu Xiang, thank you for saving my sister.”

“You're welcome, other people will help when they see it, I just happen to be at the right time.”

With an innocent smile on his face, Zhou Anan shook hands with the other party. Without the legendary powerful diamond claws, everything was very peaceful.

He shouldn't have the honor to meet those crazy sister-protecting demons in the second episode.

“Remember my number 135*****, if you have any problems in Wuzhou City in the future, just call me.”

Subconsciously, Yu Xiang attributed the other party's kindness for saving his little sister to himself.

Any strange man who wants to get close to the little sister must go through his second brother, including the savior.

“OK.”

Hearing the other party's promise, Zhou An'an subconsciously breathed a sigh of relief.

That is to say, he can use this promise to save Zhou Xiaoke next time, after all, the other party is obviously the leader of the 812 incident.

As for more things, Zhou Anan never thought much about it.

“Brother, let's go.”

Yu Xian'er was very clear about the attitude of the second brother, and hurriedly urged him to get in the car.

In the beauty's smile, the jeep quickly drove away.

Well, things are not going to change, are they?

Chapter 34 – Sister-In-Law

Chapter 34 The sister-in-law madman

Well, things are not going to change, are they?

After seeing off the Yu Xianer brothers and sisters, Zhou Anan rubbed his chin to think about it.

He remembered that in his previous life, he heard a high school classmate from a certain unit talk about it at a party in his previous life. It seemed that a girl with a strong background was frightened a lot, which attracted the opponent's family to take action.

Now Yu Xian'er only damaged a sports car, whether the follow-up will happen as scheduled is a question. After all, without his help in this life, Yu Xian'er would suffer a lot, the difference is still very big.

If there is no follow-up, the two big gangs will continue to harm the people of Lizhou, which is really not good, and may affect his future plans.

Forget it, it's useless to think too much now, I can only wait and see.

Do your best and obey the destiny.

Hmm, I always feel like I forgot something?

“An’an, you didn’t even take your friend’s clothes and bags.”

“Oh.”

Zhou Anan, who returned to the restaurant, saw a bag on the counter, and just now remembered that Yu Xianer didn’t take away the clothes that Yu Xian’er replaced.

Thinking about it, it seems that when the girl’s elder brother came to pick her up, he hadn’t returned the girl’s money for the clothes.

Thousands of dollars, how many days of profit, heartache, heartache so hard to breathe.

Farewell to Zhou Xiaoke, Zhou Anan sent the clothes to the dry cleaner, and then prepared to continue his great business of barbecue stalls and earn back the lost losses.

When the typhoon came, all the tables, chairs and umbrella sheds were put in the borrowed warehouse, and now there are still many things to move out.

“Hey, Aunt Chen, your shop is going to be transferred?”

Looking at the red paper with ‘shop transfer’ pasted on the door of the cake shop, Zhou Anan curiously asked Aunt Chen who was sorting things there.

“Well, there is something at home, I can’t take care of the store, and I want to transfer it to someone else. But don’t worry, I will make an agreement with the person who takes over. In the future, you can still pick up the electricity for your barbecue stall from me.”

After hearing the boy’s question, Chen Yuehua replied with a smile, comforting him by the way.

To prepare to have a second child, there is no need to open this mediocre cake shop. It is more important to cultivate an excellent trumpet.

“Aunt Chen, why don’t you transfer the store to me.”

Zhou Anan, who originally wanted to make a big deal, felt that the location of this shop couldn’t be better, so he happened to take over.

After all, this simple barbecue stall is not decent to sell, and it is different if it has a fixed location. In an instant, it changed from a motley army driven by the industrial and commercial department to a regular army with stores and licenses.

As long as those gangsters don’t come to make trouble, the supper business in this night market is better than mine.

“Okay, you make an offer.”

Didn't doubt the boy's financial resources, Chen Yuehua just froze for a moment, then looked at him with a smile.

If you can make the other party a son-in-law, it doesn't matter if the price is lower.

“How embarrassing, Aunt Chen, you offer a price. I will deal with these counters and refrigerators for you.”

How could Zhou Anan, who was so sophisticated in the world, ask for a price indiscriminately? He directly solved the other party's troubles and waited quietly for the other party to make a price.

The other party is obviously a housewife who is not short of money, how could it be possible to cheat him.

Anyway, if the asking price is high, you can pay it back.

“My annual rent here is 10,000 yuan, and there are still eight months to go, so let me count it as 6,000 yuan. The refrigerator and these counters, tables and chairs are 3,000 yuan. You can count 9,000 yuan and give it to me.”

Very satisfied with the boy's attitude, Chen Yuehua directly calculated a price.

It's not much cheaper, it's a human price.

“Okay, then I will withdraw the money, please accompany me to go through the transfer procedures today.”

Hearing the other party's offer, Zhou An'an found that he had picked up a small bargain, and couldn't wait to transfer the store.

Time doesn't wait, Zhou An'an is going to Lucheng to set up a training department, and he has to prepare for it in the past few days. If he misses the new school season, the loss is not just one or two dollars.

And subletting the shop will allow him to better arrange the next ring.

“It's not good to be so impatient at a young age. Our old Hu and your uncle are both in the institute. It is not easy to go through the formalities.”

Unexpectedly, the little guy was in a hurry, Chen Yuehua sighed, and accompanied him to the industrial and commercial office to complete the transfer procedures.

Because Zhou Anan was under eighteen years old, he could only put the owner of the shop under Wang Rong's name.

Well, Wang Rong has repeated his junior high school for one year and is already eighteen years old.

Originally, this should be the most appropriate place under the name of the father, but Zhou Anan, who knows his father's character well, reckons that the money from the transfer of the store will not be in his hands in the future, so he can only choose to take a risk.

If this risk is unbearable, then this friend Wang Rong can be deleted from the friend list.

"From now on, the store will be mine?"

After signing several names in a daze, Wang Rong, who walked out of the industrial and commercial office, asked a friend with a smirk.

"Yeah, do you want to treat me to celebrate?"

Patting the other party's shoulder, Zhou An'an said narrowly.

"Heh, I'm the boss, so you're ashamed to let me treat you."

"hehe."

After playing around for a few words, Zhou Anan and the two quickly rushed back to the barbecue stand to help other students who came to tidy up the tables and chairs.

Because the store was transferred, after Chen Yuehua took away some necessities, Zhou Anan directed everyone to transfer some things to the store.

After that, Zhou Anan went to the second-hand market to buy a reasonably priced freezer, which was specially designed to store some perishable vegetables and meat.

Once done like this, the original low-end barbecue stalls will instantly become high-end and elegant, and they will definitely sell for a good price.

Yes, only fools have been doing barbecue stalls. Now, taking advantage of the hot market, it is a fortune to make a fortune.

"Report."

"Come in, have you found it?"

Sitting behind the desk, Yu Xiang's eyes were a little cold.

“Found it, Miss’s distress is related to the gang in Lizhou City.”

“That is to say, if the boy hadn’t shot, the little girl might have been drowned?”

After listening to the complete process of the incident, Yu Xiang only felt that his anger rose infinitely.

Thinking of a little sister who can’t swim, going through such a process is simply too dangerous. If he is not careful, his sister will disappear in this world.

“Ahem, that puddle isn’t very deep, so it won’t be that serious.”

As a subordinate, Shi Jiang was a little speechless for this sister-protecting maniac. He didn’t want his fearless boss to bring things to the sky.

Before, he followed the opponent from the field army to the garrison army.

Once again, he is about to go from the garrison to the logistics with this big brother. It is really miserable.

“Hmph, those moths in Lizhou are simply lawless, and let the social cancer harm the common people. Chief of Staff, I think we need to give the common people a blue sky.”

Not caring about the persuasion of his subordinates, Yu Xiang made a decision without hesitation.

If something really happened to the younger sister, not to mention that his family would not forgive him, he would never feel at ease in his life.

For wicked people, we must never forgive them lightly, especially those who hurt my little sister, no matter who they are.

“Yes, I’ll make a battle plan right away.”

Seeing that the boss has made a decision, Shi Jiang can only obey and try to minimize the impact.

No matter how bad it is, he can’t be mixed into the logistics, otherwise he, the former chief of staff of the field army, would be really ashamed.

Chapter 35 – First Step

Chapter 35 First Step

On the evening of August 11th, Lihou City, where the typhoon passed, was breezy, and many citizens took a walk in the park.

“coming?”

When Zhou Anan, who was running in the morning, came to the section of Lihou Bridge, he looked at the crowd gathered at the old station and the vehicles that had been stopped, sighed in his heart, and avoided it far away.

I didn't pay much attention to it at ordinary times. Look at the people gathered at the gate of the old station now, who would dare to provoke them.

“Whoa, whoa, whoa”

While Zhou Anan was standing in the distance looking at the scenery, the sound of the police car sounded long overdue.

In order to avoid harming the fish in the pond, Zhou Anan ran a few hundred meters to the side, away from the danger zone.

If you accidentally offend those irrational gangsters, it would be too uneconomical.

This day is destined not to be peaceful.

“closed?!”

On the morning of the 12th, Zhou An'an, who couldn't get through to Zhou Xiaoke's phone, came to Taoyuan Internet Cafe and found that the door of the Internet Cafe was closed, and his heart felt a little hazy.

Taoyuan Internet Cafe is the best Internet cafe nearby, how could it be closed for no reason.

It seems that Zhou Xiaoke still cannot escape the fate of being caught.

It's time to use the previous favor, Zhou Anan picked up the phone and dialed the number saved not long ago.

“This kid has a bit of a taste.”

Hung up the phone, Yu Xiang showed a smile on the corner of his mouth, and then dialed an intercom call.

Because he just announced the transfer of the barbecue stall, people came to inquire one after another.

I have to say that Zhou Anan's barbecue stall is located at the end of the night market, and the geographical location is absolutely superior. It was only because of the harassment of the two gangs that people were discouraged.

Now that there are no two major gangs, the bosses who had failed before all wanted to regroup, but it turned out that someone had already made the first move and made a lot of fame.

Due to the combination of takeaway and supper, the profit of the barbecue stand has reached 2,500 a day. Zhou Anan directly hung up the phone for the quotation below 100,000.

Think about it with your brain, 25000 a day, 60,000 to 70,000 a month, do you have the nerve to offer a transfer price of 100,000?

Ahem, that's what Zhou Anan thinks anyway.

"I'm going to Lucheng, everyone has a day off tomorrow."

After taking a break from the stall early, Zhou Anan said to Wang Rong and the others.

"Is there a problem?"

Seeing that his good friend was putting aside his good business, Wang Rong asked with concern.

"It's okay, I'll go to school first."

There is no need to reveal his intentions, Zhou Anan replied perfunctorily.

After getting on the last bus passing through Lucheng, Zhou Anan shifted his seat a few times in pain.

There is no way, there is no high-speed rail nowadays, and there are no trains passing by in Lucheng. The shuttle bus from Lizhou to Lucheng also runs twice a day. Zhou An'an can only catch the intercity bus that gets off halfway. more than an hour's drive.

It just hurts.

After taking a look, Zhou Anan obediently closed her eyes and went to sleep.

"The one in Lucheng got off the bus."

After waking up several times in a daze, Zhou Anan finally saw the shadow of the ancient Great Wall in Lucheng. Looking at his phone, the time was already 2:30 in the morning.

Getting out of the car, Zhou Anan found that it was located in the suburbs of Lucheng. Fortunately, a taxi was coming not far away, and he waved his hand to stop it.

“Master, go back to Pulu.”

The scene where the beautiful woman snatches the car did not appear, and Zhou Anan, who was a little disappointed, looked at the dark street and felt that he needed to burn incense to increase his luck.

Getting off the bus on Huipu Road, Zhou Anan didn't look for any hotel, but found an Internet cafe with ease and went in.

Opened a ten-yuan overnight card and slept comfortably. Zhou Anan woke up and checked the time. It was only seven fifty.

Getting off the plane and returning the card, Zhou Anan looked at the familiar street, walked a few steps to the right, and filled his stomach at the breakfast shop.

“This one is nice, don't you want to rent it?”

“This one is okay, it's too small.”

“The location of this house is a bit bad.”

“this home.”

One morning, Zhou Anan visited several streets and recorded three nice houses in his small book.

The house I like the most is undoubtedly the house opposite the fast food restaurant in front of Haizhou University. It used to be an old state-owned shopping mall with three floors, and several shops on the first floor are still vacant.

The abandoned shopping mall is adjacent to Huipu Primary School. It is only about 30 steps away from the small road, and it is only more than 200 meters away from Haizhou Middle School.

It's a pity that the area is too large, not counting the three vacant shops on the first floor. The second and third floors combined have a total area of more than 2,000 square meters. With the current market price, the rent is at least more than 100,000 a year, and the state-owned assets are naturally impossible to rent separately, and decoration is also a troublesome matter. Zhou Anan, who is short of funds, has no choice but to give up.

The second is a large-scale newly-built private house, which is next to Haizhou Middle School, covering an area of more than 150 square meters. Zhou Anan roughly estimated that it would be suitable to rent three floors.

For this, we need to negotiate the price.

As for the last option, Zhou Anan didn't really want to choose, after all, the house was too old, it would be troublesome to decorate, and there was not enough time.

"Auntie, can you lower it a bit?"

"Young students, the price I offer is already very low. Look at our location, next to Haizhou Middle School, and it's only a hundred meters away from Huipu Primary School by walking a small road. It's the most suitable for you to hold training classes."

"The location is good, but your price is a bit expensive, and I can't use the first floor. How about you rent the first floor to someone else?"

"No, no, no, if you want to rent, you have to rent from the first floor to the fourth floor. How about this, I will lower the rent for you by another two thousand, twenty-eight thousand, and you must rent the first floor together."

"Look at this, from the first floor to the fourth floor, let's give a middle price, 25,000, how about it? If it doesn't work, I'll look elsewhere."

Zhou Anan also has a basis for saying this price.

Although this house is next to Huipu Middle School, the location is not good for opening a shop.

You must know that the current Haizhou Middle School has its own small shop, and the spending power outside the school is simply not enough. As for the flow of other people, it can't compare to Huipu Middle Road, which is 200 meters away.

Otherwise, this landlord would not have thought of transferring the first-floor supermarket he opened. Obviously, the business is not good.

I have to say that the current house price and rent are very low. If 10 years later, the rent of this house will at least double.

This is also Zhou Anan's confidence.
