Chapter 36 – Invite The Lady To Dinner

Chapter 36 Invite Miss to Dinner

“Twenty-six thousand.”

Hearing the price offered by the younger brother, the landlord returned it directly.

Twenty-five thousand yuan is actually quite enough. The supermarket she runs only earns six to seven thousand yuan a year. This is because of their own house.

“Okay, as for the lease period, it starts on September 1st, and these days in August are considered as the renovation period for me.”

Not in the mood to bargain for a thousand dollars, Zhou Anan directly agreed.

Didn't expect the other party to be so forthright, the landlord smiled and praised the other party, she originally thought about sending more than one month's renovation period.

“Then let's sign the contract.”

Signed the rental contract, and agreed to pay 10,000 in cash first, and the remaining 10,000 at the end of June. Both parties expressed their satisfaction.

The landlord aunt said that the sky is falling, the original income of the first floor is only 78000 years, and if the second floor to the fourth floor are separated, the rent can only be about 8000 years. Now it's all right, not only the first to fourth floors are rented out at one time, but the rent is more than 10,000 yuan for nothing, which is comparable to the income of her and her husband for a year, how can I be dissatisfied.

And Zhou Anan is also very satisfied. This price is completely lower than his original idea, which greatly reduces the cost of his training department.

With such an area, it would have taken about four or five years for him to open a training class in his previous life to have such a scale, but now he has achieved it in one step.

After the contract was settled, Zhou Anan took the rental contract and drove to the Industrial and Commercial Bureau by car.

Nowadays, tutoring classes and training departments have just emerged, and the Education Bureau has not set up a card management tutoring institution. It only needs to file with the Industrial and Commercial Bureau and apply for a business license.

Of course, in the long run, it is necessary to go to the Education Bureau to apply for a school license.

There is no electronic facial recognition system. Zhou Anan, who is familiar with the process of applying for a license, used Wang Rong's ID card to register a business license in an open manner. Children under the age of 18 cannot afford to be hurt.

There is no "at most once" organization integration. Zhou Anan spent more than an hour running up and down the industrial and commercial bureau to get the basic procedures done, and then it will take about ten days to wait for the business license to be issued.

"Sister Zhu, please take care of me in the future. If you are free, can I treat you to dinner and thank you."

After receiving the approved documents, Zhou Anan smiled and said to the young lady he just met.

To be able to complete the basic documents so quickly, in addition to Zhou Anan's previous life experience, it is also thanks to this enthusiastic young lady.

There are people in the court who are good at handling things. Zhu Huihui, who just graduated and entered the business system, is really warm-hearted. She ran up and down with him several times, which really saved a lot of unnecessary trouble.

"Okay, let's leave a number for each other, and I'll call you after get off work."

Zhu Huihui still had a crush on the young boy with calm eyes, otherwise she wouldn't have helped him run for so long even if she was bored in the office.

At such a young age, he has such an idea to start his own business. He is a good young man. Unfortunately, he is only 19 years old according to his ID card, which is a bit too young. Hey

"goodbye."

Looking at the name 'Wang Rong' left on the other party's phone, Zhou An'an sighed helplessly.

Wait until December next year, and the business license must be transferred back as soon as possible.

Leaving the Industrial and Commercial Bureau, Zhou Anan went to find a reliable decoration company next to Haizhou Building, and took people to the rental house for on-the-spot inspection.

“How about this, you come up with a construction plan as soon as possible, and I have to rush back to Wuzhou tonight.”

“no problem.”

At any rate, he is a person who earns thousands of yuan a day. Zhou Anan took the designer to look at the house, and then asked him to go back and get the design drawings.

Honestly speaking, the renovation and decoration of this newly built house does not have much technical content. The second to fourth floors are all partitioned by partition walls, and the original structure basically does not need to be changed.

All you need to do is to fix the floor tiles, renovate the walls, and simply remodel the first floor.

If it's in Lizhou's hometown, Zhou An'an can just find a construction team to get it done.

It's just that he is not familiar with the place of life in Lucheng, so Zhou An'an can only pay a little more to find a reassuring decoration company, so as not to be cheated too hard.

Zhou Anan, who was pressed for time, took another taxi to Lucheng Road to find out the prices of tables, chairs and office supplies.

“Okay, let's see each other in Chonghe.”

Receiving a call from the young lady, Zhou Anan put down the stationery rack in his hand, greeted the shop owner, and went out to call Chonghemmen.

Today's beautiful young ladies have not had the vulgarity of putting on makeup for half an hour and making the man wait for more than half an hour. Zhou An'an only walked around Chonghemmen for about ten minutes before seeing a young lady in a blue dress.

“Have you been waiting long?”

Going home from get off work, she changed her clothes. Zhu Huihui, who was dating a man for the first time, had no experience at all. She was afraid of making the other party wait too long, so she rushed out without even putting on much makeup.

“No, I just arrived too. I see a western restaurant has just opened there, do you want to try it?”

Looking at the beautiful young lady's beautiful figure that was previously covered by the uniform, Zhou Anan smiled and made a suggestion.

When eating with a woman, it is most taboo to ask the other party what to eat, and the answer will definitely be "anything" or "anything". When you choose a restaurant, you will get "it doesn't look good". Negative of 'not too fond of'.

If you accidentally get angry, the girl's impression of you will plummet after that, and you may even say goodbye directly.

Zhou Anan, who has learned from the past in his previous life, naturally would not make such a stupid mistake. Anyway, as long as he chooses a high-end place, whether the food is good or not is second to girls.

"OK."

Hearing the boy's suggestion, Zhu Huihui felt that the boy was very tasteful, and her mood improved instantly.

Angel Coffee is located on the third floor of the newly built Chonghemen Plaza. The environment is petty bourgeoisie, and the price is naturally a bit expensive.

Zhou An'an still remembers that after a female classmate came here to spend once, she showed off for half a semester.

Now that I think about it, it's a bit cute.

To be honest, the per capita consumption of a meal is more than 200, which is indeed a bit high for the current economic level, let alone for college students who still get pocket money from their parents every month.

In the past four years of college, Zhou Anan, who was an otaku, had never even held a girl's hand, so naturally he would not come to this rich place to spend money. That is to say, a few years after graduation, Zhou Anan revisited the old place where the tutoring institution had been scaled up, and had a meal here with a certain elementary school girl who was seven or eight years younger.

"Should the steak be well-done or medium-rare? Medium-rare is more tender."

When ordering food, Zhou Anan helped the other party choose a bit, seeing the other party's curious look.

"Then it's half-familiar."

Zhu Huihui, who had never been to such a place when she was studying in college, was a little embarrassed. After hearing the boy's thoughtful question, she chose one according to the other party's wishes.

"Two medium-rare steaks, plus an ice cream"

After ordering the staple food, he ordered a bunch of non-staple food for the young lady. Zhou Anan carefully looked at the young lady opposite.

In terms of appearance, if you change to the standard of 90 points for a certain fairy sister, the young lady who wears glasses can count as 70 points.

In general, the standard is about 72 points, which can be regarded as the standard line for the general public to consider a beautiful woman.

If it were him in his previous life, Zhou Anan felt that it would be good to find a girl with such good looks, gentle personality, and stable job as his wife.

Chapter 37 – Or I Will Eat Some

Chapter 37 How about I eat a little too

"How did you come up with the idea of running a training department?"

While eating dessert, Zhu Huihui opened the topic with a smile.

She found that this enterprising boy was a bit stupid, and he would not take the initiative to talk about topics that girls were interested in.

It's the first time I don't know the other party, I'm a little lucky.

"I will study at Haizhou College in the next four years. I happen to be majoring in teacher training, so I will apply what I have learned."

Of course, Zhou Anan would not say that it was because he had a basket of high school entrance examination questions in his head and wanted to turn them into vulgar money, but expressed it with the thinking of a motivated young man.

Although she doesn't have any special thoughts about this young lady, Zhou An'an still doesn't mind a little more favors. After all, she will be in Haizhou for four years, and there may be places where she will trouble her in the future.

Networks are not created out of thin air.

“You think so long-term, unlike me, who came here casually after four years of university. After graduation, my mother secretly applied for an exam. I accidentally passed the exam. I had to go back to my hometown in Haizhou to work. It’s like being muddled.”

Hearing the boy’s rather autonomous thoughts, Zhu Huihui’s eyes lit up, and then she complained about herself.

Being a civil servant, all the good ideas she had when she was in school were gone one by one, and the unchanging job content made her feel boring.

Otherwise, she wouldn’t take the initiative to help the young boy run the process because she was curious about the young boy’s behavior.

Zhou Anan didn’t know whether to roll his eyes or something about Miss Sister’s complaint.

This young lady who passed the exam by accident even complained about her unsatisfactory life. If the post-90s who are struggling to participate in the exam hear it, they will definitely vomit blood for a few minutes.

It is important to know that after this year, all cities in Jiangxi Province will cancel the internal examination system one after another, and all public examinations will be included in the establishment. The operation of internal personnel will become more and more difficult.

A few years later, it will change its appearance and replace the concept with talent introduction, so that some ‘talents’ can avoid fierce public examinations and directly enter the establishment.

And Zhou Anan suffered from the public exam. In the year closest to the official establishment, his total score was only 0.01 points away from the last place in the admission. Since then, he has never stepped into the examination room of the establishment.

While complaining in his heart, Zhou Anan still listened to the other party’s complaints with a smile on his face, and responded with a sentence from time to time, being a perfect listener.

“Be careful, I’ll cut it for you.”

When the steak was served, Zhou Anan carefully helped the other party cut it into small pieces, and then ate his own portion.

Women are preferred, men need to take the initiative, otherwise it would be unrefined to let the beauty cut the steak hard.

No way, there were too many occasions like this in the previous life, and I got used to the movements.

“thanks.”

Didn't expect the boy to be so careful, Zhu Huihui couldn't help lamenting the age gap between the two again in her heart.

There is a difference of three years, so it doesn't seem too big.

“Sister Hui, do you know that uncle?”

Zhou Anan, who didn't pay much attention to flirting with girls, looked in all directions, and soon noticed the uncle not far away, and asked curiously.

The main reason is that the other party's actions are a bit obvious, which stupid X would just sit here and read the newspaper, and peep over from time to time.

Reminiscent of the unscrupulous uncle reported by some newspapers, Zhou Anan subconsciously wanted to call the police.

It was the actions of these unscrupulous uncles that caused Zhou Anan to be suspected of having bad intentions when he invited his little crush to dinner in his previous life.

“Which? Dad.”

Following the boy's gaze, Zhu Huihui subconsciously yelled out when she saw the face of the middle-aged uncle.

Blushing, Zhu Huihui got up quickly, walked over quickly, opened her hands to stop her father who was about to run away: “Dad, do you respect me or not?”

“Respect, how can I disrespect you. This is not my coincidence. I happened to be walking here. I happened to be going to buy books at Xinhua Bookstore. I saw a person who looked like you, so I followed you. I really didn't want to follow you purely. Daughter, you have to trust Dad.”

Seeing her daughter's shame and indignation, Zhu Qing quickly explained.

Daughter is the treasure in his palm, how can he let her misunderstand randomly.

Not to mention that after the other party has a boyfriend, if he doesn't coax him a little bit, he won't go home.

“Dad, you are like this”

Listening to her father’s stumbling explanation, Zhu Huihui didn’t believe it at all.

What, she just came out to have a casual meal, and she would be followed by her father, she was so embarrassing.

“Sister Hui, is this uncle? Uncle, hello, I am a friend of Sister Hui, surnamed Wang, Wang Rong.”

Just as Zhu Huihui was about to question her father, a gentle male voice intervened.

For a successful man, timely rescue of girls is an essential skill.

Don’t need to know too much, Zhou An’an can easily guess the current situation.

After graduating and entering the unit with a stable job, Zhu Huihui’s parents must have considered her daughter’s lifelong affairs.

It is estimated that Zhu Huihui, who graduated from a big city, is very resistant to this situation, and she is also extremely resistant to some blind date arrangements.

Of course, with Zhu Huihui’s gentle personality, she will not object to the introduction of her parents and relatives, but the result is usually nothing.

Zhou Anan has encountered this kind of conflict between the ideas of big cities and small cities in his previous life, and it is even very common.

According to this situation similar to the plot of the TV series, Zhu Huihui will have a big estrangement with her parents if she disagrees with her next word, and she will even do some irrational things in a fit of anger.

At this time, how could Zhou Anan, who had no other thoughts, turn a blind eye.

If it was purely for the sake of picking up girls, then Zhou Anan would definitely be happy to see the result, but he is a man with a conscience.

“Hello, hello, I’m Huihui’s father. I saw Huihui eating here just now, so I came over to have a look. You young people are talking, I’m leaving first.”

Seeing the mature young man in front of him with manners and manners, Zhu Qingna’s affection was greatly increased, and he took the opportunity to leave.

If you don’t leave now, when will you wait.

It is estimated that when I go back today, my daughter and my wife will have something to say.

Hey, I mainly blame myself for not being cautious in doing things. Just wear a pair of sunglasses when you come here.

“Uncle, you haven’t eaten dinner yet, let’s have some together.”

As a junior, Zhou Anan tried to persuade him to stay with him in a polite manner.

This kind of homely talk, he often deals with students’ parents, he said it a lot, and he said it subconsciously, and the other party would not agree to it anyway.

“Well, I just didn’t eat dinner, why don’t I have some?”

Hearing what the boy said, Zhu Qing’s mind turned, and he began to speak according to the other party’s words, but his eyes kept paying attention to the changes in his daughter’s expression, ready to run away at any time.

Chapter 38 – Desperate Chen Qi

Chapter 38 The Desperate Chen Qi

“is it alright?”

After a while of anger, Zhu Huihui, who heard that her father hadn’t eaten yet, looked at his father’s appearance and looked at the boy with some embarrassment.

“What does it matter, it’s just a matter of having an extra set of tableware.”

In my heart, I complained about this uncle who has no self-discipline of elders, and the smile on Zhou Anan’s face did not diminish.

What a shame, I would have been rude if I knew it earlier.

Eating with the young lady, father and daughter, seems to be like the scene where the father-in-law inspects the son-in-law, and it feels embarrassing to think about it.

Just saying something is like splashing water, Zhou Anan can only knock down his teeth and swallow it in his stomach.

“What does uncle eat?”

After sitting down, Zhou Anan asked with a smile.

Since everything is like this, Zhou Anan should be more polite.

“Just bring me a plate of fried noodles.”

Having seen the menu before, Zhu Qing chose a dish with an appropriate price.

If he can invite his daughter to come here for dinner, the other party's conditions should be acceptable.

The future son-in-law's money is his daughter's money, so save as much as you can.

“Okay, waiter.”

Pressed the call button, Zhou Anan talked to the waiter, and then looked at the father and daughter sitting on the opposite side in embarrassment.

“By the way, Xiao Rong, I can call you that.”

After taking a sip of water, the wily Zhu Qing opened up the topic.

“Yes, uncle, whatever you want.”

“Xiao Rong, where are you from?”

“Wuzhou Lizhou.”

“Oh, it's not far away. How many brothers and sisters are there in your family?”

“dad”

Just when Zhu Qing wanted to continue getting to know each other, the blushing Zhu Huihui immediately interrupted the conversation.

Is there any mistake? She just met the boy today, and her father interrogated him about his family situation like this. He really thought he was a blind date.

“Oh, don't talk about this. Xiaorong, how did you meet our Huihui?”

Seeing her daughter's shame and annoyance, Zhu Qing quickly changed the subject.

These days, worrying about my daughter is tiring.

“Dad, if you do this again, I'm going home.”

I didn't expect my father to ask so persistently, Zhu Huihui said angrily.

“It’s okay, Huihui and I met when she was working. I’m going to register for the business license of the training department today.”

Briefly introduced how the two met, and Zhou Anan, who introduced himself as a college student by the way, wanted to extinguish the uncle’s gossip fire.

It’s not like she didn’t have a blind date in her previous life, and this routine is very skillful.

“The training department, it’s not bad. It’s very popular recently. My younger sister’s daughter is in the third grade of elementary school, and she was sent to the training class by my younger sister. The market is huge.”

Unexpectedly, the other party was a young talent who started his own business, Zhu Qing’s eyes lit up all of a sudden.

As for the identity of a freshman, he subconsciously ignored it.

Female junior, holding a gold brick.

What is the situation? Did this uncle pay attention to the wrong focus?

Zhou Anan looked at the opposite uncle talking eloquently, and found that he couldn’t keep up with the rhythm.

He specifically emphasized his age just now, just to save the other party from bringing him and his daughter together, but the other party didn’t care at all. He was so anxious about his daughter’s marriage.

Under Zhu’s father’s forced awkward chat, the original ordinary date was deviated from the direction of a blind date. Fortunately, after the fried noodles came, Zhu’s father calmed down.

After her father finished eating, Zhu Huihui and the boy opposite smiled, and forced her father to leave.

Today, it is really embarrassing.

“Okay, I’ll come over and take a look.”

After sending off the young lady, sister, father and daughter, Zhou Anan strolled around the square, and then received a call from the decoration company.

When he rushed to the decoration company, Zhou Anan took a look at the design drawings. It was simple and neat, and it was similar to what he expected, so he decided on the plan.

After some haggling, finally under the pressure of Zhou Anan, who knew the price of the decoration materials, the decoration company signed the contract at a price of 45,000 yuan, which also included an additional fire escape staircase.

Because the main groups we are facing are primary school students and junior high school students, we still need to pay attention to safety issues. This is also what Zhou Anan had previously greeted the landlord in advance. It seems that the landlord is quite happy to hear that.

Originally, the decoration company wanted to reduce the price by 5,000 yuan on the condition of purchasing office materials uniformly, but Zhou Anan, who knew the depth of the water inside, decided to buy it himself.

After all, the office supplies he wants to buy are not high-end luxury goods, and he can completely control the budget by himself.

After paying a deposit of 10,000 yuan in advance, Zhou Anan, who still had a balance of 3,000 yuan in his bank card, got on the bus back to Lizhou.

Running all the way, when I returned to Lizhou, it was already one o'clock in the morning.

"Uncle Chen, are you sure you want to transfer?"

At noon the next day, the takeaway order hadn't arrived yet. Zhou Anan couldn't help frowning when he heard the news that Chen Qi wanted to transfer to a barbecue stall.

He had a simple understanding before that Chen Qi came to help him because he was running a restaurant at a loss. The transfer fee that Zhou Anan expected was not low, and the other party might not be able to bear it.

To be honest, the price of this barbecue stall cannot be lowered.

Not to mention the fixed profit of nearly 1,000 per day for night snacks, even the takeaway market he has worked hard to open up, the daily profit has already exceeded 1,500, and the total daily profit is basically more than 2,500.

In order to eliminate the impact of the off-season on supper, Zhou Anan tried his best to open up a stable profit point, just to sell it at a good price when it was transferred.

Nowadays, in this era when housing prices are still below 2,000, it is not an exaggeration to call this barbecue stall the hen that lays golden eggs.

If it weren't for going to college and having a longer-term plan, Zhou An'an would be a little reluctant to sell the barbecue stall.

Of course, it's just a thought.

"yes."

After a few days of work experience, Chen Qi, who had previously opened a restaurant, knew how profitable this barbecue stall was.

Just the takeaway for lunch and dinner is enough to make his heart beat, not to mention the big head of supper.

During the break yesterday, Chen Qi and his wife discussed all night, and even made a decision to transfer the barbecue stall.

After this village, there are not so good shops.

"Then how much are you going to bid?"

Without saying anything polite, Zhou Anan asked the price directly.

He and this Uncle Chen have only known each other for a few days, and the relationship is not very close, so there is no need to talk about friendship.

Price is king.

Talking about feelings hurts money.

"Twenty-two hundred and fifty thousand."

Chen Qi, who originally wanted to bargain, looked at the calm eyes of the young man in front of him, gritted his teeth, and said the highest price he and his wife could afford.

As a man with no income, and relying on his wife's salary to support his children, Chen Qi felt that he couldn't hold his head up at home.

He really needs this career too much, and he must not miss the opportunity to prove that he is the pillar of the family.

Mature takeaway mechanism, as well as a fixed source of customers, everything made Chen Qi crazy.

As long as the current business is maintained, the monthly profit of the barbecue stand will be at least 30,000 yuan, 250,000 yuan, and it will take a little more than a year to make it back.

At present, is there such a good business?

Before anyone else noticed how profitable the barbecue stand was, Chen Qi had to take it down in one fell swoop, so as not to have long nights and dreams.

Chapter 39 – Pay Wages

Chapter 39 Payroll

“It is good.”

Hearing the price offered by the other party, Zhou Anan raised his eyebrows and nodded in agreement with the other party's offer.

He did not expect that this chef who had failed in business would have such courage.

Originally, he thought that he could just transfer it before the end of the month, and the price would be around 200,000 yuan. Anyway, the account entry these days will not be much less.

It's just that Zhou An'an knows that the capital market is unpredictable, and people who know the goods may not be able to charge such a high price. It is the most beneficial to sell early.

“Then when will I?”

Seeing that the other party agreed, Chen Qi breathed a sigh of relief, and was a little embarrassed to ask something.

Chen Qi, who is just a chef now, can't hold his head up in front of his wife's family. Now that he sees an opportunity, he can't wait to hold it in his hand immediately.

“When will you transfer the money, and when will the barbecue stand be handed over to you.”

Knowing what the other party meant, Zhou Anan said it clearly.

“Okay, I will transfer the money to you tomorrow.”

When the little boss said this, Chen Qi had a solid idea in his heart. He wished he could transfer it over immediately and let his wife see what a profitable business is.

At first, when he talked to his wife about the profit of this barbecue stall, he still didn't believe it. Thanks to his niece who also worked part-time here and knew about one day's turnover, he moved his wife.

It's a pity that their family doesn't have that much savings, and they still need to go to their parents and wife's natal family to raise some money.

Still, he believes it's all worth it.

It was still a brisk business day, Zhou Anan made an exception and asked Chen Qi to stay until the end of the supper.

In front of Chen Qi, Zhou Anan calculated the profit, which was not bad, because there was no business yesterday, the takeaway profit reached a new high of 1785 yuan, and the supper was as usual, 996 yuan, a total of 2781 yuan.

Looking at the glaring profit figures, Chen Qi's heart was filled with enthusiasm, and he made a decision that he would sell the barbecue stall even if he wanted to.

"An'an, are you really going to transfer the barbecue stall?"

After Zhou Anan took a shower, Wang Rong asked with some uncertainty.

In his opinion, how can such a profitable business be given to others.

One mobile phone a day is worth 30 mobile phones a month.

"Don't worry, I told Uncle Chen that he will still need your help after the transfer, and the salary will remain the same."

Regarding this little friend, Zhou Anan knew what he was thinking, and smiled and comforted him.

"No, forget it, you can decide for yourself."

After more than a month, Wang Rong's perception of this classmate has changed completely, and he has no right to help the other party decide, so he swallowed his own words of persuasion.

"Do well in the future."

Patting the other party's shoulder, Zhou Anan said with a smile.

Early the next morning, at just half past seven, Zhou Anan was woken up by the sound of the phone.

Washing his face, brushing his teeth, and tidying up his clothes, Zhou Anan happily walked to the ICBC branch on Nanyuan Road.

From a distance, Zhou An'an, who was eating a steamed bun, saw Chen Qi and a young woman standing there watching.

"Uncle Chen."

"Boss Zhou, you are here."

Seeing Zhou Anan approaching, Chen Qi hastily greeted him with a smile.

The transfer was not confirmed, so he felt uneasy.

Who knows if someone will suddenly offer a higher price, he has nothing to count on.

"Then let's go in."

Nodding with the woman who was obviously Chen Qi's wife, Zhou Anan said with a smile.

"it is good."

Several people entered the ICBC outlet that had just opened. After a series of operations, Zhou Anan looked at the 270,000 balance displayed on the machine and smiled with satisfaction.

After working hard for more than a month, the first pot of gold was finally settled.

Originally, the contract was supposed to be signed before the money transfer, but Chen Qi strongly demanded the money transfer first, so Zhou An'an had no choice but to resign himself to it.

Well, can I buy a 250,000 TX Hong Kong stock in the future, and wait to be automatically upgraded to a billionaire after more than ten years?

This, it seems a bit reckless to open a training institution.

Knowing that the barbecue stall can transfer such a high fee, Zhou Anan didn't want to go to the training class, and the real exam questions in his mind were wasted.

You can become a billionaire lying down, so what do you need to work hard for?

Things have come to this point, there is no turning back, I can only hope that the training class will make profits as soon as possible, accumulate funds, and enter the market as soon as possible.

The current price of TX stock is one day, and entering the market a year later may be a difference of several million.

Suddenly sad, Zhou An'an and Chen Qi signed the contract, and then through the relationship of the little uncle, the transfer of the business license was completed. Everything went so smoothly.

During the period, Zhou Anan also received two calls inquiring about the transfer of the barbecue stall, and one of them even offered a price of 150,000 yuan, which made him and Chen Qi secretly rejoice.

One was thankful for the difference in the quotation, and saved a lot of time by selling it quickly; the other was amazed by the soaring quotation, and bought it in time.

Fortunately, Zhou Anan once again sighed at his recklessness.

What was originally placed in front of him was a highway that easily reached billionaires, but he himself turned onto a country road when he was on the highway intersection, and he needed to go around to find the highway intersection.

This is fate.

"Uncle Chen, the barbecue stand will be yours from now on."

"Thank you, Boss Zhou, for taking care of me."

Received the transfer contract and business license, Chen Qi was very excited.

Starting today, the profit of the barbecue stand will belong to him.

After the barbecue stall changed hands, Zhou Anan called together eleven classmates including Wang Rong and Ying Chengcheng. During this period, several classmates couldn't stand the job of delivering food on a hot day and resigned.

"Let me tell you, from now on, the boss of the barbecue stand will be Boss Chen."

"what"

Zhou Anan just finished announcing the news, and the students present all started discussing in astonishment.

Will their wages be reduced?

"Okay, okay, let me finish first."

Clapping hands to stop everyone from thinking wildly, Zhou Anan first explained what happened, and then explained that everyone can continue to do summer jobs here for more than half a month, and then took out a small bag, the red tickets exposed inside attracted caught everyone's eyes.

Salary payment has always been the favorite thing for employees.

"Wang Rong, one thousand."

Because he had already prepaid more than 2,000 yuan to buy a mobile phone for Wang Rong, Zhou Anan just made up the remaining 800 yuan to 1,000 out of the friendship of his classmates.

"Xu Wenwen, six hundred."

"Ying Chengcheng, six hundred."

"Chen Qiulu, six hundred."

"Zhu Pengfei, nine hundred and sixty-two."

Except for Xu Wenwen, a few girls who don't deliver meals are a little lower, and the rest of the boys who deliver meals are generally more than 900.

This is only half a month's salary. If you work for a full month, it will be more than 1400 yuan, which is a very valuable summer job.

Received a large amount of transfer fees, Zhou Anan also generously gave the students some salary increases.

The students who got their wages were all excitedly counting their first labor income, and several tanned boys were tearful and couldn't help it.

Hard work pays off, they can make money on their own when they grow up so big.

"Okay, everyone will be Boss Chen's employees from now on. Boss Chen, would you like to tell me something?"

After everyone's emotions were brewed, Zhou Anan smiled and said to Chen Qi who was beside him.

"No, no, everyone, work hard in the future. I will definitely not lose the salary that Boss Zhou set before."

Waved his hand, Chen Qi just said something briefly, and let everyone disperse.

As for recruiting new long-term takeaway staff in the future, that is another matter.

Chapter 40 – What Do You Do With The Money?

Chapter 40 What do you do with the money?

“Then let me tell you the precautions for cooking crayfish”

After the wages were paid, Zhou Anan, who had settled the matter of the barbecue stall, began to work on the last day here.

The other party offered a big price, so of course Zhou Anan had to provide a complete service. After all, the taste of crayfish is the key pillar of the barbecue stall.

The taste of crayfish depends entirely on the soup base.

This kind of formula is not a secret, and Zhou Anan didn't have any idea of self-preservation, so he made it clear to the other party without reservation.

Even, Zhou Anan continued to be a guest chef for an afternoon, teaching Chen Qi and his wife how to cook crayfish.

Taking a huge sum of money from others, you must always provide good service, so as not to ruin your own brand.

A steady stream of orders came in, and Chen Qi and his wife, who were frowning at first, gradually began to smile.

“I'm really bothering Boss Zhou.”

Recorded down all the main points in a small notebook, Chen Qi said gratefully after taking a break.

Whether you can stand up and be the host at home depends entirely on whether the barbecue stall makes money.

Now it seems that the situation is very good.

“polite.”

Talking politely with Boss Chen, Zhou Anan saw a figure under the streetlight not far away, and walked over.

“Xiaoke, are you alright?”

Seeing Zhou Xiaoke with a lot of stubble on his face, Zhou Anan showed a gratified smile.

Although it looks a bit decadent, the mental outlook of the whole person is still good.

Going to a detention center for a few days is not the same concept as going to a prison for a few years of reformation. The latter has a complete impact on an ordinary person.

At least for now, it seems that this childhood friend who helped him has changed his fate.

Favors are repaid.

“An’an, thanks.”

Opened his mouth, Zhou Xiaoke finally uttered four heavy words.

After being arrested, Zhou Xiaoke originally thought that he would spend the best years of his youth in the prison, but he didn’t expect that he would be taken out alone the next day.

The indifferent eyes of that young officer let Zhou Xiaoke, who had been rampant before, know that he was totally vulnerable to certain forces.

Fortunately, it was his elementary school classmate who saved him from prison, although he didn’t know why the elementary school classmate had such great energy.

The matter of scholars is really beyond his comprehension.

The grace of reinvention is a thousand words, but he doesn’t know what to say.

“Say something polite, we are classmates.”

Slightly padded his feet and patted the other person’s shoulder, Zhou An’an broke the dull atmosphere.

He did not expect that that person would actually tell Zhou Xiaoke about his favor.

That’s fine, he’s not some unsung hero who does good deeds without leaving his name.

“I won’t say anything else, if you need anything in the future, please come to me.”

Zhou Xiaoke didn’t know how to repay this life-saving favor.

After all, he and Zhou Anan didn’t have a deep friendship before, but he took the initiative to build a good relationship with him.

God bless, his previous unintentional actions made the other party use such a big relationship.

With such a great favor, what else is there to say? In the future, if the other party has anything to do, he will go through fire and water without hesitation.

In the rivers and lakes, this is called life and death brothers.

“Don’t be so heavy, by the way, what are you going to do in the future?”

Seeing that the other party was so solemn, Zhou Anan didn’t know what to do, so he casually asked the other party about his future plans.

In other words, he is just paying back favors. In addition to the smooth operation of his barbecue stall, and the fact that he can transfer such a high price now, the other party also has credit.

It’s not that no one opened a night snack shop at the intersection of the night market before, and even got a business license, but a bunch of people with colorful hair sat there chatting for a long time, and no customer dared to visit.

Anyone with a discerning eye can see that, apart from his barbecue stall, no one can operate supper within the scope of this night market.

Only this one, no semicolons.

For this reason, Zhou Anan also owes a lot of favors.

“In the future, I don’t know. The Dragon Club is gone, and the Internet cafe and game hall have also been closed down. By the way, An An, you read a lot, give me pointers.”

Touching his hair in embarrassment, Zhou Xiaoke said with some embarrassment.

Since dropping out of junior high school to hang out in the society, Zhou Xiaoke has never done business except for fighting and taking care of his younger brother.

Even the previous Internet cafes and game halls can only be said to be the industry of gangs.

Unexpectedly, a sentence he said casually found another responsibility for himself. Zhou Anan rubbed his fingers secretly, and after a moment of contemplation, he came up with an immature idea: “Why don’t you open a mahjong parlor? Internet cafes and games Hall should not do it.”

According to the memory of the previous life, Internet cafes and game halls will be regarded as profiteering industries in the next few years, but there are too many tricks in it. Zhou Xiaoke, a kid with a record, is better off opening a mahjong parlor safely.

As for the highly respected security companies in various rebirth novels, they are a bit too high-end, and they are not something that today's punks can play with.

At first, Zhou Xiaoke had never been a soldier, and he didn't have any comrade-in-arms to help, so it was a joke to turn those gangsters into security guards.

Secondly, this industry still needs a little energy, and Zhou An'an thinks he doesn't have such energy.

"Okay, I still have some money, it shouldn't be a problem to open a mahjong parlor."

After listening to the other party's suggestion, Zhou Xiaoke thought about it and found that the mahjong parlor business, which has no technical content, is quite suitable.

Farewell to elementary school classmates, Zhou Anan, who has six figures in savings, feels that the night is very beautiful. It would be perfect if there are a few more stars.

"An An, you have made so much money, what do you want to do in the future?"

"me?"

Lying on the bed, Zhou Anan fell into deep thought when he heard Wang Rong's question.

After getting rich, shouldn't you chase girls to make up for those obsessions in previous lives.

For example, the beauty stars who are active on the big and small screens, there are fairy sisters, leader sisters, queen empresses, goddesses of Taiwan and Island

For example, a girl with a good figure who passed by in a previous life, that girl who wants to enter the marriage hall

For example, the girl who had a crush on him in college, the girl who once tricked him into borrowing hundreds of thousands, but indirectly pushed him towards success.

For example, when I was in college, the boys in the dormitory recognized the girl with the best figure, and I didn't know how many times I met in my dreams

For example, when she was working as a temporary worker, she was known as the host of the most beautiful TV station in Lizhou

There are too many, and there are too many regrets to make up for after making money.

“I want to be a person without regrets.”

In the final analysis, Zhou Anan summed up a sentence.

“Nervous.”

Contemptuously, Wang Rong went back to his room to sleep.

“Excuse me, is this Zhou Anan?”

Early in the morning, Zhou Anan, who originally wanted to sleep in, was woken up by the ringing of her mobile phone.

Looking at the unfamiliar number, Zhou Anan asked suspiciously: “I am, who are you looking for?”

“I’m Tong Ziqian from the Municipal Office, a former colleague of your little uncle Cao Si’an. I don’t know if you are free now, but I would like to treat you to a meal?”

The phone was connected, and Tong Ziqian, who had received instructions from his boss, wiped his sweat secretly, and asked softly.

“Right. Do you have anything to do?”

At first, he thought that the other party had made a wrong call, but when he heard the other party mention his little uncle Cao Si’an, Zhou An’an stopped the hand that hung up the phone and asked suspiciously.

It is run by the city government, why invite him to dinner?

Nothing to show courteousness, either * or steal.

It won’t be related to his barbecue stall, it’s troublesome.

It’s not possible, a city government will take a fancy to his small stall?

“Nothing, just want to treat you to a meal, do you have time at noon?”

“have.”

“Okay, then I will pick you up at ten o’clock, is there any problem?”

“No problem, I live at No. , Lane 2, Nanyuan Road.”

Damn it, it's so grand, there must be a conspiracy.

"Row."

Putting down the microphone, Tong Ziqian smiled and said to the boss behind the desk:
"The county magistrate, we have already contacted you."

"Okay, then arrange a quiet place."

Nodded, the young man who seemed to be only in his thirties said with a smile.
