Chapter 41 – Today'S Young Thieves And Thieves

Chapter 41 The current young thief

“OK.”

Hung up the phone, Zhou Anan, who was full of doubts, resisted the urge to call the little uncle, got up and took a shower.

The little uncle did not report to his father, which is already very face-saving. If there are other things to bother him, especially if it involves the staff of the city government, then maybe he must be educated.

Everything, let's take a look first.

It's a big deal, don't show your face anymore, and borrow the power of that Yu family.

Sorting out the 12-year senior high school entrance examination paper questions, Zhou Anan was thinking about the purpose of the city government staff member, and the time soon reached ten o'clock.

Five minutes before ten o'clock, Zhou Anan heard the sound of a horn outside the window, so he got up and went downstairs.

A black Santana, Zhou Anan looked at the license plate, but didn't see anything special, shook hands with the middle-aged man who got off the driver's seat, chatted for a few words, and got in the car.

It looks like he is running errands.

Looking at the middle-aged man who took the initiative to drive, Zhou Anan came to a conclusion.

“Actually, it is a colleague of mine who invited you today. I hope you don't blame me for not explaining it earlier.”

The car stopped in the open space in front of Jiangnan Yuzhuang, and Tong Ziqian apologized.

“Oh.”

Raising his eyebrows, Zhou Anan, who had already guessed, nodded, but had to pretend to be a young man in a daze.

It looks like a barbecue stall, so it shouldn't alarm such a person.

With the mood of opening a treasure chest, Zhou Anan followed the other party into a box in a corner.

The moment he opened the door, seeing the young man coming up, Zhou Anan realized that he had really won the lottery.

It is rare for a small Lizhou to have a big man. Zhou An'an has naturally studied it a little bit, and occasionally mentions it when bragging with his classmates, and it is one of the topics of conversation after dinner.

It's just, what does this big man want from him?

Zhou An'an, who didn't feel anything scary at first, felt a little uneasy, and didn't know what the other party wanted from him.

You know, when he had the best time in his previous life, he was acquainted with a classmate who was an official deputy director.

On weekdays, bragging is bragging, but seeing a real person, it's really a bit hypocritical.

"Looks like you know me?"

Noticing the boy's expression, Zhou Huxiang asked in surprise, and then felt a little relieved.

Ordinary teenagers don't know how to read Lizhou news, but the one in front of him is not an ordinary teenager, otherwise it wouldn't be worth seeing him in person.

"I saw you on the Lizhou News."

Not knowing what polite words to say, Zhou Anan, who was a little confused, found an excuse. After all, the executive deputy magistrate who is currently in charge of environmental development still often appears on TV news.

No problem.

"I didn't expect you to pay attention to the news at a young age. You are indeed young and ambitious."

After hearing the reason of the young man, Zhou Huxiang smiled and invited him to take a seat.

At this time, there is no need to worry about these things.

“The county magistrate has won the prize.”

Based on the principle of coping, Zhou Anan spoke cautiously.

MMP, he will be proud of you, a big man who will be selected into the national cabinet in the future, for such praise.

In the future, at the class reunion, you can point to the famous people in the news and brag about it, and it will definitely be the focus of everyone’s attention.

“You must be very surprised, why did I invite you here. I just said straight to the point, I want you to introduce Chief Yu.”

Seeing the other party’s hidden defenses under the surface, Zhou Huxiang frowned slightly, and then opened his mouth to explain his purpose.

Originally, he wanted to get close to the other party, but now that he saw the other party’s young and mature appearance, it was not easy to fool him, so he might as well be more direct and win the other party’s favor.

The appearance of the other party is too fake.

Are all the teenagers nowadays so smart?

“Mr. Yu?”

In an instant, the image of a certain young man overlapped in his mind, and Zhou Anan subconsciously argued: “I don’t know Mr. Yu.”

About which Chief Yu is Chief Yu, Zhou An’an expressed his confusion.

With a lot of thoughts in his mind, Zhou An’an, who had read a lot of officialdom novels, immediately thought of the other party’s purpose.

However, he and Miss Yu’s brother only met once, so they are not familiar at all.

What a beautiful misunderstanding.

The other party will not become angry because of this, so let him not get along in Lizhou.

Well, the other party will be a big shot in the cabinet in the future, so he shouldn't be so narrow-minded.

"Yu Xiang is the garrison officer of our Wuzhou. Didn't you save his sister two days ago? It doesn't matter. I just want you to make a phone call and let me talk to him."

As if he had anticipated what the other party would say, Zhou Huxiang smiled and said his request.

The young man pretended to be tender in front of him, even a little tender.

"Well, Xian'er's elder brother turns out to be Chief Yu. It's not a problem, but I want to ask Brother Yu's opinion."

Subconsciously, Zhou Anan changed the name of Chief Yu.

It is understandable for Zhou Anan to take advantage of such a big boss at the end of his rise.

He didn't expect that Yu Xiang's poker face would have such a strong background, and he would be in a high position at such a young age, a proper second-generation child.

However, the courageous and the timid will be starved to death, and the situation in the next ten years will change by heart. Of course, Zhou Anan knows how much help some people may be to him.

If he establishes a relationship with the other party at the beginning of his infancy, then his training department will be opened throughout Jiang Province in the future, and there will be no problem at all.

Thinking about the beautiful scene in the future, Zhou Anan pressed the phone button a little faster.

As for the other party's purpose, Zhou An'an felt that it would be better for him to hide behind quietly with his small body, and don't even inquire about it.

Safety first.

"Doo Doo."

In front of Mr. Zhou, Zhou Anan dialed the phone.

"Hey, boy, what are you calling me for?"

Sitting in the car, Yu Xiang asked carelessly when he received a call from the boy.

“Brother Yu, have you eaten yet?”

“.”

“Tell me, what do you want from me?”

“Brother Yu, the county magistrate of Lizhou would like to chat with you a few words, what do you think?”

When Zhou Anan called out this title, Zhou Anan felt a little dry.

He had never done such a thing as a fox pretending to be a tiger in his previous life, so he was a little flustered.

“Zhou Huxiang? He’s next to you? Let him answer the phone.”

Instantly guessing who it was, Yu Xiang showed a meaningful smile on his face.

“Zhou Zhi County, here it is.”

“Thank you, hello, is this Chief Yu?”

Chapter 42 – Kang Shuaifu In 2005 Was Shocking

Chapter 42 Kang Shuaifu in 2005 was shocked

While the two bosses were talking on the phone, Zhou Anan sat quietly in the teahouse in the corner, poured a cup of tea that had been made before, and smelled the faint fragrance of tea, but his thoughts went somewhere.

The phone hung up quickly, and Zhou Anan forgot the tacit conversation between the two bosses.

The leaders above will play tricks, speak so cryptically, and no one is listening.

“Let the waiter serve.”

Zhou Huxiang, who got some information, was very satisfied, and waved his hand for the waiter to serve.

During the meeting, as the leader, Zhou Anan, the county magistrate, kindly cared about the family situation and study situation of ordinary people Zhou Anan, and finally encouraged the young man.

In a harmonious atmosphere, everyone ended the meeting perfectly.

Getting out of the car, Zhou Anan looked at the two extra private numbers on his phone and felt that the trip was worthwhile.

No one would have imagined that the county magistrate named Zhou An'an would leave a strong mark on Lizhou's political arena. Zhou An'an felt that in the next few years, he could walk sideways, lie down, and fly away in Lizhou .

Ahem, it's all fantasy.

"Hey, life is really lonely like snow."

After sighing, Zhou Anan, who had nothing to do, went to inspect his first barbecue stall, and sighed again seeing the booming business.

Since then, the first investment since rebirth has been successful, and it has nothing to do with him.

Eating the donated skewers, Zhou Anan felt a slight sense of loss.

Did not go home to hang out with my parents, Zhou Anan, who is still a 'summer worker', stepped on the car to Lucheng again.

Renovation is in progress, and Zhou Anan has to make up the most important part, teachers, before school starts in September.

The development prospects of a training department, one of the most important factors lies in the strength of teachers.

When the training department was first set up in the previous life, Zhou Anan was a math teacher by himself, and he had to teach twelve classes a day on weekends. The sourness was really unforgettable.

Until he became regular, Zhou An'an would also lead one or two VIP classes. When he said that he would manage and teach by himself, the parents would trust him a little more.

This time, Zhou Anan, who directly owns more than 600 square meters and nearly 20 classrooms, decided to change the model.

Only by changing the model can he quickly open up the situation, otherwise the rise of TX stock will wait for no one.

Thinking of the TX stock that is about to fly into the sky with its wings, Zhou Anan, who is determined to become a billionaire lying down, feels a little anxious.

“Hello.”

After getting off the intercity bus, he immediately took a taxi to the second campus of Haizhou College. Zhou Anan met the vice president of the student union who was dressed in Adidas.

The family is superior, maybe a little conceited, this is his first impression of this old senior.

Of course, Zhou Anan will never admit that the other party is just a little bit more handsome than himself.

“Hello.”

After shaking hands, Lu Ming carefully looked at this elementary school boy wearing Metersbonwe.

Neat and capable, with such ideas at a young age, he looks like a character, you can make friends with him.

After the simple meeting ceremony, the two came to the cold drink shop outside the school gate, talked to each other about their friendship with classmates, and then went straight to the topic.

“According to your requirements, there is no problem in recruiting 15 students with corresponding majors.”

After listening to the other party, Lu Ming definitely asked a question.

He didn't expect that he could make such a friend on the school forum.

“I still have to trouble the seniors. I don't know how much it will cost to recruit people?”

Seeing that the other party was so straightforward, Zhou Anan asked tacitly.

Some things are better said at the front.

“Well, it takes time to contact classmates, and the fee is three to five hundred.”

This junior was indeed on the road, and Lu Ming showed a satisfied smile on his face.

“How can it be done, the senior has worked so hard, please accept this little fee.”

Handed over the 1,000 yuan prepared in advance, how could Zhou Anan give it according to the price the other party said.

The Internet is not good these days, and there are very few people visiting the school forums, otherwise Zhou Anan would not have found the way of the president of the student union and the vice president of the school student union.

In the university, the student union is the boss, and it is easy to recruit fifteen part-time college students with corresponding majors.

You know, the monthly salary he offers is definitely higher than the light work and study program arranged by the school, but there is no channel.

Even if he posts on the campus network forum, it probably won't be very convincing. Someone must come forward that the students can trust.

"Student, you are welcome."

After accepting the labor fee from the other party, Lu Ming smiled even more.

On the road, really too on the road.

Originally, he accepted the other party's invitation out of selfishness, with a base salary of 600 a month plus class fees, such a high monthly salary was enough for him to arrange it as a welfare for some girls in the student union, so as to buy people's hearts.

What's more, there is a thousand favor fee from the other party, Lu Ming expressed his satisfaction.

"Then trouble the senior."

After the two separated happily, Zhou Anan, who had a heart to worry about, took the bus to the old campus.

Get off at the gate of the old campus, walk a hundred meters along Chicheng Road, and see the training department under renovation.

The outer walls of the first to fourth floors have been replaced with conspicuous blue and white colors, and the glass of each window is also equipped with buckles to prevent students from opening it.

Through the open window, you can see that many people are working in full swing. The efficiency of this decoration company is really high.

Without disturbing other people, Zhou Anan took a general look, did not go in to absorb any bad air, turned and left.

Coming to Lucheng Road again, Zhou Anan, who had plenty of time, compared the past one by one, and finally chose a table and chair specialty store with reasonable price and good quality.

After some haggling, Zhou Anan bought a hundred sets at a price of forty-five for each set, and added another hundred yuan to take advantage of a few blackboards.

Placing a deposit to let the other party deliver the goods to the door on time, Zhou Anan went to look at the desks and chairs again. According to the previous decoration layout, he spent 3,000 to buy six sets of four-seater square desks.

All of a sudden, Qiqianliu was gone, and Zhou Anan, who felt that he was spending too much money, went to a small shop on the side of the road and bought a bottle of 2005 mineral water.

Since he came, Zhou Anan didn't want to make a few more trips. He walked around and bought all the office supplies he could think of, plus a Fuji Xerox printer, and he was gone again.

A bottle of 2005 Kangshuaifu iced tea can't comfort Zhou Anan's excited heart. The money these days is really too wasteful.

Knowing this earlier, why did he bother to open this training department, and he has already invested more than 90,000 yuan in it before it even started business.

If it is replaced by TX Hong Kong stocks, it will be more than 30 million in more than ten years.

My heart hurts, it really hurts too much.

Chapter 43 – Actually My Name Is Not Wang Rong

“Student, it's done.”

Just as Zhou Anan was looking sadly at the surface of East Lake, he received a call from his senior.

This efficiency is too fast, will it be a waste of money?

Zhou Anan has reservations about the executive ability of this unfamiliar senior.

"The senior is bothering you. If it weren't for the senior, there would be no such fast efficiency."

Feeling uneasy, Zhou Anan praised the other party without hesitation.

Whether it works or not, the greatest help is the other party's willingness to help.

Having this guide who has been around for many years is enough to save him a lot of trouble.

"Oh, you're welcome. I will follow your request and ask them to come to you for an interview tomorrow night. If you are not satisfied, I will help you find another one."

Lu Ming really wanted to make friends with this high-spirited and wealthy elementary school boy.

Although there were some selfishness among these fifteen people, most of the people he selected were excellent students with their majors.

Well, a girl who can be selected into the student council can't be excellent.

"Okay, please excuse me senior. When are you free, I will treat you to dinner."

Hearing what the other party said, Zhou Anan breathed a sigh of relief.

At least give him a chance to interview, it won't be too bad, this senior is still very reliable.

"It's too polite, let's get together after your interview tomorrow."

"It is good."

Hanging up the phone, Zhou An'an felt that this senior was really gentle and not at all pretentious.

Such a character should do well in college, and there may be places where he can rely on the other party in the future.

No way, Zhou Anan still needs to rely on the relationship of the other party to break into the student union, so it will be much easier to recruit people in the future.

Thinking about the future plan for a moment, Zhou Anan got up and walked towards the Chonghe Gate next to her when she received a call from the young lady.

At the same place, on a second date with the young lady, Zhou An'an looked at her elegant attire, and felt inexplicably calm.

Wearing a blue sleeveless dress, the two tender white arms showed the fairness of the skin. The indescribable part below the neck is about a little bit lower between the first capital letter and the third capital letter in English. The curve at the back is not bad, not worse than some female personal trainers who keep fit all year round, and it is just right with a good appearance.

Unlike some small videos a few years later, with constant beautification and post-editing, the real person and the video version are completely two people.

Having dinner with such a natural beauty always makes people feel better.

Different from the extravagant dinner last time, this time under Zhu Huihui's strong request, Zhou An'an could only accept the other party's request for a treat, and went to a 'Xiang Piao Piao Mala Tang'.

Eat Malatang, this means something.

Recalling those jokes from the previous life, Zhou Anan looked at the beautiful young lady with interest.

No, how could his ideological awareness be so poor, it doesn't meet his setting as a gentleman at all.

Talking about life with a girl is an attitude, pay attention to your love and I will, and you must not cheat people.

"Can you eat spicy food?"

When the two of them wandered to Quanjingyang Road, it was dark, and Zhu Huihui, who walked into the store, asked shyly.

Just made a decision. She doesn't know if the other party will eat spicy food. If she forces the other party, it will leave a bad impression.

"Eatable."

Under such circumstances, how could Zhou Anan say that he would not eat.

Man, there are times when you must never say no.

For Mala Tang, he can eat it for hours.

"That's good. Boss, two, generally spicy."

Seeing that the boy can eat spicy food, Zhu Huihui discovered another commonality between the two, and she felt much happier.

It's a pity that there is a three-year age difference between the two, otherwise she wouldn't be bothered by her parents' nagging now.

Hey, I'm a little worried.

Although the boy looks very mature, the age on the ID card is only nineteen years old after all.

Female junior, holding gold bricks, this sentence is not a problem for people in their 20s and 30s, after all, they have reached the legal age.

You can fall in love with boys under the age of 20, and there is always a feeling of old cows eating young grass.

"I'll help you."

After the two sat down, Zhou Anan skillfully scalded their bowls and chopsticks with boiling water.

This habit is not learned from anywhere.

When he was a temporary worker in the Industrial and Commercial Bureau in his previous life, he once inspected the site of a tableware disinfection company. After Zhou Anan saw the messy scene, he developed a habit.

Although the scientists say it has no effect, at least give him a psychological comfort.

Since then, except for the necessary entertainment, Zhou An'an has chosen restaurants that have their own disinfection cabinets when dining out. Therefore, in his previous life, he basically went to old restaurants where he got to know each other well and could get a discount by brushing his face. .

"Did you learn this from Shencheng?"

Seeing the boy's skillful movements, Zhu Huihui asked curiously with sparkling eyes.

Ordinary people don't pay that much attention. Zhu Huihui, who was studying in Shanghai, once saw her roommate from Shanghai have this habit.

She found that every time she was with a boy, she would discover a lot of secrets, but there were more secrets that attracted her to discover and understand.

"No, I saw it on TV."

Speaking of this reason, Zhou Anan blushed and was not out of breath.

After a few years, many people will have this habit.

“It does feel a lot cleaner.”

Picking up the cup and looking at it, Zhu Huihui felt that she had learned a new skill.

While the two were chatting, various side dishes were served separately, and they were hot to eat.

To be honest, Zhou An'an didn't really feel much about Malatang.

In his previous life, when he was financially affluent, Zhou Anan paid more attention to health preservation in his daily life because he communicated a lot with his younger sisters who had just grown up, and rarely ate such spicy food.

Furthermore, because he didn't know how to control his diet when he was young, Zhou Anan's stomach is not good. Whenever he eats cold or spicy food, he will have diarrhea, and he gradually quit.

In order to have dinner with my young lady, Zhou Anan felt that she had sacrificed a lot.

“By the way, how long are you here this time?”

While eating Malatang, she gently fanned her mouth with her hands, Zhu Huihui still did not forget to chat with the boy.

University is in Shanghai, and the girlfriends I know are all over the world. After finally meeting someone who can chat without any scruples, Zhu Huihui still has a lot to say.

“Two days. I will go back to Lizhou tomorrow after finishing my work, and come back in a few days.”

Eating Mala Tang, Zhou Anan felt his whole body temperature rise.

Young body is good, eating these spicy foods will not cause any discomfort at all.

“Then let's climb the Great Wall together tomorrow.”

Taking advantage of her excitement, Zhu Huihui said the usual embarrassing things very naturally.

“Row.”

Zhou Anan never refuses invitations from beauties.

Miss sisters in this era still have too little awareness of prevention, and they don't have the slightest sense of accomplishment at all.

In order to avoid unnecessary troubles in the future, Zhou Anan, a gentleman, decided to confess leniently: "Sister Hui, there is actually one thing, I lied to you."

"What's up?"

Zhu Huihui, who was biting a bunch of shiitake mushrooms, stared at the other party and asked in a daze.

"Actually, my name is not Wang Rong."

Faced with such innocent eyes, Zhou Anan decided to tell the cruel truth.

(end of this chapter)

Chapter 44 – We Can Still Be Friends Later

Chapter 44 can still be friends

"Actually, my name is not Wang Rong."

Faced with such innocent eyes, Zhou Anan decided to tell the cruel truth.

He can use Wang Rong's ID card to run the training department, but in daily life, it is impossible to use Wang Rong's identity to handle the affairs of the training department, especially the recruitment.

This layer of identity will be revealed sooner or later. It is better to talk about it while the two are still friends, so that they will not become enemies in the future.

As an uncle, Zhou An'an could feel the other party's vague affection for him.

"What?"

After listening to the boy's words, Zhu Huihui looked confused, completely unaware of the other party's identity.

"This is my ID card. I used my friend's ID card to register for the training department because I was under 18 years old."

Taking out the ID card from the wallet in his trouser pocket and handing it over, Zhou Anan explained.

“That is to say, your name is Zhou Anan, and you are only seventeen years old this year?”

After carefully reading the information on the ID card, Zhu Huihui stared at the other party with wide eyes.

What the * is this? She is only seventeen years old, but she pretends to be a nineteen-year-old to lie to her. The problem is that she still can't see it.

The other party is so mature, how could it be possible that he is under the age of eighteen?

“sorry.”

Seeing the information contained in the other party's eyes, Zhou An'an said with some embarrassment.

To be honest, he really didn't intend to deceive the other party.

It's just that the young lady showed affection so much. Zhou Anan felt that it was necessary to purify the relationship between the two.

Although his mental age is in his thirties, and he still looks at young girls when facing the other party, but his current physical age is only seventeen years old, which makes no sense.

He doesn't mind having a relationship that doesn't aim at marriage, but the other party is obviously going for marriage, which is embarrassing.

“Is there anyone else who lied to me?”

Picking up a bunch of tofu and taking a bite, Zhu Huihui asked calmly.

“No, absolutely no.”

Listening to the other party's calm words, Zhou An'an had a bad feeling.

Woman, beneath the calm is always a volcano waiting to erupt.

“Puff, it's just an ID card, what a big deal.”

When the boy was really embarrassed, Zhu Huihui laughed, covered her eyes and laughed so much that tears fell into the bowl gently.

“Aren't you angry?”

This is the first time this kind of thing happened, Zhou Anan was still a little uncertain.

The heart of a woman, the needle of the sea, no matter how solemn it is.

“What is there to be angry, come, tell me”

Taking the initiative to change the topic, Zhu Huihui smiled and asked about the other party’s interesting stories.

After eating a hot and spicy meal of Malatang for nearly an hour, Zhou Anan gradually let go of his uneasy heart, and it seemed that it was not as serious as imagined.

The wind is blowing at night, and the sultry weather can’t stop the tourists.

Zhou Anan accompanied the young lady for a walk on the sidewalk beside the East Lake, chatting with innocent gossip, but made the young lady laugh from time to time.

No way, I have too many skills in teasing girls, this habit is a bit hard to change.

“See you tomorrow.”

“See you tomorrow.”

Send the young lady downstairs, Zhou Anan waited for the other party to go upstairs, then turned and left.

Beside the window in the aisle on the second floor, a pair of bright eyes looked at the figure who disappeared on the corner of the street, wiped away the tears from the corners of his eyes, and changed the note name on the phone to ‘little brother’ by the way.

As a man with a six-figure savings, Zhou Anan will naturally not be nestled in an Internet cafe like last time, not to mention that he will go hiking with his young lady tomorrow morning, so he has to pay attention to his image.

Still returning to Chonghemen Square, Zhou Anan came to the newly built Jinjiang Inn, booked a single room, and swiped Wang Rong’s ID card.

These days, being under the age of 18 is also a pain.

Too young is also a mistake.

“Tsk tsk.”

After taking a shower, Zhou Anan looked at the small business card stuffed in through the crack of the door, couldn't help but comment on the quality of the cover, and then threw it into the trash can.

Standing on the edge of the glass window, looking at the night scene composed of strings of lights below, Zhou Anan felt a little proud, but also a little apprehensive.

The reborn people strategize, and the enemy is wiped out with a snap of their fingers. That is the plot of the novel.

Spending a lot of money on the training department, Zhou Anan knew that he could make money, but it was a long process.

If you are not careful, the chance of becoming a billionaire will be gone.

"Hey, it's better to dream."

Putting aside the fantasy of being a billionaire, Zhou Anan lay on the bed and quickly fell asleep.

Early in the morning, Zhou An'an, whose biological clock was set, woke up before the alarm went off, and the sun hadn't gone to work yet.

Walking slowly along the edge of the East Lake for two laps, Zhou Anan seized the time and arrived in front of the Range Rover at 6:20.

Zhou Anan, who originally arrived ten minutes earlier, had just stood still for a minute when he saw a delicate beauty in a white sports suit walking over.

"It's so early, have you been waiting for a long time?"

Thought it was ten minutes early, but unexpectedly saw the boy there, Zhu Huihui felt a pain in her heart.

If only I were two years younger, that would be great.

"No, just arrived."

Zhou Anan, who was very innocent, didn't notice the strange thoughts of the young lady, and the two walked up the stairs together while gossiping.

The stairs on the Range Rover Gate are still a bit high. Zhou Anan, who insists on exercising on weekdays, is fine, but Zhu Huihui is a little panting halfway up.

After pondering for 0.05 seconds, Zhou An'an stretched out his hand to the slightly bent young lady.

Looking at the hand in front of her, Zhu Huihui was slightly taken aback, then smiled and held the other hand.

Supporting each other, or under the pull of Zhou Anan, the two finally set foot on the door of the Range Rover.

When both feet stepped on the last step, Zhou Anan quietly let go of his hand.

Today's Lucheng Ancient City Wall starts charging only after eight o'clock, and the Range Rover doors that haven't been installed with copper doors are open to welcome tourists. Zhou An'an thinks it's good to come here to exercise in the morning.

If you have to pay 65 yuan for tickets every few years, it would be a bit inappropriate.

Standing on the tower, at a glance, most of Lucheng can be seen in a panoramic view, and the scenery is beautiful.

"Let's continue."

After a short break, the two continued to climb.

On a new step, Zhou Anan once again extended the hand of friendship.

"You have great strength."

Coming to the highest point of this section of the ancient city wall, Zhu Huihui, who was standing on the attic, looked at the slightly sweating boy and said enviously.

Well, it seems that I will strengthen my training in the future.

"No way, it's natural."

Stretching, Zhou Anan found that the short sleeves he bought just a few days ago were a little tight at the elbows, and he seemed to have grown taller.

"Ha ha."

Hearing the boy's straightforward answer, Zhu Huihui covered her mouth and laughed.

"Laugh louder, like me, ah."

After finishing speaking, Zhou Anan took a deep breath and shouted towards the silent forest in the distance.

"what"

Looking at the boy's unrestrained appearance, Zhu Huihui followed his example and covered his mouth with both hands and shouted.

"Can be louder."

Looking at the protruding hills that the young lady leaned over, Zhou Anan said with a smile.

"what"

Regrouping, Zhu Huihui increased the decibel and let out the suffocation in her chest.

At that moment, bound by the world, she felt an unspeakable joy.

Unfortunately, thinking of the boy's age, Zhu Huihui no longer had any happy mood in her heart, but she still had a smile on her face: "An'an, we will be good friends in the future."

"It must be."

Looking at the sincere eyes of the young lady, Zhou Anan nodded firmly, as if he heard something.

"Then let's pull the hook."

Stretching out her right hand, Zhu Huihui said with a smile.

"it is good."

Pulling the hook with the other party, Zhou An'an felt a little disappointed.

In the summer of this year, he passed by a girl who was suitable to be his wife.

Chapter 45 – Recruitment Should Have A Sense Of Ceremony

Chapter 45 Recruitment must have a sense of ceremony

Everyone will encounter many kinds of people and things in their life, some are happy, some are not, but whether they are happy or not, life still has to go on.

Coming down from Wangjiangmen, the two had breakfast together, and then parted ways.

“Hi everyone, let me introduce myself first. My surname is Zhou, Zhou Anan, and I will soon be your boss”

In a small classroom belonging to the student union of the second campus of Haizhou College, Zhou An'an was not shy in the face of fifteen young girls, and talked freely.

I don't know if it's because of President Lu's preference, but more than half of the 15 girls who came to apply this time can be regarded as little beauties in the eyes of ordinary people, and two of them are quite outstanding, compared to young ladies It is not too much to give up.

The third-year Chinese major, who has long legs and looks at C, can already reach the edge of 80.

The rate of turning heads of men walking on the street is at least 80%, which is much better than those Internet celebrities who have plastic surgery many years later.

College students in small cities also have beautiful women, especially girls majoring in teachers, who have their own temperament.

In short, in terms of appearance, Zhou Anan is quite satisfied.

As for professional issues, Zhou Anan distributed a primary school graduation paper and a senior high school entrance examination paper to everyone, and took the quiz in class.

Zhou Anan had mentioned the matter of the test when communicating with Lu Ming before, so the girls present who had been notified did not have any resistance.

It is not so easy to earn thousands of dollars a month.

I think back then, when Zhou Anan was recruiting new teachers for the training department, some post-90s would say goodbye to you as soon as they heard about the test papers.

Although today's post-80s generation are a little more simple, Zhou An'an still feels that they need to pay attention to some aspects.

The training department is not on the right track yet, and the teachers must set rules at the very beginning, so as not to be trapped later.

“Okay, I've reserved two tables for you in the cafeteria, let's go eat first.”

After everyone finished the two test papers, Zhou Anan looked at the time and said to the girls with a smile.

Wideness of holding is the way of the emperor.

After taking many detours in the previous life, Zhou An'an was able to master this speed proficiently, but it didn't take long before he was reborn.

"thank you boss."

Hearing that there are stir-fried vegetables for dinner, many girls laughed happily.

After all, everyone usually goes to the cafeteria to eat big pot meals. It is better for a few people to go to the small cafeteria and order two or three stir-fried dishes. That is a different kind of luxury.

The first contact, they have a good feeling for this junior who wants to hire themselves with a high salary.

If the other party is a little taller and more handsome, it will be perfect.

It was summer vacation, and the cooking street in front of Building No. 9 of the boys' dormitory hadn't opened yet, so Zhou Anan just booked a large box in the small cafeteria, with two tables of food and drink.

I have to say that the price of goods nowadays is really not high, and with the discounts in the school, Zhou Anan set the highest price for the food and drinks, and the two tables together cost only 400 yuan.

and the previous life's banquet, which started at seven or eight hundred at every turn, is simply sprinkling water.

"I wish you a happy cooperation."

"Pleasant cooperation."

Although Zhou Anan was approachable, the girls were not very familiar with him. They gathered in twos and threes to chat, but left the boss aside.

It was Zhou Anan who took the initiative to stand up and toast a drink, and the whole atmosphere became lively.

"Boss, please take care of me."

When the girls were chatting secretly to observe the junior, one girl stood up first, walked to the junior, held a cup full of Sprite, and said with a smile.

"Senior, you are welcome."

Standing up, Zhou Anan looked at the senior sister who was about 1.72 meters tall with a smile on her face.

Zhou Anan naturally paid special attention to this senior with the most outstanding appearance and height.

He immediately knew and remembered that the other party's name was Qin Lianyun, and he also knew that the other party's handwriting was beautiful. Of course, the most noteworthy thing was that the other party's murder weapon reached the B+ scale. He was wearing a white T-shirt, which really attracted attention.

At present, it seems that the other party's personality is still very cheerful, and he should not be an unknown role in the student union. I don't know if it is the property of the president.

Well, I'm thinking too much, the first thing is to make money.

After eating with everyone for more than half an hour, Zhou Anan waited for the girls to leave, then left the campus with a large stack of test papers, and returned to the hotel by car.

"good."

After correcting all the test papers, Zhou Anan compared the scores, and noted the names of the fifteen people.

In general, these girls who apply for the job are all talented.

The grades are generally above the standard line. Occasionally, one or two students who are not very good can also be assigned to the primary school.

The primary school and the junior high school of the training class were carried out at the same time, Zhou Anan didn't worry about how to arrange the whereabouts of these people.

Students with good grades in the middle school examination papers will be assigned to the junior high school department, and two students will be assigned to each of the English, Mathematics and English subjects; the remaining seven students will be assigned to the elementary school department.

At that time, it depends on the specific enrollment situation, and then coordinates the number of people on both sides.

Although we didn't plan to eliminate people at the very beginning, we still have to go through the cutscene of the exam. Recruitment must have a sense of ritual, and it must be maintained in the future.

“The next step is to recruit students.”

After rubbing his face, Zhou Anan looked at the night scene in the distance, went straight to wash up and went to sleep.

The next day, Zhou Anan notified the seniors who passed the exam yesterday one by one, and set a specific guaranteed monthly salary and working hours.

After finalizing most of the matters, Zhou Anan returned to Lizhou by car.

Although the barbecue stall has been transferred, Zhou Anan has to make an agreement with his parents if he wants to start his own business in Lucheng ahead of schedule.

After all, the start date stated on the university admission letter is September 15th.

Convincing parents is a long way to go.

“mom.”

Back home, Zhou Anan yelled on the stairs and heard a vague answer.

Walking to the second floor, Zhou Anan saw a lot of small paper boxes piled up in the living room, and his mother was squatting in the corner packing a small box by herself.

“Young man is back, I’ll cook something delicious for you after I pack this.”

Seeing his son coming back, Wang Jingyu said something while he was busy, and by the way, glued the packing box on his handle with tape.

“Mom, the business looks good.”

Just a rough count, there are already more than ten packages. Zhou Anan helped his mother pack them, and asked with a smile by the way.

“Don’t tell me, since our store was put on the crown, there have been at least six or seven orders a day. These are orders placed yesterday and this morning. Let your father take them to the city to distribute later.”

Pointing to a pile of packages on the ground, Wang Jingyu had a proud smile on his face.

Since the opening of this Taobao store, she finally found a suitable job, so she doesn’t have to worry about having nothing to do during the day.

On the contrary, sometimes it is a bit busy during the peak period, and a trip to the quarry for reconciliation may miss several orders.

“Will Dad find it annoying?”

Recalling his father’s suppression of his mother’s enthusiasm for opening a Taobao store in his previous life, the corners of Zhou An’an’s mouth twitched slightly.
