

Chapter 7291

Even now, Rachel still believed she would do everything in her power to marry Robert.

Therefore, she could not accept her future husband being a nobody in the Routhchild family.

Robert has no chance of ever breaking into the core of the Routhchild family.

His ceiling is the successor and head of his own lineage.

Now, she needs to find a way to improve Robert's chances,

And Steve Routhchild is the huge opportunity Robert must seize.

The mysterious Mr. Chen,

Whom Steve treats with such deference,

It is a huge opportunity for her and her family.

Robert has also figured this out.

He deeply realizes that his girlfriend's political acumen far surpasses his own.

With her guidance,

He can see the true nature of events more clearly.

So he quickly asks her,

"So, you mean I need to find a way to maintain a relationship with my great-grandfather?"

"Of course."

Rachel nodded and said,

"You not only need to find a way to maintain a good relationship with him,"

"But you also need to be unilaterally loyal to him."

"Remember, don't tell anyone about tonight's events."

"Not even your parents."

Robert asked in surprise,

"Not even my parents?"

Rachel immediately said seriously,

"Of course!"

"Your parents can't help you much in the future."

"But you have the opportunity to help them now."

"If you build a good relationship with your great-grandfather,"

"He will definitely provide you with tremendous assistance in the future."

"Perhaps even helping your father win the family inheritance!"

"Since that's the case,"

"Why not keep this matter to yourself for now?"

"In case it can be used as a future..."

"A game-changing trump card—you'd be your parents' savior!"

Robert wasn't stupid.

He immediately understood the core logic.

No matter where you are, it's all about status and resources.

This applies to royalty, family businesses, and even universities.

Those with resources thrive at schools like Stanford,

Attracting investment banks even before graduation,

And easily securing funding with a simple AI-generated business plan.

Those without resources, even with Stanford's prestige,

End up working for others,

With a few hundred thousand dollars a year being their ceiling.

Therefore, Robert firmly told Rachel,

"I understand, Rachel."

"Don't worry,"

"I'll do my best to leverage Grandpa's connections!"

Rachel nodded slightly.

She knew that the one who could truly help Robert wasn't Steve, but herself.

Only by cooperating well with Mr. Chen would she be valuable to him,

And only then would Steve give Robert some face.

Otherwise, given Steve's status,

Robert wouldn't even be worth his attention.

The two returned to school,

And Rachel went straight to her dorm.

When Rachel entered, her roommates' expressions turned tense yet envious.

They were all scholars,

But now there was a world of difference.

Rachel's ability to dine with Steve Routhchild meant she had connected with the very core of the Routhchild family.

For scholars who could never achieve 100% white ancestry,

This was an impossible feat.

Rachel's connection today made her the most successful among these Western-educated scholars.
