

Chased Her 361

Chapter 361 Shouldn't I Come Back?

"I heard that girls like to eat candy." The second young master casually picked up the lollipop next to him, tore it open, and handed it to Isabella.

Isabella took a bite. "Thank you, brother, it's very sweet."

"Ms. Young, are you back? The second young master has someone planted flowers on your balcony. It's so beautiful. Go and have a look."

I heard that my elder brother planted flowers on my younger sister's balcony, and the second young master was no exception. However, Isabella found that the flowers that my second elder brother asked me to plant were hung on her railing layer by layer, which perfectly blocked my elder brother's attention. Flowers planted earlier...

This childish behavior... made Isabella laugh.

Eloise asked in the living room, "Why are you the only one coming back? Where's my sister?"

What about Isabella, why didn't you come back with you?" Williams also asked, "Are you still in school? How can you leave your sister at school alone?"

Isabella was about to go downstairs when she vaguely noticed a line of sight falling here.

Now, she can be sure that it's not her illusion, but someone is really monitoring every move here!

"Go to my house and see who is ambushing there." Isabella sent a message to her subordinates and went downstairs again.

Isabella!" Eloise said happily when she saw her. "Come on, the food is ready! I have made three dishes tonight!"

"I also made three dishes! Go and taste how it tastes!"

The second young master on the side:???

His parents still cook??

Growing up so big, it was the first time he knew that his parents. could cook...

"Where's Benjamin, why didn't you come back with you?" Eloise asked.

"He has something to do, don't wait for him." After Isabella took her seat, a servant wanted to serve her soup.

The second young master hurriedly said, "I'll do it."

He filled his sister with soup and rice, and passed the fork to her.

Isabella, which dish do you want to cat?" The second young master planned to bring her food himself.

"Of course it's my way! I just learned about open-sided shrimp today! You must try it!"

After Eloise finished speaking, Williams said again, "My three dishes are also good, you should try them first."

"What, are you robbing me?"

"No, no, my daughter will cat what you cook first, and then I will cat what I cook." Williams has a strong desire to survive.

At this time, a voice exclaimed. " Miss Logan, are you back?"

Eloise followed the sound and saw Cecilia standing not far away. still wearing a military uniform.

She got up unexpectedly. " Cecilia, why are you back?"

"Why, shouldn't I come back?" Cecilia seemed a little lost and aggrieved, looking at a loss.

Eloise immediately stepped forward and said, "No... Mom means, aren't you training ?"

"I heard that the second brother is back, so I want to come and see... Isn't my sister training too?" Cecilia meant that my sister is also back?

She looked at the harmonious family, bit her lower lip and said, "It doesn't matter if the family doesn't cook my meals, I'll come and see my second brother, I'll leave after one look..."

"Why, is our family short of something to eat?" Williams also got up and walked towards her, patted her on the shoulder with a smile, "Are you tired from training? Come here, let's have a meal together."

He also explained, "Your second brother came back suddenly, and we didn't say anything in advance. We thought you were training, so we didn't tell you, because we were afraid that you would run around... Isabella met your second brother at school..."

Cecilia obviously didn't believe it, heh, who are you kidding!

The second brother obviously works in the security department, so even if he came back temporarily, he couldn't visit Isabella's school instead of looking for her!

After all, she has been with her second brother for eighteen years. and Isabella has only been back for a few days?

Dad doesn't even make drafts of lies now, does he really treat her like a child?

Eloise with sharp eyes who suddenly looked at Scarlet aside, "You informed Cecilia?"

"Miss Logan has been chanting the second young master. Today the second young master came back suddenly. I was so happy that I slipped my mouth..." Scarlet said this, and deliberately lowered her head. "I'm sorry ma'am, it's all my fault!"

Eloise :...

It's as if she doesn't want Cecilia to meet the second young master!

"Cecilia is back?" The second young master saw the other sister, but did not treat her differently, but said gently, "Come and cat."

"Second brother, you are finally back! It has been several months since we last met...I miss you so much!" As soon as Cecilia came in front of the second young master, her eyes immediately turned red, like a wronged person.

"How old are you, still crying?" The second young master smiled, and opened the chair for her, "Second brother is busy with work, and now Isabella has also returned to this house, and he will come back as soon as possible in the future."

The servant bent down and brought the tableware to Cecilia, "Miss Logan, here are your tableware."

Seeing those things in the living room. Cecilia couldn't help asking. "Second Brother, did you buy those things for me?"

Before the second brother left home last time, he said that he would bring her a gift when he came back next time.

The second young master glanced at the living room, and said with some guilt, "No."

"ah?"

"That's for Isabella."

The light in Cecilia's eyes dimmed, and she said nothing.

"What do you like? Later, my second brother will buy it for you."

Because he has never bought anything for Isabella, when choosing a gift today, the second young master really forgot Cecilia.

Cecilia raised a considerate smile, "It's okay, my sister just came back to this house, so I should buy more for her."

Having said that, it made the second young master feel even more guilty.

Cecilia's eyes fell on Isabella again, and she couldn't help but praise. "Sister, your skin is still so white, you can see that I'm tanned! I think the sunscreen that Bradley bought for you is very good... I have to do it later. Ask what brand Bradley bought you..."

She said this to let everyone know that Bradley only bought it for Isabella, not her.

And the second brother also forgot about her today...

Everyone in this family says they treat her as their own, but in the end, everything they do is partial.

"I didn't use the sunscreen that Bradley bought." Isabella said suddenly Cecilia didn't believe it. After training for so many days without using sunscreen. how could it be possible??

"I can't get a tan." Isabella said truthfully.

Cecilia. "...

Myra on the side remained calm and smoothed things out with a smile. "Ms. Young 's skin is really good. just like Madam!"

"That's right. I just can't get a tan. Even if I get a little tan, it will come back in a few days." Eloise laughed.

"So it's hereditary..." Cecilia drooped her curled eyelashes, seeming a little lost that she had nothing to do with this family.

The atmosphere became awkward again.

Then a voice came, "Sorry, I'm late."

It's Benjamin!

Cecilia 's eyes lit up again, did Benjamin come to eat at home too?

Benjamin ? Are you done with everything?" Williams moved a chair himself, "Come here, we're just about to have dinner..."

He moved the chair to Cecilia's side," Cecilia, get up and give

Chapter 362

Cecilia was sitting next to Isabella, but when Williams said this, she stood up awkwardly and gave up her seat.

The servants moved Cecilia 's chair to Eloise's side. After Cecilia sat down, she found Benjamin and the second young master serving Isabella food.

"Delicious." Isabella commented, "This shrimp is well done."

"Since I was young, I haven't tasted the dishes made by my mother." The second young master also picked up the fork and took a bite, looking at Eloise with some surprise. "You made it by yourself?"

"Isn't it delicious?" Eloise 's tone was quite proud, "Unexpectedly, your mother is good at cooking~"

"The dishes cooked by my wife are delicious!" Williams took a sip.. nodded repeatedly, and praised, "The meat is tender and firm, even better than the chef's cooking!"

"It's not bad. I'll try dad's cooking again." The second young master picked up a piece of braised abalone and put it in his mouth, his eyes were amazed. He didn't expect that when his sister came home, he would inspire his parents' cooking talent.

"Benjamin, this dish is good, you can try it." The second young master served Benjamin with serving chopsticks.

"Yes, yes, son-in-law, eat more!" Eloise also picked up the serving chopsticks and put a lot of food into Benjamin's bowl.

Benjamin, would you like some wine?"

As soon as Williams picked up the bottle, Benjamin declined, "I'll take Isabella back to school later."

"I'm going back to school too! Brother-in-law, sister, can you drop me off later?"

Cecilia is at Bomsville University, which is in the same university town as Isabella 's medical university.

But Benjamin and Isabella said in unison, "It's not very convenient."

Isabella also added, "You'd better ask the driver at home to deliver."

Cecilia pretended to be disappointed, "Why don't you send me back, second brother?"

If you can't get Benjamin, it's not bad to get the second brother.

Perhaps because she was afraid that the second young master would refuse. Cecilia continued, "I heard that you are at home on vacation recently, and you have nothing to do for the time being?"

The second young master thought, he now has two younger sisters, and sending one away would be unfair to the other, so he, like Isabella, politely declined. "Let the driver at home take you, the second brother has something to deal with later. "

"Okay..." Cecilia pretended to be disappointed, and picked up the bowl again, "Second brother, can you help me pick up a chicken wing? It's too far away for me to pick up..."

Isabella :...

"Second Brother, can you serve me the soup over there?" Cecilia smiled sweetly, "Thank you Second Brother, I know that Second Brother treats me the best!"

During the meal. Cecilia tried every means to gain a sense of presence, wanted the second young master to serve her alone, and wanted Isabella to know that in this family, the second brother listened to her very much, and she was really held in the palm of the Logan Family Eighteen years!

“You are just a coquette.” Williams smiled, “Look at Isabella, you don’t need to bother your second brother.”

“Who made the second brother love me...” Cecilia pretended to be happy.

After dinner, Isabella received a message from her subordinates.

[Boss, there is no one at your door.]

no one?

Is that person gone?

“I’m going for a walk, you wait for me here.”

After Isabella went out, Benjamin and the second young master looked at each other, a little puzzled.

Why go for a walk alone?

It seems to be deliberately dismissing them?

“Second brother, let’s eat some fruit.” Cecilia personally brought the cut fruit to the second young master, and said with a smile, “It’s all your favorite...”

“Thank you.” The second young master just poked a piece with a fruit pick.

Cecilia took the opportunity to act coquettishly. “Second brother, I can’t cat the fruit plate with my hand, why don’t you feed me one?”

How could the second young master fail to see what she was thinking. "You're such a grown-up, yet you're still playing tricks to let brother feed you?"

"I want you to feed me, I want you to feed me! Don't tell me you don't think of me as your sister when your own sister comes back?"

"You..." The second young master could only feed the uneaten fruit into her mouth. "Satisfied now?"

"Satisfied, hee hee, thank you, second brother!"

Cecilia glanced to the side again, seeing Benjamin walking out of the hall and waiting for Isabella in the garden, she said again, "I'll give some to my brother-in-law~"

Cecilia!" The second young master wanted to tell her that Benjamin has a fiancée now, so he should keep a little distance, but in the blink of an eye, Cecilia had already disappeared.

Benjamin... No, brother-in-law, how about some fruit?" Cecilia brought the fruit plate forward with both hands, smiling innocently.

But Benjamin didn't even look at it, but got up and started to walk towards the gate.

"I just cat some fruit, and my brother-in-law won't do me any favors?" Cecilia blocked his way, and said aggrievedly. "Is my brother-in-law afraid that I have other thoughts? Firstly, I didn't poison it, secondly, I just I want to invite my brother-in-law to cat some fruit, but does my brother-in-law hate me so much? You don't even cat the fruit I serve?"

Benjamin gave her an impatient look. "Stay away."

“Cecilia felt a little frustrated, “Even if my brother-in-law doesn’t like me, there’s no need to have trouble with my fruit, right?

It’s also my sister’s fruit! You should treat it as my sister’s treat.”

“You eat a piece and I’ll leave.” Cecilia showed a mischievous and cute smile, and poked a piece of mango with a fruit stick and handed it to him, “Come on, come on, just eat a piece~”

“Can’t understand human language?” Benjamin’s eyes lit up with displeasure, “I said, don’t waste time on me.”

“Isn’t it okay to simply treat you to a piece of fruit?” Cecilia felt aggrieved, looking pitiful to Freda, “If this is the fruit my sister brought you, you would eat it without hesitation, right?”

“No... With my sister’s personality, it is impossible to serve you fruit... You have been taking care of her, but she doesn’t know how to reciprocate... Benjamin, I...”

“Enough.” Benjamin didn’t want to listen to her nonsense, and walked past her towards the gate.

Benjamin!” Cecilia hurriedly called to him, “I came to you today just to tell you that I have a boyfriend! I let you go! If there is no accident, I will marry him in the future... You don’t have to be so defensive. Look at me, if you don’t like me approaching. I will stay away from you in the future...”

Benjamin stood still, how could he not know about her sudden change, she was retreating to advance? Do you really think he is a fool?

"I wish you and sister happiness..." Cecilia said this, and was about to turn around and leave. When she saw the second young master, she called out obediently. "Second brother, that, I'll go in first if there's nothing to do..."

The second young master nodded, and looked at the back of Benjamin in front again.

Just now when he saw Cecilia pestering Benjamin, he thought that Cecilia couldn't let go of this marriage, but after hearing what happened next, the second young master's heart fell to the ground...

It seemed that he was thinking too much.

"Cecilia shouldn't have any other thoughts about you."

Chapter 363

"I don't know if there is, but keeping a distance from all the opposite sex is what I should do."

When Benjamin said this, he looked up at the second young master again, "Why is the second brother here?"

Isabella said she wanted to go for a walk alone. I'm worried, so I'll go and have a look."

"Mc too."

"You really don't have any thoughts about Cecilia?" the second young master asked while walking forward with him. "If Isabella didn't come back to this family, would you marry Cecilia?"

"No." Benjamin's tone was firm, "Actually, a long time ago, I thought about retiring the engagement."

Not only did he have this idea, but he also came to the door to withdraw the engagement.

It's just that on that day, he found out that his marriage partner was Isabella, so he changed his mind temporarily.

The second young master was a little surprised to hear him say that, "Do you know what it means to our two families to temporarily regret the marriage?"

"I know."

It means that the relationship between the two parties is completely broken.

Meaning he and Bradley could never be brothers again.

It means that he now has a strong opponent in the business field.

It means that the scolding of the family, the face of the elders, and the reputation of the Young Family all cease to exist...

"But I can't choose to spend the rest of my life with someone I don't love. I believe you can't bear the person you hold in your hands. When it comes to me, it's even worse than a grass."

"..." The second young master was a little puzzled, "Is Cecilia really that bad? After all these years, nothing has caught your Manson young master's eyes?"

"I don't know if the second brother has noticed that since Isabella came back to this home, she has not been friendly to Isabella." Benjamin reminded. "Including intentional or unintentional provocations and temptations at the dinner table, as well as some words and deeds that cannot be put on the table. manner..."

Benjamin, Cecilia is my sister too!"

These words are really harsh.

Before Cecilia 's identity was exposed, everyone in the Logan Family really held her in their hands for eighteen years.

Not only Williams and Eloise, but even the five older brothers regard her as their own sister, respond to every request, and do their best to take care of the only little princess in the family.

The whole family watched this little princess grow up. Although she has a more arrogant personality, she is not too incapable of appearing on the stage. Benjamin called her useless.

The second young master couldn't accept others talking about his sister in front of him.

Benjamin also understood, after all, who would doubt that his sister who has been innocent for eighteen years has ulterior motives??

Just like you, would you suspect that your family members are bad people for no reason??

"She has been a Lady for eighteen years, and suddenly one day, everything does not belong to her. It is normal for her to have gaps, and sometimes it is inevitable that she will have a sense of existence. It is the thoughts of some little girls, as long as it does not hurt Isabella... "

As soon as the second young master 's voice fell. Benjamin raised his eyes and asked, "If you make trouble for Isabella, will the second brother not care?"

"If she intends to target Isabella, I will find out, and I will teach to stop it."

"What if it's in a place where the second brother can't see? Or, can't teach it?"

Benjamin." The second young master 's eyes met Benjamin 's, and seemed a little displeased, " Cecilia is so bad in your eyes?"

"You also saw the delivery of fruit just now." Benjamin met his gaze, and said every word with force.
"Her purpose is not pure."

"If I hear you right, she's setting boundaries with you."

"I can hear my second brother's footsteps when I stand so far away, didn't she hear it?"

"You mean that she said those words to me on purpose?" The cycs of the second young master dimmed,
"It seems that her image in your heart is absolutely terrible."

"..." She never had an image in his heart, not even a shadow.

"You said her purpose was impure, did she pester you in private? Or did she do something to hurt Isabella ?"

"Second brother has just come back, so he may not be clear. If you have time, you can observe it privately. Then you will know whether what I said is true or not."

Anyway, he was just reminding that he didn't expect the second young master to protect Isabella.

His girl, he wants to protect himself.

“you...”

The second young master is not partial to any younger sister, but he has watched Cecilia grow up, no matter how he has watched it for eighteen years, he still understands Cecilia 's way of life, and he will not be biased.

But with Benjamin 's character, he obviously wouldn't smear a person casually, let alone a girl...

So, what's the problem?

Did Benjamin protect Isabella too much, or did Cecilia really have some excesses that he, the second brother, didn't know about?

Remembering that at the dinner table just now, Cecilia just acted like a baby and asked his second brother to help with serving dishes. and soup, other than that, there was no other impoliteness...

Smart people know to be close to their family members, not to mention being an enemy of Isabella, at least the relationship on the surface is decent...

Cecilia must understand this truth, after all, without the Logan Family, she is nothing, she will fall from the clouds to the bottom...

Then is she really as stupid as Benjamin said, approaching Benjamin with impure purposes, destroying Isabella 's happiness, and doing unkind things to Isabella?

If it wasn't what she meant, did someone instigate her behind her back?

Who could it be?

Benjamin saw that he was silent and thoughtful, and knew that he had listened to what he said. It seems that this second brother is not blinded by family affection...

In front of her family, Cecilia will not do anything to embarrass Isabella. It seems that in private, she has to show her fox tail.

the other side.

A small knife lay across the neck of a girl with short hair.

Isabella held a knife and asked coldly, "Who are you?"

Since returning home in the afternoon, she has noticed that someone is watching every move in the villa, but just now her subordinates sent a message saying that no one was guarding the door of her house. She was worried, so she came out again. Catch a sneaky figure..

The short-haired girl wore a mask, only revealing a pair of extremely beautiful eyes, looking a little dissatisfied.

The actual age of these eyes should be one or two years older than Isabella.

Could it be that the killer was cultivated somewhere?

so young?

"Who are you?" The short-haired girl was a little displeased. If she hadn't been distracted just now, how could she have been discovered by a little girl like Isabella, who approached her and threatened her with a knife?

Isabella's men couldn't find her just now, she thinks her lurking is at the first-class level...

"I'm asking you something!" Isabella's knife moved a little closer, her voice was as cold as ice, "Who sent you here? Or did you come for someone? If you don't make it clear, there is no need to speak with this mouth in the future."

"Heh!" What a crazy little girl! Talk so defiantly? Girls with short hair were obviously even more displeased.

"You dare to kill me at the door of the Logan Family?" The short-haired girl squinted her eyes, apparently not believing it, "If you have the ability, do it now!"

He is not afraid of death...

Chapter 364 Second sister-in-law, you misunderstood

Isabella was not polite, and the knife came closer, and the short-haired girl's fair neck suddenly flowed bright red blood.

"You, how dare you do it..." Now it was the short-haired girl's turn to be surprised.

I didn't expect this little girl to be so wild at such a young age!

"If you don't say anything else, I'll save half your life and throw you into the sea to feed the sharks."

"The anger in the eyes of the short-haired girl became more obvious when she said this, "Does the second young master know that you are this kind of person?"

Isabella :???

Is this person coming for the second brother? ?

Seeing her thinking for a second, the short-haired girl quickly opened her hand, and was about to grab the knife for revenge.

Isabella is not a vegetarian either. When fighting her with agility, neither of them loses in the contest....

It's the first time that a short-haired girl grows up so fast, and a girl of her age is so agile. This girl is by no means an ordinary college student!

Who is she?

Second sister in law you misunderstood

a student trained by the Ministry of Security?

Or are there other hidden identities?

Isabella kicked her in the heart, but she crossed her hands to block the attack and stepped back a meter.

Seeing the blood still flowing from her neck, Isabella curled her lips coldly. "If you don't treat the wound, you will die within an hour. I advise you to be honest, and I will make your death easier.

"You're pretty crazy." The short-haired girl attacked again, every move was as ruthless as if Isabella's life was to be killed.

The more she competed with Isabella, the more she found that Isabella's skills were a bit familiar, until Isabella used a crisp whirlwind kick.

The short-haired girl was caught off guard and fell to the ground because of her injuries.

“Are you from LA ?” Now, the short-haired girl was even more surprised. Looking at the girl in front of her, she suddenly felt that she was not simple. ” The leader of Nat Gang... is a girl??”

Isabella ‘s eyes provoked a hint of surprise. Can this short-haired girl guess her identity?

It’s even more deadly now.

Before Isabella could make a move, the voice of the second young master suddenly sounded.

Isabella, what’s the matter?”

Isabella looked back and saw that it was the second brother and

Second sister in law, you misunderstood

Benjamin.

The short-haired girl was about to run away when she suddenly heard the voice of the second young master, “Leah? Why are you here?”

Leah ? ?

The second brother knows her??

Hearing this tone, is it familiar??

“What’s wrong with your neck?” The second young master found a bloody hole on Deb ‘s neck. It wasn’t big, and it didn’t look deep, but the bright red blood flowed out, which was a bit shocking.

He looked at Isabella with a complicated look in his eyes.

With Leah’s skills, it’s impossible to get close to her, let alone wipe. her neck...

How did Isabella do it?

Can it hurt Leah?

“You asked for leave from the organization just to bring your girlfriend home? To introduce to your uncles and aunts?” Unexpectedly, Deb pre-empted the strike, with a questioning tone.

When Isabella heard it: There are melons to cat, so she simply watched from the sidelines.

“What nonsense are you talking about? I’ll take you in first to bandage the wound.”

Although such small wounds are common to people in the security

Second sister-in-law, you misunderstood

department, after all, if they are rubbed on the neck, if they are not treated, they may be life-threatening.

“It’s not that you don’t want to fall in love, but you don’t want to talk to me!” Deb’s eyes were filled with humiliation and anger.

“Leah...”

“You said that you have no plans to fall in love at present, but you brought her home! The person you like is her!”

Deb gave Isabella a hurt look, what’s wrong with this little girl, she’s crazy as hell.

Does the second young master know that she is the leader of the Nat Gang?

I don’t know what kind of ability such a little girl has to capture the heart of the second young master!

The most popular handsome guy in the entire security department actually fell into the hands of a little girl in the end.

Just thinking about it makes me angry.

She saw with her own eyes today that the second young master delivered a lot of things to this girl, all in one truck, one truck at a time!

When the second young master got out of the car, he opened the car door for the girl and stroked the girl’s hair...

She can only envy such an intimate gesture.

Even, Cecilia came from school just to meet this “second sister-in-law”...

Second sister in law, you misunderstood

They are a happy family, but she...

“You said Isabella ?” The second young master came to his senses, a little helpless, but also amused. This was a big misunderstanding.

Isabella!

It’s so intimate!!

unacceptable!!

“What the hell do you like about her?” Deb’s nose soured.

If it wasn’t for the little girl still watching her joke, her tears would have fallen down a long time ago.

“You go in with me first to treat the wound.” The second young master felt that it was a long story, and the most important thing right now was to treat the wound.

“You always tell me that your identity and age are inappropriate, so what about her, she can? She’s a Yan...”

Isabella seemed to have expected what she was going to say, and immediately stopped her, “Second sister-in-law, you misunderstood.”

Two, second sister-in-law? ? ?

“He’s my second brother.” After Isabella explained aloud, she pulled the man beside her, “This is my fiancé Benjamin.”

“Hi, it’s my first meeting, nice to meet you.” Benjamin greeted politely.

Deb was completely stunned, his eyes were straight, and he fell to the second young master in front of him.

Second sister in law, you misunderstood

The second young master explained helplessly. "It's indeed my sister... dear, I just recognized her recently."

Deb's all cracked: honey???

"She is still young, and due to some family reasons, she has not announced it to the public for the time being."

So, did she fight with the second young master's sister just now, and was wiped by her neck again???

"Follow me first." The second young master was afraid that she would refuse, so he directly grabbed her hand and walked in.

Deb didn't know how he stepped into the door of the Logan Family, and how he took the medicine while surrounded by a group of people...

She had fantasized countless times about going home with the second young master to meet her parents, but she never expected to see such a bloody scene in front of her...

"Girl, are you in pain? How did you get hurt like this?" Eloise on the side couldn't help but feel distressed.

"Should I ask a doctor to look at it for you?" Williams said this, and suddenly thought of something., "Oh yes, Isabella, our Isabella is very good! Show your second brother's girlfriend quickly!"

The second young master trembled when he heard the word “girlfriend”, and Deb gasped, it hurt so much...

“You’re clumsy, don’t hurt me! Get your sister here!” Eloise said anxiously.

“Second brother, let me do it.” Isabella took the cotton swab. disinfected the wound deftly, and then bandaged it briefly. “Okay, be careful next, don’t touch the water.”

Unexpectedly, she turned out to be the future sister-in-law... Isabella felt that she was a bit harsh.

Deb was sitting on the sofa in the living room, surrounded by the Logan Family, wanting to cry....

She never expected that the scene where she appeared for the first time was so embarrassing and embarrassing...

“Girl, you haven’t said your name yet? When did you and my second child start dating?” Eloise couldn’t restrain her inner joy Unexpectedly, one of her five sons finally had a girlfriend!

Chapter 365 Finally Agreed

“The second one has never brought a girl home, you are the first one!” Williams smiled and said very kindly, “Come on, get some coffee! Oh, Isabella, I’m hurt like this, can I have some coffee ?” ah?”

“A drink is fine.” Isabella replied.

“Come on, Myra, get me the best coffee in the house!”

Isabella said it’s okay to drink, so it’s fine.

Deb was so embarrassed that he wanted to sneak in, "Uncle and aunt, don't bother... I'm just passing by..."

Now that I pass by, I guess no one will believe it...

"My second youngest fell in love for the first time, and I didn't know how to pick you up in person, and let you come to the door by yourself." Eloise said this, and cast a reproachful look at the second young master, you wooden fish head, do you understand? Lianxiangxiyu ah?

The second young master was about to say something, but Eloise asked again. "Girl, what's the matter with your injury?"

In the middle of the night, a beautiful girl suddenly had a bloody mouth...

"The road is too dark. I accidentally fell and scratched a rock..." Deb took all the responsibility and never let his sister get scolded.

"What kind of stone can be carved like this? Is it the stone in front of our house? Come on, go outside and check, and throw away all the big and small stones that may hurt people!"

When Eloise said this, she muttered again, "This girl just came to our house as a guest, and she caused her to fall like this. How can she explain to her parents later..."

"Mom, it's because of..." Isabella just wanted to say that it was because of me.

Deb immediately interrupted, "Your name is Isabella, isn't it? My name is Deb, nice to meet you."

The word Deb stunned Williams and Eloise.

What did they hear??

Deb ? ?

“You...” Eloise was shocked for a while before asking in disbelief, “Is my father Luo Chunfeng?”

“Yes...but I don’t know him well, lol...” Deb twitched the corners of his mouth, afraid that Williams and Eloise would reject her like the second young master when they knew her identity.

Not familiar with his father??

Who are you kidding...

Isabella didn’t know who Deb was, until Benjamin whispered that it was the Prime Minister’s daughter, and Isabella suddenly realized.

No wonder Deb just said that the second brother didn’t agree to be with her because of his status...

It turned out to be this identity!

“You brat, did you keep silent and have a girlfriend, or...” Williams. didn’t say the latter, but he hurt him on the first day of his arrival. How should he explain this later?

“Miss Deb, please drink coffee.” The servant brought the coffee to Dcb.

Eloise reached out to take it, and brought it to Deb herself, “ Leah. come, have a sip of coffee first.”

“Thank you Auntie, don’t bother, I’ll take it myself...” Deb found that the Logan Family were too enthusiastic.

“You’ve just arrived, and you’re not familiar with this place. After drinking coffee, I’ll ask my second brother to show you around.”

“Dad, Leah and I...” The second young master wanted to say that Leah and I are not the kind of relationship you think...

But Williams interrupted with a smile, “Not yet?”

You can see that Deb likes him very much, the second is really lucky to be liked by such a beautiful and lovely girl...

“The second young master wanted to explain again, but Deb had already stepped forward to hold his arm...

This time I really couldn’t wash myself off by jumping into the Yellow River.

“Your family is so warm and kind...” Deb came to the second floor with him, happy to be able to hold his arm.

The second young master glanced at her neck, his eyes flashed softly, “Does it still hurt?”

“It doesn’t hurt, it doesn’t hurt...” Deb wanted to shake his head to prove that he was fine, but he didn’t expect to pull the wound, and a look of pain flashed in his eyes.

“You still say it doesn’t hurt?” The second young master gave her a reproachful look, “Be gentle.”

“oh...”

“Why didn’t you call me before you came?”

"I heard that you brought your girlfriend home...that's why I thought of coming to see..." Deb said, his head lowered, and he didn't expect to have a big oolong in the end.

When the second young master heard it, it turned out that he was here to investigate...

Who spread the news, and spread it so outrageously? Looking at the girl again, she lowered her head as if she knew she was wrong, but she looked cute.

"Is this your room? It's so clean and tidy!" Deb didn't expect this man's room to be the same as his way of life, strict, low-key and luxurious.

"Hmm." The second young master took her to look around, "Next time, if there is anything wrong. just ask me directly, don't be foolish and stay outside by yourself, are there any mosquitoes biting you?"

"Huh? No, no..." Deb was a little surprised, did he... care about her?

"Come in the afternoon?"

"Yeah!" Deb nodded. "Seeing that you bought a lot of things, I thought you were giving them to your girlfriend..."

"So jealous?"

"Just a little..." Deb gestured with his fingers.

The second young master couldn't help laughing.

"How about it, am I good? I haven't been discovered by you for so long, which shows that your anti-reconnaissance ability is not good!"

“Huh? What’s wrong?” The second young master suddenly approached the 360-degree handsome face and looked at her up close. “You said just now, what aspect of me can’t do it?”

“You...” Deb’s face was flushed, she suspected that someone was driving, but there was not enough evidence!

The second young master took out his mobile phone and ordered the kitchen to make something to eat. The little girl must have been starving since the afternoon.

second young master, I like you, let’s date!” Deb suddenly hugged him from behind, breathing in his breath greedily, “If you hinder my identity. I can leave the family... as an ordinary person and You are together, as long as it is you, I am willing to do anything!”

For this reason, she not only received the most rigorous training and entered the security department, she was also promoted from the bottom of the security department to the position of deputy minister.

All of this is not dependent on her father, but her day and night efforts, in order to... get closer to the second young master, and get closer...

“I’ve liked you for so many years, give me a chance?”

The second young master turned his head and patted her head, his gaze and voice were unprecedentedly gentle, “Then you promise me that you won’t let yourself get hurt again in the future?”

Deb froze. What did she hear? The second young master agreed? He really agreed?

“remember?”

“Remember, remember!!!” Deb hugged him happily, “second young master, you agreed! You finally agreed! Four years!! You bastard finally agreed...”

She really waited too long, too long!!

“Is that so happy?”

“Well, I’m happy! I’m so happy! I’m happier than winning a lottery worth 100 million USD!” Deb’s eyes were a little red, and he hugged the man in front of him greedily, “I finally got it, I want to hug for a while...”

“There will be more opportunities in the future...” The second young master patted her on the head. “Follow me downstairs to have something to eat.”

“No...I want to hug for a while...”

After four years, she finally warmed up this hard rock!

Very good!

Chapter 366 She Didn’t Have You

During the meal, Deb didn’t take his eyes off the second young master for a second.

That look, as if a little fan is looking at his favorite idol, with admiration, admiration, and excitement...

Eloise caught the candy at a glance, and smiled so hard that the corners of her mouth couldn’t close, “That... second child, you know what Leah likes to eat, bring her more food, Leah, this will be your home from now on, What do you want to eat and drink, don’t be cautious.”

Deb raised a bright smile, “Thank you, Auntie, you are so kind~”

Eloise laughed even more from car to car, "How is Auntie? Then you will come here often in the future! If the second child is busy and has no time to accompany you, you can call Auntie, and Auntie will pick you up in person! Auntie There are a lot of photos of my second child when I was a child..."

"Mom." The second young master thought of the many embarrassing photos of himself in that album, and suddenly felt dizzy.

Deb chuckled and said yes again and again, but unexpectedly pulled the wound again, the second young master reminded distressedly, "Be gentle."

That tone was not only gentle, but also a little pampering.

Eloise watched their sweet interaction and happily left the dining area, leaving them space to be alone.

After dinner. Deb found that Williams and Eloise had prepared large and small bags for her to take home as presents, and she refused repeatedly.

"Uncle and aunt, no, no, it's rude for me to come empty-handed for the first time... Why did you prepare so many things for me, I will feel sorry..." Deb said, taking out two from the trunk of the car Big gift box, I have to take it back.

"I want it! This is a small meeting gift for our future daughter-in-law! There are not many things!"

." He also said no, and filled the trunk.

Williams smiled and took the gift she had snatched back into the car.

Eloise also patted the back of Deb 's hand and said with a smile, "You are our best meeting gift... From now on, you don't need to bring gifts when you come to the uncle's and aunt's house. If you feel sorry, come and accompany your uncle and aunt when you have time..."

Deb had a sore nose, and reached out to hug Eloise, "Auntie, uncle, you are so kind..."

Since she was a child, her family atmosphere has been very serious, and there are very few such warm scenes...

Her words and deeds at home are restricted, and she can't even let go of her smile...

But in this home, she is really much more relaxed and happy...

Eloise was hugged by her, and her heart became warmer, "Good boy. I will come here often... Auntie and uncle also like you very much! The second child is free some other day, you take him to your house as a guest, and see you too Your parents..."

Deb was even happier when he heard that, and hugged Eloise for a while before letting go.

"Second sister-in-law, I'll see you off."

At this time, a voice came from the crowd.

It's Isabella.

"Okay!" Deb narrowed his eyes when he saw her.

"Second brother, my second sister-in-law and I will wait for you at the main gate."

“Okay.” The second young master was receiving the presents from Williams, and filled the trunk with some of them on the rear seat.

Isabella and Deb walked slowly towards the garden, not speaking until there was no one else.

“Second sister-in-law, this medicine is for you.” Isabella handed over a small bottle, “Use it when changing the medicine, and there are instructions on it.”

When Deb saw it, he didn’t expect his sister to still care about her injury, so he took it happily. “Thank you.”

“I’m sorry, I didn’t know it was you, but I was a little harder just now.”

The main reason is that there is a figure sneaking around in front of the house. Isabella thinks it is a threat to her family...

“No, no, I was too abrupt. I came here uninvited, you did nothing wrong!”

Deb put away the small bottle, smiled and took Isabella’s hand and said, “You could kill me, but you didn’t. You show mercy, which shows that you are a kind-hearted, gentle and generous girl!”

“...” This rainbow fart, can you still blow it like this?

“I don’t hurt at all, really! Don’t tell your family what the injury is, it’s all over!”

Isabella knew that the second sister-in-law was afraid that she would be scolded, but she didn’t expect the second sister-in-law to be such a nice person, and she always thought of her from the moment she entered the door.

Deb walked forward with her arm, and suddenly thought of something. "Oh, by the way, how could you be the leader of Nat Gang? Does your second brother know about this?"

"He doesn't know..." Isabella said flatly. "It's a long story... But how can you be sure I am?"

Deb smiled mischievously, "You saved me a year ago, forget?"

Isabella :?? ?

Can't remember.

"At that time, I was performing a secret mission. I was hunted down by people from the enemy country. You suddenly appeared and rescued me with one enemy ten. At that time, your first move was tonight's whirlwind kick. I was very impressed!"

After Deb finished speaking, Isabella remembered.

At that time, the second sister-in-law was covered in blood and was hunted down by a group of people. Although she was wearing men's clothing and a mask, Isabella still judged from her body movements that she was a young girl...

Because the group of people who chased and killed the second sister-in-law did all kinds of evil, and they often confronted Nat Gang, so Isabella also saw the injustice and came to help.

What Isabella didn't expect was that after she finished dealing with the dozen or so people, she turned around and found that the second sister-in-law had already left.

Deb thought about it too.

"I'm sorry, that task is very important. Although you saved me at that time, we didn't know each other well, so I took the opportunity to run away. First, I was afraid that the secret would be leaked. Second. I was afraid that it would fall into the wrong hands again. Third, I still had The deadly toxin needs to be detoxified... so at that time, I didn't have time to say thank you to you."

Unexpectedly, there was an intersection between their aunts and sisters a year ago.

Speaking of this, Deb said to Isabella solemnly, "Thank you, little Isabella, thank you for saving me at that time!"

"It's okay." Isabella smiled, "It's good to see you like this."

"Your skills are better than a year ago, I didn't even notice when you approached me..."

Isabella couldn't help laughing when she thought of the knife on her neck just now. "That's because you were distracted... At that time, you were thinking about my second brother?"

Deb's face turned red immediately, and he asked a little embarrassedly. "Yes, is it that obvious?"

"You are in a daze at the door of my house, why can't you be thinking about other people?" Isabella smiled. "My second brother is very good, reliable, and you are also a good person. I wish you both get married as soon as possible, and I can cat as soon as possible." to your candy."

"Ah? It's been a long time since your brother promised me, I'm already satisfied and happy... Thank you for your blessing... You are a very nice person, unlike Cecilia.

Isabella was a little surprised when she heard this, "Do you know Cecilia?"

"Hmm...we've met a few times." Deb said casually, "Anyway, I don't think she's as good as you."

Chapter 367 You have to be careful

Without waiting for Isabella to respond. Deb continued. "So I was quite happy when I learned tonight that Cecilia is not my sister-in-law, but you are~"

Seeing her smiling, Isabella couldn't help laughing.

"Isabella, can I visit you at your school when I'm free?"

"Okay." Isabella smiled warmly and welcomed her.

"Great! My home is in Bomsville, you can come to play with me if you have time~ But our family is more serious, unlike yours... Don't be afraid when the time comes, I will cover you!"

When Deb said this, he took out his phone and smiled very cutely, "Let's add a friend."

"Okay." Isabella took out her phone and added WhatsApp with her.

Cecilia, who was hiding in the dark, clenched her fists angrily!

damn it!

I didn't expect them to add friends so quickly!

What did Isabella give Deb in the garden just now to make Deb like her so much?

This scheming girl doesn't know how to please Deb...

I guess he knew Deb 's identity, so he was trying to win over him, right?

nausca!

When they came to the gate, Deb Poll hugged Isabella 's arm reluctantly. "Then we have agreed, we must make an appointment. sometime when we are free-"

As the second sister-in-law, she must buy it for her sister!

"Okay." Isabella smiled, "Second brother drive slowly, see your second sister-in-law."

"Goodbye!" Deb pampered and domineeringly touched Isabella's head, and couldn't help saying after getting into the car, "Our sister is so cute, so lovable!"

"Seat belt." When the second young master approached to fasten her seat belt. Deb playfully kissed him on the cheek.

"you..."

"Who made you so close to me." Deb said weirdly, "The key is, who made your face so handsome that people can't help but want to kiss."

"..."

"There was a smile on the corner of the second young master 's mouth. "Sit down."

"I know~"

He asked the girl next to him while driving, "Sister Cecilia isn't cute, isn't she likable?"

"It's okay" When Deb talked about Cecilia, he was not as enthusiastic as before, and his reaction was so-so, as if Cecilia was

The second young master found out, why doesn't Benjamin like Cecilia, and neither does Deb ?

All along, Deb doesn't seem to be as enthusiastic about Cecilia as he is about Isabella?

Is Cecilia really difficult to get along with in private?

While driving, the second young master looked at the traffic ahead and asked calmly, "If I could only have one younger sister, who would you choose?"

"It must be Isabella!" Deb 's expression seemed to be asking: Is there a choice??

The second young master 's eyes darkened a bit, and he asked inexplicably, "Why?"

"Don't you think she is very cute, sensible, kind and gentle! The point is, she is good-looking, delicate, smart, thoughtful, and easy to get along with... Where can I find such a good sister?"

The second young master glanced at her, "You are quite good at complimenting people."

"I'm telling the truth!" Deb looked forward, thought for a while, and then glanced at the second young master, "Let me tell you something you don't like to hear, I like Isabella better than Cecilia, because she Have a structure, have principles, dare to do everything, be reasonable, and have strong hands-on ability..."

"Manual ability...means the ability to beat you?" The second young master couldn't help laughing.

“That’s not true! How could she beat me?” Deb defended. “If it was you, and you found someone secretly watching you at the door, you must not go up to her and ask her? Sister Isabella is already very gentle, otherwise I’m feeding the sharks in the ocean now.”

“...” The second young master laughed, quite capable of defending the junior.

After a while, the second young master sent Deb to the door, “Be good these few days, spend more time with your family when you have time.”

Their industry is so busy that it is normal for them to be away from home for three to five months...

Deb put his arms around his neck, stood on tiptoe, and Poll kissed him for a long time before saying. “Anyway, you’re on vacation for the past two days, and you’re bored with your sister alone, why don’t you bring me? Between girls and girls There are more common topics.”

The second young master looked down at her and said softly, “Go back to work first.”

“No, I want to wait for you!”

The second young master can only compromise, “Then three days, we will go back together in three days.”

“Very good!”

Deb said goodbye to him reluctantly, and not long after entering the house, he suddenly received a WhatsApp message.

I thought it was sent to her by Isabella, but I clicked to open it, and it was Cecilia.

Her joy suddenly diminished a little...

“Second sister-in-law, are you home yet?”

Before Deb could reply, Cecilia continued to type and send.

“Sister Isabella grew up in a small place. I don’t know if she was spoiled by people in a small place before... I mean, you’d better pay attention to the things she gives you.”

Deb was a little depressed and asked knowingly, “What?”

“It’s... the gift she handed you in the garden just now.”

“Oh...” Deb suddenly realized, “So you’ve been spying on us since. just now?”

“No, no, I was just passing by and saw it.” Cecilia hurriedly explained.

“Do you have a problem with Isabella ?”

Isabella...

In just one night, Deb called Isabella ” Isabella “ ...

This progress is too fast....

“Second sister-in-law, you misunderstood...I just did it out of kindness...”

this Deb, who just started dating her second brother, and now she's acting like a "second sister-in-law"?

"Isabella gave me medicine! It speeds up my wound healing." Deb took a photo of the small bottle and sent it over, "It is produced by a regular group, so there must be no fraud? Besides, it killed me, what benefits can she get?"

As Deb, who would dare to kill her??

When Cecilia saw the medicine, a small bottle would cost tens of thousands...

Unexpectedly, Isabella was willing to spend a lot of money to please Deb...

So scheming!

Could it be that she is setting a long line to catch big fish?

"Second sister-in-law, I'd better not say anything, lest I say something wrong..."

"Then stop it!" Deb replied.

Men are relatively slow in emotion and don't notice anything, but it doesn't mean that she, the second sister-in-law, can't see anything.

"I heard that when Isabella came back to this home, it was because she nodded and agreed that you could continue to stay in this home?"

Cecilia clenched the phone tightly, "Second sister-in-law, what do you mean by that?"

"Don't forget the well digger when you drink water. You can maintain your current standard of living, be well-clothed and well-fed, and be embraced by others. It's all because of her nodding! Just for this, shouldn't you be grateful?"

Cecilia gripped the phone tighter, not expecting Deb to be so

"What uncles and aunts want is for a family to live in harmony and happiness. Whoever is restless, what will happen? Do I need to remind you? Also, what happened to people who grew up in a small place? My dad came from a small place. I still rely on my own ability to achieve today's achievements! I was taught by my father, and I became a deputy minister by myself, did people from a small place provoke you?"

Chapter 368 Confession

Cecilia was absolutely pissed off.

talk nonsense in front of me. I'm not your second brother, so I won't let you do that. "

"Do you know why I typed to chat with you? Because I saved all the screenshots, and you don't want to delete some chat records to create the illusion that I bully you. After all, this is the best trick you is good at."

"You..." Cecilia was furious, and didn't know what to say to refute.

"Do you know why I like Isabella? Because she is not artificial, not hypocritical, not blindly confident, not pretentious, not provoking discord, not hypocritical and jealous... learn from others."

Finally, Deb said, "If you want to speak ill of her, don't send me WhatsApp in the future."

Cecilia was so angry that she directly pulled Deb into the black list!

The phone was thrown on the table, and Cecilia's chest was heaving with anger. It took a while to calm down, and then released the people on the black list...

After all, she is the daughter of a big man, with a noble status, so I still keep it, maybe it will be useful in the future...

It's just that Deb thinks that if he climbs up to the second brother, he can be defiant and sneer at her...

Cecilia 's eyes became cold, if the second brother doesn't like her...

the other side.

A limousine stopped at the school gate.

A tall man stood beside the car, holding a girl's face in his arms and kissing her face as if no one was there.

"Hmm... Benjamin, okay..." Isabella's legs became limp after being kissed by him. As soon as the kiss was over, she found that all eyes were on them, and she felt a little embarrassed.

"She seems to be the perfect No. 1 Isabella in the doctor's class?"

"It should be, only she has such appearance and height..."

"Who is that man? His profile is so handsome and his legs are so long."

"Is it a boy from our school?"

"Is there such a handsome boy in our school?"

“The light is too dim, otherwise you can see clearly...”

Fortunately, there were not many people entering and leaving the campus at night, and no one could guess Benjamin 's identity.

Isabella raised her head and said to the man in front of her, “I’ll go in first.”

“Isabella.” Benjamin was still reminiscing about the kiss just now, his eyes were full of reluctance, “Call me in the dormitory later.”

“Um.”

“Keep your distance from the boys at school.”

“...” Isabella couldn’t help but said, “Do you need to remind me?”

Not long after entering the campus, Isabella suddenly received a call from her second brother.

” Isabella, back to school?”

“Well, second brother.”

“Is there anyone nearby? Is there anything you want to say to the second brother?” The second young master tried to persuade him on the phone.

“Huh?” Isabella was puzzled, “Say what?”

“Your second sister-in-law is from the Ministry of Security, deputy director, how did you get close to her? Can you still hurt her?”

Isabella didn't expect her second brother to call because she was curious about her hidden identity.

She said casually, "Because the second sister-in-law was thinking about you at that time, she was distracted, so I had a chance."

"The injury on her arm should be left by resisting your kick..."

The second young master had seen the injury on Deb's arm, it was by no means an ordinary injury.

The strength of Isabella's kick is by no means that of an ordinary person.

All right.

Since I can't hide it...

Isabella was about to tell the whole story, but unexpectedly the second young master said softly. "Second brother didn't want to inquire about your private affairs, but I just don't know if your current situation is safe or not, and what you are doing is not dangerous. If necessary, you can find the second young master." Brother, the second brother will solve it."

Isabella felt warm inside, "Don't worry, second brother, it's quite safe and not dangerous."

"Well, if you don't tell me, I won't force you." Through the phone, the second young master seemed to be able to imagine her obedient and docile expression. With such an obedient sister, how could she do something dangerous?

He must have thought too much...

“Second brother will come to pick you up at school tomorrow and take you to a place to play. You should rest well tonight.”

He has already notified the training side that there will be no too difficult training programs in the future.

“Okay, good night, second brother.

“Good night.”

After hanging up the phone, Isabella thought about it and sent WhatsApp again.

The second young master 's cell phone lit up, seeing that the person who sent the message was his sister, his eyes lit up again.

My sister took the initiative to send him a message!

“There is a small team in LA. They do some side business to make a little money. They didn't do anything harmful. It's safe and not dangerous.

Unexpectedly, my sister chose to tell the truth!

The second young master is a little surprised, LA?

How could a well-behaved and obedient sister get involved with LA? And a small team?

Just when he was wondering, the mobile phone received a message from his sister, only two words, “Secret.”

The second young master quickly sent an OK emoji, thought about it, and gave her another like.

He called someone to check it out, and the corner of his mouth. curved into a self-deprecating arc.

Small team?

A gang of thousands of people is also called a small team...

Have a side job?

It is said that they are doing big business...

Earn some money?

Starting with a monthly income of at least six figures...

The second young master suddenly discovered that the pocket money his brother gave was too little...

Unexpectedly, my younger sister turned out to be the leader of the well-known Nat Gang in LA, nicknamed Boss Isa...

What did my sister go through all these years to become the boss of a gang in a place like LA?

How can so many people listen to her?

What is LA, he knows very well, the last time Leah went there, he almost peeled off...

the person who saved Leah, according to Leah's description, it seems to be somewhat similar to Isabella?

Could it be Isabella??

Leah know about this??

training the next morning, Isabella received a call from Deb.

” Isabella, I’m coming to your school~ Which dormitory are you in? I’ll go find you~”

Isabella just finished her lunch, and when she heard this, she said gently, “I just happened to pass by the west gate, which gate are you at? I’ll pick you up.”

“No, no, I’m also in here! Where are you?” Deb looked left and right, excitedly. “I saw you! This! I’m here!!”

Isabella saw Deb at the school gate at a glance, and there were a lot of things at her feet, which should be bought gifts.

“Second sister-in-law, why are you free to come today? You brought so many things?” Isabella came to Deb and introduced to the roommates around, “This is my second sister-in-law.”

“My God, your second sister-in-law is so young and beautiful!”

“Yesterday we met your second brother, and your second brother is also very handsome! Your family’s appearance is too high? They are too much above the average line.”

Deb is happier to hear someone praise second young master than to hear someone praise her.

“Hello, students, are all the students so handsome now? You all look so beautiful!” Deb said this, and picked up the big bags on the ground.

“Second sister-in-law, you brought too many things.” Isabella knew that she had spent a lot of money.

“Nothing, a gift for you and your classmates.”

Because of Deb’s special status, it is not appropriate to attract attention when going out. If she brings bodyguards and maids, others will point the finger at her father...

So she always went to the mall to buy things by herself, and took a taxi to bring them by herself.

Very grounded.

Chapter 369

Isabella, your second sister-in-law is so nice. I bought so many things for you, and there are still some for us. Let me get them. second sister-in-law. You don’t need to bring gifts next time. They are all from you.” Poll helped to get some.

“Second sister-in-law, you must be exhausted on the way here, right? Why don’t you come to our dormitory and have some coffee? It’s not me bragging, our dormitory is very beautiful, and the coffee leaves Isabella brought last time are also very delicious! You will definitely like it. That’s right, if you like Isabella, you will definitely like her stuff.”

When Millie said this, she also helped to get some things.

Kara recognized Deb’s identity at a glance, good guy, I didn’t expect the second child of the Logan Family to find such an excellent girlfriend...

This family background can no longer be described as “cow” ...

“Second sister-in-law, let me get it.” Kara smiled, and found that second sister-in-law is really straightforward and easy to get along with.

As a good friend of Isabella, she couldn't help being happy for Isabella. It seems that Isabella's life will be happier in the future, and she has a good sister-in-law...

Isabella also took a lot of things, “Second sister-in-law, next time you don't need to bring gifts, Poll is right, they are all from us.”

“I want to bring it to you” Deb didn't expect Isabella to get along with her classmates so easily, holding the remaining presents in one hand, and holding Isabella's hand in the other, talking happily all the way.

When I arrived at the dormitory, Isabella made coffee for her, and the roommates brought out their own snacks, snacks, and fruits to treat her.

Such a warm scene made Deb's nose sore.

“Second sister-in-law, why don't you eat some fruit? I recently learned how to make a platter online. Look at my green hedgehog, isn't it cute? Hey, second sister-in-law, what's wrong with you? Are your eyes red?”

“Second sister-in-law, this is my favorite snack. Usually Poll wants to eat it, and I am a little reluctant. Today you are here, and I will open all the flavors to share with you. You can try it... Hey, why are you crying??”

“Second sister-in-law, what's the matter with you? Is my dim sum ugly and crying for you? I'll take it away...”

“No, no...” Deb hurriedly wiped away his tears and broke into a smile, “I just think you are so kind... I grew up, and my parents were very strict with me. This is the second time I feel this kind of family atmosphere.....”

Everyone's attention was on the "second time", and they were all curious and uttered their voices in unison.

"The first time was..."

"Needless to say, it must be at Isabella's house, to experience Isabella's family atmosphere" Kara laughed. "You have met Isabella's family, they are very kind and friendly~"

"Yes, yes, yes, Logan's father, Logan's mother, is very nice, warm. kind and gentle~"

"The point is, the appearance is still very good! Second sister-in-law, you should try this green grape. It's so sweet that I peeled off the skins one by one."

"Second sister-in-law, eat my snack."

Deb moved to accept the fruit lot and the snacks. After staying with them in the dormitory for a while, it was time for class.

"Second sister-in-law, you are resting in the dormitory. After training, I will come to you and take you out to eat." Isabella looked at her gently.

"No, no, no, I'll go with you."

It's too boring to be alone in the dormitory, so I just went to see if my sister-in-law is tired from training. If you are tired, you can say hello to the school.

When they were training. Deb sat under a nearby tree and found that their training program was very simple, nothing more than walking forward, turning left and right.

Compared with the brutal training in the department... there is simply no comparison.

"I heard that the perfect score No. I was taken care of by someone."

"real or fake?"

"Well, someone saw her kissing an old man at the school gate last night."

"I heard that she has a strong backing, she is the one who caused. the Ray Family sisters to leave school!"

"Ah? Isn't the Ray Family on good terms with the Young Family? Isabella 's backer is so tough that even the Young Family isn't afraid?"

"After Lori left, Jennifer also left. I heard that they all went through the withdrawal procedures..."

"I didn't expect that No. I's mind and eyes are so small and can't tolerate other people. Could it be that Jennifer and Lori's appearance is online, threatening her status?"

Deb turned around and saw four girls in military uniforms walking towards the school supermarket, probably to do some shopping.

One of the long-haired girls said. "I heard that she used tricks to get into the Logan Family...and bullied Cecilia! It's really disgusting! If it wasn't for the kindness of Logan's uncle, Aunt Logan, she would have kicked her out long ago.

When Deb heard it, she couldn't bear it anymore, she stepped forward in twos and threes, "Stop."

The four girls all turned their heads, seeing Deb's pretty and slightly angry face, they were a little confused.

"What's up?"

"You just said that Isabella used tricks to get into the Logan Family? What do you mean?" Deb was a little displeased. "You can cat indiscriminately, but you can't talk indiscriminately."

"Are you Isabella 's friend?" Dot couldn't help frowning. "How do you know I'm talking nonsense? If you want to fight for Isabella, you are looking for the wrong person and the wrong place!"

The three girls next to him also helped to speak:

"Do you know who she is? Have the Dot family heard of it? The city leaders are polite in front of her father!"

"That's right, you dare to talk to our Dot like that. Who are you? What do you do at home? Do you dare to report your name?"

"I advise you to apologize to Dot, and let this matter pass..."

"Oh..." Deb thought who it was, and it turned out that it wasn't even an onion," Isabella 's family affairs, you know very well? Just make up nonsense, and we can sue you for defamation!"

"Isabella is not a good person!" Dot was furious. She didn't expect this beautiful girl to protect Isabella so much. What's so good about Isabella ?

Deb got annoyed, "Is the school teaching you a scum?"

"I'm not talking nonsense, I was told by Cecilia herself! Isabella is eligible to go to school because of the support from the Logan Family. She can get full marks in the exam, and it is inseparable from the support behind the Logan Family!"

After Dot finished speaking, he realized that he had said something he shouldn't have said, so he covered his mouth, but after thinking about it, he felt that there was no need to keep it a secret for Cecilia.

Then he said." Isabella relied on her good looks and good grades, and relied on the kindness and simplicity of Logan's uncle and aunt Logan, who persuaded them with sweet words to become their goddaughter, and everyone moved to Logan Family, otherwise you Why do you think her last name is Isabella ?"

Deb really laughed angrily, " Cecilia told you, Isabella is a student sponsored by the Logan Family? Because she can talk and has a sweet mouth, she became the adopted daughter of the Logan Family? Is that the case?"

"Isn't it?" Dot was a little unconfident by her question.

"Which cyc do you see that Isabella seems to be scheming, talking sweet words to please people? She is straightforward in everything, how can she be as devious as you?"

Chapter 370

When Deb said this, he couldn't help but said, " Cecilia? I happen to know her too. Now I'll let her come over and confront her face to face."

After speaking, she took out her mobile phone and was about to call Cecilia.

Dot laughed, Who is Cecilia, how could you have her number..."

That's the Logan Family Lady, the richest man's daughter!

You don't just make friends with other people.

"Don't try to fool me, I'm Cecilia 's good friend, I can still hear her voice..."

As soon as Dot finished speaking, he heard Cecilia 's voice coming from Deb's cell phone.

"Hello? Second sister-in-law, what's the matter?"

Second sister-in-law?

Dot and the three classmates around him were taken aback, it was really Cecilia's voice!

But how could this girl in front of her be Cecilia 's second sister-in- law?

Since they are a family, why would they speak for Isabella?

What's the matter?

"I'm in the medical university, come over here." Deb didn't talk nonsense, and got straight to the point.

"Second sister-in-law, are you here at the Medical University?" Cecilia was a little surprised, hearing Deb 's tone of displeasure, Cecilia asked cautiously. "What happened?"

"It's nothing. I'm going to cat out later, and your second brother, are you going?"

Cecilia would certainly not miss such a good opportunity to be close to her second brother and take the opportunity to deal with this arrogant "second sister-in-law".

But when she thought that her second brother and second sister-in- law went to the medical university to visit Isabella first, and only now called to inform her, she suddenly felt a little uncomfortable.

"Where do we meet?" Cecilia forcibly suppressed her inner displeasure.

Now??

Cecilia still has training...

But thinking about finally having this opportunity, he ran to ask the instructor for leave again.

Dot saw Deb sitting on the landscape stone next to him, with a sassy posture, and couldn’t help asking, “You... are you really Cecilia ‘s second sister-in-law? Is there something else hidden? Isabella is not like Cecilia said, it is funded by the Logan Family s student?”

When Dot said this, he shook his head subconsciously. “But Cecilia has no reason to lie to me... We have been good friends since junior high...”

“Who’s lying, you’ll find out after a while?” Deb didn’t talk nonsense with her, took out his phone, and sent a message to the second young master, “Come here, University of Medicine.”

After a while, the second young master called her.

“Did you go to school to see Isabella?”

“Well, there is something going on here, you’d better come and witness.”

Let’s not say that her second sister-in-law, who has never been married, bullied the little princess raised by the Logan Family for eighteen years.

Condition?

what's the situation?

The second young master immediately realized something. "What happened to Isabella? Someone bullied her?"

"Um."

Someone did bully her...

"I'll contact the school, and I'll deal with it in the past..."

"No, it's all our own people." Deb added, "It's just as long as you have people."

My own? Without school? As long as others arrive?

Although he was a bit puzzled, the second young master quickly agreed.

When he went downstairs, Eloise glanced at him. "Second brother. you came just in time. When you are free these two days, you can bring some small gifts to Leah's family to have a look. In terms of etiquette, we can't be negligent....."

"Mom, we'll talk about this later." The second young master walked downstairs quickly and was about to leave the living room.

Eloise was a little surprised, "Aren't you going to take your sister out for dinner today? Where are you going in such a hurry? Could it be a work matter again? You can't let your sister dove!"

"Leah is in the medical university. I'll go over and have a look."

“Oh...” So I went to find my girlfriend and sister, no wonder I left in such a hurry.

“Be gentle with your expression, don’t scare the two girls...” Eloise held her heart, she thought something serious happened just now, seeing her son’s cold face, hey, how could she give birth to such a serious son.

The second young master just entered his garage and chose a car at random. As soon as he opened the door, his phone vibrated. It was the audio from Deb.

Out of curiosity, he clicked on it, and his face turned cold inch by inch.

[You just said that Isabella used tricks to get into the Logan Family? What’s the meaning? Meals can be eaten indiscriminately, but words cannot be said indiscriminately. I

It’s Deb’s voice.

It sounded like there was an argument with someone.

[You are Isabella’s friend? How do you know I’m talking nonsense? If you want to defend Isabella, you are looking for the wrong person and the wrong place.]

[I’m not talking nonsense, Cecilia told me! Isabella is eligible to go to school because of the support from the Logan Family. She can get full marks in the exam, which is inseparable from the support behind the Logan Family.]

[Isabella relied on her good looks and good grades, and relied on the kindness and simplicity of Logan’s uncle and aunt Logan, who persuaded them with sweet words to become their goddaughter, and everyone moved to Logan Family. Otherwise, why do you think her surname is called Isabella?]

Deb laughed back angrily: [Cecilia told you that Isabella is a student sponsored by the Logan Family? Because she can talk and has a sweet mouth, she became the adopted daughter of the Logan Family? Is that the case?]

[Isn't it?]

[Which eye do you see, Isabella seems to be scheming, talking sweet words to please people? She is straightforward in everything, how can she be so twisted and twisted like you?]

[Is Cecilia? It just so happens that I know her too, so now I'll let her come over and confront her face to face. I

The recording ended here, and the eyes of the second young master were stained with a complex look.

Since she was a child, Cecilia has always been a well-behaved and obedient child. Although she was brought up pampered and has a more arrogant personality, she still doesn't talk nonsense in front of her friends...

But now, she said that Isabella is a student sponsored by the Logan Family. Because she can talk and has a sweet mouth, she moved into the Logan Family and became the adopted daughter of the Logan Family.

Who is the adopted daughter and who is the true Lady of pure blood? She has no idea?

If she really was spreading rumors outside, how much harm would it do to Isabella?

It seems that Deb accidentally discovered that her classmates were talking bad things about Isabella, so she confronted them and even called him to come over. Not surprisingly, given her personality, she would definitely call Cecilia to confront her.

Benjamin said came back to his mind, and his heart seemed to be tightly clenched by an invisible big hand.

“Believe me. I haven’t recorded any more extreme things. Some people say that Isabella is hard in the background and forced away the Ray Family sisters. They say that she is small-minded. Some people say that she was taken care of by an old man and kissed an old man at the school gate...”

What is all this nonsense?

The second young master was a little angry. “Who spread the word?”

Could it be... all related to Cecilia ?

“I don’t know either. Anyway, you should just come here.” Deb didn’t talk nonsense to him, but just told him to drive slowly on the road.
