

Chapter 7306

Rachel wanted to share this news with Charlie as well,

But Charlie hadn't left her a direct contact method.

Instead, Steve Routhchild had exchanged contact information with her,

So after hanging up with her mother,

She immediately called Steve.

At this moment, Steve was staying at Harvard.

He originally intended to accompany Charlie and Maria,

But in reality, Charlie and Maria didn't need his company.

The two of them had been mostly acting alone at Harvard these past few days and rarely saw him.

However, even so, Steve was unwilling to leave.

After all, in his eyes,

Charlie was like a second parent,

And serving him was the most important thing.

Steve was initially surprised to receive Rachel's call.

When the call connected, Rachel's first words were,

"Dear Mr. Routhchild, this is Rachel Getty."

"I'm calling to thank you personally."

"The information you shared with me at dinner helped my family earn a considerable sum."

"Thank you so much!"

Rachel's intention was to subtly convey this information to Steve Routhchild,

Knowing he would pass it on to Charlie,

Thus achieving her goal of reporting to Charlie.

Steve, being shrewd, immediately smiled and said,

"Rachel, you're my future niece-in-law, a member of the Routhchild family."

"Don't be so polite about such a small matter."

"Don't worry, if similar opportunities arise in the future."

"I'll be there for you."

Rachel said gratefully,

"Thank you so much, Mr. Routhchild."

Meanwhile, the Left Army Commander's Office was monitoring Rachel's call.

Hearing that she could speak directly with Steve and receive such affirmation from him,

Youngheart was both shocked and excited.

He had earned hundreds of millions of dollars from a mere rumor,

And this was all achieved with extreme restraint,

Without alerting the main players.

Since Steve valued Rachel so highly,

He could be a little more aggressive and pursue even greater profits in the future.

Rachel was well aware that the Left Army Commander's Office was definitely monitoring her.

Suddenly, a thought struck her:

Now that she possessed the unimpeded dragon-patterned bronze token,

Why not find an opportunity to see Charlie again?

Thinking of this, she immediately said respectfully to Steve,

"Mr. Routhchild,"

"I hope to have the opportunity to thank you in person someday."

Steve understood the implication and said with a smile,

"I'm currently at Harvard University."

"And I don't have much to do these days."

"How about I invite you and Robert to come and visit for a few days?"

Rachel asked in surprise,

"Mr. Routhchild, is...is this really alright?"

Steve said with a smile,

"No problem at all. I'll give Robert a call and have him arrange his itinerary."

"I'd also like to get to know him better and make him one of my own."

Rachel said excitedly, "Thank you, Mr. Routhchild!"

"I'll wait for Robert's news!"

After hanging up, Steve immediately called Charlie and reported the situation to him.

Charlie instantly realized that Rachel most likely wanted to meet him.

At the same time, he also realized that this move had definitely greatly increased Rachel's weight and credibility in the eyes of the Left Army Governor's Office.

He suddenly had a wicked thought.

Some casinos and gamblers, when trying to lure big fish, will deliberately lose some money to their opponents to cultivate their gambling addiction.

This tactic is called "casting a long line to catch a big fish"

Offering a small profit as bait,

And then ruthlessly harvesting the victim using various methods once they're hooked.

The method is simple,

But countless people throughout history have been ruined by it.

Youngheart has already tasted some success.

If he continues to enjoy this,

His gambling addiction will surely be unleashed.

If he can seize the opportunity to take him down in one fell swoop,

Wiping him out of his savings overnight,

Things will get even more interesting!
