

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 591

The man let out a muffled snort, and slowly opened his eyes. The stars in his eyes leaked out bit by bit, reflecting her panicked and bewildered face...

Selena swallowed, and rolled her eyes, thinking about how to explain this stupid situation.

Dmn it! It's so hard to explain this situation!

It's not so difficult to explain the rape in bed!

Selena's brain was about to explode, but in the next second, she knew that this little excitement was nothing at all, because Daniel stared at her for a few seconds with those obviously not yet awake eyes. , suddenly turned over suddenly...

Selena felt her world spinning for a while. In the next second, she was already pressed on the bed. She was dizzy and hadn't realized what was going on. A shadow fell closer and closer on her head, and then there was a tingling pain on her lips. The man k!ssed him fiercely. . . .

Selena was completely bewildered by Daniel's sudden behavior, and the air in her chest was getting thinner, so her brain couldn't concentrate on thinking at all.

Even, the feelings that had been suppressed in her heart for a long time were almost drawn out by this reckless k!ss like the end of the world, and she almost couldn't help but respond to him.

What's worse, because she was too close, she suddenly noticed the intense reaction under the man in the morning...

fcuk! Selena! Sober sober! The fcuking little baby is still sleeping next to it!

Helplessly, she woke up, but Daniel didn't. This k!ss seemed to tear her apart.

Selena had no choice but to bite down hard, and a bloody smell filled her mouth instantly.

Daniel frowned and moved slowly.

Selena took advantage of this second to push him away quickly, panting, "Hey, Daniel! You...are you sleepwalking?"

Uh, if it's sleepwalking, it's useless to ask!

No, shouldn't sleepwalking be at night? It's bright today!

While he was in a daze, the man above his head who was a little more awake said hoarsely: "No."

Selena blinked her eyes, her heart skipped a beat, didn't she?

Daniel inserted his slender fingers into his messy hair, and the luster still remained in his eyes, "Sorry, I didn't wake up just now, I thought I was in a dream."

Selena: "..."

this answer...

What can she say?

Uh, could it be that the Great Demon King actually wanted to do such a thing to her in his dream? ? ? ?

Moreover, Daniel's personality just now was really different from Daniel's personality when he was in front of her. The k!ss just now was simply too domineering!

It's so overbearing that it even makes people feel a little flustered...

"What were you... just now?" Before Selena could speak, Daniel asked suddenly, and with one sentence, he changed his position from a wrongdoer to a victim.

Hearing this question, Selena really felt guilty, "That... that... I said I don't know if you believe me?"

Daniel looked at her deeply, with an expression of disbelief.

Selena's expression was extremely sincere, "Master Boss, I swear to God, I really don't know how I fell asleep like this when I woke up! Actually, I usually sleep pretty well... Anyway, this is an accident!"

Chapter 592

Selena muttered softly after finishing speaking, "Besides, you treated me like this and that just now...however, it's evened out, right?"

Daniel seemed to think about it for a while, then nodded and said, "Okay, it's even."

Selena finally breathed a sigh of relief.

However, as soon as I was relieved, I felt that something was wrong. This is not right... There is no even, it is clear that she is at a disadvantage, right?

Forget it, who told her to go there first, otherwise Daniel wouldn't have done what happened later...

"Um...Master Boss, can you get up for a while? I'm going to make breakfast!" Selena asked weakly.

Daniel did not leave immediately, but looked at her motionlessly, his eyes getting darker and darker.

Selena still didn't know what she looked like at the moment.

The girl lying under him had a touching blush on her cheeks, her lips were swollen from kisses, her pajamas were a little messy, and her long black hair was splashed on the white pillow like ink...

Daniel couldn't help but ask himself, how did he hold back?

"Daniel?" Selena was a little apprehensively stared at.

Daniel came back to his senses, got up and got out of bed, Selena immediately ran away like a rabbit...

Selena skillfully prepared a table full of flavor and nutrition for breakfast, and then went to call Daniel and Rick over to eat.

Little bun seemed to be very happy today, his pink and jade-carved face was brighter than usual, and he ate more breakfast than usual.

Selena originally thought that the idea of keeping Daniel here for the night last night was really inappropriate, but now, seeing Rick's happy face, she began to rejoice at her decision to keep Daniel.

In her heart, Rick will always come first, as long as Rick is happy, everything else is just floating clouds...

After breakfast, it was still early, so Daniel sat on the sofa and read the newspaper. The little bun stuck to Daniel's side, and he took a book that Selena couldn't understand, and used the clipboard to communicate with Daniel.

Under the sun, one big and one small are like a warm oil painting, inexplicably giving people a feeling of tranquility and stability in this world.

Until, Selena's cell phone rang suddenly.

Selena looked down, her heart skipped a beat, it was her grandpa calling...

Daniel saw that her expression was not right, and asked aloud, "What's the matter? Who's calling?"

"My grandpa!" Selena frowned. Didn't we make an agreement last night? Has grandpa changed his mind again?

Selena scratched her head, and answered the phone with some worry, "Hello, grandpa..."

"Selena! Let me ask you, is there something you are hiding from me?" On the other end of the phone, the old man asked without saying a word, and his tone was extremely serious.

Selena was stunned for a moment, "Ah? No! Grandpa, what are you referring to?"

"About Xi Shiqing!"

Hearing this name, Selena immediately had a bad feeling. Could it be that Xi Shiqing said something in front of Grandpa? He didn't tell his family as they agreed?

No way? Xi Shiqing is not that kind of person!

"Grandpa, what's wrong with Mr. Xi? I really don't know what you're talking about!"

On the other side of the phone, the old man's tone was very excited, "You don't know? Then tell me, why is he going to become a monk today after meeting you yesterday!"

fcuk!

What did grandpa just say?

Selena was completely stunned by the old man's words, "Grandpa, you... cough cough, what did you say? Become a monk????"

Chapter 593

"Xi Shiqing wants to become a monk??? Grandpa, are you sure? Grandpa, are you lying to me?" Selena couldn't believe what the old man said.

Hearing Selena's conversation with her grandfather, Daniel on the side also showed a slightly surprised expression, and then frowned...

I thought that Xi Shiqing had completely resolved it after last night, but who knew that such an accident would happen.

On the other end of the phone, the old man said angrily, "You child, what did I lie to you for? That kid from the Xi family is already in the temple right now, and he will be shaved in the afternoon. It is absolutely true, but how can this be a lie?" you?"

Hearing this, Selena was completely confused, and said with a bitter face, "This... can't it be? Is there some other reason? Why do you have to say it's because of me?"

“What other reasons could there be? Before he left, he was fine. After returning from having dinner with you, he suddenly talked to his family, saying that he was going to a temple to become a monk! You are the most suspicious!” the old man said earnestly, “Selena, you have to think about it, what happened when the two of you were having dinner last night! It’s not a trivial matter to become a monk! If it’s related to you, how do you want me to explain to your grandpa Xi? ”

The more Selena thought about it now, the more guilty she felt...

In fact, a lot of things did happen last night...

Could it be... Could it be that she used too much force last night to make Xi Shiqing give up?

I go! No matter how hard you try, you won’t be able to become a monk, right?

“Grandpa, where are you now?” She seemed to hear a vague chanting on the other end of the phone.

“I’m at Fahua Temple, and Shiqing’s grandfather and parents are there. Selena, no matter what, you should come here first, I can’t tell you clearly on the phone.”

“Okay, I see, Grandpa, don’t worry, I’ll be right there!”

After hanging up the phone, Selena glanced at Daniel with complicated eyes, hey, once the big demon king made a move, it was so lethal?

“Xi Shiqing wants to become a monk?” Daniel asked.

Selena nodded, “Yes, and it seems that because of me, I have to go to Fahua Temple now.”

“I’ll accompany you.”

"Uh, let's forget it, what if people see you and are so irritated that they can't think about it?" Selena said with a bitter face.

"I'll just take you to the gate of the temple."

"But, you're going to work soon!"

"I don't have anything to do in the morning. There is a meeting. Saul can host it for me." After Daniel finished speaking, he had already called Saul.

Saul's cheerful voice came from the other end of the phone, "Hey, brother, why are you calling me so early? Tsk tsk, there's something wrong..."

"I can't make it to the meeting in the morning, you can chair it." Daniel's tone was calm and unremarkable.

Saul immediately became excited when he heard that, "Ah... can't we make it?! What happened last night? Could it be that you and Selena..."

"Xi Shiqing is going to become a monk, so I'll accompany Selena to Fahua Temple." Daniel's words interrupted Saul's uncontrollable thoughts.

"Pfft..." Saul on the other end of the phone spat decisively, "A monk? Brother, are you kidding me?"

After hanging up the phone, Saul still couldn't react. The development of this plot is really too unreal...

Most importantly, how could he not be present at such an important moment?

Saul decisively called the head of a certain department and asked him to preside over the meeting, and then quietly ran to Fahua Temple.

Chapter 594

Fahua Temple.

Daniel waited in the car with Rick, while Selena quickly got out of the car and rushed to find Grandpa and the others.

Bypassing the crowd who came to offer incense early in the morning, Selena walked straight towards the courtyard behind the main hall, walked through several corridors, and saw a familiar figure in a courtyard, besides Xi Boyi and The two middle-aged people, a man and a woman, should be Xi Shiqing's parents.

"grandfather..."

"Selena, you're here! Come quickly!" Seeing his granddaughter coming, Ning Zhiyuan hurriedly stood up and led her over.

"Grandpa Xi, Uncle, Auntie..." Selena greeted them one by one, feeling a little uneasy.

Seeing Selena, the three members of the Xi family greeted Selena excitedly. Mother Xi grabbed her hand as if seeing a savior, "You are Selena? You are really a good boy. Praise you for being excellent!"

Selena originally thought that Mama Xi would scold her, but she didn't expect to praise her, so she couldn't help being a little stunned.

"Good boy, don't be nervous. Your grandpa said it too seriously on the phone just now. We all know that this matter has nothing to do with you. Qingqing actually told us last night that you two think each other's personality is more suitable for you." friend..."

Hearing this, Selena was relieved and felt guilty again.

She even suspected Xi Shiqing before, but she didn't expect that he didn't say anything after he went back, and kept saying good things for her.

Doing evil... Now she really hopes that Xi Shiqing is an ignorant dude, so that she can deal with it better, but...

Mama Xi pulled her, and continued with red eyes, "There is no other reason for calling you here, but we have thought about everything we can think of, but we don't know why Qingqing wants to become a monk suddenly, so I hold on to the last ray of hope." Called you out! Last night, I saw Qingqing's tone, and I admired you very much. You can talk so well, maybe he can listen to your persuasion, good boy, can you help auntie persuade Qingqing? "

Mr. Xi said from the side, "What admiration, I think this kid has probably taken a fancy to Selena, and likes this girl! When I said that I arranged a blind date for him that day, he originally refused, but I always He said it was Miss Ning's family, and he immediately asked me who I was, and I said it was Selena, and he immediately agreed..."

"Then why did he say that Selena wasn't his type after he came back, and that he was more suitable to be friends?" Xi's mother was puzzled.

At this time, Papa Xi said, "It's not that you don't know your son's personality. He is so passive, he doesn't fight for anything, and he likes Buddhism at a young age, which makes his temper even weaker...I think it's probably Selena. First show that you don't have feelings for him, and then he hides his true thoughts!"

Before Selena could explain it to them, the elders had already figured out the general process by themselves.

Although there is still a discrepancy with the reality, it's good to let them misunderstand like this, so that she doesn't know what to say.

Listening to Papa Xi's analysis, Mama Xi also felt that it was possible, "Could it be that Qingqing really can't think about it because of this matter...Is this impossible?"

Xi's father looked solemn, "I was worried about this day when he was obsessed with Buddhism before, and sure enough... He should have been stopped from getting in touch with these messy hobbies early in the morning!"

Chapter 595

Mr. Xi originally wanted to scold "how can this be a messy hobby", but when he thought of his grandson's current situation, he could only keep silent.

Although he believes in Buddhism, it doesn't mean he can accept his grandson to be a monk...

From the conversation between Xi's father, Xi's mother, and Grandpa Xi, Selena knew why Xi Shiqing was such a nice person.

These elders are very gentle and considerate people. They comforted her first when they came here. Even now, they have not had a word of doubt or accusation. They are all looking for reasons from themselves.

Because of this, Selena felt even more guilty.

The son who was brought up so hard by others turned out to become a monk because he became a monk. This is really sinful!

Originally, she was still a little uncertain, but after listening to their conversation just now, since they couldn't find any other reason after searching, it could only be because of the incident last night. At that time, Xi Shiqing's demeanor...was really not right... ..

"Well, I've been here anyway, although I'm not sure, but let me try my best?" Selena suggested.

Mama Xi immediately expressed gratitude when she heard the words, "That's great! Selena, thank you so much!"

Xi's father's expression also eased a little, "You don't need to be stressed, this matter has nothing to do with you, just give it a try!"

Although the two comforted Selena, they were obviously very nervous. After all, Selena was their only hope at this moment.

Selena took a deep breath and walked towards the location of the meditation room that Mama Xi had told her about.

Behind him, Ning Zhiyuan sighed deeply, "I hope Selena can persuade Shi Qing..."

In fact, he hardly had any hope, because the child seemed very determined this time, even if Selena was really involved, he probably wouldn't be able to persuade him to turn back.

Selena finally found the meditation room where Xi Shiqing was staying.

Walking along a bluestone step to the end, I saw a small courtyard with a quiet environment. Several plum blossoms bloomed in the courtyard, emitting a quiet fragrance, which is refreshing and makes people relax instantly.

The door of the meditation room was open, only a straw curtain swayed gently in the breeze and made a rattling sound. Apart from that, the air was quiet without any sound. Compared with the outside, it was like two worlds.

Selena climbed up the steps, walked slowly to the door, hesitated for a moment, then stretched out her hand and opened the curtain.

After opening the curtain, the first thing that comes into view is a window. Outside the window is a large bamboo forest. Inside the window is a screen filled with scriptures. Behind the screen, Xi Shiqing is sitting quietly on a futon. Holding a volume of scriptures in his hand, his expression was pious and focused, or in other words, pure-hearted and ascetic.

Even though he was still wearing a layman's suit at the moment, his demeanor was that of a monk.

Seeing Xi Shiqing like that made Selena startled.

It was only for one night, how could he suddenly be a different person?

Although his temperament was very dusty before, at least he was still very smokey, but now, he is completely disillusioned!

Selena suddenly had a headache. Xi Shiqing's situation was more difficult than she imagined!

No, I can't back down, Nima, I have to be responsible for the sins I have committed, not to mention that Xi's father, Xi, mother and old man outside are still waiting for her news.
