

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 1021

The next day, Selena woke up early and changed into light clothes.

Today I made an appointment with Gong Shangze to go to Taoyuan Village to visit Mr. Song Jin, a master of traditional Chinese painting.

Because Taoyuan Village is a bit far away, about three or four hours' drive, and the road conditions in the village are not good, and cars can't drive in, so Selena decided not to drive by herself, and bought a ticket directly to take a long-distance bus. .

When she was in the studio before, Selena had studied Song Jin's strategy plan with Gong Shangze in detail.

It includes all the life information and works of Song Lao in detail, especially his personality and preferences.

Unfortunately, the results of the research are not very optimistic.

The bus was gradually leaving the urban area. Selena leaned on the back of the chair and looked at the densely packed data in the notebook with a headache, "Hey, it's really a bit difficult... When you get to Mr. Song's level, you basically jump out of the Three Realms Wai is no longer in the Five Elements! It is really difficult to please him!"

Gong Shangze on the side was also browsing Song Jin's works on the ipad, and murmured, "Elder Song lives alone now, and there is no way to attack people around him, and the worst thing is, Elder Song really hates being disturbed by others." He is clean, and the possibility of trying to please him with money or other vulgar things is very small..."

"Tsk, people always have weaknesses! It's impossible to have no flaws at all! It's useless to talk about it on paper, let's talk about it after meeting the real person first!"

"Ok!"

In the car, Selena fell asleep with her head tilted, and it was almost there when she woke up.

Because Selena and Gong Shangze were the last ones to get off, there were only two of them left on the bus at this moment. It seemed that this place was really sparsely populated.

But it's no wonder, otherwise the scenery would not be so original.

"Wow! The scenery here is so beautiful!" Looking at the green peach forest outside the window, Selena suddenly regained her spirits and couldn't help but marvel.

Gong Shangze nodded, "Even the air is so fresh!"

"Emma! This is pure air without smog! I need to take a few more breaths!" Selena squinted her eyes and took several deep breaths.

"The scenery will be better when you enter the village!" Gong Shangze said with some longing.

"Tsk, Mr. Song really enjoys it! You should be very inspired in such a place, right?"

...

While the two were talking, the last stop was reached, Selena hurriedly grabbed her backpack and got out of the car with Gong Shangze.

"Then how do we go?" Selena looked at the endless fields and peach groves in front of her, feeling relaxed and happy, thinking that even if she couldn't invite anyone, it would be good to just treat it as an outing.

If there is a chance, I will definitely bring my little baby over to play. The last time I went camping with Daniel without Rick, Selena always felt sorry for my little baby, and planned to make up for Rick's spring outing.

Gong Shangze glanced at the phone's navigation, "Go straight ahead along this path!"

"Okay! Let's go..."

Selena picked a peach blossom by the side of the road, and walked forward in high spirits.

However, half an hour later, the two were confused.

"Uh, Gong Shangze...have we lost our way?"

Gong Shangze fiddled with the phone anxiously, "But that's what the navigation says!"

"So the navigation is for us to swim across?" Selena stared blankly at the wide river in front of her.

Gong Shangze sighed, "The terrain here is complicated, and the navigation may not be accurate, I was careless!"

There was no other way, the two of them had no choice but to continue walking around until evening, before they finally saw a small courtyard.

Chapter 1022

Households in Taoyuan Village are very far apart, and Song Jin lives in a particularly remote place, with no shop in front of the village or behind, it is really hard to find people who come here for the first time.

Fortunately, I finally found it today, and I didn't make a trip in vain.

Not far ahead, there is an antique small courtyard, smoke is rising from the chimney on the roof, behind the house is a large dense peach blossom forest, and not far away is a shimmering paddy field. There were a few humming sounds of the old scalper...

"Opening up wasteland in the southern wilderness, guarding and returning to the garden. The square house is more than ten acres, and the thatched house is one room. The back eaves are shaded by elms and willows, and the front of the peach and plum hall is in front of the hall. It is warm in Yuanren Village, and the smoke in Yiyixu... Tsk, it seems that Song always A fan of Tao Yuanming?" Selena laughed.

After running around all day today, Gong Shangze was about to fall down from exhaustion, but when he turned his head, Selena was still reciting poems in high spirits. It's really...unspeakable...

There was no gate in the yard, and it was a fence built with a few logs. The two adjusted their appearance a little, and then walked to Caimen.

"Excuse me, is Mr. Song at home?" Gong Shangze called out to the yard.

There was no movement inside.

However, looking at the chimney on the roof, someone must be at home.

The two called again, and sure enough, after a while, a figure came out of the house.

I saw that the person who came was wearing a coarse cloth gown, with a gray beard, and he was full of energy and spirit.

After seeing Song Jin herself, Selena's heart skipped a beat.

The image of the old man shows that he has no desires and desires at first glance. People who have no desires and desires are the most difficult to deal with!

"Mr. Song!" Gong Shangze is Song Jin's brainless fan. When he saw the idol, he was exhausted immediately, full of chicken blood, and excitedly said, "Mr. Song, I'm sorry to disturb your purity. My name is Gong Shang Ze, is a designer, I like your works very much, you are my favorite calligrapher and painter, I still have your superb "Ten Miles of Frogs" in my collection..."

Gong Shangze is worthy of being a qualified fan. He is very fond of Song Jin's works, and the love and excitement in his eyes are also real and pure. From Selena's point of view, if she has such a cute and enthusiastic little fan If you came all the way to see me, you should invite me in for a cup of tea.

"There are no calligraphers or painters here, only an old man. Please go back."

However, Song Jin's expression was very indifferent from the beginning to the end, even his eyes didn't seem to be looking at two people, but at two inanimate things. In the end, he only replied this sentence and went straight into the room.

Looking at the ruthlessly closed door, Gong Shangze looked disappointed, "Although I have prepared for it...but..."

Selena patted him on the shoulder, "It's nothing, at least you've seen your idol!"

Gong Shangze cheered up again: "I still want to wait."

Selena was also thinking about this, "Then just wait a little longer! Maybe Mr. Song would like to see us seeing our sincerity!"

The two waited outside the door until the sun went down.

Seeing that the sky was getting darker and darker, Selena sighed, "God is too uncooperative! It would be nice to have a downpour to brighten the atmosphere at this time!"

However, it was obvious that the weather was not good, they waited till the end but they didn't wait for the heavy rain, and of course, they didn't wait for Song Jin to change his mind.

"Shang Ze, come back tomorrow! No matter how late you are, you won't be able to catch the last bus!"

Although Gong Shangze was not reconciled, he could only leave first.

Chapter 1023

The next day, Selena and Gong Shangze came to Taoyuan Village again.

Because this time I already have experience and know how to go, so I will arrive at noon.

The two met Song Jin on the road in the field. Song Jin was wearing a straw hat and planting rice seedlings in the field.

Song Jin's technique of transplanting rice seedlings is sophisticated and quick. At first glance, he looks exactly like an ordinary countryman. Who would have thought that he would be a well-known master of Huaguo Chinese painting at home and abroad!

From the corner of the eye, I saw the two people from yesterday visiting again, Song Jin didn't have any special reaction, and was still doing her own thing indifferently.

The routine almost failed yesterday, so Selena decided to change the routine this time, so she said straight to the point, "Hello, Mr. Song, I am Selena, the person in charge of Zeling Studio, and this is our designer, Gong Shang." Ze.

We, Zeling, are a clothing design company that focuses on Huaguo style. Our designers love your work very much, and because your work fits our style very well, so we are here this time to talk about cooperation with you I wonder if you can consider it? "

After a brief silence, Song Jin straightened up and looked in Selena's direction, "Young man, you should find someone else. The old man has already said that he is just an old man and cannot help you."

Selena scratched her hair speechlessly when she heard the words, I'll go, why is this sentence again!

However, it can also be seen from this sentence that Song Jin really doesn't care about worldly things now, and he doesn't know what can interest him...

"Mr. Song, don't you think about it again? Even if you don't value fame and fortune, don't you want your works to be passed down and have greater value?" Selena asked tentatively.

Hearing this sentence, Song Jin's figure seemed to pause.

Is there a show?

Selena immediately looked over nervously, but the other party bent down and continued planting rice seedlings again.

Well, failed again...

But it's no wonder, Song Jin has already reached the top and is well-known at home and abroad, so why would he care about whether to cooperate with a clothing company or not.

Selena and Gong Shangze took turns lobbying, but they still returned in vain.

Before leaving, Selena left the materials of the studio at the door.

Seeing Gong Shangze's listless look, Selena patted him on the shoulder and said, "Don't be discouraged! Liu Bei asked Zhuge Liang to visit the thatched cottage again! Let's fight again tomorrow! Maybe it will be tomorrow!"

...

As a result, it failed again on the third day.

After returning from Taoyuan Village, Selena went directly to the Platinum Emperor Palace.

As soon as she entered the room, Selena threw herself on the sofa, "Oh, it's so difficult..."

"What's the matter?" Daniel was sitting on the sofa reading the newspaper, and when he saw the girl's appearance as soon as she entered the door, he asked, stroking the girl's hair.

"It's the master of Chinese painting I told you about! It's so hard to hire!" Selena muttered.

"Song Jin?"

"That's right! It's so soft and hard that you don't eat oil and salt! The key is to have no desires, no desires, nowhere to start!" Selena couldn't help but vomit.

"It's really unlikely to invite Mr. Song, I suggest you find someone else." Daniel said.

Well, even Daniel said that... I guess it's really dead...

Selena sighed, "I also think it's impossible, let's try one last time tomorrow! That unlucky child Gong Shangze is too weak to stay indoors for a long time, and he's sick from running around for the past few days! I have to be alone tomorrow Go... Oh no! No! Tomorrow is Saturday! I just happened to take Rick to the spring outing! Perfect!"

...

Chapter 1024

As soon as Selena finished speaking, a soft little bun ran down the stairs and threw itself into her arms, her little face was full of anticipation.

Seeing that Rick was so excited when he heard about the spring outing, Selena couldn't help but feel a little guilty, "Well, I'm sorry bun, Mama hasn't taken you out for a long time recently! Let's go tomorrow! And it's my mother alone Go!"

Go with Ma Ma without papa?When Rick heard this, his eyes immediately became brighter, the light was so dazzling that it almost dazzled Selena's eyes.

Selena: "Yes! No big light bulbs!"

Daniel: Isn't this retribution coming too fast?

"What's the matter, do you have an opinion?" Selena looked at Daniel and raised her eyebrows.

Daniel said helplessly, "No."

This girl knew that he was going on a business trip tomorrow to discuss a project, so she definitely couldn't go.

"Okay, then it's such a happy decision!"

...

Because it was decided to go on a spring outing with Ma Ma, Rick was so excited that he almost didn't fall asleep all night.

This is the first spring outing with Ma Ma in my life.

Early the next morning, Rick got up and began to pack and prepare things for the spring outing.

The family of three packed up and prepared to split up.

At this time, a person suddenly rushed over from the opposite villa..."Wait, wait! There's still me! And me!"

"Saul? Why are you here?" Selena looked at the person in surprise.

"My brother said that you guys are going on a spring outing! The spring outing will definitely be barbecued! There will be a picnic! I want to go too!" Saul had a drooling expression on his face.

Selena was speechless, "Are you here for the spring outing or for the food?"

"Of course it is to eat! Sister-in-law, the barbecue you grilled last time was delicious! I don't want to eat it for nothing, can't I work as a coolie for your backpack?" Saul had a flattering face.

"After all, it's in the wilderness, let Saul go with you." Daniel said from the side.

"Alright then!" Selena thought it would be nice to have someone to help with her backpack, as she did bring a lot of things today.

"Um... would you mind bringing one more person...?" Louis's voice came from behind.

Looking at Louis who appeared out of nowhere, Saul immediately had an expression of being upset that there was one more person grabbing food, "I'll go! Louis! Why are you everywhere! It's fine to have supper, spring outing!" rub too!"

"Didn't you say go to the wilderness? There must be no one in the wilderness, right? I recently suffered from crowd syndrome, and I get headaches when I see too many people. I just need such a place to relax and relax!" Louis said in a weak and worried tone. opened the mouth.

The corner of Selena's mouth twitched, "What the hell is crowd syndrome?"

"It's all the troubles of people like us who are too popular, and it's not your fault if you don't understand!" Louis sighed.

Selena: "..."

My hands are so itchy, I really want to punch someone!

In the end, Selena and Rick became three, four.

Just take it with you, just one to help carry the bag, and the other to carry Rick when he is tired from walking, the rhythm of Zhu Bajie and Bailongma!

pretty good!

After making a decision, Selena walked up to Daniel to say goodbye, "My dear, let's go..."

As soon as they heard Selena speak in such a soft, glutinous, delicate and delicate tone, Saul and Louis knew that the time for dog abuse was up, and they both stepped up tacitly and walked a little farther away, out of sight.

...

Chapter 1025

"Well, have fun." Daniel patted the girl's head.

Selena looked at Daniel who had to work overtime on the big weekend, and suddenly couldn't bear it anymore, "Hey, I suddenly feel so pitiful to leave you alone..."

Although she originally went to work today, the atmosphere seems to have completely turned into an outing.

Daniel pinched the girl's soft earballs, and said in a low voice, "I will make it up to you later."

Selena blinked her eyes, "How about making love now?"

"Enough of being cute! There are still minors here..." Saul howled not far away.

Selena tiptoed and kissed Daniel's cheek, then waved goodbye to the child's father.

It was the first time for Rick to take this kind of bus, and he was very excited along the way, especially after arriving at Taoyuan Village, looking at the scenery in front of him, the little guy's eyes reflecting the large sea of flowers were full of novelty and light.

Although Selena had watched the same scene three times, she was already numb, but because she was with Rick this time, everything was a brand new experience.

"The mountains and rivers are beautiful, with no traces of man-made carvings at all! The most important thing is that there is not a single person! Great! Oh oh oh..." Louis looked at the green mountains and green water monsters in the distance and called out.

Looking at it, I guess it was really suffocating.

"Hey, did you tell Brother Ming when you came out today?" Selena asked casually.

Louis: "Why should I tell him?"

Selena: "..."

Lei Ming didn't know what evil he did in his previous life, but in this life he wanted to be Louis's manager.

Selena couldn't bear to think about it, and finally sent Lei Ming a text message to tell him.

"Wow, wow, it's delicious! Sweet..."

When Selena didn't pay attention, that ba5tard Saul had already climbed the tree, and was picking a few peach blossoms in his hand to eat the honey from the stamens.

Sure enough, he is a foodie.

Selena also went over to pick some, and then gave it to Rick, who licked a sip, his eyes sparkling.

"Let's go! The scenery ahead is even better!"

It wasn't for nothing that Selena came three times. She had already figured out the nearby routes, and knew the best scenery and the most fun places. Being a good tour guide was no problem at all.

Along the way, the four master and apprentice traveled around the mountains and rivers. At noon, Selena took them to find a beautiful peach grove to settle down and start a picnic.

Saul finally waited for the long-awaited moment, and quickly set up all the barbecue grills that he had carried all the way, and then took out all the ingredients and put them in order.

Selena was instructing Louis to arrange the tablecloths and set the tableware, and let the two of them be busy there, and she took the little bun to hunt the butterflies and catch the rabbits first.

"Golden Retriever! Have you done it yet! Come here, there is a rabbit here, go and catch it! Let's have an extra meal today!"

Louis was laying things on the ground while looking at the big and small jumping not far away, only then did he suddenly realize, did he fall into the pit?

This is simply to be a coolie! No wonder Daniel didn't object at all when he said he would come over!

"fcuk you! I'm not a dog! I can still catch rabbits!" Louis said angrily.

"It's really useless! Help me take care of Rick... I'll catch you....." Selena said and ran away without a trace.

After a long while, Selena came back, actually holding a fluffy white rabbit in her hand.

Louis was speechless, "Are you a woman after all..."

When Rick saw the rabbit in Ma Ma's hand, he immediately ran over excitedly.

Selena knelt down and said softly to Little bun, "Do you want to pet it? It's so fluffy and soft!"

...

Chapter 1026

When Rick saw a real rabbit for the first time, he hesitated for a moment, then stretched out his little hand, and gently touched the rabbit.

After touching it, Rick's eyes widened.

Soft! hairy!

Selena couldn't help laughing out at Little bun's rare and lively expression, "Haha... Isn't it fun?"

Little bun nodded again and again, stroking it lovingly.

The rabbit was still kicking its legs when it was in Selena's hands, but after Rick touched it, it became much quieter.

"Wow! What a fat rabbit! Hurry up, roast it!" Saul excitedly said.

When the little bun heard this, he gave Saul a hard look, and then hugged the rabbit.

"Roast your head, and you'll know how to eat it!" Selena said angrily.

"It's not sister-in-law... Didn't you say you caught her for extra food?" Saul was scolded with an innocent look on his face.

Selena: "Little Treasure likes it, so don't eat it now!"

Rick also nodded vigorously, don't eat rabbits, mine!

Saul: It should belong to my stomach!

"Have you brought your medicine kit?" Selena asked.

Louis immediately frowned and said, "Are you injured? I told you not to jump on the rabbit!"

Selena: "The rabbit is injured, okay?"

Louis: "..."

Selena dug out the medicine box and began to bandage the rabbit.

Wild rabbits run fast and are highly alert. How could she be caught so easily? Because one leg of this rabbit was injured, she was caught.

Little bun patted the rabbit's head with a distressed face, looking like he was in pain.

After wrapping it up, Selena carefully placed the rabbit into Rick's arms and let him hold it. The rabbit was honest and well-behaved when he was hugged by Rick.

"Why is it so troublesome... How good it is to eat directly..." Saul had a heartbroken expression.

Fortunately, he soon forgot about the rabbit, because Selena started to barbecue.

In the woods, the fragrance of peach blossoms and the tempting aroma of food are mixed together, which makes people salivate and appetite!

The four of them were eating when there was a sound of creaking footsteps behind them.

Selena subconsciously turned her head away, and then saw Song Jin walking towards the peach forest with a basket in his hand, leading the cow.

what! I had so much fun that I almost forgot about the business!

The reason why she chose to have a picnic in this place was because she found that Song Jin would usually come here for dinner after finishing her farm work at noon.

"Mr. Song, are you done with your work? Do you want to come over and have something to eat?" Selena asked enthusiastically.

After coming here to brush his face for three days, Selena was already familiar with her. In addition, she didn't expect much when she came here this time, so she relaxed a lot.

Song Jin glanced at several people, paused for a while when his eyes fell on Rick, and then said, "Thank you, the old man brought lunch!"

After all, ten steps away from Selena and the others, he sat under a tree root and started to eat lunch. The basket contained simple steamed buns and pickles.

"Is he Song Jin?" Louis asked.

While on the road just now, Selena had already chatted with Louis and Saul about Song Jin.

"That's right! Are you particularly detached?" Selena clicked her tongue.

Saul who was on the side ate his mouth full of oil and slurred his words, "No matter how detached people are, I'll tell you their weaknesses! For example, my brother's weakness is you, and my weakness is delicious food..."

"Hehe, you can use your brother as an example, but you...forget it!"

"Anyway, that's what it means. He must have something he wants, but you haven't found it!"

...

Chapter 1027

"It's the same as not saying it!"

If she wants to know what Song Jin's desire is, can she still run around like a headless chicken?

Looking at the little bun beside him eating by himself and feeding the little rabbit grass, his big eyes were lively and lively that he didn't usually have.

Selena leaned her forehead, wiped the little bun's mouth, and immediately felt better again.

It's a bit far away here and it's in the wilderness. I was worried that the little bun would not get used to it, but I didn't expect the little guy to play so well, and he didn't feel tired for a long time. It seems that I can often take the little bun out for a while...

Nature is always the most healing!

Seeing Selena's motherly expression, Louis's mood was indescribable...

Not far away, Song Jin quickly finished his lunch and continued to work in the field.

Selena and the others lay down in the peach grove and took a nap for a while. After getting up in the afternoon, Selena continued to take them to several other interesting places.

The four of them played happily until the evening, and were about to go back home, but unexpectedly, it began to rain in the sky halfway.

Moreover, the rain is getting heavier and heavier, and there is no sign at all!

The little bun was nervously protecting the rabbit in his arms, while Selena hurriedly hugged the little bun, while Saul took off his coat and wrapped the little bun, and the four hurried out of the village.

However, there is at least half an hour before leaving the village, and with the rain, the road will become more and more difficult to walk. The situation is really bad...

Selena was speechless, "I'll go! Did I make a mistake! This rain didn't rain when it should, and it rained so happily when it shouldn't!"

"Where is the nearest shelter from the rain?" Louis asked.

"Only Mr. Song's room, but it's impossible... Mr. Song's room does not allow any strangers to enter! Last time I covered my face and wanted to go in to ask for a drink, but I was rejected!" Selena said.

When the two were talking, they happened to pass by the place where Song Jin lived.

Just as he was hesitating whether to ask for help, the yard door suddenly opened, and Song Jin stood at the door and looked at them, "Come in!"

Huh?

Did you take the initiative to invite them in? ? ?

There is such a good thing?

"Thank you Mr. Song!" Selena didn't have time to think about it, and hurried into the room with the little bun in her arms.

"Thank you, old man!" Louis and Saul also thanked him.

Song Jin's attitude was still quite indifferent, "It's just for the sake of the child."

Selena put the little bun down, "Honey, thank you, Grandpa Song!"

Rick nodded, first let Ma Ma hug the rabbit in his arms, then took out the writing board, and wrote five words seriously: Thank you, grandpa.

Seeing that Rick was communicating with him with a writing board, Song Jin was just a little startled, but after seeing Rick's handwriting clearly, a look of surprise flashed across his eyes.

This child is so young, but he can write a good handwriting!

The sound of pattering rain outside was endless, and it seemed that it would not stop for a while.

Song Jin let them do whatever they wanted, and then went into the study by herself.

Saul couldn't stay idle, and soon became a little bored, rolled his eyes, and suddenly took out a deck of cards from his bag, "It's so boring, let's play cards!"

"Okay!" Louis seconded, "But how do you fight with three people?"

Saul smiled and looked at Rick, "Let's teach bun to fight with us!"

In the study room, Song Jin was concentrating on painting while taking advantage of Yu Xing's inspiration. Hearing this, he couldn't bear to listen. He opened the door and waved to Rick, "Son, come to Grandpa!"

...

Chapter 1028

The little bun subconsciously glanced at Ma Ma.

Selena smiled and kissed bun's little cheek, "Go! Go play with grandpa!"

Saul is such an idiot, she is speechless to him, she is really worried about his future children!

The little bun who listened to Ma Ma's words nodded, and then went to the old man's place.

Just now he discovered that there were many paintings in the old man's study, and now he couldn't help looking up with his little head up.

"Like it?" Seeing the little guy staring intently, Song Jin asked with a rare tenderness.

Rick nodded: I like it.

"You know calligraphy? I mean... you can write brush characters, can you?" Song Jin asked again.

The little bun continued to nod.

"Then...can you draw?" Song Jin asked again, this time with an imperceptible tension in his tone.

Rick still nodded.

Upon hearing this, Song Jin immediately spread out a blank piece of drawing paper, and then made room for Rick, "Try?"

...

Outside, Selena, Saul, and Louis were playing a three-player game against the landlord.

Saul glanced in the direction of the study room, curled his lips and said, "What's so fun about Rick being with an old man! Why don't you come and play cards with us!"

"My bun loves painting. With Mr. Song's knowledge of traditional Chinese painting, it's good to get some advice from him. Is there any benefit in playing cards with you?" Selena said angrily.

Saul clicked his tongue, "Selena...you are becoming more and more dedicated to being a mother!"

After an unknown amount of time, the door of the study room opened suddenly, and Song Jin and Rick came out.

Song Jin, who had always looked calm and indifferent to the outside world, had obvious excitement and excitement on his face at this moment. His eyes swept across Saul and Louis in turn, and asked, "Which of you is the father of the child?"

"Uh..." Saul was taken aback by this sudden question, and then subconsciously replied, "I'm not!"

Song Jin immediately looked at Louis.

Louis hastily coughed softly, "Me neither!"

Saul continued, "I'm the child's second uncle!"

Louis: "I'm his... um... cousin!"

Seeing that Song Jin's expression was a little off, Selena couldn't help asking, "Old Song... are you... what's the matter?"

Song Jin immediately looked at Selena again, "Are you the mother of the child? Can you make decisions about this child?"

Uh? child thing? whats the matter?

Selena thought for a while, "This... If it's a big deal, I'd better listen to the child's father!"

After Selena finished speaking, she glanced suspiciously at Little bun who was walking up to her.

Baby, what happened to this?

The little bun blinked his eyes, his face was ignorant, obviously he didn't know.

Saul and Louis were also confused.

After hearing Selena's words, Song Jin seemed anxious, and asked again, "So... where is the father of the child now? Can I meet him?"

Selena heard it even more strangely, and was about to speak when there was a knock on the door, accompanied by the patter of rain.

In the wilderness, at this time, who will knock on the door?

Song Jin restrained her expression, walked outside to open the door a little absent-mindedly.

I saw a slender man standing outside the door. The man was wearing a black windbreaker, holding an umbrella in his hand, standing quietly in the night wind.

...

Chapter 1029

"Are you...?" Song Jin looked up and down the visitor with blazing eyes.

I saw that the man's body was already half wet, and there were a lot of mud stains on the bottom of his trousers. However, even though he was in a mess all over his body, his aura did not diminish at all.

Song Jin knew countless people, and almost immediately concluded that the person in front of him might not be simple.

There have been many people who have come here to invite him for various reasons, but there has never been a single person with such an aura.

It's just... why does this person... look a little kind?

"Sorry for disturbing you late at night, I'm here to find someone." The man said.

Presuming that he should be looking for the four people who came in just now, so Song Jin let him in directly: "Come in!"

Song Jin came back after a while, followed by a man.

After seeing who was coming, Selena immediately widened her eyes and rushed over quickly, "Daniel! Why are you here?"

"I don't worry about you and the child." Seeing that she and Rick were doing well, Daniel was slightly relieved.

"Look, you're completely soaked!" Selena hurriedly took out a tissue and wiped it nervously for the man.

Daniel: "It's okay."

Next to him, Saul, who was completely ignored, suddenly became dissatisfied, "Hey, hey, are you worried about your wife and children? There are also your own brother and nephew you don't love here!"

Louis: Don't take me with you, just keep ignoring me.

Wife and children?

Song Jin froze for a moment when he heard that, is he the father of the child?

No wonder just now I felt that Mian Shan really looked like a father and son...

"Mr. Song! Aren't you looking for my little treasure's father? He's the one!" Saul looked at Song Jin and said.

It was only then that Selena remembered to explain to Daniel, "Mr. Song seems to be looking for you for something, it seems to be about Rick!"

After finally meeting the child's father, Song Jin stopped playing around and said directly, "Your son is very talented in painting, I want to take him in as a student."

"Huh? Mr. Song, you... want to take Rick as your apprentice?" Selena asked in surprise.

"Yes." Song Jin nodded seriously, looking at Rick with burning eyes.

"This..." Selena didn't expect Song Jin to make such a request at all, so she didn't react.

Song Jin has been single all her life, has no children, and has never taken an apprentice. When Selena read the information, she thought that he had no intention of accepting an apprentice, so she was a little surprised at this moment.

Now it seems that it's not that he has no intention of accepting apprentices, but that he has never met anyone he wants to accept?

It is estimated that in the study just now, Elder Song should have passed Rick's school exam, so he came up with this idea.

Selena was so proud that he could make Elder Song, who had never taken a single apprentice in his entire life, fall in love with him. Selena was full of pride, his son was great!

In fact, even Daniel was a little surprised. He didn't expect that Selena was just taking the children out for a spring outing, and was just here to hide from the rain, but Song Jin would propose to accept him as an apprentice.

With Song Jin's attainments, it is undoubtedly a great opportunity for Rick to be willing to accept Rick.

So, Daniel and Selena looked at each other, and then said, "Elder Song is famous outside the world, and our husband and wife have admired it for a long time, so naturally we can't ask for it. However, it depends on the child's own opinion."

Louis: "..."

Hehehe...

We... husband and wife...

It's too slippery to say, hey!

You are not married yet, okay?

Chapter 1030

"Naturally." Song Jin nodded.

So, Selena knelt down and looked at Rick and asked, "Rick, would you like to learn painting from Grandpa Song?"

The little bun touched the fluffy little white rabbit in his arms, blinked, looked at Papa, Mama, and grandpa...

Finally, under Song Jin's apprehensive gaze, Rick finally nodded.

The moment the little guy nodded, Song Jin was so excited that he almost burst into tears, "Okay! Okay! Okay... From now on, you will be my Song Jin's only closed disciple! Master must pass on all the painting skills in this life Give you!"

Then, under Baba Mama's guidance, Rick obediently gave Song Jin the apprenticeship tea according to the steps of apprenticeship, which was regarded as formally worshiping the master.

After the apprenticeship was over, Daniel thought for a while and then said, "However, there is a problem, sir, you live in a remote place..."

"It doesn't matter, I can definitely move for my good apprentice, where do you live, I will move nearby!" Song Jin said very straightforwardly, looking at Rick, the more she liked it, the more she liked it.

His painting methods and skills require extremely high talent and spirituality. In this life, he did not expect to find an heir that would satisfy him. Unexpectedly, God treated him kindly, and finally made him wait for this child.

Selena heard Song Jin's words and didn't even know what to say.

In order to meet this great god, she had to trek across mountains and rivers, but when it was Little bun's turn, Elder Song was so considerate that he came to serve him directly.

Great my baby!

Because it was getting late and it was raining outside, Song Jin, who was in a good mood, asked them all to stay for the night.

Saul lived in a room with Louis, and Selena lived in a room with Daniel and Rick.

Rick seemed to really like that rabbit very much, even when he was sleeping, he wanted to hold it in his arms as a baby.

Daniel saw the rabbit in his son's arms just now, now he glanced at Selena and asked, "Where did the rabbit come from?"

Selena proudly said, "I caught it! I was going to bake it and eat it, but Rick liked it, so I gave it to him to play with! Cute, isn't it? Fluffy! So soft!"

"Cute." Daniel stretched out his broad palm and touched the little rabbit's ears.

When Rick saw it, he immediately hugged the rabbit to Mama's side: "Mine, don't touch it."

Daniel: "..."

Seeing Daniel's deflated look, Selena chuckled, rubbed her head over and said, "Don't be sad, I'll touch it for you!"

small bun:"!!!"

The little guy immediately stuffed the rabbit to Daniel: Papa, you should pet the rabbit!

"Hahahahaha..." Selena covered her stomach when she saw this, laughing uncontrollably.

Looking at his own son, Daniel sighed helplessly. Although the father and son had united the battle line and the general direction remained unchanged, they still fought in the same way when it was time to fight for favor.

"Hey, that's great! In addition to Mr. Gu Wu, our baby now has a painting teacher. It's really both civil and military!" Selena said happily.

Daniel: "Selena."

Daniel suddenly called her seriously, Selena was a little puzzled, "What's the matter?"

Daniel: "Thank you."

Selena: "Why are you thanking me so well?"

Daniel: "Thank you for being so kind to Rick."

Selena touched Rick's head, her eyes were gentle, "I should treat my son well! Isn't bun right?"

Rick nodded decisively.

The night was getting deeper and deeper, there was the patter of rain outside the window, the air was filled with the fragrance of soil, and Rick beside him gradually fell asleep, sleeping soundly...
