Chapter 2041

The moment Selena heard these four words, Selena's pupils suddenly constricted, and a bone-chilling chill appeared in them.

It turned out to be really "Neon Clothes and Feather Clothes".

Dai Wei was so arrogant that he didn't even change a single word.

No wonder Gong Shangze showed such an expression.

Selena looked at the young man who was burning like a flame in the darkness, thought for a while, picked up the phone, edited a text message, and pressed the send button.

Feeling the vibration of the phone, Gong Shangze forced himself to press the unlock button, and opened the message with blurred vision.

The moment he saw that message, the anger that was rampaging in his body that almost made him dizzy, like a wild beast being appeased, calmed down instantly.

There was constant admiration at the scene, the screen was still swiping in the live broadcast room, and Dai Wei, surrounded by the media, was still talking about his mental journey...

In the corner, a young man slowly took off the mask on the bottom, stood up, stood upright in the crowd, and said word by word...

"Neon Clothes and Feather Clothes are my design, and it is my own work!"

This sound was like pouring a basin of cold water into a hot flame, and the warm atmosphere at the scene was suddenly silent, and a needle could be heard.

Everyone's eyes instantly turned from Dai Wei to the young man with cold eyes.

The young man's appearance is exquisite and handsome, but his face is pale without a trace of blood, but the fire in his eyes seems to be able to burn the entire palace.

Dai Wei was enjoying the joy of fame and fortune in his arms, when he suddenly heard this nightmarish voice, it was like a thunderbolt falling from his celestial spirit cover.

When he turned around stiffly and saw the young man's face clearly, he was even more stunned for an instant.

Gong... Gong Shangze!

He actually saw Gong Shangze!

Impossible, how could it be Gong Shangze!

This is absolutely impossible!

He was obviously begging on the Lorraine Street, and he should have died insanelly in a dark alley.

How could it be possible to appear at the scene of Lorraine International Fashion Week in full clothes!

Everyone else's eyes were on Gong Shangze at the moment, and they didn't notice the sudden strangeness on Dai Wei's face.

The media guests at the scene looked at each other in blank dismay, and finally returned home after a long while.

A reporter asked with a sullen expression, "Excuse me, sir, who are you?"

What Gong Shangze is worst at is communicating with people. Even when attending such an occasion, he has to wear a mask to cover himself tightly to feel safe, let alone speak under so many gazes.

The young man's palms were wet with sweat, until he noticed a gaze shining on him in the crowd...

"Zex, chief designer of Zeling, Chinese name, Gong Shangze!" The young man replied clearly.

The moment the young man's voice fell, there was another burst of unbelievable discussions on the scene.

"The chief designer of Zeling?"

"Ah! It turns out that he is the legendary designer zx of Zeling who never showed up!"

"However, what did he mean by what he said just now? He actually said...the neon clothes and feather clothes were designed by him, and he completed the work himself? Isn't this a fantasy? How could history's work be completed by their Zeling designer? ?"

Dai Wei stared at the young man who hadn't seen him for two full years.

Not only did the young man show no trace of downfall, but he was dressed decently, and he even lost his usual timidity in front of people, so that he almost didn't recognize him when he saw it for the first time.

Chapter 2042

What he never expected was that Gong Shangze was Zeling's chief designer!

It turned out that the person who had been against him all this time turned out to be this kid!

No wonder... no wonder!

No wonder Zeling's design style is so similar to Gong Shangze's, it's really him!

What a fate!

There was a fierce look in Dai Wei's eyes, the initial shock and panic gradually turned into disdain and confidence.

Hehe, Aze, I haven't seen you in two years, you are still as naive as ever!

Do you think you can bring me down with mere Zeling?

Do you think that if you say that the neon clothes and feather clothes are your design, everyone will believe you?

Everything is as Dai Wei expected...

Not only did everyone at the scene look at Gong Shangze with strange eyes, but the fans in the domestic live broadcast room spoke even more harshly and blatantly...

"I'm going! Where did this guy come from! Want to be popular and crazy? It's fine to copy and follow the trend of history all the way! Now he directly says that these clothes are his design and made by himself?"

"It's so shameless! If it wasn't for the history to let the world know Hua Guofeng, how could Zeling have the opportunity to be invited to participate in the International Fashion Week!"

"I'm ashamed to go abroad! Get out of Fashion Week, don't be ashamed anymore!"

Amidst the scolding, some rational netizens raised doubts:

"Is there something hidden? The designer of Zeling couldn't possibly say such groundless words on an occasion like today with even a little bit of brains?"

"Actually, Zeling's clothes are quite nice. This time I got the invitation from Lorraine Fashion Week, which is also the international affirmation of Zeling. There is really no need to do such a thing?"

“A designer who only knows how to copy and copy, do you think he has such a thing as a brain? I’m an idiot, and I think we are also idiots!”

“He hasn’t designed any works for a year, okay? His recent works are all based on history, and even the design that won the Golden Summit Award back then is based on history!

The copycat has tasted the sweetness, and now it has to make an inch of it, and simply said that History stole his work! How could there be such a shameless person? “

...

At this moment, there was already a lot of discussion at the scene, and the look in Gong Shangze’s eyes was very strange.

A reporter asked...”Mr. Gong, just now you said that the neon clothes and feather clothes were designed by you. I don’t know what you mean by that?”

Gong Shangze: “Literally, the neon clothes and feather clothes belong to me, and Dai Wei stole my work, not only the neon clothes and feather clothes, but also my design of ‘Spring Scenery’.”

“What did you say...” The reporter who asked the question looked confused.

Dai Wei’s “Spring Garden” that surprised the international fashion circle two years ago was also his design?

“Furong out of the water, forest, late autumn...” Gong Shangze listed more than a dozen theme series of history in one breath, and the specific release time of each series, and finally said: “These are all stolen from me by Dai Wei.” Go design draft!”

In the corner, Dai Wei almost laughed out loud when he heard Gong Shangze’s words.

That expression was full of sympathy and regret, as if looking at a poor creature who knew he was dying but was still dying.

Heh, he knew that this idiot had nothing to fear.

He doesn’t even need to make a move, he can kill himself by himself.

What this Zeling designer named Gong Shangze said today is really amazing.

The leader of Hua Guofeng, the talented Hua Guo designer Dai Wei who is even praised by the fashion godfather, all his famous classics are stolen?

Chapter 2043

The reporter hurriedly asked: "If what you said is true, why didn't you say it before, and you just said that those are the design drafts that Dai Wei stole from you. Is there any evidence?"

Gong Shangze: "No."

Reporter: "Uh..."

Everyone at the scene was speechless when they heard the words.

The scolding in the country is about to block the servers of the live video website.

"Dmn it! See you soon! You are such a fool!"

"You say plagiarism is plagiarism, you say theft is theft, and what you say is yours is yours, so I still say I am your father!"

"The strength is not as good as others, so you can't splash dirty water so mindlessly, right?"

"How did such a small miscellaneous brand that can't get on the table be selected? It's a shame for our country!"

...

“Chi...” Seeing everyone’s reaction, Dai Wei sneered as expected, feeling extremely happy physically and mentally.

I really want to thank this kid for coming to the door to seek death. From then on, he no longer has any worries.

“Director Dai, what do you think of Mr. Gong’s accusation?” The reporters began to turn to Dai Wei.

Hearing this, Dai Wei let out a long sigh, looked in the direction of Gong Shangze with a distressed expression, and said, “Director Gong, more than once someone said that your style is imitating yourself, but you are also a designer of Huaguo, and you walked in Huaguo together. National style line, I respect that you also work hard for the cultural inheritance of Huaguo, and have never said anything about it.

But I didn’t expect that you would turn black and white and choose such a disgraceful way to hit me. They are born from the same root, so why rush each other? “

Dai Wei’s words brought everyone’s shameless emotions to the extreme.

Even the official staff can’t stand it anymore.

At this time, the chairman of the Lorraine Fashion Association and a highly respected senior in the industry, Arcas said in a deep voice, “Mr. Gong, as far as I know, every design draft of designer Dai Wei has a registered copyright, and it is absolutely impossible to fake it.” It is absolutely impossible to plagiarize or steal other people’s works. Unless, you have earlier time to prove.”

Hearing this, Gong Shangze remained silent and did not speak.

Everything about him was looted by Dai Wei, including design drafts, computers, and the pseudonym they had jointly created together. Dai Wei also did the copyright registration at the beginning.

Even if he restored and redrewed those design drafts afterwards, Dai Wei registered first, and if he published it, it would be blatantly stealing Dai Wei, and he would not be able to clear it up by jumping into the Yellow River.

Looking at Gong Shangze's expression, Akas's expression became more severe, and he warned, "Maybe you are dissatisfied because you have been suppressed by history, or maybe you are not angry because you have been accused of plagiarizing history.

However, do you know the consequences of spraying people with blood in the stool without reason, or on an occasion like today?

If you can't give a reasonable explanation, we will revoke Zeling's qualification to be invited, and you will be personally banned by the entire fashion association! "

"What if I can prove that what I said is true?" Facing the official accusations and everyone's contemptuous gazes, the young man's eyes did not waver at all.

The clear and firm eyes of the young man made Arcas pause for a moment, and then he said, "If you can prove that what you said is true, then I can make the decision on behalf of the association, and I will definitely give you a fair verdict."

"Okay." Gong Shangze nodded.

And Dai Wei casually looked at the young man across from him, standing there leisurely, his brows were full of confidence.

Chapter 2044

For those design drafts, he knows the source of inspiration and the process of creation of each one like the palm of his hand, and his understanding is no less than that of Gong Shangze. If Gong Shangze wants to use this method to prove that he is the original one, it would be too naive.

Gong Shangze glanced over the row of models in the middle of the catwalk wearing “Neon Clothes and Feather Coats”, and landed on Dai Wei, “Before I prove it, I would like to ask Director Dai a question.”

Dai Wei: “Yes, please feel free to ask.”

“These six sets of ready-made clothes have used many ancient and exquisite techniques of the Hua Kingdom, especially the embroidery, which can be called exquisite workmanship. It is said that the embroidery on these clothes was all done by you, Director Dai, is that true?” Gong Shangze looked at Dai Wei and spoke coldly.

Dai Wei raised his brows slightly when he heard this, hehe, this kid was waiting for him here!

Dai Wei immediately nodded and said, “Yes, the embroidery on these clothes is extremely difficult, so I did it myself. If the director of the palace doesn’t believe it, I can prove it on the spot.”

Heh, Gong Shangze, do you think I really don’t have two brushes until now?

Hearing Gong Shangze’s question, some people in the field also started talking in low voices.

“Gong Shangze suspects that these ready-made clothes were not made by Dai Wei himself?”

“That Gong Shangze is probably going to be planted this time. Dai Wei is indeed proficient in embroidery, especially Su embroidery, and these suits use the technique of Su embroidery.”

“Also, even if it proves that the clothes weren’t made by Dai Wei, that still doesn’t prove that the blueprints weren’t designed by Dai Wei?”

...

Gong Shangze ignored the whispers around him, and said directly, “No need.”

Listening to the fights and injustices around, Dai Wei chuckled, and said in a good-tempered manner, “It’s okay, everyone communicates with each other, and it’s normal to have doubts.”

After Dai Wei finished speaking, he looked at those exquisite and gorgeous dresses with emotion, and said in a tone of reminiscence, “Our Huaguo’s clothing culture is extensive and profound, and the craftsmanship is even more exquisite. Bring culture to the world stage.

Therefore, in addition to the design, I have also done in-depth research on the handicrafts of Huaguo. It is a very meaningful process for me to turn the drawings into real objects! “

Although a good designer does not necessarily have to be a good tailor, but a designer with top craftsmanship must be able to better understand clothing.

Dai Wei’s words were immediately recognized by many industry peers present.

Gong Shangze just stood there quietly from the beginning to the end, without saying a word.

After Dai Wei finished speaking, the young man suddenly took steps and walked slowly towards the center of the catwalk step by step.

The sight of strangers is like a glare, and the serious social barriers make every step of the young people like walking on ice blades.

However, he knew that he couldn’t stop, he couldn’t quit the night.

There is a person who is always watching him.

Seeing Gong Shangze walking on the stage suddenly, everyone looked at him curiously.

Everyone’s eyes were full of impatience.

“What is this man trying to do?”

“It’s a good international fashion feast, and it’s so messed up by a clown!”

“He should have been kicked out just now!”

There were more and more voices of dissatisfaction in the audience, Gong Shangze finally walked in front of one of the models in neon clothes and feather clothes.

With fingers that were so white that they were almost transparent, they carefully picked up the model's wide cuffs, and slowly turned the cuffs upwards.

In the next second, the young man's eyes shot towards Dai Wei on the opposite side like a sharp knife...

"Then, now, I would like to ask Director Dai a second question. May I ask why you embroidered my name on your work?"

"What?" Dai Wei's expression changed upon hearing that.

In the next second, the lens of the high-definition camera zoomed in.

On the huge screen behind the crowd, on the back of the sleeves embroidered with exquisite patterns in Gong Shangze's hands, there were three clear Chinese characters embroidered in neat official script...Gong Shangze!

Chapter 2045

Under the high-definition camera, the texture of the clothing material and every stitch and thread of embroidery can be clearly seen.

The three characters "Gong Shangze" embroidered with gold thread were clearly displayed in front of everyone present and all the audience watching the live broadcast on the other side of the ocean.

There are professional simultaneous interpreters throughout Lorraine Fashion Week.

Now, after hearing Gong Shangze's words and seeing the three words on the big screen with the sleeves turned upside down, many foreign industry insiders began to ask the surrounding Huaguo companions.

"What is that? Huaguo's characters? The designer actually said that was his name?"

"That's right, that's the text of our Huaguo, and it's indeed the designer's name!"

"God! It's impossible!"

Everyone in the circle knows that many designers like to leave a special small mark on their most proud works that only they know. It may be a symbol with special meaning, or it may be their own name or initials.

But I've never heard of someone leaving someone else's name on their work.

At this moment, Dai Wei stared at the words "Gong Shangze" on the big screen as if he had seen a ghost, his heart was beating wildly, and his forehead was sweating like rain.

"Uh, what's going on here? Why is Gong Shangze's name embroidered on Dai Wei's work?"

"Could it have been tampered with?"

"Just now Gong Shangze specifically asked Dai Wei whether the embroidery on these clothes was embroidered by himself, and Dai Wei swears that it is!"

"Oh my god! This flip...couldn't the neon clothes and feather clothes really be stolen by Dai Wei?"

"Then the sources of Dai Wei's other designs are worth investigating!"

...

Listening to the surrounding discussions, Dai Wei's limbs were numb, his hands and feet were cold, and he subconsciously looked towards a certain position in the front row.

Susie's expression was already extremely ugly.

Dmn it!

how come!

Gong Shangze is an idiot, he is as unsuspecting of him as a fool, how could he think of doing such a thing on his clothes back then!

And why did he check these clothes countless times, but he didn't find them for such a long time!

The worst thing is that this kid dug a hole for him just now, and made him say on the spot that all the embroidery on these clothes was embroidered by himself.

There is no way to change it now!

Suddenly, Dai Wei's brain was almost about to explode.

At this time, Arcas, the president of the Lorraine Clothing Association, had strode onto the stage to check the clothes in person.

As a result, under inspection, six sets of ready-made clothes, without exception, all had Gong Shangze's name on the inconspicuous position on the back of the cuffs of each set.

In an instant, the scene was in an uproar!

The domestic fans who were watching the live broadcast were all dumbfounded.

What's happening here?

Dai Wei exhibited Gong Shangze's name embroidered on each of the neon clothes and feather coats. What's the matter?

On the stage, after checking the clothes, Akas cast sharp eyes on Dai Wei who was opposite him, "Director Dai, can you explain?"

Dai Wei came back to his senses in a jerk, swallowed, tried to maintain his composure, and said with an incredulous expression, “How could this happen! It’s impossible! How could I embroider on my work?” Names of other designers, this embroidery was not made by me at all!”

Chapter 2046

Akas’s expression was serious, “However, just now you have admitted that all the embroidery on the clothes is done by you alone.”

Dai Wei said without changing his expression, “That’s true, but I really don’t know why the word Gong Shangze appears on my work!”

Dai Wei made up his mind to deny it to the end.

Seeing this, everyone on the field couldn’t make up their minds for a while.

“Uh, could it be that these clothes were secretly tampered with later?”

“I think it’s very possible!”

“It must be like this, otherwise it wouldn’t make sense!”

...

Compared with Gong Shangze, who is unknown in the international fashion circle, everyone subconsciously believes in Dai Wei more.

Because of Dai Wei’s hint, everyone naturally wondered if the clothes had been tampered with.

Hearing this, Akas pondered, “It really cannot be ruled out that someone will embroider these patterns without your knowledge.”

Dai Wei breathed a sigh of relief when he heard his expected reply.

However, before the smugness at the corner of Dai Wei's mouth could bloom, he saw the young man beside Akas say with a firm tone, expressionless, "Impossible."

Immediately, everyone's eyes fell on the young man again.

Arcas frowned slightly and asked, "Why is it impossible?"

Because of the big reversal just now, this time, no one spoke easily, and everyone waited and stared with bated breath, waiting for the young man's answer.

Gong Shangze held up a corner of his sleeve, and replied word by word: "Because, for this part of the embroidery, I used the technique of double-sided three-different embroidery."

Double-sided three different embroidery?

what is this?

After hearing this extremely uncommon term, there was another buzz of discussion at the scene.

"Uh, what is double-sided three-different embroidery?"

"I don't know, I've never heard of it!"

"I've heard of double-sided embroidery, which is a very difficult one-handed embroidery technique. Single-sided embroidery only requires the neatness of the front side, regardless of the stitching lines on the reverse side, while double-sided embroidery requires the front and back to be equally neat and dense. "

...

What Gong Shangze said is something that even the people of Hua Country don't understand, even the industry insiders in Hua Country only have a half-knowledge, let alone those foreigners, everyone is completely confused at the moment.

Just then, a middle-aged man in white linen casual clothes came onto the stage.

Seeing this, everyone exclaimed excitedly...

"It's Qu Guanyang!"

"That's right! Teacher Qu must know!"

...

Akas was in a dilemma, and when he saw Qu Guanyang coming over, he breathed a sigh of relief, "Qu, I'm afraid this will trouble you even more!"

"President Akas, you are being polite." Qu Guanyang nodded and exchanged a few words with Akas, and then his deep eyes glanced at the young man beside Akas.

The first time I saw this young man was at the Golden Summit Awards. The youth's design style was accused of copying Dai Wei, but in the end he won the Golden Summit Award with full marks for his strength.

I didn't expect to meet again under such a situation.

Gong Shangze's clear and clean eyes looked back at the middle-aged man calmly.

Under everyone's nervous and curious eyes, Qu Guanyang quickly withdrew his gaze, and began to carefully examine the embroidery of the three characters "Gong Shangze" on each piece of clothing in turn.

Time passed by every minute and every second...

After an unknown amount of time, Qu Guanyang finally put down the corner of his clothes.

Chapter 2047

Qu Guanyang looked at the crowd, and then said slowly, “The embroidery in our country is usually single-sided embroidery, but there is a more difficult embroidery technique called double-sided embroidery.

Double-sided embroidery is one of the excellent national traditional crafts of Huaguo. It is a kind of variant embroidery, also known as ‘two-sided light’. It is on the same base material, in the same embroidery process, the front and back images are embroidered, the outlines are exactly the same, the patterns are equally exquisite, and can be appreciated by people. “

“Mr. Qu, what is the double-sided three-different embroidery that Gong Shangze mentioned?” Someone asked impatiently.

Qu Guanyang continued to explain, “Among the double-sided embroidery, there is another kind known to many people, which is called double-sided heterochromatic embroidery. As the name suggests, it is to embroider works with the same pattern but different colors on both sides at the same time. “

Speaking of this, Qu Guanyang paused, and said in a slightly excited tone, “Very few people know that there is one of the most difficult embroidery methods, which is what the palace designer just said, double-sided three-different embroidery!

Double-sided three-different embroidery is invented on the basis of double-sided different colors. The front and back of the embroidery are different, different needles and different colors. That is, the corresponding parts on the front and back sides have different patterns, different stitching methods, and different colors. Different drafts, different needles, and different colors, hence the name double-sided three different embroidery! “

“I see!”

There was a sound of exclamation at the scene, and everyone was intoxicated by the exquisite traditional skills of Huaguo described by Qu Guanyang.

At this moment, Qu Guanyang finally came to a conclusion: “I have just seen it. These six sets of clothes and the text design on the cuffs are embroidered with double-sided three different embroidery methods. That is to say, this part The embroidery must have been done at the same time, and there is absolutely no possibility of adding it later!”

The moment Qu Guanyang’s voice fell, everyone woke up suddenly, with a look of sudden realization on their faces.

“In other words, these embroidery must be embroidered at one time, there is no possibility of being tampered with!”

“Then Dai Wei is lying!”

In the opposite corner, Dai Wei’s face had already changed when Gong Shangze said the words “double-sided three-different embroidery”. At this moment, after listening to Qu Guanyang’s words, he was completely frozen there. The calm and composed expression on his face could no longer hold back, the cold sweat dripping from his forehead fell drop by drop onto the bright floor...

Under more and more strange gazes, Dai Wei no longer cared about his image, picked up his sleeves and wiped the sweat off his forehead, and said with trembling lips, “Actually, I did embroider these words Yes! I like the design of the palace designer, embroidering his name is just to motivate myself!”

right! That’s it!

So what if Gong Shangze’s name is on his works?

Whose name he embroiders on his work is his freedom!

Hearing Dai Wei’s justification, Qu Guanyang sneered suddenly, “Double-sided three-different embroidery is the highest level of craftsmanship in today’s embroidery field. Even among the 100,000 embroiderers in Szhou, the hometown of Suzhou embroidery, there are only a few who possess this skill.” Since Director Dai said that you embroidered the double-sided three-different embroidery, how about you prove it to us on the spot?”

Just now, didn’t he take the initiative to say to Gong Shangze that he can prove that these embroidery are done by himself at any time?

The moment Qu Guanyang's words fell, the last string in Dai Wei's brain finally broke, his face was ashamed, he couldn't stand anymore, his legs were limp, and he collapsed on the ground...

Chapter 2048

At this moment, those domestic fans who swore to defend history and crazily bit Gong Shangze were all dumbfounded.

"This... what's going on here! The neon clothes and feather clothes are not made by Dai Wei at all, but Gong Shangze's work?"

"My God! Dai Wei is lying from the beginning to the end. He really stole Zeling's design, and even all his famous works are designed by Gong Shangze! How could this be so! It's so broken! "

Amidst the shocking swiping of the screen, some people still did not give up, "Even if it proves that the neon clothes and feather clothes were not made by Dai Wei himself, that still doesn't prove that the design draft was not done by him?"

Such remarks were immediately countered by many people.

"Some people always say that others are idiots, but I think he himself is the idiot! He's still cleaning up for Dai Wei at this time, if the design draft of the neon clothes and feather clothes was not drawn by Gong Shangze, then Gong Shangze Did Ze make these suits out of thin air?"

"Obviously he didn't make the clothes, but he still pretended to be arrogant in front of the whole world, saying that he made them himself, and showed off how good his skills are. He didn't repent when he saw Gong Shangze's name on the clothes. He continued to frame him without changing his face, saying that someone else had tampered with him.

After being exposed on the spot that the double-sided three-different embroidery cannot be tampered with, he shamelessly said that he embroidered Gong Shangze's name on his clothes for the ridiculous reason of motivation! It wasn't until Qu Guanyang slapped him in the face that he finally had nothing to say!

As the chief designer of the brand, the so-called No. 1 person of international Chinese style, his words and deeds are so inconsistent, and he has been lying from beginning to end. How credible is this person's words? It is doubtful whether his previous works are original or not! In short, this time I stand Gong Shangze! “

Afterwards, many people asked, “But how could Gong Shangze's design be stolen by Dai Wei? Not only the design draft was registered by Dai Wei, but even the ready-made clothes fell into Dai Wei's hands. Strange!”

...

Not only the audience who were watching the live broadcast, but also all the guests and industry insiders were surprised by this question.

All of a sudden, everyone's eyes, including Akas and Qu Guanyang, fell on Gong Shangze.

Facing the gazes from all over the world, Gong Shangze's emotions were surging. He had waited and endured for so long. Finally, someone was willing to listen to him about this secret. He finally gained the right to speak...

The young man took a deep breath, and then slowly began to say:

“At that time, Dai Wei and I co-founded a clothing studio called Nishang. Because I am not good at socializing and dealing with people, I was in charge of design, and Dai Wei was in charge of all operations of the studio.

Our studio went from being unattended at the beginning to being known by more and more people. Later, our studio opened abroad and began to seek a wider world.

Gradually, many investors began to hope to cooperate with us.

I have always regarded Dai Wei as the most trusted partner, never intervening in all affairs of the studio, only concentrating on creation, and entrusting all designs to him for safekeeping.

Unexpectedly, he had secretly registered all my designs in his own name. After transferring all my designs, he ransacked the studio and signed a contract with the investor alone, completely obliterating me and the existence of Nishang , established the later history! “

“As for the neon clothes and feather clothes, it took me two years to complete the work, and it was originally prepared to participate in the International Fashion Week one day.

At the beginning, there was a sudden fire in our sample room. Dai Wei told me at the time that all the neon clothes and feather clothes were destroyed in the fire... It was not until today that I found out that the neon clothes and feather clothes were not burned, but were burned. He has taken over! “

The scene was so quiet that there was no sound. Everyone was listening intently to the young man’s trembling anger, and his mood fluctuated with the young man’s words.

Gong Shangze paused, and then continued, “Perhaps, I should thank him for his greed, if not for this, I would not be able to prove my innocence at all, and no one would believe my words.

When he became the chief designer of history, amazed the whole world with “a garden full of spring”, became the leader of China in the clothing industry, and became the pride of the whole China, I was begging on the streets of Lorraine because I was penniless .

Just ask, who would believe a beggar?

Even later, I became the chief designer of Zeling, because history was established first, and all of Dai Wei's famous works were stolen from my design drafts, so that my own designs have always been considered by everyone to follow the trend Plagiarizing history..."

Hearing this, everyone was furious to the extreme.

"Oh my god! This... this is simply too shameless!"

"No wonder Zeling's design style is so similar to History! I didn't expect the truth to be like this! History was originally designed by Gong Shangze, can it be different?"

"Dmn! I've been helping History scold Zeling for copying dogs!"

...

Listening to the young man's words, Qu Guanyang was filled with emotion.

At the time of the Golden Summit Award, he was already wondering why Zeling's design was so similar to History's design, not in shape but in spirit, as if they were made by the same person.

It turned out that his judgment was not wrong at the beginning. The fact is that history and Zeling were really made by the same person.

Later, although the design of history still kept the original style, he always felt that there was a lack of aura, probably because the design drafts stolen by Dai Wei had been used up at that time, and none of the later works were from Gong Shangze. .

Akas, the president of the Lorraine Fashion Association, looked sharply at Dai Wei who finally stood up in the corner, "Dai Wei, do you have anything else to say about Gong Shangze's accusation against you?"

Dai Wei's eyes were cracked, and his chest heaved violently.

No...he absolutely can't be ruined just like that...

Even if he lied, even if he didn't make the neon clothes and feather clothes himself, he still has the possibility of making a comeback, but if it is proved that even the designs are all stolen from others, then he is really finished!

Dai Wei yelled angrily, "He spouts blood! The history is created by me, and every design draft is also designed by myself. I just hired professionals to complete the embroidery for the neon clothes and feather clothes because the technique is too complicated. Part, I can apologize for deceiving everyone!

But, who knew that the person who took this job was actually Gong Shangze, and Gong Shangze took advantage of him. He not only intentionally left his name on the clothes, but also falsely accused me of stealing all my designs from him. absurd! History has been established for three full years. How many design drafts can I steal to make History still the number one brand of Huaguofeng! "

Chapter 2050

Arcas fell into thought again when he heard this.

You know, Dai Wei can be said to be single-handedly selected by him. He was the one who introduced Dai Wei to AAD, and he also absorbed Dai Wei into the International Fashion Association, and let him hold an important position.

If Dai Wei really did exactly what Gong Shangze said, he, the president, cannot escape the blame.

Therefore, Akas cautiously confirmed with Gong Shangze again, "Mr. Gong, can you prove that the neon clothes and feather clothes and Dai Wei's other designs are all stolen from your work?"

Between the seats, Susie finally relaxed a little from her tense expression when she saw that things had turned around.

And somewhere in the front row of seats, Selena tapped her forehead with her tender fingers, and chuckled softly, "Tsk, I really don't cry when I see the coffin..."

Selena murmured, and then calmly sent a text message with her mobile phone.

Soon, a staff member in the hall hurried to Arcas's side and whispered something in his ear.

Arcas frowned slightly, and remained silent for a long time, before finally nodding his head.

After a while.

As if waiting for Dai Wei's dying struggle at this moment, countless design drafts were suddenly released on the huge screen behind him.

Everyone was discussing and looked up, and Dai Wei was also staring at the big screen, an extremely ominous premonition gradually emerged in his heart...

On the huge screen, a series of classic and famous works of history appeared.

On the right side of Dai Wei's design drafts are similar design drafts, and the signature on those design drafts is Gong Shangze's name.

The design draft on the right seems to be the same as the one on the left, but upon closer inspection, there are many subtle differences, and those differences, like the finishing touch, instantly catch everyone's eyes.

People in the industry still can't see what this means, perhaps some of the designs that Dai Wei took away are semi-finished products, but now, these semi-finished products have been perfected by the original designer Gong Shangze.

The matter has developed here, and it is far from over.

Immediately afterwards, Dai Wei's designs from the past year appeared on the big screen.

Although these designs are similar in style, even those who don't know how to do it can see that they don't seem to have the aura of the previous designs.

Next to those design drafts, there are exactly the same design patterns, but the signatures on those patterns are all different names.

"Hey, what's going on here?"

"Exactly the same design draft, but all have different signatures, what do you mean?"

...

After Dai Wei saw those design drafts that were exactly the same but signed other people's names, the blood on his face immediately faded, and panic poured out of his eyes...

Before he could react, a video jumped out, and a man wearing a mask appeared on the screen.

The man's timid voice resounded clearly in the hall, "Since a year ago, Dai Wei asked me to secretly help him find a large number of designers with Chinese and national style. Satisfied with the most suitable design draft, pay high remuneration!"

Most of the designers who took over the job were impoverished because they had no network resources, so such a job was a dream. These are Dai Wei's remittance records to me, all his designs over the past year have been bought from me..."

Surprise, sky, ugliness, smell... It was completely exposed to everyone's attention.

History's chief designer turned out to be a thief, a liar who was full of lies, who didn't even understand design at all, and could only steal other people's works!
